LIBERAL LEADER CLAIMS PUBLIC IS TIRED OF McBRIDE MIS-ADMINISTRATION--DEALING WITH GREAT OUTSTANDING ISSUES OF THE DAY

H. C. Brewster, leader of the liberal party in British Columbia, arrived in Prince Rupert, B.C., on Friday, April 3, 1914, on the steamer Prince George. He was met at the wharf by a large number of people, including many of his former colleagues in the opposition, G. R. ... and Dr. W. T. Kergin, and other prominent Liberals of the city. Brewster was seen by a representative of The News after his arrival. Oliver and myself have had many most successful meetings on our present tour. "In fact, since we started in January to visit the various points in the lower part of the province we have found everywhere the great desire on the part of the people to hear what we have to say. The requests for meetings have been almost embarrassing in their number, and it is a great pleasure to us to be able to do so. We are dealing simply with the great outstanding issues of the day, and putting our views before the electorate for their consideration. There is not a doubt that a marked change is coming over the public sentiment in regard to the McBride government, and we find this dissatisfaction to be growing among Conservatives. That conditions are ripening for a change of administrators is plain, and all the more palpable the further we go."

B. OF T. LUNCHEON ON PRINCE GEORGE

Monthly Business Men's Assembly at One O'Clock Tomorrow--Seating Capacity Limited

The monthly business men's lunch on the steamer Prince George will be held aboard the board of trade at one o'clock tomorrow. The steward on the George has promised an attractive spread and that means something worth while. There will be just one speech of twenty minutes, the particular feature of the gathering. The sale of tickets is limited to 144 and members will be supplied first. These luncheons promise to be popular. The first one a month ago had an overflow, but tomorrow a fixed limit has to be made. Every business man should avail himself of the chance to meet for an hour with the men who represent the commercial interests of the city.

Prince Rupert's Weather

"Well, I'm glad to get back where I can see some good weather," remarked a Prince Rupert man who arrived home last evening. "In Seattle and Vancouver they have snow and wind and rain. The cherry trees were in bud but they have been nipped by the frost and the crop will be injured." Certainly Prince Rupert weather has been beating the whole country this spring.

ELECTED THIRTY-TWO MEMBERS PRINCE RUPERT BOARD OF TRADE

MONTHLY MEETING LAST EVENING--ANNUAL REPORT POPULAR FOR ADVERTISING MATTER--PROPOSE EXCURSIONS TO CONTIGUOUS POINTS

There were thirty-two new members elected to the board of trade last evening. The monthly report of the commissioner stated that twenty-four of these had been secured on March 17 by a special canvass. There were eight more applications which had been secured by the commissioner. The annual report of the president for last year has been popular for publicity purposes. Some 150 copies have already been distributed. Five hundred more copies have been ordered for the board and 750 for private distribution. The commissioner is also preparing a publicity booklet on mining in this district. The commissioner has suggested a big sign at the wharf directing the attention of visitors to the board rooms. He also suggested having several excursions during the season to contiguous points with the idea of working up trade for the city. This question was discussed and a motion passed instructing the commissioner to get information on the subject to submit at the next general meeting. The president was authorized to appoint a committee to prepare a set of bylaws.

DOES NOT LOOK FRIENDLY ON LIBERAL SYSTEM BUT GIVES NOTE OF COMPROMISE

(Special to The Daily News) London, April 3.--Rt. Hon. A. J. Balfour has never been a believer in cutting up the British Isles. Mr. Samuel declared that Mr. Balfour's general views were still the same as when he entered the house, although he noted with satisfaction a note of compromise in the Unionist leader's present utterances.

QUIET CONDEMNNS REPORT OF THE N. T. R. COMMISSIONERS

OF CENSURE FAILS BY SMALL MARGIN -- BORDEN DEFENDS COMMISSIONERS

(Special to The Daily News) Vancouver, April 3.--After nine days of debate a motion to censure the government on the N. T. R. report, moved by the Hon. G. Graham, the house rejected the motion by 105 to 67. Sir Wilfrid Laurier declared the report a partisan document and admitting the right of the government to name a commission declared the course pursued was unfair to the opposition, to the government and to the people. Premier Borden defended the commissioners from the attacks of the opposition and said the findings of the report were substantially correct.

