LONDON RECEPTION FOR MRS. PANKHURST

If She is Not Arrested by the English Police Soon After She Lands.

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, Nov. 28.—The news that Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst is on the Atlantic returning from the United States with $20,000 has occasioned great jubilation among the militant wing of the suffragettes, and they are making vigorous efforts to organize a great reception for her.

If the militant leader is not arrested she is to proceed to London for a "welcome" meeting at Earl's Court, and will afterward open a provincial campaign. The most pertinent question on the subject at the moment is, will she be arrested by the English police. She had served only a few weeks of her sentence of three years of penal servitude for meeting to outrage when released from prison on May 30.

Charged with Burglary.

Ben Woodwards, who has been in the eye of the police before, was taken in the toils yesterday and charged with burglary. The police think he was the man who did the shop breaking last Sunday morning. Ben appeared before Magistrate Carss this morning, with L. W. Patmore defending him. Circumstantial evidence showed that the prisoner was keeping bad hours, but as yet the crime has not been fixed on him. When he was remanded until tomorrow, when he appears on a second charge.

NO PROSPECT OF AGREEMENT ON THE HOME RULE QUESTION

PREMIER ASQUITH'S SPEECH A GRAVE DISAPPOINTMENT TO THOSE SANGUINE OF PEACEFUL ISSUE --- SCANDALS IN BOTH ARMY AND NAVY

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, Nov. 28.—The expected speech from Premier Asquith at the meeting of the National Liberal Federation was eagerly awaited because it was expected to throw some light on the question as to how far the negotiations for settlement by agreement had been successful. His speech last night, however, was a disappointment to those sanguine of a peaceful issue. What he did say was:

"I should be deceiving myself if I told you that I saw at this moment a prospect of agreement. But I cannot agree with those who say that time has been or is being wasted. As to the rumors of there being a division of opinion on the subject among the members of the cabinet, I can assure you there is no foundation for such reports. The cabinet is united on the no surrender principle."

London, Nov. 28.—Two scandals affecting the army and navy were reported yesterday and created a profound sensation. Fleet Paymaster John Lowry has disappeared and a sum of $75,000 is missing. Warrants have been issued for his arrest. A number of the senior non-commissioned officers of the various regiments have been arrested, charged with accepting bribes in connection with orders for their commissariats.

ENGLISH, IGNORANCE AND TORY BUNK

The Tory morning organ charges that the Daily News accused the police authorities with "commissioning men who do not understand the English language to shoot down defenceless citizens in the Hazelton district. Yet those who know the Edgar family, which is of Indian extraction, know that they understand the English language as well as the editors of the Prince Rupert papers."

The charge is absolutely false. The Daily News said nothing about Edgar's English or ignorance. It did say that the dead man was probably almost totally ignorant of the English language but that his ignorance was not punishable by death.

It is quite evident that when anything in print reflects upon the mis-management of Mr. Bride's servants the Tory organ gets stigmatism of the optics.

OVERLOOKING OUR OPPORTUNITIES.

Sir Henry Pellett, the multi-millionaire, has just compromised with the Toronto assessor after a long fight over the assessment on his million dollar residential castle. The assessment was finally fixed at a quarter of a million and 'taxes are paid on that amount. If Sir Henry had built that castle of his in Prince Rupert he would not only be located in the most beautifully situated city in the world but he would not have to pay taxes on any improvements he might make to his property. It is taking the eastern cities a long time to follow the lead of Prince Rupert in taxing land values only. Many of the western cities are beginning to realize the benefit of the principle and some of them are applying it in part. A few have even gone the whole length of total exemption on improvements. Moreover, these same cities are using their exemption or partial exemption as an advertisement to attract people to their city. While Prince Rupert, the leader in the policy in Canada, has forgotten to speak of it even as a point of civic pride. The city ought to be carrying on a campaign of publicity and the fact should not be overlooked that the exemption of improvements from city taxation will appeal to investors in the east.

The Hardy Bay News is the latest pioneer paper to appear. Just at present it is doing its pioneering in a big office building in Vancouver. May it soon grow strong enough to pick up its pack and mush it into woods of the townsite.

The Provincial government is distributing samples of frost and blight resisting potatoes. If B. C. has many seasons like the past the agricultural department will have to secure waterproof spuds.

It looks as though the numerous Fort George townsites are going to get the question of their official name and the location of their depot into the courts again. If it takes that place as long to grow up as it does to get born it will never be a city.

STEWART ROUTE TO GROUNDHOG CLAIMED TO BE THE SHORTEST

GORDON RUNKLE MAKES THE TRIP FROM STEWART TO HAZELTON OVER THE KITWANGAR TRAIL AND THENCE NORTH

The divides was accompanied by many hardships, as snow had fallen. However, I was determined to get through and see that section of the hinterland before going south, and from the information I gathered there appears to be a marvellous coal area awaiting development. The great need has been more adequate means of transportation and with the completion of the Stewart-Groundhog pack trail coal operators will have provided a far shorter and easier route, with ample feed all the way in. There are also many good valleys suitable for the raising of herds of cattle and horses and bottom lands adaptable for mixed farming, but at present it would be impossible for one to make a living.

