COAST'S BIGGEST LOAD OF LUMBER FOR RUPERT

HOME RULE BILL OPPOSED: SLOPPY VANCOUVER: ARRIVALS BY BOAT: REAL ESTATE DEALS

A SPLENDID SHIPMENT FOR DRY DOCK DEVELOPMENT; LARGEST LOAD OF PILES EVER.

There arrived in port yesterday the largest shipment of creosoted piles ever shipped this far north. They are to be used for bracing the piles of the new Government pier dock, in course of construction. The piles, which were loaded on a huge scow at Eburne, were here they had been specially treated with creosote, so as to be used for the bracing below the high tide mark, enabling them to withstand the attacks of the teredos, made a single shipment of creosote to half a million feet of lumber. Considerable delay was caused in their arrival, owing to the fact that the little tug boat of the Lake was found to be unable to do the work of towing

ACTIVE RESISTANCE TO HOME RULE BEING ORGANISED BY OPPOSITION THERE MAY BE VIOLENT CONFLICT

Campaign Planned to Establish Provisional Government in Province of Ulster---Aims to Divert Taxation From Dublin and Raise Militia Force---Solemn Covenant to be Entered Into When Covenanters Will Swear to Resist Home Rule and Support Provisional Govt.

(Special to Daily News.) London, Aug. 17.—The opposition leader, Bonar Law, has not yet publicly replied to the broadside by Winston Churchill, first lord of the admiralty, who denounced the action of the Conservative leaders in inciting the Ulsterites to revolt, but there is ample evidence that the Unionist leaders are taking up the government challenges. Plans have been completed for the establishment of an Ulster provisional government for the diversion of Ulster taxation from Dublin and for the raising of militia.

HEAR THE VISITING PASTOR

An interesting announcement is that Rev. A. G. Cameron of Lethbridge has consented to give the Sunday evening address at the Presbyterian service in the Empress Theatre. Mr. Cameron is in our city on a visit with his nephew, Mr. J. Lorne McLaren, and many citizens will be glad of the opportunity of hearing him. The morning Presbyterian service will be held in the hall on Fourth avenue.

BIG REALTY DEAL PENDING IN RUPERT

H. W. Dagnall, a well known contractor of this city, and C. C. Grand, who was here several months at the beginning of this year representing the Melville Townsite Company of Saskatchewan, are on their way back from a visit to London, England, and will shortly be in Prince Rupert, where they will be permanently located. Messrs. Dagnall and Grand have been in the old country on a special business trip connected with a big real estate deal that is pending and that is expected shortly to be put through in Prince Rupert.

Cobe, Larson, E. Saucy, A. E. McEster, L. Crippen, G. R. T. Wile and wife, D. Ross.

MEN QUIT FIRE DEPT. FOR GRIEVANCE

Fire Chief Macdonald announces that two of the fire department employees, Harry Mills and J. McLeod, have quit the employment of the city. Some dissatisfaction in regard to the wage scale at present in operation and a general desire for a change of occupation to a less confining and restricted calling is the cause assigned as the reason for their resignations. "Already," says the fire chief, "a competent and experienced man has been appointed to fill one of the vacancies."

PLEASANT NIGHT WITH AMATEURS

The amateur night performance at the Westholme Opera House last evening played to its usual large audience of Friday night patrons. Messrs. Whitley, Stowell, Evitt and Cummings, the latter appearing for the first time at the opera house on an amateur night, acquitted themselves most creditably and caused a large amount of amusement and entertainment by their several turns. The pictures, as usual, were excellent, and altogether an hour is very pleasantly spent by a visit to the cozy little theatre on Second avenue on a Friday evening to witness the efforts of the local amateur talent.

Social Hop.
You are cordially invited to attend a social dance given by M. M. Cooper at K. of P. Hall Saturday evening, Aug. 17th. Good music. 194

ANOTHER STEEL STEAMER IS NOW ON THE WAY WITH RAILS FOR DISCHARGE AT RUPERT

Above is a scene very familiar to citizens of Prince Rupert when the steel was being laid along the Skeena and later. There has not been a "steel boat" in the harbor for many months now, but one is on the way from Cape Breton with steel that will carry the line near the Golden Spike stage.

PIONEER NEWSPAPER EDITOR

G. R. T. Sawle, one of the pioneer newspaper men of Prince Rupert, accompanied by his wife, returned on the Prince Rupert this morning. Mr. Sawle, who has several newspaper interests, including the North Battleford Optimist, throughout the Middle West, has been on an extended visit to the lower coast cities and the east.

