WATERFRONT RIGHTS BROUGHT BEFORE THE BOARD OF TRADE

COMMITTEE OF FIVE APPOINTED TO GO THOROUGHLY INTO THE QUESTION WITH THE PROVINCIAL AND DOMINION GOVERNMENTS.

Foreshore rights and waterfront was a subject of pressing importance that the Board of Trade seriously considered at its meeting last night, and some excellent information was laid before the board on the subject, which has been one but vaguely understood by the people generally.

It was brought up by J. Sidney Smith, president of the Atlin Fisheries, who has spent months in endeavoring to obtain a waterfront lot for the extension of his business. He said it had, been explained to him by the Grand Trunk Pacific that owing to some difficulty with the Dominion Government as to foreshore rights they were unable to dispose of any site suitable for his proposed establishment.

While in Victoria recently he had tried to get in touch with the government on the matter. He had waited upon Mr. Ross but the minister had failed to keep his appointments and Mr. Smith understood that the matter would have to come before the attorney-general in any case. He would ask the board if steps could not be taken in regard to the waterfront sites held by the provincial government. He thought a way might be found of getting the land opened up for industries on leases of say twenty years at a reasonable valuation.

Mr. Smith said if he succeeded in getting such lease he would undertake to do a fixed amount of work and expenditure in a stated time, and that he represented another party who would agree to spend many times more than he himself could in permanent improvements. He wanted about 200 feet for his purposes, while the other party wanted 300.

G. W. Nickerson said that Mr. Smith was not the only one unable to secure waterfront. The Imperial Oil Company had applied in vain for a place for its oil tanks and storage works here. He did not think the Dominion Government wished to hold up the progress of the city and thought there should be an immediate settlement of the question.

A. H. Allison said the board should pull off their coats and get busy. He knew of men who came here ready to spend money but who left because they could not obtain waterfront.

Ald. Naden pointed out that when the division of the waterfront was made between the province and the Grand Trunk Pacific, the latter was supposed to have its rights to the foreshore from the Dominion government, and it was specially provided that the province was to have the same rights transferred to it that the Grand Trunk Pacific had in the foreshore. If the company had not the rights

MORE PARIS CAPITAL MAY COME TO RUPERT

Two Residents of the French Capital are Visiting Prince Rupert Today.

Baron d'Aubigny, of Paris, France, and Rene Lemarchand of Edmonton were arrivals by the s.s. Prince Rupert this morning. Both gentlemen left Paris four weeks ago, since then they have made quite an extensive tour of Canada. When interviewed by a "News" representative this morning they had little to say in regard to the nature of their visit, but it could easily be guessed from the twinkle in their eyes that investment is one of their chief reasons for coming here. This morning they were looking over a portion of the city accompanied by Baron de Bernis, a resident of Prince Rupert for several months. Baron d'Aubigny and Mr. Lemarchand will leave for the south on Monday morning.

LEASE DIFFICULTIES NOT YET SETTLED

Kenny Munro, Well Known Pioneer, Returned This Morning.

Kenneth Munro, one of the best known pioneers of Prince Rupert, returned to the city this morning on the s.s. Prince Rupert after spending several months in the lower coast cities. Mr. Munro, who is one of the principal shareholders in the Premier Hotel Co., Ltd., when interviewed by the "News" in regard to the resumption of work on the new hotel, said that the difficulties in securing a lease of the ground have not yet been settled. Every effort, however, is being made to effect a settlement as the company is anxious to proceed with the erection of the building as soon as possible.

"COMMON INFORMER" STARTS AN ACTION

Against Stuart Samuel for Illegally Sitting as Member of Parliament in English Commons.

London, May 27.—The unseating of Stuart Samuel, of the banking firm of Samuel, Montagu & Company, as member of parliament for White Chapel, has led to an action brought by Oswald Vernon Forbes, who, acting as a "common informer," claims $23,000, being $2,500 for each day Samuel sat in the House of Commons illegally. "Samuel's" counsel, when the case was called for hearing yesterday, argued that the action was based on an act of 1782, which was superseded by the act on union of 1801.

The lawyer for the plaintiff contended that the claim was not made under any statute. He said Samuel, was directly interested in his firm's silver deals with the Indian Government. The motive of the action, he said, was a patriotic one, as if it went to the House of Lords it would cost thousands of pounds.

Baron Swaythling, head of the banking firm that was called as a witness, declined to produce the deed of partnership. The case was adjourned.

