

SAY, ARE WE BEATING THE WORLD FOR VEGETABLES?

LORD METHUEN WILL SUCCEED THE DUKE OF CONNAUGHT—ULSTER PLEDGED TO SECEDE

FRUITS OF THE EARTH SHOWING PROLIFIC NATURE OF OUR SOIL

HOW IS THE TIME TO SEE FORTY POUND SQUASH AND HOP VINES THIRTY-SIX FEET LONG AND MANY OTHER WONDERS.

In the agricultural department of the exhibition healthy rivalry is shown to have produced most excellent results, and in both, as the minister of agriculture remarked in his opening speech, are shown products of as fine a quality as could be produced in any part of the world. Nor was Prince Rupert itself left much behind in the race, although not much could be expected from lands devoted to the single crop of reality. The collection of vegetables and flowers shown by the city was surprisingly good and in great variety. Fruit, indigenous to Prince Rupert soil, was also shown. This was in an exhibit of red huckleberries, as picked and as preserved. They are the largest and most luscious of their kind. It may be a tip to say they were picked at the end of the plank walk in Section Two. In the center of the city's collection was a signboard on which was painted this new slogan: "What we can grow in Prince Rupert without irrigation."

"Pea Vine" Harvey and J. C. K. Seely brought down the huge collection of the board of trade of Hazelton and Bulkley Valley and both prove excellent showmen. Not only is the exhibit in itself huge, but the products of which it is composed. There is a hop vine (not a pea vine) shown which has reached a growth of 36 feet in four months, cauliflower a foot in diameter, sunflowers 12 feet high, sugar peas 22 feet high, parsnips 22 inches long, and monstrosities such as pumpkins and squash running 40 pounds.

In the Hazelton collection are forty-one varieties of squash, turnips six, potatoes five, and beets, parsnips, carrots, radishes.

"CHURCH UNION" THE MAIN THEME OF BISHOP'S CHARGE

EIGHTH SYNOD OF DIOCESE OF CALEDONIA OPENED YESTERDAY—ENCOURAGING REPORTS FROM ALL BRANCHES.

The eighth synod of the Diocese of Caledonia was called by Bishop Du Vernet at 11 o'clock yesterday morning in St. Andrew's Church. After morning prayer the bishop delivered his charge, which appears in another column.

The synod was formally opened by his lordship with a clerical attendance of fifteen, as follows: The Rt. Rev. F. H. Du Vernet, bishop of Caledonia; the Venerable Archdeacon Collison and the Reverends G. A. Rix, J. B. McCullagh, W. Hogan, R. W. Gurd, T. J. Marsh, L. C. Banks, Dr. Ardagh, W. F. Rushbrook, W. J. H. Petter, W. S. A. Larter, H. G. Kingstone, H. H. K. Greene and W. Crarey. The following associate members were also present: Mrs. Du Vernet, Mrs. Rix, Mrs. Gurd, Mrs. W. E. Collison, Mrs. Petter, Mrs. Larter, Mrs. Greene, along with three of the lady missionaries of the diocese, Miss West and Miss Davis of Metlakatla and Miss Jackson of Seal Cove. The lay delegates were as follows: Sheriff Shirley, Prince Rupert; Mr. Hoskins, Hazelton; C. F. Morrison, Port Essington; W. J. Ken- naugh, representing Fraser Lake.

