EARLY COMPLETION OF THE ALASKAN ROAD EXTENSION—MEIGHEN IS SOLICITOR GENERAL

EARLY COMPLETION FORETOLD OF ALASKAN ROAD EXTENSION

PREMIER McBRIDE EXPECTS NEGOTIATIONS WITH UNITED STATE TO BE CLOSED BY 1915—HE PROMISES MUNICIPAL LEGISLATION.

(Special to The Daily News)
Vancouver, June 26.—Speaking before the Progress Club, Premier McBride says in regard to the Alaska extensions of the Pacific Great Eastern railway, which was launched two years ago, that he expects negotiations with the United States will be completed by 1915 in time for the celebration of the century of peace between the two countries.

The premier also promised early legislation both for the improvement of municipal governments and in the direction of assisting the cause of town planning throughout the province. The present financial stringency, he declared was only temporary. Nothing could prevent the rapid development of British Columbia.

BALL TWIRLERS FIT TO SHOW HAZELTON FANS WHAT'S WHAT

FINE AGGREGATION OF FIRST CLASS TALENT TO BE SENT AFTER THAT HAZELTON TROPHY ON DOMINION DAY.

The Prince Rupert baseball club has tried out all its players for the game to be played at Hazelton on Dominion Day, and the line-up selected is bound to give general satisfaction and inspire public confidence. Will the fans back their home team? You bet. Here is the splendid list:

- Catcher—Finney.
 - Pitchers—Haynes, Crane and Kwipil.
 - Third base—Henning and Embleton.
 - Second base—Tobey.
 - Shortstop—Pooler and Brooks.
 - First base—Wallace and Webber.
 - Left field—Vance.
 - Centre field—Evans.
 - Right field—Landers.
- In Finney the aggregation has without doubt the most speedy backstop who ever came to the province. Haynes, Crane and Kwipil are a trio of pitchers that would make any minor league look as if they had a hole in their hats. Henning and Embleton will hold down the third station to the king's taste; in fact, Henning a few years ago was picked by Manager Chance of the Chicago White Sox as big league material. Tobey at second is no doubt in a class all by himself. He is a former Brown University man and graduated on the diamond with high honors. Pooler and Brooks are a stone wall in the field. Pooler played two years with an eastern league, retiring from the game to enter commercial life. Vance, Evans and Webber will have charge of the outer gardens and will whip up the daisy killers in a way to demonstrate how the quickness of the hand deceives the eye.

Won't the hearts of those Hazelton boys sink into their boots when they read of the galaxy of talent they are up against? Well, hardly. Those interior boys are blooded sports, ready to take a fall out of anything at the drop of a hat. The Prince Rupert boys can confidently depend upon receiving an enthusiastic welcome at Hazelton.

At 2:30 this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Gehring a happy event took place when Mr. Neil Christian Mikelson, night watchman at the cold storage plant, was united in marriage to Mrs. Bertha I. Goff. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Warren H. McLeod in the presence of a few friends of the bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. Mikelson will take up their residence at Seal Cove.

FINE QUARTERS FOR ST. ANDREW'S SOCIETY

Large Gymnasium of Kaien Island Club House Has Been Leased for Two Years

At the annual meeting of the St. Andrew's Society the subject of the inadequacy of the present quarters was fully discussed and to secure club rooms commodious enough to meet the growing needs of the membership a special committee was appointed with full power to act.

This special committee was composed of President S. D. Macdonald, Vice President T. McMeekin and Secretary Charles Dennis, and they are now able to report the lease of the gymnasium of the Kaien Island club, which is undoubtedly the largest and best of any room in the city for every kind of social entertainment. In addition to this there are three rooms on the upper floor, which will be devoted to reading, writing and chess room. The lease for these rooms has already been signed, sealed and delivered. It is for two years and the Society takes possession on Dominion Day.

In connection with the gym there, used to be a shower bath, but during the winter this was taken out. The energetic committee are enthusiasts on athletics and propose to put in a new shower bath and other modern appliances of a first class gymnasium. This will no doubt start a healthy and stimulating rivalry between the active members of the society and other athletic associations.

CHAMBER OF MINES OPENED BY PREMIER

Sir Richard McBride Visits the Chamber in New Quarters in Fee Block.

