

A BIG SHIPMENT OF HIGH GRADE ORE AND FISH

CITY TO DISPOSE OF TREASURY NOTES TO BANK--NEW PRESIDENT IN HAYTI RESTORES ORDER

SEVEN CARS SILVER LEAD ORE REPRESENTING OVER $20,000

ALSO FOUR CARS FISH SHIPPED OUT OF PRINCE RUPERT
YESTERDAY--NATURAL PRODUCTS OF DISTRICT SHOW
DEVELOPMENT WITH TANGIBLE RETURNS

Prince Rupert is beginning to show returns for the faith the optimists have had in the city as a point for shipping natural products. Yesterday was a busy day in the waterfront with British Columbia products. At the G. T. P. the Prince Albert loaded seven cars of high grade silver lead ore from the Silver Standard mine at Hazelton. It was bound for the Trail smelter and represents something like $3,000 a car, or over $20,000 in the shipment. This is only the first of a continuous shipment which will be made while the sleighing holds in the mines. Teams will be hauling ore out for several weeks yet.

At the cold storage plant the Princess Beatrice took on four carloads of fish, representing another large sum of money which is directly returnable to Prince Rupert and the fishermen employed by the local company. There are great resources behind Rupert and the development of them is now assuming tangible returns. What the cold storage company, the Atlin Fisheries, the Silver Standard and the Harris mines of Hazelton are now doing will be duplicated shortly by many other companies. Prince Rupert will be shipping out carloads of natural products every day.

FRIENDLY FEELING RESTORED BETWEEN STATES AND JAPAN

REFUSAL OF CONGRESS TO EXCLUDE JAPANESE OPENS THE WAY FOR BETTER FEELING BETWEEN COUNTRIES--
JAPANESE OPTIMISTIC OVER OUTLOOK

(Special to The Daily News)
Washington, D. C., Feb. 8.—A notable improvement in the relations between the United States and Japan is believed to have taken place by the event in the past week connected with the passage of the Burnett immigration bill. Reports from Tokio show that a profound impression has been caused not only by the refusal of the house to include the proposed prohibition against the entry of Japanese but also by the non-partisan appeal.

Statesmen in Japan are much pleased with its reception and the appeal for fair treatment of aliens. It is now hoped here that a satisfactory adjustment of all the issues between the two governments will be reached.

PRESBYTERIAN PASTOR LEFT FOR NEW CHARGE

Rev. F. W. and Mrs. Kerr Depart Immediately after Evening Service

Rev. F. W. and Mrs. Kerr left last night for their new charge in New Westminster. Through the courtesy of the C. P. R., the steamer Princess Beatrice was held over to allow Mr. Kerr to conduct the evening service.

A large crowd assembled to hear what they expected to be a farewell service. In this, perhaps, they were disappointed for the sermon was like any other sermon. Indeed no reference at all was made to his departure.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Kerr have been very popular in Prince Rupert. Mr. Kerr has made himself a great reputation as a preacher, and it will be a difficult matter to get a man to fill his place.

A large number of intimate friends and members of the congregation accompanied them to the boat and wished them bon voyage.

Rev. A. L. Birch, of Westminster Hall, Vancouver, will supply the vacancy for the next two Sunday and after that Rev. Mr. Fortune, of Victoria, will take charge for one month.

The vacancy committee have several good men in view for a permanent pastor and it may be confidently expected that a worthy successor to Rev. Mr. Kerr will be secured.

Public meeting of the Civic League will be held at the Presbyterian Church Hall on Tuesday at 8 p. m. At least one important question will be discussed. Your attendance will give support to the efforts to be made in your benefit.

GERMANY'S NAVAL RACE ECONOMIC NECESSITY

Reported That Refusal of Naval Holiday Is Because There Is No Other Work

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, Feb. 9.—The German admiral, von Tirpitz, makes an interesting confession that the refusal to entertain Hon. Winston Churchill's suggestion for a naval holiday was mainly due to industrial reasons. England, he says, is having much work from abroad and could cease building for the navy without demoralizing her labor conditions. The German yards on the other hand would be compelled to shut down during the holiday.

