ALREADY ORGANIZED FOR MUCH BETTER FAIR NEXT YEAR

ASSOCIATION HOLDS GENERAL MEETING AND ELECTS OFFICERS FOR ENSUING YEAR--SECRETARY REPORTS CASH BALANCE ON RIGHT SIDE.

The general meeting of the Northern British Columbia Agricultural and Industrial Association, which was held in the city last evening, quite naturally solved itself into a mutual admiration association. It was the first opportunity the men who had promoted and made the fair success had had to pat each other on the back. But they also did a lot of business. Mr. J. W. McMullin, the president, opening the proceedings by stating that the meeting was called to take advantage of the presence in the city of so many connected with the organization. The success attending the first fair, he said, was sufficient to warrant a continuation of the event annually. (Applause.) The president's address in full is as follows: "We are assembled this evening more in an informal manner than by regular call, as your directors felt it was expedient during the period of the exhibition to hold a general meeting in the city, as it would probably be possible for so many to gather at the regular annual meeting which the election of officers was to take place.

"It might not be out of way to recount a little of the history of your association. The inception of the idea of an agricultural fair dates back over a year, during which period meetings were held locally for the purpose of forming an association. These culminated on January 28th of this year in the incorporation of the present association under the societies' act. "Since that time the association has obtained a membership of 195, the necessary bylaws governing the institution have been formulated and printed, and besides your directors and officers we have an advisory committee representing all the outlying districts. In brief, the association is a district one, having to do with Northern British Columbia rather than being a purely local affair. The present fair, our initial effort, has, I think you will agree with me, met with abundant success. The large number of entries—over 2,000—is in itself an assurance of what the north is capable of doing in the future, when our organization is more complete. It must be borne in

SEATTLE BOY KNOCKED OUT IN THE TENTH

Lem Kegg Won Decision in a Well Fought Boxing Contest Last Night

In the fifteen round boxing contest between Lem Kegg, the popular local boxer, and Billy Williams, of Seattle, in the McIntyre Hall last night, the decision went to Kegg in the tenth round. To those not familiar with Kegg's tactics in the ring, the contest seemed to be decidedly in favor of the Seattle man, who up to the last round continued to land a series of blows upon Kegg's face. Williams was considerably taller and had a longer reach than his opponent which gave him a great advantage, but in the numerous clinches Kegg kept pounding Williams with his right over the left kidney. It was this constant hammering which finally won Kegg the decision.

The first three rounds were lively but without much excitement, Williams doing most of the hitting.

In the fourth round Kegg became more aggressive and landed several telling blows, although at the end Williams drove him to his corner. The fifth and six rounds consisted of a series of clinches in which Williams got in a number of blows while Kegg continued pounding Williams over the kidneys. At the end of the sixth the first bets were offered, being on Williams, but the money was quickly covered by Kegg's backers.

In the seventh round Kegg seemed to be taking a good deal of punishment and showed signs of weakening.

The eighth round opened with a strong right punch by Kegg over Williams' kidney. This was followed by Williams delivering a series of blows with his right on Kegg's face. In the latter part of the round Kegg got home several more of his favorite punches which at this point were beginning to show their effect.

In the ninth round Kegg did most of the pounding while Williams landed only a few blows. The round was decidedly Kegg's.

In the tenth and last round Kegg drove home a regular series of punches over his opponent's kidney. Williams went down twice but was up again quickly each time. With a final blow from Kegg on the same spot Williams landed in the corner of the ring, taking the full count, and Kegg was declared the winner.

Jack Merritt acted as referee and Billy Wright as time-keeper. Many a woman looks good who isn't a good looker.

TRAINS RUNNING FROM OCEAN TO OCEAN IN NEXT NINE MONTHS

PRES. CHAMBERLIN MAKES THIS IMPORTANT STATEMENT AT MEETING OF DIRECTORS--ONLY TWO HUNDRED ODD MILES UNCOMPLETED.

(Special to The Daily News.) Montreal, Sept. 26.—The adjourned general meeting of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Company was held here yesterday, and the attendance of directors was very large. According to the statement of the president, the construction of the main line to the Pacific Coast has now reached twelve hundred and four miles west of Winnipeg, and from Prince Rupert has reached Mile 300, leaving a section of two hundred and thirty miles to be completed, of which the grade was to be completed early in September. When the track is laid on this short section the steel will be connected up through to the coast. The work, he said, was being pushed vigorously, and he expected the last spike to be driven, at some point in British Columbia, within the next nine months. As the line neared completion, he remarked, interest in the vast undeveloped country through which the line runs, particularly in British Columbia, was increasing, and there was every prospect that a settlement of the country would take place as soon as adequate transportation facilities were provided.