LUMBER FOR DRY DOCK KEEPS COMING IN

The tug Belle left the harbor at an early hour this morning with two of the empty scows of the Lester W. David Company in tow, after delivering which at Ocean Falls she will return here light and take the large scow to Ocean Falls to receive a cargo of 700,000 feet of lumber for Vancouver. The Ocean Falls tug is expected to arrive with two scows of lumber for the local years of the Lester W. David Company the middle of next week. The scow load of creosoted lumber just landed is the largest single scow load of lumber ever carried in the North Pacific. The creosoted material is exceedingly heavy, making the cargo of 470,000 feet more in actual weight than 650,000 or 700,000 feet of ordinary dry material would.

The Red Tag Anniversary Sale at Wallace's is a great success. It ends tonight at 10 o'clock and extra efforts are being made today to provide fresh bargains for the final wind-up of this local selling event. 194

WIRELESS MEN CHANGE LOCATIONS

In conformity with a system pursued by the coast wireless telegraph service a general change all around of the officials and operators has just taken place at the local wireless station at Digby Island. The old staff that have been stationed there have been transferred to the west coast of Vancouver Island. The Pacific coast system is under the charge of E. H. Haughton, with headquarters in Victoria. The present chief operator is F. De Winter, formerly of Estevan, the second and third being J. H. Macdonald and Mr. Echlin of Point Grey, near Vancouver and Cape Lazo stations, respectively.

NEW AND UP-TO-DATE SHOE STORE IN CITY

Messrs Renworth and Jefferson have almost completed the interior furnishings and arrangements of their metropolitan appearing boot and shoe store in the new Smith Block on Third avenue. It is certainly a credit to these two gentlemen and the city generally to have at the present stage of our city's development such a complete and up-to-date boot and shoe store, where can be found a stock of good that is the last word in merchandise of this description.

Loyal Order of Moose.

The Loyal Order of Moose will hold the second meeting under the direction of Supreme Organizer Edgar Easter Thursday night, August 22nd, in the K. of P. Hall, for the purpose of initiating candidates and election of officers. All candidates for membership are requested to appear for initiation at this time or to call on the organizer at the Royal Hotel for full information. The lodge will be increased in membership at the next meeting to about one hundred, and this augurs well for a large and healthy organization in this city.

AT NEXT BLAZE BLAME THE BYLAWS.

Today it becomes known more widely that there has been for some little time dissatisfaction amongst some members of the fire department. Two firemen have quit, and the reason given is that their wages have been cut down after having been raised once. It seems that they have been told, too, that unless the money bylaws in dispute get through they need not hope for any raises, and that one of them will, in fact, owe the city five dollars, the amount of increase granted him one month and refused him the next month. This reveals a state of truly scintillating brilliance in department staff administration at the city hall. To raise wages only to cut off the raise almost immediately is a procedure unheard of in business circles. It savors of indecision and incapacity to say the least of it. Naturally, employees resent such treatment. Now two trained men of the city's most important outside department have quit after twelve months' service, leaving the fire department, small as it is, to shuffle along again with any available men who care to sign on with it for a small wage, with exacting hours and conditions, and the pleasure in addition of paying for the clothes which the first fire runs.

SOPPING WEATHER IN THE SOUTH.

Don't mistake the first word of the little heading here for "shopping." It doesn't mean that at all. It means the very reverse. Shopping in Vancouver for the past week or more has been conducted chiefly under umbrellas, and the purchases made have been principally gum boots and slickers. Passengers by the steamer Prince Rupert this morning bring back doleful tales of downright drenchings suffered during their stay in Vancouver, and they are delighted to get back to Prince Rupert and dry weather. As every one knows, Prince Rupert for the past month has had so little rain that those who keep poultry are compelled to carry water for the fowls. Picnic parties have enjoyed superb weather. Even the inmost recesses of the bush have been found dry and fit for comfortable camping or sleeping out without even a tent. This is the Prince Rupert weather which the jealous Vancouverite keeps on libelling in spite of his own miserable existence, rain driven disconsolate to the shelter of the pool rooms or the porch of the nearest real estate office. Neither a slicker nor a pair of gum boots has been seen in a Prince Rupert store window for months, but Vancouver at present is doing a roaring trade in these wet weather commodities.

Government Sale Prince Rupert Lots.

Acting under instructions from the Government of British Columbia, I will hold an auction sale of Prince Rupert lots on Wednesday, August 28th, 1912. The sale will be held at Prince Rupert and will commence at 3 P. M. and be completed on Thursday the 29th.

