MONTENEGRIN FORCES CONTINUE SUCCESS AND CAPTURE TURKISH FORTS ON FRONTIER

MEN DRIFT IN OPEN BOAT WHEN LAUNCH BREAKS DOWN

FOUR MEN ARE SHIPWRECKED IN TERRIFIC STORM LAST NIGHT—TWO MEN GO FOR HELP IN SMALL BOAT, BUT GET ON WOLF ISLAND—DARING RESCUE.

Messrs. H. F. McRae, D. H. Morrison, George Bryant and W. S. Fisher passed through an experience last night which they will remember for many a day. Early in the afternoon they started out on a shooting expedition in the Shawatin, but after after being out a short time met with the misfortune of breaking the propeller shaft. Casting anchor near the quarantine station, Messrs. McRae and Morrison started out in a small row boat to come to the city for another launch.

Owing to a very heavy sea that was rolling at the time, it was impossible to make any headway, and the two made a landing on Wolf Island, where they decided to wait until the sea became less turbulent. When darkness came on they built a fire and it began

BATTLE CONTINUES ON THE TURKO-MONTENEGRIN LINE

VICTORS OF YESTERDAY'S BATTLE TAKE SEVERAL FORTS—KING NICHOLAS VISITS HOSPITALS AND TALKS TO WOUNDED MEN—OFFICIAL LOSSES IN BATTLE.

(Special to Daily News.)
Podgoritz, Montenegro, Oct. 11.—The battle following the capture of Detchitch Mountain still continues. Several forts and minor strongholds have fallen into the hands of the victorious Montenegrins. The fight covers practically the entire Turko-Montenegrin frontier. The hospitals here are full to overflowing with wounded and dying soldiers brought from the battlefield. King Nicholas visited the hospitals today and kissed the foreheads of the dead and dying soldiers. His appearance was the signal for a demonstration on the part of the wounded men. Those able to salute did so, while the men whose wounds prevented their doing so followed with their eyes the Monarch as he moved from one cot to another, stopping to give an encouraging word to each man.

London, Oct. 11.—The Turkish losses at the battle of Detchitch Mountain yesterday were six hundred killed and wounded, while the Montenegrin army lost four hundred men.

HAZELTON DISTRICT IS VERY RICH SAYS MINING OPERATOR

MR. J. L. RATELACK, WELL KNOWN MINING MAN TELLS OF DEVELOPMENT OF DISTRICT AND MINES IN VICINITY OF HAZELTON.

Vancouver, Oct. 11.—"In spite of the fact that transportation facilities in the Hazelton district are still very limited and have proved of considerable detriment to the mining industry in Hazelton, the industry in Hazelton is enjoying greater activity, and is giving better result during the present season than at any time since the discovery of the district."

Interviewed yesterday, Mr. J. L. Ratelack, a mining operator, and expert from Kaslo, who has just returned from a trip to the Hazelton district, characterized the prospects in the Interior as above.

Mr. Ratelack stated that the greatest development had taken place in the silver lead country; the Silver Standard mine operators having opened a series of parallel veins on their property that was assessing about $100 to the ton, and was giving every promise of an almost unlimited supply.

An idea of the rich quality of the Standard mine was given by the fact that in one place a shaft had been sunk 200 feet in solid ore. The company were now installing a compressor plant, in order that when the sleighing season opens regular shipments of the ore may be taken to the railway tracks about six miles away.

On account of accident the Princess Mary sailing from Vancouver, October 9th, was cancelled. There will, therefore, be no sailing from here on Sunday night at 9 p.m. It is expected the Princess Mary service will be resumed next week. The Princess May will sail for Vancouver at 9 a.m. Saturday. 244

LIBERAL MEN ARE ARRESTED

Tories Have Two Liberal Workers Arrested in Macdonald Election—Bitter Controversy.

(Special to Daily News.)
Winnipeg, Oct. 11.—The Macdonald bye election campaign closed here tonight with the arrest of two Liberal workers by Provincial constables. It has added fuel to the bitter controversy now raging, and the question is raised as to the justification of the arrests. Both sides are confident of winning the election.

