

THIRD AVENUE LOT BRINGS FIFTEEN THOUSAND

HUERTA'S BLUFF IS CALLED BY PRESIDENT WILSON--DARING BURGLAR CAUGHT IN ACTION

RUSSIAN SAYS PETER VERIGIN IS POPE AS WELL AS CZAR

ONE WHO KNOWS CHIEF OF DOUKHOBOR TRIBE DECLARES HE IS AN AUTOCRAT--OWNS PALATIAL YACHT

Rosland, April 16.—Veldman Kruglak, formerly editor of the Russian-American Echo, of New York, has something interesting to say about the Doukhobors. In a letter to the Miner he writes:

"It is impossible for an outsider, even if he speaks the Russian language, to understand the character, methods and belief of the Doukhobors. For centuries this sect was persecuted in Russia by the authorities. To avoid this persecution the Doukhobors invented a thousand ways to fool the investigating officer. They use names which mean different things, for instance, to avoid persecution for infidelity, they call themselves Christians, but they refuse to accept the new or old testament and the bible is an unknown book to them. What John Sherbinin, who is the trusted lieutenant of Peter Verigin told you is false, exaggeration and wilful misrepresentation of facts.

Pope and Czar

"It is impossible to define the power of Peter Verigin over these good, poor, ignorant people. He is a pope, a czar and a slave holder combined. Only the Doukhobors who have mingled among the Canadian workmen do not believe that Peter Verigin is Jesus Christ, at the majority, especially the illiterate women (and illiterate men all are), worship Peter Verigin as a saint. Sherbinin and Shoukin and the rest of the managers of the colony have only one boss over them, Peter Verigin, who could dismiss them without notice. It is nonsense to talk about the rule of the majority; they are simply following the suggestions of Peter Verigin, who is sole owner of all their land and property, and without Verigin's consent they dare not build even a shack.

"Peter Verigin, while in exile, received over $30,000 from his followers. He showed me a photo of his yacht. He was not in prison, but lived in a small Siberian town in luxury, and in his yacht he used to take pleasure trips with the officers.

"In the first nude parade in Saskatchewan there were about 2000 of the best of followers of Peter Verigin, who as all Doukhobors could tell you, simply, literally obeyed at that time the command and teaching of Peter Verigin. Peter Verigin afterward changed this command and told them to dress themselves. But about seventy extremists and fanatics disobeyed him and were expelled by Verigin."

Have No Funerals

"They do not conduct any funerals in British Columbia and you could not find a cemetery. They simply use their dead corpses as a sort of fertilizer and plough over the graves.

"It is untrue that these fifty or sixty men, women and kids crowded in one house, 'live in absolute peace.' They are human and quarrels and fights among the inhabitants of such are very frequent.

"As to their non-resistance, ask the big policeman in Grand Forks, whom the Doukhobor women met with stones and sticks.

"The Doukhobors cannot be ideal people for only this reason: They are uncivilized, ignorant, illiterate, over-superstitious. But as a whole, they are nice people. If you send their children through school and remove the influence of such a leader as Peter Verigin, they will be very desirable settlers."

WESTERN FARMERS FIGHTING FOR LOWER TARIFF RATES

MANUFACTURERS MADE BIG MISTAKE IN OPPOSING RECIPROCITY--OPPOSITION TO C. N. R. IN EVIDENCE

(Special to The Daily News)
Ottawa, April 18.—Western farmers figured prominently in the debate on the budget and put up a record for Hansard with the arguments of the western farmers for free wheat and free implements, as well as the arguments of others to the contrary.

Mr. Buchanan maintained that the manufacturers made a big mistake when they opposed reciprocity and the opposition on the coast was now more than if it had been allowed to go into effect. He came out flat footed against any assistance to the C. N. R.

Social Event

Our society editor reports an interesting social event this week in the reception given by Masters George Tite and Jack Naden at the new building to be utilized as their bachelor quarters on Second avenue. Refreshments were served from 4 to 6 o'clock, Master George Tite pouring tea and Master Jack Naden receiving the visitors. Among the latter were noted Mr. and Mrs. Leslie, Mrs. Carpenter, Mrs. W. H. Kergin, Mr. and Mrs. Naden and Miss Naden, Miss Martin, Miss Mortimer, Miss Rowell, Miss Burritt, Miss Kergin, Miss Tite, Messrs. Mortimer and Paterson, and Masters Jack and Fred McMullin and Ted Tite.

