MAYOR NEWTON'S

The retirement of Mayor Newton from the contest for this year's mayoralty, into which he has turned his personal energies and those of his paper for the past two weeks, has little effect upon the municipal outlook for the current year. Mayor Newton never had a chance for re-election. Even the accident of circumstances which placed him in the chief executive's chair last year was not likely to again occur. His withdrawal is not a surprise, although it is a tactical admission that he finds public opinion overwhelmingly against him. No reason is assigned for his retirement, but it is no doubt a desire to shut off the exposures of his incapacity for the position and the inefficiency and recklessness of the various departments under his control. To his supporters, whom he deserted in the eleventh hour, it shows how little dependence can be placed in him. To the workingmen, whose self-appointed champion he was, he exposes his deceit and pitiful weakness. He is out to save his own face. Although he has promised to stand for alderman in Ward 2, it is quite probable that he may even drop that ambition before election day. Ward 2 is not likely to accept a political discard as their representative.

FAIR WAGES TO THE WORKINGMAN.

Mayor Newton has withdrawn as a candidate for the mayoralty for 1913 and is offering himself as a candidate for the position of alderman. Although he has changed his mind so suddenly in regard to the office he would seek, it is hardly to be expected that his platform has been changed. If Mayor Newton honestly believed in his platform as a candidate for the mayoralty he must surely consider it a good one for an alderman. All through the campaign he has been fairly shouting his head off about fair wages to the workingman. If Mayor Newton is consistent he is just as anxious to see that the mechanic receives a fair wage also. As a sample of his anxiety in this respect the tender of the Empire, Mayor Newton's organ, for the publication of the civic "Nomination Notice" is interesting. The advertisement had its first insertion in yesterday's Empire and occupies a space one column wide by thirteen and a half inches deep, the matter being set solid in the smallest type ordinarily used for such advertisements. Tenders were asked for ten consecutive insertions of this advertisement. The Empire secured the business on a tender of five dollars. The only other tender put in was that of The Daily News, its tender be-$30.00. Boiled down, Mayor Newton is selling advertising space to the city at less than 4 cents per inch, while on page two of the Empire the published price for temporary advertisements is $1.20 per inch. To anyone with the slightest knowledge of the newspaper business the price is simply ridiculous, yet this is a sample of how Mayor Newton would, were it in his!

THE AFTERMATH

Usually the day following Christmas brings with it unpleasant recollections of friends who have been inadvertently overlooked in the matter of Christmas gifts. Isn't it fortunate that New Year's Day follows so closely and gives us an opportunity to make amends for our oversights during the Christmas rush. While the past week's shopping made very heavy inroads into our stock, the assortments in each line are practically unbroken. We have a large range of beautiful things for New Year's gifts.
