NO CHANGE IN NANAIMO STRIKE SITUATION--MISSIONARY KILLED IN ASIATIC TURKEY

TROOPS KEEPING STRIKING MINERS OF NANAIMO QUIET

SALOONS IN CITY AND DISTRICT KEPT CLOSED--DEAD-LOCK BETWEEN UNION AND FUEL COMPANY--OTTAWA NOT LIKELY TO INTERFERE.

(Special to The Daily News.)
Nanaimo, Aug. 16.—More troops have been added to those already here, including thirty-five members of the Eighty-fourth, and all troops are now under canvas. A trainload of supplies is arriving from Victoria and another draft of the army corps of Vancouver is to arrive shortly.

All the saloons of the city and district have been kept closed since the arrival of the military. The Cumberland union is giving no trouble and the situation is well under control. An attempt was made to fire the Union Bay wharves, but it failed, the police arresting two foreigners and dispersing the mob.

A report is in circulation that the Trent River bridge has been blown up, but this at present lacks confirmation.

Although everything is quiet at present it is not believed to be

WOULD LIKE TO SEE CITIZENS UNITE IN WELCOME TO MR. ROSS

MAYOR PATTULLO DESIRES TO SEE MORE REGARD MANIFEST-ED FOR PUBLIC INTEREST IN PRESENT SITUATION. LESS FOR PETTY DIFFERENCES.

"I do not know when the Hon. Mr. Ross will be here except that he will be here very soon," said Mayor Pattullo when interviewed by a representative of The News this morning. He then expressed his opinions on the reception of his

"The announcement of provincial assistance," he said, "has apparently been received with unalloyed satisfaction. As chief magistrate of the city I would like to see the citizens of Prince Rupert acclaim with jubilation the fact that the Provincial government will come to our assistance provided we satisfy it of the urgency of the work outlined. There is no doubt that the Hon. Mr. Ross will readily see the urgency of the work. Anyone who has seen the G. T. P. plans and heard of no other reason, recognize it. As an example, the G. T. P. is starting a fifteen storey hotel, yet we are not in a position, and will not be in a position when the hotel is finished, to give them sewerage facilities, unless the work starts immediately.

"Let me say that I think it will materially help the situation if the citizens will rise en masse to the occasion when the Hon. Mr. Ross arrives. It does not make any difference how you may feel toward the mayor. However you may feel, there is little likelihood that it will send him to an early grave, but it does make a difference how you feel toward the city, and under any circumstances sooner or later government assistance it is going to be. There are economic forces at work which will compel it whether we like it or whether we do not like it.

"We have, I regret to say, already had evidence that there are those in the city who for no other reason than petty jealousy or vindictive animosity would like to see anything that looks like a check upon city administration. Satisfaction of this kind, it is ever exists at all, is always short lived, but its effects, detrimental to the body politic, are long lasting.

"Next to natural resources a proper public spirit is a city's greatest asset. The former has hitherto saved Prince Rupert from the unfortunate character of the latter. However, with the influx of people as soon as the railroad is completed the pettiness will be lost in its own smallness.

"Every time I leave Prince Rupert I come back more convinced than ever of the splendid future before it. Its natural resources far surpass those of many other cities whose populations run into the six figures."

PLANS OF GOVERNMENT DOCK FOR BURRARD INLET DESCRIBED

IT WILL BE 800 FEET LONG BY 300 FEET WIDE--IT IS EXPECTED THE DOCK WILL BE COMPLETED WITHIN TWO YEARS.

Vancouver, Aug. 12.—Several plans are understood to be tendering on the new Dominion government dock which is to be constructed on Burrard Inlet between Salsbury and Commercial drives at an estimated cost of between $1,500,000 and $1,750,000. The government wharves will be of the most substantial character. Contracts for the work will be awarded on August 21st.

The docks will be 800 feet long and 300 feet wide. A berthing slip of 140 feet wide will be provided on each side, dredged out to a depth of thirty-six feet at the lowest stage of the tide. An appropriation sufficient for the first year's operations has been allocated and the funds for the completion of the dock and the installation of all the latest conveniences in the way of electric travelling cranes, etc., will be appropriated later. It is expected that the docks will be finished within two years.

