ROWING CLUB CONCERT LAST NIGHT WAS GREAT SUCCESS AND ATTRACTED BIG CROWD

TURKS DEFEATED AT LAST LINE

The Bulgars Are Victorious Over Turks at Last Line of Defense in Front of Constantinople---Terrible Suffering

(Special to Daily News.) London, Nov. 11.—The last great battle of the Balkan war is being fought, it is believed, and reports from Constantinople would indicate that the Bulgarians have won it. A desperate resistance is being offered by the Turks and streams of dead and dying are being brought into the city. The last line of defense is being slowly crushed and the victors have Constantinople at their mercy, if the rumors are true, and it is confidently believed here that they are.

Paris, Nov. 11.—That the Turkish army is on the verge of starvation is vouched for by a correspondent for the Temps who is at the front. He declares that the soldiers are dying of lack of food and that they drop at the wayside on their retreat, unable to keep up with the forced marches. The scenes on the retreat are described as awful, the wounded and dead bodies of the mangled soldiers form a trail in the wake of the retreating army.

AUSTRIA AND SERVA ARE ON MORE FRIENDLY TERMS

DANGER OF EUROPEAN CONFLAGRATION IS DIMINISHING—AUSTRIA JOINS NOTE OF POWERS TO BALKAN STATES FOR PEACE.

(Special to Daily News.) Paris, Nov. 11.—The danger of a European entanglement over Serbia's attitude on the Adriatic question seems remote tonight owing to the action of Austria in agreeing to act in conjunction with the other powers in presenting a joint note to the Balkan states on behalf of Turkey asking them to submit the terms of peace.

TELEPHONE GIRL EPISODE AGAIN BEFORE ALDERMEN

THE HIRING OF MISS DUNN AGAIN COMES BEFORE THE BOARD AT INSTIGATION OF ALD. BULLOCK-WEBSTER—ALD. MORRISSEY AND THE LADIES.

Only a few spectators braved the rain and wind last night to attend the meeting of the City Council, and they mostly left early, disappointed with the entertainment. The counter attractions kept many of the regular attendants away, and with the usual well filled gallery showing a line of vacant chairs the Councillors were not at their best, although Alderman Bullock-Webster nobly endeavored to revive the telephone girl question and a petition from some seven residents of Block 27, Section 6, asking that the Union Transfer Co. be prohibited from erecting a stable on their property in that section did make a little stir.

Any action would be at the suggestion of the head of the department.

Ald. Morrissey again took the opportunity of lauding the personal charm and appearance of the young lady, saying that in the matter of looks, carriage and deportment she had appeared all that was desirable to him and he could understand every word she said with perfect ease.

Ald. Douglas appeared to be suffering from a touch of jealousy on hearing of Ald. Morrissey's acquaintance with the young ladies of the city, as that gentleman had again referred to his large knowledge of the sex, and scoffed at his colleague, but the champion of the fair ones had his say and sat down amid the smiles of the other knights of the council table and the applause of the gallery.

Seventeen residents of section six, including Ald. Dybhavn petitioned the council to refuse the owners of lots 9 and 10, block 27 the right to erect a stable on their lots as it was a discomfort and inconvenience to the neighborhood.

The petition brought forward a storm of argument, Alderman Morrissey and Bullock-Webster taking the stand that it was unfair to the property owners in the event of their building a stable in compliance with the bylaw.

After some twenty minutes had been consumed in discussing the location, sanitation and

City Treasurer Tells of Finances—Building Keeps Up—No Extra Freight on Coal.

The city treasurer reported that the city has $157,437.85 on hand and advised that the note held by the Bank of Montreal, amounting to some $83,000, be taken up, as the interest amounted to $13.77 per day. After everything was paid a balance of some $32,319.28 would remain. The report of the building inspector showed that during the Princeton, Nov. 11.—President-elect Woodrow Wilson and Democratic leaders are considering the advisability of holding a special session of Congress for the purpose of dealing with the revision of the tariff. Nothing yet, however, has been definitely decided upon.

New York, Nov. 11.—In a signed statement issued here today, ex-President Theodore Roosevelt reviews the late campaign and declares that the success of the Progressives was phenomenal. The party, he says, will stay in the fight until they attain victory.

