THE CITY HAS NO GUARANTEE OF OUTLET FOR THE SEWERAGE

INCOMPLETENESS OF SCHEME SHOWN IN FACT NEITHER GOVERNMENT NOR RAILWAY HAVE GIVEN PERMISSION FOR OUTLETS OF SEWERAGE SYSTEM

Several important questions arose at the public meeting held in the Presbyterian Hall last night in regard to the sewer by-law, which will be voted upon tomorrow.

One of the most important was the access to the waterfront and the city's position in regard to the outlets for the sewers. It was admitted that no guarantee had been given by either the government or the Grand Trunk Pacific that they would allow the sewers to be carried across their property.

Engineer Mason replied in answer to a question that the sewerage of Sections Seven, Eight and Nine had not been considered in the present scheme, on which the whole of the incorporated city would be assessed.

Mayor Newton further expounded his views as to the wisdom of the citizens of Prince Rupert passing favorably on the sewerage bylaw to be voted on tomorrow.

He believed he was taking a right step in the matter and was utterly indifferent as to the outcome and believed whether the bylaw passed or not it would be the means of bringing such an important issue to a live point in the eyes of the public.

The citizens should sink all personal feelings in the matter and decide only in an unbiased fashion as to which would be the wisest course to be followed. It was up to them, and he hoped they would fully realize the importance of the subject upon which they were called to pass judgment.

Alderman Dybhavn deplored the fact that such an important subject as the passage or otherwise of this bylaw should be the subject of derision by a certain section of the community. He was firmly of the opinion that laying the foundations of a permanent sewerage system was the best and cheapest course in the long run for the citizens to undertake.

Ex-Alderman W. Lynch, in a very lucid and graphic speech on similar lines to his address Wednesday evening at the Empress Theatre, showed the fallacies and weaknesses of the scheme as embodied in the sewerage bylaw to be voted on tomorrow.

The idea of attempting to borrow $1,400,000 in the markets of the world for the construction of merely a part of a sewerage system would only be provoking the ridicule of the outside public.

There were the two questions to be considered: "Is the system worth the cost; and, can we dig up the money?"

In answering the first he had shown the enormous burden of future taxation that would be thrown upon the public, aggregating finally fifteen mills on the dollar, in payment of sewer bonds, higher without a doubt than anywhere else on the North American continent.

The absurdity of the second question he asked them to consider; the possibility of obtaining the money he had fully shown. He concluded by asking the

WAR CLOUD IS HOVERING OVER EUROPE BECAUSE OF SERVIA

SERVIA IN DEFIANCE TO AUSTRIA AND ALBANIA OCCUPIES ADRIATIC PORT -- DIPLOMATIC CIRCLES AFRAID -- EFFORT TO ESTABLISH ARBITRATION

(Special to Daily News.) Durazzo, Nov. 29—Servian troops yesterday occupied this town. They were offered no resistance by the Turks. The Austrian Lloyd steamer Fra Wurmbrand left immediately the Servians entered the town taking on board previously a large number of refugees.

Durazzo is the port which Austria has forbidden Serbia to occupy. Serbia declares she will retain it and thus have a coast line, and Austria is as determined that her interests will be at stake if Serbia is allowed on the Adriatic and consequently is determined she will relinquish it.

London, Nov. 29—Ignoring the proclamation of Albanian independence Serbia yesterday occupied the Adriatic port of Durazzo. As a result of this action on the part of the Balkan state the situation of a general war in Europe is again assuming a lowering appearance, and diplomatic circles are watching the action of Austria with great alarm.

The past few days gave rise to the supposition that the danger of a general conflagration was averted, but the action of Serbia gives reason to anticipate the most dire results.

Diplomatic pressure will be brought to bear on Austria to induce her to leave the question for consideration at the close of the Balkan war, when it can be settled no doubt without the resort to bloodshed.

FATAL FIRE AT DAWSON

Little Boy Burned When Dawson Store Burns

(Special to Daily News.) Dawson, Nov. 29—The four year old son of Peter McDiarmid was burned to death here yesterday in a fire which destroyed C. S. Philp's clothing store on Second avenue. The loss was heavy as the stock was of exceptional size.

The structure, which was a wooden one, burned rapidly and gave the McDiarmid family who lived above the shop, little time to escape.

