VANCOUVER MASS MEETING PROTESTS AGAINST HINDUS INVASION -- FIRE RATES TOO HIGH

FIRE INSURANCE RATES ARE TOO HIGH IN PRINCE RUPERT

LOCAL BOARD AGENTS WIRE FOR IMMEDIATE REDUCTION — BEST FIRE EQUIPMENT EUT HIGHEST RATES ON COAST — CRISIS IS HERE

The fact that Prince Rupert is being held up on fire insurance rates by the B.C. Mainland Board of Fire Underwriters, is a fact well known. The agents for board companies doing business here have been kicking against it for some time, but the Vancouver insurance autoerats think they have an easy thing in Rupert and make this city pay the highest rates on the Coast. All of the wharf towns along the coast have nothing but frame buildings and no fire protection save lower rates on business risks than Rupert. This city has an exceptionally competent fire company and a splendid equip-

NO RAISE OF SALARIES FOR POLICE OFFICERS

Commission Re-consider Estimates Which Provided for Increase

A month ago the Police Commission passed the year's estimates which included an increase in salaries for the police officers. The chief was to get a raise of $5 a month and the permanent constables a raise of $5 a month. Yesterday the estimates were re-considered and the increase knocked out. This was at the request of the city finance committee. The commission had asked for an appropriation of $14,352 and of this amount $460 was for salary increase. The revised estimates reduces the total asked for to $460.

GOLD FIND IN COBALT

Haileybury, Ont., June 23.—What is believed to be the biggest gold find of Northern Ontario was uncovered in Maissionville Township, near Sesikinkis Station, on the T. & O. Three veins between eighteen and thirty inches of quartz with heavy tellurides were found on the La-bine claims. Assays give $1,300 in gold and $130 in silver to the ton, which is a most spectacular surface showing.

In Moving Pictures at the Westholme Opera House — Tonight

Everybody knows Mr. Fitzmaurice of local amateur fame, or "Fitz" for short. In days gone by this genial gentleman has often "trod the boards" at the Westholme Opera House in various amateur performances. In fact, no amateur show was complete without him, and now Fitz is to appear in a real live moving picture and his genial face will be seen by millions of people all over the world. Mutual Weekly No. 72 shows the arrival of the first through train from Winnipeg on the G. T. P. and of all the thousands of people in the crowds present on that occasion, many of whom can be recognized but none so plain and life-like as Fitz. These pictures will be shown tonight at the Westholme Opera House in connection with the great five reel feature of modern realism entitled "The Daughters of Men." This is a sensational story, strictly up-to-date dealing with the very rich and the very poor with their follies and miseries ranging from champagne baths and monkey dinners to work in the sweat shops and semi-starvation. It is a strong, splendid story pointing a healthy moral and showing not only the wrongs of present conditions but the way to right these wrongs as well.

Oil Specimens from Q. C. I.

A. Sibbald, who has interested himself extensively in Queen Charlotte Islands, has brought over some specimens from the oil fields on the west side of Graham Island. He shows some of the tar found in the creeks and the oils and stones. He is endeavoring to interest local parties in the field, having great faith in its possibilities. There are two companies now sending drilling outfits in and by fall Mr. Sibbald predicts they will be showing real oil flows.

SAYS GRAHAM ISLAND HAS RICH OIL FIELDS

Back from Inspection Trip, W. P. Sloan Gives Interview on the Situation

Mr. W. Porleous Sloan, who has just returned to Vancouver from Graham Island, reports that the oil excitement is general along the coast, particularly in the Queen Charlotte Islands, but it applies, he says, chiefly to the local field on Graham Island. Many are going into the island in anticipation of the strike that is certain to come.

Mr. Sloan landed at Naden Harbor and after looking over the ground and making a number of choice locations, proceeded to the west coast of the island over the emergency trail built by the British Columbia Oil Company and later partly opened up by the government. "Much requires to be done to make it even a passable trail," he says, "and no doubt the government will see the wisdom of spending some money on repairs this season to facilitate the passage of travellers."

