DRD STRATHCONA TO RESIGN NEXT YEAR—GREAT LEGAL BATTLE PROBABLE ABOUT THAW

MARGES UPON WHICH SULZER WAS IMPEACHED AS GOVERNOR

LARGE SUMS HANDED TO HIM FOR CAMPAIGN PURPOSES TO COVER HIS MARGINS IN STOCK SPECULATIONS.

WILLIAM SULZER
Governor of New York.

Born March 18, 1863, at Beth, N. J.
Admitted to the Bar of New York.
Elected to New York Assembly.
Speaker of the Assembly.
Elected to Congress.
Married Clara Rodelheim Philadelphia, January 7.
Governor of New York

the governor is said to have deposited a $5,000 check of A. E. Spriggs against his debt to Harris & Fuller. On July 9, 1913, he is said to have further reduced the debt by selling his 100 shares of Southern Pacific for $9,248. After the governor had failed to answer several calls for margin, his stock was about to be sold when taken up by the payment of $26,000 by a man called Josephthal.

When suspicion fell upon the governor and investigations were commenced before the Frawley committee, evidence was adduced tending to show that Sulzer had been able to pay his debt and get some money ahead because of certain monies he had received as campaign money. There was a $2,500 cheque from Jacob Schiff, $1,000 from Henry Morganthau, $250 from Peter Doelger, a brewer; $500 from Abraham I. Elkus, and $500 from William F. McGoomb.

These sums, it is said, the governor failed to declare in the statement of campaign monies received and expended, which the law demands the candidate must make out. The penalty for failing to declare all the items is liability to imprisonment for a year, or a fine of $1,000, or both.

Check after check has been brought into evidence by the Frawley committee and set down as further evidence of the governor's alleged malfeasance. To all of this Sulzer says, in effect, through his secretary:

"I didn't know about these cheques. If I did not list them it is not against the law, and even if it were I did not know these cheques and so am not responsible."

THAW IS STILL HELD ON CANADIAN GROUND

Immigration Department Rules that He be Released—Great Legal Battle Likely.

(Special to The Daily News.)
Ottawa, Aug. 22—The immigration department declares that Thaw should be released. They have rejected the plea for extradition and hold that he should be put across the line either in New York or Vermont state as an undesirable character and thus end all contention. But this decision is to be stubbornly fought by J. N. Greenshields, K.C., the famous Canadian criminal lawyer, who has been retained to fight for Thaw's freedom. Meanwhile, Thaw is held by the Sherbrooke authorities pending the outcome of the legal battle.

On Wednesday next he will be arraigned in the Superior Court on a writ of habeas corpus which will be the first round in the legal fight.

CONSTANTLY KNOCKING THE CITY'S INTERESTS

The continued efforts of the Empire to make the public believe that the "Daily News" has been getting rich at the city's expense through being given city advertising without competition were shown up as completely ridiculous by the facts published in yesterday's "News." Even ex-Ald. Montgomery, one of the Empire's easy victims, admits in a letter in to-day's "News" that the matter is not to be criticized from a financial point of view. Ex-Ald. Montgomery's only objection in the matter is that the Empire was frozen out. Whether this be true or not the "News" has no information but it has no hesitation in saying that the mayor of this or any other city should conduct the civic affairs on the same principles as the manager of any other large corporation. What would the directors and shareholders think of a manager who would hand out business to a concern that was constantly using every effort to bring them wreck and ruin? The Empire to give vent to personal animosity, has been doing everything in its power to interfere with the securing of necessary finances to carry on urgent work and thus retard the city's progress. Yet ex-Ald. Montgomery would have the mayor of this city turn over to such a knocker of the city's interests a portion of the city's business. The mayor should act in such a matter in accordance with the wishes of the majority who are certainly opposed to seeing the city's interests hammered as they have been by the organ of a defeated opponent.

PICTURES THAT TEACH

Helpful Lessons Conveyed to the Public by the "Movies."

Moving pictures were at first largely confined to comical incidents and then wild west cowboy scenes until the public grew tired of being simply amused and manifested a desire for something that appealed more directly to the intelligence. This was provided in the great spectacular dramas of classic history but, as the appetite grows on that upon which it feeds there next came a call for pictures that really taught something. Then came the pictures of natural history and phenomena and later the introduction of social and economic problems.