SAWLE'S APPLICATION TO BE MADE TEST CASE BY COUNTRY

DOMINION AND PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENTS TO MAKE TEST CASE AS TO WHO OWNS THE WATERFRONT -- LOCAL MAN'S APPLICATION TO BE TEST

According to information received by Mr. G. R. T. Sawle, of this city, the application for foreshore rights at Granby Bay is to be made the subject of a test case between the Dominion and Provincial governments.

Both governments claim the jurisdiction over the waterfront and shore line in the recently developed harbors of this coast.

According to the Provincial Government its jurisdiction over lands extends to and covers all that land left bare at low tide, while the Federal authorities claim that under the British North America Act of 1867, and its ratification when this province entered the federation, they have complete control of all waterfront in the harbors of the coast.

While admitting that the older cities, such as Vancouver and Victoria come under the meaning of the British North America Act, the province claims that harbors such as Prince Rupert and others opened within the past few years do not do so.

As things exist at present applications and plans for improvement of the foreshore, which under the Protection of Navigation Act must receive the sanction of the Federal authorities must be accompanied with a Dominion foreshore lease, while it is reported that the Provincial land registry office will not register Dominion foreshore leases.

If the Dominion case is sustained by the government the major portions of the waterfront in most of the northern harbors will have to be re-applied for, and considerable litigation will result.

Mr. Sawle's application, which to make sure of his ground, he made to both governments, was chosen as the test case by Attorney-General Bowser of British Columbia and Minister of Marine and Fisheries Hazen, at their recent conference at Ottawa.

REASONS WHY BYLAW SHOULD BE VOTED AGAINST BY RATEPAYERS TOMORROW

1. The scheme has not been supervised by an expert.
2. No arrangement has been made with the Grand Trunk Pacific or the Government for foreshore rights for the outlet.
3. It has been argued that only a portion of the scheme will be begun next year. If say only $200,000 is raised next year and it is then found impossible to raise any more money only a small section will have sewerage and that at the expense of all the rest of the city.
4. No provision is made in the by-law for sewerage in Section Seven, which is quite thickly populated, nor in a portion of Section One, nor the whole of Sections 8, 9, 2, 3, 4.
5. To spend so large a sum in permanent sewers in Sections 5 and 6, allowing for a depth of only six feet when these sections will undoubtedly be business sections, is the height of folly.
6. It will be impossible to raise the money in the financial world.
7. It will prevent immediate relief being given to congested sections which require sewers with as little delay as possible.
8. Because a scheme can be evolved at much less cost to meet the requirements for the next few years which the city will be able to finance.
9. Because the by-law has been rushed to a vote without the people having proper opportunity to satisfy themselves as to the merits of the scheme.
10. Because we have no guarantee that the cost will not be much greater than the engineer's figures.
11. Because it is not the part of prudence to spend so large a sum of money without first knowing our ground thoroughly.
12. Because the law will not allow material change in the by-law if passed, and if subsequent consideration shows an entirely new project to be desirable, the vote will now be a farce.
13. The vote now is a farce anyway because the scheme cannot be financed and not five per cent. of the ratepayers know whether the scheme is the best one or not.
14. Because the method of taxation has never been considered, that is whether it might not be better for the city at large to pay for trunk lines only and the property benefitted to pay for the balance.
15. Because the whole scheme has been ill considered and handled in a most unbusinesslike way from start to finish.

MEN'S OWN CLUB HAVE NICE OPENING NIGHT

Many Enthusiasts Attend the Official Opening of the New Club

Last evening under the most auspicious circumstances, the Men's Own Club celebrated the event of opening of their gymnasium, which adjoins the Methodist Church. It is a matter of much congratulation to know that such a fine and well equipped hall, where the youth of the city can go in for every kind of indoor athletics, especially during the long winter evenings, has been established in our midst.

Last evening a social evening was spent, when friends were invited to be present, and see what had been done to prepare the building for the excellent purposes for which it had been built.

E. L. Fisher, the president of the guild, presided. There were representatives from the Baptist Brotherhood present, and also from the Tiger Basket Ball Club, and other athletic bodies in the city.

A careful inspection was made of the equipment of the new gymnasium, the hosts of the evening receiving many congratulations upon their enterprise and wisdom in putting in such a first class and up-to-date apparatus.

During the evening refreshments were served by the Ladies Aid of the church. Speeches were delivered by Rev. W. H. McLeod.

