

RESIDENT CHAMBERLIN KNIGHTED BY THE KING

CHAIRMAN SMITHERS CONFIDENTLY ASSERTS THAT THE ROAD WILL BE FINISHED NEXT YEAR

CHAIRMAN SMITHERS CONFIDENT LINE IS LINKED UP NEXT YEAR

PRINCE RUPERT WILL ALWAYS CONTINUE MAIN PORT, BUT COMPANY WILL LEASE LINE FROM FORT GEORGE TO VANCOUVER.

(Special to The Daily News) Montreal, Sept. 9.—"I do not think there are many people at home who consider Canada over-rated," said Mr. Smithers, chairman of the board of directors of the Grand Trunk Pacific, last upon his return from a trip to the west. "There is not any inequality in Canada that I know of which is unable to pay its debts. The fact is that the opinion has been getting abroad that we are getting too cheap in the past; we will have to pay more for our goods in the future." Mr. Smithers asserted as a fact that the Grand Trunk Pacific will be completed next year. He said there would be no letting up in the building operations as long as there was a mile of steel to be laid between the eastern and western terminals. President Chamberlin is going over some of the branches and to the end of steel. Mr. Smithers is to await here until he returns. "When I return to England," continued Mr. Smithers, "it will be as one sharing the confidence of Canadians with British friends in the Grand Trunk Pacific enterprise and its bright future. As to the west, Prince Rupert, of course, will always continue to be our main port, but we shall also operate a line to Vancouver. We intend to lease the line now under construction from Fort George to Vancouver."

SUBWAY TUNNEL FOR PROVINCIAL BUILDING

Will Run from First Avenue to Third and Through the Basement of the Building.

Formal application was made by the provincial government, through Agent McMullin, to the city council last night for leave to drive a subway from First to Third avenue into the basement of the provincial buildings, now in course of erection. This subway will pass under the street surrounding the building, which is now known as Government place, the entrance being opposite Manson way and the exit below the Japanese boarding house on Third avenue. The board of works having looked into the matter with the city engineer, they approved of the plans and the council endorsed the board's recommendation.

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE FOR THE COMING FAIR

Council Advances $1,500 to Fair Directors to Assist Them in Necessary Financing.

On a request from the directors of the Northern B. C. Agricultural and Industrial Association the city council last night voted in favor of an advance of $1,500 to the association. The city council some time ago pledged itself to grant to the exhibition a sum equal to that raised from other sources, not including the government grant. In view of the fact that the association has already raised $3,365 the finance committee recommended that an advance be made.

ANTI-CHINESE RIOTS CONTINUE IN TOKIO

Now Taking the Form of Window Smashing and the Wrecking of Tram Cars.

(Special to The Daily News) Tokio, Sept. 9.—The anti-Chinese demonstrations continue and are now taking the form of window smashing and wrecking the tram cars. The tram cars were put in by an American firm. Several Chinese have been severely beaten and among the windows smashed are those of the foreign office.

POOL ROOM LICENSES

At the meeting of the city council last night the application from the proprietors of pool rooms for a reduction in the license fees, which came up at the last meeting of the council, was replied to. The licensing committee reported that it could not see any way to granting the reduction at present, and the council adopted this report.

The school has been placed in charge of Miss Taylor, who has been substituting for Miss Moore at Seal Cove. Miss Beatty has taken charge of the Seal Cove school for the present.

NEW TRICKS AND DODGES OF LAWYERS PROTECTING THAW

WILLIAM TRAVERS JEROME IS ARRESTED FOR GAMBLING—SCORED BY THE LOCAL DOGERRRY, BUT HONORABLY DISCHARGED BY STIPENDIARY MAGISTRATE.