DAILY EDITION

EXHIBITION OF OUR TRIBUTARY WEALTH.

That is what the Prince Rupert fair really is, and it is really very wonderful. Of course we have talked of the great tributary wealth along the Bulkley and Skeena valleys that must flow into this port, and we have believed yet. Yet we never realized its greatness, and how near its fruition is to us, until we held this fair. From the display made of vegetables there is no reason to doubt but that the growing production will more than keep pace with the growing city and provide all that our citizens may need. It will be of a finer quality and variety than we are getting from Vancouver and Seattle, and it will be fresher.

Then comes the lessons taught by the mineral exhibition. This is exceedingly comprehensive for a first year and gives promise of great wealth. Great interest was taken in the samples from the Silver Standard, which was the first shipper from Hazelton. Of 282 tons of this ore shipped to the Consolidated Mining & Smelt-Company's smelting works at Trail, B.C., that company gives the following metal recoveries: "Gold, 62,323 ozs.; silver, 40,883.28 ozs.; lead, 149,525 lbs. The net value of the whole was $30,000.61, or $106.42 a ton after payment of freight and treatment charges."

Some idea of the profit of mining such ores may be found by contrasting these figures with those of the great

Treadwell gold mine, near Juneau, where millions have been made on ore averaging $3 to the ton. The Silver Standard is quoted to show what one mine has done while still in its infancy. There are other mines in that district shipping small quantities, and there would be more but that owing to the lack of facilities for transporting ores from mines to railway only development work can be done. By next year the temporary freight rate will have been replaced by a regular, and it is expected a lower tariff, after which production and shipment of ore will be undertaken by a number of mine owners, some of whom are exhibitors at this Fair, who are not yet ready to make an output. It will be a great mineral exhibition next year, worth coming many miles to see.

MERE POLITICAL COINCIDENCE

Hon. W. T. White, Minister of Finance, crossed the broad Atlantic with Sir William Mackenzie in the Canadian Northern Liner, "Royal Edward." Of course Hon. Mr. White and Sir William's trips may have merely "synchronized." Again it may happen that next session, after many denials and contradictions, another bill will be put through parliament by the Minister of Finance handing out to MacKenzie & Mann another edition of their $15,000,000 subsidy of last session. Hon Mr. White is worth watching.

SOURCES OF OUR WEALTH TO BE SEEN IN MINERAL EXHIBITION

GREAT MINING DISTRICTS OF PORTLAND CANAL AND NEW HAZELTON VIE WITH EACH OTHER AS HIGH GRADERS—IMPORTANCE OF COAL.

In the centre of the space devoted to the exhibition of minerals there is a large lump of coal from Nanaimo, shown by Rogers & Black, which is useful in its present position as a means of comparison with the samples of coal exhibited from discoveries made in this immediate district. On the left as you enter, for instance, is a collection of specimens from the Kitzeukla Mines, some twelve miles inland from Skeena Crossing, mines which are today mere prospects and barely sufficiently developed to show to an expert. This is a good bituminous coal and is from a six foot vein. Mr. Vaughn-Rhys, who has staged the mineral specimens and acts as the lecturer upon them, said of this coal this morning:

"This coal is of a nature that will make it highly valuable to the industrial development of Northern British Columbia. An exhibition of this class of coal at the present time, in itself justifies the efforts that have been put forward by the citizens of Prince Rupert in getting up our Northern British Columbia fair."

Coal is also shown from discoveries on the Copper River, eight miles from the Kitzeukla, but in another divide. This is also a good bituminous. This part of the country is also well represented in its copper ores, the claims represented by vies with that of Hazelton. The former begins with an extensive and extremely interesting collecting the Continental, Wells, Emma and Fearless groups of Kitseukla, and from the Copper River country are also shown specimens of clay, gravel and building stone.

For magnificent displays of ore the Portland Canal district of ore gathered by an individual prospector, George Bruggy, and is undoubtedly the most comprehensive showing of the ores of that district that has ever been made.