GOOD EXHIBITIONS OF THE MANLY ART GIVEN

Several Bouts Brought off Last Night in Wright's Gym.—Most Interesting

Last night several excellent amateur boxing exhibitions were given in Billy Wright's gymnasium in the Windsor Hotel basement. The boys, while showing remarkable cleverness and agility, with one or two exceptions, were a little amateurish, but nevertheless give promise of developing some very good talent.

Trainer Ulmann, who has charge of the gym and classes, is a very clean cut lad with the science and finish of a clever ring expert. Last night he gave an excellent exhibition of bag punching, which was much appreciated. After he has developed his classes it is the intention to put on a good strong card.

FULL TEXT OF ADDRESS FROM THRONE AT OPENING OF HOUSE

LENGTHY ADDRESS GIVEN THIS YEAR BY GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN OUTLINING THE WORK OF THE SESSION NAVAL POLICY

The speech from the Throne is as follows: Honorable Gentlemen of the Senate, Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

I have during the past summer spent several months in visiting the principal cities and towns of Canada from coast to coast, and have endeavored to make myself as far as possible acquainted with the conditions prevailing. It has been a source of the deepest satisfaction to me to see the almost universal prosperity which reigns throughout the Dominion, and to witness the energy and enterprise which are shown in developing the rich resources of the land.

Canada's Trade. It is most gratifying to observe that the trade of the Dominion is increasing rapidly and steadily, the aggregate trade for the last fiscal year being the largest on record. During the present year the same steady increase has been noted, and it is anticipated that the total volume of our trade for the present fiscal year will greatly surpass that of any previous year in our history.

The revenues of the Dominion continue to expand, and in every branch of business and industry there is a remarkable activity which gives assurance of continued progress and prosperity.

Immigration. A copious and welcome stream of immigration has poured into our country during the past summer. The volume of immigration during the present year is greater than during any corresponding period in our history and in larger measure than usual it has been drawn from the British Islands.

Agriculture. The labors of the husbandman have been blessed with an ample return, and, although in some districts the weather has been unpropitious for the harvest, it is expected that the total value of our field crops will be greater than in any previous year.

West Indies' Trade Agreement. Papers will be laid before you which embody trade arrangements that have been consummated between the Dominion and certain of His Majesty's possessions in the West Indies. It is hoped that these arrangements will prove of great advantage not only to those possessions, but to Canada as well. A bill will be introduced for the purpose of carrying this agreement into effect.

Naval Conference. During the past summer four members of my government conferred in London with His Majesty's government on the question of naval defence. Important discussions took place and conditions have been disclosed which in the opinion of my advisers render it imperative that the effective naval forces of the Empire should be strengthened without delay.

Editorial Notes and Clippings

THE SEWER BY-LAW

Ald. Dybhavn said last night that the sewerage by-law is no laughing matter. In that he is right, but the methods adopted by the present city council in bringing it before the people have been such that it might easily be regarded in the light of a joke.

Engineer Mason again told, at the meeting last night, of his efforts to have the council bring in an engineer to check up his work, and their refusal to do so. He further stated, when questioned, that neither the Provincial Government or the Grand Trunk Pacific had given a guarantee that they would allow the city to carry the numerous outlets across their property and discharge into the sea.

Another point against the sewerage as proposed was the injustice to sections seven, eight and nine, which are not included in the present scheme, but which are taxed to pay for the work.

In Section 1 the pipes will be laid at a depth of some 12 or 14 feet. According to Engineer Mason about 80 % of the cost of the work is in excavating. This means that those sections which will have only muskies to cut through will be paying for deepening of Section 1 sewer, and as yet it is too soon to say what part of the city will ultimately be the business portions. Every city has two or three business centres, and Prince Rupert will also in time, have other business districts as well as Sec. 1.

Give the city sewerage, but for the next few years until the place is larger and more defined, let it be a cheaper system. It is absolute folly to put in the expensive system planned at this stage of the game.

Ald. Dybhavn devoted some ten minutes of his speech last night in attempting to demonstrate to his audience that the "News" had credited him with assertions which he had not made, referring particularly to his admission that all his knowledge concerning sewers had been gleaned from the city engineer.

Costly Mistake by Snodgrass.