RED SOX BEST GIANTS AGAIN

Great Crowds Witness the Boston Red Sox Win from the New York Giants Yesterday Afternoon.

(Special to Daily News.)
New York, Oct. 11.—Today the Red Sox bested the New York Giants in the fourth game of the world's series by the score of 3 to 1. The tie standing of the clubs, each having won one, and the other being a draw, created such intense interest that not a seat could be bought at any price at the Polo Grounds, while thousands crowded about the gates awaiting the result of the game. In Boston the telegraph and newspaper offices were besieged with anxious men and women awaiting the news. It presented a scene of war times when news was expected of a great battle.

STUDENTS HID BONES OF MAN

Vancouver Medical Students Find Body of Indian, Boil Bones and Hide Them in Chimney.

(Special to Daily News.)
Vancouver, Oct. 12.—Chimney sweeps found in an East End apartment house last night a bag of bones hidden in the flue. The skeleton was in parts and doctors said the flesh had been boiled from the bones, probably by medical students. This proved to be correct, as a Munroe medical student admitted to the police that the bones were those of an Indian found a year ago at Masset, B. C., buried beneath the roots of a tree many years ago. Don't fail to see the nifty neckwear that Sloan & Co., Ltd., are offering for 50c. 240-241

MEXICANS AFRAID REBELS WILL MASSACRE LOYALISTS

FORCE BEING RUSHED TO SUCCOR OF BESIEGED LOYALISTS WHO ARE IN PERIL OF THEIR LIVES FROM REBELS.

Douglas, Ariz., Oct. 12.—Two hundred and fifty Mexican fed- erals are rushing to Montezuma, Sonora, to relieve that town, which is surrounded and threatened by General Antonio Rojas and four hundred insurgents. Rojas issued an ultimatum demanding that the federal garrison of the place surrender or be annihilated. There are only a hundred fed- erals at Montezuma, and it is feared they may be wiped out before reinforcements arrive. Two hundred additional fed- erals were ordered to the scene. The fed- erals have orders to pursue any advantage they may obtain over Rojas' force, to the end of exterminating the rebels. General Rojas has applied to President Madero for amnesty, but while awaiting a reply is losing no opportunity to lay waste the country.

FREE MILLING GOLD DISCOVERED AT KITSUMKALUM—HUNDREDS ARE ON THE WAY—50 CLAIMS STAKED

Kitsumkalum, Oct. 11.—Great excitement prevails in Kitsumkalum as the result of the discovery of free milling gold twenty-six miles from this place at Naroon Point on Kitsumkalem lake last Friday by Joe Belway and J. McLaren, two prospectors who have been in the vicinity for some time.

Samples brought into the town show gold to the value of thousands of dollars per ton. The news of the discovery leaked out and Tuesday and Wednesday a regular stampede started from this place and Terrace.

Fifty claims have already been staked out and more are being plotted. Terrace is practically deserted, everyone having gone to the find.

The existence of gold in the region about Kitsumkalum is without question. This region was the scene of the big gold rush some twenty years ago and it is said that a million dollars was taken from Douglas Creek at that time, while Hope and other streams gave handsome profits. Even today the sluice boxes and cradles of the pioneers can be found as evidence of the mining activity of other days.

Ald. Geo. W. Kerr, who returned from that region yesterday, was present at the time when the gold was uncovered by Bel-way and McLaren, and saw the samples.

"Undoubtedly," he said to a News representative, "the rock is very rich, but I would not like to say how much of it there is, whether the whole fault from Kitsumkalum to Lorne Creek, which is a good schist, bears the same quartz, or whether it is a pocket, but the pieces of rock which I saw bore pieces of gold as big as the end of a lead pencil. There is no need of an assay to show that the stuff would sum into the thousands."

