

EUROPE MAY BE ENGAGED IN GREAT WAR SOON

DAUGHTERS OF THE EMPIRE GAVE MOST ENJOYABLE DANCE IN McINTYRE HALL LAST NIGHT

AUSTRIA IS PREPARING TO ENFORCE HER DEMANDS AND RUSSIA IS ARMING

European Conflagration May Result From Servia's Action in Regard to Seizing Port on Adriatic Sea---Russia is Preparing to Help Servia---Kaiser as "Peace Lord"

London, Nov. 14.—The influence of Kaiser Wilhelm, the "war lord" of Germany, today is admitted by officials here to be almost the only remaining bar to a general European conflict, which depends upon the determination to have a port on the Adriatic Sea and the equally determined declaration of Austria and Italy that she shall not. It is understood that the Kaiser has indicated to his two allies that he believes Austrian interests on the Adriatic can be safeguarded without war if the situation is carefully handled. But while he is moving for peace there is no longer doubt that both Austria and Italy have mobilized their fleets off the Adriatic coast and the reported occupation of Durazzo, the port in dispute, by a Servian force may at any hour precipitate the conflict predicted in Europe for decades. Adding to her naval preparations, Austria is mobilizing her land forces, and reserves are hurrying to her colors from distant countries. Germany also is mobilizing her armies in preparation for whatever may come. On the other side of the probable war line-up, Russia, as principal backer of the Balkan allies, has massed great forces on the Austrian and German frontiers, and is reported as ready to strike the moment Austrian or Italian warships open on the Servians at Durazzo or when the Servians cross the line into Albania. What France will do if the conflict comes is not clear. There is as yet little military activity or public knowledge in the republic, but little doubt is felt here that if the occasion arises, France will sustain her ally, Russia, in any conflict. Great Britain's position is also unstated. It is known, however, that her fleets, both in the channel and the Mediterranean, are ready, and a great mobilization of her division at Aldershot yesterday is believed to have given practical notice to Europe that her land forces will be ready to move on short notice if the crash of war should come.

POWDER IS NOT FREE

Deputy Minister of Agriculture Denies Rumor of Free Stumping Powder

(Special to Daily News.) Vancouver, Nov. 15.—"I find that the statement that the provincial government is giving away stumping powder free has been circulated all over the province and I cannot too strongly deny that there is any foundation for it," said Mr. Wm. E. Scott, deputy minister of agriculture. "I have already issued a statement explaining upon what terms the department is prepared to sell stumping powder, but I should be glad if the rumor that the department is giving it away could be finally set at rest."

LABOR SHORTAGE

So Many Bulgarians Leave to Fight that East Has Labor Shortage

(Special to Daily News.) Montreal, Nov. 13.—In one week 2,590 Bulgarians have passed through Montreal on their way to fight for their native land. They come from all parts of Canada, and already the large corporations in and around Montreal say that the labor shortage question, which is already an acute one, is becoming positively alarming.

PROUD TO HAVE WON; PROUD ALSO TO LOSE

(Special to Daily News.) London, Nov. 13.—Speaking last night, Earl Selborne said some Radicals had talked of stopping Lord Roberts' pension because of his warning to be prepared. When Lord Roberts heard this he said: "I am proud to have won a pension in the service of my country, and shall be proud to lose it in her service."

GAY THROG FILLS McINTYRE HALL AT DAUGHTERS BALL LAST NIGHT

First Dance of Series by Daughters of the Empire Proved to be a Huge Success---Hall Was Delightfully Decorated for the Occasion

More than fulfilling their most sanguine expectations, the turnout last evening for the first dance of a series of five to be given this winter by the Daughters of the Empire, proved the popularity of the local order of the fair ones of Prince Rupert, as well as their ability to make a pronounced success of anything they attempt in the entertainment line. The McIntyre Hall, which has been lately entirely redecorated and hung with pictures through the enterprise of Mr. J. S. Gray, in view of the number of dances likely to be held there this winter, presented a most lively and brilliant appearance, the huge

