TRIPLE ALLIANCE DOES NOT AGREE—GREEK'S NOW IN POSSESSION—PEACEFUL SETTLEMENT IS PROBABLE

(Special to The Daily News)

Berlin, April 13.—The North German Gazette says: "The ambassadors of Britain, France and Russia submitted to Berlin, Vienna and Rome, the proposals their governments in answer to the Greek note concerning South Albania and the Aegean Islands question. The proposals conflict with the proposals of the Triple Alliance, which wants a speedy evacuation of South Albania by Greece. An exchange of ideas will likely secure a settlement of the matter satisfactory, however."

RE DELAY FOR THAT FISHERIES TREATY BILL

Representatives of Border States Fighting for Changes to Benefit American Fishermen.

Washington, April 11.—Representatives in congress from Canadian border states are preparing for a lively debate on a bill to carry into effect a treaty with Great Britain regarding the fisheries in waters contiguous to the United States and Canada, signed April 8, 1908.

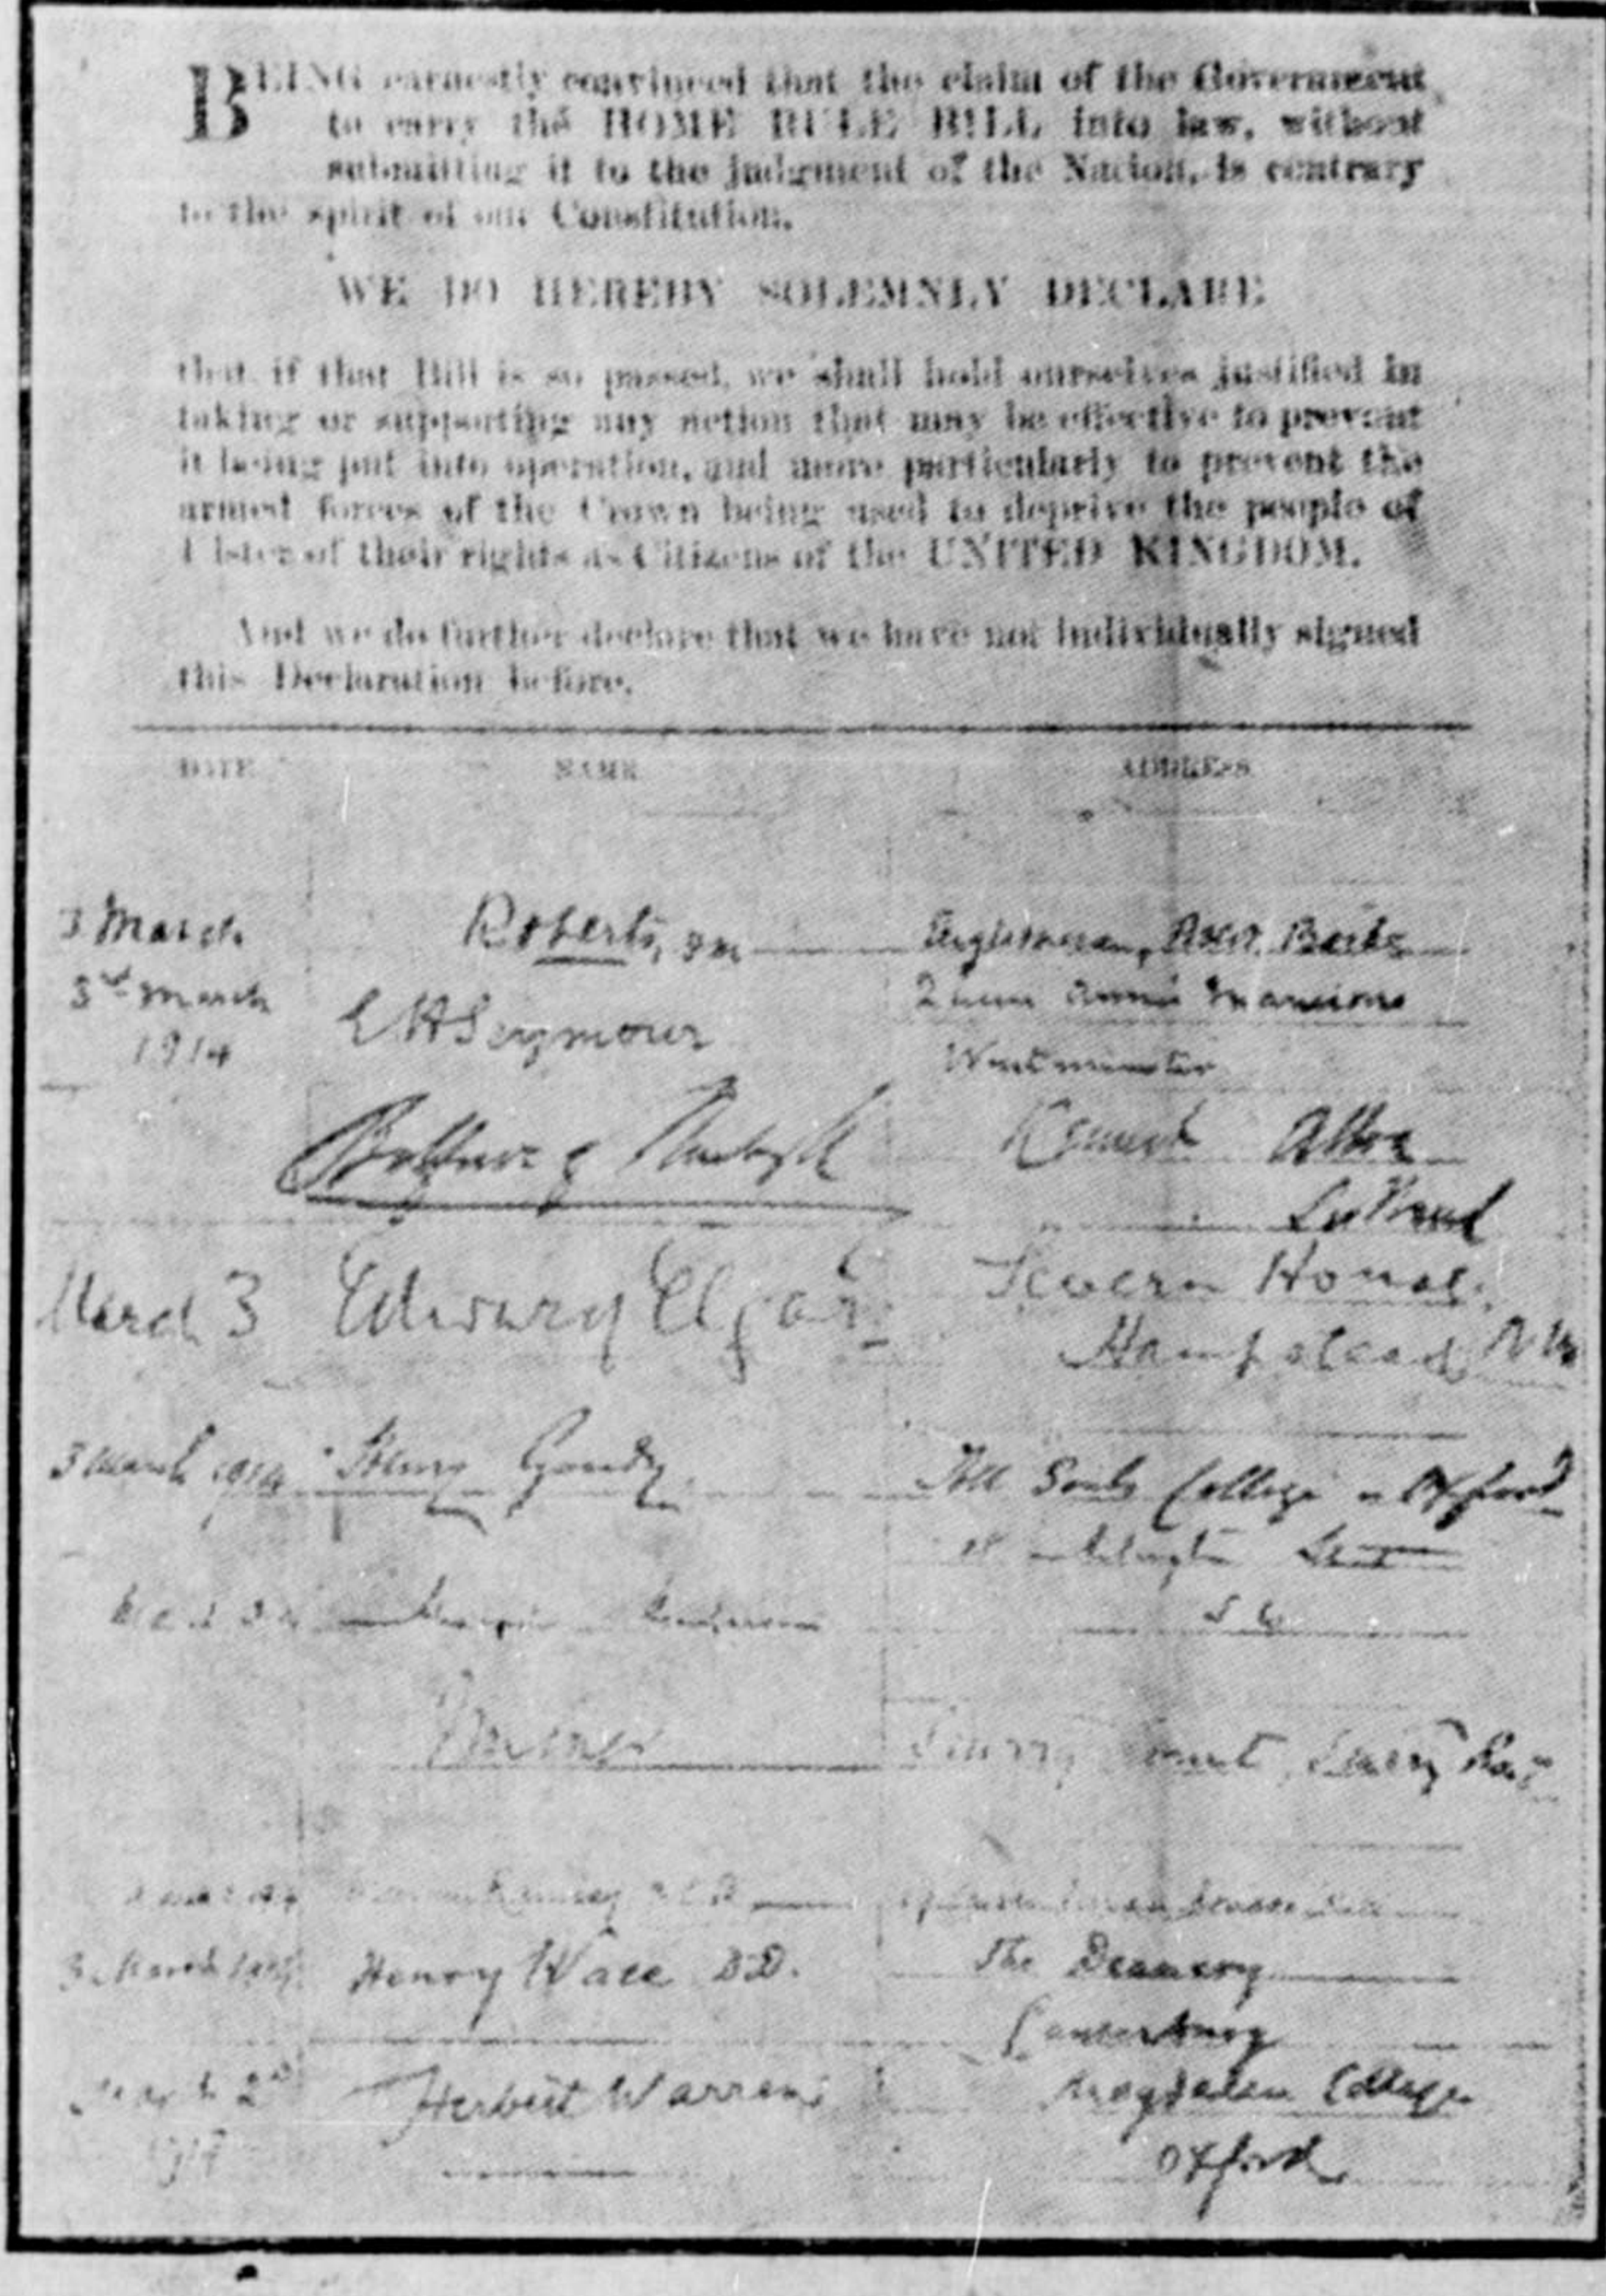

ONE WENT TO HOSPITAL PARTNER TO PRISON

Result of Ranchers' Quarrel Over Stove in Francois Lake District

Constable A. Fairbairne of Decker Lake came in last evening with a prisoner from Francois lake district. The prisoner is charged with attempted murder. His name is J. F. Hall.