"If the reports from the south relating to the early extension of the Canadian North Eastern Railway to the Groundhog coal areas are correct I look to Stewart becoming a most important centre of activity and with its splendid trail system into the interior it should also be the rendezvous and outfitting point of all interested in the development of the northern interior," he concluded. After spending seven months in the north covering several thousand miles on foot and thoroughly enjoying his unique holiday, Gordon Runkle, manager of the Patterson Manufacturing Co., has returned to Vancouver. For the greater part of this period he made Stewart his headquarters in connection with the survey of many sections of arable land that he purchased from the government on behalf of his brother in the Naas valley. He made several side excursions, one to Atlin and along the Klucane trail toward the Shushanna gold camp. Another trip was over the new Kitwangar trail from Stewart to Hazelton and thence north following the government telegraph trail to Cabin 6 and return.

"Had the Stewart-Groundhog trail been completed at the time I was at Cabin 6 I would certainly have come back that way, as the Hazelton route is without exception the most difficult I have traversed in the north," said Mr. Runkle to The Miner. "Being late in the fall, the crossing of the Hazelton Canal Miner.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES

Archduke Francis Ferdinand, heir to the Austrian throne, and his consort, the Duchess of Hohenberg, are at Windsor Castle as the guests of King George and Queen Mary.

No satisfactory bids were received for Parry Sound, Ont., issue of $50,000 6 per cent. debentures, though the options given, or to be given, are at 98 1/4.

Australia and New Zealand are infested with smallpox to a degree unprecedented in the present generation. The loathsome disease is making headway in many parts of Canada. Ontario has its full share.

Edmonton has received the final instalment on its debentures from Messrs. Kleinworth, London. The payment amounted to $2,000,000, and completed a total payment of $9,135,000. The city's financial worries for the present year are ended.

Belief that the American turf is to come into its own again in the east is strengthened by the fact that James B. Haggin, Kentucky, New York and California millionaire, has returned to the sport of kings, despite his ninety-three years.

The latest revised list of industries located in Medicine Hat shows employment of about 3,500 hands, with an annual payroll of nearly $4,000,000.

The Woodstock, Ont., ratepayers have passed a bylaw to loan $12,000 to the Fort Wayne Oil Tank and Pump Company.

The board of directors of the Dominion Bank recently declared the usual quarterly dividend of 3 per cent, and an additional bonus of 2 per cent, to shareholders of record of December 20, payable January 2.

The Medicine Hat Steel Company, a corporation that has many of the same shareholders as the Alberta Rolling Mills Company, Limited, has commenced the erection of its buildings. The steel company secured a grant of nine acres of land from Medicine Hat, together with the usual gas and water concessions. In return for this the company agreed to expend approximately $100,000 in the plant and equipment, and to employ not less than 50 men for the first two years and 75 men for the ensuing three years.

The management of the Intercolonial Railway is making extensive preparations for the increased business expected this winter. Orders have recently been placed for large quantities of additional rolling stock, including twenty-nine locomotives.

GREAT CARIBOU TREK HUNTED BY "MOVIES"

Great Herd Comes Tame Into Camp of Moving Picture Men Near Fairbanks.

Fairbanks, Alaska, Oct. 19.—(By Mail.)—The much looked for run of caribou, for which the hunters and miners in this district have been waiting, passed Salchaket, forty-one miles south of Fairbanks, on October 18. The caribou are going to the winter feeding grounds along the southern slope of the Alaska range.

E. M. Lazarmore and an assistant, moving picture men, with a guide, had been hunting for several days, when on October 17, first ten, then later twenty-five, caribou passed their camp, and on the 18th the great herd rushed down upon them.

The caribou seemed quite tame, coming right into camp and showing no signs of fear.

The run of caribou is a God-send to the hunters, trappers, miners and prospectors, who depend upon them for winter supplies of meat, as many being killed in instances as the law allows, which is three to the man.

MINING DEVELOPMENT IN AND AROUND THE PORTLAND CANAL

NOT AS MANY PROPERTIES WORKED AS LAST YEAR BUT THOSE DEVELOPED HAVE MORE THAN JUSTIFIED EXPENSE

With the advent of winter development on the majority of properties is necessarily suspended and for the next few months it is hardly likely that more than three or four mines in this division will continue development. For several reasons, principally financial, there has not been as many properties worked as the season of 1912, but those on which money has been expended have more than justified themselves. The number of assessments performed was quite satisfactory and proved beyond measure that owners have every faith in the future of the camp, and next year, when the Granby Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company's big reduction works are in operation there is every reason to believe that several properties, now dormant, will have work resumed so as to permit shipments being made. The fact that the Granby Consolidated purposes going into the customs business, and will eventually add a lead stack, should lend much encouragement to local owners desirous of shipping, but whose ore will not stand the extra expense of shipment to southern smelters. The splendid work being undertaken by the Portland Canal Tunnels, Ltd., in driving the long bore to crosscut the Glacier Creek vein series at depth, the development being carried on by the Indian Mines, Ltd., up the Salmon river, the opening of the Swamp Point lime deposits by the Granby Consolidated and the efforts made by many individual prospectors and companies to demonstrate their respective holdings speak hopefully for the future of mining in this section of the province, and with the advent of capital The Miner voices the opinion of those most competent to judge that the Portland Canal Mining Division will yet rank as one of the largest producers of ore in Northern British Columbia.—Portland Canal Miner.
