

NEW WESTMINSTER AGAIN WINS THE MINTO CUP

VANCOUVER HOLD-UPS: COAST BASEBALL: OLD-TIMERS' BANQUET: BOY DROWNED IN SEWER

PASSING OF A WELL KNOWN PRINCE RUPERT OLD TIMER

It was one more instance of the irony of fate that within a few hours of the assembling of the old timers of Prince Rupert at a banquet celebration there should pass away one of the foremost of their numbers in the person of John J. Lee, who died on Saturday afternoon at the general hospital, succumbing to a severe attack of pneumonia. The deceased, who was only 46 years of age, was a native of Ontario, and for a number of years had followed the calling of a miner and a prospector, latterly devoting his energies to the country around Alice Arm. He was exceedingly well known and popular amongst the old timers of this city, and mention was made at the banquet on Saturday evening of the sad fact of his early demise. Three sisters are known to have survived him, Mrs. George Thompson of Carberry, Man.;

Mrs. Dr. Wilson of Nelson, B. C., and Miss Eva A. Lee of Alberta. The remains were shipped this morning on the Prince Rupert to the home of Mrs. George Thompson, Carberry, Man., for interment. A funeral service was conducted this morning at 7:30 by the Rev. Charles R. Sing at E. L. Fisher's undertaking parlors, the pall bearers consisting of the following old time friends of the deceased: D. Martin, F. Meghan, F. J. Coleman, J. Leggett, J. Redmond and J. Joyce.

ENGINEERS OF KITSUMKALUM HELD DANCE

A most successful dance was held at Kitsumkalum the other night. The party was got up by the engineers of the district and the assembly was held in the hall belonging to the ever popular "Dad" Weeks. A very large number assembled, practically all the young people and most of the seniors being present. Music was capital, refreshments excellent and a generally enjoyable time was spent.

LOYAL TO THEIR SICK LIST COMRADES ARE OUR OLD TIMERS

At the old timers' banquet on Saturday night a special committee was appointed to wait on two well known and popular old timers who were unable to be present at the banquet owing to ill health. These two pioneers of Prince Rupert on the sick list at present are Dr. J. O. Reddie and H. G. Munro. Dr. Reddie is pioneer medical health officer for the city and immigration inspector and H. G. Munro is the first architect to hang out his professional shingle in the city. The warmest good wishes of their comrade old timers are with them both.

FAR OFF MISSIONARY LABOR

Rev. T. P. Thorman, who has been the guest of Bishop Du Vernet for two or three days, gave an interesting address last evening in the Anglican Church on his work in Norfolk Island, in the South Pacific, also telling about his work in Jamaica and on the Upper Stikine River. He left this morning for England, to return to his rectory in Harlaston. His son, Rev. Fred Thorman, has taken his place at Tahl-Tan and Telegraph Creek.

CHARMING BRIDGE PARTY IN HONOR OF MRS. JACKMAN

A delightful bridge party was given by Mrs. Max Heilbronner on Saturday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Jackman, wife of Captain Jackman of Skeena River fame. Mrs. Jackman left for Vancouver by the Prince Rupert this morning, and the party was her parting pleasure in Prince Rupert, where she is very popular. With exquisite taste the rooms were decorated with flowers in profusion, and the gathering was a charming success. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Jackman, the guest of honor, and Mrs. W. N. Lailey. The first prize in the bridge tourney was won by Mrs. W. N. Lailey, the second by Mrs. J. H. Hilditch and the third by Mrs. R. O. Jennings. Those present were: Mrs. M. S. Jenns, Mrs. R. O. Jennings, Mrs. Dick, Mrs. W. Owen, Mrs. S. P. McMordie, Mrs. Stevens, Mrs. J. G. McNab, Mrs. W. N. Lailey, Mrs. C. P. Partington, Mrs. J. H. Hilditch, Mrs. Kergin, Mrs. L. W. Kergin, Mrs. J. C. Halsey, Mrs. T. J. Jackman, Mrs. C. E. Bainter and Mrs. Morrison. Among others who called during the afternoon were Miss Chapman, Mrs. S. D. Macdonald and Mrs. W. Angle.