Hall and W. F. Behuke were partners on a ranch near Francois lake. They quarreled and separated, and in dividing the equipment had a fight over who should take the stove. Behuke started to take it and Hall aimed a shotgun at him and fired. Behuke dropped and had to be taken to the Fort Fraser hospital. Six pellets of buckshot were taken from his right leg between the hip and ankle, but several are still in his leg. The wounded man is able to be out again.

Hall is in the city jail awaiting trial.

"WE DO HEREBY SOLEMNLY DECLARE"
The first sheet of the new British Covenant to help Ulster which is being signed by thousands all over England. Lord Roberts was the first signature.

No Poor Men Wanted

Fairbanks, April 11.—In order to stop the northern rush of penniless men the Fairbanks Commercial club has been urged by local newspapers to send telegrams to Seattle and other Pacific coast cities. Twenty-five muckers are arriving daily from the coast, coming here in the expectation of getting work on railroad construction. There are plenty of opportunities here for men with some capital, but there is little hope for railroad work during the coming summer. Letters and telegrams received from all parts of the country indicate that there will be a big rush into the interior upon the opening of navigation.

At the Empress

Tonight's program at the Empress is essentially a comedy one and will make you laugh long and heartily. "The Lazy Train," "Only One Shirt" and a two-part western drama are full of fun, life and action. There is also a good melodrama and a new Gazette.

"Bill" Hutcheson, the caretaker on the Old Hazelton for the Prince Rupert Rowing club, has the distinction of being the rescuer of little Willie Crossley from the Hays creek culvert. As soon as the accident happened he rushed to the outer end and grasped the boy as he passed through, apparently dead, but through patient and persistent efforts succeeded in restoring him to life.

To Investigate Oil Field

Ottawa, April 11.—British capital has its eye on a petroleum prospect on the Athabasca river some one hundred miles north of Edmonton, according to a statement made by the minister of the interior, through the Canada Gazette. The amount of that capital said to be in sight is $2,000,000, which sum it is understood the British capitalists are willing to expend in a thorough and exhaustive search for petroleum in northern Alberta, providing the present negotiations are successful.

Fire in Grand Hotel

A fire in a bedroom in the basement of the Grand hotel, First avenue, called out the brigade Saturday evening. A hot blaze and a lot of smoke was pouring out of the window when the firemen arrived. Both the chemical and water hose were turned on, and the fire was under control before it got out of the one room. The damage was slight, but it might have been disastrous if it had got a good start.

MYSTERY HOSPITAL DESPATCHES VICTIMS

Large Furnace Found in Basement Which Was Used as Crematory

(Special to The Daily News)

Pittsburgh, April 13.—District Attorney Jackson declares that Dorothy Arnold, who came here as a patient to Meredith's private maternity hospital at Bellevue, known as the "house of mystery," an dnever recovered from her illness, is now dying at home.

New York, April 13.—The parents of Dorothy Arnold declare she is not at home and allowed the reporters to search the house. An examination of the hospital disclosed a monster twin furnace in the basement that is connected with the crematory. Meredith, according to the police, has disposed of scores of women by burning.

GAYER GOWNS NEVER SEEN ON BOARD WALK

Easter Sunday Fashion Parade at Atlantic City

Atlantic City, N. J., April 12.—Sixty thousand persons participated in Palm Sunday fashion parade on the board walk. Gayer gowns and hats never before were seen here. If there was one skirt hat there were 5,000, and if there was one string of beads there were 30,000.

Every woman in the throng wore beads—beads of all colors, shapes and sizes, glass and metal beads, gold and silver, pearls and stones of a thousand varieties.

CHIEF OWEN FOUND TENT AND CACHE OF BANK ROBBERS

FOUND SUIT OF CLOTHES WITH BLOOD STAINS AND BANDAGES—ROLL OF MUTILATED BANK BILLS IN POCKET OF COAT—SOME OF GANG STILL AT LARGE

New Hazelton, April 11.—At an early hour this morning Chief Owen and Special Constable McDougall ran on to the den and cache belonging to the gang of bank robbers, and there discovered a large quantity of clothing, blankets, suit cases, sacks, etc. These were brought to town this afternoon by Chief Owen and Chief Gammon and taken to the jail in the old town.