(Special to The Daily News) Coaticooke, Que., Sept. 9.—Another phase in the legal quibbles regarding the detention of Thaw came up in the trial of William Travers Jerome for gambling. Jerome was retained by New York state to bring about the fugitive slayer's return to Matteawan, and only once has he been known to relax his vigil on Thaw's movements or those of his lawyers. This unlucky moment led to his arrest. While waiting at the Grand Trunk depot for the train that was to carry him to New York he sat down for an informal game of cards with the reporters. The Thaw lawyers probably remarked the quiet game going on around Jerome's suitcase, for in a few minutes Policeman John Andrews, in a somewhat diffident manner, informed Mr. Jerome that he was under arrest for gambling. He was in the jail an hour before bail in $500 was procured, when he was released, after a scorching by Justice of the Peace James McKee, who said they intended to prosecute the defendant to the full extent of the law, saying: "He cannot come here and play his cards before our children. Foreign lawyers, foreign sheriffs and foreign bailiffs have hurt the dignity of the British courts of law in the Thaw case." All this occurred on Friday, but when the case came up for trial yesterday before the stipendiary magistrate, Mr. Jerome was very differently treated. The magistrate found Jerome not guilty of the charge of gambling and stated that he was honorably discharged. Soon after he left for New York. What quibble the Thaw lawyers will put up next is a matter of interesting speculation. The decision at his trial on the 15th is likely to be against him, as this is what his lawyers are playing for. Then appeal will likely follow, right up to the privy council, during which Stanford White's murderer will be enjoying his liberty.

Ottawa, Sept. 9.—Three members of the Dominion police, a sergeant and two constables, have been detailed to guard Thaw at Coaticooke.

CANADIANS HONORED BY THE AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION

TIME THAT THE ASSOCIATION HAS GONE OUTSIDE OF THE UNITED STATES FOR A CHOICE OF HONORARY MEMBERS.

(Special to The Daily News) Montreal, Sept. 6.—Ex-President William H. Taft was elected president of the bar association at the close of the annual meeting. From the Canadian standpoint the most notable feature of the proceedings was the unanimous election of twelve Canadians to the position of honorary members of the American Bar Association. This was the first time that the association had gone outside of the United States for a choice of honorary members. The list of honorary members, followed by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Sir Francois Langelier, lieutenant governor of Quebec; Hon. C. J. Doherty, Sir Charles Fitzpatrick Hon. Horace Archambault, Sir Charles Peers Davidson, chief justice of Montreal; Professor Michael Mathew, Dean Waldon of the McGill law faculty, Mayor Lavalle, J. E. Martin, K. C., batonnier of the Quebec bar, and R. C. Smith, K. C., who had been so instrumental in inducing the American Bar Association to meet in Montreal. Outside of Canadians, the only choice of an honorary member for the association was that of Maitre Gustave Labori, leader of the French bar.

COAL SITUATION IS SERIOUS; CONSUMERS BETTER PREPARE

ATTLE CANNOT SUPPLY PRESENT DEMAND—AUSTRALIAN COAL COMING TO VANCOUVER—NO BRITISH COLUMBIA COAL IN SIGHT.

H. Rogers, of the firm of Rogers & Black, who returned on Chelohsin this morning from Seattle and Vancouver, reports that the coal situation is becoming very serious. There is practically no British Columbia coal available and the Seattle harbor is congested with barges and ships waiting to get shipments to Vancouver and other B. C. ports. Mr. Rogers went to Seattle for the express purpose of getting a supply for local consumption. He was successful in getting a shipment of only 200 tons. He had an order for 500 tons more, but it is impossible to say when he can get it. The city of Vancouver is experiencing the same difficulties in getting an ample supply.

Shipments of Australian coal have been received there, but the price ranges from $11 to $15 per ton. There seems to be little likelihood of improved conditions during the approaching winter, and householders here who do not wish to suffer inconvenience will be acting wisely in laying in a supply for the winter whenever it is available. Mr. Rogers intends making another trip to Seattle in a few days to make arrangements for further shipments if possible.

