

SAN FRANCISCO MINT LOOTED OF THIRTY THOUSAND

BRITAIN BEGINS TO SEE ULSTER IS NOT BLUFFING--BANK RETURNS SHOW BIG IMPROVEMENT

PROMINENT MINING MEN ON VISIT TO HAZELTON DISTRICT

MINING MAN WHO HAS MADE A THOROUGH INVESTIGATION SAYS IT WILL BECOME BIGGEST MINING CAMP IN BRITISH COLUMBIA

Among the arrivals by the steamer Prince Rupert this morning were P. W. Clarke, son of Patrick Clarke, a wealthy mining man of Spokane, and M. Sullivan, mining expert from Moscow. On their arrival here they were met by H. W. C. Jackson, who was engaged by the Hazelton Mine Owners' Association some time ago for the purpose of making a thorough examination of the properties in that vicinity with a view to interesting outside capital.

Mr. Jackson, who has been spending several days in the city, is most enthusiastic over the possibilities of the Hazelton district and predicts that within a short space of time it will be one of the busiest mining camps in British Columbia.

Mr. Clarke, Mr. Sullivan, and Mr. Jackson left by this morning's train for Hazelton, where they will spend some time making a careful investigation of the extent of the ore bodies. Judging from Mr. Jackson's report there seems to be no doubt but that the gentlemen he has been the means of bringing here will be so favorably impressed that extensive mining operations will start in the Hazelton district in the very near future.

SAN FRANCISCO MINT LOOTED OF GOLD SACK

Rumored that Robbers Got Away With Thirty Thousand Dollars

(Special to The Daily News.)
San Francisco, Sept. 27.—An unconfirmed rumor is going around that the United States mint was looted last night of a sack containing $30,000 in gold. The superintendent of the mint refuses to confirm or deny the rumor, stating that all information must come from Washington.

Mr. Upton, provincial government poultry expert, left for the south yesterday morning, having finished his duties as judge of the poultry exhibits.

BEGINNING TO REALIZE ULSTER'S NOT BLUFFING

Government Orders Irish Constabulary to Belfast to Look After Anticipated Riots.

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, Sept. 27.—That the government is beginning to realize that Ulster is not bluffing is shown in the fact that the Irish constabulary has been ordered to Belfast to look after the anticipated rioting at the review by Sir Edward Carson of the Ulster volunteers today. The militia is to keep order in Dublin meanwhile.

The suggestion is made that Earl Roseberry place himself at the head of the moderate Liberals, as his so doing may possibly bring order out of the home rule chaos.

AWARDS FOR GREAT DISPLAY OF OUR MINERAL RESOURCES

HAZELTON WON FOR BEST DISTRICT DISPLAY OF ANY KIND OF ORES AND PORTLAND CANAL FOR LARGEST INDIVIDUAL EXHIBIT.

HORSE RACES WERE QUITE ENTERTAINING

Large Crowd Witnessed Some Interesting Events on Second Avenue Yesterday.

One of the most interesting features of yesterday's fair program was the horse races on second avenue. While no track records were broken, the various heats and other contests afforded a great deal of amusement for the large crowd of spectators which lined both sides of the street.

In the trotting race Roy Moore won first place and J. A. Lindsay second.

W. Sherman won first in the running event and J. A. Lindsay second.

The slow race was quite an interesting event. First prize was won by Mr. Murray and second by Mr. Milne.

In the hitching-contest J. A. Lindsay won first and Joe Lindsay second.

An unfortunate accident happened in the running race as the result of a bad saddle girth. Albert Wild, cutter at P. Burns' butcher shop, being thrown from Burns' bay saddle horse in front of the Westholme Theatre. While no bones were broken, he sustained a bad flesh wound which may lay him up for a couple of weeks.

Considerable excitement was also caused by the bolting of Frank Kelly's horse, which dashed through the crowd at the corner of Sixth street. While several persons were knocked down, none received any serious injury.

BOYS RIFLE MAIL CAR

Stole Locomotive and Escaped Into the Brush.

(Special to The Daily News.)
Cottondale, Ala., Sept. 27.—The two mere boy bandits who rifled the mail car and dynamited the express safe of the Alabama Great Southern train at midnight escaped with their booty, estimated at fifty thousand dollars. They forced the crew to line up and escaped with the engine into the bush.

