LEACH CROSS AND BARRIEAU TO BOX AT BRIGHOUSE ON MONDAY

EDDIE WELSH AND WILLIE RITCHIE TRAINING FOR BOUT ON THE TWENTIETH—CROSS AND FRANK BARRIEAU TO GO TWELVE ROUNDS.

(Special to The Daily News)
Vancouver, Aug. 30.—Leach Cross, New York's lightweight champion, has taken a new tack to win boxing fans that he is entitled to a match for the championship. Instead of sulking in front of a la Tommy Murphy, he is out boxing all comers. His latest move is to invade stamping grounds of Willie Ritchie, world's champion, and Eddie Welsh, British champion, are to engage in a twenty round bout in this city on September 20 for the world's title. Willie and Freddie are both in Vancouver. Leach also heads for this city, and the astute New York dentist-boxer will make a visit here worth while. On Monday afternoon Leach will meet Frank Barrieau here for five rounds, giving away the fight to the Vancouver boxer, through his showing in the ring with Willie and Freddie. Leach hopes to combine the two leading lightweights

(that he is entitled to a battle for the championship. Cross took the match in a hurry. No local man could be obtained with sufficient class to meet Ritchie on Labor Day. So Leach, on his way back from Los Angeles to New York, jumped by way of Vancouver and will tarry here just long enough to give Mr. Barrieau a rough afternoon. He hopes to also convince the boxing fans that a real lightweight of class should be his title. Cross and Barrieau will climb into the ring at 1:30 in the afternoon and go twelve rounds. Harry Foley, the well known San Francisco manager, trainer, promoter and referee, will be the third man in the ring. Cross was in training in California when the match was made and continued his work on the train between San Francisco and Vancouver. The men will do 138 pounds at ringside. Cross thus giving Barrieau the advantage of about five pounds, inasmuch as the New Yorker can easily make 133 at ringside.

To Complete Island Link Connecting Vancouver with Capital of the Province.

(Special to The Daily News)
Vancouver, Aug. 30.—General Manager Holt, of the Canadian Northern Railway, has awarded a contract for the construction of a line from Patricia Bay to the entrance of the Songhees reserve, with terminal at Victoria. This will complete the island link of rail and ferry service between Vancouver and the provincial capital. The successful bidders are Macdonald & Nettleton and the Elsbach Company.

TROOPS STILL OBJECT TO SUCH POOR WAGES

Two Hundred and Forty Volunteer to Remain at Nanaimo Indefinitely.

(Special to The Daily News)
Nanaimo, Aug. 30.—The dissatisfaction among the troops in regard to low pay and the indefinite stay is growing. Many of the men are threatened with the loss of their positions, others fear the unions to which they belong will blacklist them if they remain longer. But two hundred and fifty of them have volunteered to remain and, as everything is now quiet, there is a belief that this number will be found sufficient.

Vancouver, Aug. 30.—Two hundred troops returned home from Nanaimo last night.