Union Jack draped at the extreme end of the ballroom forming a pleasing and appropriate setting to the gala scene. A happy inspiration on the part of the executive of the order was the request to the merry throng to gather for a moment just before midnight en masse beneath the brave old flag of the Empire and all join in singing the National Anthem. Great praise and thanks are due to Mrs. J. C. McLennan, the Regent of the Order, and the other ladies of the executive, who worked so indefatigably to ensure the success of the affair. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McLennan;

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Naden, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. McMordie, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Frizzell, Mr. and Mrs. Cambie, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Sweet, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Forster, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Westenhaver, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Patmore, Mesdames Angus Stewart, F. S. Clements, J. F. Ritchie, W. Clark Durant, Roberson, Hubert Ward, Kergin, P. I. TWO GOOD GAMES OF BALL IN THE AUDITORIUM LAST NIGHT

ALLIES GO DOWN TO DEFEAT BEFORE BROTHERHOOD---ROYALS GOT AWAY WITH THE TIGERS---CLOSE PLAY THROUGHOUT---CARSS INJURED

The two basket ball games in the league series played at the Auditorium last evening proved very exciting and of the greatest interest to the crowd of enthusiasts present. The first match, between the Callies and the Brotherhood, resulted in a win for the latter by the narrow margin of two points, the final score reading Brotherhood 17; Callies 15. For the victors Adair Carss, who received a nasty blow on the nose, and H. Mobley played crackjack games, whilst the marvellous shooting of Williseroft of the Callies was responsible for the high score they attained. The following was the line up

By special arrangement this company will introduce for the first time in the North the system of protracted engagements at popular prices so that it can no longer be said that it costs a dollar to see a fifty cent show in Prince Rupert. During this engagement prices will be the same as charged by similar organizations in Vancouver, Victoria, Seattle, Portland, etc. By offering a better show than has ever been given here before at popular prices with three changes of plays each week we hope to deserve the patronage of the public and make this engagement a financial as well as an artistic success.

At half time the score was 11 all, and taken altogether it was the best game so far played.

The second game, Royals vs. Tigers, was also pretty closely contested, the fact that the Royals, the eventual winners were away behind in the score at half time, proving that the spectators were given a good run for their money. At the close of time the score was Royals 14; Tigers 9. Special mention must be made of the exceptionally strong play of Smith for the Royals, and Blythe for the Tigers.

The personnel of the teams was as follows: Royals--Ramsey (captain), Smith, Brooks, Sidle, McGregor, Tigers--L. Dell (captain), Daggett, Mann, Blythe, H. Lee.

Interest in the league games is growing apace, a large crowd always being present to witness the matches.

STOCK COMPANY HAS BEEN ENGAGED FOR LONG PERIOD

GRIFFITH PLAYERS WILL REMAIN FOR AN INDEFINITE TIME IN THE CITY---WILL PRESENT THREE PLAYS EACH WEEK---NEW PLAN TO BE TRIED.

Monday night at the popular Westholme Opera House there is to be introduced an innovation in the shape of a first class home stock company which the management has engaged for an indefinite period to present the best plays ever seen in Prince Rupert.

This plan is something entirely new to this city, but it is thought that it will be enthusiastically endorsed once the various advantages of the proposition are understood. The management of the theatre and the Griffith Stock Company, who will open on Monday night, feel that Prince Rupert has reached a stage in its growth when a permanent stock company making its home in the city will appeal far more to the public than the intermittent travelling aggregations that come for a night or two with possibly an indifferent company, leaving after a few days with all the money obtainable at the least possible expense and effort. The new plan is distinctly different. The present company consists of twelve acting members, each carefully selected to play their several lines of characters from the best plays of England and America. The Griffith Stock Company will remain here a number of weeks, long enough to give the plan a thorough trial, enabling the citizens to become thoroughly and intimately acquainted with the personnel of the company, so as to be able to decide whether or not they prefer their own home stock company to one of the travelling variety.

Another advantage will be that each play will be presented twice, giving everyone an opportunity to witness them all. Change nights Wednesdays and Fridays, a special Saturday matinee being given each week. Little Julia Fehr, the marvellous child actress, will be seen in a play especially selected for her. The opening play will be "The Lion and the Mouse," a comedy drama of great power and sure appeal. "The Man From Kokomo" follows on Wednesday and Thursday, and "The Little Mother" Friday and Saturday. In the latter play little Julia Fehr will appear for the first time.

