FEARS FOR BRUSSELS LITTLE CHANGE IN SITUATION IN NORTH FRANCE

KAISER FIRED VON MOLTKE; DISAGREED OVER STRATEGY

GERMAN AND BRITISH CONTINUE TO MAKE BRILLIANT RAIDS ON ENEMY—CUT OFF IMPERIAL GUARDS FROM AMMUNITION SUPPLIES.

(Special to The Daily News.)
Paris, Oct. 6.—At the battle of the French cavalry executed a raid back of the German lines, where they blew up a railroad tunnel and escaped before their presence was discovered. British Lancers and French troops performed a brilliant exploit at another point, getting between the Imperial Guard and their artillery ammunition train by a long dashing ride. They cut off the supplies, destroying them so that the Guards' big guns were rendered temporarily useless. Lieut. Gen. Von Moltke, the head of the German general staff, was removed from office by the Kaiser owing to a disagreement over the question of strategy.

JAPANESE SQUADRON HAS TAKEN GERMAN BASE

(Special to The Daily News.)
Tokyo, Oct. 6.—The navy department has issued the following: "The Japanese squadron headed to destroy the German base on the South Sea landed blue-prints on Juliet Island, the seat of government of the Marshall Islands, which was annexed by Germany in 1886. It is believed the German base was destroyed, fortifications, arms and ammunition were seized. The British steamer was released. There was no resistance to the Japanese."

