BORDEN'S TRICK A BOOMERANG

In order to strengthen his following in the Senate and thus be able to make Great Britain a present of thirty-five millions of the money belonging to the people of Canada when next the matter comes up, Premier Borden took a Conservative member of the House from a safe conservative constituency and made him a Senator. The by-election to fill the vacancy thus created took place yesterday and the Liberal candidate was elected, and thus Premier Borden's plan went all agley. The local morning contemporary finds an excuse for this contempts in the fact that "the township of Carrick (one of the towns in the South Bruce constituency) is solid German. In that township English is seldom spoken unless it be that an English-speaking visitor enters it." Meaning, of course, that these Germans failed to bottom the depth of the Borden diplomacy and that therefore the premier failed to hoodwing them. He should have sent the Hon. Robert Rogers, who succeeded so well among the French at Chateauguay. But that was because the French have an old-time saying that "L'argent parle toutes les langues de tout le monde."

KEEP TO THE RIGHT A GOOD OLD RULE.

The recommendation of the Vancouver grand jury that vehicles shall keep to the right side of the road instead of the left will meet with general approval in British Columbia. In every other province of the Dominion as well as in the United States vehicles take the right side and people coming from the east and the south, constituting as they do the greater part of the influx to this province, are constantly endangered because of their unfamiliarity with our road rules. There is absolutely no reason why the present custom should be retained. It was imported from the old country and is in variance with that of every other part of this continent. It tends to endless confusion and not the least important reason for its abolition is the fact that drivers of motor cars, which, owing to their speed, are the greatest danger on our streets, are almost a unit in favor of the change.

RAILWAY COMMISSIONERS IN THE WEST

Chairman Harry L. Drayton, of the Dominion Board of Railway Commissioners, and Commissioner Dr. Mills, who are starting out from Ottawa to hold sittings in several western cities and towns, and clean up a lot of local business, after which they will return to help tackle the freight rates case.

PRIME MINISTER ASQUITH ON THE HOME RULE DISCUSSION

SAYS THE ACTION OF MINISTERS IS NOT TO BE AFFECTED OR DEFLECTED BY THE MENACE OF FORCIBLE RESISTANCE BY ULSTER.

London, Oct. 27.—In his speech at Reading Prime Minister Asquith dwelt quite lengthily on the home rule question and the Ulster situation. In the course of this he said: "The bill as it left the Commons, as it had been twice rejected by the House of Lords, had the hearty approval of the whole Liberal party in Great Britain and of the vast majority of the Nationalists and there was abundant evidence that it had practically the united support of most all self-governing dominions. "In these circumstances there is, in my opinion, a complete constitutional case for proceeding in the next session regarding the Irish government bill by applying to it the operation of the parliament act. "Ought the action of statesmen to be affected or deflected by the menace of forcible resistance to the execution of the law? "The doctrines preached during the last two years in the north of Ireland, which, I regret to say, have received countenance in responsible quarters in this country, are a negation of the first principle of parliamentary, and still more, of democratic government. If the Ulster minority is entitled to resist home rule, what possible answer could be made to a like claim by the masses of the Irish people? (Cheers.) No; we need not and shall not be intimidated by the threat of force." (Prolonged cheers.) Then, speaking slowly and deliberately, the prime minister said: "I have more than once expressed the hope and belief that the new system of the government in Ireland would be brought into operation without recourse to armed forces by the Crown; but if a statute deliberately enacted by parliament were to be met by organized armed resistance, it would clearly be not only the right but the duty of the executive to assert the authority of the law by every appropriate and adequate means."

JEALOUS LOVER AND CONSTABLE FOUGHT PISTOL DUEL IN DARK

TEN SHOTS WERE EXCHANGED, THE LOVER DROPPING DEAD AND THE CONSTABLE BEING FATALLY WOUNDED —INTENT TO MURDER GIRL.

Lewiston, Mont., Oct. 27.—As the result of a pistol duel in the dark over a plowed field, Constable A. Cheney of Denton, Mont., shot and killed Stanley B. Scofield, aged 25, a young homesteader from Tropico, Cal., and was himself shot and fatally wounded by Scofield. The tragedy prevented a worse one, as Scofield was waiting, the authorities say, to kill his former sweetheart, Miss Hazel Wright, of Denton, and James Johnston, a farmer, after which he planned to kill himself. Scofield showed no ill feeling over his rejection by Miss Wright until last night, when he went to the Johnston farm, two miles north of Denton, Mrs. Johnston being his aunt. Mr. Johnston opened the door and Scofield asked him to step out. As he did so Scofield jumped between him and the door and, covering him with a revolver, ordered him to get out his automobile. Scofield told Johnston to get in, drive to Denton, get Miss Wright and drive back in a hurry. He thoroughly cowed the farmer by saying he intended to kill Miss Wright on her arrival and intended to inflict the same penalty on Johnston. When Johnston found Miss Wright and told her what had occurred, the girl determined to risk her own life rather than risk the lives of others exposed to the man's jealous fury. Johnston, with Constable Cheney and Justice Webb Modrow, took their revolvers and entered the car. Some distance from the Johnston home the officers got out to walk over the plowed field to the home. As Constable Cheney advanced he made out the figure of a man 50 feet away and ordered him to throw up his hands. The answer was a shot from Scofield, and the men advanced toward each other. Scofield fired seven shots while Cheney fired three. Scofield's last shot struck Cheney in the left breast. As he fell he cried out, "I am shot," and fired for the third time. This bullet struck Scofield in the face, going into the brain and killing him instantly. The men fell almost at the same moment, seven feet apart.

THE MODERN CARPET OF BAGDAD

THERE are few people who do not know the story of the wonderful carpet on which the owner had but to sit, wish to be at some place and, lo! immediately he found himself there.

Some agents of this nature would be appreciated by many a manufacturer in jumping the demand for his product into a thousand places, a thousand miles away from his factory.

But he has overlooked the modern Carpet of Bagdad.

It is Newspaper Advertising.

Fanciful you say? Did you ever hear of Edwards' Soups? Well, the genial old cook who forms the trade mark just jumped right from Ireland to a thousand places in Canada in a week—on the Carpet of Newspaper Advertising.

Ever hear of Tillson's Oats? The "braw Scot" who stands for this product stepped over night, as it were, from a small town in Ontario to practically every town and village in Canada.

Wrigley's Gum—Sunshine Furnaces—Comfort Soap—all have taken advantage of this Modern Carpet of Bagdad—Newspaper Advertising.

TO THE MANUFACTURERS OF CANADA:

If you have a name and a product that you wish placed in demand throughout Canada, take advantage at once of the modern carpet of Bagdad—Newspaper Advertising.
