POLICE BAR BOTTLE THROWING AT GLASGOW SOCCER CLASSIC

GLASGOW (M) — Bottles are barred at Glasgow's big Hogmanay soccer match this year.

The two local teams, Celtic and Rangers, meet every New Year's Day for a lively contest that usually ends in an even livelier tussle between rival spectators.

And bottles, handy for bringing in refreshment, come in useful as missiles. In past years the air has been thick with

Now the Glasgow police force has decided to settle it once and for all.

"Anyone having in his possession a bottle or bottles will not be admitted," proclaimed police chief Malcolm McCulloch. Fans wondered whether this meant a search at the gate. Said McCulloch carkly:

"Individual action depends on the circumstances surround-