(Special to The Daily News)
Vancouver, June 25.—The Vancouver Chamber of Mines, which has recently moved into its own permanent quarters in the Fee Block, was visited yesterday by Sir Richard McBride, premier and minister of mines, for the purpose of inspecting the very fine exhibition of provincial minerals which has been set up and for the purpose of inaugurating the chamber's exhibit as a public institution. The chamber of mines has had its own collection of minerals very greatly extended by additional specimens from various citizens' associations, boards of trade and private individuals, and now a very comprehensive collection has been got together, housed for the greater part in handsome glazed oak stand cases and wall cabinets, the larger specimens being set up on stepped platforms. It is doubtful if there is any collection of minerals in the west which can equal this in interest or extent. The executive, however, will not rest content with present achievements, but is seeking still further to extend the exhibit so that every mining camp shall be adequately represented. This is being done particularly in view of the forthcoming visit of the International Geological Congress to Canada, due in the west at the end of August.

The farm is to be known as the 'Princess Patricia Farm.'"

The weather report at 5 o'clock this morning read: Barometer, 29.829; maximum temperature, 71; minimum temperature, 50.

NEW OFFICIALS OF GRAND LODGE

Outline of Masonic Doings at the Annual Provincial Meeting at New Westminster

The annual convention of the Grand Lodge A. F. & A. M. of this province, from which the local delegates have just returned, is described as having been most satisfactory. The convention was held in the new Masonic Temple in New Westminster on Thursday and Friday of last week. There were about two hundred in attendance, representing all parts of the province and Dawson City. The reports showed that the craft has been flourishing throughout this wide jurisdiction. The members of the Grand Lodge were enthusiastically in favor of coming to Prince Rupert for their next meeting. It is anticipated that a boat will be specially chartered to bring from 250 and 300 Masons and their wives to Prince Rupert in June next. Even the members from the far interior look forward to making their appearance despite the distance which they will have to travel.

William Henderson, of the Public Works Department, of Victoria, was elected Grand Master for the ensuing year, with James Stark, of Vancouver, as the Deputy Grand Master. W. C. Ditmars, who visited Prince Rupert a few months ago in his capacity of District Deputy for this district was elected Grand Senior Warden, and William Astley, of Vancouver, as Grand Junior Warden.

AULD REEKIE LADDIES STRONG TO THE FORE

Caledonia Club Has Selected Its High Kickers for Hazelton Championship.

The Prince Rupert Caledonia football club at a committee meeting last night selected a mighty strong team to go up against the Hazelton boys on Dominion Day, but it was thought that among so many good players one or two might not be able to get away, so the list is withheld from publication until all have definitely "signed up" for the trip.

Strong team, however, is a justifiable adjective in any event. Most of those selected have played as members of the leading teams in Scotland, and for the last month have done some pretty strenuous practice work, even though they had the disadvantage of having no better ground to play on than the street.

Rich Strike Reported.

Officers and passengers on the steamers Vidette and Nasutlin, which arrived yesterday morning from Dawson, brought word of a rich placer strike having been made in the country between the heads of the White and Tanana Rivers. SPREADING RAIL CAUSES DISASTER NEAR OTTAWA

WESTBOUND TRAIN LEAPS TRACK AND TWO COLONIST CARS PLUNGE INTO RIVER—NINE KILLED AND A SCORE INJURED.

(Special to The Daily News)

The westbound transcontinental train when passing McKeller's suburb, near Ottawa, owing to a spreading rail leaped the track beside the Ottawa River. Two colonist cars plunged into the water. The bodies of four men, three women and a child were recovered and there were likely more victims. They were immigrants bound for the west. Most were of foreign extraction, though many were English or Scotch.

UNCLE SAM SQUEALING ABOUT CANADA GETTING HIS MILLIONS

EX-SPEAKER CHAMP CLARK TELLS CONGRESS EMIGRANTS TO CANADA CARRY OVER ONE HUNDRED MILLIONS A YEAR FROM COUNTRY

Washington, June 23.—While committees of both houses of congress are preparing to impress immigration reforms at the next session, Speaker Clark is giving attention to the other side of the question.

Emigration, the speaker said in a statement last night, is costing the United States millions of dollars a year in actual money, aside from the loss involved in giving up citizens to be replaced by a foreign immigrant.

"It is high time," said Mr. Clark, "that more attention be paid to the influence of emigration upon our future."