WRIT HABEAS CORPUS GRANTED HARRY THAW

Prisoner Not Discharged Until Arrangements Made to Appeal Case

Concord, N. H., April 17.—Harry Kendall Thaw's petition for a writ of habeas corpus has been granted by Judge Edgar Aldrich of the United States district court.

The court said, however, that no order would be issued for the prisoner's release from custody until arrangements have been completed to take the case to the United States supreme court of appeal.

Thaw's petition for admission to bail the court left undetermined, taking the ground that it would be more appropriate for this to be decided by the supreme court. The result of the decision is that Thaw's guardianship and condition is unchanged for the present, but that the petition for a writ of habeas corpus will go to the highest court in the land with a decision of the lower court in his favor.

"THE ANTIQUE BROOCH ROBBERY" AT EMPRESS

At the Empress theatre last night a program of exceptional merit was shown. "The Jewel Robbery" proved to be a most sensational picture. It is a late two-part release from the Edison London studios. The picture developed some very strong scenes especially where the hero of the story chases the thief Big Ben along the outside running board of an English passenger train moving at lightning speed, followed by the hand to hand encounter in which the thief is thrown from the train. It is certainly thrilling and causes one to marvel at the desperate chances the people engaged in making moving pictures will take. "An Artist's Dream" is a comedy along unusual lines. It is very funny. A late number of Pathe's Weekly is also shown.

The program last night was in all respects high class and will be repeated tonight.

THIRD AVENUE LOT BROUGHT $15,000

Purchaser Intends Erecting Three-storey Block on Premises

Another sale of Third avenue business property was made yesterday, and will result in a new business block being built this summer.

The lot sold is number 50, block 30, section one. It is now occupied by Smith & Mallett, plumbers, on a lease which is just about expiring. The vendor is J. Y. Moore, an old-timer of Prince Rupert, and the price is $15,000.

H. G. Helgeson, Ltd., put through the deal, the purchaser being a business man from the prairies. He intends erecting on it immediately on the expiry of the lease a modern three-storey business block. The necessary capital is already provided and plans for the building are being made now.

BURGLARY CASE CAME UP FOR TRIAL TODAY

Two Recent Arrivals Alleged to Have Broken Into Confectionery Store

A nasty, mean little burglary of which any decent man would be ashamed was perpetrated in town on Wednesday night. The victim, Mrs. W. Rohloff, is well known in Prince Rupert and is held in high esteem by all who know her. She has been connected with Knott's bakery for a number of years and recently has carried on a confectionery business of her own on Second avenue, between Seventh and Eighth streets.

It appears that the deed was done by two men named Donelly and O'Reilly, who had arrived on the G. T. P. boat. These men first of all installed themselves without authority in a cabin at the rear of the Knox pool room, and having obtained free lodging, decided to have free board also. As might be expected of such characters, they thought it would be safest to rob a woman, and accordingly broke into Mrs. Rohloff's store and helped themselves to groceries, etc., to the value of ten dollars. This was not the worst feature, for there are signs that the burglars intended to conceal their crime by fire. Fortunately this attempt was unsuccessful in spite of a lavish use of coal oil and matches.

The robbery was reported to the police directly it was discovered, and yesterday morning one of the men was caught, if not red-handed, at least red-mouthed, for he was half way through one of the stolen tins of lobster.

The police thought the cabin made a very good and well-baited mouse trap, so they did not disturb it, and sure enough the second man walked into it. The men who are charged as Donelly and O'Reilly are supposed to have come direct from the States.

The case will be up for preliminary hearing before Justice of the Peace McMullin at three o'clock this afternoon.

DAGO FRANK'S STORY CAN NOT HELP BECKER

Confession of Gunman Will Not Be Allowed to Be Put in as Evidence

New York, April 17.—The confession of "Dago Frank" Giorfeli a few hours before he was executed for the part he played in the murder of Herman Rosenthal, will not be permitted to interfere in the plans of District Attorney Charles S. Whitman for the second trial of former Police Lieutenant Becker.

