

Frederick Lindsay Wed To Isabelle Lopushinsky

Traditional white satin was chosen by Miss Isabelle Lopushinsky for the evening candlelight ceremony Saturday when she exchanged marriage vows with Frederick Howard Lindsay in First United church.

Rev. Vernon E. MacEachern officiated for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Lopushinsky of Russell, Manitoba, and the son of Mrs. Elsie Lindsay of Massett, B.C.

Walking down the aisle on the arm of her brother William Lopushinsky, the bride wore a floor-length gown fashioned with tiers of net skirts—overskirt puffed with lace roses.

The bouffant skirt was emphasized with a lace panel flaring from a fitted bodice to the skirt hemline. A lace jacket, featuring 18-point sleeves and stand-up collar topped the gown. Her white finger-tip illusion veil was secured by a pearl-studded coronet and she carried a colonial bouquet of red roses.

Bridesmaid Miss Janette Spark in contrast, wore a three-quarter length gown in a soft mauve shade. A lace overskirt accented the voluminous skirt. A flowered headress of yellow carnations matched her bouquet.

Warren Lindsay attended his brother as best man and ushers were Donald Roberts and Sam Lopushinsky, brother of the bride. John Currie was organist at the reception. In the Sons of Norway hall, Mrs. William Lopushinsky, receiving in place of the bride's mother who was unable to attend, wore a navy blue net-over-pink taffeta formal gown and pink accessories.

Teen Talk

By SUE KERGIN

Hello, everybody! I mentioned previously that the Teen Club was interested in doing its part for "Operation Hungary." The T-C has a chance now, to help in a necessary community function. On Saturday night, at 9 o'clock there will be a "Kitchen Dance" in the Civic Centre.

The groom's mother chose a blue figured gown with lace effects and white accessories.

Toast to the bride was proposed by R. W. MacLachan, who also acted as master of ceremonies.

A three-tiered wedding cake was served from the bridal table which was decorated with two bouquets of artificial roses and carnations made by the groom's mother. Two matching bouquets in general, anything that can be constructively used in a kitchen. All teens are invited to attend. If you are absolutely unable to bring kitchenware for admission, then there will be a fee charged. It will be a bit higher than usual, since the purpose of the dance is to collect useful kitchen articles.

As a special feature, the Civic Centre Teen Band will play publicly for the first time.

Band members have been practicing very hard and we shall be very proud to have them play for a teen dance. The band is scheduled to play for the last half of the evening. Records will be spun for the first part.

Out of town guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Legg of Massett, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lopushinsky of Kitwanga and Samuel Lopushinsky of Russell, Manitoba.

Newlyweds left on the Union Steamship boat last night making the round-trip to Massett and are making their home at 940 Ambrose Avenue.

Menzies-Pavich Vows Exchanged at Cathedral

St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral was the scene of a quiet wedding ceremony Tuesday night when Miss Nellie Pavich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Pavich of Prince Rupert became the bride of Andrew Menzies, son of Victor Menzies and the late Mrs. Menzies of this city.

Canon Basil S. Proctor officiated at the candlelight service.

Given in marriage by her brother William Pavich, the bride chose a brown gabardine dress-maker-styled suit, off-set with a tiny, close-fitting beige velour cap. Matching beige accessories and a corsage of red roses and white carnations completed her ensemble.

Attending the bride, Mrs. Robert Menzies wore a blue tweed suit in box style, a pink close-fitting velour cap, black accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Robert Menzies was best man for his brother.

A family reception was held

Monarch TEA-BISK Meat Roll

ECONOMICAL, TASTY, AND SO EASY TO MAKE

FRENCH MEAT ROLL

TEA-BISK CRUST
2 cups MONARCH Tea-Bisk
1 teaspoon parsley flakes

MEAT FILLING—Combine and mix well together—
1/2 lb. minced beef
1/2 cup chopped celery
1/2 cup chopped green pepper
1/2 cup chopped onion
1 teaspoon parsley flakes
1 teaspoon dry mustard
1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce

1/2 cup cold water
1/2 cup hot water
1 beaten egg
1/4 cup catsup
1/4 cup fine PURITY Rolled Oats
or bread crumbs
1 tablespoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper

To 2 cups MONARCH Tea-Bisk add parsley flakes and mustard. Mix well together. Add water and mix lightly. On floured canvas or baking board, knead dough gently 8 to 10 times. Roll into a rectangle approximately 12" x 9". Spread on meat filling within 1/2" of border. Roll up like jelly roll, starting from the long side of rectangle. Dampen edges and seal, tucking ends of roll under. Place on greased cookie sheet and bake 125°, 30-35 minutes. Served with sour marmalade from undiluted tomato or celery soup or beef gravy and sliced mushrooms.

The beauty of this TEA-BISK Meat Roll is that it looks and tastes like a real party dish; yet it actually stretches your food budget, too. There's plenty of it to satisfy the family's demands for more, and it costs mere pennies a serving. Do save the recipe. It's one of the best in a long time.

Always keep Tea-Bisk in your kitchen to turn out dozens of your favorite treats—pancakes, dumplings, muffins, etc.—in half the usual time.