Ottawa, Nov. 11.—According to the Citizen, the government will postpone the consideration of the tariff changes pending the action of the Democratic government of the United States. The Democrats have promised a downward revision of the tariff and it is claimed that if this is done it will benefit Canada.

Washington, Nov. 11.—That the Republican party needs to be reorganized along more progressive lines is the opinion of its leaders, who concede that this must be done for the Republican party to continue to exist.

STOCK COMPANY TO APPEAR IN WESTHOLME OPERA HOUSE

GRIFFITH STOCK COMPANY TO OPEN WITH "THE LION AND THE MOUSE" AT WESTHOLME NEXT WEEK—STRONG COMPANY—EXCELLENT SCENERY BEING PAINTED.

Quietly and without any flare of trumpets, a dapper little man of decidedly theatrical appearance stepped off the G. T. P. steamer Prince Rupert last Wednesday. Yesterday afternoon a reporter of The Daily News, chancing to drop into the Westholme Opera House, found the aforementioned gentleman busily engaged at work painting entirely new sets of special scenery for the extraordinary engagement of the Griffith Stock Company, which will open in that theatre on Monday evening next in the famous 20th century play, "The Lion and the Mouse." Mr. Simpkins, their scenic ar-artist, is an expert in his line, and judging by the four or five sets already completed the management of the Westholme Opera House is to be congratulated upon the fact of having secured for their theatre this excellent artist as well as a company that promises to offer to Prince Rupert people a repertoire of such well known comedies and drams as the advance notices of the Griffith Stock Company advertise.

A treat is certainly in store for the patrons of this popular play house during the coming week. Particulars of the engagement will be published in tomorrow's issue of The News.

PIERROTS GAVE EXCELLENT SHOW TO CROWDED HOUSE LAST NIGHT

General Approval of the Entertainment Given Last Night at the Westholme by the Rowing Club---Songs, Dances and Topical Allusions all Excellent.

More than fulfilling the most sanguine expectations of their warmest admirers, the Pierrots and Pierrettes covered themselves with glory in their second concert, given in aid of the Prince Rupert Rowing Club at the Westholme Opera House last evening. A crowded and most appreciative audience filled the pretty little theatre, which had been specially decorated for the occasion with the colors and emblems of the club. Never before had the excellent orchestra, under Mr. George Werner's capable leadership, been heard to greater advantage or had more scope for their talents. From the moment the curtain went up disclosing the charming tableau of the entire troupe of Pierrots peeking through the heavy red screen at the back of the stage to the strains of Canada's national song, "The Maple Leaf Forever," to the fall of the curtain and "God Save the King," there was not a dull moment. It is safe to say that no city, no matter what its size or the number of its population, could produce an amateur musical show better, in fact, it would tax the ability of a host of professionals.

The outstanding feature of this really excellent production was the evident amount of ability and work that was shown in the training and rehearsing of the company. There was not a hitch or break from start to finish. The selection of the songs and music was beyond criticism. Space forbids an extended notice of the several numbers, but special mention must be made of the delightfully artistic singing and acting of Mrs. Holland, a lady though but a recent arrival in the city, and a stranger to a Prince Rupert audience captured their hearts from the moment of her first appearance on the stage. Both in her rendering of the two solos, with choruses, from "Our Miss Gibbs," as well as her singing of the "Waltz Song" from "Tom Jones" and her last offering, "Moon," with its novel lighting effects, forming a delightful tableau of the entire company, she showed that she was an artist to the finger tips. No amount of time or work was considered too much by this charming and accomplished lady to devote to the training and rehearsing of the other girls to make the entertainment the pronounced success it most assuredly was. It is to be most sincerely hoped that Mrs. Holland will take up her permanent residence in Prince Rupert.

The other lady soloist, Mrs. Warren Kelly, one of the most charming and popular young lady entertainers in the city, was never seen to greater advantage. Words fail to express the effect of her singing and dancing upon the delighted audience. Nothing could have been better than her rendering of "Little Pink Petty," whilst her solo, "Soldiers in the Park," with chorus, and duet, "Charming Weather," with Mr. S. O. Erich, fairly brought down the house.

