Prince Rupert Rents the Poles to the Company and Buys Power From Them at Cheaper Rate---City Can Now Supply Power to Users of More Than Ten Horse Power

The main terms of the agreement proposed between the Prince Rupert Hydro-Electric Company and the City of Prince Rupert, as embodied in the agreement discussed at Monday night's Council meeting, were partly as follows:

1. In this bylaw the word "company" shall mean the Prince Rupert Hydro-Electric Company, Limited, its successors and assigns, the word "corporation" shall mean the corporation of the City of Prince Rupert, and the word "Council" shall mean the Council of the said corporation.

2. (a) The said company may construct, erect and maintain and there is hereby granted to the said company under and subject to the terms, conditions and covenants hereinafter set forth, permission to construct, erect and maintain its poles, and string or operate a line or lines of wire along the sides and across or under any public highway, street or bridge within the limits of the City of Prince Rupert, and to do all things which may be necessary in the supplying of electrical current for industrial power and heating purposes during the term of forty years from the date hereof.

(b) The exclusive right of supplying electric current to power users having a connected load with a rating equivalent to ten (10) horse power or less is reserved by the corporation.

3. for the purpose of generating light for the lighting of the business premises of such person, firm or corporation upon which the power supplied by the company for power purposes as aforesaid is used.

4. The company may, during the said period of forty years, use such poles upon the public streets as may from time to time be erected or owned by the corporation for the purpose of carrying the company's wire or wires under the terms and conditions, that is to say:

(a) The corporation may without any charge, cost or liability, but subject to such reasonable and proper conditions as to position of wires and supervision of work as the company may impose, use any pole or poles the property of the company, and erected by it within the corporate limits for the purpose of carrying any wire or wires belonging to the said corporation for its own purposes only.

(b) Before placing any wire or wires upon any pole or poles belonging to the corporation, the company shall obtain the consent in writing of the Mayor, the chairman of the Board of Works and the chairman of the Light committee of the said Council for the time being, and it shall be lawful for the said Mayor, chairman of the Board of Works and chairman of the Light committee of the Council aforesaid in granting such consent to impose such reasonable and proper conditions as to position of wires and supervision of work as it may deem fit.

(c) The company shall pay to the corporation:

(1) In each and every calendar year, up to and including the year 1922, for each and every pole erected, maintained or used

AMATEUR PERFORMANCE BY BAPTIST BROTHERHOOD PROVES A SUCCESS

Those Who Saw "Our Boys" Were Delighted With the Plot and Playing---Amateurs Displayed Amazing Skill---Great Credit is Due Mrs. Chisholm

Last evening the performance of the popular comedy, "Our Boys," by the Baptist Brotherhood at the Westholme Opera House proved to be a most successful entertainment. Despite the stormy night, there was a good attendance, and everybody in the house went home satisfied that they were more than repaid for facing the inclement weather. Great credit is due to Mrs. J. Chisholm for the energy, work and skill she devoted to her task of directorship, which produced such excellent results.

Space forbids more than slight mention of the splendid work of the players.

C. R. Simpson and Robert McIntosh, in the strong character parts of the two old fathers, Sir Geoffrey Champneys and Perkin Middlewick, were every bit as good as professionals, carrying their parts consistently through and convulsing the house at times with their natural and unaffected acting.

Charles Middlewick, the handsome, breezy son of the old butlerman, was played capably by Adair Cars, who made a most good looking and attractive lover.

Frank Ellis in the part of the la-di-da son of the old aristocrat, who was considered by everyone the fool of the family, could not have been excelled, his every word and action being an artistic study.

The two girls, Violet and Mary Melrose, had charming and accomplished representatives in Miss Fisher and Miss Margaret McDonald, who both acted in a finished and assured style, as if in a private drawing room.

Of Mrs. Jack Chisholm's impersonation of the aristocratic old maid words fail to express the excellence of the characterization.

It had to be seen to be appreciated.

