PATTERSON GETTING ALL SET

NEW YORK (1) - Heavy-weight champion Floyd Patterson says the condition of Tommy "Hurricane" Jackson won't deter him from going all out against Olympic champion Pete

Rademacher in their Aug. 22 title bout in Seattle. Jackson, floored three times and dealt a fearful beating by Patterson at the Polo Grounds Monday night, was reported "resting comfortably" in hospital at East Meadow, N.Y.

Asked if he feared he might injure the professionally-unproven Olympic heavyweight champion of 1956, Patterson replied: "No. I would have to regard him as I did Jackson and other strong opponents. He's a big, strong fellow, I heard.  $\frac{m}{k^2}$ He's been boxing 10 years and anyone who wins an Olympic ሉ title has to be good to beat the worlds best amateurs."

Patterson has been guaranteed $250,000 for the fight and the his manager, Gus D'Amato, said Rademacher's backers also have put an additional $100,000 in escrow to guarantee a return bout should Pete win the title.
