DUBLIN POLICE AND STRIKERS ENJOY A DONNYBROOK—FIRST TEA PARTY IN AN AIRSHIP

WORLD FAMOUS GEOLOGISTS ON THEIR RETURN FROM KLONDIKE

AN GRAVELS AND STUDY GEOLOGICAL FORMATION ON FAMOUS CREEKS TO DISCOVER HOW THEY OBTAINED THEIR GOLDEN DEPOSITS.

Shortly after 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon the Princess Sophia landed here in the rain the members of the International Geological Congress who had made the trip into the Yukon interior as far as Dawson. The rain, they said as they shook hands with their friends they had made here their journey north, did not surprise them, as they had had it with them all the way from Whitehorse. Also, it seemed to be a rainy season all over the continent.

But on the journey up and un- they arrived back at Whitehorse they had experienced the most delightful weather; in Dawson it was particularly delightful. It was not what they naturally expected to find, remarked G. B. Wilbraham of London, England, on the edge of the Arctic Circle. The sunshine was as bright, he said, and the skies as blue with little clouds of white as could be seen along the famous Riviera.

R. W. Brock, director of the geological survey department of the Dominion, was the pilot of the party throughout the entire Twelve Women and Ten Men, with Crew of Ten, Enjoy Novel Experience.

(Special to The Daily News.)
Berlin, Sept. 22.—The first tea party aboard an airship took place yesterday when the Zeppelin Zachen made a flight of fifty-five miles near here. Dr. Wolfheim had twelve women and ten men as guests and carried a crew of ten. Owing to danger from explosion no heating apparatus was taken, the food being taken from the ground midway on the trip already cooked. All pronounced the trip an unqualified success.

WONDERFUL AERIAL FEATS BY FRENCHMAN

Turns Machine Over and Flies Head Downward, Easily Recovering Upright Position.

(Special to The Daily News.)
Versailles, Sept. 22.—Pegoud, with his improved gyroscope, performed another daring feat yesterday. He mounted in his machine to a height of 3,300 feet there dipping the left wing of his machine and slowly turning over. For a few seconds the aviator flew head downward, then looping the loop made the letter "S" and regained his upright position on the loop. He was watched with breathless interest by immense crowds.

INDIANS ON THE NAAS ENTERTAIN WHITES

First Time in the History of the Naas That Such a Gathering Was Held.

As an indication of the improved feeling that prevails among the Indians of the Naas and the white settlers in that district, the latter were the guests of the Indians at a social entertainment at Aiyansh on Friday evening last. The attendance of both whites and Indians was large and the entertainment was one of the most enjoyable ever held at Aiyansh. Professor Kauffman, who had been training one of the Indian bands on the Naas, assisted with the musical part of the program. It is to be hoped that the social on Friday evening, the first of its kind ever held there, is but the beginning of continued better feeling between the two races.

BODY WAS FOUND IMBEDDED IN SAND

Remains of Man Drowned in the Naas Were Found Last Wednesday.

The body of Lance Priestly, drowned near Aiyansh on July 30th, was found near that village by an Indian last Wednesday. The authorities were at once notified and Constable Phillipson, who happened to be there on business, accompanied by Mr. Dunlap and the Indian, set out to the spot where the body had been found. It was quite deeply imbedded in the sand and was in an advanced state of decomposition. The remains were buried at Aiyansh the same day.

Arthur Priestly, storekeeper at Aiyansh, was a brother of the unfortunate man, who was about 21 year old.

FUNERAL LARGELY ATTENDED

Last Sad Rites of Rev. Robt. Tomlinson on Saturday.

The funeral of the late Rev. Robert Tomlinson at Meanskinisht on Saturday afternoon was one of the most largely attended funerals ever held in the interior. The service was conducted at the pretty little church in the holy city at 4:30 p. m., Bishop Du Vernet officiating, assisted by Rev. Dr. Ardagh of Kitwanga, after which the remains were placed in their last resting place in the cemetery adjoining. The surviving sons are Robert of Kispiox, Richard of Meanskinisht, and the daughters Mrs. Graham of Cedarvale, Mrs. Tordiff of Ladysmith and Misses Annie and Nellie of Victoria. All were in attendance excepting Mrs. Tordiff and Miss Annie.

THE DISTRIBUTING CENTRE

Yukon to Be Served from Rupert When Road Is Complete.