DIARY SHOWS GREAT BRITAIN SOUGHT FOR GERMAN ALLIANCE

PAPERS OF DEAD JAPANESE DIPLOMAT SHOW THAT BRITAIN WISHED TO INCLUDE GERMANY IN ALLIANCE WITH HERSELF AND JAPAN

London, Aug. 24.—The revelations that the diplomatic negotiations which finally resulted in the Anglo-Japanese alliance, first contemplated an Anglo-German-Japanese alliance, and that Germany was largely instrumental in starting it but was shut out by Japan, is made in the diary of the late Count Tadashi Hayashi, former Japanese ambassador to Great Britain and twice foreign minister, part of which has just come to light. The excerpts, the authenticity of which is not questioned, are expected to have a tremendous influence in European politics, as showing the desire of the British Government for an alliance with Germany. The Jiji Shimpo of Tokio printed portions of the Hayashi diary, but the Japanese government prohibited further publication and the censor suppressed telegrams sent by foreign correspondents in Japan reporting details. The diary showed that the British Government, under the premiership of the late Marquis of Salisbury, was in favor of the inclusion of Germany, but that Japan opposed it. Count Hayashi, in order to bring about the Anglo-Japanese alliance, hinted that Japan was ready to ally herself with Russia, if Great Britain was unwilling. Baron Hermann von Eckendorff, charge d'affaires of the German Embassy in London, according to the diary, made several visits to Count Hayashi during the spring of 1901. In proposing the formation of a triple alliance between Great Britain, Germany and Japan, he said he knew that the British Government and such personages as Joseph Chamberlain, Arthur J. Balfour, Lord Lansdowne, the Duke of Devonshire and the Marquis of Salisbury were in favor of it. He added that King Edward, Emperor William and Imperial Chancellor von Buelow had long conversations on the subject at Osborne in the Isle of Wight and were anxious for such a triple alliance. Count Hayashi finally approached Lord Lansdowne, then British secretary of state for foreign affairs, officially suggesting an Anglo-Japan agreement on a policy in China. Lord Lansdowne in reply said he thought a third power should be included. A programme was roughly drafted at that time and this afterward became the treaty of alliance. Japan suggested that the third party should be omitted from the alliance because Anglo-Japanese interests were identical.

ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING WAS CAUSE OF RUSSIAN'S DEATH

FATAL MISHAP IN AUSTRIAN HOTEL—REVOLVER, SUPPOSED TO BE EMPTY, CONTAINED SHELL WHICH DEALT DEATH TO OWNER.

An inquest is being held this afternoon into the circumstances attending the death of a Russian named Pylup Yaroflichuk, about 35 years of age, who came here from Troyanok, Russia. The man, who was commonly known as Pete, died in the hospital at 11 o'clock last night from a gunshot wound in the stomach. Everything points to the shooting having been accidental. It occurred about half past 6 yesterday evening in the Austrian Hotel. The man who fired the shot, M. Samoliski, an Austrian, was a close friend of the victim of the accident. Yaroflichuk was showing to Samoliski and one or two others an automatic revolver which he possessed. He believed it to be empty of shells when he handed it to Samoliski. One shell must have been in the revolver, however, and when the mechanism was set in motion it discharged itself into the abdomen of the owner. The wounded man was immediately taken to the hospital, where he died a few hours later, after stating that his death was due only to an accident. The police found that there was no attempt made by those present at the shooting to conceal any of the details. The only thing which they have been unable to locate is the revolver, which some one must have carried off.

SUSPICIOUS JAPANESE CRAFT ALLOWED TO TAKE DEPARTURE

VESSEL CONCERNING WHICH MANY STRANGE RUMORS HAVE BEEN CIRCULATED SAILED FOR NEW WESTMINSTER AT DAYBREAK.

The three masted Japanese steamer, the Kinkwasan Maru, which passed the Pacific ostensibly for the purpose of getting a cargo of salmon at New Westminster, at which, on account of various irregularities in her procedure, she was detained here for a number of days, first by the customs officials and then by the immigration authorities, has at last been allowed to continue her voyage. The vessel sailed at daybreak this morning for the Fraser River.

No information can as yet be obtained as to the cause of her detention here, and many would not be surprised if even yet something transpired which would show that the many rumors circulated concerning the object of the boat's voyage were not altogether groundless.

WORLD FAMED GEOLOGISTS ARRIVED BY THE MAQUINNA

FIFTY NOTED SCIENTISTS ARRIVED HERE THIS MORNING—ONE GROUP WENT TO MORICETOWN, THE OTHER IS SEEING PRINCE RUPERT.

The C. P. R. steamship Maquinna arrived here this morning with the party of fifty members of the Twelfth International Geological Congress, who are now touring the coast. The Maquinna, a handsome ship, well fitted for just such occasions as this, brought the distinguished visitors here at 10:30 this morning.