A great deal of preliminary work on the government wharf will be necessary. First of all the surface soil will have to be excavated. About 125,000 cubic yards of soil and rock will be removed and the bottom levelled. The solid rock excavation is expected to exceed 100,000 cubic yards which will have to be drilled and blasted under water in depths varying from five to thirty-six feet below tidewater. A great deal of this work will have to be done by divers. A foundation of crushed stone will be provided for the cribs, which will be filled with stone ballast, topped off with gravity sections forming a base for a retaining wall which will extend around the outer edge of the docks.

The cribs will be covered with a layer of solid concrete. On the top of the foundation of crushed rock large sawn timbers will be placed, it being estimated that 11,000,000 feet, board measurement, will be necessary for this purpose. There will be twenty-three of the large cribs. They will be built in dry docks and sunk and filled solid.

WEDDED AT VANCOUVER

Bank Manager Weds a Former Resident of Rupert.

Among the large number of arrivals by the steamer Prince Rupert this morning were two young people, former residents of this city, who were united in matrimony at Vancouver on Thursday evening. The bride was Miss McPhail, a popular and much admired young lady who was for some time in the office of Williams & Manson here. The groom was Mr. E. B. Tatchell, branch manager of the Union Bank at New Hazelton. A large number of their friends were at the wharf this morning to shower them with confetti and good wishes. They left by this morning's train for New Hazelton.

Conditions Different Now.

Rev. W. E. Collison left by this morning's train to conduct services at Hazelton on Sunday. In speaking to a News reporter this morning he said this was his first trip to Hazelton since 1880, when there was only one white man in the place. At that time he went in by canoe, the trip taking two weeks. Mr. Collison said this was his first trip out of Prince Rupert by rail.

OLD BRIDGE ACROSS BULKLEY IS BURNED

A Case of Malicious Incendiarism at Glentanna, Near Smithers.

One evening a few days since H. P. Jones, who is engaged in business at Smithers, left his place to walk to his home at Glentanna. He made a short cut through the bush to the old bridge across the Bulkley River opposite Glentanna and, arriving there about dusk, found that the bridge had been burned. Mr. Jones examined the premises carefully but could not find any trace of bush fire leading up to the bridge, which satisfied him that the fire was of incendiary origin and he is now offering a reward for evidence leading to the conviction of the guilty party. Not being able to cross the river, Jones had to retrace his steps back to Smithers, reaching there about midnight after walking the distance through the wet bush and had to make the trip home Sunday by way of Telkwa. This small bridge was put in about four years ago by Mr. Jones and has served as a great convenience to the people in that vicinity.—Telkwa Tribune.

TRIAL POSTPONED

Counsel for L. E. McFarlane Wanted More Time.

The case of Warren H. McLeod against L. E. McFarlane for slander was brought up in the county court this morning for argument as to when it should come up for trial. L. W. Patmore, the counsel for the defendant seemed anxious to get more evidence from outside the city and on this account moved that the trial be set over for two months. This was vigorously opposed by A. M. Manson, the counsel for the plaintiff, who wanted to have the case brought up as soon as possible. Judge Young gave the defendant one month longer. This means that the case will not be tried in September.

Death.

Clarence C. Peck, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Haliburton Peck of Georgetown, died at the hospital yesterday afternoon. He had been in good health until a little over a week ago, when he was stricken down by meningitis. He was but 12 years of age. The funeral will take place on Monday afternoon at 2:30 from E. L. #### HENRY HASKAMP ARRESTED ON CHARGE OF KIDNAPPING GIRL

WAS FORMERLY REAL ESTATE DEALER OF PRINCE RUPERT--GIRL IS FIFTEEN-YEAR-OLD MOVIE ACTRESS OF LOS ANGELES.

(Special to The Daily News.)
Los Angeles, Aug. 16.—Two arrests have been made by the police here in connection with the kidnapping of Carol Mason, a 15-year-old moving picture actress, who had been missing for two weeks. One of these men is Henry W. Haskamp, formerly of Prince Rupert and now a real estate dealer here, and the other is Robert Burton, a salesman of this city, who is arrested on suspicion and held pending the filing of charges.

The result of the police investigation showed that the girl had been kidnapped and held a captive, but she has declared that she left home willingly and told of her relations with Haskamp and Burton. The police say that the girl was originally a brunette but has become a pronounced blonde.