FRENCH ACCEPT CANADIAN GIFT

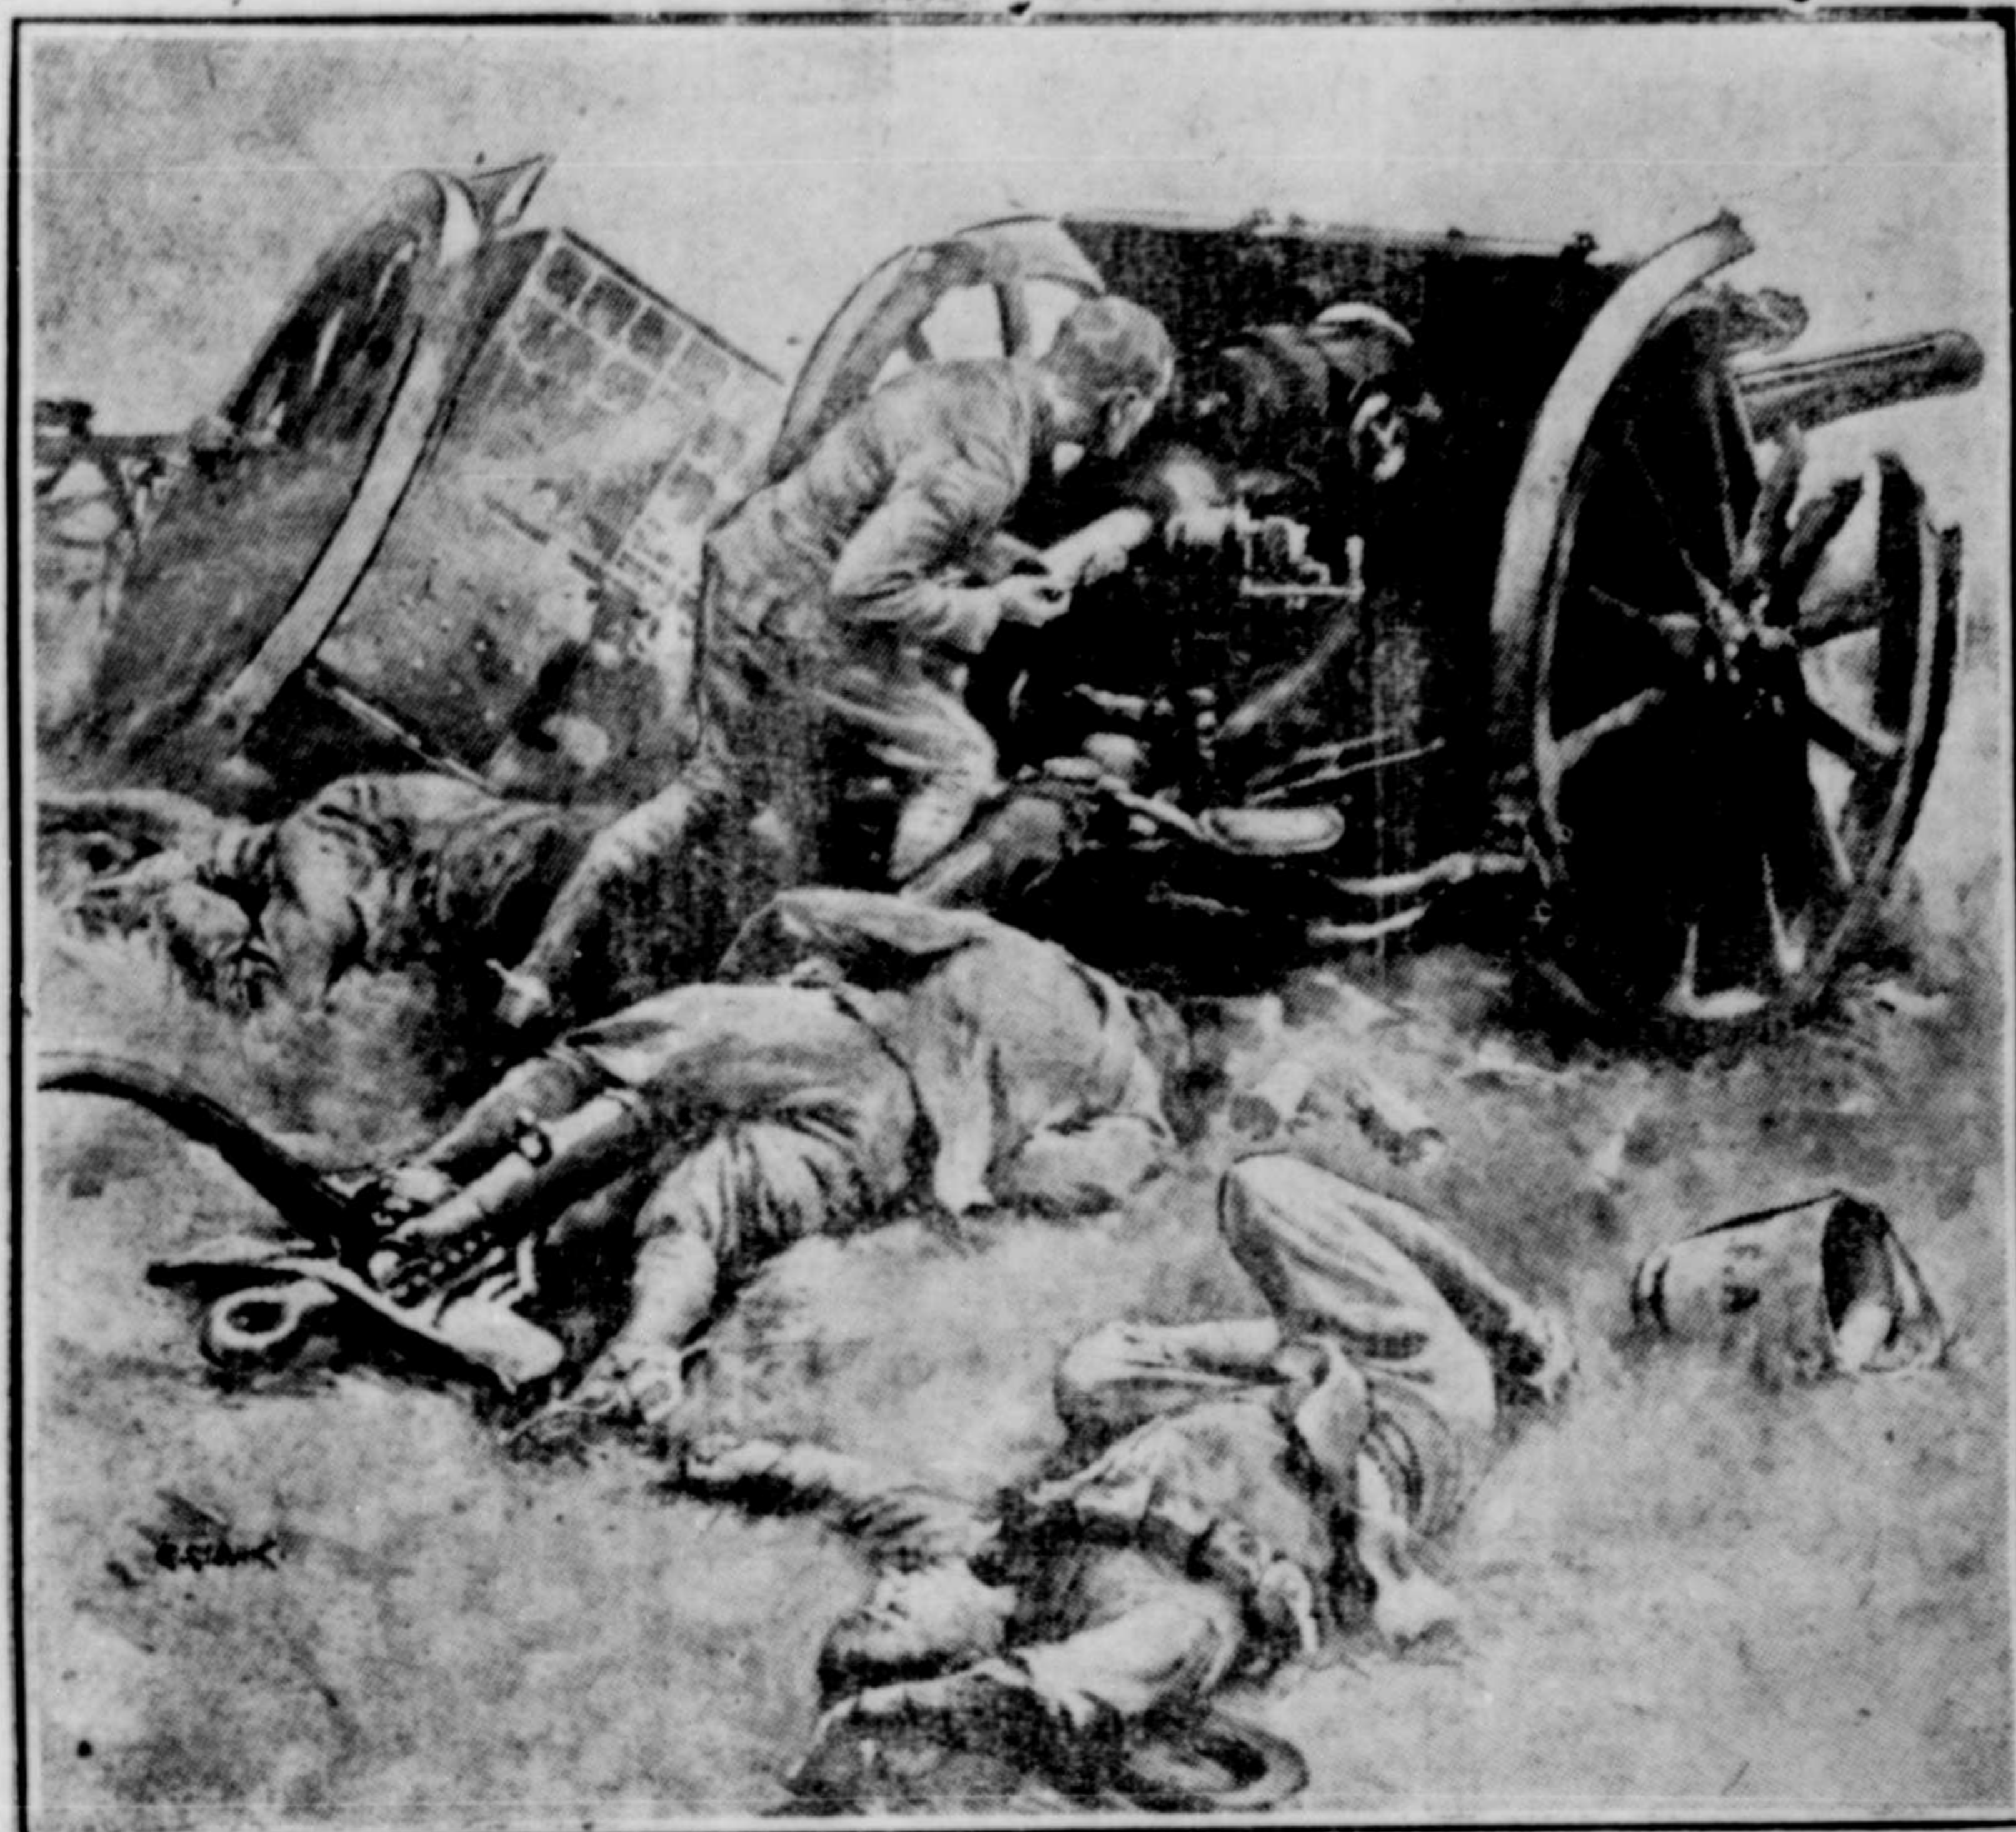

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, Oct. 6.—A Bordeaux despatch says the minister of war was authorized to accept the sum of half a million francs offered by the Canadian government for the establishment and maintenance of a Red Cross hospital in France.

HEAVY GUN FIRING IN THE NORTH SEA

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, Oct. 6.—A despatch from Amsterdam says that in news received from The Hague heavy gun firing has been heard in a westerly direction in the North Sea.

That 5th Ave. Planking.

The city solicitor reported to the Council that the portion of the replanking of Fifth avenue still undone could be undertaken by a local improvement bylaw covering the cost. About 1,380 feet are still unfinished. The city engineer has already completed some 150 feet, which must be paid for out of the general fund. It was felt that it wasn't fair that those property owners should get off while the remaining ones would have to pay for the planking still undone. Some one suggested that all the street be completed from the general fund in order to get the same advantage Sixth avenue got. In discussing the new municipal clauses the city solicitor said the fault wasn't his that this difficulty existed. "I can't make the act better or worse; I believe no one could make it worse." After a good deal of discussion it was decided that nothing be done for the present.

HOW THE ROYAL FIELD ARTILLERY FIGHT.

This picture was drawn from the description given by a special correspondent in a despatch concerning the operations of the British troops at the front. He says: "A half battery in rather an exposed position was galling the Germans by accuracy of its aim. Several batteries made an attack on it. One by one its guns were silenced. The men who had been serving them lay dead around. One man was left. He did his best. He would have gone on till he dropped, but an officer called him away. And you can bet that he was mighty sorry to go."

GERMAN PAPERS ADMIT THAT SITUATION IS DISQUIETING

GERMAN SOLDIERS FIGHTING FOR THIRTY-SEVEN DAYS WITHOUT ANY CHANCE OF REST—BAD WEATHER CAUSES SICKNESS.

(Special to The Daily News.)
Copenhagen, Oct. 6.—Vivid accounts of the fighting appear in the German newspapers which now admit that the situation is desperate. The Allegemeine Zeitung says: "The officers and men have been fighting day and night for thirty-seven days. The Germans are facing a difficult strategic situation in the mountain districts, where they are rendering superhuman services chiefly in flooded trenches under almost indescribable conditions. The strain is said to be almost unendurable. No German troops are able to retire from the fighting line for rest. Bad weather is causing much sickness."

