GERMAN BUTCHERY MADE SUBJECT OF COMPLAINT -- GERMANS IN POSSESSION OF BRUSSELS

WAR SITUATION TODAY

The war news of last evening and today indicates that the fighting of the rival armies in the eastern end of the war zone is meagre in detail and particulars but sufficient to show that the great German army is throwing its full weight against the main body of the Allies armies all the front, particularly in Belgium. The slaughter has been tremendous. The fighting has been hand to hand in some places and modern weapons one can only imagine what a shambles the fields must be.

Belgium the Germans are pressing on towards the coast. They reach Brussels they will be in the centre of the king. The battle of yesterday was only ten or twenty miles from the capital.

The south end of Belgium the advance has been slower. German advance posts are now quite close to the French. The chief fighting has been along the River Meuse at about 15 miles south from Namur city and a few miles from the French border.

The Franco-German frontier, the French have had the heaviest fighting and are penetrating well into Alsace and capturing Streussburg in a short time.

French border country is very strongly fortified and the Germans realize that it would be almost impossible to take a strong position in past those forts. It would appear that their plan to force an entry through Belgium and get in behind the French fortifications.

One of the most astonishing features of the war is the little news that comes from the British war office. This cannot be as ominous as bad news for Britain's policy has never held back reports of any reverse to her arms.

Later news this morning confirm the news that the Germans are actually in the city of Brussels and that the Allies lack without an engagement. This is probably a part of the German tactics.

FRANCE CAPTURE MUELHAUSEN AT THE POINT OF BAYONET

Official Report from Paris—Both French and German losses are tremendous

(Special to THE NEWS)
August 21.—Official report from the French have recaptured Muelhausen at the point of bayonet and at a great cost to both the French and Germans. They took six big guns from the Germans.

GERMANY'S WONDERFUL AIR FLEET ATTACK?

August 21.—Where is Germany's wonderful fleet of airships? A former official of the German secret service, who is now in the general staff of the German army, contributes an interesting article on the "German airship" to the "Current Weekly," in which he details the dirigibles of which he has heard and read so much and compares them with the aircraft which Germany has developed in secret and a part of which are housed in buildings on the island of Heligoland, ready for deployment, or rather ascent over the sea.

The aircraft are said to be of a newly-discovered gas lighter than air, and being inflammable, and permitting them to go to an altitude of 10,000 feet, from where they could drop the new German explosive bombs in perfect safety against guns or aeroplanes. As gas, it is said, can be in a fluid state in tanks, to be pumped into the dirigibles, and the explosion said to start a conflagration wherever it strikes. Each dirigible is said to be able to carry 100 tons of this explosive, and the crew, encased in compartments, is protected from the cold of the high altitudes. The German fleet apparently is to be used for the purpose of attacking the English coast has towers of light from the summit of approaching aircraft can be seen.

ENGLAND STOPS SALE OF SWEEPSTAKE TICKETS

August 21.—Hon. W. H. Murray, Attorney-General, has announced that he will stop the sale of sweepstake tickets in the Dominion of British Columbia as contrary to the statutes.

RUSSIA WINS IN FRONTIER SKIRMISHES

(Special to THE NEWS)
London, August 21.—A despatch from St. Petersburg gives a communication issued by the Russian general staff covering the operations of the army from August 15th to 19th. Successes are claimed by the Russian armies in skirmishes on both the Austrian and German frontiers.

The Austrian cavalry entered Russian Poland and were driven back with great loss, while the Austrian infantry, which attacked Kiasnik, was defeated and lost heavily. The Russians took 250 prisoners on the Prussian border. The Russians have taken the offensive and captured Lyk. They captured eight German guns and two rapid firing guns.

GERMANS ENTER BRITISH TERRITORY

(Special to THE NEWS)
Nairobi, British East Africa, August 21.—A small German force crossed the frontier into British territory yesterday.

AUSTRIA MAKES FINAL CALL TO ARMS

(Special to THE NEWS)
London, August 21.—A St. Petersburg despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Office sent from Vienna says the Austrian Government has issued a final call to arms to all able bodied men from the ages of 20 to 42 years.

GERMANY REFUSES JAP ULTIMATUM

London, August 21.—An official despatch from Berlin, via Rotterdam, states that Germany has refused the Japanese ultimatum demanding the surrender of Kiau Chau to the Chinese. The Japanese ambassador is said to have left Berlin.

