

FEDERALISM ONLY SOLUTION OF HOME RULE TROUBLE

SUNDAY OBSERVER SAYS IT IS ONLY WAY OUT OF DIF-FICULTY—SUGGESTION FIRST MADE BY EARL GREY

London, Dec. 19.—The Sunday Observer, a full blooded opo-ponent of the government, declares that a wide constitutional settlement is now inseparable from an agreement upon Ireland. It says:

"The time to open free negotiation is now. It ought to lead to a basis of agreement regarding Ulster followed by a formal conference for a total revision of the bill in a federalist sense.
Federalism is the only way out, for whatever its merits or demerits, it is the sole system under which the conditions laid down by Mr. Asquith can be reconciled to the conditions formulated by Sir Edward Carson."

The Observer urges the exclusion of Ulster pending the creation of a federal system which, it says, was effectively initiated by the private influence of Earl Grey, before he ceased to be governor-general of Canada.

THE JOSEPHINE DEFFRY CO

In "The Tenderfoot's Turn" at Westholme Opera House Tonight and Tomorrow

This is a four-act play of the western plains dealing with characters and incidents which exist and have happened at the present time in the locality with which the play deals. The first act takes place in front of a cafe near the bull ring in Jaurez, Mexico, introducing the Mexican cigar girl, the toreador, the Mexican bandit, the degenerate Yaqui Indian, the Texas ranger, the American cowboy, the old German ranch woman over to the Mexican carnival, the ranch-er's daughter, the old cattleman and the tenderfoot.

There is plot and counter-plot, so carefully woven and interwoven that it is not until the final curtain that one knows just who is the real hero or the real villain in the play. There are many intensely dramatic incidents and scenes, as well as an uncommonly good amount of laughable comedy. The story is a good one and tells of the refining influence of a girl's manners upon a degenerate and dissolute white man who goes wrong from drink and lack of a woman's love and attention.
There is a most happy ending, which always rounds out a well constructed play. This play is recognized to be the best written and most pleasing western drama written since "The Virginian," which holds the record for all dramas of the plains.

There will be a matinee Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock for the benefit of the ladies and children. Matinee prices: children 15c, adults 25c.

ONTARIO TURKEYS NO COLD STORAGE BIRDS

Frizzell Has a Carload Arriving From Smiths Falls—On Sale
Tomorrow

For that Christmas dinner next week; how would you like a nice, young, tender, juicy turkey from the heart of old Ontario where turkeys like to grow big and fat? Sounds like a Christmas dream, but you can make it a real one. Tomorrow Frizzell will have a carload of turkeys, geese, ducks and chickens direct from Smiths Falls, Ontario, the best poultry centre in Canada. These are not cold storage birds. They were raised and killed just for this Christmas trade. You can't beat them. They will be on sale Saturday.

Monday Frizzell's meat market will assume its holiday attire. It will be lit up like a fairy at a ball and the display of festive provisions will make your mouth water.

Early Morning Fire

A red hot pipe too close to a wooden partition made a blaze in a Fraser Street house this morning, which gave the firemen a run. The house is occupied by two families, Mrs. Walley and family live one one floor, and Mr. Victor Basso-Bert on the upper floor. The fire started in Mrs. Walley's kitchen and crept to the upper floor, where most of the damage was done.
The firemen were soon on the scene and the chemical engine and one squirt of the big hose put out the blaze. The loss is not very much. There was no insurance.

Three Russians Fined

A trio of Russians got a small sample of Canadian law handed to them this morning. Their names are A. Bergoff, E. Bagoff and N. Basko. They are all workmen on the G. T. P. excavating contract. Yesterday they assaulted and beat up a fellow countryman. This morning the trio appeared in police court and each contributed one dollar fine and two dollars costs.

Who wants a modern seven room home cheap? I will sell for the price of the lot and will throw the house in. Look at

SEAL COVE CHURCH CONGREGATION CONCERT

Jolly Evening Spent Over Program Speech and Refreshments

Last night one of the most enjoyable concerts ever held in Seal Cove was given in St.
Peter's Church on the occasion of its third anniversary. The programme in charge of Mr.
Clayton was as follows: March by Professor Kaufman and orchestra consisting of the Miss Stevens sisters, Mr. and Mrs.
Lee Baker and Mr. Miller. Song by Mr. George Waddell accompanied by Miss E. Eason. Song, Mrs. Tattersall to her own accompaniment. Violin solo by Prof. Kaufman assisted by the Misses Stevens. Song by Mrs.
Jarvis McLeod accompanied by Mrs. Tattersall. A piano duet by the Misses Stevens. Song by Mr. Clapperton accompanied by Miss Eason. Song, Mr.
Evans, Miss Eason accompaning. Song, Mr. Davis, with Mrs.
Tattersall as accompanist, and a final overture by Prof. Kaufman and orchestra.

A fish pond added zest to the meeting and the gentlemen introduced an innovation by barring the ladies, who had provided refreshments, and serving them to the company themselves.

