COMMISSIONER FROM DOMINION GOVERNMENT COLLECTING
SAMPLES OF BRITISH COLUMBIA'S NATURAL RE-SOURCES FOR PANAMA EXHIBITION

"I want to see British Columbia have the finest mineral exhibit at the big fair," said Wm. Tomlinson, who is one of the commissioners of the Dominion government authorized to collect a display of the natural resources for exhibition at the Panama world's fair next year. The commission have their provincial collecting warehouse at 324 Water street, Vancouver. Mr. Tomlinson is in Prince Rupert now and will make his headquarters at the board of trade rooms for a month while he is making his collection in this district.

Every prospector is asked to contribute. The commission has arranged to bring the samples in from the nearest railway station or port.

The collection will not be confined to mineral alone. Samples of building material, vegetable, fruit, grain and anything remarkable from the natural resources of the country will be acceptable. Those who have desirable samples are requested to communicate with Mr. Tomlinson through the Prince Rupert board of trade or to 324 Water street, Vancouver.

Mr. Tomlinson will visit Granby Bay, Stewart, New Hazelton, and the Queen Charlotte Islands.

EARL AND COUNTESS OF ABERDEEN AT PUNCESTOWN RACES

An attempt was made lately in Rome to depose the countess from the presidency of the International Council of Women, an office she has held for the past twenty years. Mrs. Sewall, an American, was back of the insurgent element.

SIXTY ROOM HOTELS PASSED BY COUNCIL

Mayor Had to Give the Casting Vote on This Question

Ald. McClymont's motion to increase the number of rooms required for an hotel to get a license from 35 to 60 came up again at last night's council meeting.

All the aldermen took part in the debate excepting Ald. Kerr. No new arguments were brought out, but Ald. Maitland and Basso-Bert offered an amendment that the 35-room standard be maintained but that the buildings be of brick or cement.

After considerable argument the mayor ruled the amendment out of order and the original motion was put.

Yeas—Morrissey, McClymont, Dybhavn and Kerr.

Nays—Basso-Bert, Maitland, Montgomery and Morrison.

The mayor voted for the motion on a tie.

Ald. Maitland's motion to make the buildings of permanent material then could not get a second and it was dropped.

Mrs. Watts of Zimacord, who has been visiting in the city, returned on today's train.

CARR'S APPROPRIATION

In its criticism of the cutting out of the road appropriation around New Hazelton, the Herald is led to remark:

"So far little has been done except to build a bridge at Carr's ranch, one at Telkwa and another at Hubert, all within a few miles of each other. A long stretch of road is also being built by Road Superintendent Carr to connect Carr's bridge and Carr's farm with Carr's hotel in Smithers, and the government will pay the bill upon the recommendation of the local member, Mr. Carr's right hand man."

ALL B. C. AUTHORITY REMOVED FROM CANADIAN NORTHERN

PROVINCE WILL GIVE WAY TO DOMINION ON VERY IMPORTANT POINT—CORRESPONDENCE WITH McBRIDE SHOWS THIS

(Special to The Daily News.)

Ottawa, May 27.—Premier Borden, replying to Sir Wilfrid Laurier, stated that under the proposed Canadian Northern bill all the authority of the British Columbia government would be removed from the railway. Sir Richard McBride had acquiesced in this and correspondence to that effect was read in the house.

MONTGOMERY WANTS WHITE MAN LUMBER

Asked That Investigation Be Made and No Lumber Made by Japs Be Purchased

The sensation of last evening's council meeting was the anger of Ald. Montgomery during a half hour dialogue on the topic of Oriental labor.

When the question of sending the lumber tenders to the board of works to act upon came up Ald. Montgomery saw an opportunity to make a little political capital. He asked for an amendment instructing the board to enquire whether the lumber was made with Oriental labor and if so not to buy it. Ald. Maitland seconded it.

Several of the aldermen said that while they were not in favor of Oriental labor the tenders should be considered on their merits as no proviso on that question was put in the specifications.

Ald. Morrissey said they had asked for a business proposition and should treat the tenders as such.