Haskamp was arrested at his apartments. He refused to open the door when the police demanded admittance and the room was therefore broken into. Mr. Haskamp says his family is worth three millions and that he himself owns valuable oil properties in British Columbia.

MANY CITIZENS VIEW THE PLANS FOR THE PALATIAL G. T. P. HOTEL

SUPERINTENDENT MEHAN SHOWED AND EXPLAINED PLANS TO CONCOURSE OF BUSINESS MEN IN COUNCIL ROOM OF CITY HALL.

For a long time past the citizens of Prince Rupert have been looking forward to the time when the G. T. P. should commence work on the erection of its promised palatial hotel here. Now that work is well under way in preparing for the construction of the building, the citizens have been anxious to see the plans for themselves. While they have had a full description of the building as it will be when completed in all the local papers, they were naturally anxious to see for themselves the designs for the new structure.

That opportunity was last evening afforded to many of the leading business and professional men of the city by the arrangement of General Superintendent Mehan of the G. T. P. Members of the city council, of the board of trade, of the real estate exchange and other business and professional men and representatives of the press were invited to inspect the plans in the council chamber of the city hall.

A large number of prominent citizens were present and saw for themselves how the hotel will look when completed. Mr. Mehan himself very kindly explained the designs. It is his intention to make it possible for the general public to view them at a later date.

When all present had seen the plans Mayor Pattullo moved a vote of thanks to Mr. Mehan for having afforded so many this opportunity of seeing the plans. Mayor Pattullo remarked that from recent intercourse with Mr. Smithers, the chairman of the board of directors of the G. T. P., he knew that the Grand Trunk Pacific had great things in store for Prince Rupert. He expressed the appreciation of all present

THE RECENT ACT MODIFYING THE MINING LAWS OF ALASKA

ACT OF UNITED STATES CONGRESS MODIFYING AND AMENDING LAWS IN THEIR APPLICATION TO TERRITORY OF ALASKA.

In view of the great interest which residents of this part of the province are taking in the Shushanna gold strike, The News publishes hereunder a copy of the Alaska mining act, passed some eighteen months ago by the United States congress. In many points it materially modifies the mining laws which ruled when some of the "sourdoughs" now resident in Prince Rupert were in the north country.

Before quoting the act it might be worth mentioning that the size of a claim is 1,320 feet by 660 feet, or twenty acres.

The act reads as follows:

Be it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled that no association placer mining claim shall be hereafter located in Alaska in excess of forty acres and on every placer mining claim hereafter located in Alaska and until a patent has been issued therefor, not less than one hundred dollars' worth of labor shall be performed or improvements made during each year, including year of location, for each and every twenty acres or excess fraction thereof.

Sec. 2. That no person shall hereafter locate any placer mining claim in Alaska as attorney for another unless he is duly authorized thereto by a power of attorney in writing, duly acknowledged and recorded in any recorder's office in the judicial division where the location is made. Any person so authorized may locate placer mining claims for not more than two individuals or one association under such power of attorney, but no such agent or attorney shall be authorized or permitted to locate more than two placer mining claims for any one principal or association during any calendar month and no placer mining claim shall hereafter be located in Alaska except under the limitations of this act.

Sec. 3. That no person shall hereafter locate, cause or procure to be located, for himself, more than two placer mining claims in any calendar month: Provided, that one or both such locations may be included in an association claim.

Sec. 4. That no placer mining claim hereafter located in Alaska shall be patented which shall contain a greater area than is fixed by law, nor which is longer than three times its greatest width.

Sec. 5.—That any placer mining claim attempted to be located in violation of this act shall be null and void, and the whole area thereof may be located by any qualified locator as if no such prior attempt had been made.

Approved August 1, 1913.

WHY NOT BUILD IN CANADA?

The age of miracles is not past. Sir Richard McBride said at a recent dinner that the Canadian senate's action on the naval bill had made him "hang his head in shame." We can scarcely believe it! One would expect that the head which had maintained its equilibrium in the fetid atmosphere of land, timber and Indian reserve scandals would be impregnable to all the assaults of shame. How was the venerable upper house able to work the phenomenon? Simply by insisting that the government of this country consult the people, its masters, before it sent thirty-five million dollars of their taxes out of the country for expenditure on three ships over which they would have not the slightest control. The idea of seeking the permission of the taxpayers of Canada before embarking upon a course which every responsible Canadian statesman for generations had declined to pursue was more than Sir Richard could stand, and he hung his head in shame. Who are the people, anyway?