Of the men, most of whom are well known amateurs, it suffices to say that they were excellent in their several songs and in the general tout ensemble. Mr. J. W. Chapple, who, as producer and stage manager of the entire show, deserves special mention for his splendid work, both in the former roles and as being a first class singer and actor.

The show was a huge success and reflects the greatest credit on all who took part. At any future one put on it will be unnecessary to do much advertising, the crowd will flock there anyhow. The names of the performers were: Pierrettes—Mrs. Holland, Mrs. Hubert Ward, Mrs. Warren Kelly, Misses Curtin, Fisher, Thompson and Chapman. Pierrots—Messrs. J. W. Chapple, A. Stowell, L. Crippen, S. O. Erich, A. E. Eviatt and H. O. Crewe. Mr. R. L. Heathcote, the capable and hard working honorary secretary of the rowing club, performed Herculean efforts in attending to the business end of affairs, which tended in no small measure to make it the big success it was.

WILL TRY TO GET SMELTER TO COME TO PRINCE RUPERT

REPRESENTATIONS WILL BE MADE TO GRANBY COMPANY TO ENDEAVOR TO HAVE THEM PLACE THEIR SMELTING WORKS IN THIS CITY—CENTRALLY LOCATED.

An effort will be made to induce the Granby Consolidated Mining & Smelting Co. to erect their proposed smelter at Prince Rupert.

Alderman Dybhavn brought the matter up in the council chamber last evening and proposed that the city get into communication with smelter people and place before them the advantages offered by Prince Rupert and, if necessary, make them some concessions in the way of taxation, water or power to come here.

Prince Rupert, according to the alderman, would be a better point for the establishment of a smelter than Goose Bay because the smelting of the inlet ores requires a large percentage of fluxing rock from the Hazelton district. This flux is more bulky than the smelting ore and consequently the cost of freighting it from Hazelton to Prince Rupert and reshipping it to Granby would be higher and more expensive than to bring the ore to Prince Rupert, where the flux could come in by train.

Prince Rupert, Alderman Dybhavn pointed out, was the centre of three mining districts: Stewart, Hazelton and Queen Charlotte Islands.

Several of the Council expressed their sentiments, which coincided with Alderman Dybhavn, Alderman Morrissey saying that nothing should be neglected which might be used as an inducement for the establishment of the smelter here.

The clerk was ordered to get in touch with the company and express the desire of the Council to have the smelter built here.

DRUNK AGAIN

Old Offender Cheerfully Admits Being Drunk—"I Am Full Now," He Said.

John H. Bell, who has been up in the police court four times for being drunk and disorderly, the last about a week ago, when he was interdicted by Chief Vickers, appeared again before Magistrate McMullin this morning upon a similar charge. He denied the allegation in regard to being disorderly, but cheerfully admitted being drunk, further stating for the enlightenment of the court that he was in that condition at that moment. His Worship adjourned the case until tomorrow. Chief Vickers is going to take a determined stand in the matter and endeavor to find out where the accused obtained his liquor.

A VALUABLE INDEX TO THE TROUBLE IN THE NEAR EAST

The following index will be found to contain much valuable information for the average reader, in connection with the present trouble in the Balkans.

Adrianople. The principle fortress in European Turkey and a city of 83,000 inhabitants. Near the Bulgarian frontiers, Adrianople would have to bear the brunt of a Bulgarian invasion of Turkey and bar the road to Constantinople.

Albani. A district in the west of European Turkey, a large proportion of whose inhabitants are Christians. The population is over 1,000,000 and is very warlike and turbulent.

Article 23. This is the famous article of the Treaty of Berlin which provides for the right government of the Turkish provinces (including Macedonia and Albania), but which has remained a dead letter ever since the treaty was signed in 1878. This article stated that the Turkish Government should draw up its scheme for the administration of the provinces and submit it to an International Commission for the reorganization of European Turkey which had been formed under the treaty. This the Turkish Government did in 1880. The Commission considerably modified the scheme, mainly under the guidance of the English member, Lord Edmond Fitzmaurice, a very able statesman who is still alive. The final result has since been known as the Fitzmaurice Programme. According to this programme the Turkish provinces are to have complete local government with governors holding office for five years and elective assemblies. This programme because of its reference to elective assemblies, was never enforced by Abdul Hamid, the able and unscrupulous Sultan who was driven from his throne in 1909.

