AROUSING SPEECHES DELIVERED BEFORE LIBERAL ASSOCIATION

WALTER BAER SHOWS UP THE CORRUPTION OF PRESENT GOVERNMENT AND HOW ITS LAND POLICY IS RUINING THE PROVINCE

Enthusiastic optimism was the note struck by the speakers at the monthly meeting of the Liberal Association, held yesterday evening in K. of P. Hall, Helgeron Block. The speakers were M. Manson, the president of the association; Walter W. Baer, Victoria, the Liberal organizer, and H. F. McKee, who had been a local delegate to the Liberal convention at Revelstoke.

In opening the evening's session Mr. Manson spoke shortly of the present state of Liberalism in the province. Liberalism, he said, had been undergoing a great change within the last three months. Then the party possessed no organization at all that was worthy of the name. When it had started to reorganize it had done it in the wrong way. It had organized from the bottom up, not from the top down. The success of Liberalism now therefore depended not on the good will of a few financiers, but on the hearty support of the people of the province. In commenting on the reorganization of the party Mr. Manson mentioned especially the wisdom of the choice of Mr. Creed as the provincial organizer and spoke of the executive ability of Walter Baer, the organizer for outlying districts.

Mr. Baer gave an address that was a startling indictment of the corruption of the present government and, above all, of the policy of that government in regard to agricultural and timber lands.

"What the province wants," said Mr. Baer, "is a business government. The new Liberalism is a protest against the profligacy of a corrupt government. Take, for example, the timber policy of the government. The amount of timber lands in the province which had been alienated was 18,000 square miles, or 11,520,000 acres. This represents a loss of 172,800,000 feet of timber, a loss of $518,400,000, in return for which we received only $2,500,000 as revenue. If we had that money in the treasury it would be enough to enable the province to get along for twenty-five years without levying a cent of taxes."

Mr. Baer then cited the case of an American lumberman who said that he had made $25,000,000 out of the timber lands of this province without cutting a stick of timber. The rights to the lands having been acquired, they had been held for speculative purposes.

The organizer then spoke of Sir Richard McBride's statement, made at a banquet in Victoria, that $12,000,000 was due the public treasury on account of lands sold. "But when the Lib-

FEDERAL FISHERY CRUISERS HUNTING JAPANESE SAMPAN

JUNK LANDED ELEVEN JAPANESE AT BELLA COOLA IN DEFIANCE OF THE IMMIGRATION REGULATIONS—CABLE SENT TO TOKIO.

(Special to The Daily News.)
Vancouver, July 26.—Two of the government fisheries cruisers have been ordered out by the department of marine and fisheries to search for a Japanese junk which landed eleven Japanese at Bella Coola and of whom only two were captured, one later being released. The junk was last reported becalmed well within the three mile limit and if apprehended the government can collect $600 for each Japanese released, $500 for the infringement of the Oriental immigration regulations and $100 for discharging members of the crew without registration.

The fisheries cruisers will also be organized into a patrol to watch for other junks which, it is believed here, have already left Japan. A cable regarding the incident has been sent to Tokio and the Japanese authorities will, it is expected, co-operate, as it is obvious that the men captured left their own country without passports, which are necessary under the Lemieux agreement.

LABOR CONDITIONS HERE ARE INVESTIGATED BY COMMISSION

McMORDIE FAVORS GOVERNMENT CONTROL OF WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION—MR. MASON EXPLAINS CONDITIONS IN HIS DEPARTMENT.

A session of the Provincial Labor Commission was held in the court house this morning. H. F. Mason, the city engineer; B. McDonald, accountant for Archie Dougall, the contractor, and T. Muse, contractor, gave evidence before the commission this morning.

Mr. McMordie has contracts for street grading. He pays his men 37 1/2 cents an hour. They work sometimes eight hours, sometimes ten hours, a day. The men rarely work overtime. When they do they are paid at the same rate.

The cost of living here, Mr. McMordie judged, does not exceed that in Vancouver and other coast cities by more than 10 per cent. He said that the men were fairly well satisfied with conditions and that there were no complaints.

When asked what would be his opinion if the government took control of compensation for injuries to workmen, Mr. McMordie replied that he thought there should be something of the sort. It would save lawsuits and should be more satisfactory to the employers as well as much more satisfactory to the workers.

Mr. McMordie was not in favor of a universal eight hour day. It

MOUNT RAINIER FIRES

Three Started but Damage Done is Said to Be Small.

(Special to The Daily News)
Tacoma, July 26.—The three fires which started in and near the government national park at Mount Rainier are under control, according to Park Superintendent Allen. He reports that the most dangerous blaze was at Carleton Pass, but that little damage before it was under control. The two other fires are believed to be extinguished.