REPORT GERMANS BOMBARDING RUSSIAN PORTS

(Special to THE NEWS)
Paris, August 21.—A despatch originating in Christiania states that Emperor William ordered the attacks on Liege by the Germans and not General Von Emich. Nothing of importance has been heard of the operation of the German fleet in the Baltic Sea, since the beginning of the war.

An English engineer who just arrived from St. Petersburg and who is a competent authority on naval and military matters, reports that when he left seven days after the declaration of war the ships of the German fleet were bombarding Kronstadt, Viborg and Revel. This is important information because Kronstadt is a famous fortress and naval base approaching St. Petersburg.

Revel is the great naval base at the entrance of the Gulf of Finland, and a place where large sums of money have been expended in forming docks and providing all the requirements of an important naval establishment. Viborg is a port in Finland not far from the Russian frontier.

WHO KNOWS ECKLAND?

The drowned man discovered yesterday afternoon in the harbor between the drydock and the cold storage plant, proved to be John Eckland from papers in his possession. The medical man who examined the body believes he was intoxicated when he went into the water. He had only been in a few hours. The police up to this time have been unable to discover where the man came from or anyone who knows him.

LOCAL SCARE STORIES

There are persistent rumors about the city of a German cruiser lying off Dixon's entrance ready to seize any shipping coming out of or into this port. The story is not to be credited. A despatch says the Leipzig is off Frisco waiting for coal. Another despatch announces that another British cruiser has come over from the China station to protect this coast, so that B. C. can be considered quite safe from any trouble from the little German ships. Orders to get all coal away from the city docks and for the banks to get rid of their gold have come from the authorities as a precautionary measure. These messages are probably accountable for the scare rumors.

BLOODY BATTLE AT MUELHAUSEN WON BY FRENCH

(Special to THE NEWS)
London, August 21.—A despatch from Havas Agency at Bel-fort says the battle around Muelhausen was particularly bloody for the Germans. Knowing the French would spare as much as possible, the Alsations hid themselves in houses protected with the red cross from whence they fired on the French.

The French directed a violent rifle artillery fire on the assailants causing a veritable carnage. Every German leaving these houses was shot down.

A battery of six guns and caissons filled with ammunition were captured from the Germans.

SAVAGE BUTCHERS ARE BEING REPORTED UNDER HAGUE RULES

(Special to THE NEWS)
Paris, August 21.—A despatch says the French Government in addressing a note to the Powers signatory to the Hague convention in October, 1907 pointing out that the German military authorities had violated the convention, according to the communication the general in command of the eastern forces of the German troops dispatched a number of wounded by firing shots in their faces. The wounds of other injured people were deliberately made worse by being torn open.

THIS YEAR'S CROP IS CALCULATED

Winnipeg, August 21.—Careful calculations place the wheat crop of Western Canada at one hundred and thirty million bushels against one hundred and eighty millions last year.

The C. P. R. estimate, upon which is figured transportation of the crops, is 170,000,000.

OTTAWA DENIES HAZEN SENT MESSAGE TO RUPERT

(Special to THE NEWS)
Ottawa, August 21.—The Government has no knowledge of any German cruiser approaching Prince Rupert. Hon. Mr. Haezn never sent the statement reported.

(It was reported in the city yesterday that the Minister had sent a code message through the Bank of Montreal to the Mayor here that no coal was to be given the Leipzig in this city even if threatened with bombardment.)

BRUSSELS HELD BY THE GERMANS -- BELGIANS RETIRE

(Special to THE NEWS)
Paris, August 21.—The German cavalry now occupy Brussels. This official announcement was made last night. Strong columns are following up the movement. The Belgian army is retiring on Antwerp without being engaged by the Germans.

DUKE WILL REMAIN TILL END OF WAR

(Special to THE NEWS)
Ottawa, August 21.—The Duke of Connaught will remain in Canada until the end of the war. This was announced by the Governor today in the Senate.

WAR WILL DELAY ELECTION NEW POPE

(Special to THE NEWS)
Rome, August 21.—The war may delay the choice of a new Pope to succeed Pius X. who died Wednesday.

HOUSE OF COMMONS DISCUSS WAR TAX

(Special to THE NEWS)
Ottawa, August 21.—Canada's war tax will fall principally upon coal, sugar, spirits and tobacco. The Minister of Finance has announced in the House of Commons that $68,000,000 over and above the estimated revenue for the current year, or one hundred and thirty to one hundred and thirty-five millions dollars would be required to meet the increased expenses occasioned by the war. This money will be raised partially by increased customs and excise duties on the articles mentioned. The estimated increase in revenue on cigars, cigarettes and tobacco will be $200,000 a week. The increased excise revenues of the present fiscal year are estimated at about $7,000,000. The changes in taxation on liquor become effective from August 7th.