G. T. P. Yards the Scene of a Quick Fire During the Noon Hour.

Shortly after twelve o'clock noon fire was discovered in one of the two buildings used by the G. T. P. as tool room and carpenter shop. As most of the men had gone to their dinner the fire had gained considerable headway before it was discovered. No alarm was turned in, but two small streams of water were played on the flames by G. T. P. employees with little effort. Both buildings were burned to the ground. The buildings were near the round house and close to the tracks. Several freight cars would have been burned as well but were removed in time to be saved.

SIX PAGES OF ILLUSTRATED MATTER DEVOTED TO RUPERT

SIDNEY BILLINGHAM IN VANCOUVER NEWS ADVERTISER CLEVERLY DESCRIBES DEVELOPMENT OF CITY AND TRIBUTARY COUNTRY.

The write-up which Sidney Billingham gives to the "Rich and Varied Natural Resources Surrounding Prince Rupert," and also to the city itself, in the Vancouver News Advertiser of May 25th, is one worth treasuring. It is also well illustrated, giving Prince Rupert as it was four years ago and a birdseye view of the city as it is taken when Mr. Billingham was here.

There are also pictures of the dry dock, the Inn, the great pile of rails on the dock that are to carry the railway through the famous Bulkley valley as far as Smithers by August, the railroad bridge across the Skeena, unloading fish from a trawler, Port Edward townsite, engineers' houses as Port Edward, Hidden Creek mines, G. T. P. engineers inspecting the mines, tunnel along the Skeena, the city hall, the fire hall, the Bank of Montreal and other views.

Altogether there are six pages of excellent illustrated reading matter, including an original article by Mayor Pattullo, and every phase of the progress and development of the city and country tributary to it is cleverly described. The introduction to this mass of reliable information and description reads:

"Manifest destiny is difficult to resist. Amid all the innovations and changes incidental to the rapid growth and development of Western Canada today there is nothing which stands more prominently in the foreground than Prince Rupert, port-city, and the Northern British Columbia interior country immediately to the east of that centre. Unalterable signs indicate an unclouded and promising future. Endowed with apparently inexhaustible natural resources, the tract of country through which the National Transcontinental line of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railroad is passing, to presently connect the Canadian North Pacific seaboard with the Eastern Maritime Provinces, is on the verge of complete transformation.

"Pioneer fortifiersmen of the interior hail with delight the coming of the railroad. The significance of its growth cannot be exaggerated. It will open a field of industrial and commercial activity, the magnitude of which it is impossible to estimate. Impossible perhaps solely on account of the unknown metalliferous wealth, yet no longer a matter of conjecture. The bounds of the timber limits in this vast region are also unknown, though billions of dollars' worth await the advent of the logger. Agriculture, horticulture, stock-raising, mixed farming and allied industries cannot fail to make for a rapidly expanding population. The Port City of Prince Rupert and the interior districts throb under one impulse—progress, prosperity."

SENATE REJECTS NAVAL BILL BY A SUBSTANTIAL MAJORITY

FIFTY-ONE FOR AND TWENTY-SEVEN AGAINST—AUTUMN SESSION TO PASS REDISTRIBUTION BILL—ELECTION LATE IN NOVEMBER.

Ottawa, May 31.—The amendment made in the Senate by Senator Sir George Ross, namely, "That this house is not justified in giving its assent to this bill until it has been submitted to the country," was at an early hour this morning passed by the senate by a vote of 51 for and 27 against. Before the vote Sir Mackenzie Bowell of Hastings, despite his ninety-one years, spoke for over an hour and a half in defence of the bill, and Senator Dandurand made a splendid argument in favor of the amendment. In the voting the Hon. John Valentine Ellis, of St. John, Liberal, was found with the opposition and Hon. Hypolite Montplaisir of Shawanigan, Liberal-Conservative, voted for the measure.

Election in November.

Ottawa, May 31.—The rejection of the naval bill by the senate did not create much stir in this city for the reason that it was a foregone conclusion. It is now stated that there will be an autumn session of parliament, the chief business of which will be the passing of a redistribution bill. Following this there will be an appeal to the country and the general election will take place in November or early in December. No parcels post legislation is likely this session.

British Opinion on Rejection

London, May 31.—The newspapers have little to say of the rejection of the naval bill by the Canadian Senate. The Standard and the Globe, both Unionist, agree that a constitutional crisis now opens up for Canada. The Pall Mall Gazette, and also the Globe, says now that extra warships cannot come from Canada, it is up to Winston Churchill to provide them. All that the Standard regrets is that so great an imperial matter should have been dragged into the sweat of party politics.