"When McLaren and Belway went to town with their find and the news got abroad there was a regular rush from Kitsumkalum and Terrace. Eighteen men went in one wagon from Terrace and hardly a person was left in the place while Kitsumkalum was as bad."

Another gentleman who came from the scene of the excitement yesterday, said that he had seen the quartz samples and the gold was there in large quantities. He claims that the schist formation in which it is found is the same as that in which the gold bearing quartz is discovered in the famous Treadwell mines in Alaska and is similar to the gold bearing rock in Australia.

Edwards Committed.
Calgary, Oct. 10.—R. C. Edwards, proprietor of a weekly newspaper, known as the "Eye Opener," was committed for trial on a charge of criminal libel. The case was brought by E. P. Davis, K. C., a prominent Vancouver lawyer.

BASKETBALL LEAGUE FORMED

A meeting was held last night in the Baptist Brotherhood rooms to make arrangements for the establishment of a basketball league this season. The meeting was very enthusiastic and it is likely that five teams will at least be entered. Another meeting will be held Tuesday night when further particulars for the formation of the league will be made. All who are at all interested in the game will be welcomed at the meeting. Entries can be given to Jarvis McLeod.

KITSUMKALUM MAKES A BIG VEGETABLE DISPLAY HERE

CABBAGES WEIGHING THIRTY POUNDS, GREAT POTATOES, KALE AND OTHER MAGNIFICENT PRODUCTS OF THE SOIL IN KIRKPATRICK'S WINDOW.

Apropos of the discussion before the City Council last Monday as to the expediency of holding an agricultural exhibition in the city next fall, a magnificent display of vegetables from the Kitsumkalum Valley in the window of J. A. Kirkpatrick's store on Sixth street comes at a very appropriate time.

The vegetables, which are splendid examples of their several varieties, consist of potatoes, cabbages, turnips, celery, parsnips and beets. A cabbage of magnificent proportions, grown by P. Braun, weighs 30 pounds, whilst a cauliflower, raised by W. J. Goodwin, is as fine a specimen as one would see anywhere.

The other exhibitors are Messrs. McMillan, H. L. Frank, F. Boulher, Thomas Laird and George Rudge.

Alderman George Kerr, who was instrumental in getting the collection together, is vying with Alderman Bullock-Webster in the interest taken in the agricultural possibilities of the Interior, and is an enthusiastic booster for the farming opportunities offered in the fertile valleys along the line of the new railroad. It is certain that there will be an agricultural show held here next fall, and no amount of effort should be spared to make the affair an unqualified success.

NEW MISSION BOAT ARRIVES FOR WORK ALONG THE COAST

HANDSOME NEW MISSION BOAT ARRIVES FROM VANCOUVER IN CHARGE OF REV. W. F. RUSHBROOK TO DO MISSIONARY WORK FOR ANGLICAN CHURCH.

Making the five hundred mile trip from Vancouver to Prince Rupert in sixty-eight running hours, the new Anglican mission boat arrived in the harbor yesterday afternoon.

"Northern Cross" is the name written on the boat, which is forty-five feet in length with a beam of ten feet eight inches. Rev. W. F. Rushbrook is in charge of the boat and with his colleague, Mr. Tomlinson, and Mr. J. G. Drew, a motor expert, brought her up the coast. The Northern Cross will be engaged in mission work running regularly from this port to Porcher Island, Port Essington, Granby Bay, Port Simpson and other places where no regular pastor is situated. During the week the boat will visit the canneries, logging camps and scattered settlers on the coast.

It enters into commission at once, leaving this afternoon for Haysport and Port Essington.

The boat, which is registered here, is propelled by a 25-34 horse power Standard gasoline engine. It is fitted very comfortably for the accommodation of those living on it.

On Wednesday and Thursday of next week the boat will be at the Government wharf and will be open for inspection.

McBRIDE AND THE COAL MINERS.

No change is reported in the situation of the Vancouver Island coal strike, except that the unsatisfied demand for coal is growing day by day and the condition the lower coast cities face is a serious one.