But other heads are hanging in shame. This exercise, like the singing of "Rule Britannia" and flag waving, is not the exclusive prerogative of Sir Richard McBride's party. A Toronto merchant has recently returned to Ontario's capital from the Fore River ship building plant near Quincy, Massachusetts. While there he saw the 28,000 ton dreadnought Rivadavia, built for the Argentine Republic, and now ready for service. As a Canadian he felt humiliated to think that Canadian statesmen had proclaimed to the world that it was impossible to build warships in their own country. He went through the great yard of this company, and did not see one process of work carried out that could not be done in Canada within a reasonable time. This yard employs five thousand men. It was established twelve years ago, and not only has it been building battleships for the United States navy for years, but it has been able to snatch the choice contract of the Argentina battleship from the rival ship building yards of the world. One would think that Sir Richard would hang his head in shame, not over the senate's action, but because with the record of what other nations are accomplishing, craven souled Canadians, for political purposes, declare we are incapable of doing the same.—Victoria Times.

THE SUPERVISION OF PLAYGROUNDS.

In many cities provision exists for the supervision of playgrounds. The children, when at play as when at work, are under the charge of an adult, who is responsible for their good behavior. The opportunity is taken of watching the youngsters in their play and of inculcating in them good habits and good manners. It is in this way possible to check the growth of that roughness and incivility which spoils a multitude of children, and of those vices which have ruined many more. At play more than at work the teacher can win the confidence of the children and give them guidance in more important things than knowledge of books.

Where such a supervisor of playgrounds has not been already appointed, it should be possible to make temporary shift at comparatively little extra expense by arranging with one or more of the teaching staff to undertake the work when it is most needed—that is, after school hours. Could not something of the sort be managed in Prince Rupert?

STORY OF GOLD STAMPEDE IS GRAPHICALLY RELATED

CORDOVA DAILY ALASKAN TELLS OF ARRIVAL OF FIRST GOLD FROM SHUSHANNA AND OF LATER STRIKES—TO BE GREAT CAMP LIKE DAWSON.

The Cordova Daily Alaskan of July 24th, a copy of which has just been received in the city by Messrs. Lennox and Reid, gives its entire front page to a graphic account of the great stampede to Shushanna.

It records the arrival of the first gold from the new strike of Shushanna at McCarthy, relates the trying experiences of stamperers in reaching the latest gold field, states that men with ground are offering $25 a day wages for men who will work and board themselves and gives Bonanza, Eldorado, Ready Money, Chitenda, Shamrock and Beaver as the best paying creeks.

The following despatch from McCarthy received by the paper gives a terse review of the situation at Shushanna:

"Reports from persons returning from the Shushanna show that the find is richer and more extensive than has been reported previously. Bill Courdon states that the coarse gold has been found on several creeks and that men with ground are offering $25 per day wages for men who will work and board themselves. Grub is extremely scarce in the new camp, many being compelled to live entirely on meat brought into camp by hunters. Henshaw has sent out to McCarthy for supplies, which Courdon will take back with him.

"One of the men who came out from the strike showed some gold nuggets taken out on Eldorado, the smallest of which is worth $5. There is much discussion over the new mining law, which promises litigation over several of the claims staked."

With reference to the arrival of the first gold from the new strike, the Alaskan says: "The first gold from the new strike on the Shushanna River was brought to McCarthy today (July 24) by R. Riley, William Courdon, George Veredis and another. The men were working for wages and received their pay in dust. The gold they received is coarse with nuggets ranging in value from $5 to $15 each, basing the value at from $18 to $19 an ounce.

"Riley and his partners came to outfit for a long stay in the country and will return as soon as possible. They confirm the stories that have been told of the richness and extent of the field and declare that it is one of the greatest finds of recent years in Alaska, and that everything has been staked upon Eldorado and Bonanza creeks, but there is plenty of ground on the other creeks."