Another of unusual interest is that of the Portland Canal Mining Company, which shows the run of the mine and samples representing the result of concentration at the company's mill. To mining men these results are of great technical interest because of the excellent character of the concentrates produced from the Overstrom and Wilfley tables, better than which could not be found in any part of the world.

The Salmon-Bear River Mining Company has an exhibit showing lead carbonates and lead sulphurates. The Indian Mines, Limited, exhibits a very fine quality of silver-lead ores, and among other companies representing that district are the Stewart Mines, the Glacier Creek, the Red Cliff and the Big Missouri. Sir Donald Mann shows samples of ore from the Ben Bolt and Northern Terminus mines.

Among the high grade ores from there are samples from the Columbia Evening Star running $300 the ton; the Montana group, running $950, and the Pontiac, to the value of $1,047 the ton. Nesbitt & Archie have a good collection of antimonial lead ore which give silver values averaging $60 per ton.

The Stewart Citizens' Association has shown considerable enterprise in gathering such a splendidly representative collection of the mineral resources of their district.

Alice Arm is represented by copper ores from the Red Point and Dan Patch, and high grade silver ore from the Mohawk and Dolly Varden and a nice collection of silver-lead ores.

The Central Skeena district is represented by samples of high grade copper ores already referred to.

Queen Charlotte Islands show only a few samples from the Ikeda mines, and samples of sand and gravel.

The New Hazelton Board of Trade submits a splendid exhibit of silver-lead ores from mines that are already growing famous although only just beginning to ship. Fine samples are shown from the Silver Standard, the first shipper; the Harris Mines, Brian Boru, Silver Cup, Sunrise and Erie mines.

Hudson Bay Mountain makes a good showing of copper-gold ores, and has a rather remarkable exhibit of fine bituminous coal.

For a first mineralogical exhibition it is simply a wonder, nearly every well known mine being represented. Its influence as a stimulus to mining activity cannot be too highly rated.

Don't fail to visit Rogers & Black's exhibit and guess the weight of the coal. Free to everyone. 224-26

MORESBY ISLAND MINE SHOWING PROSPECTS OF BEING PRODUCER

ELEVEN HUNDRED DOLLARS TO TON IS NOT TO BE SNEEZED AT—NEW STRIKE IN THE CUMSHEWA MINE SHOWS SOME GOLD VALUES.

Moresby Island, of the Queen Charlotte group, has long been known as the repository of immense bodies of low grade copper ore, but these low grade lodes, valuable as they are in the aggregate, now bid fair to take second place in the public eye on account of a phenomenal strike in the Cumshewa mine, at the head of Cumshewa Inlet, on the east coast of the island.

When Colonel Henderson of London, Eng., who is heavily interested in the property, visited the location a short time ago, the improvement in the character of the ore was very marked, and assays made on samples taken by him were surprising in their results.

An adit tunnel has been driven along the course of a quartz lead which showed some gold values and considerable zinc. At a favorable spot in the tunnel a winze was started, and as the 200 foot level was approached it was noticed that specks of the yellow metal were noticeable in the rock extracted. While showing much gold in the free state, there is a large percentage of the values associated with the zinc, and it is probable that a combination process for amalgamation and concentrating will be adopted when the reduction plant is erected, which will be in the very near future.—Queen Charlotte News.

EXPERTS TEST COAL ON GRAHAM ISLAND

Johnson Succeeded in Interesting British Capital During His Trip to London.

Mr. J. G. Johnston, the hardy prospector, who a short time ago made a trip to London, Eng., and was very successful in interesting capital there in Graham Island coal lands, returned to Masset last week from a trip to the west coast. Mr. Wolsley, a noted coal and oil expert, accompanied Mr. Johnston on the trip.

Mr. Arthur Robertson took the party in his launch to West River, which is nearly ten miles south of the company's property, for the purpose of the geologists to see the dip and strike of the formation seams which are particularly well exposed there.

THE PRICE OF HOMAGE

ONCE when King Edward VII. paid a visit to Sheffield, all the fires in factories and plants were allowed to die out. Not a wheel in Sheffield turned for twenty-four hours.

BUT the action was unique—it was unprecedented—it was without of that those hundreds of mighty furnaces, raging night and day, and those seething boilers, with quivering valves, should ever be allowed to cool.

SOME business men in Canada pay an unwitting homage, not to a king, but to a superstition—the superstition that hot weather justifies letting the fires of business energy go out.