Ald. Morrissey pointed out that probably every one of the tenders were from lumber mills where Orientals were employed. All the tenders would have to be thrown out.

The mayor asked Ald. Montgomery if he wanted it as an amendment and when Ald. Montgomery said yes the mayor demurred and thought it should go as a separate motion. They carried on their argument at some length. Finally in a whisper Ald. Morrissey leaned over to Ald. Montgomery and said:

"Cut it out."
"I'm not a Jap. I cut nothing out. I object to any member talking that way to me," said Ald. Montgomery. He continued his talk at some length and the mayor finally put the motions separately.

The tenders were sent to the board of works and then the Oriental question came up.

Ald. Dybhavn stated that under the circumstances he would vote against the motion. There was no reason for the city paying two prices for lumber.

Ald. Morrissey said an enquiry into whether Oriental labor was employed meant an investigation which the city could not undertake.

Ald. Maitland, the seconder of the motion, said he guessed all the committee could do would be to enquire anyway.

The motion was lost, those voting against being Ald. Dybhavn, Basso-Bert, Morrissey, Morrison and McClymont.

Settlers for Naas Valley

Pat Philipson, Indian officer in the Naas valley district, has just returned to the city after a trip up the valley. He says the spring salmon fishing is improving but not very good yet. The most noticeable movement up there is the number of settlers going in to take up agricultural lands on the Naas. The report of the proposed railway has induced many to go in, particularly on the lands above Aiyansh.

Reads of His Own Death

Redding, Cal., May 26.—William Johns, sheemaker, returned last night from a visit, picked up the newspapers, read accounts of his death and discovered that his funeral had been set for tomorrow. On the street his fellow townsmen turned away with blanched faces. He finally found an old friend who would talk to him. Then he found that the body of a drowned man had been identified as his, and that the coroner's jury had pronounced him dead.

Bennett's speech in the house of commons reveal the terrific attack he made upon Mackenzie and Mann and their apologists among the government supporters. The Calgary member did not hesitate to tell the government how ill-advised was its dealings with the C. N. R. He showed how the railway magnates had made millions out of the system and yet were not asked to put up one dollar of real money, nor indeed security that had any actual value. He wanted to see a royal commission appointed that would sift the whole company in order that the Canadian people would know what was being done with their money and in order that a similar case shall not arise again.

One of the humorous parts of the speech was the squelching given to Hon. Arthur Meighen, the solicitor-general. Mr. Meighen had been heckling Mr. Bennett throughout his speech and upholding the course of the C. N. R. Finally Mr. Bennett could stand his ejaculations no longer and turned upon him with this withering comment:

"I cannot further be interrupted by the gramophone of Mackenzie and Mann unless he has any questions to ask that are pertinent to the discussion. Otherwise I shall have to ask this impertinent young man to keep quiet."

This took place amid great cheers from the Liberals, and it is hardly necessary to say that the crestfallen solicitor-general took the hint.

Does high protection bring high wages for the laboring man? The big interests which specially benefit from high tariff laws, give answer in the affirmative. Tariff reduction, they tell the workman, means low wages; take away protection and the workman's ruin is certain. But the facts do not bear out these special interests.

Carefully gathered statistics, which were quoted in the house of commons recently, show that of the thousands of workmen employed in the highly protected industries of the United States before the recent tariff revision there, only one-quarter were paid more than $600 a year though $900 was estimated as the lowest amount upon which a married laborer could support a family of average size.

"High protection means high wages," the big interests in Canada tell their men. And in the United States the "high wages" paid by protected industries to three-quarters of their employees were less than $600 a year!

High protection means increased profits for the protected interests; there is no doubt of that, but it means increased profits at the expense of the consumers who are compelled to pay for the products they buy not only the cost of the articles plus a profit but the cost plus the profit plus the amount of the tariff protection. High protection means increased profits made in this way, but it is a very small share of the profits which filter through to the laborer.