Bishop du Vernet in his usual witty and tactful style occupied the chair and expressed on behalf of those present his indebtedness to the artists and all who had given their assistance, and further, to those who were standing by the church so faithfully in Seal Cove among rather disheartening conditions, which he hoped spring and increased activity in the city would ameliorate. The National Anthem brought the meeting to a close.

DOUKHOBORS SEEK TO SHED ALL BARBARISM

Declare Intentions to Discard Clannishness and Become Canadian Citizens

Winnipeg, Dec. 18.—No longer a fanatical sect, but earnest colonists, the whole body of Doukhobors in Western Canada will make an effort to throw off their clannish barbarisms and become good Canadian citizens. They will henceforth own land and exercise the franchise and in time become absorbed in the life of the country. This, in effect, was the statement made last night by Nicholas Shakov, a philanthropist of Moscow, who was in the city for a few hours Tuesday night on his way to visit the Doukhobors settlements in Saskatchewan.

They are, he said, entirely dissatisfied with their leader and their present position and isolation. He stated that in his opinion the Doukhobors will immediately throw off the yoke of Peter Verigin and break up the clan so far as common property is concerned.

Work Starts on Hotel Site

Messrs. McLeod and Muse have a gang of men busy today installing a steam drill plant on the site of the Grand Trunk Hotel. Operations will commence tomorrow and thirty men will soon be at work. It is expected that the site will be ready for building by April 1st.

Hard on Plank Roads

These frosty nights are hard on the plank roads and the repair gang is kept pretty busy.
The frost makes the water-soaked boards very brittle, and heavy loads put many planks out of business. Some of the plank roads will soon have to be renewed entirely.

Mr. Tom Silversides has recently taken ill and is being cared for in the Prince Rupert General Hospital. It is expected that he will be around again in a few weeks.

The funeral of the late Mrs.
Duncan McKenzie will take place Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock from Hayner's parlors.
Friends and acquaintances are invited to attend. 296-298

Regina, Sask., Dec. 19.— Moving the second reading of the bill respecting the control which is based upon the local governing board of Great Brit-

After him came W. B. Wil-such cities as so desired

DAILY EDITION

Friday, Dec. 19, 1913

There is one consolation about the candidature of Mr. Newton, it will never engender any party feeling. This is not to say that Mr. Newton is a non-partisan. He is everything else but that. The trouble is that there is no responsible party who would have him. At one time he would have gladly associated himself with the Liberals when that party was looking for a sympathetic local press, but the Liberals wouldn't mix. He next turned his wooing attention (if the term is admissible) toward the Conservative party and for a time it appeared as if they had wed. Mr. Newton, however, couldn't form any alliance that would last peacefully for more than a few months, and so the Conservatives were obliged to seek another organ.

Since that time Mr. Newton has adopted the attitude of a divorced husband. He continues to make unwelcome visits to his former espoused.

It is safe to think that the present issue will be between those who like Mayor Pattullo and those who like him not. Mayor Newton will not be an issue at all; he will be used as a revenge—the scourge of the gods.

It will be very unfortunate if the city's welfare is to be jeopardized because of any personal feelings. No man has yet come forward with any reasons why Mr. Pattullo should not be returned, except those of a trivial nature. Everybody admits that he is a man of ability; that he is aggressive and that the city's business is very safe in his hands. Surely we are big enough to admit that one man cannot please everybody, and that everybody has a right to his own opinions. Let us all sink our personal feelings and pull together in the interests of Prince Rupert. If we do that Mr. Pattullo will be our next mayor.

Britain is very often spoken of as the Great Civilizer. She certainly has established order and decency wherever the flag has waved. Perhaps of course Britain may be the effect, and not the cause, of a principle that determines all these things. At any rate what a wonderful difference it would have made had the Anglo-Saxon colonized Mexico instead of the Spaniard. Had that been the case Mexico would right now be one of the greatest countries in the new world. In size Mexico is about as large as the arable part of the Dominion of Canada. Its soil is immensely rich. Its mountains are filled with silver and with gold and out of its hills thou mayest dig brass. It is indeed a veritable promised land with oil substituted for milk and honey.

With all these natural advantages however it is still unhappy Mexico; unhappy perhaps because of the sins of its forefathers. Why not believe that in the economy of nature there is a triangle of balanced forces in the moral realm as there is in the physical. Perhaps the outrages committed in the early Spanish days are still casting their benign influences about. The more we know of human psychology the more we are inclined to believe in a psychology of nature that stores up revenge and pays to the last sou.

Mexico needs to pass through the deep waters. It is even now receiving a little of its Baptism of Fire, but the end is not yet. A great long fierce struggle with life and death hanging in the balance is part of the preparation required, and out of that struggle it must emerge bruised and bleeding and sore. When these conditions are fulfilled we may look for the birth pangs of nationality and Mexico will rise up to take its place among the bright constellations of the west.