AFTER THE BIG COYOTE: SOME SHOT THIS

Above is a photograph reproduced showing the effects of one of the big coyotes fired on railway contract work in the city limits and similar to that fired the other week at Cameron Bay. Preparations are in progress for another big coyote at Hays Creek soon, also in connection with the dry dock shoreward operations.

ETERNAL PUNISHMENT: A FURTHER CRITICISM

LETTERS TO THE NEWS

The columns of the Daily News are open to those desiring to air their personal opinions on matters of public interest, but it must be distinctly understood that letters will be published only over the signature of their writers, and that the Daily News does not necessarily endorse the opinions so expressed.

Letters intended for publication in the Daily News must be in the office not later than 9 a.m. on the day in which it is desired they should appear, and must not exceed 250 words in length, unless the matter is of outstanding importance. The Daily News reserves the right to refuse or delay publication of any letter at discretion.

To the Daily News:

I must agree with the Rev. F. W. Kerr that the method of exposition used in his letter has often been much manipulated by the unscrupulous, and therefore I cannot see much value in a lengthened discussion on these lines, but I cannot refrain from making a brief examination of a few points in his letter.

The vague inference drawn from Matthew 25:46, that everlasting punishment means no more than a period of correction is obscure, for there are not wanting authorities of the highest order who consider the Greek word "aiōnios" to mean eternal in its unlimited sense, and I notice Mr. Kerr admits that it was used at the time of Jesus to mean "everlasting." But what seems to me as a conclusive argument, is that "aiōnios" interpreted "eternal" is the very word used to describe God's attribute of Eternity, and also the future duration of the existence of the good. If there is therefore, any limit to the punishment of the wicked, we must surely also argue the existence of God is limited, and the gift of God to believers is also a limited life. The Greek words "Zōē aiōnios" are interpreted "eternal life" in John 3:36, 5:24, 5:3, 5:7, 17:23, and many other places. Throughout the Scriptures the same words are used to describe the duration of the existence of the good and the punishment of the wicked. (Daniel 12:2.) The whole difficulty arose in the scarcity of words expressing an unlimited expanse of time.

Although the Greek word "kolasias" is much more mild than the other words used to denote punishment, an examination of its usage in other passages shows that it could not signify a punishment inflicted for a person's good. However, it must be admitted the word is an exception to the rule, and there is no doubt about the other words used to describe punishment. One has only to glance at a few passages where punishment is spoken of to find a general rule of retributory punishment (see Hebrews 10:26-30, Romans 12:19, I Thess. 4:6, etc.).

However, if we could grant (which we cannot) a good degree of probability to the argument, I cannot see that this would furnish sufficient grounds for the extraordinary belief that punishment is only for a period and is remedial in character. Surely the whole tenor of the Scriptures, its terrible denunciations, its urgent warnings and its persistent and pathetic pleadings cannot be interpreted to mean merely a period of "discipline of pain, love or service." Such exaggerated language would be the height of folly if that were the case. Could we have any faith at all in the inspiration of the Bible, and believe that such phrases as eternal punishment, everlasting destruction, eternal damnation, fiery indignation, vengeance of eternal fire, mean no more than mere discipline for a period, after which "each will have a chance to perfect himself?" In the parable of the rich man and Lazarus we must admit (unless we sacrifice good judgment to a vivid imagination, as does Pastor Russell), it teaches there is no bridge over the impassable gulf (Luke 16:26).

I would like to put before all who entertain this theory a most important question: How does all this react on the doctrine of redemption, if all men will eventually be saved, the sacrifice of Calvary is made of no effect, and is esteemed of so small value that time and discipline will accomplish what Jesus Christ could not do, viz: save men against their will and that after finally rejecting Him and dying in their sins. Will God make a further sacrifice for sin? (Heb. 10:26.)

True, God is love, but we cannot limit Him, who also retains the attributes of justice and vengeance upon the ungodly, to our narrow, few days old moral code. It is true "the laws of love are iron and inexorable," and because we can comprehend so little of His plans we must not discount the little we do know by allowing the tenderness of our hearts to obscure the accuracy of our judgment. Yours truly,

H. CHAS. TUTTE, Captain.

CANADA'S DWINDLING SUPPLY OF RAILROAD TIES, AND PLANS FOR USING TREATED TIMBER

Approximately 70 per cent of ties purchased in Canada in 1910 were hewn. It is apparent that methods of manufacture of ties are not undergoing any great general and permanent changes. Sawn ties were 30 per cent, of the total, which is the same proportion as in 1909. The only important species which has a majority of sawn ties is oak, 95 per cent, of which were sawn ties. Cedar ties were 81 per cent, hewn, and 61 per cent, of the jack pine ties were hewn. Hemlock and Douglas fir were about evenly divided in the method of manufacture. In the case of tamarack, 98 per cent, were hewn ties, while the minor varieties were principally sawn ties. The hewn ties are nearly all pole ties, the sawn ties are made chiefly from larger timber.