The following reports were received and adopted: (1) The executive committee report, which showed a year of progress along all lines. (2) The report of the Anglican Theological College of British Columbia, which revealed the fact that this new institution had made a splendid beginning and the prospects for the future were exceedingly bright, a splendid site for new buildings having been obtained from the Provincial government on the property set apart for the University of British Columbia at Point Grey, Vancouver. In the meantime lectures are held in temporary quarters in the city, with an at-

INTEREST IN EXHIBITION CONTINUES UNABATED

Ideal Weather Has So Far Prevailed and The Exhibits Have Been Viewed by Thousands --- All Available Space Is Used

From the very moment that the exhibition doors were thrown open yesterday morning, following the formal opening ceremonies, the Industrial Hall and the adjoining tents devoted to various classes of exhibits were thronged with interested visitors until a late hour last night, notwithstanding the many other attractions which were part of the fair program. To even the most optimistic the exhibition has proved a great surprise not only as to the quantity of exhibits but the quality as well. So much has been heard and read concerning the possibilities of Northern British Columbia from an agricultural standpoint, yet so little has been seen except by those who have had the opportunity of travelling over the widely scattered districts that there has been more or less of skepticism developed. Prince Rupert's first fair has banished once and for all any doubts that may have arisen. In vegetables particularly there can be no further doubt as to the productivity of such districts as Kitsumkalum, Lakelse, Bulkley Valley, Bella Coola and Graham Island. It was the universal opinion that the exhibits from these districts could not be excelled in any part of Canada. In fruits and grains the exhibits were highly gratifying and such as to demonstrate that the possibilities are almost unlimited.

Industrial Hall.
Industrial Hall, the central and largest enclosure for exhibits, contains such a quantity and variety of natural and artificial products that one could spend at least the entire three days of the fair looking them over and still many features of interest would be also shown.

The dog show is really a good one for a starter, there being many well bred animals shown, ranging from Hayner's great dane to Mrs. Potts' little maltese poodle. By some mistake many exhibitors were given to understand that as the judging did not take place until today there was not need of their being on the benches yesterday. This spoiled the show for yesterday. One notable dog is shown in the husky that accompanied the Scott expedition to the South Pole. Another is Mr. Prudhomme's "Buster," a veteran of the Klondike trails.

MORE SEDITION AND TREASON OPENLY PREACHED IN ULSTER

ULSTER TO SECEDE FROM IRELAND THE MINUTE HOME RULE BECOMES LAW—KING GEORGE DOING UTMOST TO ENSURE PEACE.

(Special to The Daily News)
Dublin, Sept. 25.—The Ulster party held a meeting here last night at which the fiery articles appearing in the constitution were approved by a very large attendance. One of these articles says that steps will be taken by Ulster to secede from Ireland the minute the home rule bill becomes a law. The constitution declares: "This Declaration of Independence; a nucleus of an Ulster parliament will put their hands to a document no less remarkable than the document that will be pregnant with change in the political history of our country."

Another paragraph states: "All steps are ready to be taken for the establishment of a nationalist parliament and for taking over Ulster in trust for the British nation."

A fund was started at this meeting to indemnify the relatives of those killed or wounded in the battle that the Ulsterites appear to think likely. It is said the fund will amount to five million dollars.

Public School Exhibit.

The exhibit of work by pupils of the public school is a most interesting one. It consists of samples of writing, colored and raised maps, mounted leaves and ferns, drawings, paintings, etc. A collection of cabinet woods by Jack Leggett is worthy of special notice.

Lucy Island Shells.

An exhibit of more than ordinary interest is that made by J. S. Oulette, keeper of Lucy Island

Ladies' Work.

There is a large and varied exhibit of ladies' work, consisting of sofa cushions, doilies and fancy work, as well as jams and preserves, home made candy, bread, buns, cakes and pies. The gallery is devoted almost entirely to ladies' fancy work, paintings and water colors and is a most interesting section of the building.

Rexall Stores.

C. H. Orme, pioneer druggist and proprietor of the Rexall Stores in this city, occupies an artistically arranged booth on the east side of the building. He is making a fine showing of the great variety of Rexall preparations, sold throughout Canada, the United States and England at popular prices. Na-Dru-Co. toilet preparations, also popular in Canada, are shown in great variety. Orme's drug store is headquarters for Eastman kodaks and supplies, a complete stock always on hand. Visitors to the Industrial Hall should not miss seeing a demonstration of the Pasteur filter, which may be seen at this booth. This filter is used in Orme's drug stores to filter all water used for pharmaceutical purposes.