I. Taylor of Whitehorse, who operates a chain of stores in the Yukon, renewed acquaintances with a few of the local old timers of the north on Saturday. He was en route south on a business trip. Mr. Taylor said he could see no reason whatever why Prince Rupert should not become the distributing centre for the whole of the north country as soon as the G. T. P. is completed.

Several people are complaining to The News that the supply of fresh milk does not appear to be up to the standard. Under these circumstances it would be a public relief to have the milk thoroughly tested by the proper official.

COMPLETE ANARCHY REIGNING ALONG ALBANIAN FRONTIERS

ESSAD PASHA HAS RAISED THE FLAG OF AUSTRIA—FOREIGN INTRIGUES AGAINST SERBIA AND MONTENEGRO CAUSE OF TROUBLE.

(Special to The Daily News.)
Salonica, Sept. 22.—Complete anarchy reigns in Albania. Provisional Minister Mufid Bey has just returned from Europe and summoned his partisans to arms to march against Essad Pasha, who has raised the Austrian flag.

Belgrade, Sept. 22.—The situation is grave on the Albanian frontier. The Albanians, armed with modern rifles, have assembled to make an attack on Serbia. The agents of Albania had already entered Serbia and tried to stir up the peaceful Albanians on Serbian soil. It is believed that these preparations by Albania are the result of foreign intrigues against Serbia and Montenegro, consequently the former feels bound to reoccupy the positions she captured and was forced to abandon by the decree of the powers.

MANY HEADS BROKEN DURING DUBLIN STRIKE RIOT SUNDAY

FURIOUS BATTLES BETWEEN POLICE RESERVES AND STRIKERS—TRAM CARS WRECKED AND STORE WINDOWS SMASHED—MANY INJURED.

(Special to The Daily News.)
Dublin, Sept. 22.—The streets yesterday were again the scene of several battles between the police and the strikers. Many heads were broken. Thirty-seven civilians and seven policemen are detained in the hospitals because of the seriousness of their injuries and many minor cases were treated.

The number now on strike has risen to twenty thousand. They have many supporters and a savage spirit among the strikers is now seriously feared.

Many parades were held yesterday, the jeering workmen and their allies marching through all the principal parts of the city. Liberty Hall was converted into strike headquarters and notwithstanding the many parades it was crowded all day.

During the parades several tram cars were held up and wrecked into splinters. The police reserves charged one of the processions and this led to the rioting. The mob started throwing stones at the trams and then at the shop windows, most of which were smashed. Soon the crowd numbered ten thousand and attacked the police. A furious battle ensued, the police reserve charging twice. The streets were then barricaded and behind these barricades the strikers and their friends kept up the disturbance all night.

London, Sept. 22.—The sympathetic strike with the Dublin transport workers is spreading and the condition of affairs is regarded as desperate, one hundred thousand men, women and children being on the verge of starvation.

PREMIER BORDEN GETS AWFUL ROASTING IN ENGLISH PAPER

DAILY NEWS AND LEADER OBJECTS TO CONSERVATIVE PREMIER MAKING CAPITAL OUT OF ALLEGED NECESSITIES.

London, Sept. 18.—The Daily News and Leader, the most influential London Liberal paper, in a leading article today dealt with Premier Borden's speech at Halifax says Borden's claim to be the sole exponent of Canada's nationhood will not bear examination.

If it is an anomaly for Canada to have no voice in the foreign policy of the Empire, it would surely, according to this article, be equally anomalous if her wishes were liable to be overruled by representatives of the other dominions, who might hold divergent views.

Where Premier Borden has, in the opinion of this paper, outstripped his predecessors in the argument that an increased burden has been imposed upon the British taxpayers as the result of the senate's action.

"We have again and again pointed out," says the News and Leader, "that the result of Premier Borden's policy was to increase the burden of armaments of the British taxpayers and thrust upon the people of these islands the heavy task of manning and maintaining three unnecessary dreadnoughts while threatening to launch us once again on a wild career of unlimited naval rivalry.

"The whole spirit of this kind of thing appears vicious, even when the assumptions on which it is based are less frail.

"We welcome any help the Dominion chooses to offer us of its own free will, but we are not going to beg for it nor have our alleged necessities advertised and haggled over on colonial hustings."

GREAT SUMMER FOR JOY RIDERS.