Cost of Ties.
Sawn ties cost on the average 36 cents per tie. Hewn ties cost three cents more, or 39 cents per tie. Oak was the most expensive of sawn ties, costing 74 cents per tie. White pine was the cheapest of the sawn ties, costing only 23 cents per tie. In hewn ties, oak was also the most expensive, costing 68 cents, and spruce ties were the cheapest, costing 25 cents per tie.

The steam railways use 96 per cent, of all the ties. The decrease in use of ties in 1910 is due chiefly to decreased purchase by the steam railways, which used 5,159,697 ties less in 1910 than in 1909. All the white pine and chestnut ties purchased in 1910 were purchased by steam roads.

Hewn cypress ties were imported, but not used by steam roads.

Sawn and Hewn Ties.
With electric roads 61.4 per cent, of the ties purchased were hewn, as contrasted with the steam roads, where 70 per cent, were hewn. Douglas fir constituted 50 per cent, of the sawn ties and cedar constituted 34 per cent. Cedar made up 57 per cent, of the hewn ties and Douglas fir 20.7 per cent. The species which are chiefly used sawn are cedar, Douglas fir and oak. The species which are chiefly used hewn are hemlock, tamarack, cypress, spruce and jack pine. All the cypress and jack pine ties were hewn. The average price of hewn ties was 37 cents, or 2 cents per tie less than was paid by steam roads. It is interesting to note that whereas with steam roads hewn ties cost three cents per tie more than sawn ties, with electric roads sawn ties cost nine cents per tie more than hewn ties.

Imports from the United States of cross-ties in 1910 amounted to $1,096,832. Exports in 1910 were 1,995,582 ties at a value of $463,508. Of this total $376,913 was to the United States. The balance of imports over exports was $633,324, which represents about 891,000 ties at the average price for ties in Canada in 1910.

Chemical Treatment.
Two plants are now being established for the chemical treatment of railway ties. One is being erected at Fort Frances, Ontario, and the other is being started at Winnipeg. It is stated that a plant will also be erected at Vancouver. The plant at Fort Frances will be capable of treating 2,000 ties per day. The zinc-chloride-aluminium patent immersing process will be used, which both prolongs the life of the timber and renders it fireproof. It is questionable if this process will give as good results in Canada as would creosote.

This is a matter which for some years has been necessary for the preservation of the forests of Canada. At the same time it would have reduced the annual cost of railway maintenance. The average life of untreated ties as reported by the steam roads is: cedar, 9 years; tamarack, 8 years; hemlock, 7 years; Douglas fir, 7 years; jack pine, 6 years; spruce, 6 years. As may be noted from the tables, cedar is the species principally used, because of its durability, but the supply of cedar is rapidly becoming exhausted. Unless preservative treatment of ties is introduced, the species of short life will have to be used untreated, which, on account of the necessary frequent renewal, will increase the cost of mileage maintenance. If treated ties were used, which would cost about 30 cents extra per tie for creosoting and equipping with tie plates, the inferior species, which are very plentiful and cheap in Canada, could be used with economy. With such a treatment these woods would last at least 15 years, and if protected from wear would probably last much longer.

Western Lodgepole Pine.
The lodgepole pine of the West would be greatly increased in usefulness by this treatment. This species is used chiefly for mining timbers and props and occurs, fire-killed, in vast areas on the mountain slopes of Alberta and British Columbia. It cannot be used for lumber, on account of checking, and, if untreated, it lasts only about five years when used for railway ties. At present this wood stands dead and perfectly seasoned and would take chemical treatment readily, after which it would make lasting and economical ties. By the use of such inferior qualities of timber, railway companies would assist conservation and at the same time decrease the cost of railway maintenance.—Monetary Times.

TOTAL AREA OF BREAD ON THE STALK

According to revised figures Canada's total area under wheat this year is 10,017,300 acres, compared with 10,377,159 acres as returned by the census of 1911. The area sown to fall wheat in 1911 was 1,097,900 acres, but winter killing has reduced this area to 781,000 acres. The area sown to oats is estimated at 9,494,000 acres, compared with 9,233,550 acres in 1911, and to barley 1,449,200 acres as against 1,403,969 acres in 1911. In the three Northwest provinces spring wheat covers 9,029,000 acres, as against 8,946,965 acres in 1911, the increase being in Saskatchewan and Alberta. Including fall wheat the total wheat acreage in the three provinces is 9,246,100, compared with 9,304,293 in 1911, the decrease being accounted for by the large area of fall wheat winter killed in Alberta. Oats in the three provinces occupy 5,037,000 acres and barley 826,400 acres, as compared with last year's census figures of 4,563,203 acres for oats and 761,738 acres for barley.