HAVE ALREADY ORGANIZED. FOR MUCH BETTER FAIR

mind that today's efforts are but paving the way to greater success if the association deems it wise to continue this exhibition as an annual affair.

"It is too early to present to you any statement of the finances of the present fair, but it suffices to say that through the generosity of the citizens of Prince Rupert and the city council we have every reason to believe that this year's exhibition will be closed free of debt. Your directors have approached the Provincial government for a grant for this year, and are also looking to the future for some substantial assistance for permanent buildings to house future fairs.

"In conclusion it would be only right to mention that the press of the north has given a most loyal support to the enterprise and is in a large measure responsible for the active interest in our affairs and the splendid attendance culminating in the present exhibition."

L. Bullock-Webster, the hard working secretary, announced that the funds were in a very gratifying condition. There was a balance on hand of $3,162.85, out of which were expenses amounting to $3,098.59, leaving a net balance of $64.25. There was about $4,000 still to collect, which more than covered the amount to be paid out in prizes, so that it could be reasonably expected there would be a balance to carry over to next year.

William Manson, M. P. P., moved that this report be adopted and took occasion to say nice things about the secretary, to whom he gave credit for most of the success and even for putting in a proper order for weather conditions. He moved a vote of thanks to the officers of the association.

E. L. Fisher seconded the motion and Mr. Walker of Kitsumkalum supported it, speaking on behalf of the ranchers.

Alderman Naden moved an amendment to the bylaws to provide for the election of officers during the time of the fair, which was carried, and A. J. Prudhomme moved to amend the bylaws so that the outside districts having an advisory member should be added to the directorate, and that farmers' institutes be permitted to elect a member on the advisory board. Then followed the election of officers for the ensuing year. J. H. McMullin was re-elected in spite of his protest, and Alex. J. Prudhomme was elected vice president.

For treasurer there were nominated J. Lorne McLaren, A. Clapperton, G. R. Naden, A. H. Allison, L. Crippen, Harry Birch, J. C. Brady, Messrs. Allison, Crippen and Brady withdrew. On ballot Mr. Naden was elected.

For secretary only one was put forward, that of L. Bullock-Webster.

For directors there were nominated Messrs. Allison, Crippen, J. Lorne McLaren, M. M. Stephens, George Frizzell, E. L. Fisher, J. C. Brady, O. H. Nelson, Harry Birch and T. D. Patullo.

Those elected were Messrs. Crippen, Allison, Frizzell, Stephens and Birch.

After the election Mr. Tomlinson, the district horticulturist, was called upon for a few words. He began by saying that the fair had been far beyond what was expected and he congratulated the district upon its success and the farmers on having brought in such splendid exhibits.

Mr. Upton, the poultry expert for the province, followed. He said that this northern part of the province was well adapted for stock and poultry raising, and in regard to the latter that had been well demonstrated in this first exhibition. The birds shown here would do credit to any show, including those of New Westminster, Victoria and Vancouver.

J. L. Barge, A. J. Prudhomme, A. H. Allison, Mr. Walker, Principal Brady and Mr. Frank of Kitsumkalum all made short talks upon minor points and the meeting ended.

JOHN MURRAY WON THE LOG CHOPPING CONTEST

The log chopping contest at the fair yesterday attracted a lot of attention. There were five entries and with Mr. Wark as referee and timekeeper there were two cuts made, the aggregate time being taken as the test. John Murray, an old timer in this place, won the prize. Mr. Murray's time was 3 minutes 54 2-5 seconds and 3 minutes 10 seconds. John Curry made a faster cut, doing it in 3 minutes 53 4-5 seconds. His second cut was in 5 minutes 14 1-5 seconds, however. The other contestants were Messrs. Wallace, McKay and Alex. Fraser.

The horse races are being held this afternoon.

Among the exhibits at Industrial Hall attracting special attention are the following:

Prince Rupert Sash & Door Co. It was a surprise to many residents of the city to learn from the exhibit made by the Prince Rupert Sash & Door Co. that there is a woodworking establishment in the city capable of turning out such a highly finished product. Their exhibit was a positive demonstration that anything that is wanted in the line of store and office fixtures, doors, sash mouldings or scroll and hand sawing, also all kinds of interior house finishings, can be obtained right in Prince Rupert.