WIFE OF A LATE POPULAR OLD TIMER

By the Prince Rupert on Saturday there arrived in the city Mrs. T. C. Birnie, the wife of the late T. C. Birnie, one of Rupert's pioneer realty men who died last fall. Mrs. Birnie has returned to Prince Rupert with her two daughters; and son because to her and her family there is no place like the city of which the husband and father, whose memory they cherish, was a pioneer.

DESPERATE HOLD-UP GANG AT LARGE MAKING RAVAGES NOW AROUND VANCOUVER

Special to Daily News

Vancouver, Aug. 26.—Six foreigners, wearing red handkerchiefs over the lower part of their faces, held up the Cedar Cottage branch of the Bank of Hamilton on Saturday night and got away with a few hundred dollars. They shot a local merchant in the leg and escaped. The bank officials are positive that the men were foreigners. While the robbers were making their escape a number of shots were exchanged between them and the officers, and one of the former was wounded, although his confederates loaded him into the automobile and he was rushed away. Yesterday no fewer than nine Italians who make a practice of wearing red handkerchiefs on their necks were brought into the police station, but after lingering a few hours in durance they were turned loose again, having given entirely satisfactory accounts of themselves.

Vancouver, Aug. 26.—Three masked men, believed to be a portion of the gang which at nine o'clock held up and robbed the Bank of Hamilton at Cedar Cottage, held up the occupants of an auto near Collingwood fire hall at 12:30 this morning, securing two gold watches but no cash. The men made their escape.

All last night the South Vancouver police ransacked various construction and clearing camps between Vancouver and New Westminster looking for the culprits and yesterday morning they brought in three suspects. Late yesterday afternoon six other men were brought over by automobile from New Westminster, where they lived.

PRINCE RUPERT'S FIRST BUSINESS HOUSE

A scene fresh in the memory of the old-timers.

PRINCE RUPERT OLD-TIMERS RALLY TO GRAND BANQUET AND WILL ORGANIZE CLUB

Saturday evening saw in the Premier Hotel a most interesting rally of the old timers of Prince Rupert, as many of the men who were with the city from the earliest days as could possibly be gathered together at short notice in the city at present. The company numbered over a hundred, practically every man present having played an important part in the early history of Rupert. J. H. Pillsbury and John Leggett, who made the first camp on the harbor side when they began the survey of the townsite for the G. T. P., were present, and Captain H. Roberson, who with A. R. Barrow was one of the very first men engaged by the G. T. P. on this coast, was also at the festive board. The dinner was a bright function throughout with merry making in the style of the dear old days memory cherished by every old timer.

Speakers and Speeches.

Major George Gibson, without mention of whose commanding personality and presence there seems to be no story of Rupert's old times, presided with his wonted geniality and in proposing the toasts gave many an amusing jog to the memories of other old timers present on happenings of the days behind. Bishop Du Vernet's speech was as ever an eloquent and interesting resume of events in the brief space of Rupert's early history. His allusion to the very promising color of the water available on the townsite was hailed with delight. His references to old time doings were acceptable to all.

The Pioneer Mayor.

Alfred Stork, Prince Rupert's pioneer mayor, too, proved himself a veritable store of rich old time memories. His call to the citizens one and all to pull together to make Prince Rupert a great city deserves perpetuation. G. R. Naden, another old timer, complimented his fellows of that honored array, referring to the primitive state of affairs at first. W. P. Lynch with tales of the old Caledonia awoke reminiscences worthy of the annals of Troy. Alderman Morrissey and Alderman George Kerr also added to the interesting tale, and at the conclusion of a memorable occasion steps were taken to form on old timers' association in Prince Rupert.

DROWNED IN VANCOUVER SEWER TRAP

Vancouver, Aug. 26.—Ernest Grant, a 17-year-old boy, was drowned in a sewer Saturday. He was playing ball and climbed down a manhole into a six foot tunnel to recover the ball and did not return. The police are dragging the bay near the outlet of the sewer, but have not recovered the body.

THE CALL FOR A UNITED CITY.