BIG SALMON PACK THIS YEAR— CANNERS GET SMALL PROFITS

Misleading Figures Published in Vancouver—Very Poor Season in Northern Waters—Loss Effects Rupert

A Vancouver despatch says: "The value of the British Columbia salmon pack for 1913 has been estimated at $7,619,742.75, which is the return from the total of 1,353,901 cases caught and packed. This number includes all species of salmon caught and packed in the province. The detail figures for the year are: Sockeyes, 972,173 cases at an average price per case of $6.75; red springs, 37,433 cases at $6; white springs, 3616 cases at $3; chums, 77,965 cases at $2.50; pinks, 192,887 cases at $2.75; and 69,822 cases of cohoes at $4.25. This year's record is the largest since 1905, when there were 1,167,460 cases packed, which was then the largest pack on record since 1896, when statistics were first kept."

pinks there were very few humpbacks packed in the north.

The statistics in the above paragraph are evidently based on the present market price of salmon, whereas the great bulk of the pack was sold at a price much lower. The total value must therefore be estimated at 20 or 25 per cent less than the figures quoted above.

Even on the Fraser, where there were lots of fish, the canners did not make the expected big profits such as they do in the years of the big run. This is due to the fact that one of the large packers maintained a high price for fish during the few days when the fishing nets were glutted. This high price resulted in the canners having to pay heavily for their pack, thus decreasing the profits. It was caused by one company trying to injure its competitors and the fishermen got the benefit of it.

The loss to Prince Rupert through the poor season in the district waters was a serious one. There were nearly 2500 fishermen in the district, all of whom were short hundreds of dollars each on the season. Probably 50 per cent of the money those men receive is put into circulation through the city and it means that Rupert trade fell many thousands of dollars short of what it is in an average year. It is a loss which can never be made up.

The appeal of Miss Marjorie Bebb from the decision of the London Incorporated Law Society, barring her from admission to the bar because of her sex, was rejected yesterday by the high court. The court adhered to the view that a woman is not "a person within the meaning of the Solicitors Act of 1843."

The Bank of Montreal's annual report shows profits of $2,648,402 for the year closing with October last, as compared with $2,518,408 last year. A balance of $802,813 was brought forward from preceding year and this with profits for the past year made a total of $3,451,217 for distribution. Thos. Deasy of Massett is in the city.

The Vado sailed south today after having made a trip to Granby.

James Pamford, a vag, was released today on suspended sentence.

The contract work on Second Avenue grading was finished today.

The Princess Beatrice will arrive from the south at 4:30 today.

Mrs. G. P. McColl and children left this morning for a few days' visit in Vancouver.

Mrs. R. Donaldson and son of Port Essington went south on the George this morning for the holidays.

Miss Johnson and Miss Grant of the school staff left this morning to spend the holidays in Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. James Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Enrick and Mr. Alex. Noble of Port Essington are visitors in the city today.

Nineteen telephones were sent into Massett on the last boat to connect up with the telephone system there.

Teacher wanted for night school. Salary $1 an hour. Duties to commence January 5, 1914. Applications close Dec. 26. O. H. Nelson, Chairman.

W. J. Alder of Victoria, who has been in the city for the last few days, left for his home today. Mr. Alder has great faith in the north country and only lives away from it on account of other arrangements.

Mr. R. O. Boulton of the Canadian Explosives left today for his former home in Vancouver, where his wife and family now reside. He will return after the holidays accompanied by his family and will make his home permanently in Prince Rupert.

Fresh eastern oysters. Palace Cafe. 284tf

Mr. Thos. McClymont has been detained in Vancouver on business matters longer than he expected but will return to the city on Saturday.

Come to the Baptist Christmas Tree concert tonight at 8 p.m. Admission 25c. Free supper for Sunday school children at 6:30 p.m. 297

Chief Engineer Van Arsdol and Mr. McConkey of the Foley, Welch & Stewart Company, came down from Hazelton this morning and left for the south where they will spend the Christmas holidays.

Mr. Coyney, who until recently was a member of the News staff, has just had a painful accident that necessitates his being confined to the house for a few weeks.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Mobley will be glad to know that their little daughter Cecil, who has been seriously ill for the last several weeks, is now rapidly recovering. The child's illness has been deferring the plans of Mr. and Mrs. Mobley for a visit to sunny California.

Mrs. McClanigan of Portage la Prairie, Man., who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. McClymont, expects to remain until after the Christmas holidays. She is accompanied by another daughter, Miss Myrtle McClanigan.

What has happened to the fellow who a few weeks ago was kicking Prince Rupert's weather? Perhaps he has been assassinated; either that or he has repented of the error of his ways.

The colder weather has stiffened up the mud above the railway into the interior and the company are now much better able to cope with the slides. Wednesday the train got through to Smithers without mishap and got back on time last evening.

Seal Cove Christmas Tree

The Seal Cove school children enjoyed their Christmas tree Wednesday evening. The school was prettily decorated and the event attracted many parents and friends of the pupils. The chairman was O. H. Nelson, and with him were Rev. F. W. Kerr and Principal Hunter.

There were a number of selections and choruses by the children, making up an interesting program.

After the program Santa Claus appeared and distributed presents from a well laden tree.