Los Angeles, Nov. 27.—Although he has been married for more than three years, Fred Snodgrass, centre fielder of the New York Nationals, is defendant in a breach-of-promise suit, the filing of which became public yesterday. Nellie K. Fraker is the plaintiff, and she asks the court to award her $75,000. The plaintiff alleges that Snodgrass won her consent to marriage on January 15, 1908, and that more than a year later, while she believed herself to be his fiancee, he married Josephine Vickers. Snodgrass is spending the winter in Southern California.

The salmon pack of the Klondike Cannery on the Alberni Canal this year was 36,500 cases. This is the largest pack this year for any single B. C. cannery.

War Reduces Labor Supply.

Toronto, Nov. 27.—So great has been the drain of labor caused by the exodus of the Balkan people to the scene of the war that the railway companies and contractors are experiencing serious difficulty in securing men. Large numbers are being brought in under contract from New York, Boston, Cleveland and Buffalo, but the situation in the United States is almost as bad as in the Dominion. The manager of an employment company states that contractors are complaining of the inability to secure laborers.

This year Frank Neil brought 12,500 cords of wood down the Yukon River, which he delivered at Klondike City. He received $112,500 for the lot, which is at the rate of $9 a cord.

Rabbits are plentiful around Corbin.

Fir wood is $6 a cord in Fort George.

The first church at Pentiction, built by Tom Ellis, was opened twenty years ago this month.

Several Greeks from Oroville, Carmi, Greenwood, and other points have gone to fight the Turks.

An automobile was driven into the Peace River district this summer as far as Lesser Slave Lake.

This year 110 carloads of fruit were shipped from Pentiction, against eight carloads for last year.

The new flouring mill at Medicine Hat will have a warehouse that will hold 400,000 barrels of flour.

The Scimitar at Kettle Falls, Wash., has ceased publication and the plant has been moved to Spokane.

H. W. Jackson of Northport, Wash., has killed in his time 453 bears. He expects to make the number 500.

O. E. Desmond and Carl Williams are furnishing the Kaslo people, twice a week, with a moving picture show.

Wood sells for from $9 to $10 a cord in Dawson. Six years ago 17,000 cords of wood were burned in that city every winter, and in earlier days it consumed 24,000 cords. At present much coal is being burned in Yukon's famous city.

L. E. Bonner, manager of a mining company at Stanley, has been sent up for trial by the court in Barkerville, charged with blowing up the ditches of the Lowell hydraulic mine at Lightning Creek with dynamite.

Last year the Yukon Gold Co., near Dawson, used 35,000 cords of wood, principally spruce. The average cost, laid down at the boilers on the creeks, was $13 a cord. It costs this company $500,000 a year for fuel. It evidently takes money to run a gold thawing plant in the Klondike.

Near Chilliwack a young girl recently shot a bear dead. The bear was stealing apples from her father's orchard.

A. D. Broomfield has sold his hotel at Westbridge and will move to Princeton, where he owns an interest in a livery stable.

Suitable meals can now be secured at all the road houses between Quesnel and Fort George. Thanks to the women, say the Herald.

Recently near Rossland in one day, with a single team, Jack Shaveneau skidded ninety-seven logs that sealed over 30,000 feet.

This year 23,000,000 barrels of apples were raised in the United States. The production fifteen years ago was 67,000,000 barrels.

Was a Vendetta to Blame?

Nelson, Nov. 27.—Suggestions that an Italian vendetta was at the bottom of breaking open and robbing of a mail box at the corner of Silica and Falls streets were made yesterday after information charging 6-year-old Willie Fernie with having some of the mail withdrawn before Police Magistrate Irvine, it having been proven by the child's mother that he was under seven years of age, which the criminal code declares must be reached before a person can be considered competent to be tried for an offence. It was said that it was to secure a letter addressed to a town in Italy that the box was broken by one of those concerned in a feud. Examination of the damage to the box, which was in court, indicated that the door had been wrenched open from above, probably by some person considerably taller than the youthful prisoner.

CHAPTER XXIII.

Being an Account of the Ingratitude of the People Towards the Rulers

1. Now it came to pass that in the third year of incorporation in the reign of Seville Martineau in the town of Newton, known throughout the municipality as "Peeping Sam," "Hamlet," and other cognomens, that a great discussion arose in the city; men grew exceedingly wroth and vexed themselves greatly over the desecration of the Sabbath by the opening of the pool courts.