DAILY EDITION

Thursday, Sept. 25, 1913.

CONGRATULATIONS WERE IN ORDER.

The faces of all the exhibitors and of all the visitors fairly glowed with pleasure at the opening of the fair yesterday. None of them had anticipated seeing nearly so large or so good a display of our resources. Even the minister of agriculture, a farmer on a large scale himself, and as such as well as in his present capacity as minister a man of very wide experience in such exhibitions, expressed his glad surprise. In fact, the word he used was astounded.

He had travelled here from Fort George, and unequivocally stated that the country through which he had passed was undoubtedly one of the best for agricultural purposes. Of some of the products shown he said nothing better could be grown anywhere. This was but the beginning of what should become one of the best fairs in the province.

The fair itself was a surprise to everybody, and such high praise as this from so high an authority was as unexpected as it was heartily welcomed. It is a distinct encouragement. The end of the week ends the present fair. Under the stimulus of these compliments we should then begin to plan for a much greater fair next year, one that will be so broad and yet so unique in its features that it will bring people from everywhere and advertise Prince Rupert everywhere.

There was another strong stimulant to such endeavors to be found in the statement of the mayor. We had done well under the circumstances, with no suitable place for holding such an event, but the council is in communication with the railway company with the object of securing a ten acre lot back of the mountain for a recreation ground, where agricultural and other exhibitions could be held.

That was the mayor's brief but most important statement, reported in these columns yesterday, but again referred to so that it shall not be overlooked or forgotten. What it means is large and convenient buildings for fair purposes, a great concourse of visitors not once a year but several times, the booming of trade, the expansion of commercial and industrial enterprises, the erection of Prince Rupert's future prosperity upon a solid foundation. So, after this holiday week let's get to work in earnest.

MINISTER FOSTER'S STRANGE LOGIC.

Hon. George E. Foster on his return from Japan, where he did nothing but enjoy a splendid trip at the country's expense, gave out some interesting interviews. Hon. Mr. Foster, as minister of trade and commerce, stated that many of the people in Japan were so poor that they could not afford to eat even the rice they grew. Therefore, said Hon. Mr. Foster, minister of trade and commerce, there should be a great opening for Canadian wheat and flour in Japan, to supply food for these people who could not afford to eat their own rice. The cares of office as Canada's general travelling agent must be playing strange tricks with Hon. Mr. Foster's once logical brain.

THAW'S PRISON AT COATICOOK STATION.

Picture of the detention shed and station at Coaticook. Thaw was confined upstairs behind the barred windows at the far end. The inhabitants spent much of their time beneath those windows.

Concord, N. H., Sept. 22.—Harry K. Thaw sat behind a great heap of newspapers at the breakfast table this morning reading Washington despatches saying his case went to the United States court yesterday and that years may roll by before a decision is handed down.

"We can wait," said the fugitive, "but I hope Governor Feltner will decide against my extradition at once, so that it will not be necessary to press our habeas corpus in the federal court."

Ten law clerks, retained by Thaw's counsel, were busy today looking up state and federal court rulings in the matter of extraditing a person charged with a crime, claimed to be legally insane.

"So far we have been unable to find any case where a person in Thaw's position was ever extradited," said one of the lawyers.

