DAILY EDITION

Monday, July 6, 1914

The influence of Religion on the moral fibre of the nation is one that has long been recognized. Civilization in its highest form has always followed in the wake of the world's best religion. Another striking tribute to the value of Religion is found in tracing the evolution of churches. Religion from its very nature appeals most to the struggling masses. The early church received its followers from the poor. The Protestant Reformation began with the starving peasants. The Methodist Church at its inception was filled with the poor of England. The Salvation Army a little later filled its ranks with the dwellers of the slums, and every religious movement of any importance still goes back to that source as its fountain head.

The curious thing, however, is to watch the evolution of these bodies. The early church soon developed into an aristocratic body that boasted of an emperor in its ranks. The peasants of Germany soon followed a band of nobles and now a kaiser is its head. The Methodist Church instead of being a band of poor and suffering humanity, is a body of cultured and refined people and there are even signs that the Salvation Army is moving up the ladder.

The only conclusion therefore that can be drawn is that the influence of religion transforms a people and elevates them from the lowest to the highest strata of society.

The attitude of a certain section of the modern workingmen and others toward the church would seem to be foolish in view of these facts. Perhaps certain sections of the church are filled with people of aristocratic leanings but because of that why exclude themselves from influences that history has shown to be the world's greatest civilizer? In these modern days there is a diversity of creeds and views and even the most sceptical can get a sympathetic hearing. Find the church that best suits your point of view and cultivate those influences that make for the upbuilding of character.

A few years ago, Liberal incompetence and mal-administration in the handling of public contracts was a favorite theme with opponents of the Laurier cabinet. There were insinuations of rake-offs, graft and middlemen. There were assertions that contracts were given to favorites and that the interests of the country suffered in consequence. It was charged that men and firms were given contracts which they were not competent to handle. That was the Conservative story in the years preceding 1911.

There is another story now. It is told by no less an authority than a member of the Borden government.

"When we took office," declared Hon. Sam Hughes, in speaking of work under his department, as reported in the Unrevised Hansard for June 6 last, "we became virtuous and tried to change the contractors but we met with loss and delay and all sorts of trouble on the part of contractors and failure on the part of the men who, in the course of years, would probably have become as expert as the employees of the old contractors. The old men have been doing this kind of work for years and can do it much more satisfactorily and therefore we are still giving from the contracts."

The government has found that the best work was done by the contractors who were employed by the former adminis-

AFTER THE LAUNCHING OF THE FOURTH CHALLENGER BY SIR THOMAS LIPTON FOR THE NOW AMERICANIZED YACHTING CUP

The Countess of Shaftesbury, Sir Thomas Lipton, Mr. C. Nicholson the designer of the new "Shamrock," Mr. Marconi and Lady Henry, photographed at Gosport after Shamrock IV had been christened by the Countess of Shaftesbury and safely launched in Portsmouth Harbor.

The new challenger is a big boat which will carry enormous sail, her mast being some 120 feet long and costing, so we are informed, $3,000. Sir Thomas is making yet another noble attempt to lift the cup, with all the disadvantages on his side as usual—the long trip over the Atlantic for one, not to mention the fact that the Americans are at liberty to build three yachts and select the best, while Sir Thomas can only rely on one. Cup-lifting is a very expensive hobby, but it shows a sporting spirit, and for that reason the public will wish the latest "Shamrock" better luck than her predecessors.

It cannot have found that there were improper acts on the part of these contractors in other years unless it is to be assumed that Premier Borden and his colleagues are prepared to trust the business of the country in the hands of men whom they know to have been guilty of wrong doing. The fact is plain—and it is emphasized by the admission of Colonel Hughes—that under Liberal rule contracts for public business were awarded only to competent men and firms and that the country received a dollar's worth of value for every dollar paid. Slander cries were used by Mr. Borden and his allies in gaining power. The Government's acts expose the slander now.

Gusher Is Developed

Calgary, July 4.—When the news reached the city that Dingman Discovery Well No. 4 had developed into a gusher intense excitement prevailed. It was on last Saturday afternoon that the well was uncapped in the presence of the managing director, Mr. A. W. Dingman, several prominent Californians and a newspaperman from Minnesota. A stream of gasoline oil, four inches in diameter, rushed out of the well, and so great was the pressure behind it that the fluid shot up over the top of the derrick, which is 84 feet in height.

Mr. Churchill Will Not Fly.

London, July 4.—Mr. Winston Churchill, First Lord of the Admiralty, according to The Daily Mirror, has yielded to the repeated appeals of his wife and has agreed to make no aeroplane flights this year.

Mr. Churchill's enthusiasm for daring aerial flights has been the cause of much anxiety on the part of the British Government and his personal friends.