POSTMASTER GENERAL'S VISIT TO CANADA OF DEEP INTEREST

TO GET FULLY IN TOUCH WITH THE DOMINION FROM COAST TO COAST—HE MAY VISIT PRINCE RUPERT

London, Sept. 6.—Various publishers here are asserting that the visit of Postmaster General Samuel to Canada is connected with a great scheme of cable reform between the Dominion and England. This is incorrect. His primary purpose is to carry into effect, on behalf of the British Cabinet, a resolution passed two years ago by the Imperial Conference that Ministers of the United Kingdom and Dominions should, between conferences, pay reciprocal visits. Samuel's visit is the first attempt in this direction, the British Government's representative, Lord Emmott, being merely passing through to Australia. Samuel will discuss many postal matters with the Canadian post office, but they will be most ly departmental details, rather than of public interest. He will examine with particular care recent developments in telephone systems, including the Albertan automatic telephones. He will take every opportunity of getting fully in touch with Canadian life from coast to coast. He is bound to make a favorable impression. Young, enthusiastic and a masterly administrator, he is also a politician, has while occupying the position of Postmaster General, introduced many reforms and made himself the effective as well as the nominal head of his department. He has ruthlessly broken through red tape. He is the most brilliant financier and administrator among our younger statesmen, and possesses no mere personal charm.

PLAYING POKER AND POLITICS.

A bold admission that Mr. Fielding could beat Mr. Borden at poker is made by the Red Deer News. It says:

"The Lethbridge Herald is horrified to hear that Mr. Fielding and Mr. Borden were playing golf together. We don't know much about golf, but we bet two-bits that if they were playing poker Mr. Fielding would skin his opponent so badly that he wouldn't know which end he was standing on in about two jiffs.

"That was one of the tributes the Yankees paid Mr. Fielding at the time he arranged the reciprocity pact. He was accused of having dealt the cards and drawn the best hand, beating Uncle Sam to a pulp. Mr. Borden is not a good poker player. He changes his mind too much, for one thing, and then he is afraid to show his hand. He'd rather buy the chips and cards and have somebody else to play for him.

"On the other hand, Mr. Fielding, when he sits in his political poker game, plays for the common good. He won't be bluffed, and he never throws his hand up. He plays his own game, too. In that respect he is emblematic of Liberal policy on the navy. They believe in playing the game themselves, putting up the cards, and the players, too. As before said,

Mr. Borden prefers taking the glory out of the winnings of some other fellows playing with Canada's cards."

HEAVY EXPENSES BUT NO RESULTS.

Hon. George E. Foster has returned from his tour as the commercial traveller of the Dominion to the Antipodes. He started for Australia on February 19 and, although he has been away so long, as the minister of trade and commerce he does not appear to have been missed at cabinet meetings or anywhere else in Canada. During his journey he has visited New Zealand, Australia, China, Japan, and has stopped off at various other places. Mr. Foster's six months' journey cannot be said to have resulted in much benefit to Canada. It has not widened our markets one inch. Mr. Foster has brought back no orders. The only apparent result of his long and expensive journey is a "prospect" from Australia. Possibly at some future time the Australians may agree to a mutual preference with Canada. As the Dominion's commercial traveller Hon. George E. Foster can hardly be called a success. Undoubtedly, however, like Hon. Mr. Crothers, Colonel Sam Hughes, Hon. Louis Coderre and others, he has enjoyed a magnificent trip with a big expense account for the Dominion to pay.

AWFUL ATROCITIES ADMITTED BY SEVERAL GREEK SOLDIERS

LETTERS CAPTURED BY ENEMIES TELL OF UNBELIEVABLE CRUELITIES—PRISONERS EYES ARE GOUGED OUT WHILE THEY WERE STILL ALIVE

Sofia, Aug. 28.—(By mail to New York).—In order to prove that Greek soldiers were responsible for numerous atrocities against the Bulgarians in the fighting last July between Bulgaria and her former allies, Greece, Serbia and Montenegro, there have been made public in Sofia extracts from letters by Greek soldiers and officers to friends at home.

These letters were captured in a mail box of the nineteenth regiment of the Seventh Greek Division by Bulgarian troops in the vicinity of Razlog.