The famous third act, showing the attic of a cheap London lodging house, gave Miss Annie Brown her chance, and she was not slow in taking advantage of it. Both in make-up and in acting she was the typical London slavey, the historical "Belinda" to the life.

Unquestionably the play was a great success, the continuous ripple of amusement and tense interest shown by the audience attesting to this fact.

After the performance the Brotherhood gathered in Knott's Bakery, where a pleasant little supper was spread for them.

Roche's Big Basement Pool Room is being enlarged and is now one of the most comfortable places in town. Nothing too good for the patrons of 235 Roche's Pool Room.

TURKEY GIVEN TWO DAYS IN WHICH TO MAKE THE REFORMS

BALKAN STATES ISSUE ULTIMATUM GIVING TURKEY FORTY-EIGHT HOURS IN WHICH TO MAKE REFORMS IN MACEDONIA---GREECE WILL ALSO FIGHT TURKEY.

(Special to Daily News.)
London, Oct. 2.—With the exception of Roumania, all the countries surrounding the troubled Balkan states are putting their armies on a war footing to be prepared for trouble.

It is stated that the Balkan states have issued an ultimatum to Turkey demanding the reforms they desire in Macedonia within forty-eight hours.

Reports from Greece say that Turkey has decided to seize all the Greek vessels in Turkish waters. This has a decidedly warlike appearance and is considered to be likely if further reports of the annexation of Crete by Greece are true. Turkey has repeatedly declared such an action would mean immediate war.

Yesterday afternoon a special meeting of the Real Estate Exchange was held in the offices of Mr. David H. Hays, when a very pleasing little event took place. Major George E. Gibson, one of the members of the exchange, was presented with a handsome office clock by the president, Mr. Hays, on behalf of the members for his kindness and courtesy in permitting the meetings of the exchange to be held at all times in his office. FAMED LAWYER IS IN RUPERT

Mr. J. B. Pattullo, Formerly Prosecutor for Yukon, is in Prince Rupert Visiting Brother.

Mr. J. B. Pattullo, brother of T. D. Pattullo of this city, arrived yesterday from the North on the City of Seattle and is spending a day with his brother, proceeding on to Vancouver, where he now resides, tonight.

Mr. Pattullo, who was an old timer of the North from the early days of the first gold rush, practiced law for a number of years in the gold metropolis, latterly being Crown prosecutor until he left the territory.

His visit to Dawson this summer was caused by his being engaged upon an important civil case, Peter Rost vs. A. N. C. Treadgold, the well known concessionaire, whose name was so prominently connected with the days of the historic Treadgold concession.

The case was finished before Mr. Pattullo left, judgment being reserved. Mr. Pattullo, who has passed up and down this coast numbers of times since going North, generally stopping off at Prince Rupert, remarked on stepping on to the dock yesterday that it was the first time in his memory upon arriving here he ever found it raining.

INSURANCE MEN ORGANIZE NEW FIRE UNDERWRITER COMMITTEE

LOCAL FIRE INSURANCE AGENTS JOIN TOGETHER FOR THE MUTUAL PROTECTION OF THEMSELVES AND THEIR CLIENTS.

For the better protection of the fire insurance business in Prince Rupert, the Prince Rupert committee of the B. C. Mainland Insurance Association was formed recently in the city.

Only representatives of board or tariff companies are eligible to membership in the organization, which will be run on the same plan as the underwriters' association, of which it is a committee.

In the first place, it will mean that the board companies represented in the city, who in placing insurance have a uniform rate will be in a thoroughly organized state, furnishing reports of the business done by each individual firm every three months. This will insure everything being absolutely fair, both as regards the agents of the several companies and the clients taking out insurance. Further, it will be the means of lowering in the future the insurance rates, as the committee will act in conjunction with those taking out insurance and see that every precaution possible is taken to guard against fire, both by the civic fire protection system and the action of private property holders in making every possible safeguard against fire.