POWERFUL DRAMA AT THE MAJESTIC

A specially strong program is being shown at the Majestic theatre tonight and tomorrow night. "For His Brother's Crime" is the title of an exceptionally powerful drama showing the love and sacrifice of a brother. "The Charge of the Light Brigade" is another spectacular war drama from the Edison studios. The program concludes with two good comedies, "One Was Enough" and the "New Woman and the Lion." The bill is one of the best yet shown by the popular and comfortable Third Avenue picture show.

BIG LIBERAL MEETING AT BELLA COOLA

Annual Election of Officers—
Liberals Alive in "The Beautiful Valley"

(Bella Coola Courier.)

Despite the inclemency of the weather, the large attendance at the annual meeting of the Bella Coola Liberal association, held at the Colony hall, Hagensborg, on Thursday evening last, offered unmistakable evidence that Liberalism is strictly alive in this section of the Skeena district.

The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows: President, B. Brynildsen; vice-president, B. F. Jacobsen; secretary-treasurer, H. L. Harris; executive committee, R. N. Levelton, M. B. Christenson, Capt. Thorson, T. E. Jacobsen, Kark W. Brink and A. Hammer.

The following persons were elected delegates to the convention to be held in Victoria on the 25th February: B. Brynildsen, H. L. Harris, B. F. Jacobsen, A. Hammer and M. B. Christenson.

Several new members were added to the membership roll of the association, and there is every evidence that the rising tide of Liberalism so manifest in other parts of the province has reached Bella Coola.

Did Wm. Manson, M.P.P., who is one of the two obedient Tories who see nothing but good in the Bowser government, ever tell you about this 59 million?

The Prince Albert sailed last night at six o'clock with the following passengers: Sam. Haley, A. R. Macdonald, J. Moren, Geo. McGuire, J. S. Draney.

METLAKATLA MEMORIAL TRIBUTE TO REV. HOGAN

Services Arranged Contemporary With Funeral Service at Masset

On Thursday last a memorial service was held at Metlakatla in commemoration of the late Rev. Wm. Hogan. The service was arranged to take place at the same hour as the funeral at Masset. Rev. R. W. Gurd officiated. The church was effectively draped in black and the whole service was very appropriate.

Mr. Peter Venn gave a very appropriate address in which he extolled the life of the departed. He outlined the career of Mr. Hogan from the time he began his labors in Metlakatla in 1893. He also spoke of his great personality, his kindness and sympathy for the sick and sorrowing, and his uncompromising stand against all forms of sin. The service was closed by the Metlakatla band playing the Dead March in Saul.

HON. W. PUGSLEY IN POOR HEALTH

Former Minister Public Works
Will Probably be Absent from Parliament

Ottawa, Feb. 4.—It is said to be practically certain that Hon. William Pugsley, former minister of public works, will not be able to take his seat in parliament this session. The latest reports from St. John are to the effect that he has been ordered south for the winter and, in all probability, he will not return to Canada until toward the end of the session.

Mr. Pugsley had a serious illness subsequent to the protracted fight over the naval bill last session, when he practically led the opposition forces through the long all-night sessions. He became ill again last autumn with an attack of pleurisy, from the effects of which he has not recovered. The opposition members regret the absence of the former minister of public works, as he is probably their most resourceful fighter when things get into a tight corner.

Where It Rains Some

"Speaking of rain," remarked George Frizzell to The Daily News this morning, "the people of Prince Rupert don't know what rain is. When I was in Santa Barbara it rained eleven inches in twenty-four hours and kept it up to three or four days. There was three feet of water on the Southern Pacific grade. One man was drowned on the streets. It blew, too, for a short time and I never saw a wind up here like it. I saw lots of orange trees and baled hay floating away." Among Mr. Frizzell's experiences was being stalled on a railway train for thirty hours with nothing to eat.

BANK OF MONTREAL TO TAKE TREASURY CERTIFICATES

BALANCE OF UNSOLD NOTES TO GO AT 96--WILL HAVE TO BE REPAID NEXT YEAR--PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT WILL GET THEIR FIRST

This morning word was received from the Bank of Montreal that they will undertake to dispose of the balance of the treasury notes and advance the city money in the meantime. The amount is for about $371,000. It is understood the price was 96, less the stamp and discounting fees. As these notes are redeemable in 15 months the rate for this temporary loan will be nearly ten per cent.