The party, which is composed of professors from many of the most famous universities of the world, celebrated mining engineers and government officials of note, was welcomed at the wharf by representatives of the city and the board of trade, and every opportunity was afforded the visitors of seeing the city. The scientists divided themselves into two groups, one group of seventeen going by special train to Moricetown, while the other group stayed to see Prince Rupert. Those who remained here were taken in a motor boat at 1:30 p. m. from the dock at the Prince Rupert Marine Iron Works to see the dry dock, the cold storage plant, the harbor and the city water supply. At 4:30 p. m. they are to leave on a motor car trip around the city and at 10 p. m. they leave by the steamship Maquinna for Granby Bay, returning here tomorrow evening to meet the members of the other group, who will by then have returned from Moricetown. On Monday morning the party will arrive at Ketchikan and on Tuesday morning at Juneau, where they will visit the Treadwell mine. From September 2 to September 8 is allowed for the trip to Malaspina, from Juneau to Yakutat and back to Skagway. Arriving at Skagway on the 8th, the party will again divide, one group returning to Victoria by the Maquinna, while the other proceeds to Dawson over the Yukon & White Pass Route.

The following are the members of the party:

- Aitken, George, geographer, government of British Columbia, Victoria.
- Baker, Sir Augustine, Dublin, Ireland.
- Bascom, Miss, Ph. D., U. S. Geological Survey, Bryn Mawr College, Pennsylvania.
- Brook, R. W., director Geological Survey, Ottawa.
- De Buggenois, L. E., consul honoraire de l'Equateur a Liege, Liege, Belgium.
- Cadell, H. M., Grange Linlithgow, Scotland.
- Cairnes, Dr. D. D., Geological Survey, Ottawa.
- Caries, Mrs.
- Carez, Leon, Paris.
- Carez, Madame.
- Charbonnier, J., manager West Canadian Collieries, Ltd., Blairmore, Alta.
- Coleman, Dr. A. P., professor of geology, University of Toronto.
- Depart, J., chef du service Geologique de l'Indochine, Hanoi, Indo-China.
- Fermor, Dr. L. L., Geological Survey of India.
- Fermor, Mrs.
- Lantenais, H., ingenieur en chef de la Circoscription des Mines de l'Indochine, Hanoi, Indo-China.

DAILY EDITION

Saturday, August 30, 1913.

THE MISSION OF
HON. MR. ROSS.

The present visit to Prince Rupert of Hon. W. R. Ross, minister of lands in the Provincial government, is a pleasant indication of the fact that the province realizes the great necessities of Prince Rupert and is considering what it can do to assist the city in the present emergency.

Prince Rupert is a city in a peculiar position. While it has today only a population of some six thousand souls it has to provide against tomorrow, which will swell the number to sixty thousand. And that tomorrow is rapidly approaching.
The statement made yesterday
by J. W. Stewart, of Foley Bros., Welch & Stewart, the contractors for the construction of the Grand Trunk Pacific line in this province, that steel would meet steel by next April shows how very near is the great booming time of Prince Rupert.

Against this period of rapid growth, necessitated by its position as terminal of the railroad that will drain the wealthy agricultural and mineral lands of all of Western Canada which is a few hundred miles north of the border, Prince Rupert simply must make some preparations. Owing to the present limited number of its citizens it cannot hope to make those preparations on as big a scale as it would like. Many things which are ordinarily considered as necessities of a comfortable life it cannot hope now to provide. But there are some things which are vital necessities, things which it would be criminal for a city of any considerable size to be without. The most important of these are a good sewage system and an adequate supply of pure water. These the city must have.

The peculiar situation of the city, which makes it appear as if it is requiring works out of all proportion to its needs, could not but place it at a great disadvantage in the eyes of the financiers of England, who could hardly be expected to appreciate local conditions.

In any case, during the present remarkably depressed condition of the money market it is next to impossible for the younger cities to market their debentures.

Under these circumstances it is but natural for the Provincial government to come to the aid of what will shortly be one of the greatest cities under its domain, a city in which, moreover, it has a very lucrative interest. The arrival here of Hon. Mr. Ross, who has come to estimate the extent of the city's needs, is the best of evidence that the province is prepared to fulfill its duty by giving the required assistance.

