TORONTO —Marilyn Bell, now Mrs. Joseph di Lascio of Camden, N.J., is one of six athletes to be honored in Canada's Sports Hall of Fame, curator R. W. Bobby Hewitson said today. Also selected are jockey Johnny Longden, George Mooney Gibson, 77-year-old national and international baseball star and manager, world's ski champion Lucille Wheeler of St. Jovite, Que., former world's shooting champion Gilmour Boa of Toronto and Walter H. Ewing of Montreal, 1908 Olympic trapshooting gold medalist. Marilyn won entry for her marathon swimming. On Sept. 8, 1954 she became the first person to swim Lake Ontario. On July 31, 1955 she swam the English Channel in 14 hours, 36 minutes. She failed in her first attempt at the Strait of Juan de Fuca Aug. 13, 1956, but conquered it 10 days later. Marilyn was married last September and is expecting a child.
