Daily News Advertisina Praised

Prince Rupert Daily News and Lyons' Tom-Boy Store received plaudits in the July 6 edition of the trade publication "Canadian" Grocer". The article featured a reproduction of the Tom-Boy advertisment headed "Murder at Tom-Boy Store". Says the national publication "they guaranteed to stop the reader."

Canadian Grocer is published every other Saturday in Toronto by the McLean-Hunter Publishing Company Limited. According to G. P. (Phil) Lyons, this is the third time that ads published in the Daily News have gained national recognition. Mr. Lyons said he felt such recognition was a tribute to the men and women concerned

SOMETHING TALL, SOMETHING COOL, SOMETHING DELICIOUS—that's the description of the perfect warm-weather refresher. The best summertime cooler you're apt to find is Frosty Mocha Java, a winner on all three counts. Served with a plate of sandwiches, it makes a fine luncheon drink. By itself, Frosty Mocha Java is an ideal hot-weather picker-upper any time at all!

Coffee, cocoa and a bit of ice cream—that's all you need to whip up Frosty Mocha Java in a hurry. The coffee is easy to prepare, of course, and the cocoa can be quickly made from any of the prepared cocoa mixes. Just put the two beverages together, top the mixture with ice cream, and there you are Use 1½ cups strong coffee, hot or cold, 1½ cups cocoa beverage, I pint vanilla, coffee or chocolate ice cream.

Combine coffee and cocoa, stirring thoroughly. Chill mixture. Divide evenly between four tall glasses and add 2 scoops of ice cream to eeach glass. Serves four.