NEWTON WILL RUN AGAIN

Mayor Newton has announced his intention of allowing himself to be renominated for the position of Mayor at the forthcoming municipal elections. This ensures a contest for the chief magistracy office.

It will give the electors an opportunity of saying whether or not the affairs of the city have been administered to their liking during the incumbency of Mayor Newton, or whether they wish the business of the citizens to be carried on by new men in a business-like manner.

THE THREAT OF DISSOLUTION

The threat of dissolution if parliament does not promptly vote an emergency contribution, to which Mr. Borden unwisely gave expression on his return from Great Britain, reappears from time to time in the Conservative press and in the speeches of Mr. Borden's supporters. The threat must have been directed originally against the Conservative-Nationalist allies of the government. With the assistance of Deputy Speaker Blodin and other gentlemen who not so long ago were asking what the people of Quebec owed to England Mr. Borden has a majority of 47 in the House. Without the Quebec wing he could not carry on the Government, for his majority would almost disappear.

It is reasonable, therefore, to suppose that after consultation with Mr. Pelletier, who is determined to stick to the ship—and the salary of the Minister—Mr. Borden issued his warning so that the French-Canadian members who have clearly before them the alternatives of voting for the contribution or of forcing dissolution and a general election, Mr. Monk has by his resignation from the ministry indicated that he prefers dissolution to a contribution. How many of the Nationalist-Conservatives will follow him remains to be seen. If Mr. Coderre is defeated in Hochelaga or his majority is dangerously reduced the bolt will undoubtedly be a serious one, and will make the position of the Ministry precarious in the extreme.—Toronto Globe.

CUBANS ATTEMPT TO LYNCH THE UMPIRE

O'Brien of American League Has Narrow Escape from Necktie Party

Havana, Nov. 15.—Acting upon the suggestion of a sporting editor of a local newspaper, a mob of Cuban baseball fans went to the hotel of Umpire O'Brien of the American League for the express purpose of lynching him. They carried ropes and other requisites.

O'Brien had been warned in the meantime of his impending fate and was able to make a quick get-away and hide. Then the chief of police was notified of the situation and the fans were dispersed by a company of armed rurales. O'Brien came here with the Philadelphia Athletics, who have won every game from the Havana team. Yesterday the Cubans had a chance to win, but were beaten by two close decisions of O'Brien. This morning a newspaper suggested lynching as the proper penalty for the umpire and the fans decided to act.

"I thought these Cubans were behind the times," said O'Brien, "but they are the most up-to-date kind of progressives. I don't mind pop bottles, but when it comes to lynching I am ready for a safe job—such as soldiering with the Turks."

New York, Nov. 15.—The imperturbable Jack Rose, the bald headed gambler, whose testimony mainly was responsible for the conviction of Charles Becker, took the witness stand as the state's chief witness against the four gunmen charged with slaying Herman Rosenthal at Becker's bidding.

ATHLETICS SPOIL WOMEN'S FIGURES

A Declaration of Artists Who Have Excited Hot Discussion in England

The deterioration in the beauty of woman's figure, consequent upon the present craze for athletics, is exciting a hot controversy in England, while medical men are condemning in strong terms the modern girls' over-indulgence in hockey.

The result is that artists and sculptors now have to rely more on her creative ability than ever before. As Frank Brangwyn points out, it is still possible to get models who are perfectly developed, but the supply is running short.

The outcry in England is not against physical exercise for women, but against the undue indulgence in it. Keep observers of present-day tendencies interpret woman's too hearty indulgence in athletic sports as tending to produce a sexless girl, flat-footed, and ungraceful.

He showed his first weakness in the fourth round, when Scaler rushed him to the ropes with right and lefts to the head and bod. With five seconds to go in the fifth round, Scaler put Barrieau to his knees with a right swing to the head.

Bayley's Conditions

Victoria, Nov. 14—"I am willing to post two thousand dollars immediately to clinch the bout between Hyland and Bayley, but before settling matters I would like to hear what the Calgary promoters can offer in the matter of a purse or guarantee," said Morris Condon when shown a telegram from Calgary to the effect that Hyland had posted $2,000 with the News-Telegram, to bind a match.