2. Now certain of the teachers of the people, on Sabbath days, did rise in the synagogues and speak harshly against the playing of the game of pool, Boston, straight, pea, life and other varieties on the Sabbath day.

3. And it came to pass that Seville Martineau Newton, the scribe, known throughout the city as "Peeping Sam," "Hamlet," and other cognomens, heard the murmurings of the teachers, and did wax exceedingly wroth in the presence of all the rulers of the city in the inner court of the palace. And arising in his place did call with a loud voice on one of the rulers, Bullock, surnamed Webster, to occupy the throne, while Seville Martineau Newton, the prince of rulers, did come down from the throne and cry with a loud voice against the teachers of the people who had rebuked him for playing to the "gods."

4. And he proclaimed the teachers of the people who had, in the synagogues spoken harshly against his wisdom in opening the pool courts of the city, that Boston, straight, pea, life and other varieties of pool might be played in the city on the Sabbath, to be hypocrites.

5. Making mention of his paternal families with a loud voice did Seville Martineau Newton, known throughout the city as "Peeping Sam," "Hamlet," and other cognomens, cry that he had been a teacher of the people even as were those men who objected to the playing in the pool courts on the Sabbath of pool, Boston, straight, pea, life and other varieties, but he humbled himself and said, crying with a solemn voice that he had gone from the teachings of his father.

6. Now in the congregation of the princes of the city were three men, Clayton, a man learned in all the arts and practices of dentistry; Douglas, who had come from afar, yea even from the wicked city of Dawson, where wickedness stalked and no man stayed it; and Dybhavn, who made exchange in monies and lands.

7. They rising in their places in the inner court of the palace did cry out with one voice against the breaking of the law of the council which alterath not, only to suit occasion. Clayton, the man of medicine, did reason with Seville Martineau Newton, the scribe, known throughout the municipality as "Peeping Sam," "Hamlet," and other cognomens, saying "What availeth it to make a law and at the eleventh hour in the life of thy reign to break it and cast it aside as the chaff is thrown by the miller?"

8. And Seville Martineau Newton, the scribe, known as "Peeping Sam," "Hamlet," and other cognomens, did make answer saying that it might only exist thus for a little time.

9. And Douglas did sigh and make mention of a strange word which he had learned in the wicked city of Dawson, 'election.' 10. And Seville Martineau Newton, the scribe, known as "Peeping Sam," "Hamlet," and other cognomens, did again lift up his voice and solemnly declare against the ingratitude of the people who would place their signatures to an humble prayer and petition in favor of another ruler. And he did wax exceedingly wroth and revile them as ingrates.

11. And Seville Martineau Newton, the scribe, known as "Peeping Sam," "Hamlet," and other cognomens, did with a shaky voice make mention of the nocturnal excursions he and Bullock, surnamed Webster, had made with the captain of the city watch, in search of law breakers, and for which the people did not offer him any praise.

NEWS NOTES OF INTEREST BY MAIL FROM THE OLD COUNTRY

Mrs. Sarah Sibton, who was born in Guyhirne, Cambridgeshire, has just celebrated her 100th birthday, in the March almshouse.

Owing to the ravages of the larch saw fly no less than 30,000 larch trees in the Lake district have had to be felled during the last three years.

A monument is to be erected by the Duke of Portland to Lord George Bentinck on the spot where he was found dead, at Welbeck, sixty-four years ago.

At the inquest at Wormwood Scrubs jail on Charles James Babb, aged 24, who died of consumption in the prison infirmary, it was stated that the man had received early medical attention and given the lightest possible labor immediately he was admitted.

Very good snuff can be made from the snowdrop, said Mr. H. Essenhigh Corke, in a lecture on English wild flowers at the London salon of photography. The petals, he said, have only to be dried and crushed to powder to make a most excellent filling for the snuff box.

Representatives of numerous societies dealing with open spaces charity organizations and the like, have decided to appoint a Miss Octavia Hill national memorial committee. Princess Louise wrote that she was much interested in the scheme, and it was decided to ask her to be president of the committee.

Robert Garside, of Buxton, an engine driver on the London & Northwestern Railway, has just completed forty years' service. He has driven 1,847,000 miles, a distance equal to seventy-four times around the world. For three years he drove the express from Manchester to London and back daily.