"The Struggle," a film which is now being run at the Empress, is one of the latter. It is of especial passing interest when one reads day by day the incidents of the Nanaimo strike, for this depicts a struggle between the employed and employer which fairly shows the balance of blame on either side, the genesis of the labor trouble and how naturally its inevitable conclusions work themselves out. It is a film that all interested in such struggles should not miss.

The Daily Express, an organ of the Conservative party published at Woodstock, Ontario, has ceased publication. It announced that it was unable to exist as a paying proposition.

YET PRINCE RUPERT MERCHANTS NEVER ONCE THOUGHT OF THIS

VANCOUVER MERCHANTS LET SEATTLE GET ALL KLONDIKE TRADE BUT DETERMINE TO GO AFTER THAT OF SHUSHANA

(Special to The Daily News.)
Vancouver, August 22—The wholesale merchants, comprising the hardware, grocery and dry-goods businesses, and others met last night to devise some plan by which the trade of the new Shushana gold fields shall be secured to Vancouver instead of its being allowed to go to Seattle and San Francisco. After the matter had been fully discussed it was decided to request Dr. Cairns, the Dominion geologist who has inspected the district, to deliver an address to the merchants immediately after his return from Dawson. After this address and the definite information which it is hoped to obtain from Dr. Cairns, definite steps will be taken to organize and undertake extensive advertising for the purpose of securing this valuable trade of the north. It is also likely that personal representatives of the merchants will be sent north to urge upon the miners the advantages of sending their gold dust to the local assay office.

TWO MORE TROPHIES FOR THE EXHIBITION

Sterling Silver Challenge Cup and Another Trophy—Funds are in Good Shape

Two more magnificent trophies have been added to the long list of cups, medals and prizes that will be distributed to winners at the forthcoming Prince Rupert Exhibition, September 24 to 27th. One is a sterling silver challenge cup, valued at $60.00 presented by M. M. Stephens for the grandest district display of fruits, vegetables and other agricultural products. The cup is a handsome ornament, standing 14 inches high with staghorn handles. It is to become the property of the district winning the first prize two years in succession or any three times. The second gift is from L. Bullock-Webster, the indefatigable secretary of the Northern B. C. Agricultural and Industrial Association, under whose auspices the fair is to be held. It is offered for the best district collection of vegetables won on similar lines to the above. Percy F. Godenrath, a member of the advisory board, who has been campaigning for funds here and attending to the publicity department of the fair, left yesterday for Stewart where he will spend a week working up interest in the fair and arranging for a mineral exhibit and agricultural display. He will return here next Friday morning to complete the canvass for funds and attend to the publicity work until the date is over. The total raised to date is slightly over $6,000, including the city grant.

FINEST RESIDENCE SITES IN THE CITY

New Plank Roadways in Section Two Afford Opportunity of Seeing Some Choice Property.

It is likely that only a very small percentage of the population of Prince Rupert have ever seen Section Two at close range. Now that the plank roadway is constructed along Atlin avenue, out beyond Seventeenth street, the citizens are supplied with a promenade that for scenic splendor is not excelled anywhere on the continent. This avenue overlooks the main entrance to the harbor and affords a magnificent view of the islands that lie in the Melakata passage, Digby Island, the quarantine wharf and the marine depot. Graham avenue runs between Atlin and the waterfront at a much lower level, the land sloping from Atlin to the harbor. That some of the choicest residential sites in the city are in Section Two on these avenues cannot be denied, and when handsome homes are built in that locality the city will present a much improved appearance to passengers on incoming steamers. A visit to Section Two cannot but strengthen one's faith in the future of this promising city.

IS HARRY LAUDER NOW A STRUMMER OF HARPS?