The following local firms comprise the board committee: Messrs. G. R. Naden & Co., Peck, Moore & Co., McCaffery & Gibbons, Mack Realty, M. M. Stephens & Co., Continental Trust Co., C. B. Schreiber & Co., C. D. Rand, Westenhaver Bros., Law, Butler & Co., Mr. M. H. Hobin of the Continental Trust Co. is secretary.

Corbett, who was the cleverest boxer the ring ever knew, earned for himself by his excellent style and manner the title "Gentleman Jim." He secured the championship by defeating John L. Sullivan, and lost of Bob Fitzsimmons. He tried to regain it, without success, from Fitzsimmons, and again from Jeffries when he took it from Fitzsimmons.

After a number of years in vaudeville and in training and managing fighters, Corbett recently established a news bureau for the supplying of sporting news to newspapers and magazines.

MINTO CUP TO STAY IN WEST

New Westminster Defeated Cornwall by 15 Goals to 7 Yesterday for Minto Cup.

(Special to Daily News.)
New Westminster, Oct. 1.—In a rugged game today, in which, however, some excellent brand of lacrosse was at times displayed, New Westminster, holders of the Minto cup, emblematic of the world's championship, defeated Cornwall, winners of the N. L. U. championship, and challengers for the trophy, by 15 goals to 7.

The game took place on Queen's Park oval, where the exhibition is in progress, and was attended by many thousands. The speed and style of play of the champions was bewildering to the challengers, who, however, succeeded in gaining seven goals and in trying Clark many times with hot shots.

The next game will be played next Saturday, and while the game will no doubt be closer, those who witnessed the first match have no hesitation in pronouncing the Royals the winners.

BORDEN MUST GET ADVICE.

Mr. Borden and his colleagues are anxiously awaiting further orders from England before the Canadian naval policy can be made public. When one remembers the speeches made by the Premier, both in London, and on his return, this seems a rather peculiar state of affairs. It was stated with admirable frequency that Canada is now becoming one of England's chief advisers, and that the ministers from the Dominion were treated to an inside view of the workings of British affairs. We were given to understand that whatever Mr. Borden said was greeted with glad cries of admiration by all who listened, and that his statements would have much to do with framing the policies of the world's greatest power. Yet Mr. Borden is back in Canada, waiting for a suggestion from England which will enable him to make known his plans, a rather remarkable situation, the Canadian premier anxiously preparing to receive instructions from the Motherland. If Mr. Borden was sincere in his remarks regarding the treatment he received in London, it would appear that the English statesmen are more shrewd even than we had supposed. They succeeded in giving Mr. Borden the idea that he was really important, whereas future developments go to show that he was merely made a pawn in the Imperial game. It was cleverly done too, for the press associations carried glowing accounts of the enthusiasm which Canada had stirred up in the councils of the nation.—Saturday Sunset.

TORIES ALREADY AT ELECTION TACTICS

The warning issued by Sir Wilfrid Laurier to the Canadian people to be prepared for an election does not come with so much surprise as would be the case with most governments of one year in office. For some time the signs of an impending election have been manifested throughout the country. In almost every constituency, especially those which will be divided by the redistribution act, which is inevitable, the Tory campaign is starting.

Members are dodging about throughout their ridings promising, smiling and hand-shaking, and maybe are taking the party's choice for the newly to be created districts about with them, that they too may get acquainted and accustomed to the baby kissing game.

WHAT WOULD HAPPEN IN EVENT OF AN INVASION.