The Alaskan prints a number of letters from the interior on the stampede. One of these from McCarthy says:

"It is a sure enough stampede. At least 150 men have left here in the last forty-eight hours. It seems that George Wolf made a strike, and it is said that he was grubstaked by Brady Howard. Howard got a letter from Wolf and started for the Shushanna at once. He was out on the line sealing timber when the letter was given him and he borrowed boots and a shirt from Jesse Forrester and started without returning to camp. It is claimed that Wolf is taking out $2,500 per day. It is a sight to see the stamperers starting out. Seventy-five men came in on the train and are going out as fast as they can get away."

Another letter states that the best claims are on Eldorado, where with short string boxes and three men working $250 to $1,500 in gold is being taken out. All of the ground around the creeks being worked is shallow and unfrozen. Such ground as has been opened is sufficiently rich to warrant the belief that a great camp like Dawson is probable. The reports as to the total area of the gold bearing gravel vary and probably in some cases are not reliable, but it is believed to be large.

Considerable difficulty was experienced by the early stamperers leaving Cordova in crossing the Nizina River, states the Alaskan, owing to the extremely high water. Three men who composed one of the first parties that went out experienced great difficulty in crossing the stream, one man nearly losing his life in the attempt. Of a party that started later, only Deputy Marshal Joe Brown of Chitina got across the river. He tackled the stream alone and succeeded in swimming across after a hard battle with the current. Little trouble was experienced by recent parties in crossing, as the water had become greatly reduced.

Speaking as to the trails, the paper says: "It is necessary to do some work on the trail over the glacier to make it possible to freight in winter. The distance from McCarthy to Bonanza, which will probably be a permanent camp, is about 110 miles. With $5,000 worth of work on the trail the freight will come via Cordova. The trail to the new camp, particularly that section between McCarthy and Nazina River and the glacier trail, is in bad shape, and if travel is going by way of Cordova some work should be done on it to make it easier to traverse."

MISS KATHERINE FORCE.

DARING ATTEMPT TO KIDNAP BEAUTIFUL SEATTLE GIRL

HER SCREAMS BROUGHT MEN TO HER RESCUE AS KIDNAPERS WERE ENDEAVORING TO DRUG HER—HAD BEEN MARRIED BUT SEVEN MONTHS.

Seattle, Aug. 12.—A daring attempt to kidnap Mrs. Eva James, a beautiful girl, 17 years old, within a block of her home, was frustrated last night by the screams and struggles of the victim.

Mrs. James, a bride of seven months, has been separated from her husband, who is in California, and has been living with her mother, Mrs. Eleanor Lewis, at 2218 Seventh avenue.

For the past three days two men have been seen loitering around the Lewis home, and last night a posse of citizens, armed with shotguns, revolvers and clubs, lurked in the shadow of trees that border the walk.

The women and girls in the neighborhood had been warned, and none of them ventured out without escort.

Last evening about 9:30 o'clock Mrs. Lewis asked her daughter to go to the store a few blocks away to get a loaf of bread. The girl at first demurred, but finally consented. When she had nearly reached the store she found she had lost her nickel and she started back to the house.

She took the east side of the street, as the other side is densely shaded by trees. Just as she reached the corner of Seventh avenue and Blanchard street two men rushed from the front of an empty house on the northeast corner and seized her. One of them grabbed her arm and twisted it behind her back, in the grip known among wrestlers as a hammerlock.

She began to scream and the other man thrust a handkerchief saturated with some kind of drug under her nose. Partly unconscious, she was half dragged, half carried, up the stairs of the untenanted house to one of the upper rooms.

A leather strap was bound about her ankles and a determined attempt was made to force her into unconsciousness. Mrs. James is a strong, active girl, and despite her gags she fought so desperately that the men had all they could do to handle her. In the meantime, the crowd of citizens, directed by her mother, who had heard her first screams, ran past the house.

The kidnapers heard them and fled. They ran down the stairs and the girl followed them, falling with a scream in a faint on the street, where she was picked up by the crowd of men and boys.

Police headquarters was notified and Motorcycle Patrolmen Van Buskirk and Ben Williams, followed by Captain Stuart and Dr. Campbell in an automobile, hastened to the scene.