OUR SCIENTIFIC
VISITORS.

Prince Rupert is indeed fortunate today in having as its guests a party of distinguished geologists, gathered from all parts of the world. This city, which is itself a pioneer outpost of civilization in the world of action, would always welcome gladly any assemblage of distinguished scientists, for these are pioneers of civilization in the world of thought.
It has, however, a special pleasure in receiving a party of world known geologists, for it believes that to them more than to others it can reveal the rich future which time has in store for it.

It is to be hoped that our visitors during their brief survey of the surrounding country will be able to form some estimate of the great wealth of minerals which Northern British Columbia is certain soon to produce. They will then, too, realize how great is this one of the many factors which will contribute to making Prince Rupert one of the proudest cities of the Pacific.

THE LATEST FASHIONS

DISARMAMENT DISCUSSED AT UNIVERSAL PEACE CONGRESS

ALL CIVILIZED NATIONS WERE REPRESENTED AT RECENT CONFERENCE AT HAGUE—PROF. DE LOUTRE WAS ELECTED PRESIDENT.

The Hague, Aug. 21.—The chief work of the Twentieth Universal Peace Congress at its opening session here was the adoption of three resolutions dealing with disarmament. The first contained a request that the question of the restriction of armaments be included in the program of the next international Hague conference. The second protested against the sinister influence of persons interested in armament industries. The third recommended the consideration by peace societies of the draft of a general agreement for gradual disarmament. Professor Quidde, of the University of Munich, proposed this resolution in order that the next conference shall be in a position to discuss the subject with full information at hand.

All the civilized nations are represented, the delegates in attendance numbering 950, many of whom are women pacifists.
Premier Heemskert, of The Netherlands, extended a welcome to the delegates.
Professor De Loutre of Utrecht was elected president of the congress. In his inaugural address he proposed the idea of a super-national organization for the organization for the bringing about of peace. This, he contended, would only be accomplished by the development of international law with absolute independence for individual states. Internationalism and patriotism were not, Professor De Loutre thought, incompatible.

Other speakers claimed that in spite of recent events in the Balkans the idea of universal peace clearly was possible. During the session compliments were showered on Andrew Carnegie and his late fellow worker, T. M. C. Asser, minister of state, and delegate to The Netherlands to the first and second Hague Peace Conferences, who died on July 29.

The congress adopted a resolution that the differences between the United States and Great Britain regarding the Panama Canal act should be referred to The Hague court for arbitration.
In his presidential address, Professor De Loutre referred to the United States as the foremost nation in the peace movement and to the Palace of Peace as an expression of homage from the new world to the old world. He said that while the east was shrouded in darkness, the star of hope was ever brightening in the west.

Professor Quidde in moving his resolution severely blamed Germany for the last increase in armaments in Europe. He said there would have been no increase by France but for the action of Germany.

Much indignation has been expressed by the delegates at the failure to invite them to the opening of the peace palace. Not one of them originally was invited to the ceremony and after pressure had been applied only four have received invitations.

Peace Congress Adjourns.

The Hague, Aug. 23.—The Twentieth Universal Peace Congress held its closing sitting in the Knights Hall today. The delegates voted to hold the next congress at Vienna in 1914, and it was decided to take to that congress the invitation of the mayor of San Francisco to hold the 1915 congress in San Francisco.

Dear Sir - Coln. Frazer kindly made a statement last night in which he expressed my very great appreciation for the kindness and for the feeling for fair play found in Canada. I hope you may be able to make use of his statement which extend to about a column. Tomorrow about mid day I think I shall have some articles from New York that may interest and possibly surprise your readers. I regret that I can say nothing at present but thank you for the request. Yours sincerely, W. Thaw

FIGHTING FOR POSSESSION OF THE BURNS' MANUSCRIPTS

SOLICITORS ARE LOOKING FOR A DIRECT DESCENDANT OF THE POET—LORD ROSEBERRY GIVES HIS VIEW OF THE SITUATION.

