BORDEN AND LAURIER PAY PUBLIC TRIBUTE TO THE MEMORY OF GENERAL WOLSELEY

DISCUSSION IN CITY COUNCIL OF INDIGENT MUNROE CASE

ON THE RECOMMENDATION OF THE MAYOR HE IS TO BE SENT UP THE LINE TO HIS FRIENDS.

The art of public oratory, so as the city council is concerned, is dead. But there was a little splurge of it last night when Alderman Bullock-Webster made a passionate plea on behalf of the city's only indigent. He came up on the report of the health committee, of which Mr. Bullock-Webster is chairman, that the usual dole of $30 should be paid for the month of April for the maintenance of Findlay Munroe. With this report there was also read a dissentient note from the mayor, as follows:

Prince Rupert, B. C., March 31st, 1913.

The Council, City of Prince Rupert:

Re Findlay Munroe.

Gentlemen: In connection with report of the health committee regarding Findlay Munroe, I wish to say that I dissent from the report.

At the present time Mr. Munroe is being taken care of at the station, and later, in accordance with his own wishes, can be sent up the line.

The principle of granting money to indigent infirm, to be used as they see it, is unsound. If this course were pursued the policy of the city it would result in all the indigent infirm in British Columbia flocking to Prince Rupert.

I recommend that the disposition of this case be left with the medical health officer.

Respectfully submitted,
T. D. PATTULLO, Mayor.

Upon the reading of this letter Alderman Bullock-Webster observed that the health committee had given a great deal of attention to this subject and had gone fully into the merits of the case. The city must be responsible for any indigent cases that might occur later, but although the mayor had sympathized with the case last month he now gave it as his opinion that such cases should not be considered and that any report of the committee on such cases should be turned down.

The mayor asked the alderman to constrain himself to a statement of his own opinions on the matter and leave the mayor to give his own.

Alderman Sutherland thought the matter might well be left to the discretion of the health officer.

CANADA'S PREMIER HONORS WOLSELEY

Tributes of Esteem Paid by Both Political Leaders.

(Special to The Daily News.)
Ottawa, April 1.—In the House of Commons last night both Premier Borden and Rt. Hon. Sir Wilfrid Laurier paid glowing tributes to the memory of the distinguished soldier and commander, Lord Wolseley, whose funeral takes place in London today. The Duke of Connaught, who arrived in Liverpool Saturday, attends the funeral as the representative of King George and the royal family.

FORMAL OPENING OF NEW GYMNASIUM

Hospitality of Men's Own Was Extended to Many Visitors Last Night.

The energy and perseverance of the Men's Own Association in rebuilding their gymnasium which was practically demolished by the wind storm on New Year's Day was rewarded last night by a large attendance of friends and sympathizers at the formal opening of the new building recently completed. It was an open night and the public was cordially invited to inspect the new building and make themselves perfectly at home. During the early part of the evening there were a number of basket ball games, principally among the ladies, and the juvenile boxing contests afforded the visitors much amusement. An interesting programme was also arranged and was greatly enjoyed. Exhibitions of club swinging by Master Tom Sherman and L. Porter were entertaining. A special feature was a solo by Mr. Burns on a one string violin, made from a cigar box and a broom handle. Mr. Bain favored the audience with a vocal solo which was thoroughly enjoyed. Rev. Mr. Sing in an interesting address reviewed the work of the gymnasium and congratulated the Men's Own on their faithfulness to the institution. Mr. W. G. Barrie officiated as chairman most acceptably. Light refreshments were served in the basement of the church during the latter part of the evening by the Ladies' Aid.

The Methodist gymnasium is an institution that is a credit to the city and it is deserving of the support of all young men interested in athletics. In order that it may keep pace with the growth of the city new members are needed and it is understood that an energetic canvass will be made to increase the membership by at least seventy-five.

The new building is 34x48, being about ten feet wider than the old one.

BYLAW BEING PREPARED FOR NEW SCHOOL ON BORDEN ST.

THIRTY THOUSAND TO BE APPROPRIATED FOR SECTION TWO BRIDGE—CITY LOTS TO BE CLEARED.

A number of city bylaws were acted upon last night, either passed or moved forward a stage in their reading. The formal one for the remuneration of the mayor and aldermen was passed, and in the weigh scale bylaw an amendment was made to provide for the users of coal of less than a ton. On the question of the use of the word "users" Alderman Bullock-Webster raised a point but was assured by the city solicitor that it was a proper legal term. The amendment provides that where less than a ton is taken the coal may be weighed by a contrivance for the purpose carried on the wagon. Another minor point was remedied, that users do not have to be charged the weight of the sacks.

