BULGARIA SCORES ANOTHER VICTORY OVER TURKS

NOW BELIEVED OVER THREE THOUSAND LIVES LOST IN DELUGE—BANKERS' TRUST LIABILITIES

THREE THOUSAND NOW ON DEATH ROLL OF DELUGE

HALF A MILLION HOMELESS IN INDIANA AND NEARLY THAT NUMBER IN OHIO.

(Special to The Daily News.)
Chicago, March 27.—It is now certain that over three thousand perished in the deluge that swept over the northern half of the Ohio River valley. The exact number of dead reported last night was 3,262, but further reports are likely to largely increase these figures. Already half a million are homeless in Indiana and nearly that number in Ohio. The Ohio property damage is at least one hundred millions. The floods at present show no signs of subsiding at any point. The river at Peru has increased from four hundred yards wide to four miles. The train service west is entirely demoralized.

ent to estimate the property loss. The death list at Peru is estimated all the way from sixty to two hundred. Miamisburg, with a population of four thousand, has been entirely swept away, but the number of fatalities cannot be estimated until the raging waters subside.

Dayton, O., March 27.—There has been an appalling loss of life here by the floods, which are now forty feet deep in the lower part of the city. To add to the horrors the city took fire and the conflagration is still raging unchecked. The whole city will no doubt be burned down to the water's edge.

Washington, March 27.—President Wilson, in response to numerous appeals for aid from the submerged districts, has promulgated a general appeal for aid for the sufferers by the flood to the people of the whole country.

WONDERFUL EFFECTS BEYOND DESCRIPTION

Moving Pictures in Natural Colors of the Great Durbar at Delhi.

The heavy storm last night was probably the only thing to prevent the Westholme from putting out the satisfactory sign of "Standing room only," for the wonderful kinemacolor pictures had been favorably commented upon all over town during the day and there was noticed in last night's audience several who had attended the first reproduction of them.

It is a task to convey in words even a faint idea of the brilliant legal pageants that follow each other in such rapid succession, the hundreds of thousands of troops of various nationalities and uniforms as varied in color as Joseph's coat, the great processions of stately elephants with their jewelled trappings, the

PANAMA CANAL RATES

Influential Americans Moving for Appeal of Preferential Tolls

Washington, March 24th.—Declaring the United States ought to be the most scrupulous of all nations in the keeping of its treaty obligations, "even to its own hurt," the trustees of the Carnegie endowment for international peace has issued an appeal to the American people to bring about as an act of national honor the repeal of the Act of Congress which exempts coastwise vessels from payment of Panama Canal tolls.

SIR WILFRID LAURIER AND HIS POLICY IN NAVAL DEBATE

DISCUSSION HAS ALREADY PROVEN THERE IS NO GROUND FOR PLEA OF EMERGENCY.

Ottawa, March 24.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier, leader of the opposition, has issued the following statement of the Liberal position in the naval debate in reply to the statement issued by the government on Thursday:

"The present issue between the government and the opposition is clearly and easily defined. The government is asking for a contribution of thirty-five million dollars out of the Canadian Treasury to the imperial navy, under the pretense of an emergency.

"The discussion has shown that such an emergency does not exist, and it would seem that this is the first of periodical permanent contributions. The policy of the Liberal party is the same as it ever was: a Canadian navy, built (as far as immediately practicable), equipped, maintained and manned in Canada.

"This policy is now in concrete form before the house, Mr. Guthrie having moved an amendment, still undisposed of, that the thirty-five million dollars asked by the government be expended in Canada in the construction and equipment of naval forces.

"The whole object of the opposition during the present debate has been to bring this issue as prominently as possible to the attention of the people, and this they still propose to do by all constitutional means at their disposal.

"It is stated on behalf of the government that the rules of the house are antiquated.

"These rules have grown to their present form through long centuries of struggle on behalf of freedom of speech. The late government persistently refused to alter them, but they were carefully revised only three years ago and unanimously adopted as they now stand."

BRITISH NAVY ESTIMATES.

(Special to Daily News.)

London, March 27.—In introducing the navy estimates in the House of Commons last evening Winston Churchill made a strong speech, in the course of which he threw out an invitation to the powers to agree to cease all further increase of armament and naval construction after this year.

