UNIONISTS PLAN TO FORCE AN APPEAL

Extraordinary Methods May Be Adopted in Campaign on the Opening of Parliament

(Special to The Daily News.) London, Feb. 5.—The Unionists have decided to raise the question of Ulster and the necessity of a general election on the Irish Home Rule Bill. Immediately after the opening of Parliament the leaders met at Downing to draft a plan of campaign for the session. According to a spokesman, the bill is to be opened in a way which will mark it as memorable in British parliamentary procedure. It is freely rumored that the Unionists intend to adopt extraordinary methods of warfare in order to force the government to appeal to the country.

Little of Hazelton Married to Miss Olive Wrathall Last Evening

A quiet marriage was recorded last evening when Miss Olive Wrathall became the bride of H. H. Little. The bride is the daughter of Mr. W. W. Wrathall, who recently moved here from Hazelton. She was one of the young ladies in the district, and she came to Hazelton some years ago. She is a young lady who has many friends among the young people of the interior town. The groom is the manager of the Union Bank at Hazelton. He formerly in the bank here, and was sent to open the Hazelton branch some years ago. He has since opened several branches in the interior. He is known by the older residents of this city.

The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. W. W. Wrathall, on Simpson Street. Rev. F. W. Macdonald officiated. The hour was 7 o'clock. Only the family were present at the ceremony. A wedding supper was partaken of and the happy couple left on the Prince George steamer for Hazelton. They expect to return next week and will reside in Hazelton. They will have the house there formerly occupied by Mr. A. G. Aldous.

SEIZED SCHOONER MUST BE RETURNED

Fishing Vessel Seized in 1911 Will Have to Go Back to Seattle

Vancouver, Feb. 5.—Judgment has been given reversing the decision of the supreme court of British Columbia and the court of appeal of British Columbia in the case of the American gasoline schooner Thelma. The master of the Thelma was accused of fishing within the three-mile limit off the coast of Vancouver Island on July 24, 1911. The judgment handed down by the supreme court of Canada at Ottawa is to the effect that the decision of the courts of the province is reversed. The fishing vessel, which was confiscated for alleged infraction of the international laws, will now be returned to Captain Carlson, at Seattle, the owner and master of the Thelma.

CHIEF MAY HIRE TEMPORARY AID

Wants an Extra Constable But Financial Stringency Demands Economy

The police commissioners held their first meeting Wednesday afternoon. The appointment of Mr. A. S. B. Lucas and Ald. Geo. Kerr from the Provincial government was read. In dealing with the chief's annual report which was referred over by the retiring board, the chairman said he had talked with the chief who agreed that under the present financial conditions he would endeavor to do without an extra constable. It was deemed advisable to allow the chief power to engage temporary assistance if occasion necessitates it. The chairman also thought the photographic apparatus and fying cabinet should be purchased as requested.

A motion covering these suggestions was passed. The January report of the chief showed the month's fines to be $267. There were 56 cases reported. The d. and d's. totaled 20 and the vags 10. There are now 16 prisoners and only nine cells. A number of homeless ones also turn up nightly for free beds. The chief's recommendation to raise the pay of one of the constables $10 a month was carried.

AGITATION IN THE COMMONS TO PROHIBIT CANADIAN TITLES

AGITATION TO THAT END IN HOUSE OF COMMONS—GOVERNMENT WILL NOT PASS BILL ABOLISHING CAPITAL PUNISHMENT—AMENDMENT TO RAILWAY ACT

(Special to the Daily News) Ottawa, Feb. 6.—The commons had a field day for the consideration of public bills and motions. Two bills which have excited much interest were killed at the second reading without the house dividing. Both were fathered by Mr. Burnham of West Peterboro. One sought to abolish the granting of titles to Canadians through the medium of recommendation of the cabinet. The other provided that in provinces where candidates for the local house did not have to put up deposits the same rule should apply to candidates at the federal elections. Mr. Foster on behalf of the government refused to be moved by the Burnham measure to abolish titles. He confessed to being democratic, but said that titles were conferred for the meritorious performance of public duty. Sir Wilfrid Laurier agreed in principle with the bill, but said the member was not going the right way about it. The matter of granting titles does not rest with the government and the proper procedure would be to send an address to the Imperial authorities.