The bylaw for the Section Two bridge, $30,000 was read a second time and will come up for its final passage at the next meeting of the council.

The bill defining the duties of the city auditor was read a second time.

Among other bylaws was one of $12,000 for the excavating of a piece of land belonging to the city on Fulton street and one for the clearing of city land beyond Lynch's store, $46,000. Also one to grant to the government a tract of land near Acropolis Hill, fronting Borden street, for the erection of a drill hall.

A petition was received from the residents of Fifth avenue and Borden street asking for the grading of those streets and the putting in of a sewer. This was referred to the engineer and the board of works.

The mayor reported that a communication had been received from the school board asking for a school to be erected on Borden street. A bylaw calling for $20,000 for this purpose would be prepared and presented at the next meeting.

Considerable Activity in Sections Five, Six, Seven and Eight.

A representative of the "News" called upon several of the real estate firms in the city today for information as to recent transactions. While none of them had any very large deals to report all stated that real estate is active at the present time and that prices have a decided upward trend. Buyers recently show a special interest in sections five, six, seven and eight. In section six prices range from $1,500 upward.

Questioned by the "News" today as to the probability of increasing the passenger service in and out of Prince Rupert on the Grand Trunk Pacific line, General Superintendent Mehan stated that nothing had been decided. The present service consists of two trains a week both in and out. Mr. Mehan intimated that just as soon as the traffic warranted an increase, there would be three trains weekly as there was last summer.

Mr. Borden on Contributions

"It has been suggested that instead of the organization of a Canadian naval force there should be a system of annual contributions from this country to the Mother Country, and I am free to admit that from the strategic point of view I would be inclined to agree with the view of the admiralty that this would be the best way for the great self-governing dominions of the Empire to make their contributions. But, sir, from a constitutional and political standpoint I am opposed to it, for many reasons. In the first place, I do not believe that it would endure. In the second place, it would be a source of friction. It would become a bone of partisan contention. It would be subject to criticism as to the character and the amount of the contribution in both Parliaments. It would not be permanent or continuous. It would conduce, if anything would conduce, to severing the present connection between Canada and the Empire.

"Permanent co-operation in defence, in my opinion, can only be accomplished by the use of our own material, the employment of our own people, the development and utilization of our own skill and resourcefulness, and, above all, by impressing upon the people a sense of responsibility for their share in international affairs."

Hon. R. L. Borden, in the House of Commons, Jan. 12, 1910, before he won with Nationalist votes.

CONSTRUCTION ACTIVITY IN AND AROUND OLD FORT GEORGE

NEW HEADQUARTERS FOR FOLEY, WELCH & STEWART—FIVE HUNDRED SCOWS UNDER CONSTRUCTION TO SHIP SUPPLIES AND MATERIAL.

Fort George, March 29.—Great activity is evidenced here in extensive preparations for making Fort George the largest railway construction camp known in British Columbia, the centre of mammoth development enterprise. Within a month approximately 8,000 men will be working under the supervision of headquarters established here; busy completing the links of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railroad, the steel of which is now less than 80 miles away.

Five hundred scows are under construction between here and Tete Jaune Cache for distribution of railway equipment, and thirteen gigantic steam shovel plants are being dismantled for shipment by water down the Fraser River to points where they will be utilized in the vigorous effort being made to complete rail construction into Fort George by the latter part of August.

Five hundred tons of supplies are being forwarded each week for the workmen whose activities will be directed from the new headquarters which Messrs. Foley, Welch & Stewart and associated contractors are now establishing on the former Indian reserve adjoining the townsite on the east.

The contract for clearing the reserve has just been let to Messrs. Foley, Welch & Stewart, and preparations for this work are being made simultaneously with the erection of the new headquarters, pay offices and supply bases for the contractors. To handle at Fort George the pay roll, estimated to exceed $25,000 a day, additional banking facilities will be necessary and part of this need is expected to be met by a new branch of the Bank of Ottawa.

In addition to the 8,000 men, 5,000 working east of Fort George and the remainder on westward extensions, all engaged in Grand Trunk Pacific construction, 2,000 other men soon will be working southward from the townsite on construction of the Pacific Great Eastern road. These men also will be under the supervision of headquarters at Fort George.