Local Men Bet as to Whether the Singer is Still on this Planet

Is Harry Lauder dead? That is a point which was the subject of much contention between two men staying at a local hotel yesterday evening. One man said he had seen the death of the popular singer recorded in a newspaper which he read recently while in the interior. The other was so sure that the singer was alive that he offered to make a bet on it. So they made a good big bet as to whether Harry Lauder had, or had not, sung his swan song and passed from the country of the bagpipes to the land of harps. The bet was to be decided by a reference to those grey-bearded wisecracks, the editors of the local papers.

As soon as The News reporter heard of the story he consulted with the whole editorial staff from the managing editor himself down to the fourth assistant sub-editor, whose sole duty it is to keep a record of cables announcing the deaths of musicians.

One and all of that illustrious galaxy of journalists expressed themselves as of the opinion that Harry Lauder had not yet joined the immortals save in the opinion of his advertising manager. If such a famous singer were to croak, the jarring note would straightway resound through all the corners of the earth. The man who bet on Harry's demise may safely conclude that his opponent was a better bettor than he. Let him therefore get a pair of pincers, and with one hard tug pull the root of all evil from his pocket and depart a sadder and wiser man.

CHANGES IN GAME LAWS

Can Shoot Only Three Deer this Season

The most important change in the game laws this year is that the number of deer which may be shot by any individual is reduced from five to three. Also, anyone who wants to carry a gun must first get a license. For shooting birds, and deer the license is $2.50 and for shooting larger game, is $5.00.

The seasons are practically the same as last year: For ducks, geese and snipe, from December 1 to February 28; for deer, from December 1 to December 15; for grouse, from September 1 to December 31.

HON. MR. CODERRE
TO RESIGN

It is stated, and practically admitted, that the government organization, Louis Coderre, Secretary of State, is soon to resign, and be succeeded by Mr. L. T. Marechal, a well-known Montreal lawyer. It is stated further that the discredited Secretary of State is to be appointed to the bench.
Hon. Louis Coderre was brought into the Borden Government on October 30 last, to replace Hon. F. D. Monk, who had to resign because he could not honorably stay with a government whose course was in direct opposition to the platform on which he was elected. Although Mr. Coderre had also been elected on the Nationalist platform he swallowed the ministerial bait and accepted office. Then he went back for re-election in Hochelaga on November 19th and was returned against the Labour candidate, the Liberals refusing to oppose him.

Immediately after his election, however, ugly rumors became rife that an elaborate scheme of impersonation had been carried on to gain Mr.
Coderre's success. On March 17th last, Mr. L. J. Gauthier, M.P. for St. Hyacinthe, from his seat in parliament presented a full statement of the case with affidavits of several men to show they had been employed by Hon. Mr. Coderre for personation purposes and had conducted and organized impersonations at his election.
Mr. Gauthier also showed that after the election one of these men had been given a government job, and others had been paid sums of money by Mr. Coderre.

Hon. Mr. Coderre contented himself with a blank denial of the charges and declared that the whole thing was a black-mailing scheme. This was quite sufficient to satisfy Premier Borden—although he is supposed to be a lawyer of parts—and he immediately called upon his followers to whitewash Hon. Mr. Coderre, and they did so with the same unanimity that they exhibited before in whitewashing Hon.

Mr. Rogers in the Macdonald by-election scandal.

Mr. Coderre was promptly challenged to take criminal proceedings against the men he had accused of perjury and blackmail, but although four months have elapsed since then, nothing has been done.
It appears that the evidence which so easily satisfied the partisan group behind Mr. Borden would not suffice in a court of law and Hon. Mr. Coderre is afraid to face a judge.

This man, elected to parliament, first obtained office by recanting the principles on which he was elected, then when accused of securing re-election by a criminal conspiracy, has so failed to vindicate his honor before the courts that he will probably be compelled to resign office. Can the people of Canada tolerate that such a man should be appointed as a judge on the bench which he fears to face on matters of criminal charges against himself?

NOT MUCH ROMANCE CONCERNING LIFE STORY OF HARRY K. THAW

NEWSPAPERMAN WHO COVERED BOTH THAW TRIALS DE-SCRIBES CANADA'S NEW RESIDENT AS A DAN-GEROUS DEGENERATE.