A prolonged discussion was evoked by the motion of Mr. R. Bickerdike to abolish capital punishment. He received support and censure from both sides of the house, but the apparent consensus of opinion opposed the proposed innovation in the method of dealing with those proven guilty of taking human life. Mr. Foster urged that it would be unwise for parliament to decide on so momentous a change in the system as the result of one brief debate. The fact that the practice of hanging murderers was old did not make it wrong. Hon. Mr. Doherty also declared himself against the bill and adjourned the debate, which is unlikely to be resumed this session.

Joseph Armstrong, M. P., presented the minister of railways with suggestions for three important amendments to the railway act, stated to have been agreed upon by the railway commission and will be embodied in a new consolidated railway act when brought down by Hon. Mr. Cochrane.

Would Keep His Brother

The usual weekly meeting of the Progressive Debating Society was held last night, when Mr. W. B. Jones read a paper entitled "Am I My Brother's Keeper?" in which he emphasized man's individual duty to society, making several biblical references. Wealth did not necessarily crown a life well lived. There was urgent need for sincerity in private as well as in public life. It was not enough to proclaim against the prevalence of drinking and gambling; if we would avoid the charge of hypocrisy we must live up to the principles of good citizenship. Lack of education was given as the cause of many of the minor criminal offences.

LOCAL FISHING CO. MAY BE REORGANIZED

Expect to Catch and Market Many Kinds of Smoked Fish—Will Be Big Concern

The Crippen Fisheries, an organization which won a reputation for packing a great fish delicacy in Crippen's Boneless Herring, is about to be reorganized on a much larger scale.

For some time the company has not been very active. They had a large quantity of smoked herring, but the high grade article is very expensive to pack, requiring a great deal of handling. It has, however, had a very popular sale and found much favor with the delicatessen trade.

Now it is proposed to expand the company and operate on a much larger scale. It is proposed to smoke halibut, salmon and cod, along with the smoked herring. This will give steady employment to the staff and the company will be able to supply a trade during every month in the year.

As an industry it promises rapid development and expanding profits. Mr. V. W. Smith, who has a large interest in the present company, is promoting the reorganization and expects to put a large amount of new capital into the company.

Tacoma, Feb. 5.—Deflected by a rock, a bullet fired at a stray cat crashed through a window in the Hotel Bonneville, grazing the neck of Mrs. Cranston Potter, a prominent society woman, and plowing its way through the scalp of Mrs. Alma H. Welch, her dressmaker. The deadly missile left a slight flesh wound in Mrs. Potter's neck.

Mrs. Welch's scalp wound is extremely painful but not necessarily serious. She will recover unless complications set in.

MONEY MARKET EASING UP SAYS ALDERMAN MORRISSEY

COMPLETION OF PANAMA CANAL AND TRANSCONTINENTAL RAILROADS MEANS FINANCIERS HAVE TO LOOK ELSEWHERE FOR INVESTMENTS—MALL SELL NOTES

"I have been watching the conditions which regulate the money market and things are entirely different now from what they were two years ago," said Ald. Morrissey, chairman of the finance committee, to The Daily News this morning. "Two years ago all the nations of the world were at each other's throats threatening war. Today they are all crying for peace. Two years ago the great Panama canal, the Canadian Northern and the Grand Trunk Pacific were all under construction, calling on the money market for millions. These are now practically completed and that demand is relieved. That alone would make a big difference in the demand for money."

"Just now," continued Ald. Morrissey, "we are negotiating for the sale of some of the smaller issues for immediate use. We are hesitating because no one can estimate what a day or a week will now bring forth in the money market. Conditions are improving all the time."

The debentures under negotiation are those mentioned in yesterday's News. The finance committee are also figuring on selling through the Bank of Montreal the balance of the three-year treasury notes, amounting to about $317,000. Word is expected from the bank any time now. If this sale is accomplished the money will be applied on the hydro-electric scheme. The amount will complete the million and a half treasury notes which will be due next year. It means the loan will only be for a year.

In the meantime the committee anticipate that they will be able to sell the fifty-year debentures during the coming season in time to take up these treasury notes.

PRESIDENT WOODROW WILSON ON PANAMA CANAL TOLLS

(Special to The Daily News.) Washington, Feb. 6.—President Wilson has announced that he will use every legitimate influence at his disposal to have repealed the provision in the Panama Canal Act exempting American coastwise vessels from tolls. The president made it clear that he was unalterably opposed to the exemption and emphasized that he would endeavor to have the provision repealed during the present session of congress.