"These citizens who are leaving us understand our institutions, our ways and our aspirations, while most of the immigrants into this country have to be taught these things."

"In one week not long since, 1,845 United States farmers with $388,500 in cash and $145,000 in personal property crossed into Western Canada to settle permanently in British North America. That's an average of $288 per capita and that week was below the weekly average into that region alone. How many go to other countries I do not know. "These emigrants are among our best citizens. I am personally acquainted with 200 or 300 of them. There is not a bad or shiftless man in the lot. They are seeking to better their conditions. They almost invariably take their families with them. The principal reason they expatriate themselves is the lure of cheaper lands and less stringent land laws as to homesteading, etc.

Congress should make our homestead conditions as easy as possible, compatible with safety and should increase the area for home building by judicious encouragement of both irrigation and drainage. "A statistician has argued that the average adult citizen is of the money value of $1,000, considered solely as an asset to the country. If that is true, the 1,845 United States farmers who crossed the Canadian border depleted the assets of the republic that week by $2,378,500, which multiplied by 52 makes the grand annual total of loss to the republic $123,682,000, gone to Canada alone."

A COOL PRESIDENT

Washington, D. C., June 23.—This afternoon President Wilson can sit in his office and feel twenty degrees cooler than any other president of sweltering Washington. Workmen today were hurriedly engaged in getting the executive office's refrigerating plant in action. It is located just underneath the President's private office, holds seven tons of ice, the frigid air from which is wafted into the President's room by a series of fans.

Church Wedding Tonight.

The principals are Miss McIntyre, an estimable young lady who has been a resident of Prince Rupert for more than a year, and Rev. W. J. H. Pether, Anglican clergyman at Terrace. In addition to the invited guests there will likely be a large gathering of the friends of the contracting parties to witness the happy event. The church has been specially decorated for the occasion.

WHO WILL BE LAUREATE?

It will be a matter of great interest to see who will receive the appointment of poet laureate in England. Rudyard Kipling and Thomas Hardy are considered two of the most likely possibilities for the place, but many would not be surprised if these illustrious writers were passed over and the honor awarded to some less known and perhaps younger man.

Both Kipling and Hardy are perilously near being "back numbers." Hardy's fame was won, after all, with his novels rather than with his poems, and in both his novels and his poems he displays a paganism which makes him impossible of acceptance to a large portion of the British public. Kipling, on the other hand, carried his jingoism to such an extent that the value of his work has become somewhat discredited. He ruined his reputation at the time of the Boer war by his talk about "good killings" and the like. And since then many of his poems have been of such a violently partisan nature as would not lead us to suppose that he has greatly increased his store of common sense.

We would not be surprised, therefore, if the wreath which was once worn by Tennyson were now used to deck the brow of such a poet as Alfred Noyes, who is more remarkable for the sweetness of his verse than for the vigor of his political sympathies. It is a choice which would be eminently safe, if not, perhaps, notably glorious.

A LITTLE NOTE FOR WALKERS.

While Prince Rupert cannot yet easily accommodate the enthusiasts who like a fifteen mile tramp every Saturday afternoon, with an occasional thirty miler on whole holidays, the city can offer the pedestrian not only sufficient exercise to keep in good health, but also the greatest of pleasure in its magnificent scenery. If we occasionally have a little rain or mist, and such weather has been very rare of late, we can now boast evenings that are almost as long as an ordinary southern day, and which in splendor are worth two of the finest days usually enjoyed in the east. On such evenings any one who has the habit of walking can get the keenest of relish from a walk to Seal Cove and back. And if he is one of these people who walk with seven leagued boots and cannot stretch their legs enough in an hour or two of walking, why, we are still prepared for him. Let him try climbing some of the mountains whose beauty he has formerly contemplated only from a distance. He will then get a new view both of the City of Prince Rupert and of the possibilities of life in it.

EMPEROR AND EMPRESS OF GERMANY.

The above is the latest and best picture of the Kaiser and his imperial spouse, and it was taken upon the day Germany celebrated their Emperor's twenty-five year reign of unbroken peace.

CONSTITUTIONAL MONARCHY AND ATTITUDE OF GERMAN WAR LORD

FREDERICK WILLIAM LEFT TESTAMENT THAT CONSTITUTION SHOULD BE REVOKED—PRESENT EMPEROR FINDS IT POWDER CASK AND DESTROYS IT.

