with leading clothing retailers across Canada convinced British Wolfens of the effectiveness of Daily Newspaper Advertising

On recent field trips from coastto-coast, British Woollensasked over 250 of the most successful clothing stores this important question "What, Advertising Medium sells best for you?"

Invariably the answer was the same: "Our local Newspaper." Proof of the enthusiasm shown by these retailers for Daily Newspaper Advertising lies in this simple fact.

During the past year, these merchants have supported seasonal Newspaper Campaigns for British Woollens with 48,000 lines of retail advertising . . . a bonus of 80% ... either in the form of sizeable "hookers" or individual advertisements of their own.