Mr. Whitman holds the confession to be hearsay evidence and is therefore inadmissible either in the defense of Becker, charged with having instigated the murder of Rosenthal, or in the prosecution of Harry Vallon. Vallon, according to the official version of Giorfeli's confession to Warden Glancy of Sing Sing prison, fired one of the shots that killed Rosenthal. It was Vallon's testimony, and that given by "Bridgie" Vebber and Jack Rose, that led to the conviction of the four gunmen. The trial of Becker will begin May 4, if Justice Seabury grants the motion of Mr. Whitman.

ASSASSIN AIMS BULLET AT NEW YORK'S MAYOR

New York, April 17.—An assassin's bullet aimed at Mayor Mitchell as he was leaving the city hall missed its mark today and instead of finding its resting place in the mayor's body, it badly wounded Mayor Polk, corporation counsel. The man who fired the shot was instantly overpowered. He is named David Ross and is nearly 70 years of age. His conduct gave evidence that he is mentally unbalanced.

HUERTA MUST STOP TRIFLING UNITED STATES GETS FIRM

HUERTA, INSISTING ON DETAILS OF SALUTE, CALLED TO A HALT--FLEET ON WAY TO MEXICO

(Special to The Daily News)

Washington, April 18.—The United States has warned Huerta to go no further with his argument about the details of the salute. He will be tolerated if twenty-one guns are fired in reparation for the arrest of the bluejackets; otherwise serious consequences will follow. The Atlantic fleet continues on its way to Tampico to back up the demands of the government.

The present difficulties arose over the uncivil treatment accorded Americans in Mexico and the arrest of several American bluejackets who had landed from their ships, and also the refusal of Huerta to salute the American navy. When President Wilson presented an ultimatum, Huerta said he would salute if the Americans fired gun for gun in response.

SIR EDWARD CARSON DEFIANT SAYS SETTLEMENT IS FAR AWAY

MAKES BOLD SPEECH IN IRELAND AND SAYS THAT ULSTER IS NOT AFRAID TO SHOW FORCE

(Special to The Daily News)

Limavady at Garvagh, Ireland, April 17.—Sir Edward Carson, the leader of the anti-home rule movement, made the most defiant speech of the whole tour today. This speech seemed to suggest that a settlement is further away than ever.

Sir Edward said very little daylight appeared on the horizon with regard to the question. He declared that the minor ministers, to judge by their speeches, seemed to think that Ulster was afraid to show force. They seemed to think that the Ulstermen were a mob and would run away from policemen's batons.

These ministers did not recognize that the Ulster anti-home rulers have hearts and are fully conscious of their strength—"not in the number of guns nor ammunition they will have, but in the determined way in which they will resist what is against their conscience," declared the leader. "The government thinks they could be subdued in a week by the fleet and the army. They know, however, that they cannot be conquered in years."

DAILY EDITION

Saturday, April 18, 1914

Sir George Reid, Australia's commissioner in London, is quoted as saying that Canada should have started the building of three ships immediately and decide during their construction what policy to adopt. Our Conservative friends, no doubt, will say that the senate would not let them vote the money. Truth is that the old naval bill of the Laurier government was still in existence and under that act money can be appropriated for building ships. The Borden government will now have to back down and say they don't want to assist the empire even after all this flag-waving.

The recent despatches tell us that A. C. Ross, one of the leading eastern manufacturers, has passed over to the Conservative ranks. That in itself is not significant, for the weak-kneed men all over the country will only support a government for what they get out of it. No one objects to a man changing his politics providing he is sincere in
it. When a man changes sides, however, when the government is upset it leaves a rather ugly impression and is likely to create contempt for him in both parties.

A. C. Ross, however, has a deeper motive. He of course pretends that the change is because he prefers the present government's railway policy, but since that is not a live issue in Canada, a deeper motive must be sought. It is not far to find. The Liberals have declared themselves in favor of reduced tariffs and bounties on steel, and this hits directly at the pocket of Mr. Ross. Self preservation is the first law of nature, so Mr. Ross seeks protection

among his kind.