"Mr. E. H. Lea, a director of the British Columbia Oil Company, and Mr. Wilfrid Macdonald were at Otard Bay. Mr. Lea was over at the company's well to look into the requirements in the way of repairs, etc., in anticipation of an early start being made; in resuming the work left off at 800 feet depth which was suspended last fall on account of hot water and shortage of casing. Gas is escaping continuously from around the casing plug, which would indicate something in reserve, and from appearances it would be safe to say that oil might be expected to flow at any time in the course of drilling. The Northern Oil Company which owns ground contiguous to the British Columbia Oil Co., have ordered their machinery and expect to have their derrick up and drill in active operation as soon as it is possible to get supplies on the ground."

Mr. Sloan adds that in all his experience of oil fields he has never seen anything to approach, even remotely, the showings on Graham Island, and it was a surprise that these oil fields should have remained so long undeveloped, more especially after the favorable report of the eminent geologist, Dr. Dawson, made many years ago. "Excellent reports have been made by various experts for the companies operating there and elsewhere, but even a casual inspection of the ground discloses the fact that in almost every instance the statements made were of the most conservative character. The samples of surface rock taken during the trip were a revelation, thick oil exuding under the application of strong heat."

Mr. Sloan visited the island in the interests of a number of prominent financial men of Vancouver and Montreal who believe that these oil fields present unrivalled opportunities.

As a result of Mr. Sloan's visit and personal inspection of the ground operations will be commenced in the near future simultaneously at Naden Harbor and at a point on the west coast in close proximity to the British Columbia Oil Co. and the Northern Oil Co.'s holdings where the geological structure indicates the best position for boring to the anticline.

"There is no reason why Graham Island should not become the great oil field of the Pacific Coast as every indication points that way," declares Mr. Sloan.

RIOTING MINERS IN BUTTE BLOW-UP UNION BUILDING

PITCHED BATTLE WITH DEPUTIES IN FRONT OF WESTERN FEDERATION OF MINERS HALL—INSURGENT MINERS RAIDED MAGAZINE OF STEWART MINE

(Special to The Daily News)
Butte, June 24.—The front of the Western Federation of Miners hall was blown up with dynamite placed by a mob of insurgent miners during a pitched battle with deputy sheriffs who were in the hall. They were armed with sawed off shot guns. More than a score of shots of dynamite were exploded. One man was killed and three injured, one fatally when deputies began firing over the head of the crowd, fearing an attempt to rush the meeting of union miners.

A party of armed miners seized a box of dynamite at the Stewart mine, but were prevented from effectively placing it by a charge of fire from the deputies. The deputies held the hall till the miners climbed the roofs of nearby buildings. The crowd then took possession of the hall and marched to the Stewart mine and compelled the engineer to lower several rioters to the magazine. Half a dozen men carried a fifty pound box each of dynamite. The thirteenth blast brought down the front of the building, shattering windows of the neighborhood. Shattered glass is inches deep for a radius of a block and a half. In all twenty-three blasts were let off.

ROAD FOREMAN AND PARTY LOST IN GROUNDHOG COUNTRY

MUCH ANXIETY FOR THEIR SAFETY—RELIEF PARTY BEING ORGANIZED BUT MEN REACHED STATION SIX LAST NIGHT

Wm. Manson, M.P.P., received a wire yesterday from Stewart to the effect that John Anderson, road foreman there, with two road men was many days overdue from a trip into the Groundhog country. Anderson started out nearly three weeks ago from Stewart to the Groundhog country. Ordinarily the journey is four days each way. The three men were equipped for about 8 days. They have now been absent some 17 days and fears were entertained for their safety. Wm. Manson has wired through Supt. Bob Jennings to send a relief expedition out for them. Later, today word was received at the district road office that Anderson and the other two had reached Station Six on the Dominion telegraph line yesterday. The party was safe but they had had a hard trip. They underestimated the length of the journey. The other men are Armstrong and Cameron.

WHO SHOULD WORRY ON SCARCITY OF MONEY?