London, Aug. 25.—A romantic search for lost heirs and protracted litigation may both result from the sale by the Liverpool Athenaeum of the Glenriddell Burns manuscripts to an American. It appears that Sothebys still retain possession of the manuscripts awaiting the outcome of the threatened litigation by the various societies which would retain the manuscripts in this country.

A Liverpool firm of solicitors is preparing the case on behalf of the societies, and the proceedings will be started as soon as they have discovered and identified a direct descendant of "Bobbie" Burns, although the likelihood of the contestant being successful against the right of the Athenaeum to dispose of the manuscripts, seeing that they have been in that body's possession for sixty years, may not, on the face of it, appear strong.

The solicitors in question hold the view that the title of a legal descendant of Burns has not been ousted and that a very good case can be put before the courts. In this connection it may be stated that the Scottish law on title is stronger than that of England and a correspondingly stronger fight can be made in Scottish courts than would be the case in England.

MASSET NOTES

The Masset rural school, in charge of Mr. Thomas Richards, was opened Monday morning with an enrollment of fifteen. There are about a dozen others of school age who will enroll later.

An unknown fishing launch was wrecked Monday night near Long's survey camp. The occupants were taken care of at the camp and will endeavor to repair their craft.

Charles Clayton, a well known resident of the north, and a brother of Dr. Clayton of Prince Rupert, was taken seriously ill during the week and left on the Albert for Prince Rupert.

Lord Roseberry has expressed the opinion that Mrs. Currie had no claim to the Glenriddell manuscripts and no power to give them to the Liverpool Athenaeum, which, consequently, had no power to dispose of them.

M. S. McDougall came in from the Yakoun River country this week on a brief visit to the metropolis of Masset Inlet.

Mrs. Watson of Woden River left on the John last week on a three months' visit to Lodi, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Williams of Graham Centre were visitors here during the week.

C. M. Wilson returned last week from Prince Rupert.

C. Harrison, fisheries inspector, returned yesterday from his tour of inspection of the plants at the south end of the island.

The B. C. Fisheries Co. is in the hands of a receiver. The cannery is still running, but fishing operations by this company have ceased.—Masset Leader.

WOMAN'S NUDE BODY FOUND COLD IN DEATH

Wife of Notorious Portland Physician Takes Her Own Life.

Portland, Aug. 25.—Mrs. Harry Start, wife of Dr. Harry Start, a physician and one of Portland's notorious vice clique, who was released on appeal after conviction and left for Hongkong, committed suicide with morphine in her home in one of the fashionable residence districts. Since her husband's acquittal and his departure for the Orient, Mrs. Start has refused to mingle with neighbors, admitted no one to the house and refused to answer telephone calls, while at night her moans could be heard for a block until the neighbors' sleep was disturbed.

This morning was found on the porch of the Start home a letter from Dr. Start to his wife telling of his plans for himself and her in the Orient. The door was forced open by the police when notified, and the woman's nude body found at the door of the stairs, death having been caused by an overdose of morphine, to which she was addicted. Mrs. Start was a strikingly handsome woman.

The diligent fostering of a candid habit of mind, even in trifles, is a matter of high moment, both to character and opinions.—Howson.

WOMAN BURNED TO DEATH IN KITCHEN

She Paid Terrible Penalty for Lighting Fire in Range with Alcohol.

Wenatchee, Wash., Aug. 26.—Miss Clara Jensen, 20 years old, died yesterday from burns received Sunday morning. She was maid at the H. O. Butler home and was using denatured alcohol to kindle a fire in the kitchen range to prepare breakfast.

There was an instant explosion, covering the maid with blazing liquid. Terrified, she ran out on the lawn and was instantly followed by Mr. Butler, who covered her with a blanket.

Inhalation of flame and nervous shock were said to be the immediate cause of death.

HIS STAR WANING Caruso Is in Mood of Philosophie Melancholy.