Mr. Isaac Oldaker, one of Brighton's centenarians, has not long survived his 100th birthday, which occurred on September 21st. The veteran, who claimed to be the oldest ex-soldier and railway servant, displayed wonderful vigor right up to the day of his death. He attended church Sunday, walking nearly a mile. He joined the army in 1825.

H. M. S. Northumberland, for many years a flagship, and recently a training ship for stokers, has now become a floating coal bulk. It was built over forty years ago at a cost of £500,000.

Mr. A. Metheringham, lace manufacturer, of Beeston, Nottinghamshire, announces that, in consequence of the effect of hostile tariffs, he is about to remove the whole of his plant and machinery to Hungary, where he is now erecting a factory which will afford employment to 400 hands. The Hungarian government, under the powers conferred upon it, has not only given him a site at Rasb, between Vienna and Budapest, but has freed the factory from local taxation for ten years and from Imperial taxation for fifteen years, in addition to making a grant for the removal of the machinery from Beeston.

Anxiety has been caused by the disappearance of the Rev. William Ball Wright, vicar of Osbaldwick, near York. Mr. Wright, who is about 72 years of age, and is married, left home about 8 o'clock and has not been seen or heard of since. His greatcoat, containing his gold watch, with his name inscribed upon it, was found on the bank of the River Ouse at a point about three miles from Osbaldwick.

Mr. E. Gardner, M. P., has given free a piece of land on which to erect a dam near Gliveden Reach to prevent flooding at Maidenhead. The mayor has started a public subscription to defray the cost, £250 being required.

Accepting the jocular invitation of a fish carter, a Grimby couple recently used his boat as a wedding coach. Bride and bridegroom, bridesmaid and best man, all in their wedding finery, drove to church and back in the vehicle.

At the hands of Mr. W. Larkin, the Bow steeplejack, the Victoria tower at Westminster has just undergone a thorough overhauling. The stonework was found in good condition and the flag staff was given a new coat of paint.

In the cottage of an octogenarian carpenter, who has just died at Wimborne, was found nearly £470 in sovereigns concealed in an old kettle. He was a pensioner on the estate on which he had worked for many years.

Lord Derby was presented with the freedom of Liverpool at St. George's Hall, this being the first time a lord mayor has been so honored during his term of office. The city council also met in evening dress for the first time on record.

A verdict of "death by misadventure, due to an overdose of veronal," was returned at an inquest at Kingston on Mr. Tom Shaw, a music hall agent, of Adam street, Adelphi, who died at his residence, Brackenhurst, Kingston-on-Thames. The evidence showed that deceased had been in bad health for three or four years, suffering from bronchitis and tuberculosis. He also suffered from sleeplessness and had been in the habit of taking veronal tablets.

Accommodation is provided in the extension for the important and growing collection of Egyptian antiquities and also for geological and anthropological specimens.

An old man named James Ferris, of Drungavanny, has been found dead in his house. He was 78 years of age and lived alone. Although when discovered he did not appear to have been very long extinct, rats had already attacked the body and had greatly disfigured the face.

TERRACE NOTES

This has been one of the mildest falls on record. No frost to speak of, no snow and very little rain. To be statistically correct, the rainfall has been three inches in the past eight weeks, the thermometer has been once down to 27 above, snowfall three inches and long since melted. Takes some beating for the time of year.

Mr. Eby is making rapid progress with his new store on Kalum street. The weather helps.

The temporary premises of the Yukon government telegraph, on Lindsay Morrison's lot, are nearing completion. Mr. Grimes, the operator at Kalum, expects to move up as soon as the building is ready and the necessary new telegraph supplies come to hand.

The Mension & Hale Telephone Co. have all arrangements made for a local telephone, with headquarters here.

Joe Hickey is in town fixing up his property against the coming winter.

INDIANS CO-OPERATED IN IMPROVING STREET

Metlakatla Roads Are Improved by Voluntary Labor of Indians.

Things have been moving lately in Metlakatla. A short while ago it was decided by the local council board to rebuild a road through the village a distance of about a mile. This road had been allowed to fall into an unrepared and unused condition.

The council held a public meeting and it was discussed as to the advisability of assessing the entire community for the whole amount of the proposed improvement or to do the work by standard day labor. The latter course was decided upon.

Every man in the settlement is to do three days' work or pay $3 for each day required to be put in. Forty-one men turned out and completed it in the specified time.

The council provided free meals for the workers at a local restaurant.

