THE AISNE A DEADLOCK

SUPERHUMAN STRUGGLE IS NOW HAND TO HAND

BATTLE OF AISNE HAS REACHED CRITICAL AND VIOLENT STAGE

BELIEVED GENERAL JOFFRE HAS PUSHED HIS FORCES INSIDE RANGE OF GERMAN GUNS—FIGHTING IS NOW AT CLOSE RANGE AND HAND TO HAND.

(Special to The Daily News—12 Noon) Paris, Sept. 28.—Reports of hand-to-hand fighting along the line yesterday lead to the belief that General Joffre has succeeded in pushing his lines inside the range of the German heavy guns. The general opinion is that the battle has reached its most critical as well as most violent phase. The losses on both sides in the past few days is said to have exceeded those in all other engagements of the war.

GERMAN COMMANDER SUICIDES BECAUSE HE COULDN'T ADVANCE

(Special to The Daily News—12 Noon) London, Sept. 28.—A Bordeaux dispatch says the German commander at Muehlenhausen has committed suicide, in despair at being unable to cross the Vosges. He had previously telegraphed the German general staff to come and see the difficulties for themselves.

GERMAN ARTILLERY STICKS IN THE MUD

(Special to The Daily News—12 Noon) Paris, Sept. 28.—An Amsterdam dispatch says that there is violent fighting between the Germans and Belgians four miles east of Antwerp, at Termonde and Hofstaden. At the latter place the heavy German artillery became stuck in the mud and the Germans were obliged to retire before the Belgian attacks. The Germans are fortifying Liege.

BOER GENERAL OFFERS HIS SWORD TO ALLIED ARMIES

(Special to The Daily News—12 Noon) Bordeaux, Sept. 28.—The Boer general, Francois Joubert Pinaer arrived here today to offer his sword to the allied armies.

LOCAL MAN SHOT IN HUNTING ACCIDENT

L. J. Hoyt, While Hunting in Vicinity of Essington, Shot Yesterday by His Own Gun.

According to reports that are current round town there was a shooting accident yesterday in the vicinity of Essington. The report is to the effect that L. J. Hoyt, of this city, who was out with a hunting party in the vicinity of Essington, was accidentally shot with his own gun. Mr. Hoyt is an experienced hunter and much surprise is felt that this should happen.

Mr. Hoyt has been here for about three years and is a painter by trade. He also has a wife here, to whom the sympathy of the community will go out in her bereavement. He was a man of about forty years of age.

A. T. Harrison, accused of bigamy, is up for trial this afternoon. Harrison married a girl from Hazelton last fall and later it was found out that he already had a wife.

The case of Lillie Harris for theft was up in the Police Court this morning but was not finished. It will come up again on Wednesday.

Ten days' safe now on at Demers. Come in and see the bargains. 2244f.

DEAD-LOCK AT THE AISNE FORCES SEEM TO BE BALANCED

ARMIES ARE NOW IN CLOSE RANGE OF EACH OTHER, IN SOME PLACES ONE HUNDRED YARDS APART—FIERCE BAYONET CHARGES ON BOTH SIDES.

(News Special—6:30 Sunday Night.) Paris, Sept. 27.—An official statement this afternoon says that the Allies and Germans are in close contact everywhere along the Aisne and bayonet fighting is general and is in favor of the Allies. A perceptible advance was made by the Allies between the Oise and Somme and to the north of Somme from Aisne to Rheims. In some places the opposing entrenchments are only 100 yards apart. Violent bayonet charges of the Germans were repulsed at all points. The French have regained the ground lost between the Argonne region and the Meuse.

RED CROSS FUND COMMITTEE REPORTS WOULD DISBANDED GERMAN ARMY SETTLE IN CANADA?

Over Six Hundred Dollars Raised and is Being Sent to Headquarters, London, Eng.

The committee of management in charge of the late patriotic concert held in aid of the British Red Cross at a recent meeting passed votes of thanks to all those who had contributed in any way to make the concert the great success it was.

They wish specially to thank Judge Young for so ably presiding, the Westholme Theatre management for their generous check for $50, and also the following for their kind donations toward defraying the expenses: The A. W. Edge Co., Mr. Albert, Mr. Harry Rochester, Mr. W. Marshall, Mr. Tomlinson, Mr. Hewitt, Mr. Broderick, Mr. H. P. Wilson, Mr. Gargetts and Mr. Martin Swanson; also to those in charge of the program and to all who took part in the concert and tableaux, entailing as it did so much work; to the young ladies who sold programs; to the Irish Fusiliers; to the firemen who helped in the decorations; to those who lent flags and bunting; to Mr. Bullock-Webster, who looked after the staging; to the public press for their free advertising, and to Mr. Godenrath, who also helped in this connection.