ZIBASSA BRINGS IN A GOOD CATCH

40,000 Pounds of Halibut in Six Days—Being Shipped South.

The Zibassa, the trim trawler of the Canadian Fish and Cold Storage fleet, arrived in port yesterday with a cargo of about 40,000 pounds of halibut, representing six days' fishing. The catch is being loaded on the Prince John today for shipment south. The Zibassa, in charge of Captain Parsons, will leave again this afternoon for the fishing banks.

TOO MUCH OF BOWSER FOR GOOD OF B. C.

Scathing Arraignment of Provincial Government by Parker Williams.

Vancouver, March 24.—Denunciation of the McBride government by Mr. Parker Williams, described as "the leader of His Majesty's loyal opposition at Victoria," interested a considerable gathering assembled in the Dominion Theatre last night under the auspices of the Social Democratic party. The Socialist member of the Provincial Legislature did not spare either Premier McBride or Mr. Bowser in his condemnation, but threw the whole responsibility for the misgovernment of the province upon them.

"Conservatism in British Columbia has become nothing else but McBridism," he said. "Toryism is not in itself a particularly attractive thing, but in its conversion to McBridism it is, if possible, worse than real Toryism (laughter) and in British Columbia now it is hard to say what is Conservatism and what is Canadian Northernism."

That a healthy opposition is admittedly an advantage and a necessity to any good intentioned government, as acknowledged at Ottawa by the payment of the opposition leader's salary, Mr. Parker Williams made his first premise in a talk on the origin of all government. He disclaimed any desire on his own part to draw a salary as leader of the opposition at Victoria, saying that it will be years before the Victoria administration becomes enlightened enough at its present rate of progress to see the benefit of an intelligent opposition.

"The Conservative party, Sir Richard McBride and Mr. Bowser don't like the coal miners at all, and the coal miners on their side don't have much use for Bowser, McBride and the Conservative party," added Mr. Williams.

Mr. Williams showed in a word or two, taking Delta district as his example, that by deliberate bribery of the constituency with appropriations the Provincial government under McBride carried out their plan in most districts to overthrow the Liberal representation, and substitute machine made Tory representation. "Honest John Oliver" had been turned down as a result of $30,000 laid out in Delta by F. Mackenzie, although it was ostensibly spent through the government agent.

REGISTER NOW

Every Probability That There Will Be a General Election This Summer.

All who are qualified are urged to have their names placed on the voters' list at the earliest possible moment. Some misunderstanding seems to prevail as to the need for registration. All the old Provincial and Dominion voters' lists have been cancelled, so that all who want to vote at forthcoming elections, either Federal or Provincial, must register anew. Those who fail to do so will have no voice in the public affairs of the country.

ST. ANDREW'S SOCIETY'S SUCCESSFUL SOCIAL

Whist Drive an Enjoyable Feature—Dancing Until Two This Morning.

The St. Andrew's Society may be said to have taken formal possession of their new handsome and commodious rooms last night and it is not too much to say that the members were not chary of expressing their satisfaction and pride. Notwithstanding the heavy storm the rooms were crowded.

At 8:30 the party sat down to progressive whist, the playing lasting until 11 o'clock. The first prize for ladies was won by Mrs. J. H. Kelly; for gentlemen, Mr. W. M. Brown; consolation prize for ladies, Miss Katrina; for gentlemen, Mr. Walter Longwell.

Then the jolly party sat down to a dainty supper, after which dancing started and was kept up with vigor until 2 this morning. T. McMeekin's orchestra, composed of Messrs. McMeekin, Lee and Hunter, furnished excellent music.

It was a most enjoyable affair throughout, and it is the intention of the society to hold one of these social gatherings every month, the largely increased membership having materially stimulated interest in the success of the society.

NO INDEMNITY TO BALKAN ALLIES ALLOWED BY POWERS

NOTE PRESENTED AT THE SAME TIME AS AUSTRIA'S ULTIMATUM THREATENING COERCIVE ACTION.

London, March 24.—Austria today delivered at Cetinje a thinly veiled ultimatum to Montenegro threatening that if the civil population of Scutari were not allowed to leave the city the dual monarchy would take coercive measures for compliance with its wishes.

