

PRINCE ARTHUR ENGAGED TO PRINCESS VICTORIA

LEGISLATION TO PREVENT GREAT RAILWAY STRIKE—SHOCKING DEATH OF AN AVIATOR

RAILWAY STRIKE SITUATION IS MET BY NEW LEGISLATION

CONGRESS HURRIEDLY PASSING BILL TO CREATE NEW BOARD OF CONCILIATION AS RESULT OF CONFERENCE WITH PRESIDENT.

(Special to The Daily News.) Washington, July 16.—New legislation is being rapidly pushed through congress to create a board of conciliation, to be headed by a commissioner Deal, to handle disputes between the railway companies and the trainmen and if possible prevent the pending strike. The bill will be signed by the president as soon as it has passed both houses.

The bill is a result of the conference held at the White House on Monday, at which were present representatives of the employees and of the forty-two railroads concerned, to discuss the possibility of avoiding a strike. At this conference there were present President Wilson, Secretary Wilson, Chairman Newlands of the senate interstate commerce commission, Chairman Clayton of the house judiciary committee and Republican Leader Mann represented the government. Presidents Samuel Rea of the Pennsylvania, Daniel Willard of the Baltimore & Ohio, G. W. Brown of the New York Central Lines and Frank Trumaine, chairman of the board of Chesapeake & Ohio, representing the railroads, and President

A. B. Garretson of the Order of Railway Conductors and W. G. Lee of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen represented the employees.

New York, July 16.—The eastern roads involved in the wage controversy with the trainmen and conductors issued a statement this afternoon through the conference committee of managers saying that they were willing to arbitrate the questions at issue under the provisions of the Newlands bill now before congress, but were still unwilling to proceed under the Erdman act. This is the roads' reply to the ultimatum submitted by the unions yesterday.

SCANTILY GARBED SHE CREATED SENSATION

Lace Dress Without Any Lining Shocks Spectators at English Cricket Match.

London, July 14.—The scantily garbed of an ultra-fashionably dressed woman led to her being asked to leave Lord's cricket grounds, where the Oxford-Cambridge cricket match was being played today. The stands were filled with England's smartest society people and all the women present were beautifully gowned, but the person in question was easily noticeable because of her startling and daring costume. She wore a big flapping straw hat and a lace dress which had evidently no lining, and whose skirt was so flimsy that black knickerbockers and jeweled garter buckles were as easily seen as if in a shop window.

All eyes were gradually magnetized by the woman until suddenly a policeman walked over and whispered something in her ear. She arose and left the grounds. However, she was perfectly complacent and evidently well satisfied with the sensation she had made.

BANDIT HOLDING THE OFFICERS IN CHECK

Believed to Have Been Hurt in Gun Fight With Sheriff of San Juan County

(Special to The Daily News.) Bellingham, Wash., July 16.—Information was received last night that the Shaw Island highwayman, who with a companion held up the bank messengers near Nanaimo, is carrying a bullet in his shoulder. It is believed that he was hurt in a gun fight on West Sound with the sheriff of San Juan county. The bandit continues to hold the officers in check, escaping from one part of the island to the other. Late last night word was received that he had succeeded in escaping from the island and had taken refuge on another island of the group.

HAD NO LICENSE

Japanese Arrested for Peddling Without One.

Iwaski, a Japanese, was brought up before Magistrate Carss this morning on the charge of trading without a license. Iwaski pleaded in his defence that he was just out of the hospital, where he had undergone an operation for appendicitis, and was doing his best to make a living by peddling silks. He was let off on suspended sentence.

Two inmates of a disorderly house, Grace Hass and Lucife Guilbert, were fined $25 apiece.

NEW COURT HOUSE IS NEARING COMPLETION

It Will Be Already for Autumn Session of County Court in September.

The building of the new court house on Third avenue is now rapidly nearing completion. It is to be in order for the fall session of the county court, which will commence on September 3rd.

The rooms from front to back on the west side of the ground floor will be occupied as follows: The front room by W. E. Baeritt, the district registrar; the second room by the sheriff, the third by the provincial police. On the east side of the ground floor the front room will be occupied by Mr. Irwin of the forestry branch and by Mr. Tomlinson, the government horticulturalist. The remainder of the space on that side of the building will be used for public toilets.

Upstairs, the front room on the west side will be the jury room, on the east side the counsels' room. Behind these will be the county court room, extending the width of the building. At the rear of the court room will be the two judges' rooms, one for Judge Young and one for the visiting judge.

MOTHER WITNESSED AVIATION TRAGEDY

Her Son of Twenty Dashed to the Ground from Height of Seventy-Five Feet

(Special to The Daily News.) Chico, Cal., July 16.—Kerns, the twenty-year old aviator, was instantly killed last night. When in flight at a height of seventy-five feet the engine of his bi-plane exploded and the air man was hurled to the ground with the wreckage. The radiator crushed the aviator's head and other parts of the bi-plane pierced the body. His mother witnessed the shocking occurrence.