Yesterday one of the robbers who was captured by the citizens, and who had only a sprained ankle, was put to the test in the jail, and he gave the police the information as to where the cache was located. It was about three miles up the track from here and about three-quarters of a mile in toward the government road. An ideal spot had been selected, as one cannot see it until right up to it. One of the special constables who was in the posse yesterday stated that they had been all around it, but did not run on to it. Had there been any one in the tent yesterday he could have shot down every one of the specials before discovery.

It is also believed that he has been wounded, as there were also bandages with blood stains on them. There were likely two of the gang got back to the camp, as one of the prisoners has stated there were ten in the bunch. Seven went to the bank and three were supposed to be in the woods to cover their getaway. They had only revolvers, however, and the rifles in the hands of the citizens gave them cold feet and they beat a hasty retreat with the rest.

In the pocket of one of the coats, the one which was blood-stained, was found a roll of mutilated bank bills which had been taken from the bank with the other money. This had evidently been overlooked by the refugee in his haste to get away and on the trail again.

No trace of the man or men has been found since they left the tent, and it is not known in which direction they went. There are special constables still in the woods. A constant search has been kept up since the robbery on Tuesday.

The three wounded taken to the hospital are doing very well and will recover. One of the men, who had only a flesh wound in the leg, began to get troublesome, and as he was not seriously injured he was taken to the lockup yesterday.

"THE GUSHER"

Sensational Keystone Comedy at Westholme Tonight

An oil well in flames is a sight that once witnessed will never be forgotten. This scene is the climax of the great Keystone farce comedy entitled "The Gusher," which will be shown tonight and tomorrow night at the Westholme theatre. Mabel and the two "heavies," as well as the entire Keystone police force will take part in this picture, which is one of the very best of its kind ever shown here. Of an entirely different order is the two-reel "American" feature, "The Trail of the Lost Chord." Here we have sentiment and poetry of the highest order, accompanied by the strains of Arthur Sullivan's masterpiece "The Lost Chord." This splendid picture will appeal to every one especially at this Easter season when the mind turns naturally to the sublime and noble. "A Real Mother" in one reel and a new and interesting Weekly Gazette complete the program, which will be repeated tomorrow night.

AUDIENCE OPPOSED CAPITAL PUNISHMENT

Result of Interesting Debate by Progressive Debating Society

On Thursday evening last an interesting discussion took place at the meeting of the Progressive Debating society when Mr. A. Davis for the affirmative and Mr. Kidwell for the negative debated the question of the "Abolition of Capital Punishment." Mr. Davis opened by questioning the right of any man to deprive another of his life under the guise of law, and spoke of the tragic mistakes which had been made in the past. The law, he said, was corrective and not vindictive, and of late years a great change had taken place in the attitude of the public towards criminals generally, which was evident in the greater opportunities now afforded them to regain their position in society. Harshness did not tend to deter criminals.

Mr. Kidwell for the negative contended that the cry against capital punishment was purely sentimental in its origin. That the fear of the extreme penalty of the law was a strong preventative was evident from the great increase in the number of murders during the period when capital punishment was suspended in France. The individual has vested in the state his individual right to protect himself, and the state must take all measures necessary to protect society. He ridiculed the system by which murderers sentenced to life imprisonment had their terms reduced by more than half by conforming to the simple regulations of the prison, and condemned it as dangerous.

On the vote being taken the majority of the members proved to be abolitionists.

Gave Violet Tea

The ladies of the Presbyterian church gave a violet tea in the K. of P. hall last Saturday afternoon, which proved very popular. Flowers were sold by Misses Muriel Patmore, Esther Naden and Margaret McColl. The tables were arranged about the room and tea and cake were served by the ladies. A musical program helped to make the affair a pleasant one. Those taking part were: Mrs. Hemmell, Mrs. Miller and Miss Fisher, vocal solos; Mrs. Woodland, violin solo; Miss Stevens, Miss Brandt, Miss Irwin, Miss Froud and Mr. Walker, piano selections. A net sum was netted from the proceeds.

