

Forty New Members Received into United Church Fellowship

Forty new members were received into the fellowship of First United Church Sunday during the morning and evening services at which over 200 took Holy Communion, dispensed by Rev. V. E. McEachern and members of the Session.

Adams Family Christening Notable Event

A momentous occasion for the Adams family of Masset was an event in First United Church Sunday afternoon when the great-granddaughter of the late Alfred Adams, who organized the Native Brothers of British Columbia, was baptized by Rev. Vernon E. McEachern.

The two-month-old fourth generation infant received the names Teresa Carolyn. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Ronald Adams of Prince Rupert and the granddaughter of paternal grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Adams Sr. of Masset.

Godparents were the principal's uncle Richard Miller and aunt Miss Barbara Buchanan.

A family dinner was held at the baby's home on 601 Ninth Avenue West.

THERE IS TRUE ARTISTRY in designing half-size printed patterns that are as fashionably fresh and pretty as this one created to make the 5' 4" figure look taller, slimmer, smarter. Anne Adams, Prince Rupert Daily News pattern designer, gave this pattern fashion (No. 4682) an uncluttered look. The sleeveless dress has gentle ease of line, so flattering to the shorter, fuller figure. Note that collar of the jacket is broad and pointed carrying the interest away from the neck and downward to the trim waistline and square-cut insert pockets of the dress. To challenge the erroneous theory that half-sizes cannot wear prints, Anne Adams chose this Dan River geometrical design that gives the dress a long look. It is a pink and black Cupioni rayon and cotton. For the jacket she used solid pink matching fabric. This spring-into-summer dress is so easy to cut and sew with out Anne Adams easy, fast, accurate pattern. Directions are printed on the pattern piece so that home dressmakers can read what to do every step of the way. The Printed Pattern comes in Half Sizes 14½, 16½, 18½, 20½, 22½, 24½. Size 16½ requires 3½ yards of 35-inch fabric, bolero 1½ yards. Order this pretty dress pattern today. Just send Fifty Cents in coins for Pattern 4682.