GREAT STEAMSHIPS TO DOCK RIGHT IN HEART OF LONDON

VAST SCHEME OF HARBOR AND DOCK IMPROVEMENTS UNDERTAKEN TO COST SOMETHING LIKE EIGHTY-FIVE MILLION DOLLARS

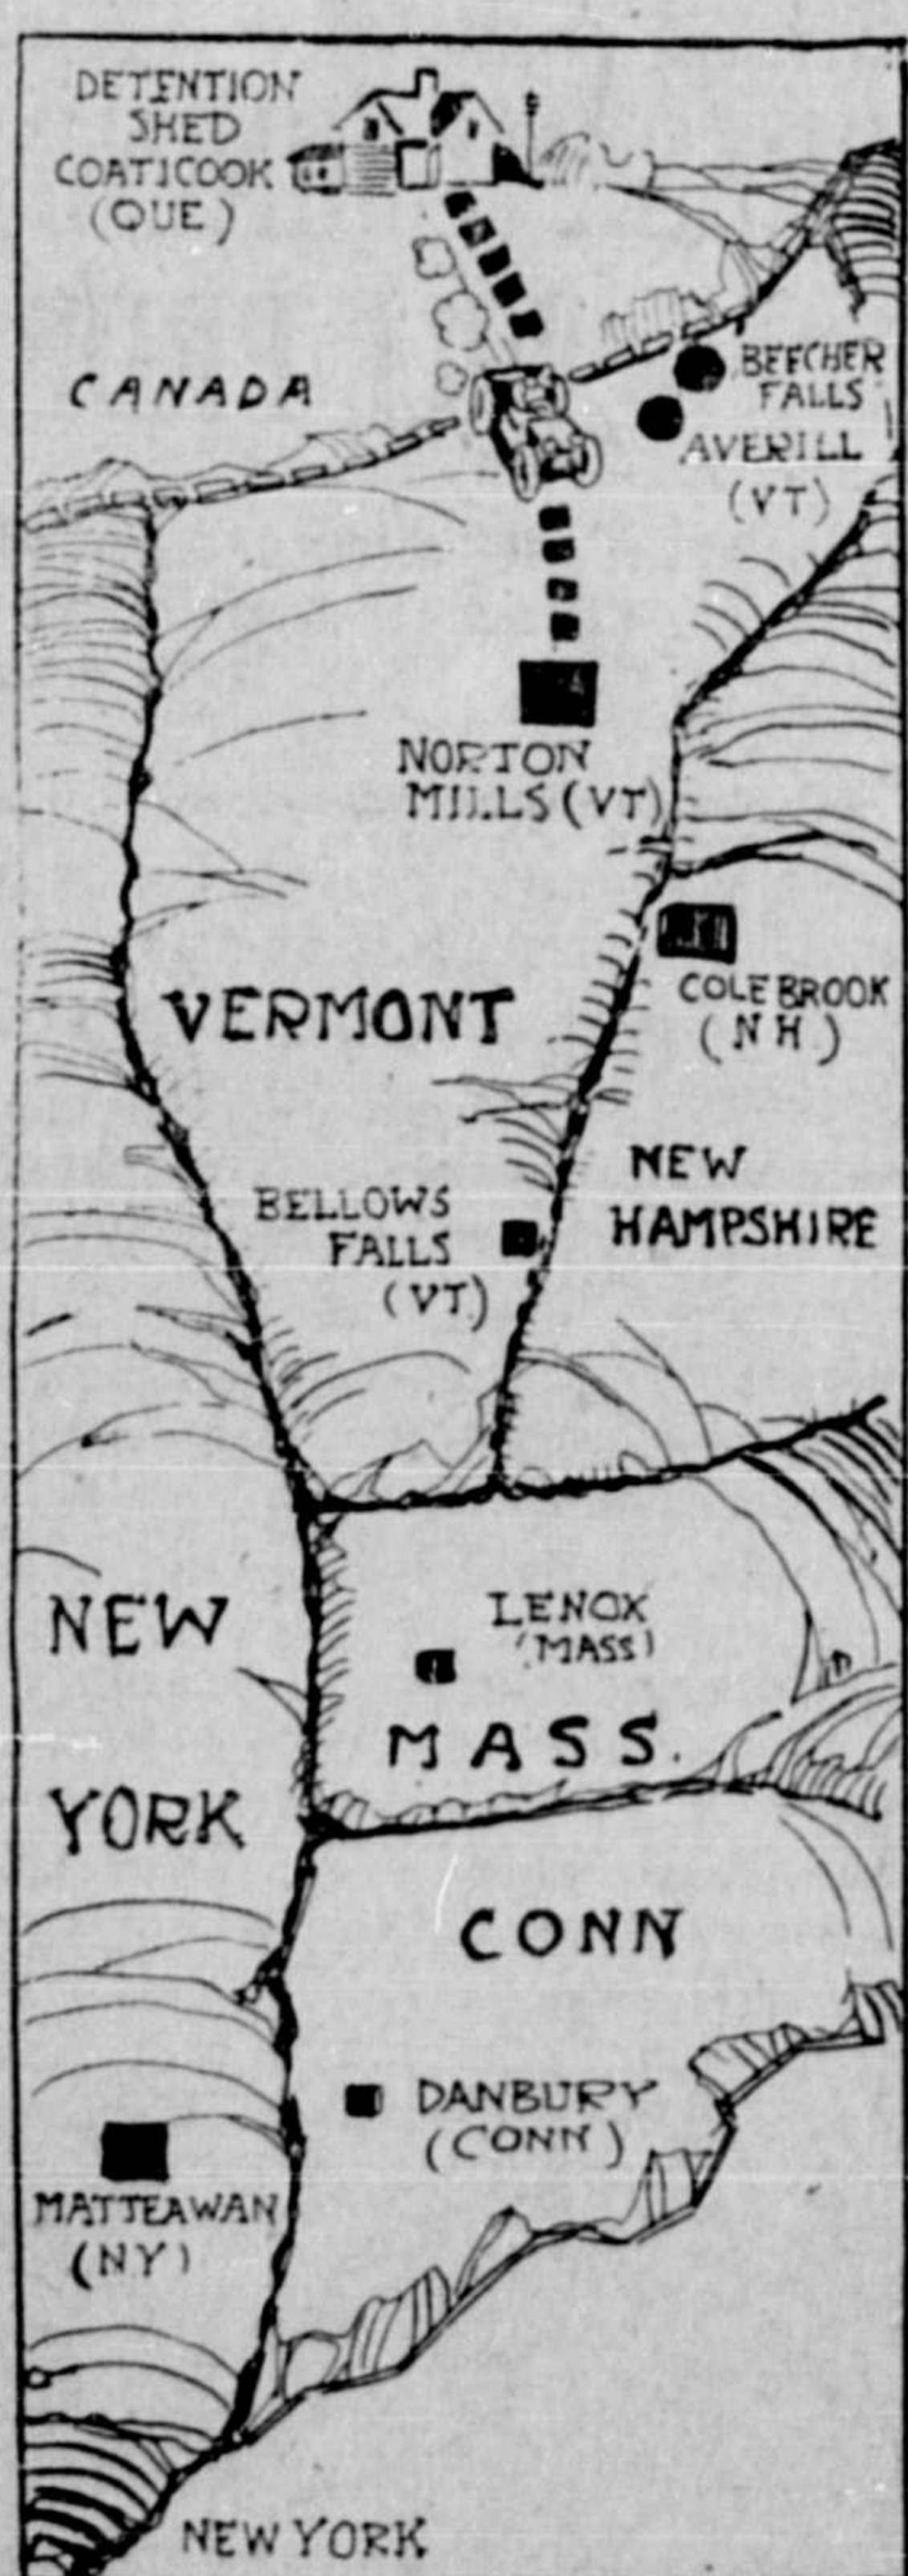

London has determined to hold her own amongst the first ports of the world. To this end transformations are being quietly accomplished off the lower reaches of the Thames. These will cost £17,000,000, and it is impossible to estimate the addition that they will give to the trade of the metropolis. Experts in traffic who have seen the plans and are watching the steady growth in transport between the docks and the merchandise markets predict that additional thoroughfares, east and west, through the heart of the city, will be necessary to make this transport possible, says the London Standard. One scheme is for the collection of merchandise by underground railway and its distribution through the agency of a clearing house.