ANNUAL LIBERAL CONVENTION IN SESSION AT REVELSTOKE

CONTEST FOR LIBERAL LEADER BETWEEN RALPH SMITH AND S. S. TAYLOR—WOMAN SUFFRAGE PLANK ADOPTED—H. F. McRAE ON TWO COMMITTEES.

Revelstoke, May 31.—Owing to the late arrival of coast members the Annual Liberal Convention did not begin its regular sittings until three yesterday afternoon. Mayor T. Kirkpatrick, on behalf of the citizens of Revelstoke, tendered a warm address of welcome. The rest of the afternoon was occupied with preliminaries and the report of the credential committee. H. F. McRae, of Prince Rupert, was elected a member of the credentials committee, and also of the committee on resolutions, which will adopt a plank favoring woman suffrage. Two hundred and forty members were seated.

The choice for president and provincial party leader lies between Ralph Smith, formerly member of parliament for Nanaimo, and S. S. Taylor, K. C., of Vancouver, John Oliver being considered out of the running.

A plank calling upon the provincial treasury to aid toward clearing land for farmers will be included in the platform, which promises to be even a more lengthy structure than the Liberal provincial programme of Vancouver.

The first real business of the convention was to dispatch a telegram to Senator Sir George Ross, congratulating him upon the stand he had maintained in the senate upon the naval bill.

DAILY EDITION

MR. JUSTICE CRAIG A WARM MEMBER.

The Toronto Globe said recently that Mr. Justice Craig, the new president of the Empire Club of Toronto, "will find the atmosphere of the club much warmer than the atmosphere of the last club of which he was a member, the Zero Club of Dawson." If they can put up in Toronto and the Empire Club anything more sultry than a "High Jinks" of the Zero Club they will have to sink many degrees below bed-rock and then keep going some, to suit the genial judge after his many years' experience in the far north. And if the judge remains as light of foot as in the early days of Dawson, and as ready to toss his muck-luks over the chandeleur and dance the Highland fling, he will be teaching those young bucks of Toronto a few astonishing lessons in high life and high jinks.

But staid Toronto has possibly no ambition to rival the gaiety of so wonderful a pioneer city as was Dawson in its giddy youth, and the judge is just as much in his element there as he would be anywhere. And the Empire Club is a staid and dignified institution which could not have for its president a man of more gracious dignity in bearing and in speech than they have in Mr. Justice Craig. He is learned and eloquent and in every way fitted by his social charm for any such high position.

Also, Mr. Craig in his opening speech as president seemed proud of the honor. He said that the claims of the Empire Club had been recognized throughout the country, and it was agreed that there should be an Imperial sentiment in this country. There are many Canadian matters which have an Imperial bearing, and the President wants the club to have them well ventilated. The matter of the alien vote is one.

CO-OPERATION AND THE FRUIT GROWING INDUSTRY CONSIDERED

NEW BULLETIN ISSUED BY THE PUBLICATIONS BRANCH OF THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE FOR GENERAL DISTRIBUTION.

Those who are familiar with the history of apple growing in Canada are aware that single handed it has been very difficult, yes almost impossible, to succeed in orcharding beyond a few trees, and that only since co-operation became a strong factor in the enterprise has the industry become established on a permanent and prosperous basis. During the last decade of the past century it was no uncommon thing in parts of Ontario to see splendid orchards chopped down for fire-wood. Growers could get little more for their fruit than the actual expenses incurred in producing it and so the industry had little to justify its continuance. It was under these circumstances that as a last resort the co-operative movement in the industry began. That it has succeeded and with it the commercializing of the apple industry on a large scale, there can be no manner of doubt, as already there have been organized throughout Canada no less than 106 cooperative societies and the number is constantly increasing.

To outline in more or less detail the principles of co-operation, the more desirable methods to adopt in putting these principles into practice and the objects to be gained in apple growing by their adoption there has been issued from Ottawa a comprehensive bulletin entitled "Co-operation and Fruit Growing." It has been prepared by Mr. Alex. McNeil, Chief of the Fruit Division who is recognized as one of the foremost authorities of the day on the subject of fruit culture, commerce and co-operation.

In this work of 46 pages the subject is treated from practically every standpoint that interests the Canadian apple grower. Not only are the essentials and methods of co-operation clearly brought out but the advantages being derived through its agency are clearly shown.

Dealing with the labor problem which confronts every kind of farming it is shown that Nova Scotia growers through their central association in 1911 were able to take care of a crop twice the usual size.