GRANBY SMELTER

Ready for Operation About the Beginning of Year.

G. W. Wooster, secretary-treasurer of the Granby Consolidated Smelting, Mining & Power Co., Ltd., is in the city today, en route to Granby Bay. In conversation with a News representative this morning he said that he fully expected to see their big smelting plant in operation about the first of the year. Work on the new dam there is being rushed forward as rapidly as possible.

CLOSING SESSION OF THE ANGLICAN SYNOD

Many Votes of Thanks Passed—Members Spiritually Uplifted and Encouraged.

The closing session of the synod was held on Friday morning, beginning at 9:30 with a devotional meeting, which was led by Rev. Mr. McCullagh, who gave a most helpful and highly appreciated address on the equipment required by the Christian worker in order to do efficient work for Christ. Rev. Mr. Marsh and Archdeacon Collison took part in this meeting. At the conclusion of the meeting a short business session was held, at which a few unfinished matters were disposed of and a number of votes of thanks were passed, among which were one to the ladies of the Woman's Auxiliary of St. Andrew's Church for the splendid luncheon provided to the delegates, another to the hosts and hostesses who so kindly opened their houses to entertain the delegates during their stay in the city, another to the bishop of the diocese for the able, impartial and careful manner in which he presided over the sessions of the synod, another to the press for the most generous way in which they opened up their columns to give space to information concerning the doings of the synod and this in face of the fact that they must have been crowded with exhibition notes besides other special city news during the week.

A letter of condolence was drafted to be forwarded to Mrs. Tomlinson expressing the sorrow of the synod for the death of her husband, Rev. Mr. Tomlinson, who for forty years had done such excellent work among the Indians of this part of Canada.

A letter was also drafted to be sent to Rev. Mr. Keen expressing the great regret of the synod at his withdrawal from work in the diocese and expressing the hope that he and Mrs. Keen would be granted many happy years in their English home.

With a hymn and the benediction by the bishop there came to an end one of the most successful synods yet held in the diocese, all the members returning to their respective fields of labor having received a great spiritual uplift and also being much encouraged by the progress that had been made and the bright prospects for the future of the church in Northern B. C.

ENTHUSIASTIC LIBERAL RALLY WITH OUT OF TOWN LIBERALS

Provincial Politics Discussed by A. M. Manson, Captain Fred Stork, T. J. Vaughn-Rhys, C. W. Peck, W. J. Mackenzie and Others---The Arrogant Oligarchy of Bowser-McBride Denounced

Taking advantage of the number of visiting Liberals in the city for the fair, the local Liberal association last night held a grand rally in St. Andrew's Hall and, although there were so many other attractions, there was a large attendance. President A. M. Manson made the introductory and closing speeches, and among others who made addresses were Captain Fred Stork, Mr. T. J. Vaughn-Rhys, from Stewart, C. W. Peck, Prince Rupert; W. J. Mackenzie, New Hazelton. The slogan of the gathering was: "Let's banish Bowser and smash the machine," and this proved a catching text for most of the speeches.

President Manson gave a warm welcome to the out-of-town members of the Liberal party and stated that now was the time when the party should do everything possible to strengthen its organization, in view of the fact that a redistribution bill was to be passed at the next session of the legislature which would give Skeena three seats instead of one as at present. In that case there would be an election suddenly sprung upon the people, as was the last election. That was so sudden and with such short notice that there were many voters in the district who never knew there was an election until after it was over. In the coming event the Liberal party would be found better prepared because more thoroughly organized throughout the whole district, and Sir Richard McBride would certainly not go back with the majority he has but with one very much reduced. (Applause.) But he would strongly impress upon all present that they must be on their guard against Tory tricks, and not be taken by surprise as they were the last time.

Mr. Manson then briefly sketched the history of the association and showed the tremendous results that had been accomplished in the matter of organization throughout the province. This work had been as well done in Skeena district as in any other part. Skeena was really a Liberal riding, and should return three Liberal members. It was their duty, therefore, to go out and gather in sufficient funds to make the wheels go round. If they wanted good government in British Columbia it was necessary to furnish the munitions of war.