* SKEENA CROSSING NEWS *

(From The Chalcopryite)
R. L. Gale, of Telkwa, who accompanied the Seber Hunter Basin shipment of silver copper ore to Trail smelter returned on Saturday. He says the result of the first shipment will be known this week. Here's hoping she will be good and fat.

B. H. Hill and wife, of Port Townsend, Washington, arrived at Skeena King last Saturday. Mr. Hill is one of the engineers at the new power plant of the Montana Continental Development Company. They will live at the plant on Juniper Creek.

J. S. Kelly, one of the owners of the Zeolitic Group at Smithers is in Hazelton adjusting a difficulty regarding his surface rights. He says they have about 200 feet of work done, and have opened up a big body of ore averaging $35 per ton in silver and copper.

"Arizona" Smith is selling out at the "Big Ship" rooming house New Hazelton. Says this is the biggest and best mineralized area he struck since he left Arizona, but there's something wrong with the system where the man who lives by virtue of the prospector won't take an equal chance and help out the industry. Smith is a valuable addition to any man's country, and we venture to say the district will miss him. British Columbia needs her live ones, especially those friendly to mining.

Bill Guiney recently came down the line from Decker Lake and has proceeded to Fiddler Creek, being interested with Jack Burns in a promising group near the Brandford, which adjoins the Panama and Knauss' Fiddler mountain group.

The Brandford group, owned by Burns, Quinn and Williams, adjoins the Panama and Fiddler mountain on Fiddler Creek, and has a tunnel driven 140 feet on ore. It is understood that considerable development work will be done this summer.

Captain John Irving and Harry Howson have been examining the Knauss property with a view to a purchase. The properties on Fiddler Creek are all within four miles of the railway at Doreen and six miles from Lorne Creek.

Some fine specimens of bornite ore were brought in from Driftwood River yesterday by J. P. Thorkildson, locator of the pioneer claims of that district. Mr. Thorkildson has had some work done on his group lately, with most encouraging results, having, according to his report, uncovered a very large showing of ore. He had some of the mineral assayed, and states that returns were 41 per cent copper and $16 in silver to the ton. Negotiations for a deal on the property are under way, and the owner expects to take a party to the claims next month, for an examination of the showings in the interests of the prospective buyers.

AN Investment!

Today the real estate market is quiet. Property turns slowly and though prices remain firm the man with a few hundred dollars to invest does not see much chance for a profitable turn in buying an unimproved lot. It is the improved property that is making the money these days, but the small investor has no chance to get in on it himself.

But he has a chance to get in a syndicate—The Prince Rupert Building and Investment Company—an association of investors with small capital whose pooled resources makes it one of the most active and prosperous business organizations in the city.

This company has built many houses and has just completed a splendid apartment house. It deals exclusively in Prince Rupert investments. It has no paid officers and no operating expenses, but it makes money. In three years it has paid an average annual dividend of 17 per cent.

A new stock issue has just been put on the market. It sells at $11 a share and we can recommend it to anyone who has a small amount of capital on which they would like to draw good interest with good security back of it.

THE SINKING OF THE EMPRESS OF IRELAND AS PORTRAYED BY THE LONDON SPHERE ARTISTS.
Passengers standing on the side of the Empress just before she sank. The vessel, after being struck, careened over to the star-board. That side of the vessel soon became wholly submerged. The port side became flatter and flatter until, as the survivors from the liner state, they walked down the side of the vessel as on a sloping shore. The portion shown in this diagram is just the forward part of the vessel at the point where the navigating bridge rises high above the forward deck.

Canadian and Foreign News in Brief

CANADIAN
The Montreal Board of Control last week decided to dismiss nearly one hundred employees in the Public Works Department, thereby reducing the salary list by about $64,000 annually.

The one-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. George Lexey, of Golden Prairie, Sask., was burned to death in a fire which destroyed their home on Saturday afternoon. Both parents were away at the time. The cause of the fire was an overheated stovepipe.

At the convocation of McGill University last week, it was announced by Principal Peterson that in order to place the finances of Macdonald College on a stable basis Sir William Macdonald had paid into the university treasury $1,000,000 as a further endowment. This makes Sir William's whole expenditure on Macdonald College between $6,000,000 and $7,000,000.

A number of steamers either owned or chartered by the Department of Railways and Canals will set out from Halifax next month, to assist in the work of construction of the terminals at Port Nelson, Hudson Bay. Among these will be the Government steamer "Minto," whose first work will be to place buoys in the vicinity of Port Nelson to mark the channel, and to establish a light on Nelson Shoal.

The will of the late Lord Stratheona has been entered for Canadian probate at Montreal. The Royal Victoria College of Montreal gets half a million dollars and land worth a quarter of a million. The Royal Victoria Hospital receives half a million. Among the other legacies are $5,000 for Principal Peterson of McGill University, $100,000 for an extension fund of Queen's University, Kingston, Ont., $6,000 for the endowment of a professorship in the Presbyterian College, Montreal.