The management wishes also to thank Mr. E. A. Sinclair, of Orme's drug store, for the trouble he took in looking after the plan of seats, to any others who gave of their money and time, and to the public for the splendid way in which they turned out to the performance.

The proceeds amounted to $639.40 after all expenses have been paid, which amount the treasurer is sending today to the Vancouver branch of the Red Cross Fund, with the request that the money be sent to the head office of the British Red Cross Society in London, England.

Special mention must also be made of the courtesy of the Westholme Theatre Company in loaning the theatre for rehearsals and their splendid treatment in every way, and also to the orchestra, which gave its services so willingly—all of which will not soon be forgotten.

MALINES BOMBARDED.

(News Special—6:30 Sunday Night.) London, Sept. 27.—An Antwerp dispatch says that the Germans today recommenced the bombardment of Malines. The people were forced to quit the city.

LADIES' AUXILIARY OF ST. ANDREW'S SOCIETY WILL HOLD BAZAAR

The Ladies' Auxiliary of St. Andrew's Society is giving a bazaar and sale of work tomorrow in St. Andrew's Hall in aid of their building fund, opening at 2 p. m. There will be many articles of plain and fancy sewing on sale. Also a large variety of home cooking and candies. In the evening there will be a dance, beginning at 9 o'clock. The music will be furnished by the Majestic orchestra.

During the evening there will be a hat-trimming and needle-threading competition for men and a pencil-sharpening and nail-driving contest for ladies, which ought to be some fun provoker.

"THE ISLE OF SPICE."

Now you may not agree with the code of life which one King Bompaka, who fires and hires his wives with touching bonhomie, believes in, and you may have a difference of opinion on whether Slobosky and Mickey were treated properly when they dropped in unexpectedly; but however that may be, you are sure to do a lot of laughing and applauding if you are lucky enough to secure seats at the Westholme tonight, when the Bostonians present B. C. Whitney's great Chicago success, "The Isle of Spice." Chuck full of sparkling song hits, clever comedy, and aglitter with beautiful wardrobe, "The Isle of Spice" is of the type of musical piece with which the Bostonians have always made their greatest success.

As a special added feature for Monday and Tuesday the fifth episode of "The Million Dollar Mystery" will be shown between the acts. How Jones, the Hargreaves' butler, fools the Black Hundred and save the treasure from their clutches after a desperate race for life in a power boat makes one of the most thrilling episodes of this wonderful story.

G. T. P. TELEGRAPH LINE WILL SOON OPEN FOR PUBLIC SERVICE

General Manager Morley Donaldson, of the G. T. P., while in town was interviewed by The News with regard to the opening up of the company's telegraph line for commercial use. Mr. Donaldson said that he expected the line to be completed in about three weeks. A set of wires were already strung but were required for the company's own business. Additional wires would soon be in place, however, and these would be used for a public service. The department had not gone into the question of rates, but Mr. Donaldson intimated that he would do this upon his return to headquarters. The rates charged the press over the C. P. R. is one-quarter cent per word, while the rate from Vancouver to Prince Rupert is one cent per word. It is hardly likely that the G. T. P. will quote a higher rate than the C. P. R. as they have already shown a willingness to equalize freight rates.

DAILY EDITION

Monday, Sept. 28, 1914.

It is very gratifying to the people of Prince Rupert to find the railway company so willing to meet the wishes of the city. In all the negotiations held with the officials the utmost candor and good will were shown by all concerned. This, of course, is as it should be. Prince Rupert needs the assistance of the Grand Trunk Pacific and the railway company as much needs the assistance of Prince Rupert. If this place fails to become an important center then there will be no trade for the railway. After all, there need be no sentiment in these dealings. What helps the railway helps the city and it would be a poor business concern that would not wish to take water to its own mill.

The establishing of Prince Rupert as a Coast-rate town ought to bring results right away. It will mean that the wholesale houses here can compete successfully with Vancouver both on the Coast and in the interior. The rate for interior towns will be the rate to Prince Rupert plus the rate back to said town. On Eastern goods, therefore, this city will have advantages even over Edmonton. All the trade west of Prince George therefore naturally belongs to Prince Rupert. With regard to Prince George and the territory east of there this city will have an even break with Vancouver. Who gets that trade will depend upon the progressiveness of the respective business men. It can be safely assumed, however, that Prince Rupert will get her share.