Most appropriately the note was struck in one of the speeches at the old timers' banquet for a strong pull together on the part of all citizens wishing well for Prince Rupert. There is something infinitely to be regretted in the remark frequently heard from the real old timers of Rupert, that the place is growing different somehow, that there is not the same spirit today of each for all and all for Rupert that existed in the days when men first sang, "We're here because we're here!" The rallying of the real old timers on Saturday night and the call heard at that gathering for a united Prince Rupert should be heeded. Time and again during periods of opposed opinions in Prince Rupert those aloof from the struggle have said: "This is bad for the city. Prince Rupert is not big enough yet to stand such inside friction without losing credit in the eyes of the outside world." There is no disputing it. However earnestly and honestly men or sets of men may hold to distinctive opinions respectively, there should be until the railway is through at least, but one dominant thought in Rupert—the thought of shoulder to shoulder effort to help forward even at personal sacrifice the interests of the city as a whole.

SIGNS OF PROGRESS IN PRINCE RUPERT.

Prospective buyers at the forthcoming sale of government lots are expected in great throng by the C. P. R. Princess May today, and on Wednesday, of course, there will be many more by the Prince George. It is a good thing that these intending investors in Prince Rupert real estate will be able to see on their arrival substantial signs of the city's progress. They will see the immense strides made by the dry dock. They will see streets presentable enough for even the gaze of first comers to Rupert from old established cities of the south. They will see the steam shovels biting into the excavation work for the ship yards and for the depot site. It is almost certain that those intending bidders at the sale who fail first to take a look around the city will get left in the race for possession of property, for the man who has seen the solid signs of Prince Rupert's progress will certainly bid high and without trace of doubt.

AGGRIEVED LABOR OR ANARCHY?

Labor holds peculiar powers in British Columbia. Although empire makers, as they are called, may project railways across blue print mountains, and although Sir Richard McBride may mortgage everything the province has to carry out those plans, there is still a great deal dependent upon the willingness or unwillingness of the railway navy to work. Mountains cannot be tunneled nor canon walls scratched by the mere work of a draftsman's pen and an order on a treasury. The mere brute strength of man is still necessary. Knowledge of this has made labor in the western province arrogant. The Industrial Workers of the World are sowing the seed of anarchy through the railway camps in the mountains. Between labor, the railways and the fear of the yellow man, British Columbia has her share of anxieties.—Canadian Colliers.

THE GOVERNMENT AND THE G. T. P.

The urgent need of an office at Ottawa to which shall be entrusted the drawing up of government bills is again made manifest by the dispute between the Grand Trunk Pacific and the government department of railways. The department claims that the company was to take the road over piece by piece as it was completed. The company says that it does not start operation until more work is done. Apparently there was some very clumsy legal work done in the drawing up of that agreement. In the meantime, says one of the cabinet, the government will operate whatever sections of the Grand Trunk Pacific it is necessary to use to help move the wheat crop this fall.—Canadian Colliers.

"VISITING" B. C.

It's amusing to pick up the papers every now and then and read the views of some Englishman, German, American or other stranger who has "visited" British Columbia and accordingly spread himself over a column or so of news print in the firm belief that he knows what he is talking about. The "visit" usually consists of a few days' stop in some Vancouver hotel, a drive around Stanley Park, a run over to Victoria and a look in at Banff on the way east. Then the globe trotter ambles back to his native heath and presumes to criticize western securities and western investments; to point out the strength and weaknesses of our position and to advise the holders of millions how to spend them and when to withhold them from the British Columbia field. The situation comes back in the end to the same old place. The less the investor gets second hand and the more information he assimilates for himself on the ground the better off he is.—Fort George Tribune.

NEW CHANGES EXPECTED IN BRITISH POLITICAL WORLD; MENTION OF MANY RUMORS

London, Aug. 23.—Rumors of ministerial changes are current today, based, according to the Pall Mall Gazette's parliamentary correspondent, on the impending retirement of Lord Morley from the lord presidency of the council and the return of Lord Gladstone from South Africa. Lord Morley has been able to give very little time to the House of Lords lately and has been in attendance only when his presence has been required in some particular debate. It is only a matter of opportunity and of the convenience of the Prime Minister, it is understood, when Lord Morley will finally retire from office.

Lord Crewe May Succeed.

If the time has now arrived, it must be on account of the imminence of other changes. It has been evident that Lord Crewe has been feeling the strain of his continuous official service as secretary of state for India and it would not cause surprise if he were to succeed Lord Morley. Augustine Birrell is another minister who is overworked, and his transition from the Irish chief secretaryship to the Indian office would be a relief to him and a promotion that would be appreciated by ministerialists generally.