FEARS ARE FELT FOR SAFETY OF BRUSSELS

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, Oct. 6.—News from Brussels is disquieting. All the German wounded are said to be removed from the city. Several houses, one hotel and a railway station have been already burned and provocative acts on the part of the Germans are said to be growing more common. The population is excited and may be stung to take reprisals.

CONFIDENCE EXPRESSED IN ULTIMATE SUCCESS

Paris, Oct. 6.—Critics refuse to attach any importance to the slight setback suffered by the Allies on the west wing yesterday. Confidence is still strong in the ultimate result. General Von Kluck may prolong his agony by pressing over northward, but his force seems to be utterly doomed.

MORE HEAVY FIGHTING NEAR SOMME AND OISE

(Special to The Daily News.)
Paris (French Official Bulletin) On the left wing our front is extended more and more. Between Somme and Oise there have been alternate advances and withdrawals. Near Lassigny an important attack by the enemy was repulsed. North of Soissons we have, with the co-operation of the British army, made a slight advance.

ZANARDI SENTRY SHOOTS AT BOAT

The sentry at Zanardi Rapids bridge seems bent to shoot somebody. A short time ago the "Leila" was taking a party of militia officers over there and as she approached the place in broad daylight a bullet was fired by the sentry right through the boat, passing close to the engineer's head. He apparently had called a halt without having been heard.

Last Saturday a local professional man went around the island with a party of women and children in an open boat, which anybody could see was a pleasure trip, and as they were approaching the bridge they were challenged by the sentry. At the time the boat was carried by a strong current and the engine could not possibly be stopped without danger of a collision. The soldier, however, insisted on viewing them as a body of Germans, and was with difficulty kept from shooting into their midst.

REGIMENT SHOT AWAY; MAJOR FOUGHT ON

Angouleme (via Bordeaux), Sept. 23.—The family of Major C. Dupont, of the artillery, has received news of his heroic death in a recent action. With a regiment of 700 men strong he received orders to take a position in a meadow near a town. There was a dense fog at the time, through which ominous rumblings were heard, but Major Dupont's instructions were urgent. All his men stood at their posts waiting. Suddenly the fog lifted and revealed a company of German quick firers within 1,500 yards of the French position. In a few seconds all except two officers and thirty men had fallen before the storm of shot.