No serious criticism of the Government's proposals were made on the part of the Opposition.

A. K. McLean thought it would have been well for the Government to reduce the duties on food stuffs.

Dr. Michael Clark regretted the decision of the Government to place increased tax on sugar and coffee, which he described as the necessities of the poor. He thought the Government might have imposed a graduated income tax on all incomes over $15,000 as a war tax.

LEG CRUSHED

Joseph Millos, an employee at the drydock under Manager Crowell, met with an accident yesterday. He had his right leg jammed between a rail and heavy piece of timber. The leg was crushed and badly bruised between the knee and ankle. The man was removed to the hospital. No bones were broken.

BATTLE AT AERSCHOT AWFUL SLAUGHTER OF RIVAL ARMIES

BOTH SIDES LOST HEAVILY—FIGHTING LIKE DEMONS BELGIANS AND ALLIES FORCED TO RETREAT

(Special to THE NEWS)
Ghent, August 21.—The battle at Aerschot Wednesday was a veritable butchery of the soldiers. The Germans who had been repulsed the previous evening renewed the attack and outnumbered the Belgians and their allies. The troops on both sides fought like demons, and both were losing heavily when the retreat was sounded. A great battle between the allies and Germans is now said to be raging.

Aerschot is about twenty-five miles from Brussels and ten miles from Louvain.

LEIPZIG AWAITS COAL--STEAMER WAS HELD UP

(Special to THE NEWS)
San Francisco, August 21.—The steamer Mazatlan was held up here yesterday as she was about to leave this port with coal, allegedly for the Leipzig. Washington authorities have been asked to act.

LEIPZIG BOASTING TO U.S. NEWSPAPER

The German cruiser Leipzig left San Francisco Tuesday night and is said to have had 575 tons of coal aboard. Capt. Hann, in charge of her, said to a party of newspaper men:—

"We shall engage the enemy whenever and wherever we meet him. The number or size of our antagonists will make no difference to us. The traditions of the German navy shall be upheld."

The Japanese cruiser Idzumo left San Diego at the same time and promises to follow the Leipzig until official war is declared.

BELGIANS MAKE LAST STAND AT ANTWERP

London, August 21.—Gallant little Belgium has prepared to make a last stand at Antwerp. There is no place under the sun for which the Germans yearn more acutely than this Liverpool of the Netherlands, but they will have to detach at least half a million men to take such a well-defended city.

CRUISER MONMOUTH FROM CHINA STATION NOW ON B.C. COAST

(Special to THE NEWS)
Vancouver, August 21.—A man returning from Esquimalt yesterday says he saw the British cruiser Monmouth, ten thousand tons, and with a speed of twenty-one knots, in the harbor there Monday. She had steamed across from the China station.

She has now gone south along the coast. The Monmouth is in the same class as the Essex and Suffolk on the Atlantic Coast.

The two submarines also left Esquimalt.

MONKS RETURNED TO FRANCE AS SOLDIERS

Paris, August 21.—The Eclair states that all the Carthusian monks of Milage, who were expelled from France at the time that the law restricting religious associations was adopted, have returned to the barracks at Grenoble and exchanged the white habit of the order of St. Bruno for the uniform of the French soldier.

They were given an enthusiastic reception by the population of Grenoble.

The Serbian Legation has formally expressed to Foreign Minister Gaston Doumergue the gratitude of the Serbian Government for the assistance received from the Republic of France in the present circumstances.

DAILY EDITION

Friday, August 21, 1914

Since the beginning of the war the word "moratorium" has sprung into prominence. It is now of special interest because the Canadian government is considering putting one into effect. While a moratorium in general means that creditors cannot shut down on their debtors no two moratoriums are necessarily alike. That is to say a moratorium may cover certain specific lines of credit while others such as rents, taxes, etc., may not be included, or it may be universal in its scope and either applying to accounts contracted for before the moratorium was applied, or to those before and after. Every time one is applied therefore the government specifies the lines of its influence. The ideal one would appear to be that applied by a local judge in which case there would be an examination of each debtor in order to show whether his refusal to pay is justified by his financial standing. Otherwise great hardships might result by debtors taking advantage of their position.

The death of Pope Pius X. will leave regret not only among members of his own church, but throughout the world generally. Pius X. was perhaps the most moderate, and broadminded Pope that the Roman church has ever had. Besides that he was intensely human, and one of the regrets he had at being confined to the Vatican, was that he could not visit his people. Indeed he made an effort to have this restriction removed. When he failed in this he arranged so that his sisters might have frequent access to his palace.