TEMPORARY LINKING UP ARRANGED FOR MONDAY

Special Car Will Take G. T. P. Officials Up the Line Tomorrow

The linking up of the Grand Pacific will take place on Monday, according to present arrangements. Tomorrow morning a special car will be attached to the regular train to Smithers and will take up some of the Grand Pacific officials. Among the officials will be W. P. Hinton, general traffic manager; George A. Nichol, industrial commissioner; W. H. Tobey, resident engineer; T. C. Chalmers, railway and steamer agent; A. D. Dain, general agent traffic department, and J. Melville, chief clerk. The special car will be picked up at Priestly and taken to Newbridge, where the linking up will take place. Several of the G. T. P. officials are already on the ground awaiting the event. General Superintendent ...

QUEEN CHARLOTTE ISLANDS HAVE EXCELLENT SOIL

There are people in Prince Rupert and elsewhere who are under the impression that the flat lands of Graham Island are all muskeg. This, as anyone knows who has lived there, is entirely wrong. There are considerable marsh lands, but they can be easily drained, as the land slopes westward to Massett inlet and northward to the beach. After a pre-emption is drained the land is the richest and most fertile of any in British Columbia. This summer the steamers will sail weekly to the head of Massett inlet. A large influx of settlers is expected and already the island is being populated at a greater rate than Vancouver Island in the same length of time. Those who have taken up land are highly satisfied and are convinced that Graham Island will grow anything that is grown elsewhere in the province. Apples, plums and cherries and garden truck do well, while in every way the climate and land is the best for stock raising. The Indians on the Queen Charlotte Islands are the highest standard of all living in British Columbia. They recognized long ago that the islands offered more to man than any other place. This still holds good today. General Manager M. Donaldson will probably run out from Fort George for the occasion.

JOHN OLIVER

Honest John Oliver, as he is known in the Delta, is a farmer. He is also one of the brainiest men in British Columbia. John Oliver educated himself, yet he is one of the shrewdest parliamentarians that ever sat in the provincial legislature and on more than one occasion he has won out in debates against the whole battle array of a strong government. He was born in Derbyshire, England, coming to Canada with his father when nine years old. His father took up a farm in Ontario. John came to British Columbia nearly forty years ago. He took up land in the Delta, where he lives today. He was elected from that district when the Prior government was in power. When McBride was called to the premier-ship John Oliver was looked upon as his chief lieutenant, but he would not stand for the party politics which came into British Columbia affairs at that time. He was defeated at the last provincial election for the Delta riding.

BELLA COOLA VALLEY GAVE GREAT RECEPTION

To Liberal Leaders--Passed a Resolution Calling on Lieutenant-Governor to Refuse to Sign Crown Grants Under Fraudulent Powers of Attorney

Messrs. Brewster and Oliver addressed three meetings in this constituency since leaving the capital. On Monday they spoke at Hagensborg, on Tuesday at Bella Coola, and on Wednesday at Namu. The two former meetings were each attended by about one hundred and fifty people, and quite a number heard the leaders at Namu. There is much uneasiness among Conservative leaders in the Bella Coola valley as a result of the independence of view being expressed by many government supporters in that section, and also of the dissatisfaction felt in regard to road work. The latter has culminated in the removal of the road superintendent, McFarlane, following a petition from the Development league, which was signed by nearly every one in the valley. Attorney-General Bowser's latest amendment to the Elections act is also proving a boom-crang. The majority of the settlers are naturalized Canadian citizens, most of whom have been voting for years, and the requirement that they must attach copies of their naturalization certificates to future applications to be registered is causing a lot of antagonism to the government and to the local member, who allowed it to go through without protest. A resolution was adopted at the meetings in the valley calling upon the lieutenant-governor to refuse to sign further crown grants for lands applied for by virtue of fraudulent powers-of-attorney. This follows the recent decisions of the Supreme Court of Canada and the Supreme Court of British Columbia, de-

Mr. Brewster and Mr. Oliver go east along the G. T. P. tomorrow morning, speaking at Terrace, Hazelton, Smithers, Ft. Fraser, George and other points, and going out through Cariboo and Lillooet.

H. C. BREWSTER

Harlam Carey Brewster is one of the many New Brunswickers in this province. He was born in 1870, his father being collector of customs at Port of Harvey, N. B. He was educated in his native province and later in Boston. Since coming to British Columbia he has been in the fish packing business, being manager of the Clayoquot Sound Canning company. He was elected for Alberni in 1907, when he defeated Wm. Manson, who at that time had just been made provincial secretary under McBride. He sat in the house for two parliaments, being the leader of the opposition in the last parliament. His good work then, when he almost the only opposition in the house, led to his selection as leader at the provincial Liberal convention last year.