BIG GAME HUNTERS HAD GOOD SUCCESS

Mr. and Mrs. Bainter have just returned from a six weeks' hunting trip to the Atlin district. The report a very successful trip and a good time. They were along with Mr. and Mrs. Mobley, who are well acquainted in that country and know exactly where to get the big game. Each of them were successful in landing a moose—real big fellows with fine antlers. Mrs. Bainter shot one all by herself and is naturally very proud of her achievement. Three of the heads are being taken to Rupert. Besides being a great hunting resort the game is easily taken out, it being possible to take a pack horse right to the spot where the game was got.

Besides large game there are millions of ptarmigan and hundreds could be shot in a day.

Mr. and Mrs. Mobley and Harry Mobley remained behind for a few days, but will be home on Saturday.

LOCAL UNEMPLOYMENT WILL BE LOOKED INTO

The question of unemployment was another question considered by the Council. The city engineer, the mayor and G. W. Kerr said they were constantly approached by people out of work and some of them badly in need. There are 140 now employed by the city and it was suggested that the work be divided up, giving a fortnight to each employee so that more had a chance. Ald. Kerr said he knew of 50 men wanting work, "and the only objection to them is that they are Canadians."

Ald. Montgomery suggested that the city burn wood instead of coal and thus give employment. Finally it was decided to pass the matter on to the board of works with the understanding that they have power to hire or fire men which they have not had this year as each foreman was given that authority.

MUST PAY FOR STREET BUT CAN'T GET IT

There is a bad muddle about the Eleventh avenue bylaw. This bylaw was consolidated with a number of others and sold to an American firm, who only paid for about $6,000 of bonds to date and there are fears that they will not come through with the balance. In the meantime Eleventh avenue property owners must pay the assessment for this bylaw as well as sinking fund and interest. It cannot be cancelled because it is consolidated with other bylaws, part of which is sold. The cost is about $70 per lot and there is no prospect of getting a street. Some of the property owners are beginning to think the Council has got them in a bad mixup.

ARCHDUKE CHARLES FRANCIS JOSEPH.

Heir to the Austrian-Hungarian throne, reported to be with the routed Austrian armies west of Przemyśl and in danger of capture. He is a grand-nephew of the Emperor and a nephew of Archduke Ferdinand, former heir, whose assassination marks the beginning of the war.

City Band Practice.

The band members met Sunday and have a membership of twenty, with an addition of ten beginners taking lessons from Mr. Hoelscher. The band will have two rehearsals per week instead of Sundays. Mr. Hoelscher has a large collection of music on the road for the band. Some of the concert numbers include the Arcadians, Lucia, Ernani, Il Traviatore, Faust, Carmen, Orpheus, Suite by Greig, Fingals Cave, Finale 4th, Symphony by Tschai-kowsky and ballet Excelsior, several light numbers besides. The band's first appearance will be a grand ball, "music" furnished by the full band. Twenty-five per cent. of the receipts to go to the patriotic fund. In connection with the band Mr. Hoelscher has organized an orchestra of five pieces, which will be heard from later on. The next band rehearsal will be announced through the papers. Placing beginners from the start in the band would hinder the men that do play from going ahead and beginners can only sit in with band for rehearsals, when the bandmaster feels they can handle their part.

KAISER'S ORDER IS NOT CARRIED OUT

London, Oct. 5.—The Times says today that it is able to give from a thoroughly trustworthy source the text of an order issued by Emperor William to his army on August 19. It follows:

"It is my royal and imperial command that you concentrate your energies for the immediate present upon one single purpose, and that is that you put forth all your skill and all the valor of my soldiers to exterminate the treacherous English and walk over Gen. French's contemptible little army."

DAILY EDITION  Tuesday, October 6, 1914.

The Canadian courts have been called upon to decide whether a man belonging to a country now at war with the Empire can become a British subject. However it will be decided it is certainly in bad taste for such an one to make the attempt. It does not appear a genuine transaction on his part. British citizenship is too honorable a thing to be given away lightly. Only the men who appreciate its value and are ready to defend it should be admitted. No doubt there are many in the hostile camp that prefer British laws, but this is a poor time to change. Let them show their loyalty first and they may be admitted later. It will not do to join the British just to prevent suspicion. It will be much better to wait till the war is over.

It is a strange fact that while the British authorities are persistent in their call for men there is a surplus in Canada which cannot get a chance to go to the front. Quite an agitation has been created in Vancouver, where the local force intended for the front has been disbanded. There are a number of men there who came from the extremes of the continent to offer their services in the war and instead of being sent to the front they are disbanded. No doubt it taxed the military authorities to equip the first contingent, but if there is such a call for men in the Old Land why not ship these Canadians over and let the British find their equipment? Canada could easily send a hundred thousand men and they are sure to be needed. Perhaps this country couldn't equip a force like that, but why not send the men anyway? The British war office will do the rest.

Canada may well feel proud of the honor which has been done the ex-minister of labor, Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King. The Carnegie Foundation has invited him to conduct an inquiry into the means of improving the relations between capital and labor throughout the world, which he has accepted. Mr. MacKenzie King is well fitted for this work. During his university course he specialized in economics and sociology and during his term in the Laurier government he has had an opportunity to try out his theories. After the defeat of the Laurier government Mr. MacKenzie King decided to continue his sociological studies, and he is today one of the best posted men throughout the world, as is seen by his recent appointment. Mr. MacKenzie King is a grandson of that Canadian patriot W. L. MacKenzie, who played a big part in the earlier life of Canada.

Shipping at the Halifax terminals is as brisk as at any time during the winter port season.

The Minister of Public Works, Manitoba, announced at a special war session of the Legislature last week that the provincial treasury is about exhausted. The surplus of five million dollars has been spent on public buildings, chiefly the new Parliament buildings now under construction.

Hon. Dr. Beland, M. P., who was in Belgium when the war broke out, and has been serving as a physician in one of the hospitals in Antwerp where the wounded are brought, has written the minister of Militia asking that he be allowed to join the Canadian Army Medical Corps when the first contingent arrives on the other side.