Those who are feeling the want of fuel may, in their fretfulness, lay the blame on the miners. "What did they want to go on strike for?" is the question now asked by the man who finds that his coal bin is empty. It is unfair to the miners and unfair to the very men who are asking the question. The blame is on the man who last week was decorated with the insignia of the Grand Order of St. Michael and St. George.

Every pound of coal is torn from the bowels of the earth at the risk of a precious human life, and many and many a brawny man has been carried from those same mines with his body mangled almost beyond recognition that the wheels of commerce might turn. Three years ago on the fifth of this month thirty-two men died one morning in the slopes of No. 2 mine at Extension—thirty-two heroes—as good men as ever God gave the breath of life to. In a single instant their lives were snuffed out as a child would extinguish the flame of a candle, and all because the Department of Mines did not do their duty as they should have done it. In the early part of this year seven men died in the dark interior of the Diamond Vale Colliery in the Nicola Valley. Died with their boots on. They, too, in a single second were hurled into eternity and their bodies were later found with eyes starting from their sockets and fingers tightened in shirt collars in a vain effort to get a breath of God's free gift, fresh air. The coroner's jury denounced the Department of Mines and put the blame for that explosion on the inspectors. What did the great McBride do in justice to the widows and fatherless children of the men who that morning died? What did he do in justice to himself, who, as minister of mines, is head of that department? He crawled away to England like a whipped cur, and returned with his inflated chest bearing the insignia of knighthood, the highest of honors.

The Saturday night before election when at Ladysmith he was attacked on the public platform by Parker Williams, the representative of the miners, on his administration of the Department of Mines (this was the week before the jury's verdict), he promised that one complaint from a single miner would be enough to cause him to institute the most searching enquiry. That was his pre-election talk, but those miners, remembering, no doubt, the thirty-two mounds on the hillside, did not return his candidate, but sent Williams, the man who had for pine years fought a straight fight for them, back to the assembly.

With the memory of those men who were carried to the cemetery in twos and threes to the wail of the "Dead March," on Black Friday, fresh in their minds, the men formed a union and under the provisions of the Coal Mines Regulation Act appointed their gas men that they might, if possible, prevent another such disaster. It was their own lives that those men were fighting for. The gas men were discharged and were refused work in other collieries, "blacklisted" so the miners claim.

What would you do under such circumstances? Would you go back into that mine, and if your turn came to act as gas man would you do your duty if you knew it meant blacklisting? Would you do your duty if at home a wife and several small children were dependent on you, or might you not just overlook a little gas for fear that you might be blamed for being officious? To prevent such a thing the whole of the miners employed protested. Were they justified? Who will say "no"?

McBride was asked to appoint an investigation committee, as he had promised he would do on a single complaint. Fifteen hundred men asked for it, and he refused. Why did he do so—was it because he was afraid that the Diamond Vale and Extension explosions would be brought into it, or was it because of the fact that the men did not support his administration?

The weather report this morning at 5 o'clock was: Barometer, 29.929; maximum temperature, 55; minimum temperature, 52; precipitation, .02 inch.

CUPID LAUGHS AT LOCKSMITHS AND FOILS THE STERN JUDGE

MARY CROSBIE, WHEN ABOUT TO BE SENTENCED, IS RESCUED BY HER GREAT BLONDE LOVER IN TRUE ROMANTIC FASHION.

Probably the turn that the Mary Crosbie appeal case took in Judge Young's court yesterday is unique in the annals of the bench and bar in the Province of British Columbia, if not in the whole of the Dominion of Canada. When the case was called at 3 o'clock, and the maiden in question was asked to stand up, she did not have to face the court alone, as immediately at her side, sprung up a husky young Finlander, who begged permission of the court to make her his bride. The sudden request somewhat staggered His Honor for the moment, but after a short consultation with Crown Prosecutor Fisher and L. W. Patmore, the counsel for the defense, it was arranged for the happy pair to go up to the residence of the Rev. Charles R. Sing and have the knot tied. His Honor adjourned court for an hour to give the requisite time for performing the ceremony. The Judge having retired to his room, much merriment was indulged in by the bar, officials of the court and the police at the turn which affairs had taken.