WOUNDS PROVE FATAL

Soldier Dies of Injuries Suffered at Hands of I. W.'s.

Port Townsend, July 22.—Sergeant A. E. Wallace, one of the three soldiers beaten up by the I. W.'s in Seattle last Thursday night, when they and two sailors were set upon and seriously assaulted, died at Fort Flagler last night of blood poisoning, the direct result of his wound. Although the death occurred yesterday, knowledge of it was not had until an unofficial report drifted about the reserve headquarters shortly before noon today.

AUSTRIA INTERFERES IN BALKAN SQUABBLE

Sends Warning What She Will Not Allow Bulgaria to Be Too Greatly Humiliated.

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, July 26.—An important development of the Balkan situation is the demand yesterday presented by the Austrian representatives at Athens and Belgrade for an immediate cessation of hostilities. This was conveyed with the warning that Austria would not permit Bulgaria to be too greatly humiliated.

On the military side the principal news is that the Servians have invested the ancient fortress of Viden, in Bulgaria, and that the fall of the fortress will not be long delayed. In fact, the despatch says the Bulgarian troops are already beginning to surrender.

WHALING AS SPORT FOR MILLIONAIRES

Party is Heading for North in a Handsomely Fitted Yacht, the Adventurers

San Francisco, July 21.—The Adventurers, $50,000 auxiliary schooner yacht, touched here and went north on her way from Boston to the Arctic to demonstrate whaling de luxe.

Millionaires, scientists and sportsmen will make the passage that will penetrate the frigid waters on the coast of Wrangel Island, Point Barrow and beyond in search of adventure, data, pictures and the elusive bowhead, least known of the whale kind.

Mr. John Borden, a New York millionaire, owns the yacht and heads the party. He is accompanied by Mr. Ray C. Andrews, representing the New York Natural History Museum; Mr. William Brown of the Chicago Gull Club, and Mr. Harry Scott, son of Mr. Henry T. Scott, chairman of the directors of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company. Capt. D. F. West, a veteran of many whaling cruises, is navigating officer of the vessel.

Mr. Andrews' chief aim in making the trip is to get, if possible, a skeleton of the bowhead whale for the "whale room" of the New York museum he represents.

REVOLUTIONARY CAUSE APPARENTLY WANING

Rebel Leaders Cable President Wilson to Propose a Basis for Peace Negotiations.

(Special to The Daily News.)
Shanghai, July 26.—The revolutionary cause appears to be waning despite the large reinforcements that appeared when the southerners attacked the arsenal. The attack failed completely and today Dr. Wu Ting Fang, the former Chinese minister to the United States, and other prominent rebels have cabled to President Wilson requesting him to propose a basis for peace negotiations.

This city is full of refugees from Nanking and Klukiang and the surrounding country who have been forced to flee to the centre to avoid death. This overcrowding of the city has been attended with all kinds of trouble and the people are sleeping in the streets, so many have made their headquarters here.

A Shanghai despatch to the Daily Telegraph says looting has begun in the city. Residents are fleeing in all directions to avoid what they believe will be continued war.

Many fires have broken out in the city, caused by the bursting of shells which have been thrown into the city limits by the attacking forces.

CHINA'S REVOLUTION

Government Encouraged by its Continued Successes

(Special to The Daily News)
Shanghai, July 25.—During the past twenty-four hours the rebels have made several attacks on the arsenal but were successfully repulsed. The government is encouraged by its continued successes and has assumed the offensive, forcing the rebels back to Nanton. Admiral Tseng has formally informed the commissioner of commerce at Nankao that unless the rebels disperse he will bombard the forts at the mouth of the river and will also prevent the landing of the southerners.

HELD UP TWO STAGES

Masked Highwaymen Armed with Rifles and Revolvers.

(Special to The Daily News.)
Blairsdon, Cal., July 26.—Two masked highwaymen, armed with rifles and revolvers, last night held up the Blairsdon, Gold Lake & Green Camp stage. They had relieved the passengers of their valuables when a second stage came up which they also attempted to loot. They took little from the second stage, however, for at this point the drivers opened fire on them and they beat a hasty retreat.

GREAT STAMPEDE TO SHUSHANNA DIGGINGS

Prospectors Hurrying from Cordova, Chitina, Strelina and Other Camps in District.

Cordova, Alaska, July 21.—This morning's train was crowded with stampedees to the Shushanna placer strike. Twenty-five from Cordova, including George C. Hazelet, Dr. Montgomery, Chief of Police Hennick and other business and professional men, left for the new diggings. Thirty-two prospectors and eighteen horses from Chitina, sixteen men and three horses from Strelina and others from along the railroad have joined the rush. Practically all the employees of the Bonanza mine at Kennecott, Sasterly's crew at Nizinia and Steven Birch's men on Dan Creek have quit work and joined the stampede.