Sir William C. Van Horne says that industrially and commercially Canada has nothing to fear from the war. We produce food, and food will be required by the combatants in Europe, who are neglecting their grain fields to go to the battle fields. Canada prays for an early cessation of hostilities, not because she is afraid of business conditions, but because she does not want to see the world's blood spilled needlessly.

A large area of Newbury, Eng., racecourse is being prepared for German prisoners of war, and soldiers are surrounding it with tons of barbed wire.

A scheme has been inaugurated, with the approval of the War Office, for providing cinematograph entertainments for convalescent soldiers and sailors.

Switzerland has been almost financially ruined by the war, having to keep her army mobilized at an expense of $230,000 a day in order to prevent the violation of her neutrality. She has been compelled to retire the army.

One of the British officers killed in the battle of Mons was Capt. E. R. Jones, brother of A. U. Jones, Montreal agent for the Albin Motor Car Company. Captain Jones was a native of St. John, N. B., and his father was at one time mayor of that city.

The name of Mother Adrienne, head of the Dames du Sacre Coeur, who formerly was Adrinne Bubet, appears in a long list of names of those killed on the battlefield. She was struck by a bullet from a German machine gun as she was raising the head of a wounded soldier.

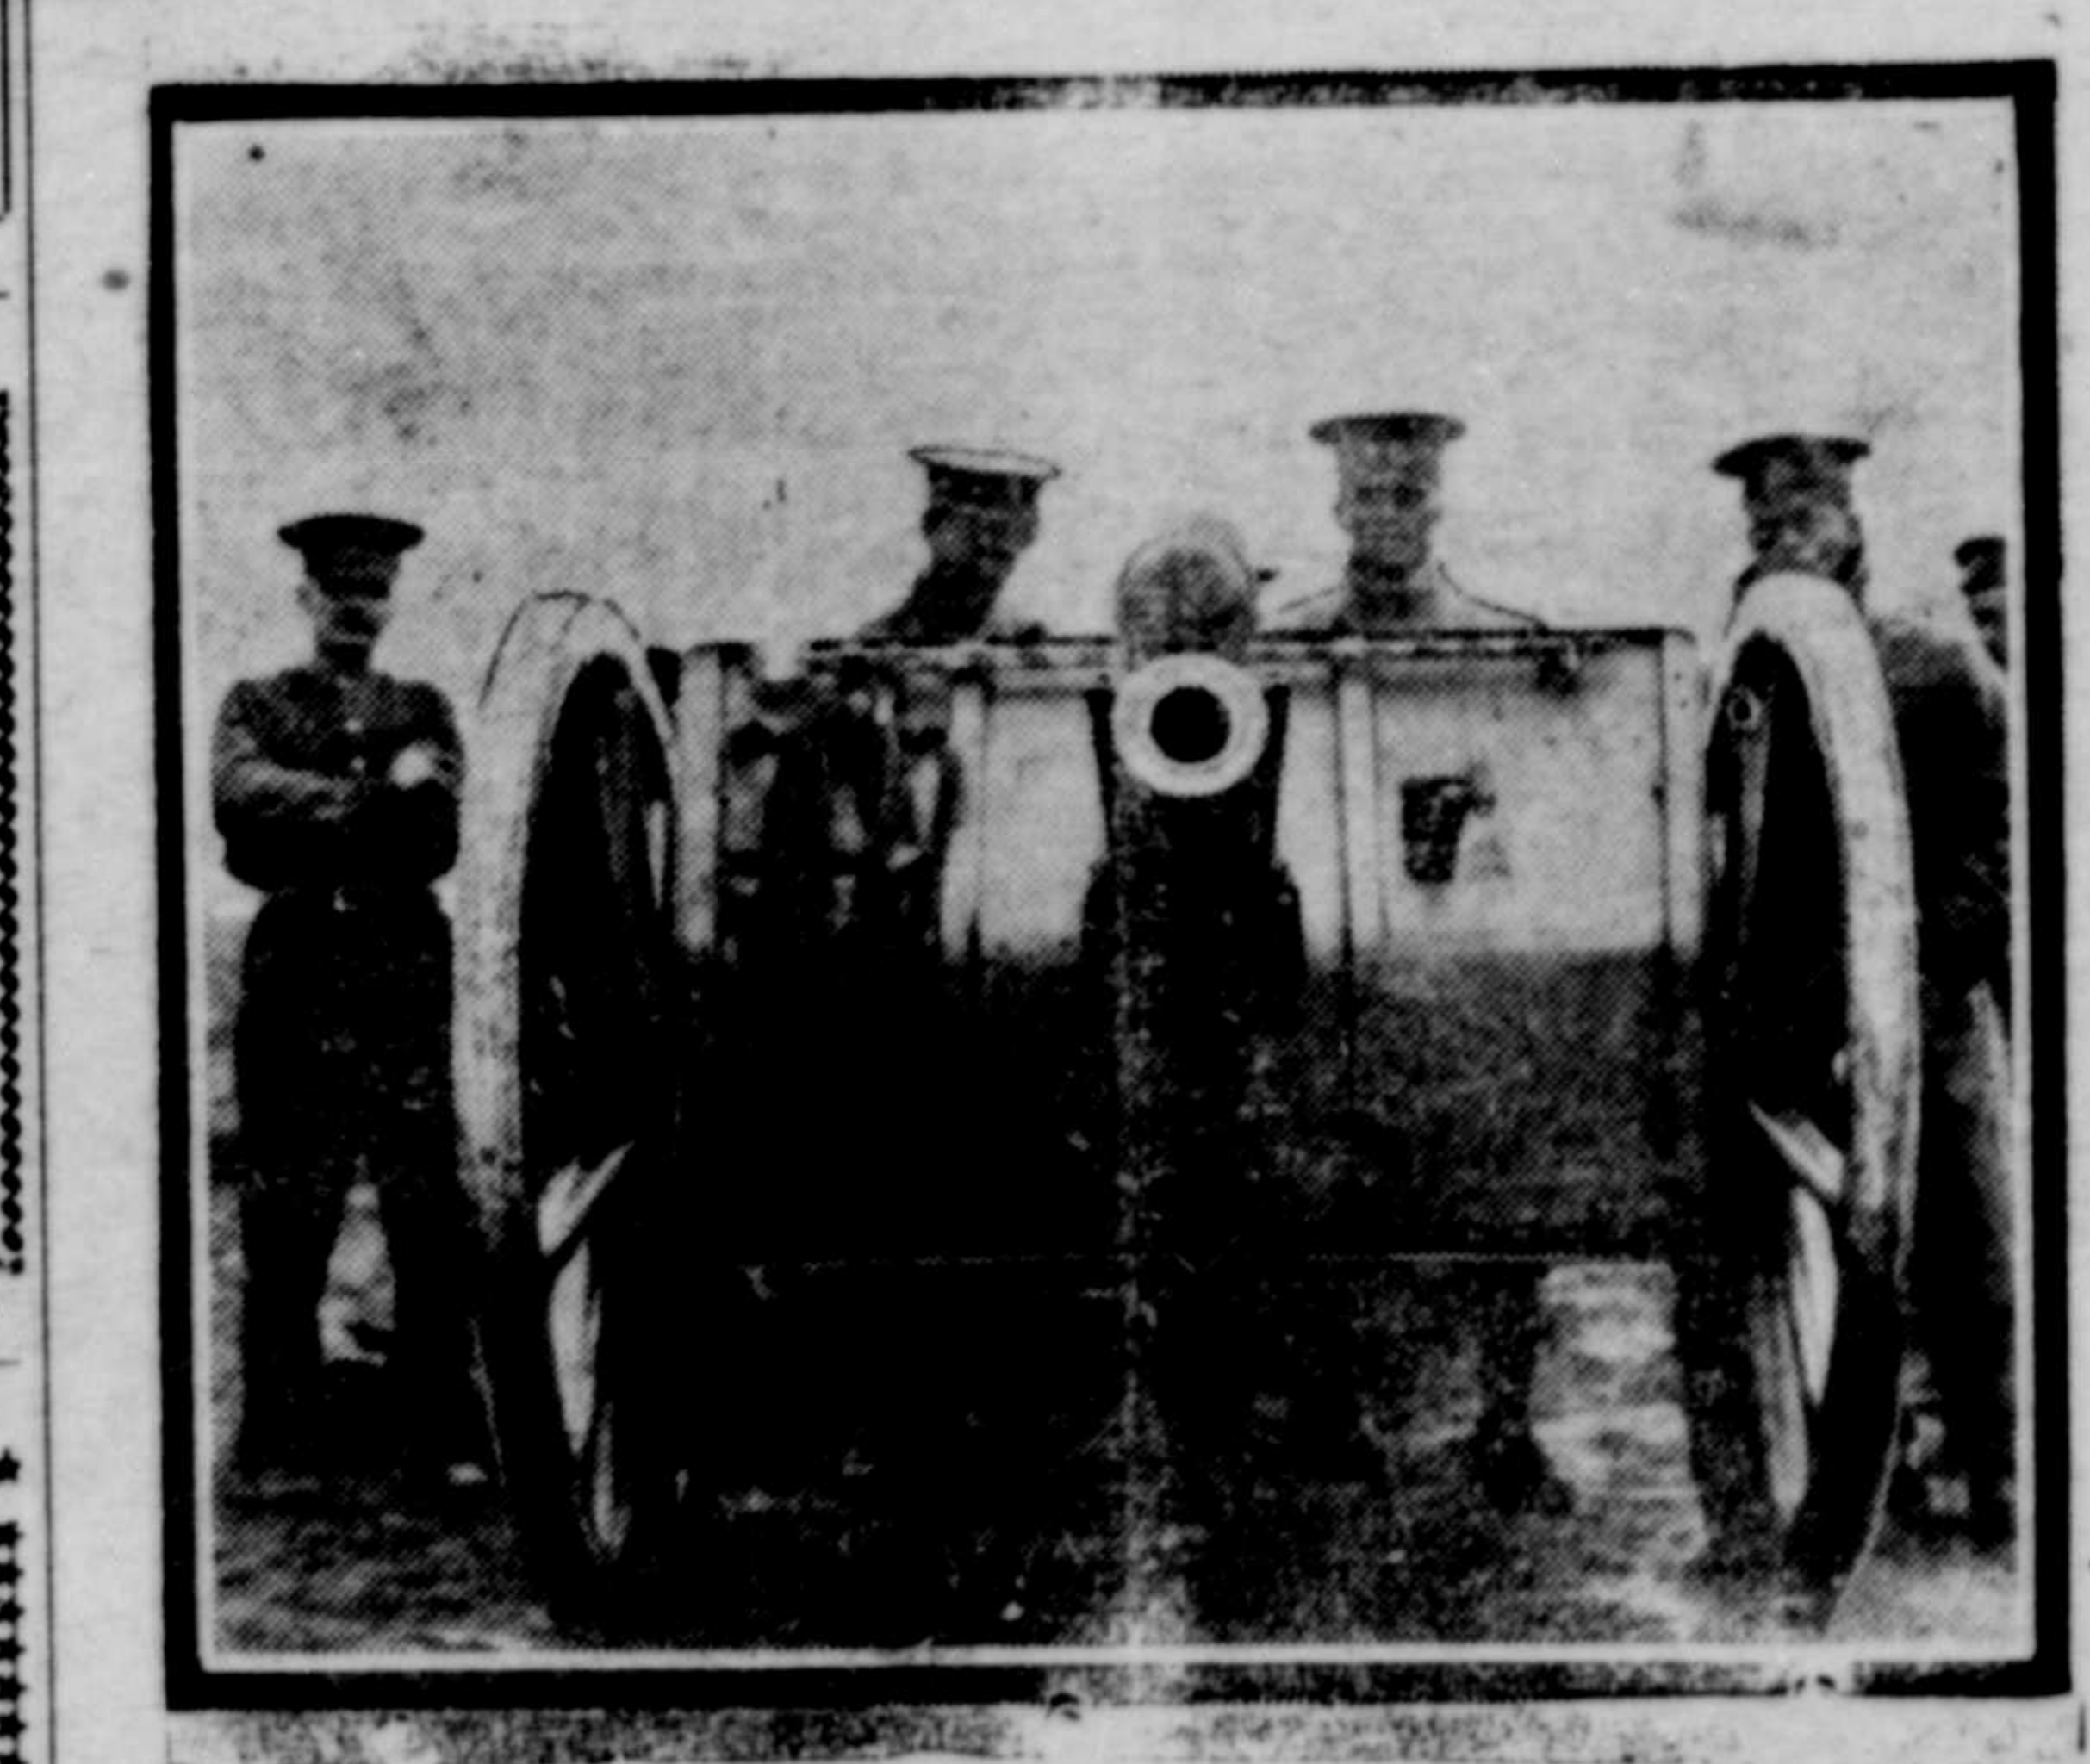

The senate of Cambridge University has invited the Catholic University of Louvain, Belgium, to move to Cambridge, there to continue its own separate studies, grant degrees and generally to pursue its activities as at its own foundation. Cambridge University would supply the technical facilities for carrying out this work.

John R. Mott, told President Wilson last week that United States battleships were needed in Turkish waters to relieve the fears of missionaries and school teachers in that country. He said his advices from Turkey show Americans there fear serious trouble. The President has taken the question under advisement.

An exchange says: "A precedent will be broken when Premier Asquith and John Redmond, the Irish leader, address recruiting meetings in Ireland; and still another when the Irish Legion, which the Nationalists are forming, light under the British flag. There have been many Irish Legions. Some of them have fought on French soil, but with one exception, never under the flag of Britain."