Constable Pat Phillipson, of the Dominion police, as the maker of the match, he having brought the young couple together and sounded them as to the sincerity of their vows, and Constable Bill Adams of the city force, who attended the ceremony before the clergyman and gave the bride away, came in for lots of good natured chaff.

It appears that the bridegroom had known the demure and blushing Mary for some time past and a courtship had been carried on at the cannery at Wales Island, where they were both employed last summer, Mary's little trouble with the authorities causing him to come to the determination to offer himself as her savior and guardian in the years to come. He had a very shrewd idea that such a step would bring about the desired result of obtaining the girl her liberty. But wedding day or otherwise, the wheels of justice have inexorably to go around, and straight from the parsonage filed the wedding party, escorted by Constable Adams. Court assembled again and the charge against Mary was gone on with. But there was a half heartedness about the proceedings, and an evident air of romance enveloping the affair not often to be found in a court of justice. After Crown Prosecutor Fisher had called his witnesses and L. W. Patmore had shown his line of defense, the case was left in His Honor's hands, who, after giving the girl a severe lecturing as to her future conduct, allowed her her liberty on suspended sentence.

NEWS NOTES OF INTEREST BY MAIL FROM THE OLD COUNTRY

A man named Joseph Smith was cycling to his work down a steep hill at Oakengates, Shropshire, when he dashed into a coal train passing over a level crossing from the Lilleshall's Company's colliery, and was killed.

Johnny Evers says that Big Jeff Tesreau, of the Giants, will beat the Red Sox in the coming world's series. He even says that Jeff has it on Joe Wood and Ed. Walsh.

The remains of John Murrigan Donickmoor, of Dungourney, County of Cork, an inmate of Middleton workhouse, aged 92, were interred on Sunday. Donickmoor had been a prominent member of "the old guard," and belonged to the Fenian Brotherhood. He took part in the insurrection in 1867, being a brother-in-arms with Captain Mackay and Peter O'Neill Crowley at Castle Martyn on the night of the rising.

Three English visitors at Warrenpoint, Mr. Balmer and the Misses Finnegan, of Liverpool, while rowing to Omearh, were carried down Carlingford Lough by a strong westerly wind, assisted by the flow of the outgoing tide. The boat, becoming quite unmanageable, drifted for three hours. Just as darkness set in and a heavy mist was falling the steamer Countess of Mayo rescued the party in an exhausted condition.

Discovering several gun caps and cartridges left by workmen who had been blasting concrete beds at Warrington, two boys named Reginald Golding and George Savage discharged one of the detonators by means of a fuse. There was a terrible explosion, the cartridge having a lifting power of three tons. Golding lost an eye, whilst Savage had the middle finger of his left hand blown off.

Dorothy Woods, the 10-year-old daughter of the postman at Balcombe, near Hayward's Heath, has performed a feat of rescue exceptionally fine for one of her tender years. A little boy fell off the flood gates on Lord Cowdray's estate into the lake. As she could not swim the girl, with wonderful presence of mind, lay on her back and, stretching her legs out over the water, succeeded in dragging the boy to the bank with her feet.

INTERNATIONAL CONTROL Proposed Affiliation of Promoters to Control the Boxers.

New York, Oct. 10.—An international affiliation of boxing authorities of England, France, Australia and the United States to supervise certain features of the sport is favored by the English and French authorities, according to advices received here from Paul Rosseau, head of the French Federation of Boxing Clubs.

The suggestion originated last April with Frank O'Neil, of the New York State Athletic Commission, and was revived by Mr. O'Neil's recent protest against "Billy" Papke, who went to France after having refused at the eleventh hour to meet Frank Mantell here. The French authorities decided to take no action against Papke, but the incident emphasized the need of international affiliation, especially for the supervision of the standing of men, classes and weights.