CHARITY CHAMPIONS Can Supply the Milk and Eggs.

In the "Journal" of this morning Mayor Pattullo is reported as saying at the council meeting last night that Finlay Munroe, the indigent about whom there was considerable discussion, would probably be provided with a small house and with eggs and milk. What Mayor Pattullo actually said was that the man would be supplied with the regular fare that is ordinarily supplied to such persons and that probably charitably disposed people might supply him with eggs and milk. Mr. Pattullo personally has already done more than his share in looking after the comfort of the unfortunate man. If the aldermen who were so solicitous on behalf of Mr. Munroe do half as well the latter is not likely to suffer materially in the immediate future.

MAKING A TRADE TREATY WITH JAPAN.

According to a despatch from Ottawa last week, the Borden government has decided to become a party to the treaty between Great Britain and Japan, which was concluded in 1911.

It is stated, however, that the Dominion act will make provision that nothing in the treaty shall affect the terms of the Canadian immigration act.

It will not be forgotten either that previous to that time the McBride government had endeavored to pass an act similar to that of Natal, for the complete exclusion of Asiatics.

What will now be the attitude taken by our provincial ministers in regard to this measure of their political friends at Ottawa?

and the time may come here, as it has come in several parts of California, when they will monopolize certain classes of agricultural production and drive out the white farmer.

WHO SAYS WE CAN'T BUILD SHIPS?

"Canada can't build ships," wrote Winston Churchill to Mr. Borden, and Mr. Borden agreed with him.

When Mr. Churchill declared that this country could not build ships, he did not know this country, and did not know Canadians.

When they tell us that Canada cannot build ships, it merely has the effect of causing nearly every Canadian to exclaim: "What's that?"

They said we could not build the C. P. R. from the Atlantic across the Rockies to the Pacific, and they would not lend us money to let us try.

Lots of people knew, it came to them in a flash, the moment Mr. Churchill said that Canada can't build ships, that there is nothing Canada is more certain to build than just that—ships.

THE FIRST LORD

and His Chorus of Bordenite M.P.'s

By J. W. Bengough, with Apologies to Sir W. S. Gilbert

Rt. Hon. Winston Churchill, First Lord of the Admiralty: In nineteen'nine, I remember quite well

Two speakers who made British bosoms swell, "A Canadian navy!" cried these hearts of oak,

Chorus of Bordenites: No doubt about it, they're the chaps who spoke!

Rt. Hon. W. C.: Then, just after that at a conference here,

That Australia and Canada the navy should aid By building fleet units—that's the pact they made.

Chorus: There's no sort of question, that's the pact they made.

Right Hon. W. C.: Forthwith these Dominions, they both got to work

To make good their pledge without quibble or quirk; Australia stood true to the grand old flag,

Chorus: Yes, Canada, ha! ha! she struck a snag!

Right Hon. W. C.: That snag was the fact—how'er brought about—

That the Tories came in and the Grits went out; A queer thing to happen in such an hour,

Chorus: Yes, it does look queer—but we've got in power!

Right Hon. W. C.: Then Borden and Foster (the chaps who stirred

The Empire's heart with their thrilling word) Turned down the agreement and broke the pledge,

Chorus: Yes, and we will help them to wriggle and hedge.

Right Hon. W. C.: "We'll build no unit, we'll train no men, We'll settle this thing with the scratch of a pen. We'll send a cheque," said this loyal pair,

To build three dreadnoughts and call it square."

Chorus: Yes, that makes it right, if you call it square!

Right Hon. W. C.: Well, although I am rather inclined to think

Chorus: Is that on the whole, it was no doubt best.

Chorus: Bully for Churchill; he thinks it was best!

Right Hon. W. C.: To build a navy, all manned complete,

Chorus: Good! good! We're a lot of dunderheads, true!

Right Hon. W. C.: Just send the money to build the ships,

Chorus: Since you don't know enough to construct the slips,

Right Hon. W. C.: You don't know how, and of course you can't.

Chorus: That's right, we are chumps and of course we can't!

Right Hon. W. C.: But I want to warn you, it's only fair

Chorus: I should frankly state that John Bull can't spare

Chorus: Oh, never mind, Winston—neither do we!

Right Hon. W. C.: I think I will close my ditty right here,

Chorus: For I've got myself in a bog, I fear; Yet it may be a bomb for Borden

Chorus: No! you couldn't rate us any too low!