Besides the other great advantages of sure markets and good prices secured for fruit the bulletin cites the savings that are effected in buying supplies. There is given a list of the "purchases of one society in which the manager claims to have made a saving of $15,000 in one year on goods which cost in the aggregate $75,000 and included packages, spraying equipment and materials, fertilizers, drain tiles, etc.

The work is issued as bulletin No. 38 of the Dairy and Gold Store Commissioner's series and is for general distribution by the Publications Branch of the Department of Agriculture at Ottawa.

YOUNG GIRL KILLED AND EATEN BY BEAR

Body of Runaway Found After a Search of Several Days in California Mountains.

Truckee, Cal., May 27.—After a week's search, the body of Miss Vinnie Colt, eighteen years old, was found late yesterday in a ravine in the Sierra Nevada, twenty miles from Truckee. She had been killed and partially devoured by a bear.

The girl ran away from her home here on Wednesday of last week. Six days later a pet dog that had accompanied her returned alone. Since her disappearance three large possums, each led by one of her brothers, has continued a search extending over a large section of the mountains.

There were bear tracks all around the spot where the body was found, and it had been dragged for some distance. Miss Colt ran away from home because of a disagreement with her mother, who is 75 years of age.

LUTE McCARTY'S LIFE HISTORY IS PRINTED

Was to Celebrate Wooden Wedding Last Tuesday and Release for Publication His History.

Luther McCarty's wedding anniversary was to have been celebrated last Tuesday. The story of his life and career was to have been released for publication the same day. It was therefore surely the irony of fate that he should die in a Calgary ring on Saturday. The following are a few excerpts from the story: "Luther McCarty, heavyweight champion, of Venice, Cal., and Mrs. Rhoda McCarty, who was a Miss White, of Sidney, Ohio, will celebrate their wooden wedding tomorrow. For the benefit of the uninitiated, it may be stated that a wooden wedding commemorates the rounding out of five years of connubial bliss. As Lute was 21 1st March, it may be figured out that he was only 16 annuns old when he 'jumped the broomstick, as they say in some rural sections.

"The story of Mrs. McCarty's married career is more 'replete with incident' than that of Luther's ring history. Soon after their marriage, the boy-husband and his girl-bride left Sidney and went out into the wide-world to make their fortune. Their first stop was at Ludington, Mich., and they soon answered the call of the West, and went to Saskatchewan, where Luther expected to punch cattle and maybe pot a few Injuns. He carried out the first part of his programme, securing employment on a ranch near Saskatoon, but discovered that the people of the section had a prejudice against the slaughter of redskins, and Luther left Saskatoon without a single notch on his trusty rifle. Luther's next job was in Fargo, N. D., where he worked at pressing pants and such.

"Mrs. McCarty didn't find Lute a liberal provider, and went to work as a cook in a Fargo restaurant. At one time, it is alleged, she had Lute arrested for non-support, but dismissed the charge. This by no means tells all the story of the McCarty wanderings, for he worked at a dozen different occupations, in as many cities of Western Canada and the United States, before he made good, financially, in the ring. Since he has been accumulating money in large chunks as one of those awful prizefighters, Luther is said to have provided liberally for his wife and their young daughter. If McCarty makes good and becomes a sure-nough champion, he will owe a lot to the brave little woman who shared his days of poverty and trial."

THE BELLE OF PUNHESTOWN RACES. Lady Rachael-Stuart Wortley, second daughter of Lord Whorncliffe, who, according to an important English paper, was the prettiest girl present at the famous Irish races, where the wealth and beauty of Ireland is supposed to congregate every spring.

Mounted Police Veterans

The Royal Northwest Mounted Police Veterans Association, recently formed in Vancouver, has notified the government that it holds itself as a body at the service of Canada if called upon for duty. It now consists of 150 members, many of whom are Victorians. The ex-members of this famous corps have taken a popular and patriotic course which should receive the endorsement of the Federal authorities.

Vandalism of Militants.

London, May 29—Militant outrages, it is said now are being committed in the residences of aristocracy in the West End. At several of the recent social functions in that section, pictures and tapestries have been cut. Hostesses are alarmed and are employing detectives to protect their homes.

SLIM MULLIN MINER AND ADVENTURER DEAD

Was in the Klondike Stampede and a Pioneer of Cobalt, Gowganda and the Unknown Ungava.

Mining camps all over this country, from the wilds of the Yukon to the unexplored Ungava and those of Northern Ontario in between, have lost one of the best-known old-time miners of the picturesque type in "Slim" Mullin, who is dead at the German Hospital, Buffalo. Unlike most miners of his kind he died in good circumstances, and was a comparatively young man, but this cannot alter the fact that his career has been as romantic and adventurous as any.