Italy took similar action but without expressing any threat, and Russia, the friend of Montenegro, advised the Montenegrin government to accede to Austria's demand.

Austria is sending a steamer to Scutari, evidently expecting that this, her second request for the release of the civilians, will not be refused; and has also made clear what she requires in connection with the other incidents of the dispute between the two countries.

In the meantime the representatives of the powers at the Balkan capitals are busy submitting to the governments of the allies a note suggesting terms as a basis for peace. The note has not yet been presented to Turkey, as one of the ambassadors has failed to receive his instructions.

The allies have been consulting with regard to the note, and the public and press of the Balkan states do not receive the suggestions with any favor. The powers veto the indemnity demand and insist that hostilities cease when proposals are accepted.

Cardinal Respighi's Death.

Rome, March 24.—Cardinal Respighi, the vicar general of His Holiness, died today. He was born at Bologna, September 22, 1843. The death of Cardinal Respighi was expected, as he has been gravely ill with influenza for some time. So far the fatal termination of the cardinal's illness has been concealed from Pope Pius, the vatican authorities not wishing him to have any cause of grief on Easter Day, but it will be difficult to hide the fact long.

BRITISH MANHOOD FLOCKING TO CANADA

Three Thousand of Finest Specimens Started for Land of Promise on Good Friday.

London, March 24.—Easter holidays are making little or no difference in the work of the Liverpool landing stage.

The second cabins were completely filled, showing that the bulk of passengers had comfortable means. Several parties were obliged to travel third class, owing to the second cabin being crowded. All second class accommodations in April are already booked.

SCOTCHING THE WHEELS OF DEVELOPMENT.

The great sensation sprung by Mr. Borden on the opposition was Mr. Churchill's opinion that Canada cannot build battleships of a certain type, and incidentally that Canada had better not go into the business at all, says the Toronto Star. The precise limitation of Canada's power to build ships is a matter of detail. In the ordinary course of development of this industry, as of any industry, we should make a modest beginning, building what we can and supplementing our own work by the work of British shipyards. As time went on, and our industry developed, we should do more and more ourselves, and depend on others less and less.

In this respect we should be following the regular course of human life, from childhood to manhood, and the regular course of industrial development in Canada. We began with lumbering, fishing and farming. From cutting down the tree we went on to making various kinds of lumber, and then to the manufacture of furniture and the woodwork of pianos. The Canadian now thinks he can make a pretty good piano. Suppose that in the earlier stages of the development of woodworking industries we had been told "You must not try to do anything more than cut down trees and make them into logs, for it is ridiculous to suppose that you could make such pianos and tables as are made in England." Today we see that such advice would have been not only discouraging, but ridiculous. We progressed from stage to stage, until now we believe that we can do anything with wood that can be done in the world, or at least that we are on the way to that position.
So with all our industries. We admit that we have much to learn. But we do not admit that there is anything that we cannot do, or hope to do, in the way of industrial development.

It will be exactly the same with the development of our navy and our shipbuilding industry. We do not expect to be able to do everything at once. We do expect to develop a navy as we have developed other things in Canada. We do not admit that there is anything that cannot be done in Canada eventually, and as the result of evolution and development. And we want to begin, and will not listen to anyone who tries to discourage us.

Just as we are told today that we cannot build battleships, so we were told seventy years ago that we could not manage our own local affairs. Attempts were made to discourage us and overawe us. We were told that things were managed much better in England. So they were, in some respects.
But the point that your worthy advisers overlooked was that you will never do anything unless you begin. What you do for yourself, rude and imperfect though it may be, is better for you than what is done for you by somebody else. Your clumsy efforts at swimming are better than dependence on any kind of life belt. It is in this spirit that Canada must tackle the question of naval defence.

DR. ELIOT DECLINES

Will Not Serve as United States Ambassador to Britain.

Cambridge, Mass., March 24.— Dr. Charles W. Eliot, president emeritus of Harvard, said last night that it was true that he had declined the post of ambassador to Great Britain.

While he could give no reason for declining, he said it was not on account of his age, the condition of his health or financial considerations. Dr. Eliot's letter regretting his inability to serve was sent to President Wilson two days ago.