Vice-Admiral Koichi Fujii, who was accused of bribery in connection with the naval corruption case of last year, has been sentenced to imprisonment for a term of four years and six months. Fujii was at one time Japanese naval attaché at Berlin. He was ordered before a court-martial in February of this year. It was alleged that he received illicit commissions for influencing the allotment of Admiralty contracts in favor of a German firm.

Russia is said to be making her prisoners of war earn their living. It was reported last week that the Russians held 200,000 prisoners, who are being given labor of one kind or another, thousands being used on the railways and others helping with the harvest and helping with the plowing, while still others are lumbering and roadmaking. Many of them have been sent to Turkestan for work on the drainage system. Efforts are being made so that this influx of labor will not interfere with regular wage earners.

In Daily Fear Of Death—Until "Fruit-a-tives" Brought Relief.

CHATHAM, ONT., April 3rd. 1913.

"Some two years ago, I was a great sufferer from indigestion. One day my eye caught a billboard of "Fruit-a-tives" and I said to myself "if Fruit-a-tives will build me up like that, it is good enough for me". I bought some. After taking these wonderful tablets for only three weeks, I found myself wonderfully improved. In a short time longer, I was cured entirely. My case was no light one, either. Gas would often come up, and I was in daily pain in my stomach and I was in daily fear that it would get around my neck and kill me. "Fruit-a-tives" is the only remedy for indigestion."

DISLOYALTY OF MEMBER MEETS WITH PUNISHMENT

Board of Trade Expels Mr. T. A. Fee by Almost Unanimous Vote in Largely Attended Meeting.

Vancouver, Oct. 5.—By a vote of two hundred to two the members of the Vancouver Board of Trade decided on the expulsion of Mr. T. A. Fee from the board at a special meeting of that body held Wednesday evening. The board room was the scene of a noisy uproar, it was impossible to carry on business owing to the din.

At the opening of the meeting a resolution, moved by Mr. C. E. Tisdall, seconded by Mr. J. B. Mathers, was read calling for the expulsion of Mr. T. A. Fee, and Mr. T. W. Fletcher, seconded by Mr. Norman McLean, moved that the question be put.