TRADE IN AUSTRALIA DWINDLES

A moderate rainfall has recently been experienced on the coast line of several of the States but, over the great bulk of Australia, evidence of the continued dry weather is reflected in heavy losses of sheep and cattle. The outlook is therefore not reassuring and is bound to lead to a contraction in the volume of imports as a natural sequence to reduced production. Imports for the first five months of 1912 show a considerable increase over the similar period of last year, while the volume of exports has also been well maintained. The Canadian steamers from St. John have brought large cargoes for Australian ports of which lumber comprised a considerable portion.—Dominion Government Trade and Commerce report.

MUNICIPAL COAL MINING MIGHT PAY

Toronto may purchase a real coal mine. Property Commissioner Chisholm, who recommended the city to purchase four coal yards, if it intended to go into the business at all, lately received an offer from an American mine owner. The mine is situated in the United States, and its owner states will supply the city with an abundance of anthracite coal for years to come.

Better than Ringing Door-bells

A PIANO manufacturer recently made a house-to-house canvass. He's one of those men with an absurd fear of the "waste-circulation" bugaboo—cannot get away from the haunting thought that only 10 out of every 100 readers of a newspaper may be possible buyers of his goods.

So he refused to advertise, and went a-canvassing—inviting people to come to his piano recitals. Then he wondered why they didn't come.

This is why:

He wasn't reaching the people.

His canvassers rang every door-bell in town. They talked to some one in every house.

But one in every household isn't enough—particularly if it doesn't happen to be the right person. And, as a rule, it wasn't the right person—it was a servant, or a child. The woman of the house was seldom seen; the man of the house, never.

Now, if the piano maker had placed an ad. in the newspaper, it would have reached thousands, where the canvassers could reach only hundreds.

And even though only 10 per cent. of the readers are actual piano buyers, this does not mean that the advertising read by the other 90 per cent. is wasted. Advertising talks, not only to the prospective buyer, but also to his wife, his grown-up sons and daughters, his mother—even his mother-in-law. Their coaxing will help to convince the head of the house—and pretty soon there'll be a piano in that home.

This and dozens of similar cases which might be cited to show that "waste circulation" is an empty bugaboo, and should deter no one.

Take the motor truck. It can be sold only to large firms. Yet a motor truck manufacturer is successfully advertising in daily papers. He realizes that he must reach, not alone the managers of the concerns that require trucks, but also their directors, their foremen, their head machinists, etc. It is found in actual practice that this Advertising radiates in a thousand directions, and again converges most astonishingly to influence the house that has made up its mind that horse-trucking is too costly and inefficient.

Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any recognized Canadian advertising agency, or the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 503 Lumsden Bldg., Toronto. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write if interested.

Only Results Count

The one thing above all else that you want to know about the range you buy is this—that it will cook and broil and bake with absolute satisfaction.

Other features of a range, such as convenience, economy and appearance, are, of course also indispensable, but the prime necessity in a range is results in cooking. The Gurney-Oxford gives results—not now and then, but always.

Every Gurney-Oxford is a source of continual satisfaction to its owner. Day after day, year after year, it enables her to produce pastry, bread, roasts that contribute to the pleasure of housekeeping. That is why the Gurney-Oxford finds its strongest support among those who have had actual and intimate experience with it. You too will number your Gurney-Oxford among your best friends.

TRAINING OF BANK CLERKS A SUBJECT OF INTEREST TO GIRLS OF PRINCE RUPERT

Promotion in Canadian banking spheres is comparatively rapid. The multiplication of branch banks—there are now in Canada—creates a constant call for well qualified managers. They are in close touch with their head offices, but the contention that their training for manager is not always complete, is perhaps well made. We believe that many of the leading bankers in Canada favor an educative course for bank clerks, that they may be well fitted to assume the responsible duties of higher positions.

The Kansas banking department has evolved such a scheme. The large number of small banks organized during the past four years, and the little banking experience possessed by many of their officers, has led to frequent complications in management, requiring assistance of the Kansas banking department to straighten things and put the bank in proper condition. Bank Commissioner Dolley has put in operation a plan which he expects to help overcome this. He has established what is in effect a school for bankers.

When a new bank is organized under the state laws, he proposes to see that the officers know what are their duties before allowing them to take up the management of its affairs. His plan is to call the president and cashier to his office, and require them to submit to an examination.

