Sir Wilfrid's tour starts at St. John on August 17th or 24th, and will reach Vancouver about November 11th. It is not yet definitely decided whether or not he will visit Prince Rupert.

"OUR MUTUAL GIRL"

The ever popular "Mutual Girl" holds forth at the Westholme Opera House to-night, the fifth instalment being due on the Princess Beatrice to-day. This number promises to be exceptionally interesting, particularly to the ladies.

A fine two reel feature, "From Out the Dregs," tells a splendid story of absorbing interest.

"Little Billie's Triumph," is a Keystone comedy with little Billie in the title role. A new mutual weekly will conclude the program.

On Monday and Tuesday next a splendid four reel romantic feature, "Robin Hood," will be shown and the management promises this to be an unusually fine attraction. Sir Walter Scott's story is followed in the most important points and both the action and scenic effects are exceptionally well done.

WETS LEAD IN FIRST DIVISION

The wets are in pronounced majority in Southeastern Alaska, according to the enumerations made by those appointed by the courts to ascertain the sentiment of the people over 21 years of age on the liquor question. In the eight principal towns of Southeastern Alaska it was shown that there are 5,054 people qualified to express an opinion on the liquor traffic. Of these 4,757 favored licensing saloons; 974 were opposed to it; 395 non-committal, and 297 were not seen.

DAILY NEWS SOLD TO LOCAL BUSINESS MAN

Shareholders Express Appreciation of Recent Management—Paper Made Distinct Progress

The Daily News, which heretofore has been run as a corporation, will hereafter be controlled by a private individual.

Eight months ago the present management took charge under an option to purchase in anticipation of more rapid development in Northern British Columbia than has taken place. Because of other business arrangements it has been decided not to exercise that option and the company was accordingly notified.

At a meeting held yesterday, Mr. F. G. Dawson made a proposal to purchase the assets of the company and a deal was effected. The present management will continue in charge temporarily in order to allow Mr. Dawson to make final arrangements.

The Editor takes this opportunity of thanking the public for the generous support they have shown during his management towards the paper and the policy pursued. Fearless criticism of public issues is the duty of every newspaper and that The Daily News at least to some extent has attained to that ideal is evidenced not only by the public approval heretofore referred to but by the unanimous resolution of the stockholders of the late company in which they expressed satisfaction and appreciation of the conduct of the paper in the last seven months and in the fact that during that period the paper not only paid its way but made considerable progress. Even the circulation—at that time the largest in the city—was increased by fully twenty-five per cent.

IT IS CONTAGIOUS

Several months ago the Board of Health ordered a temporary sewer put in on Borden Street to be paid for by the property owners. There was no protest and the City Council was to go ahead with the work immediately. The total cost of the work is about $2,000 and it would require a couple of week's work, but the job has not yet been touched.

The disease of the provincial politicians in promising big public works and making appropriations for it, but never doing the work, appears to be infecting the City Council.

ALL VANCOUVER OUT TO SEE MARINE BATTLE

Thousands Along Water Front Disappointed When no Fight Came Off

The officers of the steamer Venture state that Vancouver water front on Tuesday was like one great grand stand. Between 10,000 and 20,000 people were lined up all day on the wharves, on the roofs of buildings, and at all the windows facing the water front.

They were out to witness the battle of the Rainbow with the Komagata Maru.

The Rainbow came into the harbor with six gang planks elevated ready to drop aboard the Hindus' ship. All the gang planks had steam pipes to protect the boarding parties in making the landing.

But the fight never came off and the crowd were rather disappointed.

AUSTRIA SENDS ULTIMATUM TO THE SERBIAN EMPIRE

Vienna, Austria, July 24.—Another war cloud hangs over Europe which may result in the clash of arms at any moment. Austria has forwarded an imperative note to Serbia demanding that within forty-eight hours satisfactory assurances regarding the pan-Serbian movement, to which is laid the assassination of the late Archduke Ferdinand and his wife, Peremptory action followed an interview with Emperor Franz Josef Count Ische. The question of war is being discussed freely throughout Austria, and a number of the Vienna newspapers are arousing the populace with their opinions that war is inevitable. Other European powers are refraining from expressions of opinion as to the outcome of the critical situation which may again plunge Europe into bloodshed.

PAPER MONEY OF NEW TYPE TO BE CIRCULATED

Washington, D. C., July 24.—Millions of dollars worth of paper money of a new type will be put into circulation upon the establishment of the federal reserve banks within the next few weeks.

Under the federal reserve bank act each of the federal reserve boards issue in the form of federal reserve notes, a distinctly new sort of paper money. Commercial paper will be the collateral advanced by the various banks as security for these notes.