They were given out by the Bulgarian telegraphic agency in pamphlet form. Each letter is printed in fac simile in the original Greek and is followed by a translation in French, which gives the dates and the names signed to each communication.

Massacre Everywhere

The first letter is dated July 11, and the last July 15. Extracts from some of these communications of Greek soldiers and officers follow:

"We have burned all the villages abandoned by the Bulgarians. They ruined the Greek villages and we ruined the Bulgarian villages. They massacre, we massacre, and the Manlicher has operated against each member of this dishonest nation and has fallen into our hands. Out of 1200 prisoners that we took at Nigrita only forty-one remained in prison, and everywhere we went we have left no root of this race."

Another letter from a sergeant says:

"We burned the villages of Dautli and Baniza and put everything to the bayonet or the flame, making exception only of women, children and old persons and churches. We did all this without pity and without grace."

Gouge Out Eyes

A third letter, dated Nestorixori, July 10, says:

"Here at Verondi I captured five Bulgarians and a girl from Serres. We shut them in the police station. While they were still alive we gouged out their eyes."

A letter from Rhodopes, July 11, says:

"From Serres to the frontier we burned every Bulgarian village."

One dated July 13 says: "Everybody has fled from these Bulgarian villages. Those who remain are 'eaten up' by the Malicher and we have also burned some villages."

A soldier named George, writing to his brother at Rome, on July 12, says:

"We have enraged the Bulgarians by burning their villages and whenever we find one or two we kill them like sparrows."

HAZELTON NOTES.

A shortage of beef has been caused in Aldermere by the loss of five beef cattle which strayed before butchering time.

James Morgan, who has just returned from a trip to Ootsa Lake, declares the crops in that section are the finest he has yet seen in the lake district.

H. E. Walker, provincial agriculturist, visited the ranchers of Francois and Ootsa lakes. He was much pleased with the appearance of the country.

The appointment of J. Mason Adams as postmaster at Smithers will be confirmed shortly, and a regular mail service will probably be instituted with little delay.

The wagon road from Pleasant Valley to Francois Lake is making rapid progress. The work has reached a point on the Buck River 105 miles from Hazelton.

The rail head has now reached John Albi's camp, in the upper Bulkley, where camps are being established, and it is expected Foley, Welch & Stewart's freighting headquarters will be moved up there within the next week or so.

A drive of logs for the mill of the Bulkley Valley Lumber Co. has been in operation during the past week. The lumber industry just now is one of the most important in the valley and we can confidently predict that every stick cut will be sold before the opportunity to again drive will occur in the spring.

SOUTH AFRICA OPPOSES IMPERIAL PREFERENCE

Would Raise Duties on British Goods to Maximum and Assist Imperial Navy.

London, Sept. 6.—The South African government contemplates the abolition of the imperial preference. It is held that such preference has largely failed in its real purpose. It enables continental manufacturers to import quantities of foreign goods as British under the lower schedule. It complicates the customs business and does not cheapen prices.

Many maintain that South African consumers do not get any benefit from the preference. This abolition will be proposed as part of a plan for raising money for increased contributions toward the imperial navy. The ministerial organ proposes that duties on British goods should be raised to the maximum in order to provide funds for increased contributions to the British navy without cost to the South African taxpayer.

G. T. P. Crow's Nest Line.

Calgary, Sept. 4.—Engineer Carleton, of the Grand Trunk Pacific, announced that his road will undertake the construction of a line through Moosejaw, Medicine Hat and the Crow's Nest country into Southern British Columbia. The Calgary-Edmonton line will be extended south to make connections with the proposed line, work on which will be commenced in the spring.

Dawson Pioneer Dead.

George Trenholm, a pioneer of Dawson, met death last week at Port Townsend, Washington, by falling out of a second storey window at the Northwestern sanitarium and breaking his back, one leg and sustaining internal injuries.

