"Those guys have got eight among our 12, yet everybody says 'Look at those Riders, look how 12 imports," says caoch Lyle, they've come along with pracwhose Eskimos have been made tically nothing.' Well, they've

Lyle male his observations in rookies an interview while his assistants went over films and play di final for Eskimos in six years.

Eskinios have won the league pennant and the bye into the WIFU final in each of the last five season. This year, Winnipeg | been named Miss Sarnia Gold-Blue Bombers took first place, and they'll have until Nov. 15 to rest and prepare for the bestof-three playoff with the Grey Cup contest in Vancougame of the semi-final will be in Edmonton Tuesday afternoon. "We're not going into the first game at full strength," said Lyle listing end Steve Bendiak, safety Oscar Kruger, linebacker Mike

Lashuk and quarterback Jackie Parker among the ailing. "Parker's got a sore foot," said Lyle. "He hurt it in that last | game in Regina, and I don't know how well it will come around by game time. Give me a bad scare."

Bendiak has missed the last two games with a knee ailment. Kruger has a severe cold and Lashuk has a back ailment.

Two of those pointed out by Lyle as established stars with Riders—halfback Mike Hagler and end Larry Isbell, who handles Saskatchewan's punting are ailing in Regina. Hagler has a wrenched knee and Isbell has an ankle injury, but it won't be known until game time if the two will have to sit out. "If we don't have those two boys—well I just don't want to make any comment," said coach George Terlep, adding that it's "doubtful but there's a possibility" Hagler will be in.

Lyle listed fullbacks Cookie Gilchrist and Bobby Marlow; halfbacks Hagler and Jack Hill. who set a scoring record of 145 points this season; quarterback Frank Tripucka; ends Isbell and Ken Carpenter; and centre Kurt Burris, who was cut by Esks this year, as established Rider stars

Then he added Canadian Ron Dundas, an end, and tackle Ron Atchison as among the best players in the league and shook his

"I think the people were looking for a team to make the underdog; one they could pull for, and they picked the Riders. Those guys have got a tough team—or they wouldn't be in the playoffs."