"Slim" was the son of a presbyterian clergyman at Stanley, New Brunswick. When a youth some fifteen years ago he became attacked with the wanderlust and set out on his travels. He visited the mining camps of Nevada and Montana, where he made enough to keep him going. He was in the van of the rush to the Yukon in 1896 and made some big strikes. While there he became an explorer as well as miner and traveled the country far and near. He was in the Trendwell camp, but here fortune did not favor him. He got his nickname of "Slim" in the North-west Mounted Police, in which he served for some time afterwards.

He was a pioneer in the Cobalt and Gowganda stampedes, but did not meet with much luck until he staked in the Shining Tree camp, in which he is said to have made a fortune. In Northern Ontario he continued his explorations, which were this time in Ungava. It is said that no man knew this large cold uninhabited peninsula as well as "Slim." He was passionately fond of traveling in these wilds and while sick in the hospital was planning a northern trip.

WINNIPEG'S WATER SCOPE

Ottawa, May 27.—The bill giving the city of Winnipeg power to obtain a water supply outside the confines of the province received its third reading tonight in the Commons and as it has already passed the Senate needs only the royal assent to become law.

WATERFRONT RIGHTS BEFORE BOARD OF TRADE

then the province could have no greater rights.

Mr. Smith understood that within the last few weeks there had been a settlement arrived at between the Provincial and Dominion Governments by which the former secured its rights in these foreshores.

O. H. Nelson thought there was some misunderstanding as to the rights that were sought and referred to. The Dominion Government exercised the right of approving of any undertaking that might encroach on navigable waters. It made no difference who proposed to put in a wharf if it projected into the waters of the harbor it would have to be approved by the government at Ottawa.

W. E. Williams agreed that the approval of the Dominion authorities must be had to do any enterprise likely to interfere with navigable waters. He moved that the Provincial Government be requested to open its waterfront, under restrictions that would ensure the immediate carrying on of works on it, and that a committee be appointed to go into the matter with the parties interested.

Mr. Nickerson suggested that the board take up the matter with the two governments and ascertain exactly where they stood on this question of foreshore.

Ald. Naden said this opening up of the waterfront was not a new question. It had been taken up when Sir Richard McBride was here last time, but then the citizens who waited upon him had not concrete applications to offer. With the three concrete propositions they now had to urge upon the premier something might be effected.

The board will appoint a committee of five to give the matter careful consideration.

KARLUK BUNKERS COAL AT ESQUIMALT DOCKS

Young Scotsman Will Make Association With Expedition of This Character.

All available space is being filled with coal on the steamer Karluk, for her voyage to the far north. It is estimated that 150 tons will be taken aboard at Esquimalt, where she is bunkering.

If no hitch occurs in the preparations, which are being rapidly carried out, the vessel should be turned over to the expedition some time next week.

Although most of the Arctic party will be experienced men, in W. McKinlay, a young Scotsman who has been appointed on the recommendation of an Edinburgh professor to the expedition, the party will have a man not yet associated with expeditions of this arduous character. He has been engaged in tabulating the returns of the Scottish Antarctic expedition, and has already established himself as something of a scientist. The appointment, gratifying a desire he had expressed for some time, was received with great pleasure.

The various members of the party are expected to arrive on the coast immediately. One or two are already here.

BE suspicious of that of which nobody is proud. Be suspicious of the mere low-price argument offered in favor of an article with no reputation, no backer, no guarantor.

Better buy the thing you know and can trust, than an article unbranded and unvouched for.

The branded shoe, made by a maker with a reputation, is a safer shoe to buy than the one made in an unknown factory by an unknown maker.

The underwear made by a firm whose name is as familiar to you as your own, is worth more to you than underwear nameless or labelled by a maker of whom you have never heard.

Tea sealed in a packet bearing the name of a reputable firm is to be preferred to tea of which the packer is not sufficiently proud to advertise its quality.

That in which much money has been invested to make or keep it good is worth more than that on which nothing or but little has been spent.

Peace of mind is worth something, just as quality is. Buy peace of mind.

When you buy anything worth while buying, buy that of which you know—from advertisements, or from other dependable acquaintance. Buy the article with the "money back" guarantee—with the pledge of a known name behind it.

Put your faith in the advertisements appearing in good newspapers. Beware of the article that cannot stand the spot-light of publicity. The commodity an advertiser backs with his own money is something worth your buying.

Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any good advertising agency or the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 503 Lumsden Building. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write, if interested.