The question his actions
bring up, however, is a serious
one. It begins to look as if there were a coalition between the big interests and the Borden government. These were the very conditions that nurtured the trusts in the United States. These are the men who make the big contributions to the party funds and as a result demand a big voice in the government. The people should act immediately on such an important question.
Sir Wilfrid has been paid the biggest compliment of his career when the big interests have shown their hand. The time is opportune for Canada to declare on so important a question, and if the country is to be saved from the trusts Sir Wilfrid Laurier should be placed in power next election.

RIVAL ARMIES IN ULSTER SITTING OVER MAGAZINE

A SPARK WOULD SET IT ABLAZE AND WELL-DRILLED CORPS AT EACH OTHER'S THROATS

Londonderry, April 17.—Derry is an armed camp. The reality of Ulster's army is being demonstrated nightly in nine drill halls. In the space of two hours
I saw three last night. In all was the same story of grimly determined men under skilled instruction, a hundred in each place. The city's enrolment is 3,290, and the men are of splendid type—lawyers, accountants,
business men, clerks, laborers,
tramping side by side.

They Have the Guns, Too

They have dummy guns for drill; huge, accurate air guns with which target practice is quietly carried on; carbines, rifles, revolvers for actual service. When the secret chamber was opened I saw a great store of cartridge belts and accoutrements.

These things are as much beyond peradventure as the deadly earnestness of the men who have 50 round of ammunition apiece.
And they have Maxim guns, too.

Nationalists Also

But the Nationalists are drilling as well. On Sunday 500 were under instruction in Celtic park, observed by the Protestants in the cathedral tower.

Each Saturday the Protestants drill in private grounds watched by the police at a distance.
So far have preparations for hostilities gone that the Ulster-ites have two buildings here for hospitals. Four hundred Derry ladies are qualifying for ambulance service, and a large number of beds are pledged.

Donegal Mobilization

Experimental mobilizations
are held at frequent intervals.
At the given near here 42 out of 46 countrymen left the plow and mobilized on two hours' notice.
Some went six miles to do so.

A great Donegal mobilization took place Saturday, when Lord Leitrim inspected the troops,

and he will entertain 60 post
riders over Easter.

Rapid Riders' Organization

The post despatch riders' organization is one of the wonders of the Unionist preparation.

I talked today with one who recently covered 90 miles from Londonderry to Belfast on motorcycles.

There are 1500 signallers and despatch carriers, who cover
every place in Ulster on Saturdays, using motorcycles almost entirely.

Girls on Motorcycles

Three of them are girls, one a clergyman's daughter, who rides a motorcycle. Frequently they are thrown by gates or trees
placed on the roads.

The tension of the situation is demonstrated by the effect of a rumor that the Protestants of two villages, St. Johnston and Carrigans, were to attack Londonderry Nationalists on Friday.
The latter got a cannon on a street in The Bogside, near a Derry slaughter house, when it exploded, breaking windows.
Two children were nearly hit by fragments.

Spark Might Set War Ablaze

A church lads' procession was mistaken for an Ulster demonstration and was attacked in the Nationalist quarters of the city and a drum ruined.

These are a few of the incidents of the situation, which requires only a spark to light fires
that would not be easily put out.
As for the soldiery, Unionists openly boast that the men are even more friendly to Ulster than the officers proved. "If regulars were sent against us," said an ex-officer, instructing the Derry volunteers, "they and we would sit down and picnic together."

Both Prepare for Struggle

But Nationalists have no intention of leaving their cause in the regulars' keeping. And so,

despite the apparent quiet within historic Derry, behind the scenes two hostile forces are getting ready for the fray. The danger is real, the situation serious.

Will Prohibit Orientals

At the regular monthly meeting of St. Andrew's society it was decided to hold an excursion on May 24 to Port Simpson and a committee was appointed to make arrangements for a boat.

A resolution was also passed forbidding the entrance into the hall of Orientals. Any society engaging the hall hereafter will be prevented from employing Oriental labor in decorating or cleaning.

Have you a lot of your own?
Secure one in Port Edward now.

NOTICE TO OWNERS OF FOWLS

Any person hereinafter allowing their fowls to run at large or trespass in the city will be prosecuted under the terms of Section 8 of the Bylaw.

