

TEASING TED—A Montreal fan teased "Terrible Ted" Lindsay of Chicago Black Hawks into a 10-minute misconduct penalty Saturday night by tweaking Ted's sweater. Lindsay argued with the fan and then was penalized for yapping at the officials who tried to stop the hassle. Dollard St. Laurent is the other Hawk. Chicago beat Montreal 4-2. —CP Photo.

(AP) — Sixth - ranked Johnny Busso of New York earned a shot at the lightweight title Wednesday night when he scored; a unanimous 10-round decision over champion Joe Brown in a non-title bout. Brown, making his first appearance since his decision over Kenny Lane at Houston, Tex., in July, appeared rusty and the game New Yorker raked him with left jabs and hooks, mixing them with right crosses. Busso appeared in trouble in the fourth round when Brown opened a deep gash high on his left cheekbone but Busso came on nicely and carried the fight to the lethargic champion, who opened up only rarely.

Busso, who weighed 13934 to Brown's 140½ pounds, had been promised a fight for the title if