It would appear that the Australians have already covered themselves with glory in the present war. Not only have their warships scoured the sea for ships of the enemy but they have succeeded in capturing several important German possessions. When the Canadians get to the front they will no doubt also give a good account of themselves.

The German cruisers on this coast seem to have made good their escape and are hardly likely to return. Indeed, it is very doubtful if they ever were within a thousand miles of Prince Rupert. Surveyors who spent the summer on the outlying islands have never seen a sign of them.

BRUTAL GERMAN GENERAL GUILTY OF HORRID CRIME

Von Bohn and His Staff Repay Aerschot Burgomaster's Hospitality With Just and Murder.

London, Sept. 26.—The following dreadful story of German diabolism is published in The Standard and its truth is vouched for by the editor:

"One of the blackest pages in the invasion of Belgium is the sacking of Aerschot and the murder of the burgomaster and his son. I had the story from a resident of Aerschot, who is now a resident of Antwerp. He said that every word was true.

"When the German troops under General von Bohn entered Aerschot, the one idea of the burgomaster was to save his town and people from the dreadful fate of Louvain. He awaited the Germans at the entrance of the town, and to General von Bohn made offers of hospitality.

"The general was gracious enough and said that so long as everybody in the place showed the quietest demeanor, the town and the lives of those in it were safe. If not, the reprisals would be pitiless.

"The burgomaster offered the hospitality of his own house to the general and his officers, and this was also accepted.

"General von Bohn, with his chief of staff and another officer, took up their quarters under the roof of the mayor, where everything possible was done for their comfort. At night the general and his officers dined with the family, consisting of the burgomaster, his wife and three sons and a daughter.

"The meal progressed with every sign of congeniality and the conduct of the officers was perfectly respectful and normal, but toward the end of the dinner they drank very freely. They kept on drinking afterward. By the time everybody had retired to bed the three Germans were all very much the worse of drink.

"In the early hours of the morning the members of the household were aroused by a shriek from the room occupied by the daughter. The son, aroused to a frenzy, attacked the scoundrel in the room. There was a fierce struggle which ended in the son shooting the chief of staff.

"The tragedy was witnessed by most of the household, including the male and female servants, but the shot did not arouse the general and the other officer, drunkenly asleep in their beds. The terrified household had to await till morning for the announcement of the tragedy.

"The next morning the general was terribly cold in his wrath. 'The price must be paid,' he said.

"The burgomaster, his wife, son and daughter, even the servants, pleaded piteously, but General von Bohn knew his duty.

"The burgomaster, his son, and two men servants were lined up against the wall and shot.

"The carnage in the streets, with burning, hacking and stabbing followed.

PASSING EVENTS

Reports received in Rome say that desertions from the Austrian army are increasing daily, especially when regiments are near the Roumanian frontier. Thirty-five per cent of the men of the Mochlay regiments have disappeared.

It is believed in Rotterdam that the supplies of the German army are now exhausted, and the rifles carried by the Landsturm, the last reserve, are said to be of an old type. There is also said to be an insufficiency of ammunition, and there are many of the men armed with rifles taken from Belgian dead.

Dinant, a town in the province of Namur, Belgium, having a population of 8,000, has been destroyed by shell fire and incendiaryism by the German soldiery, who murdered hundreds of the leading citizens of the place on the unproved charge that civilians had fired shots into Dinant from nearby heights. Among the prominent victims was a banker and his two sons, who were murdered by the thieving soldiers because they would not surrender the cash in the safe.

When H. M. S. Glory arrived in Halifax Harbor she brought in the Spanish liner Motserat, which was bound to Cadiz from New York and had among her passengers a number of suspected German reservists. On examination sixty-eight of these were taken and sent to the military prison at Melville Island, and the Montserrat was allowed to go on her voyage.

The population of Paris and suburbs before the war was 3,400,000. According to semi-official figures it is 2,040,000 today, owing to the mobilization of the army and the departure of fugitives. The minister of public works is aiding the people to leave, and is providing free transportation in many cases.

Steamer service between Antwerp and Harwich, which has been suspended for two weeks, has been resumed. This announcement indicates that British ship owners no longer fear capture of their vessels by the Germans, and that the German fleet is safely bottled.

A Swedish-Norwegian monument of peace, erected on the Norwegian frontier, near Charlottenberg, was unveiled on August 16, in the presence of 10,000 persons, including the members of the parliaments of the two countries. The president of the Storting delivered an address, in which he expressed Norwegian satisfaction at the common neutrality of Sweden and Norway.