Graham Island Business Men Get Along Without the Coin

Real money is very scarce on Graham Island these days, and Ed. N. Clark tells an amusing story of the method in which a real estate man secured payment on a lot. The buyer was a cook hiring out on a launch. The launch owner couldn't pay wages till the storekeeper twenty-five miles up the inlet paid freight charges, and a sawmill farther on was running a credit account at the store. The sawmill man paid his grocery bill in a note for lumber to the amount due; the storekeeper settled with the launch man on the note, thus enabling the latter to pay the cook's wages in like manner, and the cook handed the note in settlement to the real estate man, who drew the lumber and built himself a house with it. No money changed hands and everybody was paid off, happy and satisfied.

THIS YEAR'S TAX RATE TO BE ABOUT 13 MILLS

The Information Was Handed Out by the Mayor at the Police Meeting

"The rate for taxation this year will be about thirteen mills," said the Mayor at a meeting of the Police Commission yesterday afternoon, "but if we keep adding items like this (referring to the increase in police officers' salaries) we will have a high tax rate." The rate comprises about five mills which will be net and the balance will have a discount if paid by November 1st.

The City Council has not passed the year's estimates yet, but the rate will probably be about thirteen mills. Last year the gross rate was a fraction over sixteen mills, but a large amount of money had to be raised on general rate to take care of the waterworks extension to Shavatlans Lake. The Council last year also left a very substantial surplus which this year's got the benefit of.

Speak 23 Languages

London, June 23.—Delegates to the World's Congress of the Salvation Army filled to capacity a specially erected hall off the Strand, with accommodation for 4,000. Representatives of 45 nations and colonies were present, and 23 different languages were spoken by the delegates. It formed the biggest "rally" ever achieved by the Salvation Army. The entry of General Bramwell Booth into the hall was the signal for a prolonged ovation. The great audience sprang to its feet and cheered for many minutes. S. J. Eubank, a well known prospector of Alice Creek is here today with a fine collection of ore samples for the Board of Trade.

TYPE OF HUT IN WHICH MEXICAN PEASANTS LIVE

Searching party of United States troops going back to camp after searching the huts in vicinity for arms and ammunition

The story of Bonnie Bel-air is the story of a deal by which Mr. W. T. Rodden, of Montreal, made a profit of many thousands by doing business with the Borden Government. It is a story which should be very satisfactory to Mr. Rodden but scarcely so satisfactory to the people of Canada.

Part of the story leaked out some time ago. The rest was told at a meeting of the Public Accounts Committee of the Commons a few days back.

The Bonnie Bel-air property lies not far from Montreal. The Bonnie Bel-air block, proper, consisting of eighty acres, was purchased by Mr. Rodden in May, 1911, for $48,000. In the spring of the following year, he purchased an adjoining property, the McIntyre farm, which was 70 acres in size, for $36,496 and another two acre lot for $5,000. The purchases were not cash transactions, not by a good deal, for the cash payment was small and the time for completing payment ran as far ahead as 1915. As a matter of fact, he did not pay one single dollar to the McIntyre estate until after he was paid for the property by the Dominion Government.

Mr. Rodden sold the property to the Militia Department in the spring of 1912, for CASH. He had negotiated for the purchase of the three lots for a total of $89,996, payable on long terms, and he sold it to an obliging Government, through Hon. Sam Hughes, for $180,000 in cash. Testifying under oath before the Public Accounts Committee, Mr. Rodden himself admitted that not a dollar had been paid the McIntyre people until after he received his fine fat profit from the Government. It was a very pretty transaction from the Rodden point of view.

On the witness stand, Mr. Rodden could not remember whether or not he had "arranged" with another Montreal man to have an offer made for the property just before it was sold to the Government. He could not remember in what bank he had placed the proceeds of the $180,000 cash sale though he said that the money went to his personal use.

Another interesting feature in connection with the investigation was supplied by the attitude of Hon. Sam Hughes, the Minister through whose department the "deal" was made. Throughout the enquiry the Minister was persistent in breaking in with interruptions when pointed questions were asked by members of the committee. It was not because of any assistance from Colonel Hughes that the story was told.