NEW IRISH PICTURE PLAY AT WESTHOLME TONIGHT

Something entirely new and different in the way of an Irish feature will be shown at the Westholme Theatre tonight and tomorrow night under the title of "The Ghost," in two reels. Although in reality more of a comedy than a drama, this picture is full of excitement and surprises. Paddy can not let John trouble. How he gets out of it trouble. How he gets out of it forms the story and furnishes many a god hearty laugh.

Besides this there is an unusually good Keystone comedy, "Schmitz the Tailor." Talk about fun, the picture is brim full of it and running over. It is probably the best Keystone film seen in Prince Rupert and that's going some. A new Weekly Gazette will also be shown.

DAILY EDITION

Friday, Feb. 6, 1914

It is a rather propitious sign to see the government organs promise an early commencement on the Island road. There must surely be some bird of passage in the air and they are determined to flag him at all costs.

Some of the signposts of prophecy seem to point to a new railway for the north. It is also hinted that the Yukon may be added to the already extensive territory of British Columbia. This would be an excellent opportunity for McBride to make another "killing."

The McBride government know that their death knell has been sounded. This warning has come from within their own ranks. They know that they have been false stewards of the people. They know that they have wasted the resources and outraged the feelings of the best people in the country. They know that even their former followers are already murmuring in the ranks. What wonder if they should attempt to secure another lease of power before the breach became impossible.

While public roads are under discussion, what is the matter with agitating for a wagon road to Hazelton? An international highway from Mexico to Alaska is now under way and will pass through Hazelton. That road must be tapped at any cost. Indeed the cost would not be very serious when one remembers that for a road of that kind a four-tenths grade is not necessary.

A local business man complained to The News yesterday that among all the slippery sidewalks in town the worst was that in front of the government buildings. Surely such a state of affairs has only to be mentioned in order to be corrected.

IRISH CIVIL WAR WOULD DISRUPT THE WHOLE EMPIRE

DEAN OF DURHAM ON MENACE OF CIVIL WAR IN IRELAND—NATIONAL HUMILIATION AND IMPERIAL RUIN

The Dean of Durham, Dr. Hensley Henson, preaching recently in Durham Cathedral, directed his discourse to the possibility of civil war in Ireland. He said that if he deserted the precedents of his past and directed his preaching to the political situation he took a course repugnant to his desires and spoke in the single interest of national peace.

They were drifting into civil war in Ireland, and unless some specific action was taken quickly they would be confronted with the crowning calamity, so terrible and far reaching in its consequence that it might well imply the destruction of the British Empire. This appalling prospect raised the whole Irish question out of the category of party politics and they must face it as patriotic citizens.

Until the outbreak of hostilities nobody believed that the civil war of 50 years ago would come in America, and with that warning they would be fatuous indeed to belittle the signs of approaching strife. Both parties stood to lose by an outbreak of civil war.

If civil war broke out it would not be confined to Ulster or limited to the specific issues with respect to which it began. Ireland was so closely connected with this country that the dividing line would push itself throughout the Empire, and this disaster would fall at a time when every kind of devisable question within the community was becoming acute and the materials of civil strife were lying at all sides.

Let them think of the risk of foreign attack such a display of national division would bring. Let them cease to think of party interest and think of the country, to which civil war in Ulster must bring humiliation and might bring irreparable ruin.

ESTIMATES PROVIDED FOR FISH INSPECTION

Appropriation of $50,000 Made for Examination of Canned Fish Under Marine Department

Ottawa, Feb. 4.—An entirely new item of $50,000, providing for the inspection of canned fish is included in the main estimates just brought down and it paves the way for a new department in that regard. Under the Meat and Canned Fish Inspection Act the inspection of canned fish was provided for, and the administration of the law was under the agricultural department. It has now been decided with a view of promoting greater efficiency to transfer the fish inspection from the agricultural to the marine and fisheries department where it more properly belongs.

Newest Notes on Science

The development of powerful and reliable aeroplane motors has enabled French aviators to do most of their daring flying with monoplanes with a wing spread of not more than 25 feet.