TRICKS OF SUFFRAGETTES

Crawled from Beneath Platform on Which Lord Beauchamp Was Speaking.

London, March 24.—A dust begrimed suffragette carrying a light crawled from beneath a platform from which Lord Beauchamp was making a speech at Tunbridge Wells. She was arrested. The woman had hidden under the platform with the intention of setting the place afire, but failed.

Marjory Masters, a suffragette school teacher, threw a pot of green paint through a window of the Home Office. The liquid scattered over several desks. The woman was arrested.

The women used their hammers again last week. They smashed the windows of a jewel-ler's store in Bond street and a prominent shop in Holborn. Several of the women caught in the act were arrested by the police.

ASSETS AND LIABILITIES OF BANKERS' TRUST COMPANY

AS STATED IN THE DIRECTORS' PETITION FOR AN ORDER TO WIND UP THE COMPANY

Vancouver, March 24th.—The petition on which the winding up order of the Chief Justice was based was filed following the passing by the Board of Management of the following motion:

"After consulting the honorable the Attorney-General as to the condition of the affairs of the Company, and after being advised by the honorable the Attorney General that his department could do nothing to assist the company, and it appearing that the company was in such financial difficulties that the doors would have to be closed, it was moved by F. J. Popham and seconded by C. Moses that the solicitors of the company be forthwith advised to take such proceedings as they may deem expedient to wind up the company at the earliest possible moment."

The petition for the court order was signed by A. G. Sargison, first vice-president; J. H. Baker, third vice-president; F. J. Pop-ham, director, and Joseph Fletcher, director. The petition sets forth that the assets of the company total $374,446.60 and its liabilities $312,008, but states that part of the assets comprise stock in certain companies which is of small value and at present not negotiable. The assets are stated to be as follows: Victoria office premises, $62,500; land in the Okanagan district, $75,000; Bank of Vancouver stock, $1,405; Great West Home Co. shares, $25,000; Title Holding company bonds, $23,200; stock of the People's Trust, $625; Western Union Fire Insurance Co.'s shares, $17,000; shares of the British Underwriters' Company, $4,500; Anglo-American Timber bonds, $30,216.60.

Relative to the action of Mr.
Popham, at whose instance Cook was arrested on a charge of stealing $8,000, the Bankers Trust Corporation, it is explained in the petition, was unable to return the $8,000 as the total amount of cash in the offices of Victoria, Vancouver, Nelson and Prince Rupert was under $1,000.

The petition ends with the request that, as judgments may be expected under the writs already issued, and as the company is unable to sell any more shares because of the misrepresentations alleged to have been made by agents of The Negotiators, Limited, the winding-up order be issued and an order directing that no further dealings with the shares of the Bankers Trust Corporation be made.

THE STATECRAFT OF
SIR RICHARD M'BRIDE

"Some Methods of a Demagogue" Described in Canadian Collier's.

It was Sir Richard McBride who introduced a strongly partisan administration. At the invitation of Sir Henry Joly de Lotbiniere, McBride on June 1, 1903, having served already in the Dunsmuir ministry from 1900 to 1902, formed a government, taking into his cabinet only Conservatives. Thus, party government was introduced into British Columbia; almost at once the credit of the province appeared to improve. Money became easier. Men of capital and enterprise flocked to Vancouver and Victoria. Since that date the province has prospered in a certain sort of way.

The people of British Columbia have paid their debt to McBride over and over again, and still, year in and year out, he sits, smiling, upon their shoulders, like the old man of the sea sat on Sindbad's shoulders. He holds his position, first, by means of the most perfect political machine in the Dominion, if, indeed, it does not rival the famous American Tammany Hall organization; second, by taking up popular cries such as "British Columbia is a white man's province!" "Better terms for British Columbia!" and "More railways for the Pacific province," and finally by the careful culling out of all promising Liberal leaders, either by giving them comfortable government appointments, where they are effectually silenced, or by other means less direct. Men will tell you: "We don't like the McBride government, but what sort of men are there on the Liberal side to vote for?" And you cannot always answer satisfactorily. Also, Mc-Bride's political slogans count for much, because the old "native son" element in the province is very strong; it accounts for a certain "snobbish" attitude on the part of British Columbia toward outsiders, a sort of insular sufficiency and selfishness which makes any demagogue who will cry "Out with the Asiatics," and "More railways," etc., a political hero. Anyone who suggests moderation or caution in regard to these particular matters is liable to be hissed down by the unthinking element, which almost always preponderates in election meetings in any part of Canada. Perhaps this is another reason why better men do not offer to run in opposition to the McBride candidates.