New Irish Secretary.

Such a change at the same time would be a certain embarrassment to the prime minister as it would undoubtedly be ominous of the fate of the Home Rule bill, even if it were accompanied by an explanation. Mr. Birrell, however, would still be available to take part in the debates on the bill and would retain charge of it.

If Birrell finds a less onerous post there is reason to believe that Herbert L. Samuel will succeed him at the Irish office. It is understood that he is next on the list for promotion in the cabinet.

The name of the master of Elibank is being coupled with the Governor-Generalship of South Africa. He has high claims to recognition, and would unquestionably be a safe and sagacious administrator as the King's representative in South Africa. His position as chief whip will be difficult to fill.

RUPERT IS BUILDING HER OWN DRYDOCK

A large new floating dock left England today for Montreal. The dock is capable of taking the largest merchant vessel trading in the St. Lawrence. The basis is now ready, so that when the dock reaches Canada Montreal will possess facilities which have hitherto been lacking. A floating dock has been preferred because it can be towed to any point of the Atlantic seaboard of the Dominion. The dock is 600 feet long and 135 feet wide over all, the walls from the bottom to the top of the dock being 50 feet. Ships of 100 feet beam can be docked, and as the ends are open vessel of any length can be accommodated. It has been constructed at the works of Messrs. Vickers, Barrow-in-Furness and will be towed across the Atlantic.

GOOD FOR THIS CITY'S REPUTE

Some months ago a description of the city water superintendent's new water supply invention appeared in The Daily News. Mr. Crosby was then negotiating for a patent for it, which he has since obtained. Credit is coming to the ingenious "ole" for his invention, and still more so for the manner in which he has persistently insisted in spite of persuasions from other sources in claiming for Prince Rupert the honor of the invention. On all the letters patent granted him the name of Prince Rupert appears as the place of its origin.

Lord Charles Berresford declares that the British navy is not ready for war, but fortunately Germany will not believe him,

EASTERN WORK OF G. T. P. DENIES STRIKE

Notwithstanding the current rumor of a general strike along the entire line of the Grand Trunk Pacific in the northwest, no effect has been felt along the eastern portion of the work up to this date, and it is argued by the contractors that even if the industrial workers should invade this territory it would be impossible for them to conduct hostilities, owing to the fact that they would be utterly unable to get supplies in to the men, practically all of the construction being entirely controlled by the contractors themselves. No difficulty is being experienced in getting men for the work and no anticipation of trouble arising by reason of the conditions on the extreme northwest end of construction is felt in this section.

"ADMIRAL" WINSTON S. CHURCHILL

London, Aug. 23.—The Standard publishes a story from a naval correspondent charging Winston Churchill with having given wireless instructions to commanders in the recent naval manoeuvres from Whitehall, also with having "presumed personally to lecture to a score of British admirals on the handling of fleets and the conduct of a naval war."

The situation would be ludicrous, the Standard adds, were it not for the appalling effect such an incident has on naval discipline and efficiency.

WHAT THE PANAMA BILL PROVIDES

As adopted by the Senate—the Panama bill provides:

Exemption from tolls to American coastwise ships and all American vessels engaged in foreign trade.

Prohibition against use of the canal by railroad owned vessels.

Forbids passage through canal to vessels owned or controlled by persons or firms in business in restraint of trade.

Admits foreign built ships to registry in this country when owned by Americans and used in foreign trade.

Establishes a one man type of government for the zone.

Amplifies the powers of the interstate commerce commission to compel railroads to dispose of steamship lines that may possibly be operated as competitors.

MORE FIGHTS IN CHINA NOW THE ALARM

Shanghai, Aug. 24. — Despatches received here from Hankow confirm the reports of desperate fighting near Wu Chang. The cause of the outbreak is not definitely known here, but it is supposed to be a direct result of Dr. Sun Yat Sen's break with President Yuan Shi Kai, and probably marks the resumption of the revolution in China.

Wu Chang adjoins Hankow, and foreign residents there are greatly alarmed over the situation.

The natives of Southern China are demanding a separate republic with either Dr. Sun Yat Sen or Li Yuan Hung as president.