The girl was taken to the city hospital, where it was found that except for bruises about her arms and ankles she was uninjured.

The story told by her mother disproves the idea of the husband's having any hand in the affair, as she asserts that he cared too much for the girl to harm her.

THE PRICE OF HOMAGE

ONCE when King Edward VII. paid a visit to Sheffield, all the fires in factories and plants were allowed to die out. Not a wheel in Sheffield turned for twenty-four hours. The primary object of this was to lift the pall of smoke that hovers over that wonderful steel-producing city, and to ensure, as far as man was able, a bright day and a blue sky for an auspicious occasion. It was Sheffield's expression of respect.

BUT the action was unique—it was unprecedented—it was unthought of that those hundreds of mighty furnaces, raging night and day, and those seething boilers, with quivering valves, should ever be allowed to cool. This extinguishing of fires cost Sheffield hundreds of thousands of dollars—the price of the effort to get back again to high-power efficiency.

SOME business men in Canada pay an unwitting homage, not to a king, but to a superstition—the superstition that hot weather justifies letting the fires of business energy go out. They stop Advertising in the Summer months. By paying homage to tradition, custom, superstition, they have allowed Summer to become their "dull" season. You know how dull it can be when you don't advertise. Do you know how brisk it can be made by Advertising? Do you realize how much momentum you now lose in the Summer that must be regained in the Fall?

DON'T LET YOUR ADVERTISING FIRES DIE OUT THIS SUMMER.

Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any recognized Canadian advertising agency, or the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 605 Lumsden Building, Toronto. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write, if interested.

TROOPS KEEPING STRIKING MINERS OF NANAIMO QUIET

safe to dispense with the military until a final settlement is arrived at. It is hoped that some working arrangements may be come to by Monday, but it will likely take several more days.

The Herald suspended publication for two days, but was to attempt to publish an edition this morning.

Through the refusal of Stockett, the manager of the Western Fuel Company, to have dealings with some of the striking miners because it was contrary to arrangements, the latter insisted that Farrington, the executive agent of the United Mine Workers of America, should be appointed foreman and proposed a conference. This failed and the deadlock continues. The company will only deal with employees, and the fact that they have no employees is got over by the understanding that the men working up till April 30th be considered such. It was proposed to hold a public meeting to discuss the situation, but Colonel Hall, in charge of the troops, will not allow gatherings.

It is said that the reported agreement of the Jinglepot mine includes a recognition of the union, a 10 per cent. increase in wages and a "check-off" system.

The Victoria Times has the following hopeful article:

"Settlement of the coal mining strike at Nanaimo and Ladysmith, where strikes have startled the whole of the northwest during the past few days, is now in sight. Negotiations which have been under way for two weeks between J. H. Hawthornthwaite, former member of the legislature for Nanaimo, who acted as arbitrator for the Vancouver & Nanaimo Coal Company with a free hand—the company binding themselves to abide with any arrangements that he deemed feasible—and F. Harrington, representing the United Mine Workers of America, were completed last night.

The two sides having agreed upon a satisfactory basis of settlement, Mr. Harrington left on the afternoon train to submit the proposal to the strikers. There is every possibility that the men will accept the terms agreed on, and the initiative taken by the Vancouver & Nanaimo Coal Company may lead the way for the other companies to follow suit. Ottawa, Aug. 16.—The labor department has so far taken no action in regard to the Nanaimo miners' strike, and is not likely to do so unless one of the parties to the dispute should apply for a board of conciliation.

Victoria, Aug. 16.—The acting premier, Hon. W. J. Bowser, has declared that the whole militia of the province will be called out if necessary to restore order in the strike zone. No more lawlessness will be tolerated from the strikers or their sympathizers, he says. There will be no leniency in this matter.

for Mr. Mehan's courtesy in showing and explaining the plans

The motion was seconded simultaneously by Alderman Naden and F. W. Hart and was carried with great applause.

Mr. Mehan in reply said that Mr. Chamberlin, the president of the road, was as optimistic as Mr. Smithers regarding the future development of Prince Rupert.

Mr. Mehan regretted that he could not yet show the plans of the terminals to be erected along the waterfront. A number of plans had been prepared which were now under consideration. When one of these plans had been chosen by the company and approved by the government he would be pleased to show it to the citizens.