Mr. Fee, who was present, was given an opportunity for a hearing, and rose to his feet with a typewritten statement in his hand which he passed to the secretary, Mr. Blair, with the remark that the light prevented him reading it himself. The communication commenced with expressions of surprise at the amount of publicity accorded the alleged traitorous and seditious utterances attributed to the writer, and attached the blame for the said publicity, so far as the board was concerned, to the president of that body.

Continuing, the statement urged closer connections with the United States, and charged that the animosity of members of the board was due to the writer's belief in this doctrine.

From this point onward the substance of the letter was lost to the members of the board because of the noise made by the meeting, and as it was absolutely impossible to hear a word the secretary was reading, Mr. Blair was compelled to stop.

After a time he resumed, but his voice was lost in the uproar, and he continued to move his lips without any audible sound until at last he motioned to the president that the missive was ended. Mr. F. C. Wade also addressed the assembly during the noise, but what he said was lost to history.

When comparative quiet was obtained, Mr. Jonathan Rogers put the motion for expulsion to a standing vote, upon which the members, with the exception of Alderman Hepburn and Alderman Cottrell, rose as one man. Some comment was occasioned by the action of the aldermen, who replied with some fervor to the remarks of their conferees.

Alderman Hepburn remarked he had come to attend a meeting and not a mob gathering, his brother alderman stating that the lines of fair play had been lost sight of in the conduct of the meeting.

Throughout the meeting the strains of "It's a Long Way to Tipperary" were mingled with the efforts of those on the platform to make themselves heard, while, as an inducement to the secretary to strain his vocal cords, cries of "Louder! Louder!" resounded throughout the room.

Following the special session, the meeting was turned into a citizens' meeting, at which the proceedings were somewhat more moderate.

At the opening of the meeting a resolution, moved by Mr. C. E. Tisdall, seconded by Mr. J. B. Mathers, was read calling for the expulsion of Mr. T. A. Fee, and Mr. T. W. Fletcher, seconded by Mr. Norman McLean, moved that the question be put.