Captain Fred Stork said it was always a pleasure to him to address a meeting of Liberals and he was pleased to have this opportunity of addressing so many from outside the city. He could not understand why any man who came to this new country could be anything but a Liberal. All the liberties enjoyed by the masses had come from the Liberal party, but in British Columbia we were governed by an arrogant autocracy. (Applause.)

But he believed the next election would prove the beginning of the end of this oligarchy. It was a time when he would flop to be a Liberal, although he was not of the flopping kind.

The Conservative party of this province was headed for the rocks as fast as it could go, being driven by the force of internal dissensions. In all likelihood there would be a redistribution of seats sprung upon them as the last election was sprung. They should be prepared. They should go back to their homes and let their neighbors know of the course of the Conservatives in the matter of the registration of voters for the last election. Tell them this significant fact, that, although the Bowser machine held forty seats out of the forty-one, yet the party was so badly split up that it was fearful of defeat.

T. J. Vaughn-Rhys of Stewart said the people present from the outlying districts in connection with the excellent fair should feel grateful for such an opportunity of displaying the natural resources of their several districts. Also, as they of the Skeena district were meeting in a Skeena fort they should make a declaration of faith. It was a common reproach that the Liberals had nothing to say except to utter words of fierce condemnation.

DAILY EDITION

Saturday, Sept. 27, 1913.

FOR A BIGGER AND BETTER FAIR.

Well, the first attempt at a fair made by Prince Rupert proved an unqualified success. It is over now and none but pleasurable and self-congratulatory memories are connected with it. The editorial suggestion of The News that as soon as possible after this week of holiday making the Prince Rupert Agricultural and Industrial Association turn to and set about arranging for a bigger and better fair next year must have been in many other minds. Perhaps the suggestion merely helped to give it practical form.

At any rate, the association may be complimented in taking time by the forelock and harnessing him for the next event of the same character. Taking advantage of the number of members from out of town, the association held a general meeting on Thursday evening, selected its officers for the ensuing year and made the few necessary dabs at reorganization. Everything is now in order to go right ahead. The time to do a thing is now, even though you are working for a year ahead.

It must be remembered, too, that there is so much to do for this greater and more extensive enterprise we are undertaking for next year. In our despatches of yesterday you read that President Chamberlin had the pleasure of informing his board of directors that the great transcontinental railway will be completed in nine months from now. That is three months before our next fair opens. It means that by the time the association is getting its posters out there will be thousands of people desirous of seeing the great Pacific terminus of the great railway, and that quite a number would rather see Prince Rupert en fête, and when such a wonderful opportunity is presented of viewing a comprehensive exhibition of the whole of our wonderful resources, than in her more prosaic periods.

This announcement of Mr. Chamberlin is in itself sufficient warrant for getting busy at once. There is that ten acre tract to be secured; there are plans to be prepared for finer exhibition buildings than any in this province, contracts to let, materials from a distance to be brought and building operations to be begun early in order to have these extensive erections completed in time. What with the planning and placing in order of these recreation grounds, the making of the race track, the building of the grand stand and so on, there is so much to be done. Then there is the building of the drill hall, the post office, the two million dollar railway hotel, the great railway erections and passenger depot—really what a bustle we are going to be in to get things ready by the time the first train comes in from Moncton. And among the busy people the fair association executive will be about the busiest.

LIBERAL MONTHLY MAKES ITS DEBUT.

Quite apropos of the important Liberal rally held in this city last night, on the Princess Mary arrived copies of Canada's newest periodical, which is called The Canadian Liberal Monthly and is published at Ottawa under the auspices of the Liberal party. As its name indicates, it is a monthly magazine devoted to the exposition of Liberal principles and Liberal policies in federal politics. The introductory article states that the magazine, while vigorously expressing the Liberal viewpoint on all the political issues of the day, will endeavor to appeal to every citizen irrespective of his political beliefs. The inaugural number contains a general article reviewing the principles of Liberalism and the tendencies and characteristics of the Borden government. There are three cartoons and a number of articles on current politics. The magazine will be placed on sale throughout Canada. It is published by the Central Liberal Information Office.

SETTLED POLICY OF BRITAIN
PROMOTION OF WORLD PEACE

DESTINY OF DOMINIONS LIES IN CLINGING TO EMPIRE TIES, DECLARED BRITISH POSTMASTER GENERAL IN SPEECH AT VANCOUVER.