The record number of ministerial trips to and fro across Canada this summer at the country's expense have been made doubly expensive by the presence of many "invited guests." On the train which brought Hon. Frank Cochrane to Winnipeg recently there were no less than seven private cars. Accompanying the minister were many contractors and politicians, including two Conservative M.P.P.'s, one Conservative senator, three Conservative members of the Ontario legislature and the provincial minister of lands, forests and mines.

Hon. J. D. Hazen in his trip across the Dominion had as his guest—at the country's expense—a St. John political supporter.

Hon. T. W. Crothers took his law partner with him in a government car to the Pacific Coast. Hon. Robert Rogers, who kept a newly purchased government car with him all summer, seldom if ever travelled without "some of the boys" on board.

Hon. Colonel Hughes' special train across Canada at a cost of something like $40,000 needs no comment.

Hon. Louis Coderre also had "company" on his recent trip in a government car to the Pacific Coast and back. A little later on Hon. W. T. White will requisition a car for a trip through the west.

Hon. L. P. Pelletier is now touring the west in a government car.

These are but a few of the instances of ministerial jaunting. Altogether it has been a great summer for joy riding. The activities and the hospitality of the ministers will be adequately represented next year in the auditor general's report under the heading of "traveling expenses."

Premier Borden is evidently not one of those who will have "no truck or trade" with the republic to the south of us, at least not after an election campaign is over. For instance, his acting minister of trade and commerce, Hon. George H. Perley, was born in the United States and had when appointed resided in Canada just about long enough to qualify as a voter.

VISITOR IS IMPRESSED WITH THE RICHES OF PORTLAND CANAL

POTENTIAL WEALTH OF THE MINING CAMPS AND OF THE NAAS VALLEY MAKE A FAVORABLE IMPRESSION UPON MR. VON SHUECKING

Hanns E. von Shuecking, representing Alvo von Alvensleben Ltd., of Vancouver, after spending a week as the guest of General Manager W. J. Elmendorf of the Portland Canal Tunnels Ltd., left for Prince Rupert on the last boat en route to Atlin and Telegraph Creek. The visitor was here on a combined business and pleasure trip, and was very favorably impressed with the camp and townsite.

Speaking of his visit to The Miner, immediately previous to his departure south, he said: "I have been here gathering information and data regarding the potential wealth of the camp and the Naas River valley. My impressions of the country are most favorable, and the work being undertaken by the Portland Canal Tunnels, Ltd., gives every promise of success. At the time I left the tunnel the bore was then in over 2,000 feet, and had already passed through one vein of ore, carrying considerable iron, and measuring some nine feet. According to the information I received from the general manager it is expected that the main Glacier Creek vein series—the objective point—will be encountered in a very short distance now."

Mr. von Shuecking will return later on in the fall to examine the land holdings of his firm in the vicinity of Ayanah and may also proceed into the interior along the new Groundhog pack trail, now under construction.—Portland Canal Miner.

NEW POLICY INAUGURATED THAT WILL BENEFIT NORTHERN INTERIOR

NATURAL STOCK RANGES TO BE LEASED AT LOW FIGURES TO SETTLERS INSTEAD OF BEING LEFT TO WASTE

The recent visit to the northern portion of the province made by Hon. W. R. Ross, minister of lands, has already resulted in the official announcement of a new policy to be inaugurated in connection with the administration of the public lands in so far as establishing a stock raising industry through the utilization of the pasturage now going to waste. It is expected that the new departure will be particularly beneficial to the north, and that points like Stewart, commanding the highway to the interior, will, with the extension of wagon roads and pack trails, soon be the rendezvous of stockmen and owners of large flocks of sheep, looking to secure areas suitable for cattle and sheep raising in the interior.

Already there has been sufficient investigation to show that the vast natural stock ranges of British Columbia offer excellent opportunities for the successful development of a large stock industry, with great benefit to the province. At present only a very small part of this forage crop is used, and the problem has been to devise means by which stockmen might be encouraged to locate in British Columbia, and thus to convert this natural resource now going to waste year by year into beef and mutton, leather and wool.

One of the chief difficulties inherent to this problem, but which has been successfully overcome, was to work out a plan which, while allowing the ranging of sheep and cattle on a large scale, would protect the range itself from injury from overgrazing, and above all prevent range monopoly by large owners, to the disadvantage of our settlers and pre-emptors. This problem necessitated not only broad consideration of the methods of utilization of the public range adopted by other countries and their results, but also a careful consideration of the local conditions and the adoption to the needs of this province of the methods proved to be most successful elsewhere.