Strike Over-Rated

San Gourlay and R. Doverspike are back from a hurried trip to investigate the new strike at Shushana. Mr. Gourlay returned on the Thursday boat. In conversation with The Miner he said that the new strike had been over-estimated and that there were already many hundreds of disappointed prospectors and merchants returning from the scene of the diggings. Captain John Irving, who recently left here for the north has also returned to his home in Victoria, thoroughly satisfied that the stampede is not justified. The diggings, the admit, are shallow and the paystreak no where near the length originally reported.—Portland Canal Miner.

HOW MORAN PUT TO SLEEP THE IOWA HEAVYWEIGHT IN SEVENTH

MORAN STARTED FIGHTING FROM THE BEGINNING AND PALZER SHOWED SIGNS OF GROGGINESS—WOMAN AT THE FIGHT.

The Daily News published a brief despatch giving the result of the meeting in New York of Frank Moran, the Pittsburg heavyweight, with Al. Palzer of Iowa, and the following is a supplementary account:

When the men stepped into the ring Moran looked trained to the hour, while Palzer was a bit flabby and did not look to be in the best of condition. Moran started to force the fighting at the beginning, playing with left hooks to the head, while Palzer tried hard for the body. Both missed several blows, but Moran did the most damage. In this, as well as in all the following rounds, Moran had the better of the fighting.

In the sixth Moran, with two rights to the jaw in succession, knocked Palzer down again for a count of nine seconds. Palzer was only on his feet a couple of

BUD ANDERSON NOW AFTER F. BARRIEAU

Oregon Lightweight Will Come to Vancouver for Match with Local Favorite.

Portland, Sept. 8.—A bout between Frank Barrieau, the northwest lightweight, who fought Leach Cross to a standstill on Labor Day, and Bud Anderson may be the next match of interest to northwestern fans.

Bud, whose recovery from the effects of his recent operation has been more rapid than was anticipated, stated today that he feels the lust of battle within him and that his manager would soon begin seeking a likely opponent.

Donald and Anderson will go to Vancouver in the near future, and it is believed that a bout with Barrieau will be arranged.

IS MAPPING DISTRICT

S. Irwin, district forester, with headquarters at Prince Rupert was here last week to help straighten out some conflicting surveys at the junction of American creek and the Bear River. While here he met P. S. Bonney and S. Brown of the Forestry branch of the department of lands. Mr. Bonney has been in the field all summer mapping a huge territory from the mouth of the Naas up to Meziadin lake, including all the tributary streams. He came to Stewart to purchase additional supplies before going into the Groundhog district. His work embraces mapping timber areas and limits, examining the general forest conditions besides triangulation and contour work showing the topography, trails, drainage, etc., of the country through which he passes.—Portland Canal Miner.

YOUNGEST BRITISH COLUMBIA VOLCANOES

Results of a Recent Study of Garibaldi and Its Neighbors.

Professor Burwash, who has been at work on the geology of British Columbia for several years, has returned from an examination of Garibaldi, which may have the effect of placing that splendid mountain and some of its neighbors in the position of being the youngest volcanoes in the province. He went up to the recent summer camp of the B. C. Mountaineering Club, and, accompanied by the president, Mr. W. J. Gray, made a careful study of the district. He found that Garibaldi, Red Mountain and another smaller volcano have been built upon a glaciated surface about 5,000 feet high. None of the three volcanoes bears the marks of glaciation, except in so far as their own home grown glaciers have been able to modify their outlines in some very slight degree. But the work of such local glaciers requires very careful looking for; whereas the piles stand up has been glaciated so intensely that even the inexperienced eye can recognize it. The lava streams which flowed from the volcanoes, and the beds of tuff which were formed by the accumulation of the fragmentary material blown out of their craters during eruption, are all to be traced, cold, black and forbidding, lying upon the gently undulating surface of the glaciated plateau.