But nothing can wipe out the main facts of the case. Mr. Rodden purchased for $89,500 on long terms, a piece of property which the Borden Government bought from him a year later for $180,000 cash. The Government has obtained for military purposes a piece of ground which is so low that it is liable to be flooded every year and the Government's friend, Mr. Rodden, has obtained a profit of $90,000 after holding the property for only twelve months.

Mr. Rodden makes the money and the people of Canada pay the piper.

Bulkley Valley Discoveries

A new strike has been made on the low range back of the old Thompson farm, about fifteen miles up the valley from Telkwa by Fred Clark and Sam Bush.

Five claims were staked by the original locators, and quite a few additional have been recorded by other prospectors attracted by the strike.

The mineralized area lies about six miles in an easterly direction from Knockholt, a station on the G. T. P., about midway in the Bulkley Valley, and is also about two miles from the main Government wagon road. The ore, a copper sulphide, is plainly visible along the lead, and shows in stringers from an inch to ten inches in thickness all along through the vein, which varies from two to ten feet in width.

Indications point to this sulphide ore carrying enough gold to make the property worth a considerable bit of development work, considering its nearness to transportation.—Smithers Tribune.

New G. T. P. Booklet

The Grand Trunk Pacific Railway has just issued a new edition of its booklet dealing with the "Plateau and Valley Lands of British Columbia."

The railway has no agricultural acreage of its own for sale, but its colonization and passenger departments stand ready to assist the intending settler with information and advice.

This booklet, excellently illustrated, gives just the facts that the homeseeker is looking for. There is a great rush of settlers just now into the rich agricultural areas in British Columbia, newly opened up by the main line of the most modern transcontinental railway.

CENTRAL BRITISH COLUMBIA RICH IN NATURAL WEALTH

COUNTRY TRAVERSED BY G.T.P. HAS BOUNDLESS OPPORTUNITIES SAYS RESIDENT—STUART RIVER VALLEY IS KINGDOM IN ITSELF

"Ten years ago there were those who would tell you that the prairie provinces of western Canada, would never be a great country and that no great cities would rise within her borders. They would tell you there was too much frost in the country to raise anything five seasons out of six. Now even the doubting Thomases have been convinced and the whole world smiles at the very name of Saskatchewan or Alberta. I am frank to admit I was one who believed the stories at that time, or I would have come here myself. I wish now I had. However the chances are not all gone, even here and west of here along the G. T. P. line in Central British Columbia. Opportunity has hardly yet been scratched. I am there and I'm going to stay. I'm not going to miss what I believe is the one great, ground-flour chance left."

Thus spoke C. L. Poston, of Stuart River, B.C., at the Royal George Hotel, Edmonton, after his arrival from the west. He is an enthusiast on Central British Columbia and especially on the district building up around the new G. T. P. town of Stuart River, and believes that a similar "inland empire" will evolve in that country within the next few years to that which grew around Spokane, Wash., about a decade ago. Speaking in that vein, Mr. Poston said to a Capital reporter:

Kingdoms of Wealth

"There are veritable kingdoms of wealth waiting for the world in Central British Columbia, between Edmonton and Prince Rupert. The valley of the Nechaco river is undoubtedly the richest in the world. I had often heard it said and now I know it. Other valleys radiate from it, containing thousands, if not millions, of acres, notably the Stuart river valley. The Stuart flows into the Nechaco from the north and forms a natural route to the fabulously rich north country, including the Peace River country to the northeast and the Omineca mining district to the northwest. This valley has farming lands, gold, coal and other minerals and timber. It has a most delightful climate and scenery, which taken all together, will make it to the G. T. P. what the Kootenays are to the C. P. R.

"That valley alone would support dozens of towns if in older countries. At present the railway has a town at the junction of the Stuart with the Nechaco which will be one of the really large centres between your own city and Prince Rupert. It has resources, rail and water transportation, situation and everything needed to make a large centre. That's why I am going back and put every dollar I have there, so that I will not miss the second Canadian opportunity as I did the first."