Berlin, June 24—A remarkable story showing Emperor William's attitude toward a constitutional monarchy was related during the celebration of the 25th anniversary of his reign by the faculty and students of Berlin University. Prof. Otto Hintz, professor of constitutional and administrative history, declared that the Emperor himself had told him years ago how he had first disregarded and then destroyed the standing appeal made by Frederick William IV. of Prussia to his successors to abolish the Prussian constitution. The Emperor said the first document he found in his desk after his accession was an envelope containing the political testament of Frederick William IV., which was to be delivered to each of his successors on his accession. It urged and implored in the strongest terms the revocation of the Prussian constitution before the taking of the Coronation oath by the new monarch. Frederick William IV., who had granted the constitution to Prussia during the stormy days of the middle of the nineteenth century, always regretted his act, but did not find either the opportunity or the courage to revoke it. Emperor William, like his father and grandfather, had no inclination to follow the advice of Frederick William IV., but he went farther and destroyed the document from fear of the influence it might have on some young and inexperienced successor. The Emperor said: "I felt as if I had a powder cask in the House and it worried me so that I finally burned the testament."

Mr. Douglass, prior to the undertaker's arrival, complained of a severe headache. He was choosing a coffin for the body of his wife when he fell lifeless, the index finger of his right hand pointing to an illustration of a double casket.

Mr. Douglass was 56, and his wife, Alexina Garden Douglass, 54. Both were born in Charleston, S.C., and had lived in Brooklyn for thirty-five years. A double funeral with a double casket was held.

FORT GEORGE NOTES.

The water in the Fraser River is exceptionally high. The lower end of Hamilton avenue is submerged, and part of the docks at the Fort George Timber & Trading Company are also under water. We believe that the river will yet rise four or five feet farther.

James Brown, who lately sold out the Cranbrook Hotel at Cranbrook, B. C., was a visitor here this week. Mr. Brown holds land interests in this section and intends to locate in South Fort George shortly and engage in a business venture of considerable magnitude.

J. A. McKechner, a prominent mill man of Vancouver, was among the arrivals here this week. Mr. McKechner is the owner of a considerable area of land in the Mud River valley, which he is now looking over. He will return to the coast by way of Edmonton.

A wrestler, calling himself the Cyclone Kid, claiming to be a member of Dr. Cook's gymnasium at Minneapolis, walked into the office this week and asked the Herald to print a challenge for him. He challenges any wrestler up to 140 pounds in weight for gate receipts and a side bet. His own weight is only 128 pounds.

George Williams, well known on the Fraser River, arrived here early in the week with a number of scows. He is attending to the freighting of the huge Kennedy Blair & Company shipments. William Blair, who recently returned from Edmonton on a buying expedition, states that his first shipment consists of six hundred tons of merchandise.

Harry Goutes, who recently returned from Ashcroft with his bride of a few weeks, is doing a large business with his five passenger Ford car. The motor car habit has caught on here and the two cars which are for hire at present are seldom seen with dead engines. Fred Peters and his Cadillac touring car and Goutes' Ford lend a more metropolitan air to the town than anything which has gone before.

Jogging Laziness into Activity. The merchant whose business lags in the summer has himself to thank. To slacken the selling pace in the hot season—to lessen Advertising activity—indicates a resignation which has no place in modern business. If we think we cannot keep our business booming in summer time, we surely will not. What a jolt it must have been to the fur trade, when the first mid-summer fur advertisement was run in a daily paper! Now many fur stores are following the example of that progressive fur man who dared to believe that fur sales need not go down as the mercury goes up. Energy, linked with Advertising, has turned the month of January into the biggest selling season for white goods. Advertisements of a high stimulative power, combined with a disregard of "seasons," have opened up automobile selling two months earlier than was once thought possible. Advertising has started Christmas shopping early in October instead of the middle of December. Advertising rises superior to seasons and thermometers. The right kind of Advertising strikes a responsive cord in human nature—and human nature is the same in August as in December. Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any recognized Canadian advertising agency, or the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 509 Lumsden Building, Toronto. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write, if interested.

RAILROAD GROWING NEAR FORT GEORGE

High Water Holds Up Construction Work But at a Few Points Only

Steel is now at Mile 92, B. C. This is a point about 142 miles up the Fraser River from this point.

All along the line the gangs working on the steam shovels are running night and day, and the work will continue in this manner until the road is completed.