The new $5 note submitted by the bureau of engraving and printing is typical of agriculture. The portrait of Lincoln is on the face of the note, and the back shows a harvesting machine and allegorical figures typical of farming. The $10 note bears a portrait of Cleveland and a manufacturing scheme. The $20 bears Jackson's portrait and is typical of commerce, having a steamship, train and other mediums of trade on the back.

MAY BE BIG STRIKE ON G.T.P. RY. FROM FORT WILLIAM TO RUPERT

800 MACHINISTS AND BOILERMAKERS WILL BE AFFECTED—AFFILIATED UNIONS WILL LIKELY DECLARE A SYMPATHETIC STRIKE

(Special to The Daily News)
Montreal, July 24.—According to local leaders of the Machinists' Union a strike of the boiler makers and machinists of the Grand Trunk Pacific from Fort William to Prince Rupert may develop at any moment. D. Mc-

Callum, organizer for the machinists' union says that about 800 hundred machinists and a large number of boiler-makers will be affected in the territory. In case of trouble the affiliated unions will join the machinists, being dissatisfied with their working conditions.

RIVERS INLET CANNERIES CANNOT HANDLE ALL THE FISH

FURTHER NORTH THERE ARE NO FISH AT ALL--THE WET WEATHER HAS KNOCKED BOTTOM OUT OF FISHING—BIG PACK AT SMITH'S INLET

Salmon fishing on Smith's Inlet, River's Inlet and Bella Coola is exceptionally good. On River's Inlet the canneries have more than they can handle. The Smith's Inlet cannery already has 19,000 cases of sockeye packed which is a record for so early in the year, and it means a small fortune to the owners. The Wallace Fisheries, a Mackenzie-Mann company bought Smith's Inlet cannery from Robt. Kelly and associates three years ago for the sum of $325,000.

On the Skeena and at Lowe Inlet the bottom has dropped out of the fishing. The boats are hardly bringing in any and the seines do not get enough to pay for dragging. If the weather would break and show a few days of sun all the fishermen are satisfied the season would finish well.

At the Empress

"A Race for an Inheritance" is the title of a thrilling drama to be presented at the Empress theatre tonight and tomorrow night, and those who like something really exciting should make it a point to be on hand. "A Wild Night in a Balloon" is a wonderful airship picture, showing the dangers and risks taken by bird-men. For good rollicking comedy "An Old Maid's Love" and "Artful Gontran" would be hard to beat. The Warwick English Bioscope shows many recent happenings of interest in England.

DAILY EDITION

Friday, July 24, 1914.

The "Tin Pot" Navy seems after all to be a valuable asset of the Borden Government. The Hindu incident would have put us in a very humiliating position if we did not have some ship of war to do a little police work. Otherwise we would likely be compelled to ask Uncle Sam to send a few over from Seattle to keep order. Similar incidents are liable to happen at any time and Canada should be prepared to handle them herself without assistance from anyone.

The solution offered by the Borden Government in their Navy Bill shows up in a very bad light in view of this event. Their idea was to keep a big squadron of the Empire's Navy at Gibraltar. What good would that squadron be to Canada when a Hindu ship is liable to drop in here any day? Australia and New Zealand have withdrawn from this arrangement because their shores, too, are liable to the same incidents that British Columbia has had to deal with of late. The Conservatives are in bad on the navy question and the only solution is to admit that they were wrong and get in behind the policy of Sir Wilfrid.

Our little morning friend, The Journal, quotes a long interview with the Hon. W. J. Bowser, Attorney-General of the Province, on the visit of that gentleman to Northern British Columbia, a short time ago. Amongst other things the Attorney-General says that the resources of the northern interior of British Columbia are a revelation to him.

The G. T. P. Railway has been building in British Columbia for the last six or seven years. During all that time Mr. Bowser has practically been the dictator of the policies pursued by the Provincial Government. If there is anyone in the Province who ought to be thoroughly familiar with the resources and conditions existing throughout the Province, it is Mr. Bowser. Yet we have an admission from Mr. Bowser himself that the resources of the country tributary to the G. T. P. were unknown to him.

One would naturally suppose that the Government, long since, would have investigated conditions along the line of the G. T. P. and would have taken such action as was necessary to assist in the development of this immense stretch of territory. Contrary however, to pursuing this course the Government on its own admission has neglected this territory, and we have the spectacle of the Attorney-General himself saying that he is ashamed to think that the settlers have had no decent roads to carry in their supplies, while so many automobile roads have been built in the South.

Mr. Bowser, however, promises better things for the future. Now that the Provincial Treasury is exhausted, and the credit of the Province is pledged to the extent of two hundred millions, Mr. Bowser says that it will be necessary to seek ways and means to take care of conditions arising in the North.

The whole truth is that Northern British Columbia has been shamefully neglected, and the complaints of the people have been ignored. The Government now sees that the North is gaining in strength, and that no longer can the requirements of Northern British Columbia be neglected with impunity. Hence we have Mr. Bowser promising to look into the needs of this territory.