Rosseau has advised the New York authorities that the National Sporting Club of England desires to enter into such an affiliation, and it is suggested that the New York authorities endeavor to bring the other boxing centres of the United States into an association representative of the whole country.

SPORT CLIPPINGS

Thirteen goals was an unlucky total, for the Cornwall Colts.

Bob Brown, the Vancouver baseball magnate, has turned down an offer of $35,000 for the Vancouver franchise in the Northwestern League.

Apparently the Royals were only toying with the Cornwall club all through the series, the goal summary bears this out.

Joe Lally will now have a chance to tell the folks down by the canal what a great (?) showing his pets made.

Dai Thomas, the former Welsh international rugby star, has not lost any of his old country form.

Jimmy Duffy won the annual Ward marathon at Toronto from a field of fifty. Corkery, Canada's hope in the Olympic marathon at Stockholm, Sweden, dropped out when he was in second place a few miles from the finish.

Manager Wattleit, of the Bees, states that he is going after a winner for next season. If he comes through O. K., the fans are willing to wait.

Tom Longboat, the famous red-skin distance galloper, was after a race with Alf Shrubbs, in Vancouver, but was unable to find a promoter kind enough to give him dates.

Spokane beat the picked Seattle team 5 to 1 in the third game of the post-season exhibition series.

Matt McGrath, world's champion hammer thrower, added a new world's record to his string at Celtic Park, when he threw the 16-pound hammer with unlimited run and follow 191 feet 5 inches. The former record was 180 feet 1 inch by J. J. Flanagan on the same grounds three years ago.

The B. C. A. A. U. has appointed the following committees: Championship, D. O'Sullivan; registration, Dr. Davidson, M. Oppenheimer, Entries for the Gold Seal road race will close with Mr. Oppenheimer on October 24th.

A draw match was played at the Albion C. C. grounds on Saturday between eleven captained by Mr. E. W. Ismay (Albion) and Fred W. Reeves (Victoria C. C.), respectively. Mr. A. C. B. Gray played a splendid innings, retiring with fifty runs to his credit. He was also in first class form with the ball, taking five out of nine wickets.

The Ad. Wolgast-Joe Mandot fight announced to take place November 2, has been postponed until November 4.

The wrestling match between George Walker, amateur middle-weight champion of Canada, and Peter Buzukos, one of the numerous claimants of the world's welterweight title, is scheduled for next Thursday night at Vancouver.

Eleven Northwestern League ball players are members of the .300 fraternity, according to the final averages. The nominal honor goes to "Chick" Hartley, the Philadelphia policeman, turned over to Spokane for Zimmerman by San Francisco. Hartley finished with the fine average of .386, but he took part in less than one-third of the games. Wilson of Seattle comes next with .345, but he also figured in about one-third of his team's games, so the real honor belongs to the veteran, Harry Meek, with .344. Meek led the league practically all season, being at times passed by Wudli, McDowell and others, but always cheerfully regaining lost ground and stinging the ball at a consistent, steady clip, while rivals slumped.

"Hap" Myers of Spokane made the most hits, the most runs and the most stolen bases of any ball player in the league and ranked second to Meek. If a title could be handed to the man who was of the most value to his team's offense and that title should consider not only batting average, but run getting, Myers would be king. He has Meek outclassed after first base is reached.

Myers' base stealing record smashes any previous performance in Northwestern League history. You have to go back twenty years in the official guide books to find any record to compare with 146 stolen bases, and that includes every league in organized baseball for that time.

Mann of Seattle is the leading slugger. Mann not only got 26 home runs, coming within one of Artie Bues' all-time Northwestern record, but he got a lot of doubles. Strait, also of Seattle, comes next with 20 homers.

GREEKS READY LEAVE FOR WAR

Three Hundred Sign Pledge to Fight for Country in Vancouver Meeting.

(Special to Daily News.)

Vancouver, Oct. 12.—Five hundred young and eager fighters for the cause of Greece picked from the Pan-Hellenic peoples of Vancouver will depart from this city in a short time, probably a few days, for their native land to help their home brethren in the struggle against the Turks.