Of this $371,000, some $125,000 has to be first paid to the provincial government, being the debt and accrued interest which has been standing for the past four years. The balance of the money will be utilized for hydro-electric development purposes.

This money, along with the rest of the treasury notes issued two years ago, has to be paid back next year. The council, however, anticipates that they will be able to sell enough of the fifty-year debentures before the close of the year to cover that amount.

Fred Dean, the representative of the Toledo bond brokers, was unable to make a deal with the finance committee. He offered 96 for any prospective four-year local improvement bonds and 85 for the ten-year Borden street school debentures. He would likely have accepted the twenty-year fives at 85 also but the finance committee refused to sell under 90.

Mr. Dean left last evening for the south.

TO SPEND MILLIONS FOR EQUIPMENT

G. T. P. Passenger Agent in Seattle Says Preponderance of Orders to United States

The Grand Trunk Pacific, which during the past year expended between $40,000,000 and $12,000,000 for rolling stock, will disburse almost an equal amount during the coming year, according to J. H. Burgis, general agent of the G. T. P. passenger department at Seattle.

"Probably five or six million of this will be spent on the western end of the line," said Mr. Burgis. The list of the rolling stock purchased last year shows a preponderance of the orders given to American houses, and the same policy is not unlikely to be followed this year. "This," said Mr. Burgis, "in addition to millions of dollars for steel and timber which was put in the new transcontinental line during the year 1913, purchased on the U. S. side of the line. These heavy purchases mean much to the prosperity of the steel and lumber industries."

The Grand Trunk system will purchase as much new equipment this year as in 1913.

JOHNSTON GETS BAIL FIXED AT $2,000

Accused of Shooting Alfred Wright With Intent to Murder

August Johnston, section foreman on the G. T. P. at Mile 287, was brought down as a prisoner yesterday on a charge of shooting Alfred Wright with intent to kill. He was committed for trial by the Hazelton magistrate and will appear at the next assize court.

This morning Judge Young fixed his bail at $2,000.

The story of the affair is a quarrel between Johnston and the Wright brothers. Alfred Wright worked on an adjoining section to that under the control of Johnston. Alfred quit his job and his brother tried to get him a job under Johnston. He did not succeed and took umbrage at the foreman.

One Sunday morning the two brothers approached Johnston's cabin and started to annoy him. They threatened to break in. Johnston got his gun and told John if he did not get away from the door he would shoot. John persisted and Johnston shot to one side of the door. The bullet went through a 12-inch log and then through both jaws of Alfred Wright, who was standing at one side.

Alfred Wright will get better.

DAILY EDITION

Monday, Feb. 9, 1914

We hear a great deal nowadays about the tango. Indeed it has been so well advertised by its opponents that most people are anxious to know just what it is like.

Anything that is new and "daring" is always popular. The desire to be different to other people is very natural. Besides that, it is considered a mark of greatness to be able to discard those narrow puritanical standards of right and wrong.

The tango has not made its official debut in Prince Rupert yet, but its spiritual fore-runners, the "turkey trot" and the "rag," have been here for some time. Those dances may be very exhilarating to the participants, but from the standpoint of the uninitiated they are certainly neither modest nor respectable. Of course in this triumphant march of broadmindedness it may be that all our modesty will turn out to be foolishness and our natural reserve an awful waste of splendid opportunity. In the meantime, however, it might be just as well for all offenders to know that they are thereby lowering themselves in the opinion of the best element of the community.

Since the days of Bismarck Germany has been developing the martial spirit. Every man has been compelled to pass through a severe military training in order to be more fit to serve the fatherland. As a natural consequence the army has become a kind of aristocracy. The uniform is the highest badge of honor and the greatest ambition of their youth is to become a soldier. They can boast of the greatest army perhaps that the world has ever seen, and every nook and corner of the country is held firm in the grip of that iron hand.

Besides having the greatest army in the world, it seems also to be their aim to have the greatest navy. For the last number of years they have been making mighty strides in the race for naval supremacy, and although they are still far from the British standard, they refuse to let up in the mad race.