Questions to be given are not yet fully outlined, and they will vary in some particulars according to the needs of the special cases. In general, however, they will cover the Kansas banking law, the depositor's guarantee law, the negotiable instruments law, the state corporation laws, together with points touching practical and technical banking.

He also intends to include in the questions requests for information that will furnish an estimate of the judgment on financial affairs possessed by the applicant. Should the applicant not succeed in making a required average in the examination, he is to be given suggestions for study, and then given another examination. If he is still obtuse it is not likely that his selection as an official of the bank will be approved by the bank commissioner. This method, it is believed, will secure a higher standard for bank officers, especially in the smaller communities, where, frequently, the men organizing a bank had no experience with the business whatever.

Admittedly, a banker may qualify largely by keeping in touch with current financial events and reading up-to-date financial literature. The value of the school of experience, too, cannot be underrated. At the same time, there would appear to be room for more assistance for the coming Canadian banker. It will be recalled that Professor Johnson, of New York University, who made a report for the National Monetary Commission of the United States regarding Canada's banking system, commented strongly on this phase. He expressed his regret because of "the seeming indifference of Canadian bankers with regard to the education of their employees."

"When a boy at the age of 15 enters a Canadian bank, he leaves all hope of education behind," said Professor Johnson. "He will learn a great deal 'by doing' and by contact with strong and successful men, but he will have little chance to improve his mind by systematic study or through attendance upon lectures. His hours will be long, and, from the American point of view, his pay will be small. If he has an iron constitution, sound nerves, and an unconquerable stomach, together with a clear head, a steady will, and a good character, he will some day be manager of a branch, and perhaps a general manager. But he will have to work out his own salvation without the aid or encouragement of the world's best thought and experience. It is to be hoped that the older bankers of Canada will get a conviction of sin on this subject, and through their Bankers' Association make some provision for the intellectual growth of the young fellows in their employ. If they fail on this score, the time may come when the staffs of the Canadian banks, despite their prestige, may no longer contain men of the quality necessary to the making of a first-class general manager."—Monetary Times.

WOMEN WILL WEAR SNAKE DRESSES NOW

London, Aug. 16.—For once fashion has taken a direction which promises to be a general benefit to humanity. Womankind or at least such as have access to the longest purses, are shortly to use snakeskin for garments for quite every day wear. What the cost will be he cannot yet say. It will obviously be high for serpents of the largest size are not to be met with every day.

The market price of snakes in view of the coming demand has already gone up to a very high figure, and in Borneo, Sumatra, and all other states of the Malay archipelago, native hunters are scouring the wilderness tempted by the offers of dealers in Paris and Vienna, and killing and capturing every big snake they meet with. Properly prepared, the snake's skin is both soft and durable.

SAFETY OF PASSENGERS ON LINERS

London, August 16.—That the gross tonnage and not the number of persons carried must form the basis in providing life-boats for passenger ships is the opinion of the Merchants' Shipping Committee of the Board of Trade which considered the question since the Titanic inquiry. Providing for the buoyancy of the boat and wireless communication after the mishap are also most important, the speed regulations should provide for slowing down at midnight or in the presence of ice.

Hardy Bay in a year or two should be a veritable hive of industry. It is the logical and economical meeting place for ships of all kinds. Hardy Bay offers all that the manufacturer, wholesaler or merchant desires—raw materials in unlimited quantities, cheap power and the finest natural harbor in the world to ship from. "Public announcement soon"—get in now.

WHERE THE FINGER OF DESTINY POINTS
THE MAN POINTS TO THE FUTURE CITY

HARDY BAY

Evolution has come to such a point that various exigencies of commerce and civilization can be seen by the astute mind and acted upon before their full significance.

An interesting example is before the public at the present time in Hardy Bay.

As yet, Hardy Bay is in its embryonic stage, but not for long; the biggest evolution you can possibly conjure up in your mind is going to take place here.

Railroads with total assets of $600,000,000 are seeking an outlet on Vancouver Island. Two of them have already decided that Hardy Bay is the place for them—see the others follow. "Watch for big doings at Hardy Bay."

Prince Rupert property is selling for a thousand dollars per front foot. Did you get in on Prince Rupert? (Try a little Hardy Bay.)

With two transcontinental railways, with assets of six hundred million dollars, who seek a terminal point on Vancouver Island, and have the enthusiastic support of the Provincial and Dominion Governments, there is not the slightest doubt but that the construction of the Seymour Narrows Bridge will be rushed forward with all possible speed. "Great developments about to take place."