The Dominion could have done without this latest addition to the ranks of her millionaires—Harry K. Thaw, the murderer of Stanford White. It seems likely, however, that he will be shortly deported as an undesirable.
"Harry Thaw is insane, and his detention at Matteawan was an act of simple justice and common sense," declared a New York newspaperman who covered both the Thaw trials for one of the big New York dailies and who is in Vancouver on business. "All the romance and glamor which has surrounded Thaw has been one side, and Thaw and his hired men on the other, it was the possession of Evelyn Nesbit as the prize in the sordid game.

Evelyn was a beautiful girl. She never was and never will be an actress. She was simply a chorus girl, and her success on the stage today is due alone to the morbid anxiety of the great American public to see a person who has been dragged down to the depth through the degenerate mentality of two rich men.
"Thaw is a chap of medium height, walking with an erectness which appears to make him bend

EVELYN NESBITT THAW

built on a false basis and every fair minded man who watched him through his New York career, through the murder of White and through his two trials was absolutely convinced that he was guilty of a cold blooded, cowardly murder, and that Justice Dowling observed every provision of the law when he sent him to the state asylum for the criminal insane.
"I was fortunate enough to be on the New York American when Thaw was tried for the murder of White, and was assigned to cover both trials. Thaw has been variously described as a handsome young fellow, free with his money and the ideal young millionaire. In fact, the newspaper clan itself has been guilty, to a certain extent, of putting out this false impression, the 'sob brigade' insisting upon building its feature stories on the romance connected with the Thaw name.

"White undoubtedly was richly deserving of all that happened to him, but Thaw was just as deep in the human mire of Broadwa, as White. White trampled on what Thaw regarded as his private preserves, and Thaw's maniacal mind planned out the revenge.

"Evelyn Nesbit was the pawn in the game. She is a weak minded, luxury loving little girl.
At the time of the intrigue between White and his satellites on backward. He has a peculiar looking face, with deep features, coffee colored complexion, a weak chin and lips that breathe sensuality in every line. His forehead is low and his hair grows after the style of Bill Sykes, so aptly described in Dickens' masterpiece. His eyes are deep, possessed of a low cunning and continually roving from place to place. He is of a dis-trusting nature, and was continually in trouble when he was one of the familiar sights of Broadway.

"He was never even what might be termed as a 'good fellow.' He spent money like water, but always to satisfy his own selfish, egotistical desires. He would refuse to give a poor beggar a dime on the street and then tip bravo a head waiter with a hundred dollar bill, just to make a show to the crowds of parasites that followed in his wake.

"The newspaper men learned to thoroughly despise him. He is undoubtedly a paranoiac and I have no doubt regarding the fact that he will kill Evelyn Nesbit if the opportunity ever offers. He will also attempt, if he dares remain on this continent, to kill some of the experts who testified against him, and at least one famous Broadway actor, and an equally famous manager will live in dread until Thaw is safely in Europe."

THE FAT MAN'S RACE

NOTED LOVE MAKER'S BODY IS FOUND IN RUSSIAN TRAIN

THE BEAUTIFUL COUNTESS TARNOVSKA, WHO WAS FAMOUS FOR CAPTURING MEN'S HEARTS, WAS DISCOVERED HANGED IN TRAIN.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 17.—The Countess Tarnovska, who in 1910 was convicted in Venice of complicity in the murder of Count Kamarowsky and sentenced to eight years' imprisonment, was found dead on a St. Petersburg-Kiev express train today. She had been hanged.

The police are investigating to determine whether it is a case of suicide or murder. The countess was pardoned last year.

The Countess Marie Tarnovska, a beautiful Russian woman, was charged and found guilty of having persuaded a jealous youth named Nikolas Naumoff, to go to Venice from Vienna and kill Count Kamarowsky in order that she might obtain $100,000 life insurance, the policy for which Kamarowsky had taken out in her name. The countess, it is said, was engaged to marry Kamarowsky.

It was charged at the trial that the countess had a mania for making men love her and then turning them against one another. It was testified that she had repeatedly embraced Count Kamarowsky in the presence of young Naumoff and had shown Naumoff forged love letters in order to arouse his jealousy.

The court also found Naumoff guilty, but mentally unbalanced, and sentenced him to three years' imprisonment.