From a sea of figures at a packed meeting in Pender Hall, five hundred hands, shot up when the call to arms was made, and before the assemblage dissolved no less than three hundred names had been signed by men who pledged their willingness to give their lives if necessary to their country—and more were coming.

The sum of $6,250 in hard cash was also forthcoming when pledges of $20,000 were handed in, as an indication that those who were not able to give bodily assistance to their country had at least their heart in the cause.

The money will be forwarded to the New York headquarters of the Greek union, which is to direct the contingents from this continent. From there instructions to proceed to the front are eagerly awaited and may be issued in a few days. The local organization was in receipt of a telegram yesterday from the Pan-Hellenic union in New York, telling them to be ready for an urgent call.

To this end the Vancouver body has been sounding the railway companies on rates to New York, but they state that none will be granted any reduction. The C. P. R., the G. N. R. and the Milwaukee road will not swerve from their $63 quotation. On arrival at New York the contingents are to be handled by the union there.

The meeting here was presided over by Mr. Peter Bancroft, who was accorded a rousing reception when he rose to speak. Besides his address, speeches were given by Mr. Alex. Gregoreou and James D. Kiriades, two former officers in the Greek army. Their patriotic pronouncements worked up the audience to frenzy all through the evening. It was the duty of every Greek, they said, to put down the Turk. It was a fight between Christian and pagan.

The Greek contingent will be under the generalship of A. Demetri, who was in the Greek army formerly, and knows the territory where the fighting is going on by heart. D. Kapetkanakis, an old soldier, will also go with them.

MAY CLOSE STEEL MILLS.

Chicago, Oct. 12.—Amid scenes of enthusiasm a battalion of Greeks departed for New York, en route to Patras and Piraeus, to join the Greek colors.

Two thousand Greeks await the order to proceed to New York, making in all some 5,000 men who have rallied to the Greek standard in Chicago.

Men and women wept today as the young Greeks were lined up while the White-Red priest, Father Leo Pegas, of the Holy Trinity, spoke simply to them in their own language.

In a quivering voice he asked them to remember America while fighting for Greece. After finishing he lifted a big silk American banner and ordered the standard bearer to carry it with his blue and white Greek ensign.

From the great mills of the United States Steel Corporation at Gary, Indiana, comes the information that several depart-

BAIL REFUSED I. W. W. LEADERS

Salem, Mass., Oct. 12.—Joseph Eitor, Arturo Giovannitto and Antonio Caruso, labor leaders who directed the strike of the Lawrence textile operatives, must remain in jail. Justice Quinn today denied the motion to admit the defendants to bail.
The three union men are charged with the murder of Anna Lopizzo at Lawrence, a woman striker, who was killed by a stray bullet during a street riot. Although witnesses have sworn that a policeman fired the shot that killed the woman, and that Eitor, Giovannitto and Caruso were a mile away at the time, all attempts to secure the release of the three men on bail have failed.

MEN DRIFT IN AN OPEN BOAT

to look as though they would be forced to camp there for the night. This they likely would have done had it not been for the timely rescue made by W. E. Williams and A. M. Manson, who, fearing that their friends had met with some accident, started out about 10 o'clock in search of them.

After picking up the two gentlemen on Wolf Island they finally located the Shawatlan, which, owing to the rising tide had by this time drifted from its anchorage and was being tossed about on waves nearly twenty-five feet high in the open channel leading to Smith Sound. They were assisted in locating the drifting craft by occasional shots fired by Messrs. Bryant and Fisher.

It was by no means an easy task to rescue the two men in the heavy sea, but Mr. Manson finally brought his boat alongside the other, making a starboard landing which could be excelled only by Captain Barney Johnson. Messrs. Bryant and Fisher lost no time in joining their rescuers and the Shawatlan was left adrift for the night. She was found this morning none the worse for her experience riding at anchor in a sheltered cove.