The Government has promised Vancouver Island an all-rail connection—a terminal point of transcontinental lines—for thirty years. That promise is soon to be fulfilled. Of course, it will benefit the whole of Vancouver Island generally, but Hardy Bay will receive the biggest slice of development. Study the map and see—don't you see what these great railroads and money kings are after? It's not a hard nut to crack—it's the kernel they're after. Hardy Bay represents to them and to the shipping world untold wealth.

Hardy Bay---the Horn of Plenty

The greatest things in the world have evolved from insignificant beginnings. Prince Rupert is a good sample of seaport town values on this Coast. Five years ago nothing. Today corners are worth fifty to seventy-five thousand dollars. About a century ago the greatest city on the American continent consisted of only half a dozen dwellings, but the germ of possibility was there, and through a process of constant expansion it developed into one of the wonders of the world. That's the future of Hardy Bay in a nutshell. Hardy Bay is one of the wonders of the world. The man who takes a few moments and studies the geographical location of Hardy Bay cannot help but see that it is destined to become one of the world's greatest shipping ports. Men who have made their pile—men who are in the know—men who get in just ahead of the big general development, are land owners at Hardy Bay. This is a partial list of land owners at Hardy Bay:

ROSES.

Roses, roses — old fashioned roses,
 The soft tinted kind an' the yell'er—
 The kind that reach up from the dew beds an' noses
 The hate from the heart of a feller;
 I'm speakin' especial of home lovin' roses—
 There's none of the kind we call boughten
 Compares with the old fangled, gold spangled posies
 That breathe of old loves we've forgotten.

Roses, roses—somethin' about you,
 Your smiles or the blossoms you sling us,
 Why, summer could never be summer without you,
 And the color an' perfume you bring us;
 The path that leads home seems t' kitter an' wander
 Through mem'ry—we never could find it
 Except for the scent of the bloom that leads younder,
 An' your loose lyin' petals that lined it.

Roses, roses — old fashioned flowers—
 You ain't so stuck up nor so tony,
 But you sweeten the lives an' you sweeten the hours
 Of old fashioned fellers that's lonely;
 If a man's got an eye an' a man's got a smeller
 To use—if there's anything noses
 Meet everything bad from the heart of a feller,
 It's roses—they old fashioned roses!

ALTERATIONS ON IMPERIAL PALACE OF AUSTRIAN THRONE REVEAL INTERESTING ALLEY

Paris, Aug. 16.—Structural strengthening and other extensive alterations have been in progress for some time upon the palace of the Emperor of Austria. The other day, while an interior wall was being cut through for the purpose of making an arched entrance from one large reception chamber to another, a curious secret passage was laid open. The wall pierced was immensely thick and through it ran an alley wide enough and high enough to accommodate a man of average size. Evidences that the passage had one outlet within the apartments formerly set apart for the royal use were discovered though the passage had evidently been built up. The only outlet to the open was apparently through a wine cellar with a grated barrel trap though it is fancied that there may have been some other passage from the cellar which is now built up.

POULTRY FARMING SHOULD BE A PAYING PROPOSITION RIGHT HERE IN PRINCE RUPERT

A decade ago Canada was exporting eggs to a value of about one and three-quarters million dollars. Last year exports were practically nil, while imports—yes, imports—reached a value of about half a million dollars.

Roughly speaking, the agricultural west in 1911 gobbled up all the east's spare "hen fruit" and some millions from outside. How important an industry it is that Western Canada is so far overlooking may be gauged from the fact that the annual value of poultry products in the United States is greater than that of either wheat growing or dairying, and more than equal to the combined value of sheep and swine production.

Where Prices Run Highest.

Interesting in this connection is a paragraph from evidence recently given before the parliamentary standing committee on agriculture by Mr. A. G. Gilbert, poultry manager at the Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa.

"I had a visit from a British Columbia gentleman the other day, and he said: 'We have a mild climate which is particularly favorable to the raising of poultry.' I replied: 'You ought then to have a large supply of poultry and eggs.' He said: 'So we have.' No, it is an interesting fact that notwithstanding the mild climate, which is certainly favorable to a large output of eggs and poultry, I can assure you that the prices in British Columbia are the highest we have in Canada. Eggs were sold in the towns and cities of British Columbia last winter as high as 75 cents and even 95 cents per dozen. I have letters bearing that out. In Ottawa the highest market price was 60 cents a dozen and at the experimental farm we sold at 50 cents. Apparently in the case of British Columbia a genial climate had no effect on the high value of eggs and poultry."