The proposed working agreement between the two English soap-making firms of Lever Brothers and A. & F. Pears has been approved by the shareholders of the latter. Sir Thomas Dewar said this would make no difference to the employees, and the company's publicity would continue; what had been made by advertisement must be continued by advertisement.

Baron von Horst, who for several years past has made his home in London, where he has large business interests in connection with his hop growing farms on the Pacific Coast, has been arrested on the charge of circulating a manifesto, advising the Irish not to enlist in the British army. For a number of years he has been one of the active supporters of a London contingent which devoted its attention against Andrew Carnegie and his peace plans, in the avowed belief that Mr. Carnegie was attempting to bring about a union between the United States and Great Britain. Baron von Horst attained prominence in the suffragette agitation in England by appearing many times as a bondsman for women accused of breaking the peace.

MANITOBA PROTECTS PROPERTY OWNERS

Attorney-General Introduces a Bill for a Limited Moratorium.

Winnipeg, Sept. 26.—Hon. J. H. Howden, Attorney-General, introduced in the Legislature a bill dealing with land contracts which provides that no proceedings may be taken for the sale of any land in default of payment in respect of mortgage or agreement of purchase, if such default took place before August 4, 1914, until after the lapse of six months from that date, or if default occurred after August 4, no proceedings can be taken for six months after the date of default. Any sale made in contravention of this section shall be absolutely null and void.

In all actions for foreclosure the sale period to be allowed for redemption shall be one year, and in all pending actions for such foreclosure, in which the time fixed for redemption is after July 31, 1914, the same is extended for one year from the date so fixed for redemption. Action may be brought, however, for payment of interest on unpaid principal or for taxes and unpaid insurance premiums, but if judgment is secured no certificates of judgment shall be issued until after six months has elapsed.

The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may repeal this act at any time by proclamation in the Manitoba Gazette.

PARENTS HELD THE GROOM.

Mixed Marriage Causes Trouble—Police Won't Act.

Montreal, Sept. 25.—Because Armand Grenier, a Roman Catholic, was married to Miss Aubrey, a Protestant, by Rev. Thomas E. Burke, pastor of Mountain Street Methodist Church, when the young man returned home to get his belongings, his parents, after indignantly protesting against his marriage out of his faith, detained him. Mrs. Grenier has now made an application to the police to get her husband for her, but they have advised her that they are powerless.

A Brand New Army In The War

Drawn for The Daily News by "Hop"

A HEALTH MESSAGE TO THE WORLD

The Discovery of "Fruit-a-tives" Has Brought Health and Happiness to Thousands of People all over the Dominion.

FRUIT JUICE CURES MANY SERIOUS DISEASES

"Fruit-a-tives" Is the Only Medicine Made from Fruit Juices. It is Pleasant to Take and Acts Gently on the Whole System.

Fruit Juice consists of 91% water and 9% solid material. This solid material consists of about 8 parts sugary substance and one part of an intensely bitter substance, which is the medicinal or curative principle of fruit. In order to get the full benefit of fruit in the ordinary way, one would have to eat huge quantities of fresh fruit. By the discovered process of making "fruit-a-tives", the bitter material in fruit juice is made to grow larger and thus a stronger fruit juice is created. Then, this stronger fruit extract is mixed with valuable tonics and antiseptics and made into tablets. Thus, we have concentrated and intensified fruit juices, and the practical use of Fruit as a medicine is brought within reach of all.

Like fruit juice, "Fruit-a-tives" acts on the great blood purifying organs of the body—the liver, bowels, kidneys and skin—and stimulates all these parts to renewed activity. "Fruit-a-tives" is the most powerful liver stimulant in the world, and by it the kidneys and skin are stimulated to do more work. Splendid nerve tonics and antiseptics incorporated in "Fruit-a-tives" make medicine the finest of nerve restorers, while germs in the stomach and bowels are destroyed.