High protection makes Carnegies and Schwabs and Rockefellers; it brings to the workmen such princely wages as less than $600 a year and places them at the mercy of combines and trusts in the purchase of the food and clothing which they must buy.

It is this policy which Mr. Borden and his government are seeking to follow in Canada. It is the policy of tariff reduction, increased trade in wider markets, and lower taxation upon the people as a whole which Sir Wilfrid Laurier and the Liberal party seek to bring into force in Canada.

$25,000 FOR GARBAGE EXPENDITURE THIS YEAR

Will Build Wharf, Buy New Auto and Also a New Scow

On the recommendation of the health committee the city council last night authorized the purchase of an auto wagon for the scavenging and garbage work. It is to do away with four horses. The committee is also to get tenders for a new scow.

Next the committee asked for the expenditure of $6,000 for a new wharf on the city waterfront, section two, with an overhead approach.

Ald. Morrissey wanted to know how it was going to be paid for—out of general funds or by bonds.

The mayor said they had already discussed that in committee, but the alderman denied it.

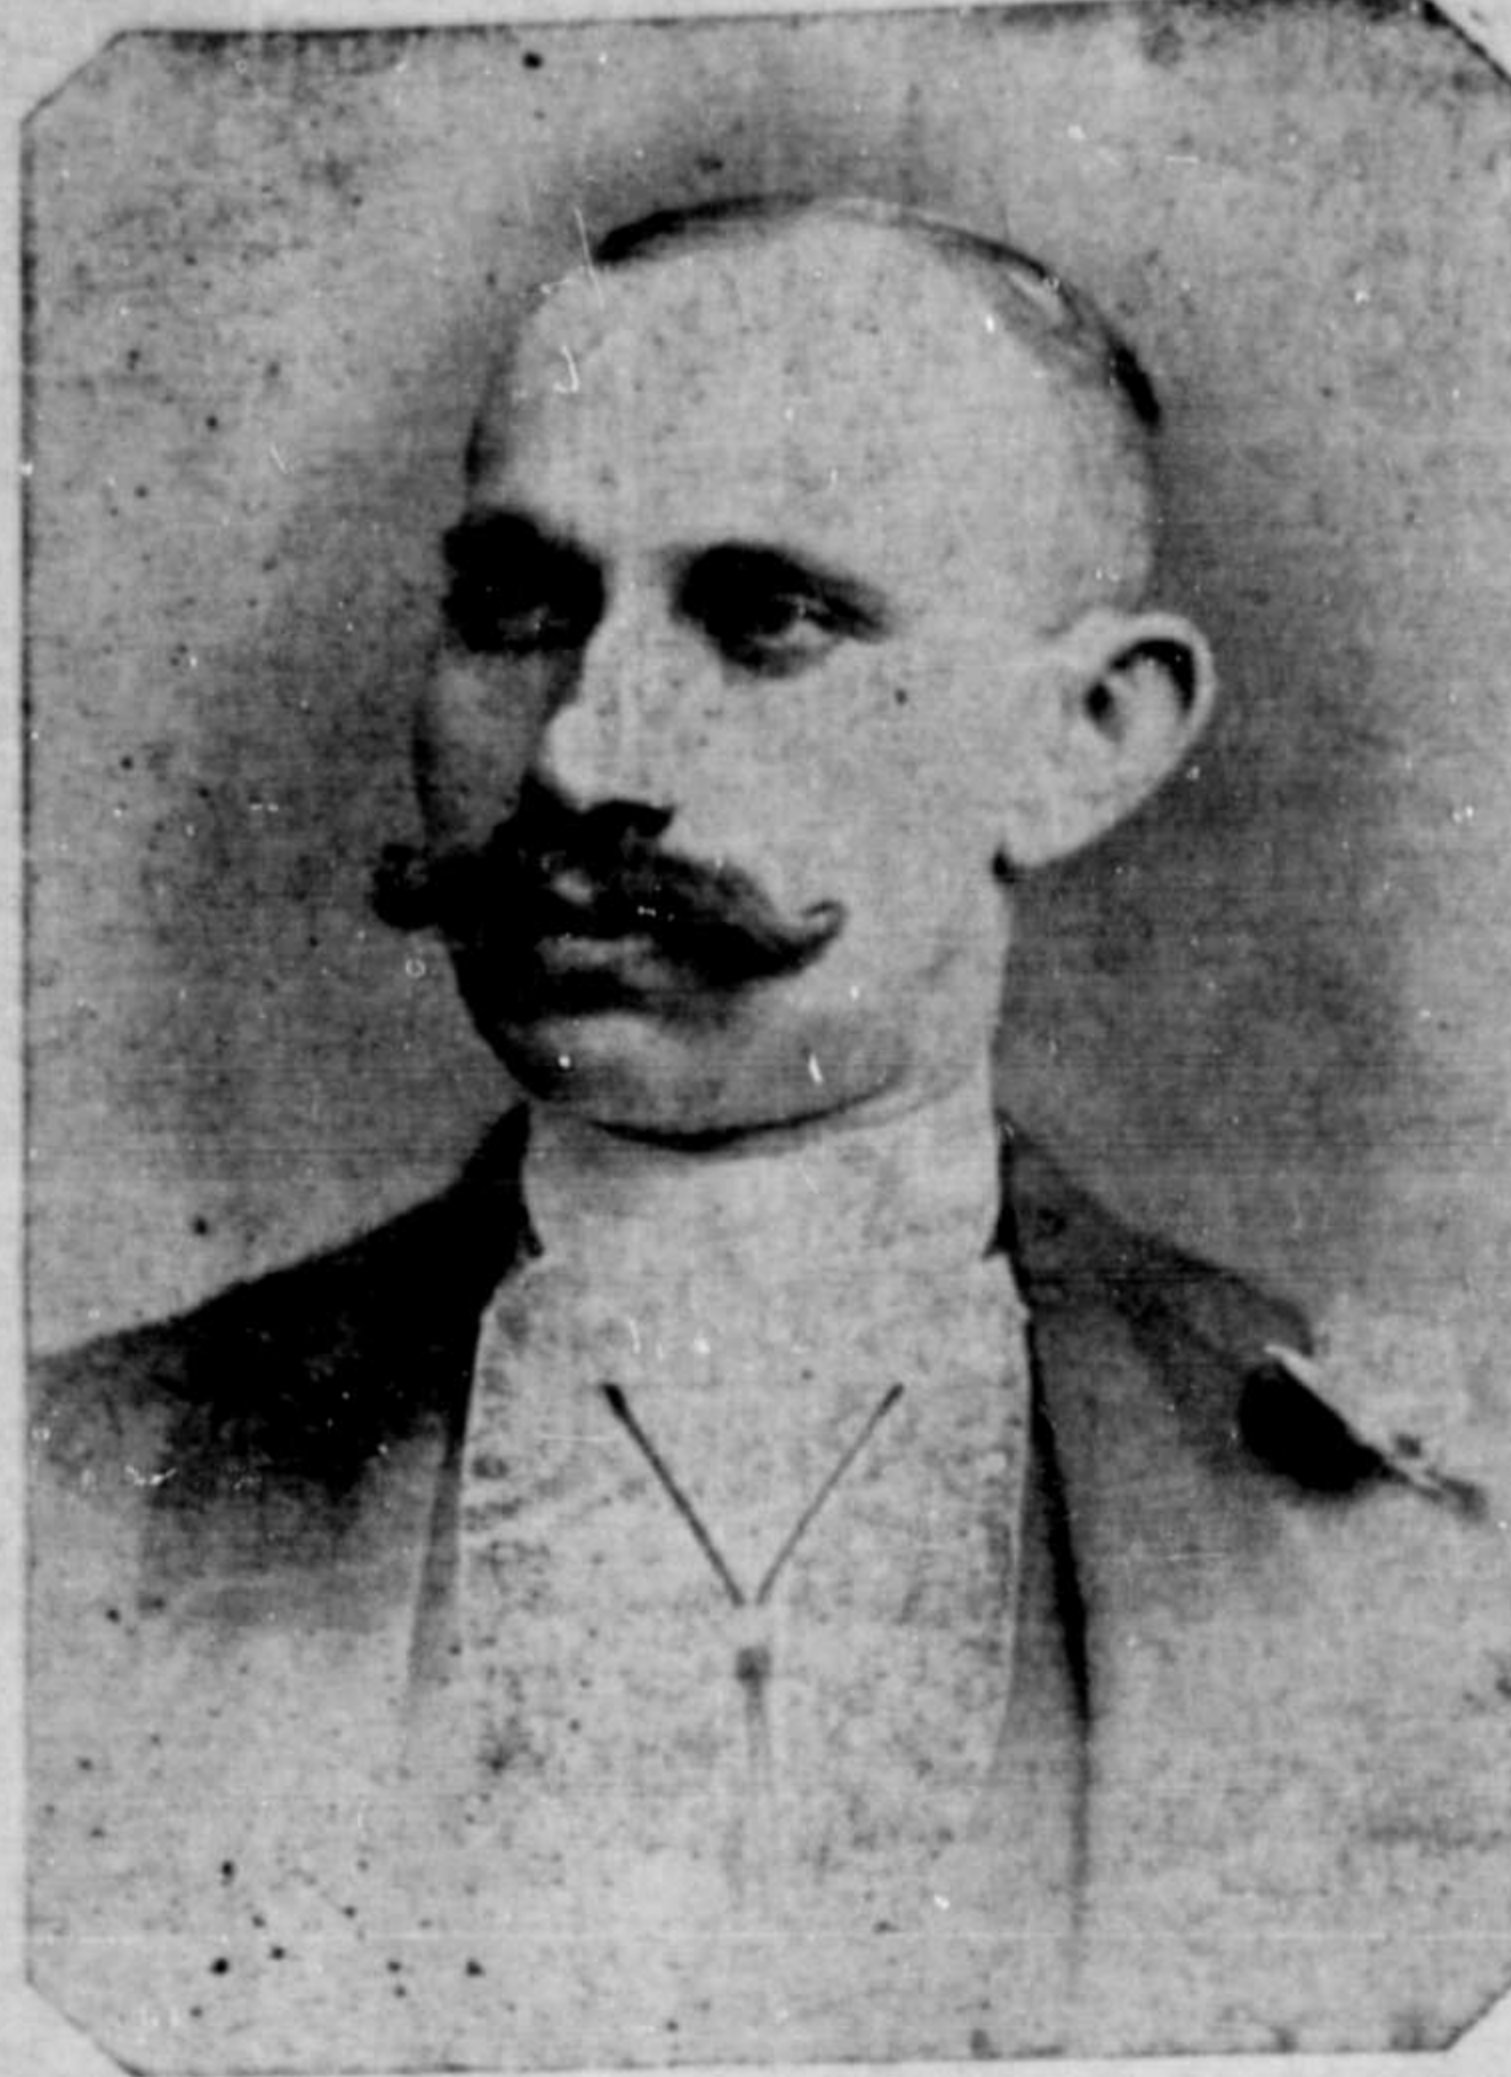

Ald. Morrissey—You have already appropriated $12,000 out of the general fund for scavenging. With $5,000 for an auto, $2,000 for a scow and $6,000 for a wharf, you have "some" garbage appropriation.

Ald. Montgomery—If you are going to issue bonds I would like to buy a tug also to handle the scow.

The motion for the $6,000 carried and it is up to the finance committee to arrange the payment of it.

BOXING CONTEST PLEASES LARGE CROWD

Burns Given Decision Over Label in Fifteen-round Battle—Fast Preliminaries

Taxing the capacity of McIntyre hall, boxing fans of the city were given a very satisfactory run for their money Monday night when Charley Burns and Monte Label, both in splendid condition, faced each other and journeyed through fifteen rounds of fast and furious milling.