With such high prices, west and east alike, why do not ordinary farmers, as well as specialists, take advantage of profits offered? There are various points to be considered here. In the course of Mr. Gilbert's evidence before the committee, it was brought out that when eggs were selling in Ottawa at 50 and 60 cents the dozen they could be obtained at about half that price within three hours' run of that city. Knowing this, the farmer has usually grumbled: "Why go in for poultry when the middle-man gets most of the profit?" And he has let it go at that, overlooking the fact that his own slowness in marketing has been a chief factor against his getting the top price which the public is willing to give for its favorite breakfast table delicacy when it is absolutely fresh.

The formation of the Poultry Producers' Association of Canada, with its laudable object of establishing egg circles for the gathering and quick sale of new laid eggs and the better quality of the poultry with the proper grading of it should become a great incentive to poultry keeping among farmers in the different parts of the country. In the language of the constitution, the object of the association and its branches, or circles, "is to encourage a co-operative spirit among poultry producers; to bring producers and consumers closer together; to encourage the adoption of the best breeds and types of utility poultry; to encourage the small producers to form local branches or circles for mutual assistance and co-operation in selling; to aid in establishing a uniform and recognized standard of dressed poultry and eggs; to keep the producers in touch with those buyers who put a premium on quality, and to advance and dignify the poultry industry." Already it has done much to help on poultry development. In Ontario the egg circle idea has "caught on," and might well become more and more general in the west.

West's Present Waste.

As a bulletin on practical poultry keeping, issued by the Alberta Department of Agriculture, strongly emphasizes, there is serious economic waste in present western methods of production and consumption: "On investigation at many points throughout the province it is found that in some districts the farmers themselves are the largest purchasers of bacon, condensed milk, butter and eggs at the local stores.

Well over three million dollars worth of eggs and poultry were brought into Alberta alone during 1911. For the entire Middle West—not to mention British Columbia—the total must already be around $10,000,000 worth in a single year.—Canadian Finance.

NOTHING LIKE GETTING INTO HOT WATER

Dr. Olaf M. Stevenstrum of Chicago maintains that his condition of perfect health today, after an unbroken record of the same state for forty years, has been due entirely to his habit of plunging into a bath of water as hot as he can possibly bear it whenever he returns from a day's hard work, either in country or city practice. Since he was a young man the doctor has never missed his specific once.

Every Home Has Its Purse

And 99 out of every 100 unprejudiced people will tell you THE DAILY NEWS is the home paper of Prince Rupert.

Advertisers also tell us and will tell you that results obtained from publicity carried in the columns of this paper have exceeded by far those obtained through any other newspaper published in Prince Rupert

The successful business man today is the one who advertises judiciously, who chooses the medium most generally read by citizens of a community; a business man who does not look upon an expenditure for advertising as an expense, but, on the contrary, as an investment. This type of business man you will generally find in the front ranks of his profession, turning his dollars daily and moving his goods rapidly—and all through the liberal use of newspaper publicity. Try advertising as an investment, if only for a short time, and watch your business grow. Let our solicitors call and explain why The News is the best medium through which you should inaugurate your initial campaign.

SANITARY INSPECTOR SAILS SOUTH

I. E. McFarlane, the city sanitary inspector, left yesterday morning on the Prince George for a two weeks' holiday, and will take in all the lower coast cities before returning north again. It is rumored that Mr. McFarlane stole a highly successful march on his confreres of the city staff, when he slipped off south on a mission that means matrimony.

MERELY MABEL REMARKS

That Pastor Kerr should say tomorrow night: "Ladies over thirty-five need not remove their hats."

That the best way to dispose of a cart wheel creation removed to oblige the pastor is to pin it to the coat collar of the man in the seat in front of you.

That Vancouver's very latest fall fashion is the neatest thing in gum boots and slicker, and the fall referred to in Vancouver is the rainfall.

That the city has gone into the money lending business, and if the bylaws don't pass the employees who got raises may have to refund.

That these daily bylaws are a blawing bluff anyway, blime if they ain't.

That in connection with the Hell controversy she has read a communication from Pastor Russell's "religious perambulator."

That after that she expects a letter from a religious buggy, and next from a religious bughouse.

That the proverbial Highland man's hell was to have toothache, an eyelash in his eye and news that his best girl had just gone off with the other fellow.

That after his business trip south "Crip" has returned in great form.

Excellent Empress Films.

At the Empress Theatre this week-end an exceptionally fine film show is being enjoyed by throngs of patrons of the ever popular pioneer house. Empty benches are very foreign to the Empress, but this time the special attractions of the "Pirate" film, Pathe's popular weekly reel and a famous "Phoney Prince" film fairly eclipse even the Empress' previous records.

Today is the final grand rally and some tempting bargains will be given at Wallace's Sale. 194