IRISH HOME RULE BILL WAS TURNED DOWN BY THE LORDS

RESULT WAS NOT ALTOGETHER UNEXPECTED ALTHOUGH PREMIER ASQUITH BELIEVED THAT A MEASURE SO MODERATELY DRAWN WOULD PASS

(Special to The Daily News.) London, July 16.—In the House of Lords last night the motion for the second reading of the Irish Home Rule bill was defeated by a small majority, three hundred and two voting for it out of a total strength if all were present of six hundred and thirty-two. What led to this result was the strong declaration of Lord Lansdowne that the bill should not be considered by the Lords until it had been submitted to the electorate.

But Premier Asquith has apparently no intention of calling a general election until the other two pet measures of his party, Welsh Disestablishment and Scottish temperance reform have been passed upon by the Lords. Should they be defeated the whole trio will be passed by the House for a third time at the next session. At this session, Premier Asquith promised last night, the government will present a scheme for the reformation of the House of Lords.

Serious politicians find it very difficult to believe in the feasibility of Sir Edward Carson's plan which is to form a provisional government to take over the Orange counties under the direction that the people pay taxes to that provisional government instead of to the new Irish Home Rule executive at Dublin.

Practical administrators say that any such scheme is unworkable. If the Orange counties are not to be taken and administered from Dublin they contend then they must come under the local government board in London as English counties do. Premier Asquith has said in so many words that the British army shall not be used to compel the Ulster men to pay taxes imposed at Dublin from this assumed government. The fact is that Mr. Asquith's self-denying ordinance regarding the use of the British troops against the recalcitrant Orange taxpayers is forced upon him.

The Ulster covenant was signed by many Irish officers and soldiers in the British army, also by most of the distinguished Irish judges.

Mrs. A. J. Morris came back on the Prince George this morning after a five weeks' holiday in the south.

MANY OF FAIR SEX ARRIVE IN RUPERT

Ladies Predominate on Prince George—Passengers From the South.

The preponderance of the fair sex in the number of arrivals from the south this morning on the Prince George was notable. Even apart from the many members of the Griffith theatrical company the women were in the majority.

There were 162 passengers on the boat. Of these 112 were first class passengers and 50 were second class. The following were the first class passengers:

Miss Helen Foley, Myles Davis, thirteen members of the Griffith theatrical company, Mr. Blatherwick, Mrs. Nellie Bayley, A. T. Kendrick, Joe Horan, Mrs. P. F. Godenrath, L. C. CANNOT INTERVENE IN THE COAL STRIKE

Nothing Under the Lemieux Act for Minister T. W. Crothers to Act Upon.

Vancouver, July 14.—It is claimed that appearances would indicate that Hon. T. W. Crothers, minister of labor, will fail in his mission to effect a friendly settlement of the coal miners' troubles on Vancouver island. The miners at Cumberland and at Ladysmith in the employ of the Canadian Collieries (Dunsmuir), Ltd., and the miners of the Western Fuel Company at Nanaimo are affected.

Hon. Mr. Crothers, who returned to the city Saturday night from Victoria and Nanaimo, intimated to friends yesterday that he did not see how he could officially intervene, as the only question at issue was that of the recognition of the United Mine Workers of America.

The executive of the Canadian Collieries has already declined his good offices. Mr. Crothers left here today for Cumberland to look into the situation and with the hope that some way of bringing about a settlement will be reached. Meantime, the collieries there are being operated with about 75 per cent. of the normal number of employees, it is said.

The minister was accompanied by Mr. Sam Price, who has been looking into the question for the Dominion government, and Mr. H. S. Clements.

If the coal company persists in its refusal to recognize the union and to reinstate a discharged employee, Mr. Crothers cannot intervene, as the dispute does not come under the provisions of the Lemieux Conciliation Act, it is pointed out.

FAMOUS LOBBYIST MAKES HIS STARTLING TALK TO SENATORS

CONTINUES HIS TESTIMONY AS TO PAID SPIES IN WASHINGTON AND MONEY PAID BY MANUFACTURERS' ASSOCIATION FOR ELECTIONS

Washington, D.C., July 12.—With Martin M. Mulhall, one-time chief lobbyist for the National Association of Manufacturers as the prize, the senate and house lobby investigators witness. The senate won. Surrounded by guards to ward off subpoena-servers from the house, Mulhall continued his story before the senate committee reciting details of the fight he alleges the manufacturers financed to beat Representative Hughes of New Jersey, now a Senator, to re-elect Nelson W. Aldrich as Senator from Rhode Island and re-elect former Representative Littlefield of Maine.

Mulhall talked of "inside" work and "outside" work; of a book-keeper for the American Federation of Labor, whom he charged with later becoming a paid spy for the Manufacturers' Association and of Carrol Downes, private secretary to former Senator McComas of Maryland, who, he alleged, was taking pay from the Manufacturers' Association when it was trying to beat McComas because of his 8-hour labor bills. Mulhall's testimony may cover several days. The house committee meanwhile, foiled in its attempts to get first testimony from Mulhall made formal demand on the senate committee for its list of witnesses yet unheard and planned to meet later today to discuss further action.