Rome, Aug. 26.—Caruso, who is taking the cure with his eldest son at Monte Catini, is in a philosophical mood. To a newspaperman he said today: "It is about time the public ceased to take an interest in me. There are plenty of young stars rising who soon will shine with dazzling brilliancy in the firmament of art. Mine is dimming. Don't you think so?" Then he sadly shook his head and walked slowly away.

TRANSPARENT COSTUME CAUSED GIRL TROUBLE

German Damsel Wearing X-Ray Gown Was Detained by Immigration Officials.

Philadelphia, Aug. 26.—As she stood for a moment silhouetted against a bright sun, wearing an X-Ray gown, the appearance of Miss Maria Mayor of Stettin, Germany, caused a stir among passengers, immigration officials, interpreters and hundreds of persons who met on the steamship Cassel, which arrived here today from Bremen.

Then came the run down the gang plank. She seemed not to mind the bulging eyes of the passengers and officials, nor to realize that her flimsy costume was in any way unusual, until it came her turn to pass the immigration officials.

The inspectors took one look, and Miss Mayor was ordered detained. The reasons were not given out, but Inspector Hughes of the Gloucester detention station would not deny the statement that it was because she was not properly clothed. Hers was no ordinary, everyday X-Ray costume seen every warm day on Chestnut street. It was more, or rather less, than that—it was the real thing in transparent flimsiness, and it might have been made of mosquito netting.

A man is all right in his way as long as he keeps out of your way.

The Ever-Present Gillette

Wherever you see men buying razors, in drug, jewelry or hardware stores—wherever you see men shaving, in club or Pullman, or home—there you will inevitably find the Gillette Safety Razor purchased and used.

It has won the approval, almost the affection, of busy men whose time it saves—of thrifty men whose cash it saves—of particular men who value a clean, smooth face—of average men who never could shave comfortably with any other razor.

That's why over six million men use the Gillette, and why you can buy Gillette Safety Razors and Blades at practically every good Hardware, Jewelry and Drug Store in this town.

Standard Gillette Sets cost $5.00—Pocket Editions $5.00 to $6.00—Combination Sets $6.50 up. 6 double-edged blades, 50c.—12 Blades (24 shaving edges), in nickel-plated box, $1.00.

HUBERT

The Big Three of Central British Columbia

Years ago, when the main line of the Grand Trunk Pacific was first located through Central British Columbia, we made a most careful and systematic survey and investigation of this new territory. Aided by engineers, surveyors and the immense amount of data assembled, we were able to locate the sites of the future large cities and trade centres of this wonderful new country—Fort George, Hubert and New Hazelton. Fort George, the first of these new cities promoted and developed by us, needs no introduction—it is known throughout the civilized world. Its success has been record-breaking—it is sure to develop into one of the big cities of British Columbia.

Fort George conclusively demonstrated the accuracy of our judgment. Hubert, the second of these new cities, will soon be placed on the market. Back of the development and promotion of this new city will be the same organization, the same management and the same careful and systematic development, and a like amount of liberal advertising that placed Fort George in the front rank of the new cities of Western Canada.

LAD RESCUED FROM WATERS OF INLET

Masset Pleasure Party Narrowly Escapes Tragic Ending to Its Outing.

A party of nineteen Masset people, comprising six ladies, twelve men and a boy, returned at an early hour Tuesday morning on the Westover from a several days' fishing and pleasure trip up the inlet.

The trip was marked by a thrilling event, which, had it not been for the daring of one of the party, might easily have resulted in tragedy. While the launch was in the Ain River, at a point where the water was deep and the current swift, young Cyril Harrison lost his footing on deck and fell backward into the brine.

Charley Ives was the only person on deck at the time. Shouting the usual nautical warning of "man overboard," he hastened to the rescue. Divesting himself of his coat he sprang overboard just in time to catch young Harrison as the latter was disappearing for the third time.

While ashore he tripped and fell over a stump and in the fall injured himself so severely that he fainted. Some of the people on the boat noticed the accident and hastened to his assistance.

Parties arranged for Guides, launches, tents and supplies found. See Stalker & Wells. 204-5