LACROSSE THE RING FOOTBALL

SPORT

BASEBALL LAWN TENNIS HOCKEY

It's the "lucky punch" that often makes champions, and un-makes them, too.

The Calgary Chinooks, Mann cup challengers, have decided to come to Vancouver and play on May 23 and 25.

Promoter Jim Coffroth of San Francisco has practically clinched a match between Gunboat Smith and Sam Langford, the Boston tar baby. He plans to stage the contest about the middle of May.

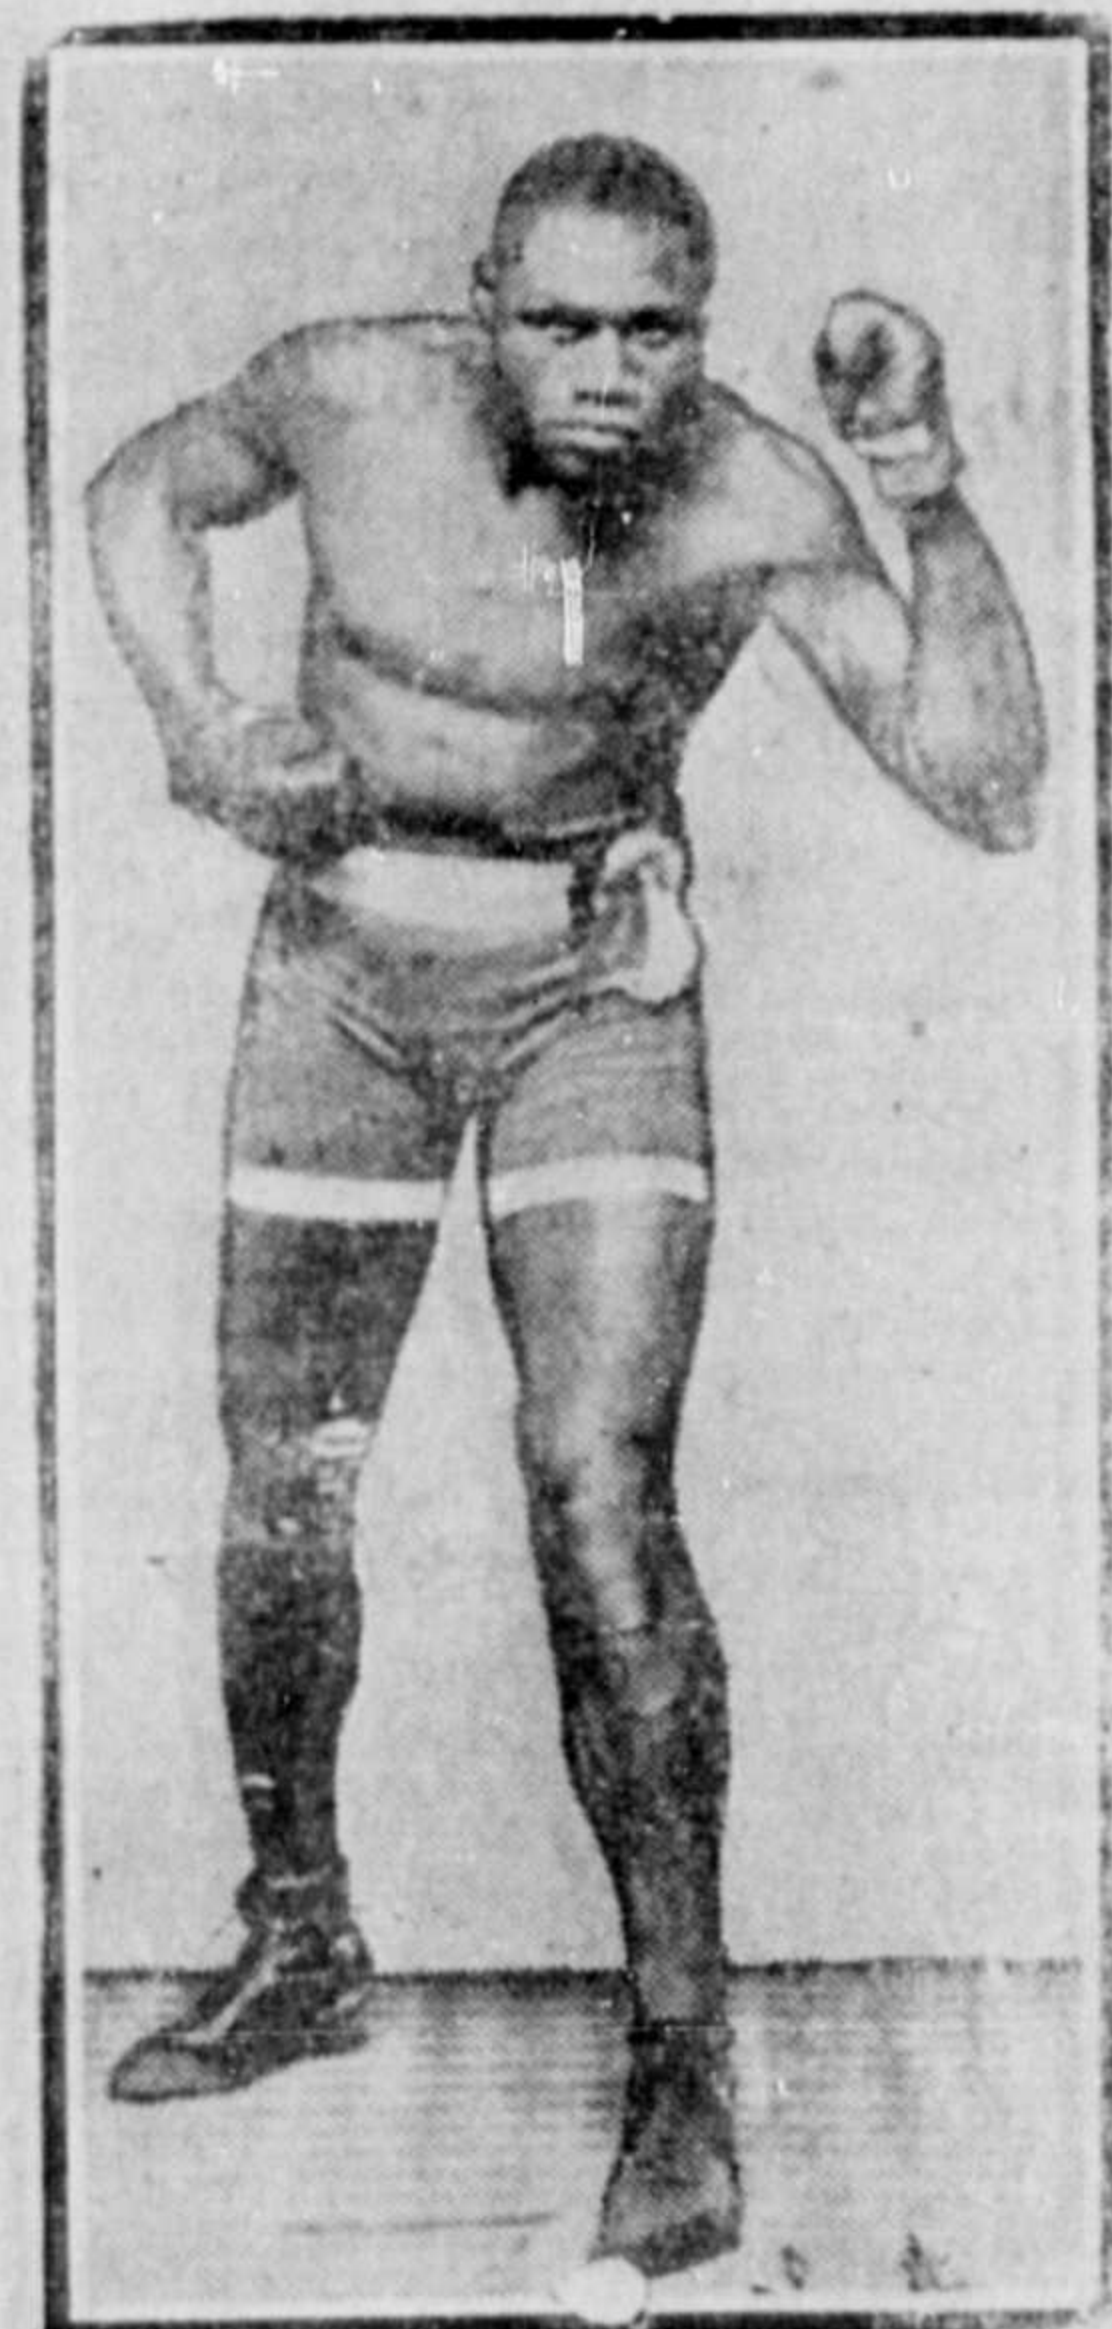

It seems a pity that Brampton, Ontario, folk should part with so much money in sending a team to Vancouver after the Mann cup, world's amateur lacrosse honors. In the past visiting teams have been a little shy on goal getting in cup matches.

The arrangements for the visit of an English lacrosse team to Canada this summer are under way again. Con Jones has now secured the approval of the Canadian Amateur Lacrosse association, that body also promising to give the tour every encouragement.

The New Westminster News states that Cliff Spring, Len Turnbull and Buck Marshall, star players of the Minto cup holders, have practically decided to go back east. With Fleming boosting salaries to western players, pro lacrosse on the Pacific coast will be a "dead one" this summer.

James Richardson, Sunderland's centre forward, has been transferred to Ayr United and transfer fee is said to be £650. Richardson is a native of Glasgow and has been with the Wearersiders for a couple of seasons.

By drawing with Newcastle at Newcastle, the famous Blackburn

JOHNNY HOLLAND

The ex-amateur boxer, who is to bout in Montreal next week, Holland is the liveliest middle and heavyweight seen in action in Canada for years. He is in good shape and will give any of the topnotchers a good run. He has plenty of speed and courage, and a kick in both hands.