By one means and another a pedestal has been built under the feet of Sir Richard McBride, so that he now looms large in almost every Conservative situation. By judicial press agent work, and by one or two successful gallery plays, such as the time when Sir Richard ordered a fifteen thousand dollar reception given Sir Wilfrid Laurier by the province, he has become a widely known figure. London receives him whenever he can make an excuse to get away. He gets publicity other men cannot get.

British Columbians will sometimes recite the history of this man to you in a manner as much as to say: "What do you Easterners make of it?" He is a little over forty, and yet in all those years has not done, they say, one thing—except his one act of political courage already referred to—to justify the position he holds. Born at New Westminster, son of the Irish warden of the provincial jail, he passed an ordinary boyhood, an ordinary career at school and at Dalhousie University in Nova Scotia.
His advent in the practice of law in British Columbia was most modest, not to say obscure. His achievements in his fussy office, and before whatever tribunals his cases led him, were prosaic. Few people knew of Richard McBride until as "Judney Dick" he resigned from the Dunsmuir ministry on a minor point, and on the fall of the Prior ministry, shortly afterward, was asked to form a government by the Lieutenant Governor, because the older, wiser and seemingly more able politicians were busy arguing among themselves. Hesitating, they were lost, and McBride found.

LACROSSE DELEGATES ARE UNABLE TO AGREE

Abortive Session of British Columbia Lacrosse Association Saturday.

Vancouver, March 26.—The annual meeting of the British Columbia Lacrosse Association scheduled for Saturday at the Elysium Hotel proved an abortive gathering, for no business whatever was transacted. The representatives of the Vancouver and New Westminster clubs could not get together on the question of a split in the gate receipts brought up by the Royal City club and the meeting was adjourned till next Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at New Westminster, to enable the delegates to report back to their clubs for further instructions before resuming the debate.

MUST BECOME MOTHER TO INHERIT FORTUNE

Strangest Will Ever Filed in a New England Court.

Boston, March 24.—Wedding bells will soon be ringing for Miss Mary Belle Shedd of Lowell, who will thus take the first step in an effort to win a legacy of $3,000,000 under the terms of the strangest will ever filed in a New England court. Miss Shedd will lose $3,000,000 unless she marries and bears children. As soon as this became known the young woman was deluged with marriage proposals, but the daughter of Freeman B. Shedd, the late wealthy perfume manufacturer, made her choice some time ago. Shedd died in Florida, leaving $3,000,000, a widow and a daughter. By the terms of the will, Mrs. Shedd and her daughter are provided for for life. They will have an income but cannot obtain the principal unless Mary Belle Shedd shall wed. In case she leaves no children at the time of her death the money will be divided among the Berry School of Rome, Georgia; Northfield Seminary, the City of Lowell and the Lowell General Hospital.

Westminster brought up the question of a split in the receipts right at the outset and though it was not in the natural order of business the representatives of the two clubs felt that it should be settled before any arrangements were made whatever in connection with the coming season. Victoria had a strong delegation present to press its claims for admission to membership, but the Capital City delegates were barred from most of the meeting and were only in evidence for a brief period at the start and finish of the meeting.

Be Suspicious

BE suspicious of that of which nobody is proud. Be suspicious of the mere low-price argument offered in favor of an article with no reputation, no backer, no guarantor.

Better buy the thing you know and can trust, than an article unbranded and unvouched for.

The branded shoe, made by a maker with a reputation, is a safer shoe to buy than the one made in an unknown factory by an unknown maker.

The underwear made by a firm whose name is as familiar to you as your own, is worth more to you than underwear nameless or labelled by a maker of whom you have never heard.

Tea sealed in a packet bearing the name of a reputable firm is to be preferred to tea of which the packer is not sufficiently proud to advertise its quality.

That in which much money has been invested to make or keep it good is worth more than that on which nothing or but little has been spent.