"The settled policy of the British government is the promotion of world peace. The larger nations grow the less chance there is of conflict. The bare fact that the British Empire covers such a tremendous area and has such a large population is the best possible guarantee of peace," said the Rt. Hon. Herbert Samuel in the course of one of the most brilliant speeches ever delivered before the Vancouver Canadian Club.

"If Great Britain decided to be dominant in this world by force of arms she could plunge the entire civilized world into a terrible war. This spectacle does not inspire, however. Great Britain is a distinctly pacific power," he continued.

Speaking of the mutual advantages of the British Empire, he said that the motherland gained by having dominions in that they are constantly increasing the British population of the world, making for a more solid empire. Secondly, she benefits by the fact that in time of trouble the dominions are a force on which the motherland can rely. Thirdly, the motherland gains in trade, as trade follows the flag. And, fourthly, she gains because the dominions offer her an outlet for her overflowing population and a safe field for investment.

The dominions gain, he said, by being members of the Empire, and through that fact they are secure. The combined forces of the Empire are at the service of each portion. Canada, as a portion of the Empire, gets the best possible class of British emigrants, who would go elsewhere if Canada were not a portion of the Empire.

Then, again, capital to develop the country is due to the membership in the one great family. Canada, he said, gained by having a wide patriotism. If Canada were separated from the Empire with her small population and vast area the patriotism of the people here would be narrow and small and Canada could never become a world power.

Lastly, Canada's trading ships were always protected by belonging to the Empire, for the ships of Great Britain on the seven seas were always there to protect.

ANNUAL ELECTION OF OFFICERS MADE BY THE ANGLICAN SYNOD

ADDRESSES ON CHURCH WORK UNDER WESTERN CONDITIONS AND CHURCH WORK AMONG THE YOUNG—SYNOD CLOSSES TODAY

Before the business proceedings of the second day of the synod there was a celebration of the holy communion, with an inspiring devotional address from Rev. G. A. Rix, the new rector of St. Andrew's, Prince Rupert.

At 11:30 the synod resumed its business session. The minutes of the previous day were read and adopted. It was felt that the time had come for the diocese to relieve the honorary secretary somewhat of his onerous duties by securing professional assistance to supervise diocesan finances. The bishop was pleased to report the possible appointment of Mr. C. C. Purdie, of the Canadian Bank of Commerce.

The question of the eastern boundary of the Diocese of Caledonia was discussed. The synod felt that the boundaries of the ecclesiastical province of B. C. should be those of the civil province and desired that the provincial synod, which meets in Victoria in February next, should be memorialized to that effect.

The committee on travelling expenses recommended the payment of 50 per cent. of the clergyman's expenses to and from the synod.

At midday, according to the custom of Canadian synods, the midday prayers for missions in general were read, after which the synod proceeded with the election of members to the various committees, as follows: Mr. C. C. Purdie was unanimously elected secretary-treasurer of the Caledonia synod.

Members of the Board of Governors of the Anglican Theological College of B. C.—Venerable Archdeacon Collison, Rev. G. A. Rix, Rev. W. F. Rushbrook, as clerical members; H. J. Cambie, G. H. Cowan, W. J. Clark, as lay members were re-elected.

Members to the Provincial Synod of B. C.—Venerable Archdeacon Collison, Rev. R. W. Gurd, Rev. J. B. McCullagh, Rev. W. F. Rushbrook, Rev. G. A. Rix, as clerical; W. E. Fisher, W. J. Kennaugh, C. F. Morrison, J. H. McMullin, as lay.

The bishop was empowered to appoint both clerical and lay substitutes in the event of any vacancies arising.

Members on the Board of the Missionary Society of the Church of England in Canada.—Venerable Archdeacon Collison, Rev. W. J. Southam, C. J. Marsh, clerical; E. A. Du Vernet, K. C.; W. J. Clark, lay. The bishop was empowered to choose substitutes if necessary.

Members on the Sunday School Commission.—Rev. W. E. Collison and Rev. L. C. Banks, clerical.