DAILY EDITION

Monday, April 13, 1914

It is difficult to understand the point of view of men who oppose all forms of military service. It is all very well to look forward to the time when the lion and the lamb shall lie down together, but under present conditions that is hardly likely to happen unless the lamb is inside the lion. All around us we see great preparations for war and unless we are prepared to accept the position of slaves we should be prepared to take care of ourselves. Canada is too rich a plum to escape the covetous glances of powerful eyes. Were the British Isles in a life and death struggle with one of the great powers, there is little to prevent an invasion by the Japanese. Without a soldier or a gun to protect our shores how helpless we would be, and yet this is the very thing we hear preached about by a certain class in the community.

On two memorable occasions the militia of Canada saved the liberty of this country. In the war of 1812 they defeated the Americans and drove them across the line. At the time of the Riel rebellion the snatched the great Northwest from the grip of the halfbreeds. Surely a service of that kind should justify their existence. To them we owe our country and to them we owe our liberty, and if any man has neither love of country nor pride of liberty he is hopeless and quite unworthy of the source from which he sprang.

This, of course, is not denying that the militia may be used for service for which they were never intended. It is unquestionably a mistake to use the militia in quelling local riots or in any way interfering in labor disputes. The volunteers are very often drawn from the laboring classes and it is very unfair to insist on such a man shooting down his fellows. An innocent man who happens to be a soldier in times of trouble is thereby estranged from all his comrades. He is branded as a traitor to his class and is compelled to go through life with this stigma hanging over him.

The function of the militia should be restricted to defence; a sort of national police. There can be no odium attached to the man who fights for his country. It may be that he will be compelled to shoot down innocent victims, but the fault does not lie with him, and if all the workingmen of every country would restrict their services to defence, there would soon be no call for that.

Of course it will always be necessary to put down riots, but this should be done by the regular soldiers or police; by men who make a profession of arms or who make a living by that means. It should never be done by one civilian shooting down his next door neighbor. If such a system were put into effect it is hardly likely that there would be the same opposition to a militia as there is now, and if those who now oppose them would aim at reform rather than at an unreasonable extinction they would receive a great deal more support than they do now.

THE GOBBINS

This is an interesting spot at the mouth of Belfast lough on the Antifim coast. In the event of disturbances between the two forces this would prove to be a place of great activity. It already has great historic renown, having figured largely at the time of the rebellion, many lives being lost by falling over the steep precipice into the sea during a heavy fog.

COURT WOULD NOT HELP LAND STAKER

Mr. Justice Macdonald Says That Staking Under Powers of Attorney Is Fraud on Act

The practice of parties desirous of obtaining large tracts of government land who evade the clause which limits one section to one purchaser, by the expedient of putting the applications through under powers of attorney from persons willing to allow their names to be used, has been condemned by Mr. Justice Macdonald of the supreme court in an action at Victoria recently. His lordship stigmatized the method as a fraud upon the Land act and refused to assist Mr. Robert W. Clark to recover from George M. Swan a sum of money paid for staking land, where the applications had been made in the names of outsiders. Clark had alleged that lands in the Naas valley which Swan had

G. T. P. PROOF CANADA'S MAGNIFICENT FAITH

London Times Comments on the Driving of the Last Spike

London, April 11.—The Times, referring to the driving of the last spike in the Grand Trunk Pacific, editorially says the undertaking was a battleground of the political parties and that political influences have affected its prosperity. Nevertheless, no doubt Canadians regard the new system as an asset, though they may be justified in thinking it should have been secured cheaper. The G. T. P. is a result of the magnificent faith of Canadians in their country's future, and is a triumph of human domination over formidable obstacles.

THE MARCHIONESS OF LONDONDERRY

The woman who is said to have visited Curragh camp and gossip in London is to the effect that she influenced the officers of the regiments there to resign rather than march against Ulster. Her husband is a former Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland. The Marchioness was married in 1875. She was Lady Theresa Chetwynd-Talbot, daughter of the nineteenth Earl of Shrewsbury.

KING AT BOXING DISPLAY OF THE GUARDS

The King's presence at the Regent's Parks Barracks was fresh proof of the close attention with which he follows the development of sport. The King was accompanied by Admiral Seymour, Lord Dundonald and others. The above picture shows Bombardier Wells and Pat O'Keefe giving a pretty display of sparring, though Wells always looked as if he was playing with his man.

SPORT

LACROSSE THE RING FOOTBALL

Perhaps Cobb isn't a great speaker, but then you never heard of Demosthenes stealing home.