MONTREAL POLICEMEN FACE CHARGES OF GRAFT IN VICE

TWELVE MEMBERS OF FORCE ARE ACCUSED OF LEVYING TOLL ON DISORDERLY HOUSES IN RETURN FOR POLICE PROTECTION

Montreal, Aug. 18.—Intense excitement reigns at police headquarters, owing to the reported disclosure of a system of alleged graft in connection with resorts in Montreal.

Twelve affidavits connecting twelve members of the police force have already been made out, accusing those mentioned of levying toll on disorderly houses in return for police protection. The men are all charged with making a regular practice of going into the resorts and ordering free drinks.

Ex-Constable Valade, who was dismissed from the police force, was the informer. Although never connected with the morality squad, Valade did a great deal of work in connection with disorderly houses, and is said to be an expert on the subject.

Three detectives in the city bureau are said to be among those mentioned in the affidavits. In addition to these, several minor police officials are mentioned, but none of the inspectors or higher officials are connected with the charges.

Detectives of the Thiel agency and ex-Constable Valade are the ones who have made out the 12 affidavits which are already in the hands of the city police officials and which, it is said, will lead to an investigation that will cast Judge Cannon's royal commission inquiry into the shade.

NEW CUNARD ON THE ATLANTIC RUN

The new Cunard liner Andania has completed her maiden voyage from Southampton to Montreal, and is now on her return trip. The Alaunia, her sister ship, is expected to be ready for service at the end of the present year.

The Andania has been built by Messrs. Scott's Shipbuilding and Engineering Company at Greenock. She is a twin screw vessel of 13,300 tons. Her length is 540 feet, her breadth 64 feet, her depth 46 feet and she is propelled by two sets of quadruple expansion engines, balanced on the Yarrow Schlick and Tweedy system, which reduces the vibration to a minimum. The ship is fitted with the Mareconi wireless apparatus, which can be used by passengers of both classes. Another invention which has been incorporated in the design of the ship is submarine signalling, by which the warning of bell buoys and lightships guarding dangers to navigation can be detected.

She has large bilge keels, which will make for that steadiness and seaworthiness for which the company's ships are noted, and many other modern inventions such as watertight doors and bulkheads, have been adopted in the design. In the planning and construction of the vessel no pains have been spared to make all provision for a possible emergency. In addition to the ordinary electric lighting plant there is an extra dynamo, which can be brought into immediate use in case of need.

The Andania has accommodation for 2,140 passengers—520 second cabin and 1,620 third class. The general style which has been adopted in the decoration of the passenger accommodation is Georgian, or, as it is known on the other side of the Atlantic, "Colonial." This is the style of decoration which was adopted for the Laconia and Franconia, and their popularity has justified its selection as a most suitable style for the modern ocean liner.

THE PRICE OF HOMAGE

ONCE when King Edward VII. paid a visit to Sheffield, all the fires in factories and plants were allowed to die out. Not a wheel in Sheffield turned for twenty-four hours. The primary object of this was to lift the pall of smoke that hovers over that wonderful steel-producing city, and to ensure, as far as man was able, a bright day and a blue sky for an auspicious occasion. It was Sheffield's expression of respect.

BUT the action was unique—it was unprecedented—it was unthought of that those hundreds of mighty furnaces, raging night and day, and those seething boilers, with quivering valves, should ever be allowed to cool. This extinguishing of fires cost Sheffield hundreds of thousands of dollars—the price of the effort to get back again to high-power efficiency.

SOME business men in Canada pay an unwitting homage, not to a king, but to a superstition—the superstition that hot weather justifies letting the fires of business energy go out. They stop Advertising in the Summer months. By paying homage to tradition, custom, superstition, they have allowed Summer to become their "dull" season. You know how dull it can be when you don't advertise. Do you know how brisk it can be made by Advertising? Do you realize how much momentum you now lose in the Summer that must be regained in the Fall?

DON'T LET YOUR ADVERTISING FIRES DIE OUT THIS SUMMER.

Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any recognized Canadian advertising agency, or the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 603 Lumden Building, Toronto. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—no write, if interested.