Port Edward

British Columbia

Prince Rupert's Industrial Annex

BY FINDING OUT ABOUT THIS GREAT NEW PACIFIC COAST TOWNSITE NOW YOU CAN MAKE A BETTER INVESTMENT THAN YOU HAVE EVER MADE BEFORE. YOU ARE ASKED TO JUDGE FACTS ONLY AND THEN DECIDE FOR OR AGAINST. WRITE TODAY FOR THE COMPLETE LITERATURE AND GET INTO TOUCH WITH THE GREATEST, SUREST INVESTMENT OPENING IN CANADA TODAY.

You know Prince Rupert, the whole world knows Prince Rupert. This port, the Pacific terminus of the great Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, grew from nothing almost over night, and developed with wonderful rapidity because it HAD TO BE. One of the greatest railroads in the world had WILLED it. Many who saw the opportunity made fortunes in Prince Rupert by investing there AT THE BEGINNING, before prices soared. It costs money to buy inside lots at Prince Rupert now. But you have practically the same splendid opportunity in Port Edward.

PRINCE RUPERT NEEDS PORT EDWARD.

Prince Rupert NEEDS Port Edward. Prince Rupert WITH PORT EDWARD, offers the greatest facilities for the Pacific Coast shipping and industry of all the ports on the entire coast line. But, without Port Edward, Prince Rupert's capacity is cut down from the industrial standpoint because its waterfront is already utilized, or leased, to practically its full extent, and, with development merely beginning, intending users of industrial waterfront space MUST turn to Port Edward to supply their needs. Definite proof of this will be supplied on application.

INDUSTRIES ALREADY ASSURED.

The Prince Rupert Hydro-Electric Company, Ltd., a powerful corporation, backed by the same capitalists who are behind the Western Canada Power Company, of Vancouver, has selected Port Edward for the site of its big power plant, and is already installing. Other large industries are assured, and among recent applications for locations were those of a cold storage plant, a large stone company and a shoe factory. The opening for industry at this great port of the North Pacific is marvellous, and far-sighted manufacturers are already taking advantage of it.

THE MEN BEHIND PORT EDWARD.

The Port Edward Townsite Company, Ltd., is made up of a number of prominent professional and business men, largely Canadians. It has the support of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Company, which has entered into a contract to provide complete transportation service. Port Edward is situated near Prince Rupert, on the main land and on the main line of the Grand Trunk Pacific. That railroad has already selected the site for its station, sidings, etc.

WHAT $600 DID IN PRINCE RUPERT.

When Prince Rupert lots were first offered to the public there was considerable of a feeling of doubt among many people as to the value of the investment. History has shown, of course, that few opportunities have been offered to the world that equalled the opening in Prince Rupert in 1909. Prince Rupert's future was assured from the very beginning. It was at the original sale that Mr. George Duncan, of Vancouver, bought a Prince Rupert lot for $600. That was considered a good price then, but values began to rise, and they kept on rising. Now NOTE THIS. The same lot for which Mr. Duncan paid $600 was sold in 1912 by Harrison, Gamble & Co., of Prince Rupert, for no less than $10,000 CASH.

It's worth more than that today, and it will be worth yet more next year. Port Edward's proposition to you now is similar to what Prince Rupert offered in 1909. Perhaps you missed the first one; isn't it worth while to at least GET ALL THE FACTS about the second? Mr. Duncan did. He is going to repeat. For he has made a heavy investment in Port Edward lots RIGHT AT THE START. How about you?

MERCHANTS AND MANUFACTURERS.

Folder B is a convenient, complete brochure, containing about all the information you would require to have about the manufacturing possibilities of the North Pacific Coast, the markets, general conditions, etc. Even though you do not contemplate extending to that field, it is well to be informed about it. Folder B goes to you free and without obligation, on request. Please use your business letterhead.

To profit fully by the opportunity at Port Edward, immediate action is required. The sale has already started. No need to use "snap" judgment, but don't put off getting complete information. Just send the coupon today. It doesn't obligate you in the least—send it now.

Starting Prices from $100 to $2,000 Per Lot. Lots Measure 30 x 100 to 30 x 110. Terms: Quarter Cash, balance over three years

OPPORTUNITY.

They do me wrong who say I come no more
When once I knock and fail to find you in;
For every day I stand outside your door,
And bid you wake and rise to fight and win.

Wail not for precious chances passed away,
Weep not for golden ages on the wane;
Each night I burn the records of the day,
At sunrise every soul is born again.