Professor Burwash believes the evidence he has obtained sufficient to prove that these volcanoes came into existence during the second stage of the glacial epoch. He regards it as very doubtful, however, if the volcanic action had begun when the first stage of the glacial epoch was on. The general moulding of the platform on which Garibaldi stands was done during that earlier stage, when the ice spread far and piled high.

These are very important results. Something of the geological interest of the district was recognized by the members of the mountaineering club during the summer camps. The photographs which appeared in the Northern Cordilleran, together with the descriptive notes of Messrs. Gray and Samson, showed the desirability of having an examination made by a geological expert. Now that this has been done an important additional interest has been given to the Alpine hinterland of Vancouver.

AGED MISSIONARY DEAD Archdeacon Macdonald Passes Away as Age of 84.

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 29.—Venerable Archdeacon Macdonald, one of the oldest and most widely known of the early Anglican missionaries of the north-land, died yesterday at his residence after an illness of five months.

Venerable Archdeacon Robert Macdonald was the son of one of the intrepid band of explorers which ranged the northern seas under Sir John Franklin. He was born at Point Douglas in 1829. Educated at St. John's College, Winnipeg, he was one of its first graduates. He was ordained a deacon in 1852 and a priest a year later. He served first as a missionary for the C. M. S., at Islington, on the Winnipeg River, in 1862. He then went to Fort Yukon, where he labored for eight years. Then the missionary traveled to the Porcupine River, where he spent a year, then travelling to the Peace River for another year. He was appointed archdeacon of McKenzie River in 1876, and it was only in 1906 that he retired through ill health.

A NEW FALL COAT This fashion hint direct from Paris shows a natty coat model for fall wear. The pleated effect and belt give it a graceful appearance. It is particularly adaptable for motoring.

THE PRICE OF HOMAGE. ONCE when King Edward VII. paid a visit to Sheffield, all the fires in factories and plants were allowed to die out. Not a wheel in Sheffield turned for twenty-four hours. The primary object of this was to lift the pall of smoke that hovers over that wonderful steel-producing city, and to ensure, as far as man was able, a bright day and a blue sky for an auspicious occasion. It was Sheffield's expression of respect. BUT the action was unique—it was unprecedented—it was unthought of that those hundreds of mighty furnaces, raging night and day, and those seething boilers, with quivering valves, should ever be allowed to cool. This extinguishing of fires cost Sheffield hundreds of thousands of dollars—the price of the effort to get back again to high-power efficiency. SOME business men in Canada pay an unwitting homage, not to a king, but to a superstition—the superstition that hot weather justifies letting the fires of business energy go out. They stop Advertising in the Summer months. By paying homage to tradition, custom, superstition, they have allowed Summer to become their "dull" season. You know how dull it can be when you don't advertise. Do you know how brisk it can be made by Advertising? Do you realize how much momentum you now lose in the Summer that must be regained in the Fall? DON'T LET YOUR ADVERTISING FIRES DIE OUT THIS SUMMER. Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any recognized Canadian advertising agency, or the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 605, Lansden Building, Toronto. Your WEEKLY LETTER Home How difficult it is, sometimes, to carry out your good intention of writing a letter every week to your relatives or friends back home or in the particular locality in which you lived before you settled in Northern British Columbia. A good way out of the difficulty is to order the "Weekly News" to be sent to them. It gives all the news of Prince Rupert a district. You will accomplish a twofold purpose by doing so. Not only will you be sending a weekly letter home, but you will be contributing in no small means to the advertising abroad of Prince Rupert and Northern B. C. Just think how a newspaper from Prince Rupert will be passed on by your faraway friend to some other person who will be interested in learning something of the wonderful opportunities of this pioneer land. Is it not your duty to do that much for your city? It would be money well invested. The "Weekly News" posted to any place in Canada or the United Kingdom is only $2.00 per year; to points in the United States, $2.50 per year.