Balkan Armies. Turkey has at her disposal a vastly larger fighting force than the estimate hitherto published, according to Colonel Brose, who has just retired from the command of the German General Staff, and whose figures are therefore authoritative. He gives the following figures:—
Turkey, in Europe.....600,000
Turkey, in Asia.....160,000
Bulgaria's field army.....250,000
Serbia's field army.....180,000
Montenegro's field army. 50,000
Greece's field army.....100,000
Roumania's field army..250,000

Colonel Brose, again relying on the intimate knowledge of Turkish organization in the possession of the German staff, forecasted that Turkey would place one army in Thrace at Adrianople, to consist of 217,000 infantry.

Balkan League. Formed by Bulgaria, Serbia, Montenegro and Greece to free their kinsmen and fellow Christians in Macedonia from Turkish oppression. The league hopes to take advantage of Turkey's weakness in her unsuccessful war with Italy. The countries of the league were found to make war together and may not conclude peace individually.

Belgrade. The capital of Serbia; a busy city of 90,000 people, an important fortress and station on the Orient Railway.

Berchtold, Count Leopold. The Austrian foreign minister who has played a prominent part in the present crisis. Born in 1863, he has had a distinguished diplomatic career. He is said to be pro-Russian and has immense estates in Hungary.

Bulgaria. The "moving spirit" in the Balkan League. A prosperous and progressive kingdom of 4,000,000 people, almost all Christians, with an army of 350,000 men possessing the highest military qualities and well equipped—the strongest army in the Balkans.

Crete. Turkish island in the Mediterranean, with 310,200 inhabitants, governed under supervision of the powers by a commission acting in the name of the King of the Hellenes. The Cretans wish to take the opportunity of the present crisis and finally break away from Turkey and become annexed to Greece.

Ferdinand, King of Bulgaria. Generalissimo of the Balkan allied forces. Born 1861, of the Saxe-Coburg family, he was chosen Prince of Bulgaria in 1887 and assumed the title of king in 1911. An able diplomat and progressive monarch.

Irado. A written decree of the Sultan of Turkey.

Macedonia. The central of the three important provinces of Turkey in Europe—the other two being Albania on the west, bordering on the Adriatic, and Thrace on the east, touching the Black Sea.

Monastir. A "vilayet" or province of Turkey notorious for terrible massacres of Christians by Mahomedans.

Old Serbia. A district of European Turkey near the Servian frontier. Many years ago it belonged to the Servian Empire, and Servian is the tongue chiefly spoken.

Orient Express. The great trans-Europe express that links London to Constantinople, via Paris, Vienna, Budapest, Belgrade and Sofia.

Poincare Raymond. Prime minister of France since January of this year. A distinguished scholar and statesman, member of the French Academy, who, born in 1860, entered politics in 1887 and has held many offices. His ministry is exceptionally strong.

Redif. The reserves of the Turkish army. In Turkey liability for service begins at the age of twenty years and lasts for twenty years—nine years in the Redif and then two in the Mustafiz. The Redif infantry is used in time of peace for suppression of local disturbances.

vincial council is at the head of each vilayet.

Young Turkey Party. The revolutionary party in Turkey, which, acting through a secret committee of union and progress, brought about the deposition of the Sultan Abdul Hamid in 1909. Although the Young Turks have failed materially to improve the condition of affair in Turkey, they have carried out various military reforms and have greatly improved the army.

INDUSTRIES NEEDED ALSO A BROAD MINDED MAYOR

The suggestion of Ald. Dyb-havn that the Granby Bay people be induced to erect their smelter in Prince Rupert instead of at Goose Bay displays the right spirit of enterprise and progressiveness which must be developed to make Prince Rupert the city which it should be by nature of the natural resources behind her, the geographical position and the climate of the district.
Not only this company, but any concern which will be of benefit to the citizens is to be welcomed to Kaien Island and should be, at least, given every opportunity of making proposals to the citizens.
It is doubtful, however, if the Granby Bay people are any different from other Canadian manufacturers, who seeing the business method the present incumbent in the office of mayor has in dealing with the only real proposal the citizens have had so far, the Hydro-Electric Company's offer of building here, refuse to consider the advisability of venturing into the city until his term of office is over.