The suggestion advanced by a pioneer missionary in the north that were the threatened Japanese peril to eventuate Northern British Columbia would be the battle ground suggests terrible possibilities for an invasion. True, such an occurrence may not be probable, for at least many years, and as the Vancouver "Sun" remarks, would not be tolerated by the United States. Then again, the statement is made that Japan's finances would not allow for a war. That may be true now, but what about ten years hence? To look at the matter as does the revered gentleman, the invasion is feasible. With absolutely no protection for the railway terminals of the north, the securing of this port, five hundred miles nearer the Orient than Vancouver, would be an easy matter. Then were the Indians to join the Japs, as he suggested, and keep their line of communication open to the coast, the interior would be at their mercy, while the Queen Charlotte Islands would be their naval base. Japan realizes that if she invaded Canada she would have to reckon with the Republic and knows full well that the United States' fleet would not leave their own coast undefended to go six hundred miles north to fight Canada's battle, while at the same time thousands of brown men on the Pacific Coast would be under arms and thousands more of them would be pouring across the border from Lower California and Mexico. And what would become of the Hawaiian Islands? It is only one chance in a hundred that Japan would ever attempt such a thing as to war against the United States and Canada, but it is for Canada to protect herself against that one chance, and that means that Laurier's naval policy must be carried out and enlarged.

PREMIER M'BRIDE CORRECTLY REPORTED ON NAVAL POLICY

VICTORIA TIMES PROVES CONCLUSIVELY THAT HALF HEARTED DENIAL OF GLOBE INTERVIEW WAS INCORRECT IN VIEW OF STATEMENTS AND ACTIONS OF PREMIER.

The report of the interview of Sir Richard McBride by a special representative of the Toronto Globe, in which the Premier stated that British Columbia demanded and had a right to expect in Mr. Borden's naval policy a fleet unit on the Pacific Coast, has been widely commented upon in the East. No serious attempt has been made to discredit the substantial accuracy of the report for several reasons. In the first place, in his conversation with the Globe man, Sir Richard merely repeated what he has stated in public meetings, on the stump, in newspaper interviews in England and Eastern Canada less than six months ago, and in the Legislature when the following amendment was moved by him and adopted by the House: "That the Dominion government be urged, in view of the great importance of the immediate and adequate protection of the Pacific Coast of Canada, to consider the question of naval defense at the earliest possible moment, and, be it further resolved that an humble address be presented to his honor the Lieutenant Governor respectfully requesting him to forward a copy of this resolution to the Secretary of State at Ottawa."

And marching valiantly behind him has been his devoted local morning organ, which in numerous articles emphasized the imperative necessity of adequate naval protection for the Pacific Coast. In justice to the morning paper it should be admitted that it was never so resourceful as to confine itself to one particular policy, but in the last three years has supported all policies, sometimes in the same article, with a vehemence and entertaining inconsistency all its own.

The interview with Sir Richard McBride, which embodies the views he has expressed time and time again in this city, was obtained on appointment by one of the most responsible and reliable journalists in Canada—the Parliamentary correspondent of the Toronto Globe—during a recent visit here. The time and place of the interview were arranged by the Premier upon the solicitation of the newspaper man. That the report contains Sir Richard McBride's real views on the navy question in a general sense the local public will readily believe, and the fact that the Premier's "explanation" was buried away in an obscure part of his local organ is excellent confirmation in itself.

The Montreal Star, which opposes a fleet unit on the Pacific, has seized upon the alleged denial by the Premier of the interview with avidity, and would have the Eastern people believe that, like itself, Sir Richard McBride is against everything in the shape of a naval policy, except a contribution in the North Sea. The Star has frequently belittled the claims of the Pacific for a fleet unit, and is endeavoring to interpret the attitude of the British Columbia Premier as being of a similar nature. As a matter of fact, Sir Richard's views on the question of a Canadian navy were quite correctly reported in the Globe.—Victoria Times.

SPORT CLIPPINGS

Former Champ Arrives. New York, Oct. 2.—"Diamond" Thomas, an English middleweight boxer, former holder of the Lord Londale belt, is here to search for a match. Thomas lost the belt by a knockout to Jack Harrison. To prepare for any offer that may be made, Thomas intends going into active training at once. He is said to be clever and a solid puncher.

The Cleveland club, since Harry Davis left, are winning right along. They are now on an even standing with Chicago for fourth place. Ernie Barrieau, champion amateur lightweight of the Pacific, will leave for Edmonton in a few days where he will meet Kid Sealer on October 12.