Rovers, one of the oldest and best known clubs in England, won the championship of the first division of the league. They are in an unassailable position with 48 points for 38 games played. The Rovers previously won the championship in season 1911-12, with 49 points, so that relatively they are in a much better position this year. The possible pointage is 76. The Blackburn Rovers have always been in the first division.

An event which is probably unique in football annals took place a couple of weeks ago in Hull, England, when a team of eleven brothers named Cloverdale from Withersea, England, played an association football match against a team of eleven brothers named Charlesworth, from Scunthorpe, Lincolnshire. The Cloverdales won by three goals to nothing.

Do not follow others, be with the leaders; invest in Port Edward before the industrial development.

OUTFIELDER KROY

A youngster with the Toronto international league team last season, whose hitting and fielding will be one of the big features of the coming season.

Connie Mack pays a neat tribute to Rube Waddell, but in characteristic manner, refrains from saying one word as to Rube's besetting sin. That's just like Connie. He talks little for publication and then never critically. Says Connie: "He was the greatest pitcher in the game. Although widely known for his eccentricities, he was the best-hearted member of our team. When a 'comrade' was sick Rube was the first man to see him and the last to leave, and if he had money it went for some gift or offering for the sick man. To him I and the other owners of the Athletics owe much."

A story is told of an Englishman who attended the first game of the world's series between the Giants and Athletics. He arrived at the polo grounds at the end of the first innings when the score stood 1 to 1. The game continued nothing-nothing in the second, nothing-nothing in the third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, until the eighth. The Englishman, becoming disgusted with the proceedings, left the grounds at the end of the eighth. When he got outside a boy ran up to him and asked: "Say, mister, what was the score when you left?" "On my word," replied the annoyed one, "it was up in the millions."

German sporting editors are either long on imagination or short on humor. At all events, one of the scribes on a Berlin paper prints what purports to be the early history of Battling Nelson and incidentally gives a remarkable idea of the force of a boxer's punch. The article, which is published under the head of "The Career of a Boxer," reads as follows: "Nelson accepted a position as elephant keeper with a travelling circus and was content with a very small salary. For some unknown reason the elephant had become unruly; it had torn away the spike to which Nelson had chained it in the morning, and was about to run away. Of course, the gigantic animal might have caused a terrible catastrophe had not Nelson, with rare presence of mind, jumped at it in the nick of time and given it with his bare fist such a terrible blow on its head that the giant collapsed unconscious, as if lightning had struck it. Without further trouble the animal was shackled again and taken to a safe place. Pretty soon the prowess of Nelson had become widely known, and some manager persuaded the young athlete to come to New York with him, paying the circus man considerable indemnity. Nelson followed the call, and at the age of 31 years he had accumulated a fortune and retired into private life."