Supported by these two great forces, Germany is fast becoming a military despotism. This was well illustrated recently when because of an outburst of disrespect for the army at one of its outposts martial law was proclaimed. One citizen at least was put to the sword, others were imprisoned and matters carried with a high hand until the dignity of the army was again restored.

The strange thing about it all, however, is that the army seems to be above the law. The civil authorities at Sauer had legal sentences passed upon the offending officers but through the influence of the army these sentences were reversed. As a result the whole country is greatly agitated and a struggle will no doubt be made to show which body is supreme.

TAFT'S SMILE IN CANADA

"I'd have indignation if I didn't get my photograph taken every day," said William H. Taft, professor of international law at Yale University, and former president of the United States, when he arrived at Toronto on January 28th for a speech-making tour of Ontario. It was his first visit to Toronto, although he frequently spends his summer holidays at Murray Bay, Nova Scotia. The picture shows him with Sir John Gibson, lieutenant-governor of Ontario.

FIGURED THAT HE'D BE A HELL OF A GOVERNOR

William Sulzer Sheds Light on the Fashionable Conversation of the Mighty

New York, Feb. 7.—In the John Doe proceedings, Assemblyman William Sulzer, before Chief Magistrate McAdoo, testified respecting the influence brought to bear upon him. The ex-governor detailed one of his conversations with Charles Murphy, the Tammany leader, as follows: "I said: 'I want to tell you now that when I go to Albany, I am going to be governor, and the quicker you understand it the better.'"

"He said: 'Is that so? You'll wind up damned quick if you do, wind up damned quick if you do.'"

"Did he say anything else?" asked Mr. Whitman.

"When I said I was going to be the governor he said: 'Like hell you are.' I said to Mr. Murphy: 'The people have elected me governor and I intend to be governor.' Mr. Murphy looked at me and said: 'Well, you'll make a hell of a governor.'"

The Sweetest Words

"Are there any sweeter words in the English language," musingly inquired Professor Swiggs, "than 'I love you'?"

"Well," grimly remarked the pessimistic hearer, "I understand that some authorities regard 'There's that money I owe you,' as about the epitome of satisfactory sentences."

DOUKHOBORS NUISANCE SAYS ERNEST MILLER

Member for Grand Forks Tells Legislature About His Constituents

Ernest Miller, M. P. P. for Grand Forks, spoke in the legislature on Friday. He talked of the Doukhobors who are living in his constituency.

Without going into details, he would say that the boasted morality of these people was a myth. They do not recognize marriage or divorce laws. They divorce themselves and remarry at will. "Our own people are required to obey the laws, and maintain them, by force of arms, if necessary," said Mr. Miller. "Can you wonder, then, if we resent, and resent hotly, this state of things right under our eyes?"

He had thought at first that by letting them alone in time they would learn our laws, fall in line, and otherwise become law-abiding citizens. It was useless to say that they were against sending their children to school on account of religious scruples. Verigin, their leader, had written advocating sending their children to school. Whether he secretly wrote or spoke in the opposite way to these people was another matter. The fact is, said Mr. Miller, with much warmth, these people are practically slaves, held so to Peter Verigin, in whose name stands the title to all the property they have acquired. No member has any tangible evidence of any interest in that property. Any who had dared to leave had been turned loose with very little consideration. The people were afraid to break away. As to their customs, they did not care for their sick, and the rank and file were afraid to speak. But they would suffer imprisonment rather than submit to proper regulations. He would not accuse them of being immoral, but could not say they were moral. It had been told of them that they were a peaceful people, and would not carry arms nor fight. But when an effort was made to serve them with subpoenas they did not hesitate to use fence rails, hoes, picks and any weapon that came handy to drive off the officers of the law.

The man with an infallible scheme for getting rich is always looking for somebody to sell out to.

THINKS CANADA MUST GRANT FREE WHEAT

U. S. Editor Thinks That Borden Is Bound to Remove the Duty on Grain

P. V. Collins, editor of The Northwestern Agriculturist of Minneapolis, has this to say of the free wheat problem: "Wheat is paying a tariff of ten cents a bushel and oats six cents a bushel, and they will continue to pay that tariff to us until Canada removes her tariff, under the reciprocity clause of the Underwood bill; and in spite of that fact the Minneapolis Chamber of Commerce has already received millions of bushels of Canadian small grain; so has Duluth. There is not one chance in a million of Canada's failing to remove her tariff on American grain, since it is protection only 'on paper,' and not in reality, for of course, we are not sending American grain over to Saskatchewan or Manitoba. The current is coming in the other direction, and there is no reason under the sun why Canada should retain a nominal tariff, which, instead of protecting her farmers, is a handicap on the open American market for her farmers."