TERRACE LIBERALS HOLD ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING

Terrace, April 2.--A meeting of the Terrace Liberal association was held here on Wednesday night for the purpose of reorganizing and also to arrange for the meeting to be held here on the 4th inst. by Messrs. Brewster and Oliver. The meeting was well attended and every one present was full of enthusiasm and eager to be doing something for the cause of Liberalism in British Columbia. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Hon. president, H. C. Brewster; president, L. H. Kenney; vice-president, John Viger; secretary-treasurer, John Kirkpatrick; executive committee, S. W. Dobbie, E. S. Cole, E. T. Kenney, G. W. Graham, Oscar Gendren. Saturday night's meeting was arranged for and the Terrace band has been engaged for the occasion.

CRUISER MALASPINA SEIZED FISHING BOAT

Prince Olav of Seattle Caught Fishing Inside Limits Off Vayas Island

This morning the cruiser Malaspina of the fisheries department made her first capture. It was the fishing motor sloop the Prince Olav of Seattle. The Olav was caught fishing within the three-mile limit off Vayas island and the Malaspina gave chase and captured her. She is now towing the Prince Olav into Prince Rupert harbor, and will arrive here about six this evening. The news came by wireless.

DAILY EDITION

Friday, April 3, 1914

MR. L. WERDEN

First president of the Caledonia branch of the British Imperial association, under whose leadership the association is growing rapidly.

Borden finds himself. He must now drop all notion of a naval policy or swallow the Laurier policy, which he is hardly big enough to do. It is too bad that petty politics is allowed to step in and prevent Canada from doing her duty at this time when the dominions should be shouldering a part of the mother country's load.

It looks as if the degenerate part of the Tory machine would destroy the effectiveness of both the army and navy in order to gratify their passion for private gain. The recent scandalous disbandment of Earl Grey's Own Rifles in this town in order to gratify local politicians is a good illustration of this. The question is really so serious that one trembles at using it for party advantage. It is indeed of sufficient magnitude to wreck irrevocably any political party if properly handled, but the question should be handled on a higher plane. It is a case where all high-minded Conservatives as well as Liberals should protest with the end in view of reversing such an intolerable state of affairs and of protecting the fair name of Canada's militia.

A member who will sacrifice his constituency in order that his political masters may carry out their nefarious purpose in other portions of the province, is a poor creature.

better reason. Borden himself never really favored a Canadian contribution. He was forced into it by his powerful henchmen. The real reason why that policy has been withdrawn is because it was found out that the best part of Canadian opinion was against it. Not only that, but throughout the empire it is realized that the ultimate system must be along the line of local navies. Only in this way can enthusiasm be aroused and the autonomy of the dominions secured.

It is even now admitted in the old land that Borden was wrong and that the policy of Sir Wilfrid Laurier is the only one for Canada. The following clipping from Public Opinion, a leading British paper shows the change that has taken place. In speaking of the naval estimates it said: "Mr. Churchill said there was no possibility of the Borden program being adopted this year. It would be perhaps more exact to say that there is no possibility that it will ever be adopted," says the Daily News. "For Canadian opinion is clearly moving in the direction of the Laurier scheme."

This statement from a leading British paper is interesting, and it illustrates the predicament in which Premier

TUNNEL AS REFUGE FROM MOSQUITO PEST

Slept Against Propeller Shaft to Escape Insects—One Driven to Commit Suicide

(Vancouver News-Advertiser)

Guayaquil, a seaport of Ecuador from which the Weir liner Lord Erne has just come, may not be the hottest spot on God's earth, but it must be very near it, judging by the impression left upon Capt. W. E. Maginnes, her skipper, by a twenty-four hours' sojourn there. The Lord Erne is now loading 3,250,000 feet of lumber at the Hastings mill for Australia. Mr. Robert McMurly, the mate, who like the captain, comes from Ulster, is prepared to qualify such a statement just a little, but both speak discouragingly of the mosquitoes as well as the heat.

Guayaquil must be miasmatic. "You have to place your foot exactly in the middle of one of the stones set in the main street; if you put it on either side the mass of evil-smelling slime that hides beneath will squirt up and bespatter you," observed the skipper. He added that he never went into a side street—the main was sufficient—and he only went ashore four times.

Two of these visits ashore caused by a particularly sad circumstance that occurred aboard—the suicide of a young British sailor. This poor fellow had been bitten from head to foot by mosquitoes and driven desperate by the heat he finally hanged himself down below. The captain had to go ashore to get a substitute. So great was the heat that the men took to sleeping in the tunnel right up against the propeller at the bottom of the ship because it was cooler down there and the smell of the oil was distasteful to the over-sensitive mosquitoes.