"Fruit-a-tives" will cure Indigestion or Weak Digestion, Dyspepsia, Nausea, Constipation, Biliousness and Liver Trouble, Backache, Rheumatism and Rheumatic Pains, Sciatica, Lumbago, Neuralgia, Headaches and all indications of Impure Blood. Remember that "Fruit-a-tives" is the only medicine in the world that does not contain anything like "Fruit-a-tives". If you cannot get "Fruit-a-tives" in your neighborhood, we will send you a supply postpaid, on receipt of $1.00. A box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

SUBMARINE INCIDENT MAY CHANGE POLICY OF BRITISH NAVY

London, Sept. 26.—There is no attempt to deny the seriousness of the naval disaster of Tuesday, the 22nd. The German submarine torpedo section undoubtedly represents the most efficient arm of their service and it is an open secret that they depend largely on it for success in the naval war. Their submarines are known to be far more numerous than was officially admitted at the beginning of the war. Their fleet lying behind narrow entrances in mined waters rests in comparative safety, while our ships, necessarily lying in the open sea, guarding against a raid are inevitably exposed to a blow such as this.

Sir Percy Scott's June forecast, ridiculed then, is being recalled: "Submarines and aeroplanes have entirely revolutionized naval warfare. The submarine can deliver a deadly attack, even in broad daylight. If submarines find a ship, she is doomed. They give no quarter. They only wait until she sinks and then return home, without even knowing the number of human beings they have sent to the bottom of the ocean."

Count Reventlow then declared that the German submarines were all ready for service and all successfully constructed for work on the high seas and that the German submarine arm was in every respect in a state of successful progress.

Probably this submarine attack may bring about a change in naval plans. Some experts today advocate our mining the German coast to prevent German ships from emerging. This would completely reverse our former policy, which invited the German ships out. Mining is apparently supported by The Times naval expert, who says:

"If there is no other means to prevent the German submarines from operating in our waters, or in waters of which we must have control, would it not be well to mine their coast and close them in, and their fleet as well? Assuredly our seamen will take such a course with the utmost regret, for it is their great desire that they may have an opportunity of trying conclusions with the German foe."

A second possibility is that the larger vessels may be withdrawn into protected waters. This, however, would increase the possibility of a raid. A third possibility, which, it is understood, was favored by one school of naval experts, is to adopt an aggressive policy and rush the German protected water with submarines and torpedo craft and strike a drastic blow at the fleets there.

MUST MARCH INTO SHADOW OF DEATH

Incidents Like Cruiser Disaster Must Not Depress, Says Lord Rosebery.

London, Sept. 26.—"This is lamentable enough," said Lord Rosebery, when he learned of the loss of three British cruisers. "Brave ships, gallant crews, all gone from us. But these are only incidents in a war like this, where we must march into the very shadow of death. They must not depress us. We must expect them. We must press forward to our goal without a moment's hesitating in purpose and bring it to a triumphant issue."

This well expresses the general British feeling. The three cruisers were of small amount. They were fourteen years old and obsolescent, though not obsolete. In a fleet of 700 ships they will readily be replaced, but the loss of the officers and men, who were of Britain's best in courage, skill and endurance, is the hardest to bear. This disaster and the relentless, bloody struggle for mastery on the Aisne will yield one good result. Like the heavy British losses at the battles of Mons, Charleroi and Namur and the subsequent retreat, it is certain to swell the stream of recruits into a flood. Always when the war looks the toughest job, Britons come forward most readily to ensure a final victory.

The officers reported missing under date of September 17 include one Kingston College graduate, Lieut. E. J. W. Spread, of the Royal North Lancashire Regiment. The officers of H. M. S. Hogue, which was sunk by a German torpedo, include Lieut.-Com. Clive Phillips-Wooley. It is not yet known whether he is among the rescued.

IMPERIAL GUARD REPORTED ANNIHILATED.

The picture shows the crack German regiment when on review a few months ago by the Kaiser. A dispatch printed by the London News says that the regiment, under Crown Prince Frederick William, declining to surrender, was annihilated by the British and French near Paris.

NEWS NOTES ABOUT THE FAIR

Hon. Dr. Young, Provincial Secretary, will open the Exhibition at 1 o'clock sharp on Wednesday, September 30.

Children will be allowed in the Exhibition free on Thursday, October 1. Other days children will be charged 10 cents.

Excellent tea rooms are being arranged on the balcony under the auspices of the Red Cross Society. Mrs. Besner has made arrangements to accommodate a large number of people for teas and light luncheons.

There will be a smoking room and writing room reserved for members of the association at the end of the building on the ground floor. There will also be an enclosure and writing room reserved for lady members on the balcony.

There will be an information bureau and cloak room on the ground floor. Parcels, coats and umbrellas can be left, free of charge, if checked by the official in charge.

Mr. Clayton, of the cold storage has very kindly consented to lend his two little bears for the days of the Exhibition. Arrangements are being made for their accommodation in the main building before that time.