Who has not noticed the stiff stilted forms of expression used in the legal forms of our courts of law and with a tinge of that early English which brings one back several centuries. The contention has always been that decessious of the court have already determined the exact meaning of these expressions and were they couched in modern language this would have to be gone all over again. While this may be true there is one government at least that is not afraid of the task. Kings Co., Washington, has remodelled all their legal forms, and instead of the language of several centuries ago they use the concise forms of modern English.

MADE GEOLOGICAL SURVEY FOR MINERALS ON GRAHAM ISLAND

J. D. MACKENZIE HAS HAD A PARTY IN THAT DISTRICT ALL SUMMER—CAME OVER WHEN ALBERT WAS WRECKED

J. D. MacKenzie, of the Geological survey of Canada, who returned from Masset with his party, called at The News office yesterday. Mr. MacKenzie during the past two seasons has been engaged in a geological examination of Graham Island, with particular reference to coal and oil resources. During this time his party has mapped in detail the central part of Graham Island from Skidegate Inlet to Masset Inlet, east of the high mountains of the Queen Charlotte range and west of the eastern lowlands.

The map when published will show on a scale of one inch to one mile the areal distribution of the various rock formations of the island. Vertical cross sections will represent the thickness of the different beds of rock, and their relations and structure.

Mr. MacKenzie states that under his instructions he is not allowed to express an opinion as to the economic value of the district investigated, but says that there is a considerable area in the vicinity of Camp Robertson underlain by a coal seam of inferior quality, and that at Camp Wilson the indications are good for a workable body of coal being found by the prospecting now going on. This development work at Camp Wilson is under the direction of Milnor Roberts, Dean of the College of Mines, University of Washington, and is being carried on in a thoroughly scientific and intelligent way, in great contrast to much of the prospecting done on Graham Island during the last few years.

A detailed topographic map of the vicinity of Camp Wilson is of J. M. MacDonald, M.E. Two diamond drills are at work, and it is evidently the intention of the owners to find out exactly what amount of coal lies concealed around Camp Wilson.

In addition to the detailed work done by the Geological Survey, a reconnaissance examination was made over the whole of Graham Island. During this work the West Coast was visited and some time was spent at Tiau Point and Otard Bay, where black bituminous matter occurs in veins and cavities in basalt and other volcanic rocks called agglomerates. These cavities are termed amygdaloids and range from the size of a pin-head to three feet or more across, and are generally almond shaped. They are usually lined with pale bluish chalcedony and often contain inside of this a crust of clear quartz crystals. There is usually a space in the center of the cavity and it is in being made by Livingston Werneck, M.E., and the active management of the camp is in charge of this that the tar is found. The occurrence of the tar in veins is essentially similar. Mr. MacKenzie would express no opinion as to the value of this occurrence as an indication of oil reservoirs occurring at depth.

The Geological Survey party were passengers on the wrecked Prince John yesterday evening. Messrs. R. Crumney and H. A. Logan left for Vancouver by the Prince John yesterday evening. Messrs. Victor Dolmage and C. E. Cairnes are at the Prince Rupert Hotel with Mr. MacKenzie. The latter expressed great praise for Capt. MacKenzie of the Prince Albert, and for his officers and crew. There was at no time any sign of panic, the men among the passengers smoking on deck and caring for the women aboard while the crew made ready the boats. About forty minutes after she struck, the rising tide caused the ship to pound in an alarming manner, and it was then that the order was given for the passengers to leave in the boats.

All the passengers got away in the first four boats to leave. Owing to the grounding of the ship, and the considerable sea running, it was a difficult task to get the boats lowered safely. Two of the boats lost the lights of the ship in the fog, and rowed all night, only to find themselves close to the ship and the other boats in the morning.

Mr. MacKenzie stated that the lifeboats were leaky and poorly equipped to leave the ship. He had, however, particular praise for the courage and seamanship of Arthur Thomas, a native of Newfoundland, who with three Nova Scotians and one Greek among the passengers sent off in the fourth lifeboat, rowed and bailed her all night, the others of the thirteen men aboard being too indifferent to their fate to assist even by steering the boat. To Mr. Thomas is due credit for the fact that the disaster was not a much greater tragedy.