It was altogether a veritable love feast. A good job was accomplished.

South for Winter.

T. A. Cameron, accompanied by Mrs. Cameron, arrived yesterday from Aliford Bay. Mr. Cameron, who is a brother of Sol Cameron, the well known contractor of Victoria and president of the Westholme Lumber Co., has been in charge of the works in course of construction at Skidegate for the B. C. Fisheries Co., of which Sir George Doughty is the head. Mr. and Mrs. Cameron are on their way to Victoria for the winter.

CITY HAS NO GUARANTEE OF OUTLET FOR SEWER

electors, going to the polls tomorrow, to use their common sense and not vote for a proposition that was doomed to failure, merely involving them in a hopeless muddle that it would take years to extricate themselves from.

G. R. Naden brought up a somewhat new point on the matter in stating that the scheme as proposed could not be considered a really permanent one. If this city was going to reach the importance it was predicted a far larger and more comprehensive sewerage system would eventually have to be installed. He emphatically asked the electors to vote down the bylaw.

Alderman Clayton followed along the same lines as last evening, wanting more light on the subject, and scored the Council for handling such an important matter in such an unbusinesslike way.

The days of sectional strife as regard the different areas of the city were over. Everyone should consider the best interests of the city as a whole.

T. D. Pattullo opposed the passage of the bylaw most strenuously on the grounds that it was utterly impossible to carry it out as regards the financial end.

It was absurd to say only a part of the money would have to be raised at a time to be spent in some particular part of the town-site.

He pointed out the fact, which City Engineer Mason concurred in, that neither the G. T. P. nor the provincial government had sanctioned the passage of the sewers over their property, or approved of the outlets.

Was General Favorite.
 Little Sadie Small, the bright little maid who succeeded last Wednesday in the general hospital here, following an operation for appendicitis, was greatly loved and respected by the villagers of Metlakatla. From the time of her first illness Miss Davis, the principal of the school of which the child was one of the most promising pupils, devoted herself to the task of nursing her little charge back to health. However, the child becoming worse rapidly, Dr. Eggert, who was called in attendance, ordered her removal to the hospital here. The young girl's early decease has cast a gloom over her native village.

FULL TEXT OF THE SPEECH FROM THRONE

My advisers are convinced that it is the duty of Canada at this juncture to afford reasonable and necessary aid for that purpose. A bill will be introduced accordingly.

A contract for the construction of the Hudson Bay railway from Le Pas to Port Nelson has been awarded and the work is being pushed forward with all possible speed.

Good Roads Aid.
 It is abundantly evident that the highways of Canada constitute important part of an efficient scheme of transportation. The necessity for improving our existing facilities in this regard is manifest and a bill will be introduced for the purpose of enabling the Dominion to co-operate with the provinces in the accomplishment of this most desirable purpose.

Aid to Agriculture.
 It is satisfactory to know that the proposal of my government to co-operate with the governments of the various provinces in promoting the agricultural industry has met with hearty approval. The appropriations which were made last session in connection therewith have proved to be of marked benefit to the country. After a careful study of the whole question my advisers are convinced that co-operation with the provinces on well defined terms and conditions will achieve the best results along the lines of agricultural instructions. Any such policy to be effective must be continuous. Accordingly, a bill will be introduced by which a substantial amount of money will be set apart from the consolidated revenue fund for the purpose of assisting the provinces for a term of years in the highly important national work.

Reducing Cable Rates.
 My government has succeeded in securing certain reductions in cable rates and will continue its efforts to obtain still further reductions.

Under existing legislation the charters of the banks will expire on the first day of July next. A bill revising and extending these charters will be submitted for your consideration and approval.

More Western Senators.
 Several other bills will be submitted, including measures providing for increased representation of the provinces of Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba in the Senate.

Ample Revenue.
 Gentlemen of the House of Commons, the accounts for the last fiscal year will be laid before you. It will be satisfactory to you to learn that the revenue has been ample to cover both ordinary and capital expenditure.

The estimates for the next fiscal year will be submitted at an early date. They have been prepared with due regard on the one hand for economy and on the other hand for necessary developments of the resources of the Dominion.

Honorable gentlemen of the Senate, gentlemen of the House of Commons, I invite your earnest consideration of the subjects to which I have alluded and I invoke the blessings of divine Providence upon your deliberations.