The first striking indication of the progress that is being made was provided when the Cunarder Andania, a vessel of 13,400 tons, steamed up the Thames and berthed in the Surrey Commercial Docks, within two miles of London bridge. The Andania is 1000 tons greater in displacement than the Campania, which in 1893 was the greatest ship afloat. Already the port of London handles more than one-fifth of the foreign trade of the United Kingdom. Last year the trade of the port amounted to £383,629,052, as compared with £1,343,601,761 for the whole of the country, and the shipping paying river tonnage dues amounted to 28,508,672 tons. The quays alongside which this huge business is conducted measure in the aggregate 45 miles, and a stock of merchandise in the warehouses of the port of London authority alone was 431,303 tons on the 31st of last March.

Left with the press correspondents there he hired another automobile and proceeded into New Hampshire.

September Rod and Gun.

September Rod and Gun contains a list of contents appropriate to the month and to the character of this magazine of outdoor life. The American scap on the Pacific Coast is Bonny-castle Dale's contribution. "Canuck" gives some practical advice to duck shooters and reminiscences of duck hunting expeditions in days gone by. "Shooting Over a Dog," by "Senex," will be of interest to those sportsmen who find big game hunting too strenuous but enjoy the milder form of sport involved in the pursuit of small winged game. "Amongst the Manitoba Prairie Chickens," "The Cub Across the Midway," "Hunting the Loon," "The Sport of the Red Men" and other illustrated articles make up an entertaining number of this publication, which is issued by W. J. Taylor, Limited, Woodstock, Ont.

by McRae Bros., the leading house for office supplies and stationery in Prince Rupert. This firm is the sole agent for Globe-Wernicke office desks, filing cabinets and bookcases, also Remington typewriters, Burroughs adding machines and Edison mimeographs. McRae Bros. handle the Victor Victrola and records and are making a good showing of these at the fair. Samples of private greeting Christmas cards are shown at this booth and orders for same are being taken during the fair.

The Baby Show.

Prince Rupert does not have to take a back seat to any place in the world when it comes to babies, and they were out in full force at Industrial Hall yesterday afternoon. Separate prizes were offered for weight and beauty and eight awards were given, as follows:

For Weight.—Under one year: first, Mrs. Agnes Boud; second, Mrs. J. F. Simpson. Under two years: first, Mrs. F. H. Cameron; second, Mrs. E. Duckett.

For Beauty.—From one to two years: first, Mrs. Frank Chapin; second, Mrs. L. Green. Under one year: first, Mrs. Jarvis McLeod; second, Mrs. Ida Thomas. Chief Vickers and Miss McTavish, matron of the hospital, performed the difficult task of judging.

Fireworks Display.

The pyrotechnic display put on last night between 8 and 9 o'clock by Hitt Bros. of Seattle was much enjoyed, especially by the younger children, many of whom had never before seen a fireworks display. Set off from the highest point in the city, Acropolis Hill, the display could be enjoyed from all parts of the city.

This feature of the exhibition is to be continued each evening as well as a daylight display.

EXHIBITION NOTES.

The fountain playing in the brilliant sunshine and the urns with growing ferns give a touch of future promise to the otherwise prosaic appearance of the exhibition grounds.

We are sorry to announce that the son of Alex. Prudhomme did not receive the prize as the largest baby, owing to the fact that a class for largest babies was overlooked.

The beautiful pink quartz from the Engineer group, Atlin district, with its dots of pure gold here and there led spectators to make the same remark they all did when the rockets went up.

H. E. Upton, provincial government expert on poultry, arrived on the Prince George yesterday and is acting as judge of the poultry exhibits.

Dan McKinnon, formerly of this city but now among the most enthusiastic ranchers of Kitsumkalum, was today awarded first prize for leghorns. He made quite a large exhibit of poultry stock.