Life savers for rescuing drowning bathers at a California seaside resort are equipped with a motorcycle carrying all needed appliances to enable them to travel long distances quickly.

A seismograph invented by a Russian scientist measures the vertical displacement of the earth by earthquakes, regarded as more important than the horizontal, though never before measured.

Motion picture photographers have proved that it is possible to produce clear films in regions in England where it had been thought impossible because of the foggy atmosphere.

For the use of persons who have writing to do out of doors even when it rains there has been invented a glass box to be suspended from the shoulders and provided with a watertight opening for the arm.

London's attempt to limit the speed of motor omnibuses to 12 miles an hour has proved impractical as when they are geared for this rate they lack reserve power for hill climbing and frequently cause blockades.

To avoid accidents due to water gauge glasses appearing to be full when in reality they are empty, a glass has been invented with spiral markings that refraction makes appear horizontal when covered with water.

After an investigation the official geologist of the Isthmian canal zone has reported that gold in paying quantities cannot be found in the canal zone and that the territory has no value for mining purposes.

To enable an automobile to pull itself out of a mud hole there has been invented a long strap to be fastened to a buried wheel and some stationary object in such a way that when the wheel is turned the strap forms a track for it.

Of German invention for war purposes is a mine which may be planted in a field until discharged from a distance by electricity, when it projects a few feet into the air a grenade which fires 400 bullets in all directions horizontally.

Automatic delivery of rural mail is provided by a North Dakota man's invention of a car to run on an aerial track, from which it takes electric power, automatically stopping at each house on a route and ringing a bell to announce its arrival.

A new rear signal for automobiles, controlled by the driver, is a four-sided prism to be mounted below a number plate, displaying words indicating that the car carrying it is about to turn to the left or right or to stop, or that there is danger ahead.

CONFUCIANISM STATE MOVE BY YUAN SHI KAI

Philadelphia Mission Secretary Regrets Action but Is Not Surprised

Philadelphia, Feb. 5.—Regret but no surprise was expressed by men here interested in foreign missions when they learned of the establishment of Confucianism as the state religion of China. Much of the organized effort in this country to prevent such action centred in this city.

"There is nothing very surprising in Yuan Shi Kai's action," said Rev. S. Dobbins, missionary secretary of the Baptist Foreign Missionary Society. "I think it is purely a political move. Yuan is in a very precarious position, and I imagine he is willing to take any step which confirms his position with the masses."

"I do not anticipate any trouble for our mission workers as a result, although if the government insists upon their performing any of the formal acts of Confucian worship there will be trouble, for they will refuse and will walk out. It is a peculiar thing that the scholars of China have not decided among themselves whether Confucianism is a religion. It does not treat of God or gods, it has no sacrifices, no prayers. It is rather a system of ethics, treating of the relation of the ruler and subject first, and then of the relation of parent and child."

The Rev. William H. Roberts, formerly moderator of the Presbyterian general assembly, said: "I do not think the move will injure the mission work of any of the Christian churches."

GIRL SAVES TRAIN RUSHING TO DOOM

Dam in Horse Creek, Colo., Breaks and Sweeps Everything in Its Path

Greeley, Colo., Feb. 5.—Damage estimated at almost $200,000 was done by the breaking of the dam of the Horse Creek reservoir, sending a flood of water over the flats, inundating a strip of land ten miles long by three miles wide.

The flood washed out fifty feet of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad main track.

The quick action of Dora Shafer, the 18-year-old daughter of Frederick M. Shafer, living a mile from the dam, saved a Chicago, Burlington & Quincy west-bound train from plunging thru a weakened bridge into Box Elder Creek, where the flood was at its worst. She telephoned to Hudson urging that the train be flagged.

Miss Addie Gamon, night operator at the Hudson telephone exchange, picked up the call and notified Keenburg, where the train was held.

NO LONGER FEAR OCEAN VOYAGES

European Physician Announces Discovery of Cure for Sea Sickness

Berlin, Feb. 5.—Ocean voyages no longer need be a terror to those subject to sea sickness is, in effect, the announcement made by Dr. Joseph Fischer, a well known heart specialist of Naumburg, in a Munich medical weekly. Dr. Fischer reports that as a result of extensive experiments with sea sick passengers he found that the injection of atropine completely cured the worst cases.