PRACTICAL ALASKA RAIL ROUTE FOUND

Commissioners Believe Line Can Be Taken Through Broad Pass—Easy Grades

Fairbanks, Alaska, August 20.—"We find there is a very practicable railway route across Broad pass and down the Tanana River. After striking the flats on the lower Tanana we have two alternatives, either to go straight ahead to Tanana station, on the Tanana River, or across the flats to Fifteen Mile. Both routes will be surveyed," said T. R. Riggs, member of the Alaska railroad commission, on his arrival here last night with Lieut. Mears, also a member of the commission.

"The route up the Susitna is a very easy one, as water grade prevails all the way," said Mears. "Broad pass is an ideal pass to go through. The route is perfectly feasible from a construction point of view, but of course other routes will be reported upon."

Both men are bronzed from exposure in the Alaska mountains, supervising the work of the engineers. Within a week they will leave here for the outside over the Valdez trail to check surveys of the Copper River railroad extension now on file at Washington. Both commissioners expect to have a report ready for congress in November. They predict that construction will be started from both ends of the route selected, next year.

NO CONFUSION AT WRECK

Capt. McTavish, of Masset, who was on the Prince Albert when she struck the rocks Tuesday evening, says the officers of the ship handled the situation in splendid style. The boats were put out and everyone turned into them without confusion or disorder. After the boats had been away from the wreck for some time several of the officers and the captain returned for liquor and food supplies to warm up the chilled bodies of the passengers. He says the ladies showed splendid bravery. Capt. McTavish left last evening for Vancouver. He is going to England to join his regiment.

WAR RECORDS OF THE NATIONS

Of the six great nations more or less involved in the present European conflict, France has twenty-five wars, winning twelve and losing thirteen.

England and Germany each have had ten wars, winning eight and losing two each.

Austria, with fifteen wars, lost ten and won five, while Russia lost all four of her foreign wars, and Italy won three and lost five of her eight.

MacLaren, authority on war, says the loss of life in battles since authentic history began, amounts to 1,400,000,000, equal to the entire population of the globe.

From 1683 to 1815—the close of the Napoleonic wars—Europe had sixty-five years of solid warfare, which cost the people $5,945,000,000, not counting national debts of $4,000,000,000.

The total losses of the Allies in the Crimean war was 252,600, and of Russia, 256,000; the cost to England was $345,000,000, to France $465,000,000 and to Russia $710,000,000.

In the Franco-German war 28,000 Germans were killed and 101,000 wounded; 156,000 French soldiers were killed, 143,000 wounded and 720,000 surrendered to the Germans or to neutral states.

In the recent war between Russia and Japan, during the three weeks of sanguinary fighting at Mukden alone the aggregate loss was 163,000.

This seems to indicate that the losses will be in even a greater ratio than the foregoing figures show, in the present armed conflict in Europe.

WHEN you smell hot bread round our mill know that it's "baking day" in our laboratory.

Peep in and you will find our head chemist minutely examining a whole row of bread he has just baked. These loaves are the final result of exhaustive analytical tests of both wheat and flour.

He only calls his flour ROYAL STANDARD after it has made golden, creamy white, velvety bread.

To make bread like that simply say to your grocer:—

GILLETT'S LYE EATS DIRT

NO CHANGE IN TEA

Toronto, August 20.—The Salada Tea Company state that their teas are being sold at exactly the same prices as for years past, notwithstanding the fact that there has been a big boom in the tea market. The Salada Tea Company do not believe any increase to the public is warranted in view of the supplies coming forward and any such increase is the result of the actions of that parasite, the speculator.

Football

Last night's football game between the Merchants and Hornets resulted in a win for the former by 8 goals to 2. As the score indicates, the Merchants had by far the greater part of the play during the whole game. G. S. Russell refereed in a manner satisfactory to both teams.

GAS BOAT DANCE AT PORT ESSINGTON

Sockeye City Makes Merry Following the Rush of Cannery Season

One of the jolliest dances ever held in the north country was the gas boat dance at Port Essington on Monday evening last. There were some forty present in Cunningham's hall and everyone of them thoroughly enjoyed the affair. The music was furnished by a Rupert orchestra and Geo. Frizzell brought a number of Rupert guests over in his launch. The program was unique and worth reproducing. Every number was named after a gas boat:

Skeena River Waltz.
Gasoline Run Two Step.
Imperial Schottische.
Companion Three Step.
Gasboat Hoe Down.
Kyea Waltz.
Rialco Ramble Two Step.
Eve Minuet.
Nerka Medley Two Step.

Totem Three Step.
Kirby's Rye Waltz.
Distillate Leak Two Step.