We, as stated before, have no briefs for the Hydro-Electric Company, but as a business proposition we would at least like to have the citizens be given an opportunity to vote in an unprejudiced manner on the proposal. Instead of entering in a broad minded, open spirit into negotiations with the company to see what material benefit might be derived for the rate payers, the Mayor, for political reasons, practically tries to stampe the electors and turn public opinion against the company.

NO MORE BURNS FOR BAYLEY WHO SAYS HE GOT THE WORST

JOE BAYLEY COMPLAINS THAT HE GOT THE WORST OF THE DECISION IN BOUT WITH HYLAND—LED IN EVERY ROUND AND SHOULD HAVE WON ON POINTS.

Never again will Tommy Burns, ex-champion heavyweight pugilist of the universe, officiate as the third man in the ring in a contest in which Joe Bayley, champion lightweight of Canada, participates as a principal. Bayley and his manager, Morris Condon of Victoria, declare that they are through with Burns after the draw decision the latter handed out in the Bayley-Hyland scrap at Calgary on Thanksgiving Day. Both are positive in their opinions that the Canadian champion was given the worst of the decision and they say they will take no more chances.

Manager Condon becomes heated under the collar whenever he thinks of the decision Burns handed out and he bandies no words in admitting his disgust at getting a draw when he figured his protegee had won very easily. "How can a man who does not make a single lead during fifteen rounds of milling earn a draw when the other fellow carries the fight to him in every round?" is the pertinent question which Manager Condon hurls at anyone who asks his opinion of the

GOLF IN THIBET Highest Golf Course in World Is In Thibet—Nine Holes—No Grass

Gyantse, in Thibet, boasts the highest golf course in the world. The next highest is the course at Gulmberg, in the Himalayas, which is 8,500 feet above the sea level, but Gyantse, standing at a height of 12,400 feet, easily bears off the palm for golf at a high altitude.

The Gyantse course is one of nine holes, situated on the right bank of Niang Chu River. The average length of the holes is 280 yards, the longest being more than 500 yards and the shortest 120 yards.

There is no grass on the course the whole surface being a hard baked clay, over which, especially in winter, a film of sand is blown. Where this sand drifts a "bunker" is formed. The chief hazards are collections of stones, pits, withered trees, wild iris and sand. Out of the two last named not even a Braid could play, and it is here that the advantage of the local rules is seen. Some of these may be of interest:

1. No ball can be lost in Gyantse. If not found within a reasonable time, another is put down where the first one is thought to have been lost, without penalty.
2. The lie of a ball in sand can be improved by scraping round it with hand or club. (Even then the difficulty of the shot has to be experienced to be appreciated.)
3. All thorns may be removed from the ball.

Jeanette Replaces Johnson.

New York, Nov. 11.—With a view to deciding on a successor to Johnson's title of heavyweight champion of the world, W. C. J. Kelly, representing Hugh McIntosh, the Australian promoter, signed today a contract with Dan McKelrick, manager of Joe Jeanette. The contract calls for the appearance of Jeanette in five contests in Australia, the first of which will be with Sam Langford and the second with Sam McVey.

McIntosh agrees to give Jeanette $25,000, with the privilege of 25 per cent. of the gate, with five round trip tickets for himself, manager and sparring partners, and they will sail from San Francisco the latter part of this month.

In addition to these stipulations, McIntosh will donate a gold belt, emblematic of the world's heavyweight championship.

Be Suspicious

BE suspicious of that of which nobody is proud. Be suspicious of the mere low-price argument offered in favor of an article with no reputation, no backer, no guarantor.

Better buy the thing you know and can trust, than an article unbranded and unvouched for.

The branded shoe, made by a maker with a reputation, is a safer shoe to buy than the one made in an unknown factory by an unknown maker.

That in which much money has been invested to make or keep it good is worth more than that on which nothing or but little has been spent.

Peace of mind is worth something, just as quality is. Buy peace of mind.

When you buy anything worth while buying, buy that of which you know—from advertisements, or from other dependable acquaintance. Buy the article with the "money back" guarantee—with the pledge of a known name behind it.