The contractors have all the men they require for the work, and new station work is being let daily. The whole line of construction shows the greatest activity, the only trouble experienced which is holding up the work at some points is the extremely high water.

At points through the Eagle Lake cut-off, and along the Willow river the unfinished grade is almost submerged and the stores of the contractors in some spots where they have been located on low land, are threatened by the flood of the Fraser river.

Huge warehouses are being built east from Foley, Welch & Stewart's docks here for the accommodation of the enormous volume of supplies which will arrive here this year for the work next winter. The steamboats Distributor and Conveyor, are now making rapid work of bringing down the supplies from Tete Jaune. They, and the scow fleet and other steamboats should land over two thousand tons of freight for construction here before the close of navigation in November.—Fort George Herald.

SANDON'S DECLINE

Trenchantly Told by Col. Lowery in the Greenwood Ledge

That once famous mining camp, Sandon, shows some signs of history repeating itself. There are still a few canary birds and pianos in the old burg, and a few experimental farms, but an ace in the hole is now only a phantom of the past. The whisky in some of the saloons has grown mellow with age, and when drank, it trickles down the human winze like honey and olive oil. The creek still runs under the main street of the old silver camp; but it has not yet been buried by a snowslide, nor raided by a band of suffragettes. No one was ever killed in the camp by a street car, nor run over by an automobile. It is a reasonably safe place to live, and ere long the boom will wander back again.

Naturally Sir William Would Be Chummy with the Premier.

Ottawa, June 23. — Premier Borden's callers today included Sir William Mackenzie, who arrived in the capital this morning. Sir William also visited the department of railways, but did not see Hon. Old Timer Looking Around

J. D. Nicholls, of Yale, B.C., an old timer in the province and a former resident of this neighborhood has been in the city this week visiting his friends here. It is over three years since he was last in Prince Rupert. He has now a store at Yale but is contemplating a return to this part of the country. With this end in view he will look over the Hazelton and Telkwa districts.

SCHOOL HOLIDAYS TO BEGIN TOMORROW

Changed from Next Monday by the Secretary of Education.

The school holidays begin tomorrow and the small boy will doff his shoes and stockings, don his last year's straw hat and, with pockets full of marbles, will be seen on his knees in the dirt deep in the mysteries of knuckle and law. Grown-ups, too, never forget the holiday season, and when the boys first get out their marbles they will pause to watch the game with a reminiscent eye. A few days later, when tired of marbles, you will find these Prince Rupert boys on the banks of a creek with an Uncle Happy can of worms, a crooked stick and a fish line, having a glorious time. The taste of the berries will have scarcely left his palate before he will be in swimming, taking cramps and just miss being drowned, having oceans of fun, bad colds, sore throat, mumps, measles and stone bruises.

BRITISH CORDIALITY

In Their Welcome of Colonials Visiting London.

The people of Great Britain are going the right way about cementing imperial ties. They show a cordiality in their welcome to colonials visiting the mother country which has nothing of the traditional English chilliness of manner about it. As an example of the way in which they request visitors from this country to attend some of their most brilliant functions, we quote an invitation to attend a reception of distinguished people which is to take place tomorrow in London. The person who is honored in this case is, moreover, the wife of one of our prominent citizens, Dr. W. B. Clayton.

The invitation reads as follows: "To meet His Grace the Duke of Argyll, the High Commissioners, representatives and visitors from His Majesty's overseas dominions, Captain and Mrs. John P. Boyd-Carpenter request the honor of the company of Mrs. W. Barrett Clayton at a reception at the Connaught Rooms, Great Queen street, on Friday, 27 June, at 10 p. m."

BARTENDERS' LICENSES

New Methods Introduced by Vancouver Commissioners.

Adopting a recommendation of the license inspector, Mr. James Reid, the Vancouver licensing commissioners have decided that in future a complete list of all bartenders licensed at present in the city shall be forwarded to the police department, so that the chief of police may furnish the names of all to whom objection is taken. The license inspector will hereafter issue all renewals of licenses on the receipt of a letter from any hotel proprietor needing the services of a bartender.

In the event of any complaint against a bartender the inspector may withhold the license till the next meeting of the board, when the matter will be brought up for their approval of disapprobation. All bartenders who have not worked in the city during the past six months before applying for renewal must make a new application in the usual way.