FIRST CASH RETURN FROM PANAMA CANAL

Washington, June 23.—The first cash returns to the United States for the hundreds of millions spent on the Panama canal was recorded today from collections on large traffic begun on May 18, transporting cargoes because of the congestion of freight traffic on the Panama railroad. They were mostly composed of sugar from Hawaii. On that business the tolls in May amounted to $7,356.12 on the basis of $1.20 per net ton.

Twenty-five buildings were destroyed by fire last Saturday in the village of Powassan, near North Bay, Ont. Sixteen families were made homeless and property worth $300,000 was destroyed.

The Winnipeg City Council, last week, decided to send a telegram to Premier Borden urging him to put a check on immigration until better times and a more liberal expenditure of public money.

A heavy frost on Wednesday night of last week did much damage to the strawberry and apple blossoms in the Annapolis Valley. The prospects for a large apple crop have been excellent.

A western paper states that the oil boom at Calgary is already responsible for the flotation of companies with a total capital stock of $150,000,000, which is equal to three-fourths of the capital stock of the C. P. R.

All over the Province of Ontario, in cities, towns and in the country, the average salary of male teachers eight years ago was $485, of females, $335. Today these have been increased to $788 and $543 respectively.

The Nova Scotia Legislature was prorogued on Wednesday afternoon last by His Honor Lieutenant-Governor MacGregor. The session was the longest in the history of that Province, lasting about four months, and was characterized by numerous and prolonged debates. One hundred and ninety bills, including a number of important Government measures were passed.

BRITISH AND FOREIGN
 The Panama Canal will probably be open for commercial use on July 1st.

There are now 176 aeroplanes owned by the War Department, and of these all but forty are of British make.

The Chaplin, Milne, Grenfell Company, an old aristocratic banking company in London, Eng., has suspended payment, with liabilities of twenty-five million dollars.

William Sulzer, who was recently deprived of his office as governor of New York, by impeachment, has formally announced that he will be an independent candidate for the gubernatorial nomination.

A New York physician prints the statistics of alcohol as a cause of insanity and epilepsy on every prescription blank that he uses. He suggests that merchants, department stores, druggists, and so forth might be willing to have them on their wrapping paper.

At a recent memorial banquet to Wilbur Wright, Colonel Seely said that he had had the stability of the aeroplane proved to him recently. A pilot flew with him to a height of 2,000 feet and abandoned control. The machine banked and resumed its level flight and righted itself. He believed that something similar had been done in Germany and France.

Lady Bryce told the conference of the Women's National Liberal Association that after an absence of seven years she seemed to have come back to a new England. There seemed to be a more widespread interest in all sorts of social questions; people recognized better the value of personal service. "But one thing that has struck me with great concern is the lessening of respect for law and order."

It is stated in political circles that Sir Edward Grey has notified President Wilson in friendly but unequivocal terms that if, as a consequence of his persistent backing of General Villa, that bandit should eventually become President of Mexico, the British Government will demand and expect satisfaction for the murder of Mr. Benson, the British subject, who was done to death,
 "either by Villa himself or with his connivance."

Submarine wireless telephony and telegraphy were publicly demonstrated for the first time last week in Boston. Conversation between men stationed on boats moored 150 feet away at the Boston lightship was carried on with natural ease and in ordinary tones, and messages in the Morse code were transmitted without interruption between the same craft separated one, five and ten miles on the surface of a choppy sea.

The first aerial sham battle in the history of the world probably will be fought over Salisbury Plain within a few days. The greatest assemblage of military aerial craft is now gathering for the manoeuvres, there being nearly a hundred aeroplanes and seven hundred pilots and mechanics of the Royal Flying Corps encamped there. The details of the plans are being kept secret. The camp is at a remote place on the vast plain, and is guarded by sentries armed with revolvers.

The best place in the city to lunch or dine is the Royal Cafe.