The Pein Sette, which won first prize in the contest among the best decorated launches yesterday, was decorated by Mrs. H. S. Parker instead of Mrs. McLaren, as published yesterday.

The judging of horses will take place tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock at the exhibition grounds and those having entries are requested to have their animals on the grounds ready for inspection.

At 11 a. m. there will be a public demonstration of stump pulling of particular interest to farmers and others having timbered areas to be cleared. The demonstration will take place on the hill at the back of the exhibition grounds.

ONE MORE TRIUMPH FOR THE POLLARDS

Continued Packed Houses Demonstrate the Immense Popularity of the Company.

Another solidly packed house greeted the Pollards last evening at the Westholme, when the audience was highly pleased with a creditable production of "The Belle of New York." The opening number, "When a Man Is 21," by Nellie McNamara, went with a swing and had a most appropriate background in the confusion of a bachelor apartment after an anti-nuptial supper. Little Miss Queenie Williams scored another triumph as Fifi, as daintily a piece of Dresden china as one ever sees on the stage. In her first number, "Teach Me How to Kiss," her voice as well as her acting was wonderfully good. Pattie Hill as the Salvation Army lass, "The Belle of New York," did excellent work and looked very fetching as she swung her tambourine. The gem of the performance was undoubtedly the duet, "When We Are Married," by Nellie McNamara and Queenie Williams. They were recalled again and again and were the recipients of some pretty floral tributes. Teddy McNamara was in his usual form, while Charley Bennett and Eva Pollard made the most of their rather small parts. Miss Phyllis Philipson gave an operatic selection, which could be aptly described as a most pleasing exhibition of vocal gymnastics. The flexibility of her voice was unusually good and her upper register extremely well developed. The choruses were well balanced and the ballet quite as spectacular as on the previous evenings. Altogether the company maintained the pleasing impression already made upon Prince Rupert theatre patrons.

POPULAR CITIZEN GETS PROMOTION

F. W. Dowling, Manager of Telegraph Office, is Appointed District Superintendent.

F. W. Dowling, local manager of the Dominion telegraph office, is to be congratulated on being promoted to the position of district superintendent. The territory over which he will have charge consists of the main line between Telkwa and Atlin, the Port Simpson and Granby connections and the lines under construction on Graham Island.

Mr. Dowling is one of the oldest employees of the Dominion telegraph service, having joined it upon the opening of the Yukon line. Previous to that he was with the C. P. R. telegraph.

With his long experience in the telegraph business Mr. Dowling is well qualified to fill his new appointment. Having always endeavored to give the people of Prince Rupert the best possible service, his promotion is a popular one.

Five-a-Side Tournament.

The first game of the five-a-side tournament took place last night on Second Avenue before a large turnout of spectators. The contestants were a team representing the G. T. P. and the Calles "A" team. The result, after twenty minutes of fast football, was a victory for the G. T. P. boys by a solitary goal. The sustaining feature of the game was the goal keeping of Kinghorn (late Sheffield Wednesday), who alone saved his team from defeat time and again. Alex. Holmberg made an efficient referee, while Messrs. Russell and Abbott acted in the capacity of linesmen. The next game takes place tonight.

Police Court Items.

In police court this morning Henry Smart, an Indian, was fined $10 and costs or ten days for being drunk. He was also fined $1 and costs or two days for disorderly conduct. Henry Myers got $5 on a similar charge. Frank Block $5 or five days and William Lyons $7 or seven days. Eliza Jackson and Sophia Smart, Indian women, were fined $7 each or seven days.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Elizabeth Janet Balfour to Jas. McIntosh Clancy, manager of the local branch of the Bank of Montreal. The ceremony will take place at the home of the bride's mother, 87 Duke Street, Hamilton, on Saturday, October 4th, at 9.30 p.m.

Don't fail to visit Rogers & Black's exhibit and guess the weight of the coal. Free to everyone. 224-26
