Editorial Notes and Clippings

"HEADS, I WIN TAILS, YOU LOSE"

Since the attention of the public was drawn, through the editorial columns of The News on Wednesday last, to the manner in which the chief magistrate of this city was, at that time, living up to the first plank in his platform for 1913, there has been some show of activity in closing a few of the gambling joints that were run most openly. Even in this move an attempt is being made to win support for Mayor Newton in the approaching campaign. It is being made to ap- BOOKS AND THE pear that Mr. Pattullo and his HOME supporters are responsible for the enforcement of the law in this particular, and in this manner it is hoped to create feeling against him amongst those who derive a profit from the operation of various gambling devices. For the information of the public The News states positively that neither Mr. Pattul'o nor any of his friends had anything whatever to do in inspiring the reference that was made editorially has not up to the present made himself appear ridiculous by making rash promises as to his line of action for 1913. The News assumes the full responsibility for the article that has caused Mayor Newton to issue a challenge to The News to furnish information that is well known to every wideawake citizen. The News further states that the article was written not so much with the object of reform as to emphasize the insincerity or inefficiency of the Mayor in the platform.

A love for good books is a splendid safe guard, and the it would cost to "set 'em up" ernment is not. Review.

SELECTED A CHURCH SITE AT TOW HILL

Rt. Rev. Bishop Du Vernet Returned from Graham Island Yesterday.

Rt. Rev. Bishop Du Vernet returned yesterday on the Prince John from Graham Island, where the world of sport. he had been visiting for some time. During his stay on the island the Bishop visited Old Masset, New Masset, Queenstown and Tow Hill.

At Tow Hill a site was selected for the Anglican Church. This ground is a free gift to the church by Mr. J. Christie, owner of the townsite because of his appreciation of the sterling worth of Rev. Father Hogan. The first baptism at Tow Hill was made by Bishop Du Vernet while there.

At Old Masset the Ladies' Auxiliary held a sale of work on Tuesday last and cleared nearly $150, while at New Masset on Thursday the ladies gathered $200 to go toward the payment f the church debt.