MARRY OR MOVE

Ultimatum that Bachelors Must Marry or Move From Municipal Premises Obeyed by Only Ten

Dublin, Nov. 15—There is somewhat of a hullabaloo in the village of Dunscaughlin, County Meath, because only ten of the 69 bachelors have married as they were warned three months ago either to wed or move out of cottages owned by the rural council.

In justice to many of these obstinate bachelors, it must be admitted that they are a trifle old to catch the fancy of the average lassie in County Meath, where the lassies are noted for their grace and beauty.

MUSICAL CLASS

Mrs. Holland Contemplates Opening Musical and Dramatic Class on Return

Mrs. Holland, who acquired so much popularity and fame through the prominent part she took in the production of the highly successful Pirotto concert given the early part of the week, left on the Prince Rupert yesterday morning for Victoria on a visit to some friends.

Mrs. Holland, who but recently arrived from England is an accomplished musician and trained singer, having been for some years under the best masters in London. It was her intention to open in this city a musical and dramatic class, taking up also the production of light operas and musical comedies by trained amateurs. There would appear to be a splendid opening for this vocation in this city, and her friends sincerely hope that Mrs. Holland will return to Prince Rupert after her stay in Victoria to settle permanently and take up this work.

Public Nuisance

Sir,—Permit me to draw the attention of your readers to what is nothing short of a public nuisance—I refer to the number of dogs prowling about our streets at all times of the day.

Considering the size of our city it is surprising to see so many canines of high and low degree wandering about without owners. You meet them at every corner, in twos, in threes, and in dozens. One would imagine here was a resident of Stambul and not of a Western Canadian town for in Stambul as well as in Constantinople dogs lie about in the hollows of the streets like pigs in a sty. But the Prince Rupert dogs are too active for that. They are always on the go. They revel in fighting. They are bold and aggressive.

Only yesterday as I was walking on Second Avenue, one of those dogs made a sudden spring as I passed, and tore my rain coat. Hundreds of little children pass through the streets each day on their way to school. If that dog snapped at me, is it not possible he may do so at a child, and seriously injure it, or disfigure it for life?

Has the city a by-law forbidding dogs to prowl around our streets? Dogs should be in charge of their owners while in the streets or otherwise muzzled. I think the attention of the police should be drawn to it. From more standpoints than one it is objectionable.

I am, Sir,
Faithfully yours,
"RESIDENT."

SHOCKING CASE OF A MIDNIGHT BURGLARY

Hotel Clerk Has Terrible Experience in Dark Kitchen in Early Morning

A couple of nights since, at an uncanny hour in the morning, the night clerk at one of Prince Rupert's leading hotels was startled by hearing a noise in the kitchen. Being a brave young man he at once proceeded to investigate the reason for the noise.

Almost as soon as he had opened the door leading to the kitchen he was knocked to the floor, although not unconscious. Picking himself up he at once notified the proprietor, standing guard with an empty revolver at the kitchen door until the burly constable arrived.

After making a thorough search of the premises no indications could be found of the presence of an intruder. Believing in the old adage, "there is never smoke without fire," the night clerk was closely questioned and asked to demonstrate just exactly what occurred. The electric lights in the kitchen were turned off and the young man proceeded with the demonstration.

Opening the door he reached for the electric button to turn on the light, his other hand coming in contact with a wet towel which was hanging near by, and he was again "knocked on the head." The mysterious burglar was nothing more or less than an electric shock obtained in a most unexpected manner.

MYSTERY DEEPENS

With Death of Another Person, Supposed Poisoning Case Causes Authorities to Worry

Denver, Colo., Nov. 15.—With the death of John L. Gowyer, an English capitalist, at Colorado Springs last night, the mystery surrounding the supposed poisoning of several persons at the Mary Murphy mine, near Buena Vista, two weeks ago, has deepened. Five deaths already have occurred among persons who ate at the boarding house, October 21st.

George E. Collins, general manager of the mine, declared that the investigation made by the physicians of the food eaten at the boarding house disclosed no trace of ptomaine poisoning.