Peace of mind is worth something, just as quality is. Buy peace of mind.

When you buy anything worth while buying, buy that of which you know—from advertisements, or from other dependable acquaintance. Buy the article with the "money back" guarantee—with the pledge of a known name behind it.

Put your faith in the advertisements appearing in good newspapers. Beware of the article that cannot stand the spot-light of publicity. The commodity an advertiser backs with his own money is something worth your buying.

Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any good advertising agency or the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 503 Lumden Building. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write, if interested.

MEMBER BORDEN VS. PREMIER BORDEN

What the Distinguished Gentleman Said in Parliament on Feb. 12, 1910

It has been suggested that instead of the organization of a Canadian Naval force, there should be a system of annual contributions from this country to the mother country; and I am free to admit that, from the strategic point of view, I would be inclined to agree with the view of the Admiralty that this would be the best way for the self-governing dominions of the Empire to make their contributions.

But, Sir, from a constitutional and political standpoint, I am opposed to it, for many reasons. In the first place, I do not believe that it would endure. In the second place it would be a source of friction. It would become a bone of partisan contention. It would be subject to criticism as to the character and the amount of the contributions in both parliaments. It would not be permanent or continuous. It would conduce, if anything could conduce, to severing the present connection between Canada and the Empire.

Permanent co-operation in defence, in my opinion, can only be accomplished by the use of our own material, the employment of our own people, the development and utilization of our own skill and resourcefulness, and above all by the pressing upon the people a sense of responsibility for their share in international affairs.

Don'ts by Mr. Will Crooks.

Mr. Will Crooks; M. P., the genial Cockney philosopher of Woolwich, imparted a few useful life rules to a crowd at Whitefield's Tabernacle, London. They were: Don't argue when you are tired; you can't do it. Don't take the workshop home with you. Don't talk trouble before the children. Don't "swank." Don't think you can't be "done"; you can. Don't think you are worse than other people, and don't think you are better; you're not. Don't think you have a constant job; the man in the cemetery has got that. Don't talk of being master in your own house. You might be while you are there, but you have got to go out. Don't get angry; no one cares if you do.

BRITAIN BUILDING LARGE AIR FLEET

War Minister Believes It Will Prove to Be Greatest in the World.

London, March 24.—The British minister of war, Lieutenant Colonel Seely, announces that Great Britain will shortly have one of the greatest, if not the greatest, aerial fleets in the world. Although both France and Germany far outdistanced Britain during recent years in the construction of aeroplanes, Britain has been able to profit by their experience and now proposes to build machines speedier and more stable than any yet in operation for naval or military purposes. Colonel Seely hopes that Britain will possess in a short time 148 aeroplanes capable of attaining a speed of ninety miles an hour and of repelling the attacks of other air craft. These machines will be used for army purposes, but it is also intended to provide the navy with hydroplanes.

HE SOLD HIS WIFE TO ANOTHER MAN

And This Occurred in England with Permission of the Court.

New York, March 24.—A London cable to the Tribune says: "The barter and sale of a woman for $27,500 was arranged in the courts here yesterday by the authority of a judge. The case was that of a divorcee suit brought by Marcellus Raymond Moraud against his wife, Helena Woodley Moraud, both actors. J. A. Morrison, inheritor of the Morrison millions, was named as co-respondent. The suit was undefended, and counsel stated that it had been agreed that Morrison should pay Moraud $27,500 damages.

Mr. Justice Bargaive Deane, addressing the jury, said: "The parties have agreed as to damages. The co-respondent is prepared to pay the amount, and the petitioner is satisfied to receive the sum. If there were something behind the arrangement I should tell you not to listen to it, but in this case, as far as I can see, there is nothing objectionable. Captain Morrison practically bought this woman for $25,000.

CANADA ASKS THAT UNITED STATES ACT

Impatient at Delay Regarding Regulations for Border Fisheries.

Washington, March 24.—Canada is becoming impatient at the delay of Congress in enacting into law the regulations for the government inland fisheries in the border water framed by the joint commission created by the treaty. John D. Hazen, the Canadian minister of marine and fisheries, accompanied by the White House by Ambassador Bryce, discussed the attitude of the administration toward the question with the purpose of ascertaining the prospects of early legislation.