All placer camps in the interior are pretty well abandoned.

A launch is on the way from Katalla with a number of men, and Valdez and Seward are sending over a crowd on today's steamer Mariposa.

M. Finkelstein wired the chamber of commerce from Kennecott yesterday that the strike had been confirmed and means a big stampede.

DEDICATION SERVICES

Rev. Warren McLeod to Deliver His Farewell Sermon

The new building of the Baptist church, corner of Fifth Ave. and Young Street, will be dedicated tomorrow. Pastor Warren H. McLeod will be assisted by Rev. W. J. Scott of Vancouver and the city pastors. The services are as follows: 11 a.m. Dedication sermon by Rev. Warren H. McLeod. This will be his last sermon as pastor; 2:30 p.m., special session of the Sunday school with addresses by visiting brethren; 7:30 p.m., evening service, sermon by Rev. H. G. Estabrook, superintendent of missions. An excellent part of the service will be a cantata by the choir, assisted by soloists from the other choirs. This chorus will be directed by Mr. John E. Davey.

On Monday evening a special platform meeting will be held when addresses will be delivered by Revs. Estabrook and Scott, and the pastors of the city churches. There will be special musical selections at the service which will be one of the best evenings of dedication week.

On Tuesday evening the ladies of the church and the Baptist Brotherhood cordially invite the public to attend a reception and farewell social evening in honor of the pastor and Mrs. McLeod, who leave for Victoria on August 1st. Games, musical selections, short addresses, etc., will make an enjoyable evening. The social rooms of the church will be formally opened at this time. The public is cordially invited to all these services.

KITSUMKALUM ENTHUSIAST HAS FACTS TO ENTHUSE WITH

CORN IN THE TASSEL AND TOMATOES IN BLOOM—ONE FARMER WHO CLEARED AND PLANTED OVER FOUR ACRES IN SIX MONTHS.

That sturdy pioneer of Kitsumkalum, R. Braun, is a "boomer" from Boomville on his present visit, and he not only has a gift of enthusiasm but produces the facts to convince with. Everything he says about the country and what he has proved it capable of producing has a ring of personal pride that is eminently proper and not boastful. In speaking of some of his experiments, he said:

"In regard to sweet corn, I have seven different varieties and it is now three and a half feet high and has started tasselling out. As to tomatoes, which many people do not believe will ripen in our country, I have twenty-two varieties, all in bloom, their stage being a month ahead of what it was at this date last year. They ripened then, and some of them were as big as a breakfast cup."

"I have pumpkins in blossom, the vines running as long as

PRINCE RUPERT CLUB SAID FAREWELL TO J. M. CHRISTIE

PRESENTED WITH CASE OF STERLING SILVER AND A GOLD WATCH—WAS MEMBER OF CLUB SINCE ITS INCEPTION AND FILLED ALL IMPORTANT OFFICES.

At the Prince Rupert Club last evening there was a large gathering of the members, together with other representative citizens, to say farewell to J. M. Christie, manager of the local branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce for the last six years, who has been promoted to a similar position at Cranbrook, B. C. Mr. Christie has been an active member of the club ever since it was instituted and has filled the important offices of director, secretary and president.

The proceedings last night were of an informal character. Shortly after 9 o'clock, with J. H. McMullin, president of the club, presiding, the members and their friends assembled in the sitting room. Mr. McMullin briefly explained that the gathering was for the purpose of saying farewell to an esteemed member and called upon Judge Young to convey to Mr. Christie the club's regret at his departure. In a brief address the judge said that he was confident that all sincerely regretted the removal from the city of both Mr. and Mrs. Christie. He referred to the peculiar conditions that exist in the building up of a city in a pioneer community and the lasting friendships that are formed. Those who had assembled to say farewell deeply regretted the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Christie but wished them abundant prosperity in their new home. As tokens of the good fellowship that existed between Mr. Christie and the mem-

POLITICAL CRISIS IN MEXICO IS BELIEVED TO BE DISTANT

AMBASSADOR WILSON BELIEVES THE SUGGESTED TRIPARTITE COMMISSION WOULD BE AGAINST THE MONROE DOCTRINE AS IT CALLS FOR OUTSIDE AID.