After a spirited debate the members of the Anglican Synod last week turned down a resolution endorsing the campaign for abolition of the bar in Saskatchewan. A motion by which the Synod deplores the condition of the hotel system in the Province and calls attention of the Government to the same was carried by a substantial majority. Motions were passed amending the canons of the Diocese in such a way as to enable women to become parishioners and vote in the election of delegates to the diocese Synod. These motions not having passed unanimously must obtain the approval of the next annual meeting of the Synod before they become effective.

A larger proportion of the land on Prince Edward Island is under cultivation than in any other Province of the Dominion. In a recent bulletin issued by the Census Department, P. E. Island is rated as using 95 per cent of all its available land, and it has only fifty-six thousand acres that could be used but are not.

G. Howard Ferguson
The Conservative member-elect for Grenville, Ont. Mr. Ferguson was highly criticized last year for his participation in the affairs of the Trent Valley Canal, while he was still a member of the Provincial Legislature.

British Columbia stands at the other extreme, as only five per cent of the available land of this Province is now being farmed. Nova Scotia cultivates sixty-five per cent of her good land. New Brunswick about forty-five per cent, Quebec, thirty-five per cent, Ontario thirty-eight per cent, Manitoba seventeen per cent, Saskatchewan thirty per cent, Alberta seventeen per cent.

BRITISH AND FOREIGN
Two and a half inches of snow fell in France on the 8th ult.
A cat in a Suffolk village deprived of two of her kittens went out into the fields, caught two small rabbits, and is bringing them up as part of her family.

It is said that within two weeks after the profit-sharing scheme in the Ford automobile works had been made public, seventy-five Ford employees applied for marriage licenses—a fact which seems to indicate a connection between a living wage and the establishment of a home.

A number of rabbits inoculated with germs of tuberculosis and of other serious diseases were stolen by thieves from the laboratory of a doctor near Marseilles. The police immediately gave the widest publicity to the fact, warning people not to eat rabbits unless they were certain of their source.

On its second reading in the British House of Commons, the Weekly Rest Day Bill was lost, by a majority of 12—105 for and 117 against. The Bill, promoted by the Imperial Sunday Alliance was not so much a "Lord's Day Observance" Bill as one to secure to every worker a complete day's rest each week, with Sunday as the normal rest day.

At the meeting of the London

County Council a scheme was adopted for dealing with tuberculosis throughout the county. The scheme provides for a network of dispensaries and for residential accommodation in hospitals and sanatoria. The cost of the scheme for the present financial year is put at £28,921, towards which the Government will contribute £14,250, and the cost next year will be £40,280.

Striking workmen in Italy last week burned railroad stations and created such disorder that martial law was proclaimed in twenty towns of Central Italy.

Tourists fled the country in droves, fearing that the railway service would be paralyzed. In Rome the people tiring of the disorders caused by strikers, organized several monster demonstrations in favor of the police and army and determined to crush the strike by violence without the assistance of the authorities. This was followed by a cessation of the general strike and an ending, for the present of the labor crisis in Italy.

Cofferdam Gave Away

St. Paul, Minn., July 6.—The crest of the flood waters that swept down the Mississippi River late today when a section of the cofferdam at the government works gave away, had passed St. Paul and the section south of here, and fears of extensive property damage were allayed.

REVIVAL OF OLD COACHING CUSTOM

Mr. Vanderbilt's four-in-hand is one of the smartest turnouts in England, and he must be congratulated on braving the dust of the journey on "coach-back" in these days of the ubiquitous and comfortable motor.

FIFTY FLAT CARS
ORDERED BY P. G. E.
Company Is Getting Ready For Track-laying South of Fort George

In preparation for starting track-laying south of Fort George late this summer the Pacific Great Eastern Railway has just placed an order for fifty flat cars. Additional equipment for the North Shore portion of the line is expected to arrive next week. One gasoline motor car of a larger and more powerful type than those already in service, and three passenger coaches were ordered a short time ago for the service.

As mentioned in an interview with Mr. J. Callaghan, chief engineer of the P. G. E., published in The News on Saturday the contractors expect that grading will have been sufficiently advanced on the sections south of Fort George to commence laying steel in September.

Fought Like Wild Cats

Carnarvon, Wales, July 6.—Two militant suffragettes, Georgina Lloyd and Phyllis North, created a scene of violence today when brought up for trial at the Carnarvon sessions on charges connected with a window smashing campaign on June 2 at Criccieth in the constituency of Chancellor of the Exchequer Lloyd George. The prisoners fought like wildcats and it took five wardens to keep them in the prisoners' enclosure. Each of the women was sentenced to three months' imprisonment.