Members of the Executive Committee.—Rev. G. A. Rix and Rev. W. E. Collison and the following clergy were selected by the bishop: Venerable Archdeacon Collison, Rev. R. W. Gurd. Lay elections: J. H. McMullin and W. J. Kennaugh and the bishop selected Sheriff Shirley.

The Indian Committee.—Composed of all engaged in Indian work.

The Diocesan Sunday School Committee.—Rev. G. A. Rix, Rev. W. E. Collison, Rev. L. C. Banks, Miss West, Miss Soul of Hazelton.

Moral Social Reform Committee.—Rev. G. A. Rix (convener), Rev. H. G. Kingstone.

The evening session resolved itself into a conference on "Church Work Under Western Conditions" and "Church Work Amongst the Young." Rev. W. F. Rushbrook led the former discussion and Rev. G. A. Rix the latter. Both addresses were characterized by force and power. Mr. Rushbrook took as the basis of his remarks the "Parable of the Sower." In his winning way he dealt very suggestively with this parable and its present-day application. "Concentrate on the good that is in men" was the burden of his message.

Rev. T. J. Marsh spoke from long and valuable experience in the west, powerfully endorsing Mr. Rushbrook's remarks. He gripped his hearers by his earnest and feeling words. "If we shrink from those who differ with us, instinctively they will shrink from us. We must not taboo any man's views; we must take his sincerity for granted," said Mr. Marsh. The synod indeed was fortunate in having such speakers and their words will not soon be forgotten.

Rev. G. A. Rix spoke of work among the young from his ripe experience in Eastern Canada. As the hour was late the discussion was necessarily curtailed, but brief as it was it was of a very practical nature.

The synod met this morning to conclude its business.

TRIBUTE TO RUPERT MEN.

Paid by a Recent Literary Visitor to This City.

Editor Trainor, of the Masset Leader, who spent last week here, devotes a couple of columns to Prince Rupert in his issue of this week, and in addition says editorially:

"The men who have pinned their faith to Prince Rupert are in the main a sturdy bunch of pioneers. They may not have lost any of the commercial traits of their ancestors and the race for the almighty dollar is just as keen there as elsewhere, but they are a broad minded, liberal people who are willing to give the other fellow a chance. They are men of the north whom Bob Service and Kipling and London accorded a high place in song and story. Many of them have fought the elements within the zone of the Arctic Circle, 'where the Northern Lights come down o' nights, to dance with the houseless snow.' Many have 'mushed' it many weary miles to reported new gold fields; others have pioneered in the quartz belts of the Kootenays and Boundary section; men who have blazed trails with old John Houston and helped him fight his battles, but all men whose natures have not been warped but rather chastened by the stern vicissitudes of life. The Graham Island pioneers will get a fraternal greeting this week when they touch Rupert's shores."

MOTOR CAR ACCIDENT

One Man Killed and Two Others Injured

(Special to The Daily News)

Toronto, Sept. 26.—As a result of a motor car accident on the Cooksville road last night Wm. McKay James was killed and two others injured. One of the rear wheels of the car was torn from its axle, causing the car to turn completely over.

THE PRICE OF HOMAGE

ONCE when King Edward VII. paid a visit to Sheffield, all the fires in factories and plants were allowed to die out. Not a wheel in Sheffield turned for twenty-four hours. The primary object of this was to lift the pall of smoke that hovers over that wonderful steel-producing city, and to ensure, as far as man was able, a bright day and a blue sky for an auspicious occasion. It was Sheffield's expression of respect.

BUT the action was unique—it was unprecedented—it was unthought of that those hundreds of mighty furnaces, raging night and day, and those seething boilers, with quivering valves, should ever be allowed to cool. This extinguishing of fires cost Sheffield hundreds of thousands of dollars—the price of the effort to get back again to high-power efficiency.

SOME business men in Canada pay an unwitting homage, not to a king, but to a superstition—the superstition that hot weather justifies letting the fires of business energy go out. They stop Advertising in the Summer months. By paying homage to tradition, custom, superstition, they have allowed Summer to become their "dull" season. You know how dull it can be when you don't advertise. Do you know how brisk it can be made by Advertising? Do you realize how much momentum you now lose in the Summer that must be regained in the Fall?

DON'T LET YOUR ADVERTISING FIRES DIE OUT THIS SUMMER.

Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any recognized Canadian advertising agency, or the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 503 Lumsden Building, Toronto. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write, if interested.

ENTHUSIASTIC LIBERAL RALLY LAST EVENING

tion against the McBride-Bowser combination, and it seemed to him that once in a while they should make their declaration of faith and declare just what they believed in. The lines between Liberalism and Conservatism should be clearly drawn.

The doctrine of Liberalism was that they believed every man, high and low, rich and poor, had the right of self-government among themselves. He took it also that the principle of Conservatism was that a government should be conserved for the benefit of a selected few. Conservatism meant the government of the many by the few for the benefit of the few. We have a McBride-Bowser combine ruling this province for the benefit of themselves and their friends and a few speculators in government timber and lands.

This government was doing its possible for the land speculator and nothing for the settler. The settler was left many miles from transportation without roads. He was isolated for the benefit of the land speculator to whom McBride and Bowser had given the best part of the territory. The province had lost representative government because that depended on a well balanced party and a strong opposition. McBride said there was no need of an opposition; that his big majority showed how just and great he was. It showed, on the contrary, what a bladder of conceit he was. Every man who has the good of his country at heart should join the Liberal party, not at election time but now. They should thoroughly organize to turn out this government that has robbed us of our rights and mortgaged our future. (Applause.)

C. W. Peck of Prince Rupert began his speech, as he usually does, with quaint humorous remarks about the fair, in which he expressed the pleasure he had in seeing Johnny Murray win the log chopping contest. He had seen Johnny win a similar contest at New Westminster twenty-six years ago, and Johnny looked as old then as he did now. (Laughter.)

Coming to politics, Mr. Peck took up the naval question, the Liberal policy being to establish a navy of our own, and the Conservative policy to contribute thirty-five millions to a navy to be established in the North Sea. His ridicule of Borden's "emergency" was very telling. For this he went to the official statistics of warship building of the world, showing from it that the 666 warships of the British navy gave her an unparalleled superiority over any nation of the world. The Conservatives had adopted this naval policy because they had no faith in themselves or in the Canadian people. They said that Canadians could not build warships. The Liberal party said there was nothing that Canadians could not do, and they insisted on a navy built in Canada and manned by Canadians, and for the Canadian people to be able to say when and where they should sail for war.

W. J. Mackenzie of New Hazelton gave a brief review of what the Liberal party had accomplished in his district in the way of organization, beginning in a tent and culminating in a strong association of which he was proud to be president. They had not only enrolled all the Liberals, but all the doubtfuls and some of the Conservatives. He warned his hearers to beware of Conservative trickery, such as at the last registration, when before voters knew of the passage of the bill Tory heeled were going around with their pockets stuffed with application blanks and getting voters on the new list.

He then gave a few instances in regard to some of the local appropriations. The government had built a sidewalk at New Hazelton at a cost for lumber of $75 per thousand, while the town people themselves had built one at a cost of $25.50 per thousand. It was the same thing in all these government appropriations, not 25 per cent. of the money being spent in the work actually done. In the doing of the work the Liberals had not a lookin, only Conservative voters being given jobs. The public money went to enrich the government supporters. Dick McBride and Borden were much alike in their policies. Borden went to the admiralty in London and offered to make them a present of thirty-five millions of the people's money just to show them he was a good fellow.

President Manson wound up the meeting with a strong appeal for manly work to perfect their organization, becoming eloquent on the wonderful promise for Liberal success that was to be found in the present political situation.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS.

Mr. Young, of Harrison, Gamble & Co.'s office, has gone south on a business trip.

Geo. Morrow left for Vancouver yesterday. He expects to return in about a month.

A. J. Burroughs, of the Ocean Falls Co., returned this morning from a short trip to Vancouver.

W. A. Pettigrew, of the government land office, returned this morning from a week's trip to Vancouver.

Rev. and Mrs. Greene who have been attending the Synod meetings left by the Prince Albert last night for their home at Queens-town.

Constantine Michaelo, the lad whose skull was fractured a week or so ago by falling from the city wharf, is reported to be recovering remarkably well.

J. C. Shepard, who was confined to the hospital for a couple of weeks suffering from rheumatism, left for the south on the Prince George yesterday.

Mrs. Small of Telkwa, who was admitted to the hospital Thursday evening on arrival of the train from the interior suffering from a tumor, is reported to be slightly improved today.