SEATTLE BIDS STRONG FOR SALMON STORAGE

New Warehouse Will Provide Facilities for 500,000 Cases

Plans and specifications have been adopted by the Seattle port commission for the erection of a four-storeyed concrete warehouse at the Stacey street docks. Construction of the central unit which will cost $150,000, is to be completed in time to handle canned salmon when the pack begins to arrive in the fall.

The specifications call for the most modern equipment and facilities. The central unit will be able to store 500,400 cases of canned salmon at one time. It is planned for general warehouse purposes, however, and will not confine itself exclusively to the salmon business.

A considerable part of the North Pacific pack goes to San Francisco for storage, but the new port warehouse will prove a big factor in the diversion of the pack to Seattle, which lays claim as its logical storage point.

The central unit to be constructed immediately will have a length of 300 feet, a width of 80 feet and a floor space of 10,000 feet. Later, according to the plans, both docks will be extended, the extensions forming part of the warehouse structure and giving it a total length of 600 feet.

The structure designed, it is said, will be one of the hand-somest, architecturally, on the Seattle waterfront.

SEALING STEAMER FOUNDERED CREW OF 170 BELIEVED LOST

TERRIFIC STORM SWEEP ATLANTIC SEABOARD—ICEBERGS CRUSHED SHIP—SOME ESCAPED ON TO ICE ONLY TO PERISH OF COLD

St. John's, Nfld., April 2.—The sealing schooner Newfoundland has been crushed in the ice south of Belle Isle strait. The greater part of the crew of 170 it is believed has perished.

Steamers which were in the vicinity have picked up several of the bodies. A few of the crew survived, reaching the ice floes, and so escaped when the vessel went down. Fifty of the crew have been accounted for. Most of them were dead when they were found, while others were in a dying condition.

Great alarm is felt for another sealing steamer, the Southern Cross. It is believed that it has also been caught in the ice. The first reports received said that it was part of the crew of the Southern Cross that were picked up and were being brought to port by the Newfoundland.

There are 172 men on the Southern Cross, which was due here on Tuesday. A terrific storm has raged over Newfoundland for three days with unabated fury. The telegraph services have suffered very seriously.

St. John's, Nfld., April 3.—Sixty-four of the crew of the steamer Newfoundland are now

NO DOGGEREL TICKETS FOR G. T. P. RAILWAY

Multiple Route Tickets Introduced by W. P. Hinton, Passenger Traffic Manager

Not a ticket case will be bought this year for the opening this year of 2,000 new stations on the Grand Trunk Pacific railway, for which preparations have begun. The usual assortment of dog-eared tickets will not be on display in the ticket offices of Canada's second transcontinental. This is the result of the successful use of a multiple route ticket, one form of which, by a few deft punches, can be made to serve the same purpose as three hundred different forms of ticket of the time-honored style.

After testing the new form of tickets for three years, the record was found clear as to mistakes, with a gain of 85 per cent in speed and efficiency. W. P. Hinton, who promoted to be assistant passenger traffic manager of the G. T. P., put the time required to get ready a ticket of the new sort at 15 seconds.

The preparation for traffic for the new transcontinental will involve agencies extending around the world and the instructions will be given in many tongues, for both passenger and freight traffic will originate in Europe and from the Orient.

PRISONER ESCAPED FROM HAZELTON JAIL

Knocked Constable Down and Ran Out With Rifle—Well Known Rancher

From Hazelton comes word of the most daring act of a prisoner held there, by the name of Pekel. The full details are not obtainable, but enough is known to establish the fact that he made his escape after knocking down Officer Peters of the provincial police and seizing a carbine as he went out.

The man is well known in the district and his recapture is expected. He had a pre-emption and lived on it in a cabin near Hazelton. He was arrested on Sunday night for housebreaking near New Hazelton, and was taken to jail at Hazelton.

Yesterday morning Officer Peters came on duty and entered the jail to take the prisoners out to work. As he opened the cell door for Pekel, the latter struck the guard on the back of the head and felled him to the ground. He then pushed the officer into the cell and shut the door, making good his own escape and taking a 30-30 carbine as he passed out. The gun was not loaded and he had no ammunition, therefore, with him.

Two of the other officers who were upstairs were aroused and came down, but too late to get the man before he escaped. He is now being sought.

GRAND TRUNK MEN ACCEPT NEW WAGE SCHEDULE

Montreal, April 2.—The maintenance of way employees of the Grand Trunk railway have reached an agreement with the officials of that company by which the award of the board of commissioners which dealt with the case last fall has been accepted by both sides.