Billy Papke is a real comeback. Last night he beat Jack Denning, of New York, in ten rounds at New York. Manager Reidy, of the San Francisco baseball club, says he will have the pennant winning team next year. He is now picking up a lot of new recruits.

Mike Gibbons, the St. Paul marvel, is hot on Eddie McGoorty's track. Mike says he is the middleweight champion, and he is going out to show the public that he is. A fight between these two would be one of the best of the year. The San Francisco promoters say if they cannot match Rivers and Wolgast for Thanksgiving Day, they will endeavor to get Jack Britton and Willie Ritchie to hook up.

Charlie Schmidt, the former Detroit catcher, who is now with Providence, is talking of entering the ring again. Last winter he fought Jim Flynn to a standstill. President Bob Brown hopes to land Sport McMurdo for next season's team. McMurdo was with Victoria last year, but went to Winnipeg last spring. He is a finished fielder and a reliable hitter.

For permitting its baseball park to become overcrowded during the recent series with New York, the Chicago National club was fined $600. It was charged by the fire prevention bureau of Chicago, which instituted the prosecution, that tickets had been sold exceeding the seating capacity, and that the aisles were blocked with spectators. Charles W. Murphy, president of the club, who was also made a defendant, was discharged, Judge Scott ruling that Mr. Murphy was merely an agent of the corporation.

Billy Walters, welterweight champion of the United States navy, and Clarence English, at Omaha, have been matched for a fifteen round bout at St. Joseph, Mo., on the night of October 1st. The weight agreed upon is 145 pounds at 3 o'clock on the day of the fight. Joe Cohn's reserve list for 1913, filed with Secretary Farrell, includes the following players: Pitchers, Kraft, Gordon, Cardreau, Toner, Strand, Cochran, Leonard, Pittman, Bridger, Hayes; catchers, Ostdiek, Graham; infielders, Gooney, Altman, Cartwright, Davis, Raymond; outfielders, Johnson, Melchoir, Powell, Hartley, W. Johnson.

In a match game at the Hub Bowling Alleys, Second avenue, last night, Captain Lockhart's team defeated Captain Vance's team by 40 pins. A. Steeves had both high score and high average, 165 and 157, respectively. The next match game will be played Wednesday night between the Business Men and a picked team.

MEDICINE HAT IS ADVANCING

Prairie City Claims to Have the Greatest Building Advancement in Canada. Medicine Hat, Alta., Oct. 2.—The announcement that Medicine Hat is leading all Canadian cities this year for building record is taken quite generally here as a matter of course; in fact, this condition was freely forecasted several months ago by insiders familiar with basic facts. As early as last April, R. H. Knight, civil engineer, while stopping over here in the interest of Edmonton investors, stated: "I am especially impressed with the large number of new industries that are now locating in Medicine Hat, although the surprising feature is that this opportunity was not taken advantage of much sooner. With the development that is now going ahead in Western Canada, with the central location of the city, together with nature's gift of gas for lighting, fuel and power, Medicine Hat cannot help but become a great manufacturing centre."

At the time when Mr. Knight made this statement the average daily record of building permits had jumped to ten times the daily average for the corresponding period of last year. As yet no lull in construction operations is noted, and it is believed the record of building permits should easily pass the $3,000,000 mark long before winter.

When the all-star American League team was gathered for the purpose of playing the Naps on Addie Joss Day, July 25, 1911, the catchers of that great team were Paddy Livingston and Gabby Street. By a peculiar coincidence these two players are the only members of that grand organization who are not in the big leagues today. Street having been banished to the International, while Paddy is catching for Toledo.

lap Myers has now broken the world's record in stealing bases for the minor league. His total to date is 106. The record was formerly held by "Heinie" Zimmerman, now the leading hitter of the National League. If Hap duplicates his performance in the big leagues how the Boston tail-enders will welcome him!