Burns was the aggressor throughout and carried the battle to his opponent in practically every round, winning the decision by his relentless in-fighting. Label is probably a more clever boxer, but Burns gave him little opportunity to use his long range boxing skill. Label was unable to cope successfully with the rushing in-fighting which was forced upon him.

Details of the fight by rounds would give Burns ten rounds and Label only one (the third), the other four. In the seventh Label's right eye was closed and this proved an added handicap against his heavier opponent. Label has a good punch in his left hand, but Burns outgassed him whenever he started to use it.

The boys weighed in at ring-side, Label tipping the beam at 128 and Burns at 134½ pounds. Referee Smeathers announced that straight Marquis of Queensbury rules would prevail (one arm free) and then sent them on their way at 11:50 p. m.

In the preliminary bout Bert Ray and Young Sherman won favor with the fans by putting up a battle that kept everybody on edge throughout. The pace proved too hot for Ray, his seconds throwing up the sponge at the end of the seventh round. Sherman scored five knock-downs, but at that he was about through himself and probably very glad the thing ended when it did.

Splendid order was preserved throughout the evening and Promoter Smeathers is to be congratulated for his efforts to give the fans a fair return for their support. It was a good show and the large crowd seemed well satisfied.

Tenders for Nails

Tenders for about twenty-five tons of nails were opened by the city council last evening. The prices were:

MARKET BUILDING WILL BE ERECTED

City Council Authorized Expenditure of $1,200 for It

A report from the health committee signed by Ald. Kerr and Maitland recommended the erection of a market building at a cost not to exceed $1,200.

Ald. Dybhavn asked for information.

Ald. Kerr said it was to be erected on the city grounds and have stalls for rent. He suggested a site back of the fire hall.

Ald. Morrissey wanted to know if it would be self-sustaining.

Ald. Kerr thought it would. The secretary of the agricultural society had the names of 500 or 600 men who want to ship their produce in here to market.

Ald. McClymont said Vancouver market did not pay.

Ald. Montgomery favored it. Calgary and Seattle had them. They brought the producer and consumer closer together. If there is a deficit it will be rendering the public a service.

Ald. Maitland and Basso-Bert spoke in favor of it.

Ald. Morrison thought it premature. Produce sent in now would have to be sent to commission merchants anyway, and that would not cut out the middleman. Fish would be the only thing that could be sold direct from producer to consumer.

Ald. McClymont cited an instance of a man up the river getting 8 cents a box for his strawberries and the people here having to pay 25 cents.

The mayor declared himself in favor. The council might find it

CALGARY'S OIL BOOM

The oil boom now on at Calgary is one of the biggest commercial excitements the Canadian west has yet seen. Oil companies are being organized by the score and their stock is being gobbled up by the public as fast as it can be printed. Millions of dollars are being thrown in for speculation; outside capital is pouring into the city; the streets are crowded with excited brokers and buyers; the hotels, restaurants and sleeping places are working beyond their capacity; the daily papers are seething with oil advertisements and oil dope; the C. P. R. telegraph offices are working to the limit of their capacity and yet cannot handle the business; the street brokers grew so numerous that traffic on the streets was blocked and a hundred were taken to police court and fined for doing curb business. The whole city is crazy and the papers are advertising Calgary as the Gasoline Queen of the British Empire.

necessary to change their methods of handling it from time to time.

Ald. Morrissey said there was not sufficient variety of produce in the district to support it.

The motion carried on a division.

DIVORCED HIS WIFE BECAUSE HE LOVED HER

New York, May 26.—Because make her the happy woman she deserved to be, George W. Korn, a wealthy real estate operator and politician, admits he allowed his wife to divorce him so that she could become the wife of his friend, J. M. Thorne.

"My love for my wife was too great for me to stand in the way of her happiness," said Korn.
"She is a charming woman, and I feel certain that my sacrifice will increase her happiness. We are the very best of friends and we have mutually agreed that our little son, who is six years old, is to spend half of his time with me and half of his time with the future Mrs. Thorne. Thorne has my heartiest congratulations.
He has the best wife in the world, and I am just as happy tonight as he is, because I know the woman I love is happy."