The new schedule of wages makes the C.P.R. standard rates, which were the highest in Canada, if not also in the United States, the rates also for the Grand Trunk wherever the latter's rates were lower than the C. P. R., while maintaining the known to be dead. Thirty-seven were rescued according to the statement of the captain of the steamer Bellaventure.

They have accounted for fifty-eight dead and thirty-five living of the crew of the steamer Stephano and one dead and two living of the steamer Floritzel.

RUSSIA IS ALARMED OVER DRINK CURSE

Czar Abolishes an Time-honored Custom as Result of Low Physical Standard

St. Petersburg, April 3.—So firm is the czar in his resolve that the curse of drunkenness shall be rooted out of the Russian empire that he has abolished the time-honored custom of army commanders to "raise a cup" to the health of the ruler and the imperial family in front of the troops at the conclusion of parades and manoeuvres. Undoubtedly the alarming way in which vodka is injuring the efficiency of the army has had much to do with this restriction upon a state monopoly, which brings a revenue of $450,000,000 annually.

The physique of the Russian youth from which the army is recruited is none too good. In a large number of localities, especially in Siberia, the percentage of rejections reaches as much as 70, and the general recruiting standard is lower than in Austria, France and Germany. As General Rodiger, the former minister of war, once stated, the adoption by Russia of the Austrian standard would result in a loss of over 12 per cent to the army. What this means in the case of an army has been recently shown by experiments in Sweden.

It has been proved by them that the absorption of but half a liter (less than one pint) of beer half an hour before shooting reduces the marksmanship nearly 40 per cent, and that the effect of a daily consumption of but one bottle of beer for a period of twelve days continues for a whole week after.

The Ruskys Invald, which is the official organ of the ministry of war, has recently drawn attention to this aspect in a series of striking articles. It is the effect of the drink habit on mobilization. Each time, it is pointed out, the reserves are called out for their periodical training the authorities have no end of trouble with drunkards. The men come to their training centres not merely dead drunk, but also provided with large quantities of vodka in bottles, which they then endeavor to smuggle into the barracks.

The Poor Man's University

JONES knows more about motor cars than any other man I know," said a man to his friend. "He has obtained his knowledge chiefly from motor car advertisements, and the catalogues and booklets circulated through them."

"All I know about photography," declared a well-known amateur, "I have learned from the men who advertise cameras, plates, papers and films."

Advertisements have been well called "The Poor Man's University," but other than poor men have been schooled thereby.

Much of what the average individual knows concerning personal and domestic hygiene, modern office methods, books and authors, electricity, precious stones, investments, and almost everything else, he has learned from advertisements.

Advertisements have stimulated our intelligence, added enormously to our knowledge, and given us aspirations which have raised us to higher levels of thinking and living. Advertising is indeed "The Poor Man's University."

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper.

If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumsden Building, Toronto.

for Prince Rupert and Northern B.C.

The Daily News goes into nearly every home in Prince Rupert. It is the popular newspaper of the city because it is clean and reliable. It has all the news of the city, and keeps in touch with events and topics interesting to Northern British Columbia. It treats these subjects with moderate optimism and reliability.

The Daily News is the most valuable paper to advertisers because it is read by the buying public. It has a bigger circulation than any other paper in the city. It is read by the class of people the advertisers want to talk to.

Several prominent business men and members of the Liberal association were at the wharf this morning to meet the Liberal leaders on their arrival on the Venture.

"We are glad to get up into Prince Rupert's fine weather," remarked H. C. Brewster, the Liberal leader, this morning.

Mr. Brewster expressed his pleasure at the news that the G. T. P. steel is to be tied Monday, with all that the speedy completion of the line means to Prince Rupert. He was agreeably surprised to find business so brisk and to see all the indications of activity in so many directions.

Passengers north on the City of Seattle last night were: Wm. Simmons, P. N. Piersol, George Milner, J. C. Knight, Ruff Bradford, A. T. Harrison and wife.

The boats of the Alaska steamship company, which expected to make the Prince Rupert call this year, are finding such a stampede into Alaska that every boat is crowded and there is no object in catering for Prince Rupert business while the rush is on.

The new City of Seattle came into port last evening at nine o'clock and a number of curious people were at the docks to see the rebuilt ship. She was hardly recognized by the old timers. J. H. Rogers, the company's local agent, says she will be the popular boat of the run this season.

William Manson has been personally invited to be present at the public meeting tonight, and to speak in defense of his party.