Hon. W. R. Ross foresaw that the administration of grazing under leasing system would offer serious disadvantage in locking up large areas against settlement and other forms of use, and the actual sale of grazing lands would, on the other hand, invite monopoly and require so large a capital investment by stockmen as to retard the development of the industry. He decided that under a permit system only could full protection of the public interest be assured since under this system a number of the stock can be limited to the actual grazing can be prevented and full pro-capacity of the range, monopoly vision made for keeping the grazing lands open for settlement and for the utilization of timber and of any other resources needed in the settlement and development of the country.

The application of the permit system will involve the division of the range into natural grazing districts suitable for sheep, for cattle, or for both, and the fixing of the number of head which may be allowed to graze in each without impairing its productivity and carrying capacity. Wherever necessary for the protection of water supply or of game stock will be excluded. The keynote of the policy inaugurated by Mr. Ross for the administration of grazing is the protection of the actual settler in the use of the range. In the issuance of grazing permits first consideration will be given to small owners of stock and to owners of improved range property. As Mr. Ross indicates, however, the extent of unused range is still so great that after full provision for the needs of the settlers' stock there will remain ample accommodation for large herds of sheep and cattle.

Under the policy established settlers will be allowed to graze a reasonable number of stock free of all charge. For large herds, however, a grazing fee will be charged, which in the beginning will be merely nominal, the policy of the government being to permit the industry to establish itself fully before making a charge in accordance with the actual commercial value of the grazing privileges.

The administration of grazing will necessarily be closely bound up with the administration and protection of forest resources. For, while there are limited areas of treeless range in the province, the great bulk is forested, excellent natural forage for sheep and for cattle often forming the ground cover beneath the trees. Consequently, Mr. Ross has decided to utilize the trained force already available in the forest branch for putting into effect this new conservation policy. This will add another and most useful function to the work of the Provincial Forest Service, which has already so fully demonstrated its efficiency and worth in applying in practice the principles of forest conservation laid down by the minister of lands.

It is significant of the timeliness of the policy established by Mr. Ross for the development of the stock industry and of its practical possibilities in the north that applications are already be-

INDEPENDENCE DAY IN MEXICO CELEBRATED IN RAINY DRIZZLE

GREATEST PARADE EVER HELD IN MEXICO'S CAPITAL—EVERYTHING PASSED OFF QUIETLY—HUERTA REVIEWED THE PROCESSION

Mexico City, Sept. 16.—The biggest parade ever held in Mexico City began forming early today in celebration of the nation's independence day. Cold drizzling rain caused the flags and bunting to droop and made marching over the sodden pavements a dreary business, but it did not quench the holiday spirit.

From early morning detachments of soldiers, cadets, students and volunteers made their way toward Chapultepec, where the day's celebration began with speech making and music, and with patriotic utterances of orators appointed for the occasion stirred embryo soldiers to enthusiasm. General Victoriano Huerta, the provisional president of Mexico, in full uniform, surrounded by his staff and accompanied by many government officials and foreign diplomats made a short address applauding the patriotic ardor of the younger element of the population and calling them "the hope of the nation" and "worthy sons of loyal fathers."

At the hour appointed for the opening of the civic observances at Chapultepec, the presidential salute boomed from the guns of the arsenal. At the conclusion of the ceremonies the presidential party drove through the streets lined with holiday-makers showering confetti and flowers from windows and balconies to the national palace where General Huerta prepared to review the parade.

Cost of Living Climbs

Ottawa, Sept. 20.—Another slight upward move in the cost of living is indicated in the record of wholesale prices during August gathered by the Department of Labor. The index number for 270 articles was 136.2, compared with 135.9 in July. In August a year ago it was 133. The advance was due to higher prices in grains and fodder, eggs, potatoes, butter and anthracite coal. At the same time there was somewhat lower prices for cattle, beer, butter, trout, whitefish and coffee.

Control Your Coal Expenditure

In the Gurney-Oxford range you will find more exclusive features, more essential improvements that appeal to the thrifty housewife than have ever before been found in any one kitchen range.

But most important of all is the Economizer.

This clever device for regulating the drafts saves 1 ton of coal in every 6 that you would burn in the ordinary range. It takes the smell of cooking out of the kitchen and sends it up the chimney. You know what that means.