(Special to The Daily News.)
Washington, July 26.—While administration officials believe that the crisis will not reach Mexico until the northern rebel armies press closer to Mexico City and the federal strongholds, there are indications that an effort will be made by the Washington government to pursue a well defined policy before events have reached that critical stage. Ambassador Wilson is of the opinion that a tripartite commission would be against the Monroe doctrine, as it involves the calling upon outside governments for help. He is reticent upon the policy of American intervention and also upon the recognition of the Huerta government by the United States.

THE BULGARS LOST THEIR HEADS.

The trouble with the Bulgarians appears to have been that they judged themselves invincible. They fought in a necessary war and did wonderful things; then the hotheads among them forced an unnecessary war, and involved the nation in disaster. The war against their late allies, the Serbians and Greeks, was, it may be safely opined, not approved by a united public opinion in Bulgaria. Nearly every family had lost a member in the war with the Turks, but this war was inevitable; it had been long awaited; and, although the cost was heavy, the Turk had been practically driven out of Europe. The war among the victors over the division of the spoil was not a people's war. It was a war of ambition, precipitated by politicians and militarists. An army of men asking themselves "What's the sense of this war?" is not likely to prove a formidable army.

The Bulgarians did the bulk of the heavy fighting against the Turks. They won the decisive victories. They did not, perhaps, give sufficient credit to the Greek ships which upset the transportation plans of the Turks. They did the bulk of the heavy fighting, yet their fighting would, no doubt, have been vain but for the fact that Turkey was forced to carry on three other campaigns at the same time.

All Europe joined in puffing up the vanity of the Bulgars. Those despatches will be recalled in which the leading newspapers of Europe and the leading military strategists heaped praise on them as a military people, and extolled their commander-in-chief as another Napoleon, as the military genius of the century. They were encouraged in their tendency to belittle the parts played by their allies in the operations against the Turks, to regard themselves as the real victors and to adopt a policy arrogant and aggressive. The critics who did little to check the folly of Bulgaria are now severe enough in condemning it. A most uncivilized war has been waged. It appears that the worst atrocities practiced by the Turks have been paralleled by these Christian races. It is charged that deeds of the crudest barbarism were perpetrated by the despairing Bulgars as they found they were by no means invincible. A revolting story of slaughter during the past month remains to be told throughout the realms of civilization.

Perhaps now the world may see soldiers retire to the background and statesmen emerge in the Balkans.
But it is scarcely to be expected that the soldiers will retire from a field so favorable to their business unless a world pressure is brought to bear on the situation.

ASQUITH'S PLANS TO REFORM
THE BRITISH HOUSE OF PEERS

TO WIPE OUT THE INHERITED PREROGATIVE AND TO SUBSTITUTE AN ELECTED SENATE OF HUNDRED AND FIFTY MEMBERS.

London, July 22.—Premier Asquith's announcement in the commons that the government will place before parliament next session their proposals for reform of the house of lords has been welcomed by both parties. The Liberals are heartily sick of the waste of time in parliamentary proceedings under the Parliament Act with the reformed lords. The Unionists are confident that the government cannot formulate any scheme which will satisfy all sections of the Liberals, and confidently anticipate defeating the government when the lords reform bill is introduced. The cabinet have guarded the secrecy of their proposed measures with great care.

Two plans are known, however, to have many supporters in the cabinet. The first is for a senate directly elected by the people, Great Britain and Ireland being divided into seventy-five constituencies, each returning two members, the electorate being the same as for the house of commons. Among members of the cabinet who at one stage supported this were Sir Edward Grey, Lord Haldane and Hon. Winston Churchill. Another plan which it is understood was described in a private meeting at the Eighty Club, a famous Liberal fighting organization, by Mr. Samuel, the postmaster general, is for a chamber much smaller than the present, partly elected, partly nominated, and restricted as the house of lords now is regarding legislation sent up by the house of commons.

Probably the government will not formulate proposals as a parliamentary bill next session, but will embody them in a resolution which will be passed by the commons. Admittedly, the measure cannot pass into law until it has been submitted to the country in general at election time. The majority of the lords in rejecting the home rule bill leaves the country unimpressed. Public opinion is summed up in Morley's phrase, "the greater your majority, the greater your disgrace." The Daily Chronicle describes the result as "Lord Tomnoddy's veto."

England the Fascinating Playground of Our Race.

An English paper in commenting on the death of the Duke of Sutherland quotes this recent reference of his to his Alberta colonization scheme: "This country will become more and more the fascinating playground of the Anglo-Saxon race. The workshop of the Empire will be west. My Scotch tenants are not going to eke out a sparse existence on the hills while their brothers and cousins are building great fortunes over the seas. I want to help them all I can, as Canada is Scotch in brain and enterprise. We are wanted all over the Empire, and I for one am not going to settle down to wail over past glories, but to sow the harvest of new glories to the combined island races overseas."