RUPERT WILL SEND WOOD TO NEW ZEALAND

A good demand exists for Canadian timber in New Zealand, the difficulty appearing to be securing means of transportation. The Vancouver mail boats can only bring certain lengths, such as will go in the hatches. This office is importuned constantly for the names of shippers of Oregon and the transportation difficulty always occurs. A chartered lumber boat, so equipped as to be available for return freight, would experience no difficulty in getting a cargo from British Columbia ports if the date of sailing was made known here. Recent enquiries cover a quantity aggregating 2,500,000 feet. New Zealand timber is rapidly disappearing and the importations in future will be very large.

High cost of living may not be entirely due to high tariffs. But the cleaning away of one kind of rubbish will help to show what other kinds of rubbish need to be removed.

MERELY MABEL REMARKS

That there's some whisper of a dance in the air, and more whisper about evening frocks.

That it was the queer color of the water that gave the old timers such a thirst on Sunday morning.

That the epidemic of 8 a. m. headache broke out again furiously amongst the youngsters this morning.

That the small patients who didn't put in an appearance at the school opening were a little better this afternoon.

That the longshoremen have invested in a cask of athletes' embrocation in preparation for the coming football match.

That the man with ten cents to spare had better keep away from the auction sale on Wednesday. He might be tempted.

That the citizens would perhaps pull together more readily if they didn't see anybody round with pull of the private kind.

That it's a good thing the Bishop has such a good memory for forgetting some of those old time adventures.

That anyone found in possession of that thousand dollar cheque may keep it.

RECIPROCITY IN WOOD PULP PRODUCTS

Washington, Aug. 20.—Wood pulp, print paper and paper board manufactured from woods of British Columbia, from which the export restrictions were recently removed by the council of that province will be admitted to the United States free of duty under the one operative clause of the Canadian reciprocity act.

Secretary MacVeagh made this decision today after an investigation on the subject by the state department. The woods affected are on certain leases controlled by the Powell River company in British Columbia, lying west of the Cascade range of mountains. The order is expected to increase the importations of free wood pulp and paper to the Pacific Coast states and will take effect as of July 12.

NEW ZEALAND IMPORTS BOOTS FROM ABROAD

New Zealand imports nearly $1,000,000 worth of boots and shoes a year. For the fiscal year ended March 31st, 1912, Canada supplied only about $25,000 worth, although they are susceptible to the preferential tariff. Gum boots to the value of $55,000 were imported for the same period, and Canada supplied about $20,000 worth. These articles are free.

$220,000 FOR HIS FIRST GOOD MEAL

New York, Aug. 22.—James B. Brady, vice president of the Standard Steel Car Co., known as "Diamond Jim," put a new price on a healthy stomach, when he gave $220,000 to the Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore, to be applied to the ward where stomach and kidney troubles are treated. In this ward Brady was made able to eat what he wanted when he wanted it. The gift, privately announced at Brady's first meal after his cure, was made public today.

CANADIAN LUMBER FACTS RECENTLY

The value of the material used in the slack cooperage industry in Canada in 1911, according to figures prepared by the Forestry Branch, Department of the Interior, was $1,465,702, or about $130,000 less than the value in 1910. The amount of material consumed, outside of a large element of waste which cannot be accurately determined, is estimated at 62,353,190 feet, board measure.

Ontario leads in this industry, with the production of 64 per cent. of the total number of staves, 70 per cent. of the headings and 76 per cent. of the hoops. Nova Scotia, with a large proportion of fish barrels, was next with 29 per cent., 24 per cent., and 20 per cent., respectively, of the total number of staves, heading and hoops. The other provinces produce very limited quantities.

Imports exceeded exports of $135,463 by $194,529. White oak staves form an important part of the imports, numbering, in all, 7,293,000, whereas only 2,768,000 were cut in Canada. The Canadian supply of oak, which alone is suitable for the manufacture of containers for alcoholic beverages, is so nearly exhausted that the branch of the tight cooperage industry will practically cease in a few years. The cost of materials for slack cooperage averaged as follows per thousand pieces: Staves, $6.91; heading, (sets) $54.77; hoops, $7.62. Figures on the cost of tight cooperage materials were not available.

A reduction in the price of beefsteaks is promised. It must come or people will take to a diet of rice.