Mr. Collins does not know much about the power of the transportation and milling interests of Canada or he would modify that "one chance in a million" observation. The chances seem about even that the Borden government will be stupid enough or obstinate enough to retain the wheat and flour duties.

HUSBAND KILLS MAN WHO CALLS ON WIFE

Manager of Hotel in Tekoa Attempts Suicide After Enacting Tragedy in Lobby

Tekoa, Feb. 6.—George Morrow shot and killed Elmer McBride in the lobby of the Hotel Raymond and later attempted suicide in the city jail. At the coroner's inquest the evidence was that McBride arrived in Tekoa at noon and called at the hotel and asked to see Mrs. Morrow, and on being refused an interview, left saying he would return later.

Mr. Morrow, being informed that McBride had called to see his wife and that he was going to return, remained in the hotel until McBride's return and informed him that he would call his wife, and if he had anything to say to her he could say it in his presence. The evidence did not show that there were any words between McBride and Morrow, but that as Mrs. Morrow appeared Morrow shot McBride.

The Morrrows have lived in Tekoa about one year and have run the hotel. McBride is unknown here, and when searched no weapons were found upon him. This makes six tragic deaths in this hotel building in the last three years. No motive is known for the crime.

CAN THE DIRECTORS TRIM SHAREHOLDERS?

Editorial Comment of American Journal on Methods Adopted by Interlocking Directorates

More important, in our opinion, than any statutory prohibition of interlocking directorates, is the action of Judge Sanborn in ordering receivers of the waterlogged St. Louis and San Francisco Railroad to bring suit for restitution against directors of the road, provided it appears that such suits can be successfully prosecuted.

Persons in control of the railroad joined syndicates for the purpose of buying and building feeder lines, to be sold to the railroad at a handsome profit for the syndicates. The plain question is: Can a trustee for a railroad's stockholders do that without being answerable at law? Can he sit on one side of the table as a trustee and on the other side as a syndicate member, and make deals with himself to his own notable profit?

If he can, then there is obviously a grave fault in the law, which should promptly be cured by legislation. We must get away from the odd American notion that a stout little knot of insiders may do virtually as they please with a great property of which they are the trustees.

"Can't I do what I want with my own road?" a magnate testily exclaimed regarding a company of which perhaps he owned ten per cent. We must make it clear to him that he cannot. Some of the lowest spots in American business morality lie within the four walls of big corporation boardrooms. That the director is a trustee and that he must not use his trust for his personal profit needs to be emphasized. If the law now permits him individually to make profitable deals with himself as a trustee it requires amending.

REMEMBERED THE MEN OF GREAT NORTHERN

Strathcona's Bequest to Yale for Benefit of Them and Their Sons

New York, Feb. 6.—It is learned through a friend of the late Lord Strathcona and Mount Royal, who has been in communication with representatives of the estate since Lord Strathcona's death on January 21, that his will, which left $500,000 to Yale University, requested that Yale make special arrangements to enable employees and sons of employees of the Great Northern Railway to enter that University.

A large part of the fortune of Lord Strathcona, which was estimated at his death at $25,000,000, was made through his investments in the Great Northern. His bequest to Yale and the request with which it was accompanied, it is said, was intended as an expression of gratitude to the United States and in particular to the railroad employees who had contributed to his fortune.

TORONTO SOCIETY IN THE POLICE COURT

Charged With Being in Disorderly House as Result of New Year's Eve Festivities

Toronto, Feb. 8.—Charged with keeping a disorderly tavern under the Liquor Licence Act, Ernest G. McConkey, proprietor of McConkey's restaurant, was remanded for one week in the police court today. The charge is laid in explicit reference to last New Year's Eve, which occasion has already cost Mr. McConkey a fine of $40 and costs for selling liquor after hours. Twenty-two subpoenas were served on Tuesday on some of those present in the restaurant New Year's Eve. Some of Toronto's best known citizens are among them, so well known in fact that orders have been issued not to divulge the names of the twenty-two individuals.