There will be a drawing at the Empress Theatre on Tuesday evening on behalf of Carl Andersen, who lost his eyesight while blasting last winter. The drawing will be in charge of Alderman Dybbavn.

Among the clergy attending the synod meetings who returned to their homes by this morning's train were Rev. and Mrs. Larter of Hazelton, Rev. and Mrs. Petter of Terrace, Rev. Mr. Marsh, Terrace, and Rev. Mr. Kingstone, Smithers.

Mrs. F. W. Dowling and son, who have been visiting her mother at Vancouver for the past three months, returned to the city this morning on the steamship Prince Rupert. They were accompanied by Miss Phelan, daughter of Superintendent Phelan, of the Dominion telegraph.

R. W. Froude, of Scott, Froude & Co., who has been enjoying a six weeks' holiday at Cortez Island fishing and hunting, returned this morning to again take up the worries and responsibilities of business life. He was accompanied by his brother, F. E. Froude, who will be his guest for some weeks.

W. J. McCaul, inspector for the railway commission, left yesterday for the south after a trip into the interior as far as Hubert for the purpose of inspecting station sites. In regard to extension of freight and passenger service beyond Moricetown, Mr. McCaul said he thought trains would be running to Smithers in a few weeks.

Rev. J. B. McCullagh of Aiyansh will preach at St. Andrew's Church tomorrow morning. The reverend gentleman, who has spent the last thirty years among the Indians of the Naas, has had many interesting experiences. In the early days of his career there it was a common thing to see the Indians in their war paint and feathers. He has been in many tight corners but has always pulled through as a result of his wonderful tact in handling the Indians. He relates many interesting stories about destroying Indian stills which he discovered.

APPEAL IN LIQUOR CASE IS DISMISSED

Judge Young Upholds Decision of Magistrate Carss

His Honor Judge Young this morning rendered his decision in the appeal by Corley & Burgess of the Royal Hotel against the conviction by Magistrate Carss, in which the appellants were found guilty of selling liquor in their restaurant contrary to law. His Honor confirmed the magistrate's conviction with costs. In confirming the conviction His Honor added: "After hearing the evidence of Mr. Corley, I think it but fair to the appellants to add that in my opinion the act in question was not done with any intent on their part to evade the liquor license act, but on the contrary, as they seemed to have been advised in the premises, it was their honest opinion that they were within their rights when the liquor was served under the circumstances mentioned. I see no reason why his explanation in this regard should not be accepted, more especially in view of the fact that he was not cross-examined on the point."

S. S. PRINCE RUPERT MADE FINE LANDING

The best exhibition of a star-board landing by a large passenger steamer was made by the Prince Rupert this morning when Captain McKenzie brought his ship up alongside the wharf and had everything in readiness for the passengers to come ashore within two or three minutes. The big steamer just glided along the wharf at a lively pace, slackened speed and tied up. It was just as simple as the arrival of an express train. Captain McKenzie should be presented with a medal for the splendid exhibition.

The passenger list was somewhat smaller than usual, 51 saloon passengers and 50 deck. Following is a list of the saloon passengers:

S. Sheppard, J. Thompson, R. Callahan, R. D. Affleck, J. K. Affleck, R. W. Froude, F. E. Froude, Mr. Newcombe, A. J. Burroughs, P. W. Clarke, M. Sullivan, M. B. Cotsworth, G. Hipp, F. Manee, P. Dowling, Mrs. Dowling, J. Albi, Miss Phelan, Miss Germain, W. Whitelaw, F. Matson, S. Swanson, J. V. Ritenhouse, A. Boddy, W. A. Pettigrew, A. W. Agnew, Mrs. Agnew, Mrs. Graham, Mr. Warren, E. T. Harlow, W. C. King, G. W. Wooster, Miss Saunders, P. Bloomquist, J. G. James, Mrs. James, A. C. McCall, Mrs. McCall, P. D. Hillis, Mrs. Bone, F. H. Parks, Miss Grant, H. E. Wood, Mrs. Wood, F. H. Moore, Mrs. W. H. Folan, J. E. Merryfield, E. T. Unwin, B. Hill, Mrs. Schmidt, Mr. Beer.