THE TORIES ARE THE SPONGES.

Ever since parliament prorogued the Tory press has kept up a steady reiteration of the parrot cry that the Liberals defeated the Borden naval bill and refused to allow Canada to do anything but sponge upon Great Britain.

A few days ago the London Free Press said: "The Canadians who are sponging upon the Empire are the Canadians who today insist that Canada owes nothing to England. Their ancestors would be ashamed of them."

In his great speech on the naval bill in the Senate on May 27th last, Sir George Ross declared—and his statement has never been contradicted—"The naval bill provides for a contribution of only $35,000,000. A very generous contribution which we would cheerfully vote if no other consideration were involved. Under the Laurier naval act of 1910, now in force, any number of millions could be contributed by parliament if they so desired. Why then harass parliament with a bill which is not required for emergency purposes and which is not as effective as the act of 1910? If the honorable gentlemen are sincere let them withdraw the bill now before us and submit to the house a supplementary estimate for ten or fifteen million dollars for the speedy construction of battleships wherever they can be built, and then from year to year ask parliament for such additional sums as may be necessary.

If the government of the day wanted four or five battleships they could build them wherever they pleased under the (Laurier) act of 1910."

But Mr. Borden and his party refused to build battleships under the Laurier act of 1910. They wanted the money more than the ships. It is Mr. Borden and his followers who insist upon sponging on England rather than put into action the effective legislation for imperial aid passed by the Laurier government.

PUNCH'S OPINION OF THE NAVY BILL.

It is some time since relations between Great Britain and Germany have been as friendly as at the present moment. It is appreciated in Germany that the Kaiser's kindness in releasing the British officers has been most handsomely acknowledged by the action of the Canadian Senate in rejecting the Borden Navy Bill.

"If the warlike races inherit the earth, as some military experts insist, we might as well prepare to surrender Canada to the Bulgarians and the Servians." In these words the Mail and Empire very neatly exposes a hoary fallacy.

PRINCIPALS IN THE MILLION DOLLAR WILL CASE.

London, July 12.—The endeavor to break the will of the late Sir John Murray-Scott, who left Lady Sackville five million dollars, was the talk of England, and indeed of Europe, while it was on, and the subject is one still talked of since the verdict of the jury in her ladyship's favor. She was no relative of the late Sir John, but simply an intimate friend of many years' standing. The family fought the legacy with grim earnestness, as shown by the huge counsel fees paid (which were published in this paper yesterday). This afternoon Lady Sackville, as a proof of her gratitude to the jurors, who found there had been no undue influence or fraud on her part and established her right to the fortune left her, entertained them to tea at Knole Park, Seven Oaks, Kent. This enabled the jurors to inspect the famous house and its even more famous art treasures, which were preserved to Lady Sackville and her family by Sir John's generous gift to her in his will. Also, this legacy settled a love romance favorably, the marriage of Lady Sackville's daughter to an attache of the British embassy at St. Petersburg being contingent upon the winning of this action for the legacy.

HUDSON'S BAY COMPANY PLANS SEVERAL NEW DEVELOPMENTS

LORD STRATHCONA TELLS DIRECTORS OF THE PROPOSED LOAN AND MORTGAGE BRANCH—UNEXAMPLED PROSPERITY OF THE COMPANY.

Presiding Monday at the annual meeting of the Hudson's Bay Company, held in London, Lord Strathcona said that the profits from trade were the highest in the company's history. The sum to the credit of the land department also constituted a record.

The conservative policy of the directors in not forcing land sales at low prices in the past, and the energetic measures taken to retain the good will of the people of Canada by affording them modern shipping facilities are being justified.

Land was at present the shareholders' greatest asset, but it was a diminishing one, so the directors felt that a proportion of the land sales should be treated as capital, and invested in the trading side. Total sales showed a marked increase. Furs gathered slightly exceeded previous numbers. Lord Strathcona went on to speak of the proposed establishment by the company of a loan and mortgage business. It is proposed to assist farmers on approved applications by converting their sale agreements into loan agreements, for it is felt that by relieving the farmer of the necessity of meeting installments year by year he would be able to put his earnings into buildings and stock and thus follow mixed farming rather than be so dependent, as at present, on wheat growing.

It is to the advantage of Canada, said his lordship, that farmers should not depend entirely upon cereal crops, but go in for stock raising, horse breeding and growing of crops for their use. This fund should be a good dividend earner, and secure the perpetual continuation of the company and also prove advantageous to Canada and the Empire.

As a whole the year must be taken as a period of general activity in the land market, while the sales recorded and prices realized furnish ample evidence that the company had participated in a marked degree in the prevailing prosperity. The financial stringency throughout the world, which set in a few months ago, has, however, aided in bringing about a period of comparative inactivity which was especially noticeable toward the close of the fiscal year under review.