The Ketchikan Miner, in reporting the recent baseball game in Prince Rupert Says:—
The El Paso with the ball team on board arrived from Prince Rupert shortly after noon today and the boys have been busy ever since telling just how it happened. The winning run was made by Irvine, Prince Rupert's catcher, who with two men out and no body on bases knocked a ball out of the diamond and the same was lost in the outfield, allowing him a home run on what at best should have been a two-bagger. The grounds drop off at a sharp angle about 40 or 50 feet back of second base and it was there that the ball was lost. Ketchikan made eight hits to three by Rupert and played better ball all the way through, losing the game purely by accident.

Poloists "Welcomed" Home

London, July 6.—Lord Wimborne and the members of the British polo team, which won the polo cup at Meadowbrook, were given a "welcome home" luncheon by the Pilgrims.

Field Marshal Lord Roberts, who presided, spoke of the intense gratification felt in the British Isles at the return of the polo cup and paid a tribute to "the true sportsmanlike spirit which had characterized all the struggles of it on American polo fields."

Gold Cloth Vestments Stolen

Regina, Sask., July 6.—Gold cloth vestments valued at $4,000, the property of Bishop Mathew, who is now on a visit to Rome, were stolen on Saturday from the Holy Rosary Cathedral.

The vestments were gifts from friends of the Bishop in Quebec, and were highly prized.

THE FLAG INCIDENT

July 4th, 1914.
Editor Daily News,
Prince Rupert, B.C.
Dear Sir:—The way your editorial reads in last night's paper, you blame some of the Ketchikan visitors for the American flag being placed on the smoke stack at the drydock. You should be very careful not to accuse any one until you positively know or you will show the Canadians are not as broad minded as you state. Very truly yours,
R. G. WELLS.

The News certainly never intended to insinuate that the Ketchikan boys had anything to do with the placing of that flag. From its location it is impossible that this could happen and anyway the Northern boys are not the kind of fellows who would do this.—Ed.

COLONEL ROOSEVELT LACKS OLD TIME VIGOR

Started 1914 Campaign With a Speech at Pittsburg— Criticized Wilson

Pittsburg, Pa., July 6.—Former President Roosevelt made his first speech of the 1914 campaign here. He spent five hours in Pittsburg, and was welcomed enthusiastically. In his address before the Pennsylvania Progressive League, he criticised the policies of the Wilson administration, attacked Senator Penrose and appealed for support of the Progressive ticket.

It was apparent, as the colonel rose and began to speak, that he did not possess his former strength and vigor. There was a noticeable change in his manner as compared with that of two years ago, when he was engaged in his previous campaign. His trip to Pittsburg was against the advice of his physician.

The administration's tariff laws, Colonel Roosevelt hailed as a colossal failure, particularly hard on the farmer; its anti-trust programme he branded as an economic absurdity. Its foreign policy he styled as "wretched," but upon this he did not elaborate. The Democratic tariff, he insisted, had brought distress upon the nation, had not lowered the cost of living, and had chiefly benefited foreign rivals of American business.

Of the "bosses," Mr. Roosevelt said what he had said heretofore—that they thwarted the rank and file of the Republican party by the nomination of Taft at Chicago, and in so doing, "deliberately put the Democratic organization and Mr. Wilson into power."

In conclusion, the colonel sketched the Progressive idea of needed anti-trust regulation by properly empowered commissions—contrasting such proposals with legislation now pending at Washington, which he found woefully inadequate. Such a programme alone, he contended, proved the inadequacy of the Democratic party.

SPORTING EDITOR IS HEIR TO A FORTUNE

Portus Baxter and His Brother Are Heirs to Large Estate

Washington, July 6.—By a decision of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, Portus Baxter, sporting editor of the Seattle Post-Intelligencer, and William H. Baxter, of Seattle, are each approximately $115,000 richer than they were last week. Brig.-General Baxter of the army died December 4, 1890, leaving a will providing that half of his estate should be expended in building a monument over the graves of himself and wife at Stafford, Vt., and that the other half should be divided among the heirs, two of whom are the Seattle Baxters.

The estate before distribution enhanced greatly in value. It is now worth $230,000. The heirs thought that $115,000 for a monument at Stafford was extravagant, especially as the general and his wife are not buried there, but in the national cemetery at Arlington.

A lawsuit resulted. It ended here in the District Court's decision in favor of the heirs.

Mary's Animal Show

Mary had a little lamb—
'Twas Persian—on her coat
She also had a mink or two
About her dainty throat;
A bird of paradise, a tern,
And ermine made the hat
That perched at jaunty angle
On her coiffure, largely "rat."
Her tiny boots were sable topped,
Her gloves were muskrat, too,
Her muff had heads and tails of half
The "critters" in the zoo,
And when she walked abroad, I ween,
She feared no wintry wind;
At keeping warm, 'twas plain to see,
She had all Nature "skinned."

A dead letter may be one she gave her husband to mail.