Laugh like a boy at splendors that have sped,
To vanished joys be blind and deaf and dumb;
My judgments seal the dead past with its dead,
But never blind a moment yet to come.

Art thou a mourner? Then rouse thee from thy spell!
Art thou a sinner? Sins may be forgiven;
Each morning gives thee wings to flee from hell,
Each night a star to guide thy feet to Heaven.
—R. B. Malone.

TESTIMONIAL

Dr. Thomas, Hirwain, Glyn Neath, reports: "It is, in my opinion, a good, wholesome, mild whisky, without the obnoxious after-taste you find among nine out of twelve other brands. I have great pleasure in advising its use where required."

TOLSTOI'S ESTATE TO GO TO THE PEASANTRY

Two Hundred Thousand Dollars Raised from His Books Make It Possible.

Tula, Russia, March 29.—The will of the late Count Tolstoi, providing for the partition of his Yasnaya Polyana estate among the local peasantry, will be carried out by means of a notarial deed, by which 1,847 of the total area of 2,389 acres will be transferred by Count Leo's three sons, Ilya, Michael and Andrew, to his daughter, Alexandra, in consideration of $200,000, which she has raised chiefly from the sale of her father's works. The daughter, Alexandra, now becomes the owner of the greater part of the estate, which she will turn over to the peasants of Yasnaya Polyana and Ugrumovo on the basis of no rent and leases in perpetuity, the whole probably to be under the supervision of the Tolstoi Society.

RAISING MONEY FOR THE FLOOD SUFFERERS

Winnipeg Plans to Send a Donation to the Inundated Districts of Ohio.

Winnipeg, March 29.—Funds for the relief of the sufferers of the flood district in the south are being rapidly raised in Winnipeg. One of the newspapers opened a fund Thursday night and by Friday night over $1,000 had been subscribed and subscriptions are still pouring in.

All the moving picture houses in the city, and there are a great many, will open their doors for Sunday shows for the first time tomorrow, the receipts to be given to the flood fund. The proprietors, knowing Sunday opening to be a violation of the law, have declared their willingness to pay the fine and also give a personal donation.

The Ministerial Association is discussing the advisability of special collections in the churches and flood offerings will likely be taken up at every service. The civic authorities on Monday will discuss the city's donation.

DISCUSSION IN CITY COUNCIL OVER FINLAY MUNROE CASE

Alderman Bullock - Webster, continuing, said Mr. Munroe was a thoroughly respectable man who had led a decent sort of life but his health had crippled him, so that in the opinion of the health officer he was incapacitated from any physical labor or even mental labor. If the $30 was paid to him he would go up the line where he had friends and engage in some kind of business in which he could make a bare living. The man was sick and yet he had been placed in one of the police cells to sleep on bare boards with only one blanket and eat of the simple food given to prisoners. The next thing would be that he would have to be returned to the hospital.

Alderman Maitland thought the cell treatment could not help him and it would be well to give the man a chance.

The mayor said "Mr. Munroe landed here in 1911, fresh from a hospital in Vancouver, and later was treated in the city hospital and was afterward given relief. Now if he had been a resident of this city, so far as he (the mayor) was concerned, the man would be taken care of. But for the city to give charity to all indigents would be to open the doors to all the indigents of the coast cities. They had offered to send him to Vancouver or Victoria and he had refused this. If they continued to pay him the $30 per month where were they at? He did not believe in voting to indigents city money to do what they liked with. There was a principle involved. If Munroe wished to go up the line the city would pay his fare. But it must be distinctly understood that after leaving he must stay away from the city and not become a further charge upon it. He did not desire to be harsh in the matter, but there was the principle involved.

Alderman Naden asked if the man was not a subject for the Provincial Old Man's Home.

Alderman Kerr said that question had been looked into last year and they found that the man was not. Alderman Maitland was in favor of the committee's report. He had seen the man and he said he was willing to go anywhere.

Alderman Kerr also supported the grant of $30, saying that if the city was spending so much in charity on a reading room they could afford this amount.

The mayor said the reading room could not be classed as a work of charity and from what Alderman Maitland said he thought the man should be sent to Victoria and given enough to keep him while he got some place to stay. Also, in answer to a question from Alderman McCaffery, he said the health officer had reported that the man could be compelled to leave the city.

After further discussion it was decided to act upon the letter of the mayor. The man will be sent up the river the mayor given his personal assurance that he will be taken good care of.