During a trip to New York Dr. Fischer made experiments on the way across the ocean to endeavor if possible to determine what sea sickness is and what causes it. He found that the injection of physostigmine produced the exact clinical symptoms of sea sickness and that this was caused by the irritation of the nerves vagus. He then discovered that the injection of atropine paralyzed this artificial mal de mer.

He immediately began experimenting with atropine in real sea sickness, with excellent results in the worst cases. Dr. Fischer says atropine is not dangerous and has no ill effects.

PEOPLE IN PANIC OVER BIG METEOR

Blazing Rock Causes a Terrific Explosion as it Strikes the Earth

Albuquerque, N.M., Feb. 4.—A blazing meteor of large size sped through the sky earthward, striking in the mountains about fifteen miles east of the city at 7.30 tonight.

The meteor exploded with terrific detonation and shook the city with such force as to cause great excitement, many persons believing a terrific explosion had occurred somewhere in the city.

Houses were shaken, while windows and dishes rattled.

Telephone messages from the vicinity of where the meteor struck the earth report that the force of the explosion was so intense as to strike terror to residents of the neighborhood. So far as could be learned tonight no damage resulted.

ENGLISH HAND-MADE LACE

MADE BY THE COTTAGERS OF BUCKINGHAMSHIRE.

This is the old-fashioned lace made on the cushion, and was first introduced into England by the Flemish Refugees. It is still made by the village women in their quaint old way.

Our Laces were awarded the Gold Medal at the Festival of Empire and Imperial Exhibition, Crystal Palace, LONDON, ENGLAND, for general excellence of workmanship.

BUY some of this hand-made Pillow Lace, it lasts MANY times longer than machine made variety, and imparts an air of distinction to the possessor, at the same time supporting the village lace-makers, bringing them little comforts otherwise unobtainable on an agricultural man's wage. Write for descriptive little treatise, entitled "The Pride of North Bucks," containing 200 striking examples of the lace makers' art, and is sent post free to any part of the world. Lace for every purpose can be obtained, and within reach of the most modest purse.

Collars, Fronts, Pinafores, Table Linens, Handkerchiefs, Stockings, Camisoles, Chemise Sets, Tea Cloths, Table Centres, D'Oyleys, Mats, Medallions, Quaker and Peter Pan Sets, etc., from 25c. 50c., $1.00, $1.50, $2.00, up to $5.00 each. Over 200 designs in yard lace and insertion from 10c. 15c., 25c., 40c., up to $3.00 per yard.

IRISH CROCHET.

Mrs. Armstrong having over 100 Irish peasant girls connected with her industry, some beautiful examples of Irish hand-made lace may be obtained. All work being sold direct from the lace-makers, both the workers and customers derive great advantage.

DAINTY HANDKIE—70c. No. 910.—Lace 1 in. deep.

No. 122.—30c. per yard.

ALLEGED VIOLATION OF STEAMBOAT LAW

Complaint About Fishing Steamer Being Backed Up by Vancouver Shipmasters

For some time past complaints have been made by a local fishing company against the marine regulation which compels them to sign on every member of the crew going out in a deep sea fishing boat. As these crews are very often changed at the last moment the signing of the men necessitates an awkward delay. Efforts to overcome this regulation in regard to fishing boats have met with failure and it is understood an appeal has been made to Ottawa.

There is also a complaint made that small boats without officers having certificates are carrying occasional passengers and otherwise not operating according to law. This has existed more or less in every port along the coast and no particular effort has been made to check it, as in this country where transportation is difficult and distances great, many persons have to depend on small craft to get to the various settlements.

Now the Vancouver Shipmasters' Association is taking up this point and urging action. At a recent meeting in Vancouver the following resolution was passed:

"That this association learns with regret that the steamboat law is being violated in the port of Prince Rupert by so-called fishing steamers, which are doing other work than fishing, and that we attribute this fact to lack of inspectors on the coast."

It was decided to forward the resolution to the minister of marine.

The discussion arose as the result of representations made to the shipmasters by Prince Rupert, in the course of which it was stated that certain fishing schooners were being run by uncertificated men, which was all right so long as they were used only for fishing, but that they were being used also for towing, cargo and passenger purposes. It was stated that the same thing was happening with some boats in Vancouver. Particular emphasis was laid upon the fact that one inspector of hulls for the whole of British Columbia and the Yukon was not enough.