Baseball in Japan may be all right, but we would hate to be an umpire in China, where they say they have eggs a thousand years old.

Georges Carpentier is due to join the French army next October, which means his enforced retirement for three years from the squared circle.

Meredith, of Manchester United, missed his first league match of the season in order to make his forty-fifth appearance for Wales in the recent international game.

At an auction sale in London the other day a salt cellar sold for $28,000. That's nothing. Clark Griffith of Washington has a pitcher he wouldn't let go for twice that amount.

A well known soccer authority places Celtic, Blackburn Rovers, Aston Villa and Glasgow Rangers as the best clubs in the British Isles, in the order given.

Burnley's present cup team was built on an outlay of about £2,800, which is only about the price of one present day tip-topper.

Baseball will be revived in England this summer. A meeting of the British Baseball association will be held in London shortly to discuss plans for re-organization.

Norval Baprie, world's champion skater, will leave shortly for Australia, where he will teach fancy skating. He has been engaged by the rink managers of the Antipodes.

Bloomer's record of 350 league and F. A. cup tie goals is only approached by Hampton, the Aston Villa centre, who has scored 225 league and F. A. cup tie goals for Aston Villa alone.

John L. Sullivan, while playing a week's engagement at a Chicago burlesque theatre, visited the local gymnasiums and expressed his opinion of present-day boxers. Starting with the heavyweights, the veteran fighter says the "white hopes" could not box a preliminary in his day, and that the boxing game in general has degenerated. He says that Packey McFarland and Mike Gibbons are the only fighters who show a semblance of the old-time gladiators.

George Chip's rise in pugdom was fast and his fall even more rapid. When he knocked out Frank Klaus the first time it was declared a fluke win, but when he repeated two weeks later a wild howl of delight went up from his admirers, and he was hailed the new middleweight champion. It may have been a lucky punch, but he has developed a weak spot, and they'll be looking for it when he fights again.

A cablegram from Australia announces the retirement from the ring of Ray Bronson, the Indiana welterweight, who was hailed as a world's champion. Bronson, in a message to friends, says that after losing to Matt Wells, he came to the conclusion that his ring days were over.

Boxing promoters are planning to revive the game at Coney island, New York, during the summer months. They intend to lease the old Sea Beach palace, where some of the greatest contests in ring history were decided, including a memorable battle between Fitzsimmons and Jeffries, the Corbett-Jeffries, Sharkey-Jeffries, Maher-McCoy, McAuliffe-Griffo, Dixon-Pierce, Ryan-Smith, Walcott-Dunn, Costello-Greggains, Sharkey-Fitzsimmons, and other bouts. Coney island was at one time famous at a battle ground, but since the repeal of the Horton law the seashore resort has been practically dead.

England and Australia have accepted invitations to participate in the international soccer games to be held in connection with the Panama-Pacific exposition, according to announcement made by the exposition athletic department.

Liverpool's cup team (English cup finalists) is made up of seven Scots, three Englishmen and an Irishman. A very "un-English" team certainly, yet one capable of carrying off the cups.

England has been international football champions on thirteen occasions, Scotland ten, Wales one, Ireland one (this year, while on six occasions it has been held jointly by Scotland and England, Ireland participating in 1902-3 with Thistle and Rose.

Advocates Fee for Mothers

London, April 11.—George Bernard Shaw thinks child-bearing ought to be a paid profession. He told a meeting of the Fabian society that if he were a woman his fee for becoming a mother would be $10,000.

Do not follow others, he with the leaders; invest in Port Edward before the industrial development.

SALMON LICENSES RAISED NEXT YEAR

Province Wants to Collect, Too, and Asks Dominion to Defer Increase

Ottawa, April 11.—An order-in-council has been passed providing that the order of March 7 in regard to fisheries license fees for salmon fishing in British Columbia shall not come into effect until January 1, 1915. The order recites that Sir Richard McBride has interviewed the minister of marine on the subject and has requested that federal license fees be not raised for the present year, in order that time may be allowed to reach some amicable arrangement between the two governments in regard to the whole matter of administration of fisheries in British Columbia.

The British Columbia Fishing & Packing company, limited, of Vancouver, has been federally incorporated with a capital stock of $5,000,000. The incorporators are nominally given as clerks in a Toronto legal office usually associated with Mackenzie & Mann enterprises.