FAMILIAR LANDMARK GIVES WAY TO HOTEL

Rupert's First Cottage Being Torn Down—Recalls Early History of Town

The old landmarks on Centre street are fast disappearing. The first cottage built in Prince Rupert, and the last of the old buildings to be removed, is being torn down today to make room for a palatial hotel. This cottage was built by P. W. Anderson in 1906 and occupied by himself and family when Mrs. Anderson was then the only woman in Prince Rupert, and the first woman to take up permanent residence here. Wallace was then a boy of seven years of age and Sidney a baby of eight months.

When the cottage was being built a trail had to be cut through the woods and the lumber packed in on men's backs. The standing timber was so dense that the view from the water was completely obstructed.

How Brown Learned How.

There is a man who makes shoes for children—and sells them to stores all over Canada But he is only just learning how people buy.

It was this way: His wife—let us call her Mrs. Brown—phoned to him and asked him to buy some underwear for little Brown.

Picture Brown now among the throng of mothers at the "Children's Underwear" counter. He asks for Underwear for a child of six. He looks it over helplessly. What on earth does he know about Children's Underwear? For lack of anything better to say he asks: "Is this good quality?" The answer is short and quite conclusive: "It's Blank's"—naming a well-advertised line. That short word says everything. Brown pays his money and goes home, quite satisfied with his purchase.

Now what bothers Brown—a manufacturer of shoes, is this: How would it affect the purchase of a child's shoes if the salesman said "They're Brown's"?

Nobody knows Brown's shoes. Brown doesn't advertise.

The name Brown signifies nothing when used in connection with children's shoes. The salesman must use all his persuasive wiles to induce people to buy them.

The point is—If the name Brown was as synonymous with Children's Shoes as "Blank's" is with Underwear, wouldn't Brown sell more shoes with less effort?

If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. NEW LIGHTHOUSE ON CAPE ST. JAMES

Will Be Put Into Commission on February 15—Can Be Seen Twenty-four Miles

The new lighthouse at Cape St. James off the Queen Charlotte Islands has been completed and will be put into commission on February 15. The light tower is built on solid concrete. The lantern is a third-order, being a powerful light which can be seen 24 miles at sea.

The lighthouse has been under construction for the past year. The work has been difficult and stormy weather caused much delay at times.

The new lightkeeper will be Taylor Ash, who is now in charge.

Mr. J. D. McLeod returned on the Prince John Saturday night and to the disappointment of his friends he came back a bachelor. John says it was not his fault.

SALMON STATISTICS FOR PAST SEASON

Show Big Year on Whole Coast—Puget Sound Made a Record Catch

The salmon canneries of British Columbia packed 1,353,901 cases, valued at $8,803,213, during 1913, according to the statistics published by Mr. Miller Freeman in his year book on Pacific coast fishing. The industry on this coast showed an increase of over two million cases over the 1912 pack. This was due in a large measure to the unusually large pack of sockeyes on Puget Sound, which showed an increase of 575,195 cases over the pack of 1909, the previous big run. Here are the figures of last year's pack:

Cases	Value
Alaska	3,746,494 $13,859,478
Puget Sound	2,583,463 13,399,168
Columbia River	266,479 2,012,385
Sacramento River	950 7,600
Outside streams	112,161 552,045
British Columbia	1,353,901 8,803,213

Total

In addition, Mr. Freeman points out that the total value of fisheries in Alaska for 1913 amounted to $15,739,068, covering nearly all classes of fish.

Among the arrivals from Prince Rupert today were Mr. J. Manson, "Mac" Gordon and Mr. and Mrs. Robarge.

The debate on Thursday evening drew out a large crowd in spite of the cold and disagreeable weather. The subject under discussion was worded as follows: "Resolved that it is possible to abolish war under existing economic conditions." After careful consultation on the part of the judges, Messrs. Karkpatrick, Dover and Gilbertson, the decision was given to the negative. A program of songs and recitations completed the evening's entertainment. At the next meeting a number of short papers will be read by various members on subjects of unusual interest or events of a striking character.