HIT WITH IRON PIPE MAN DIED LATER

Had Been Playing Poker--Assailant Is Still Unknown

Vancouver, April 17.—With the death of James Taylor, an electrician, who passed away at the Royal Columbian hospital, Sapperton, as a result of being hit over the head with some blunt instrument as he was walking along Major street, Sapperton, by unknown thugs, late Sunday night, the New Westminster police have the investigation of a case of murder on their hands. Immediately it was learned that Taylor's condition was serious, the police began working on the clues which resulted in the arrest of three men, one of whom is said to be a Vancouver man. The names of the prisoners have not been divulged by the police.

Taylor was struck shortly after he left a poker game where he had won considerable money. After his death a large roll of bills was found in a pocket of his clothing. Robbery, however, is not thought to have been the motive of the crime, for the roll of bills had not been touched.

Slaughter of Salmon

Washington, April 16.—Delegated Wickersham of Alaska told the house territories committee that unless some action was taken by the government to prevent the ruthless slaughter of salmon in Alaskan waters, there would not be a salmon left along the Alaskan coast.

He said the trap nets used along the Alaskan coast were so numerous that the poles looked like forests, and the fishermen sailed out to sea in power boats to take salmon before they got near the shore.

They don't look like raincoats—but we guarantee them waterproof—and they're made of tweed in smart, up-to-date styles and colors. Prices from $8 to $21.50, and we've a new lot just from the makers, Wallace's.

A NEWSPAPER

for Prince Rupert and Northern B.C.

The Daily News goes into nearly every home in Prince Rupert. It is the popular newspaper of the city because it is clean and reliable. It has all the news of the city, and keeps in touch with events and topics interesting to Northern British Columbia. It treats these subjects with moderate optimism and reliability.

The Daily News is the most valuable paper to advertisers because it is read by the buying public. It has a bigger circulation than any other paper in the city. It is read by the class of people the advertisers want to talk to.

Royal Standard Sweet Muffins

No. 4—Cut Out and Paste in Recipe Book.

2½ cups Royal Standard.
¼ cup sugar.
2 eggs.
2 teaspoons baking powder.
1½ cups milk.
3 tablespoons melted butter.
A little salt.
Bake in cups or gem pans.

BETTY BROWN.

"Do you know the muffin man?
Do you know his name?
Do you know the muffin man
Who lives in Drury Lane?"

Do you remember chanting this doggerel when you were THAT high? How good those muffins tasted!

But now-a-days it is not necessary to have a speaking acquaintance with the Drury Lane celebrity to obtain good muffins. You can beat his wares hollow by making them with ROYAL STANDARD FLOUR. He, poor fellow, had to be content with any flour he could get. The recipe quoted is more popular than his.

If you are out of "flour," ask your grocer for a sack of ROYAL STANDARD—your "buy word" for the best.

THE BIG THREE OF CENTRAL B.C.

NEW HAZELTON

Centre of the richest mining district in Canada.

Gateway to the Groundhog Anthracite coal fields.

At the junction of waterways where the lines of trade meet.

Future absolutely assured.

When you seek opportunities for business or investment, you must be sure of the location of the MAIN BUSINESS CENTRES. INVESTIGATION will prove to you that Fort George, Hubert and New Hazelton are so strategically located that they will overshadow all other towns in Central, Northern British Columbia and the PEACE RIVER DISTRICT.

HUBERT

Trade centre of the Bulkley Valley. So strategically situated that all branch railway lines will be built from that point. Has no possible competitor for trade of that rich territory lying between Fort George and New Hazelton.

FORT GEORGE

is in a class by itself. No city in Western Canada with the possible exception of Winnipeg or Vancouver will outstrip Fort George's growth in population and development. No city on the continent has more natural advantages than Fort George.