NEW TREATY SIGNED BY U. S. AND COLOMBIA

Make Concessions to Smaller State to Heal Breach Over Panama Canal

Washington, April 11.—Free use of the Panama canal by Colombian men of war ships and army and navy supply vessels is proposed in a new treaty between the United States and Colombia which has just been signed. The intention is to heal the breach between the two countries over the separation of Panama. Secretary Bryan explained that the clause was identical with the one in the Colombian treaty negotiated by Secretary Root in 1909 with the approval of Great Britain and ratified by the United States senate, but never accepted by Colombia.

Girls Beat Up Militants

Cork, April 11.—The girls working in the flax mills at Blackpool, in this county, mauled a crowd of militant suffragettes who were attempting to do some proselyting to the cause. The girls tore off the hats and coats of the suffragettes and hustled them around in lively fashion. One suffragette was so badly injured that she had to be taken to the hospital.

A NEWSPAPER

for Prince Rupert and Northern B.C.

The Daily News goes into nearly every home in Prince Rupert. It is the popular newspaper of the city because it is clean and reliable. It has all the news of the city, and keeps in touch with events and topics interesting to Northern British Columbia. It treats these subjects with moderate optimism and reliability.

The Daily News is the most valuable paper to advertisers because it is read by the buying public. It has a bigger circulation than any other paper in the city. It is read by the class of people the advertisers want to talk to.

THE BIG THREE OF CENTRAL B.C.

NEW HAZELTON

Centre of the richest mining district in Canada. Gateway to the Groundhog Anthracite coal fields. At the junction of waterways where the lines of trade meet. Future absolutely assured.

When you seek opportunities for business or investment, you must be sure of the location of the MAIN BUSINESS CENTRES. INVESTIGATION will prove to you that Fort George, Hubert and New Hazelton are so strategically located that they will overshadow all other towns in Central, Northern British Columbia and the PEACE RIVER DISTRICT.

HUBERT

Trade centre of the Bulkley Valley. So strategically situated that all branch railway lines will be built from that point. Has no possible competitor for trade of that rich territory lying between Fort George and New Hazelton.

FORT GEORGE

is in a class by itself. No city in Western Canada with the possible exception of Winnipeg or Vancouver will outstrip Fort George's growth in population and development. No city on the continent has more natural advantages than Fort George.

P. Black, proprietor of the Central hotel, gave the fire department adonation of $50 for their prompt action in putting out the fire in the Grand hotel, which adjoins his building.

Some excited person called "fire" in the Empress theatre Saturday night when the alarm sounded for the fire at the Grand hotel. The theatre was crowded at the time, but fortunately a panic was avoided.

Constable Fairbairne, who has just come in from the Francois lake country, claims that district is the finest looking land he has seen in the interior along the G. T. P. There is considerable snow there in the winter.

R. Jennings, road superintendent, is leaving today for Bella Coola, where he will be a couple of weeks looking after the road work. Mr. Jennings now has the Bella Coola and Stewart districts to look after.

A Prince Rupert man who was in a New Hazelton hardware store when the battle with the bandits started, said the store was cleaned out of ammunition in a few minutes. Over 100 shots were fired in two minutes.

Mr. MacKenzie of New Hazelton, who was a former Rupert resident, lives next to the Union bank where the robbery occurred. Mrs. MacKenzie was alone in the house at the time and got a bad fright. This is her second experience of the kind in four months. Mr. MacKenzie rushed to his home on hearing the shooting and got his gun in time to take part in the trouble.

Miss Doris Mason, whose home is in this city, was a guest last week of Mr. and Mrs. Denis H. Wiles at their new home in South Vancouver. Mr. and Mrs. Wiles were formerly residents of Rupert. Mr. Wiles is now with Mosen & Rowe, vessel brokers, Vancouver.

The Majestic theatre is making an entire change in their program. They have arranged with a new film company for some of the best films on the market. The theatre also has been renovated and fitted up with a ventilation system that makes it one of the most attractive places in the city.

A superb set of photographs, handsomely framed, has been presented to the board of trade by Mr. Th. J. Davidson, a well-known local photographer who has recently become an enthusiastic member of that organization. There are thirteen pictures, including two panoramas of Prince Rupert, showing the city in its infancy in 1909 and again on September 1st of last year. The group won for the artist the first prize at the last fair.