The people of the North will undoubtedly be glad of any improvement of conditions under which they are laboring, but it seems certain that at the first opportunity they will select somebody else than Mr. Bowser to carry into effect the many things necessary to be done in order to properly develop the resources of this district.

A Government which after eleven years in office, admits that it has been ignorant of the territory which it has governed is hardly a fit Government to continue in office. The greatest blessing which could befall this portion of the Province, would be a change of administration. While the Provincial Government has confined its attentions to the southern portion of the Province, we nevertheless find that the south is a seething mass of discontent with the administration.

The reason is that the Bowser-McBride Government has simply been a Government of exploitation.

The resources of the Province have been alienated to an enormous extent and are largely in the hands of speculators. No effort has been made to secure legitimate settlement throughout the Province, and such settlers as are here have come of their own accord, only to have their wants sadly neglected by the Government.

This is a doleful record for a Government having guardianship of so immensely wealthy a territory as British Columbia, and the people of the Province will be glad of an early opportunity to express at the polls their opinion of the Bowser-McBride administration.

MR. LANCASTER LEAVES PARLIAMENTARY FIELD

Declares Indemnity is Insufficient for One Giving His Time

St. Catharines, July 24.—E. A. Lancaster, M.P., Chairman of the Railway Committee of the Commons, and the author of the marriage bill, sprang a surprise upon the Conservative Executive last week, when he announced that under no circumstances would he again offer himself as a candidate for Parliament.

Mr. Lancaster is very emphatic in stating that it is not on account of his health that he has decided to lay down the mantle of public life, but because the seasonal indemnity is insufficient remuneration for a man who devotes his entire time, ability, and attention to the service of his country. He therefore has decided, after sacrificing the most efficient fifteen years of his life for the public weal, in addition to the nest-egg that he gained previously, to spend the latter days of his career in attending to his profession.

KOMAGATA MARU LEAVES VANCOUVER FOR ORIENT

Vancouver, July 24.—Without any fuss or confusion, the Japanese steamer Komagata Maru left Vancouver harbor yesterday morning for Hong Kong. She had on board 352 Hindu passengers.

The Komagata Maru arrived in port on May 23 with a passenger list of Orientals, who, after many vain attempts to gain admittance to Canada, have at last been compelled to give up, being defeated both in the law courts of the Dominion and by the immigration officers and police when a forcible attempt was made to land.

The cruiser Rainbow followed her half an hour later and escorted her as far as Flattery.

REAL ESTATE is just as good an investment in Prince Rupert today as it was when the market was active and the speculators were making a quick turn over. No man who holds any bulk of property here anticipates or fears a slump. The big owners have perfect confidence in the city and in the real estate. They are improving their property and getting good revenues. That is where the small owner is handicapped during the period of inactivity. He has not enough money to improve his property and get a revenue. But if he pooled his available means with the savings of others, the whole would make a good working capital. That is where the Prince Rupert Building and Investment Co. is helping the small capitalist to make good. This company improves its property and has an income. It has been one of the most successful organizations in the city. It has paid an average of SEVENTEEN PER CENT in dividends in the past three years. We have a limited amount of stock offered for sale.

LOOK FOR BOOM IN MUNICIPAL BONDS

The Increasing Number of Bond Dealers Are Looking For Big Increase

Montreal, July 23.—The municipal bond market has reached a most interesting stage. In the face of the dull, not to say depressed, state of business and business sentiment so largely prevalent, an increasing number of bond dealers are coming more and more to the view that a big boom in municipal bonds is ahead of us and not far distant.