Prince Rupert Tent & Awning Co. The Prince Rupert Tent & Awning Co., one of the most progressive manufacturing concerns in the city, has a neatly arranged exhibit of their various products in canvas at the south end of Industrial Hall. This company's business has developed to such an extent that it has recently erected one of the largest blocks on Third avenue, where their show rooms and work shops are now located. In addition to manufacturing "everything in canvas" this concern also handles oil clothing, mackinaw clothing, workmen's rubber boots and gloves and carry a complete stock of harness.

C. H. Handasyde. The booth occupied by C. H. Handasyde is of interest to business and professional men of all classes. Here is to be found the very latest ideas in office furniture and supplies. Mr. Handasyde is for "Macey" filing cabinets and the "Allsteel" fireproof line. All the joints in the latter are made by an electric process. There is not a single rivet to be found in the cabinet. Underwood typewriters, the favorite typewriter in many offices of large corporations, are also handled by Mr. Handasyde.

Prince Rupert Agencies.

Among the exhibits that come in for special praise is that made by the Prince Rupert Agencies, which, among other things, is interested in the sale of land at what is known as Tye Park, about 26 miles from Prince Rupert up the Skeena on the G. T. P. main line. In their booth is shown a miniature ranch with log house and gardens and a miniature country home. The exhibit is certainly a work of art and the most minute details have not been overlooked. Between the ranch and the country home is a winding river, in which there are real live fish and over which is constructed an artistic bridge. There is a pretty road winding its way along between the old fashioned rail fences. There are fruit trees, vegetables, and all kinds of garden truck growing. In front of the country house is a miniature tennis court. The whole thing is a demonstration of Tye Park in 1914.

Western Plumbing & Supply Co.

The exhibit made by the Western Plumbing & Supply Co. is of interest to every householder or those who contemplate building homes. This company is showing a Pease hot water heater which is highly recommended by all who have used it. One strong point in connection with this heater is its economy in fuel consumption, which is a big item with coal at its present high price. The company has also a fine showing of bathtubs, toilets and all plumbing supplies. Everything handled is of the most modern type. Special mention might be made of the model of the sanitary septic tank in actual operation.

G. W. Nickerson.

G. W. Nickerson is taking advantage of the fair to advertise Quaker flour and Quaker cereals, for which he is the local agent. All visitors are served with free samples of such delicious breakfast foods as puffed wheat and puffed rice. The samples are served with cream and sugar. Some splendid samples of bread made from Quaker flour are also shown. In connection with this exhibit there is a free guessing contest which should not be overlooked.

Prince Rupert Cigar Mfg. Co.

As one continues his stroll through the Industrial Hall he becomes impressed with the fact that there are many more industries in Prince Rupert than he had imagined. Near the main entrance is a booth occupied by the Prince Rupert Cigar Mfg. Co., in which cigars are being made just the same as they would be in the factory. This concern has been established in Prince Rupert about a year, during which it has created a large demand that is constantly increasing for its two brands, Bella Rupert and Regal. M. Herman, Prop.

Geo. D. Tite.

It is unnecessary to draw attention to the splendid exhibit made by George D. Tite at the rear of Industrial Hall. One cannot miss seeing and admiring it. In one section is shown a completely furnished dining room, the furniture being of the best description.

The other portion of the exhibit is a beautifully furnished bedroom. The two exhibits demonstrate that in furnishing the home one does not have to go out of the city to get the most modern and best furniture that can be obtained. Mr. Tite carries a large stock to suit all purchasers.

Kaien Hardware Co.

With the approach of fall and winter, one's mind naturally turns to stoves and for this reason the exhibit made by the Kaien Hardware Co. is attracting a great deal of attention. This firm is selling agent for "Monarch" stoves and ranges, several different styles and sizes of which are shown. They also have on exhibition a neatly arranged display of carpenter's tools and guns and rifles.

Kaien Mfg. Co.

If no other result were accomplished by the fair, it is amply justified in the demonstration to the public that there are in Prince Rupert manufacturing concerns turning out finished products that compare favorably with those of factories much longer established. Among these is the Kaien Mfg. Co., which is showing a handsomely finished mantel piece, buffet and wooden bed. The work was much admired by most visitors to the Industrial Hall.

Port Edward Townsite.

Harrison, Gamble & Co., agents for Port Edward townsite, occupy a booth on the east side of the building prettily decorated with the exhibition colors. A painted landscape view of Prince Rupert's industrial annex is the central feature of the exhibit. Literature and complete information may be obtained on application to those in attendance.