MUNICIPALITIES WANT WIDER RANGE OF POWER BY-LAWS (Continued from page 1) The local improvement act to be the matter requiring first consideration and are pleased to be able to report that practically all the suggestions made by your solicitor have been adopted, and will in due course be placed before the government by the executive of the Union with a view of getting legislation to put them into effect. The only changes from your solicitor's report were that the convention did not think that Section Nine gave the council too great powers and with regard to the penalty for delinquency in payment of special rates the convention thought that the councils should have the power to pass a bylaw inflicting the penalty in its discretion, whereas your solicitor's original report recommended that the statute should inflict the penalty without the necessity of a bylaw. We do not consider the change very material. The proposed municipal act was carefully considered, and numerous suggestions made. It would be unnecessary to state all or even a large number of these suggestions. We content ourselves with specially mentioning one clause which was on the line of giving councils powers to pass bylaws on matters not specifically referred to in Section 53 and which was adopted. This clause provides for such bylaws being passed authorizing the construction of any kind of work or doing any act deemed to be in the public interest, not specially mentioned and is safeguarded by reference to the votes and the consent of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council. The remaining suggestions including those made by your solicitor, were shortly debated in the convention, and at the suggestion of the resolutions committee were referred to the executive of the Union to be taken up by them with the Government. Resolutions dealing with several questions affecting municipalities were brought up and of these several were adopted, the most important being a resolution that the charge of municipalities for the keep of prisoners imposed last year was unfair and another resolution asking improvements in the laws relating to the proper provision for the keep of the families of persons who either intentionally or imprudently fail to properly support them. A resolution was passed re-appointing Mr. McDiarmid as counsel to attend the house at a salary of $1,000. After hearing his report as to what was done this year and also consulting various other members of the convention, especially Mr. Weart, who was at Victoria at the same time, we are of opinion that this resolution is a wise one and that our city might well join. Your solicitor was appointed one of the executive and this should enable you to obtain information perhaps more readily than if you were not represented on that board. This being the first delegation from Prince Rupert which has attended the convention of the union we express the opinion that from an educative point of view these meetings seem to us to promise very good results. The opportunity they afford for the interchange of the views from different cities must be of great value. The next convention will be held at Kamloops. This choice being made on account of a tacit understanding that the meetings should be held alternately on the coast and the interior, but amongst various delegates there was a strong desire that the 1915 convention should be held at Prince Rupert. The delegates of the convention, including ourselves, were treated with the greatest hospitality by the Progress Club and the city of Vancouver. All of which is respectfully submitted. JOHN DYBHAVN, FRED PETERS.

THREE MONTHS' TERM FOR STEALING CLOTHES. Hector Ballantyne, alias Boston Bob, charged with stealing from a Chinese laundry on Ninth avenue, was given a term of three months at New Westminster. He appeared before Magistrate Carrs this morning.

THE PALACE OF PEACE OPENING WAS IGNORED. British Press Regarded it as Amiable Fad for Disposing of Carnegie's Millions. London, Sept. 6.—The opening of the palace of peace and the proceedings of the peace congress have been regarded in England with almost complete indifference. Press and public here treat the whole affair as an amiable fad for disposing of part of Carnegie's millions, which has no practical bearing upon the realities of international affairs. The movement is criticized as having gone forward on wrong lines, seeking to overcome difficulties by ignoring them, seeking imaginary Utopias, making itself ridiculous by facilities such as debate on the creation of an international fleet for the preservation of peace under the command of permanent council admirals, while leaving undone the vastly more practical work of educating public sentiment, which should occupy it first.

TIME TO GET BUSY. Telkwa Wants Representation at Rupert's Fair. Miners and prospectors should begin early in the month to prepare an exhibit for the coming Prince Rupert fair that will show the visitors to that city the true standing of our district—the leading mineral district of the interior. An organized effort should be effected and headquarters established somewhere in town where claim owners coming in from their property could leave their samples. In this way a large number of samples could be obtained without much effort on the part of any one individual. Guy Farrow has promised to look after the exhibit of farm produce and there is no reason why this district could not send in the best display of that nature that can be collected from any other section tributary to Prince Rupert.—Telkwa Tribune.