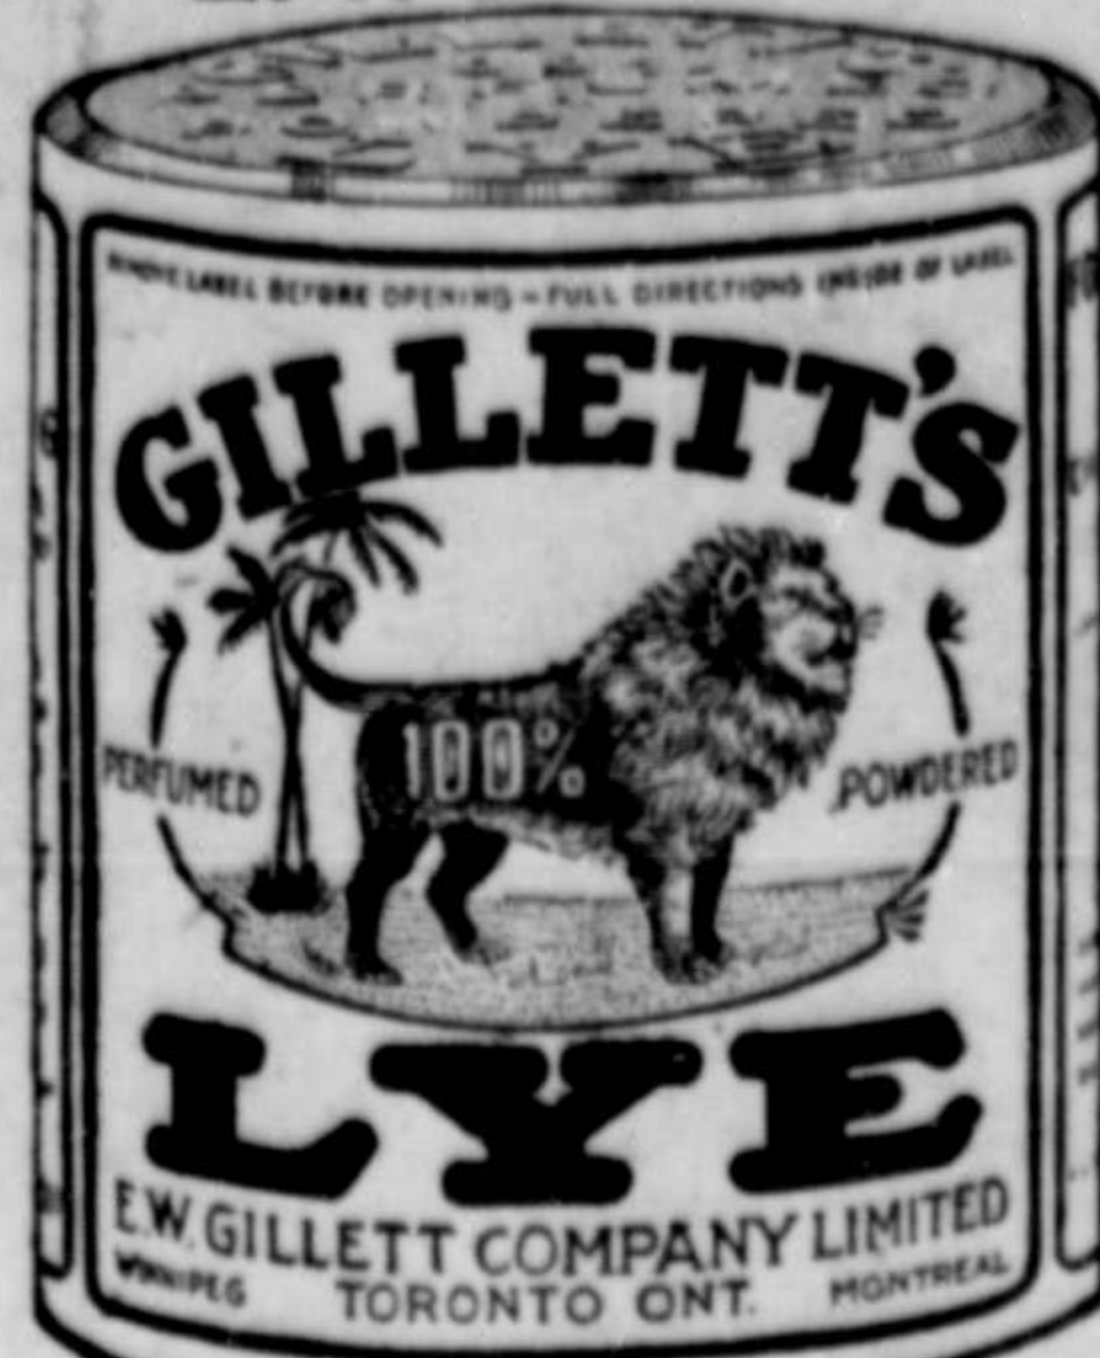

There are preliminary signs right now of the approach of the boom that is so freely predicted. The municipal market is in a very healthy state, with the market demand quite conspicuously infused with more activity and vim than is to be seen in other departments of the investment field. New York City and State bonds sold up to around the high levels of the year this week, and the fact that the one year bonds of the State of Tennessee also sold on a 4.21 per cent basis this week, with several other bids close to the price paid by the successful bidders, indicates the eagerness of United States dealers to get this class of bonds and their willingness to bid high for them. This condition is bound to improve the Canadian market also.

The situation seems simple enough. Enormous accumulations of idle funds are lying in the savings banks, institutions and in the hands of trustees of estates. This capital is eager for investment and only awaits the clearing of the air and a flight of doubts to give it confidence. The industrial unrest which has turned investors away from all but the highest grade railroad and industrial bonds have directed attention to the municipal situation where no scandals or graft exposures have come to disturb the holder of capital.

A porter in London was engaged in cleaning a baggage-van when the door swung back striking him violently on the head. "Oh, Pat," he exclaimed to an Irishman standing on the platform, "I believe I've opened my head!" "Well, now's the time to put something into it," was Pat's witty reply.