The Economizer enables you to absolutely control the amount of coal you wish to consume and still have a perfect heat for cooking. It will enable you to keep your fire going while you go out shopping or visit your neighbor, and all that is necessary for you to do on your return is to press the small lever and you are assured of a hot fire in a very few moments.

A Gurney-Oxford stove is sanitary—no dirt can accumulate on its beautifully smooth surface.

Its top is polished steel which abolishes forever that dreadful operation—blackening the stove.

Of paramount interest also are the other remarkable and exclusive attachments—the Special Grate, the Divided Flue and the Broiler.

Every woman who knows owns a Gurney-Oxford.

POLLARD COMPANY IS WELL RECEIVED

"The Toymaker" Proved to be One of the Most Finished Performances Ever Seen Here

The Pollards opened their week's engagement at the Westholme Opera House on Saturday evening with nearly every ticket sold before the doors opened and from what was said by way of criticism after the performance it seems probable each evening's performance will achieve similar results. It may be that the company selected their strongest play, or the one they have scored the greatest success in, in order to ensure this popular acclaim. At any rate they did secure it to the fullest extent, from the rise of the curtain to the last song being marked by continuous laughter, applause and recalls.

"The Toymaker," an opera comique in two acts, is an old favorite. When it first came out, many years ago, it ran consecutively for a whole year in the British metropolis, and it was after that Eva Pollard as The Doll made so pronounced a success of the part. How many years ago that was it does not seem polite to hint, because Miss Pollard as she appeared on Saturday night did not seem to be a month over Sweet Sixteen, and delusion is the high art of artlessness.

Not only was Miss Pollard seen at her best but every character was as well sustained as could be expected from a talented troop that has played so many years together. The company, too, is remarkable for its balance and its "team work" is inimitable. In Teddy McNamara as "The Toymaker" is one of the most finished comedians on the stage today. He is one of the originals of the company, and in the audience were several who had seen him in the same role years ago and warmly praised the marked advance he has made in the perfection of his art. By the time the first scene was over the audience began to titter as soon as he appeared, in anticipation of the next wonderfully funny stunt he would surprise them with. He reminds one of De Wolf Hopper, but as an eccentric singer and dancer and general fun maker he is more than the compeer of Hopper.

The choruses were given with surprising volume and sparkling shading and in nearly all the part songs and solos there were enthusiastic recalls. There were plenty of light pretty songs of the lulling variety, some fine concertos and instrumental music filling the interstices with swelling harmonies. The duet "Pistoli Carabi," by Leslie Donaghy and William Bevan, and that of "I Love You Dearly," by Eva Pollard and Pattie Hill were marked with enthusiastic applause.

But all the songs, all the dances, and all the voices were good and there is not room to mention them all. For special mention, however, a space must be reserved for Miss Nellie McNamara who, as Father Maxime, gave just before the curtain fell "The Rosary." The scene is in an ancient abbey with a crowd of frocked monks, which added something, perhaps, to the impressiveness. But outside of these accessories the singing and the acting were superb. Never before in Prince Rupert has this beautiful anthem been heard and understood in all its solemn significances. The beautiful soprano voice moaned and sighed and soared in a religious ecstasy that carried the audience with it. It created a most profound impression.

The comic opera tonight is "The Mikado," which is also an old favorite.

Get Ready for the Rush.

Jack Stewart, who holds the entire contract from Rupert to Edmonton, who has just covered the entire distance on the grade, told us in Prince Rupert last week that the railroad will be completed in April. This we may take as definite and final. "Jack" Stewart or other members of his family it has been my fortune to meet could no more peddle hot air than they could fly over Mount Robson in an aeroplane.

Therefore, old and new timers of Graham Island, get ready. The rush from the zero, blizzard, sunstroke and tornado belt is almost upon us and lots will not be available on the main street at $100. for long.

Besides Delkatlah, I have the only available water frontage within many miles of Naden Harbor, which I am about to subdivide into two acre blocks, starting at $75 and five acre blocks starting at $450 for the block, all on terms to suit.

Get busy and make reservations for first choice as soon as survey is completed. I will guarantee a minimum of 50 feet waterfront for every acre. Ask any of those who got in with me on acre blocks at Delkatlah before the survey was made how many times they have doubled their money and how many lots I have bought back myself at many times what I sold them at. This adjoins the only deep waterfront and is a mile from the cannery, with a beautiful creek, beach and bay.

Come and see our crops. We are going to skin California in celery.