Mr. Fee, who was present, was given an opportunity for a hearing, and rose to his feet with a typewritten statement in his hand which he passed to the secretary, Mr. Blair, with the remark that the light prevented him reading it himself. The communication commenced with expressions of surprise at the amount of publicity accorded the alleged traitorous and seditious utterances attributed to the writer, and attached the blame for the said publicity, so far as the board was concerned, to the president of that body.

Continuing, the statement urged closer connections with the United States, and charged that the animosity of members of the board was due to the writer's belief in this doctrine.

From this point onward the substance of the letter was lost to the members of the board because of the noise made by the meeting, and as it was absolutely impossible to hear a word the secretary was reading, Mr. Blair was compelled to stop.

After a time he resumed, but his voice was lost in the uproar, and he continued to move his lips without any audible sound until at last he motioned to the president that the missive was ended. Mr. F. C. Wade also addressed the assembly during the noise, but what he said was lost to history.

When comparative quiet was obtained, Mr. Jonathan Rogers put the motion for expulsion to a standing vote, upon which the members, with the exception of Alderman Hepburn and Alderman Cottrell, rose as one man. Some comment was occasioned by the action of the aldermen, who replied with some fervor to the remarks of their conferees.

VANCOUVER WILL PAY TO SEND HER TROOPS TO THE FRONT

If the Canadian Government Reneges on Promise of Second Contingent, Citizens Will Collect Fund.

Vancouver, Oct. 3.—Vancouver will itself provide the funds necessary to send demobilized soldiers to the front if the Canadian government falls down on that job. And the men who enlisted to go to the front, only to be disappointed, will not be kept back for lack of money if the movement initiated at last night's meeting held in the Board of Trade rooms is carried to a successful conclusion.

After it had disposed of the unpleasant Fee matter the Board of Trade adjourned as a board meeting and then took up the discussion of a meeting of citizens. Mr. H. O. Bell-Irving spoke briefly. He was followed by Mr. H. H. Stevens, M. P. Then Mr. Bell-Irving moved and Mr. C. E. Tisdall, M. P., seconded a resolution in effect that the Canadian government arrange for continuous training of men for overseas service, and that the citizens of Vancouver raise a fund for sending a Vancouver contingent to the front if the Canadian government fails to do its duty.

Mayor Baxter presided at the citizens' meeting. The mayor explained briefly what was being done by the relief committee in charge of the war fund at the city hall for dependents of those who had gone to the front. Mr. Bell-Irving dealt with the imperative necessity of continuous training of recruits if Canada is to keep up her reputation.

Mr. Stevens declared that the resolution was a proper one and he supported it. He had only that day telegraphed to Premier Borden, asking the Premier to take action in the matter. Mr. Stevens declared that the public had been worked up over the order for demobilization. Personally, he could not understand why such an order had been issued. Canada had offered to send to the front a large body of troops; but for years the country had faced a strong anti-military spirit.

Troops could be secured readily enough but their outfitting was a difficult matter as a result of this opposition. It was felt that money spent on military supplies was wasteful. Still the country was a unit in support of the war measures. Vancouver had sent some splendid men to the front and would send more.

Wired Resolution to Ottawa.

The motion, which follows, then carried, with instructions that a copy be telegraphed at once to Premier Borden, Ottawa:

"Whereas, in view of the loyal promises of support to the Mother Country given by both political parties in the Dominion House, in the present emergency, the repeated public announcements in the press of the intention of the government to give the Mother Country every assistance in its power in view of the orders given for the continuance of recruiting by which means numbers of excellent men were gathered from remote districts of the province, and further in view of the necessity of dealing with such men in the great emergency now on us in no niggardly or unpatriotic spirit; be it resolved that the Dominion government be respectfully requested to arrange for the continuous training of all suitable men already enlisted in British Columbia, for active service overseas, until they are required to proceed to the front, and that should such representations be unsuccessful, a fund be raised among citizens of Vancouver for the purpose of sending the men to England direct."

CITY COUNCIL BRIEFS

The City Council will visit the hydro-electric works at Shawatlans on Friday, leaving the city at 9 a. m. Angle & Co. presented a bill to the Council for $140 for plans drawn for a city sewer. This was referred to the board of works. The finance committee reported re the application of H. G. Heland for a sewer in block 31, section 1, that it be granted if the proper number of signatures be secured and some of the property holders buy the bonds. It was felt that the council could not themselves sell the bonds, which would amount to some $600.

The Council decided not to send a representative to the Union of B. C. Municipalities, which meets in Kamloops on Oct. 23rd. It had been pointed out that the municipal clauses act needed some attention and that some one should go and bring it up. The vote was four for and three against and the mayor voted against so that being a tie it was dropped. Finances were the chief objection.

MAGYAR GUARDS ARE CUT TO PIECES IN FURIOUS FIGHT

London, Oct. 3.—A despatch to the Telegraph from Petrograd says that on Sunday a spirited account of the destruction of the Hungarian Guard, a cavalry division, in the battle of Grodek, appeared in the Russko Slovo. It follows:

"A considerable force of Austrians fell on the advance guard of General Broussiloff, composed of infantry, Cossacks and light artillery. The plan of the enemy was clear; he hoped to shatter our advance guard and then break through our centre. Our infantry and artillery had strongly entrenched themselves and in reserve were several Cossack detachments.

"At first the Austrian infantry moved out for the attack. It was met with a deadly fire of cannon and machine guns and wavered and fell back. "Then the cavalry was sent out. The flower of the Austro-Hungarian army, the Budapest Guard division, formed of Magyars, bright jacketed Hungarians, galloped furiously down in close order. It appeared as if nothing could arrest their impetuous course, not even the awful shrapnel fire of the artillery, which brought death and destruction to their ranks, nor even the rain of bullets from machine guns.

"The Magyars did not hesitate for a moment, but continued to charge at our trenches. One more minute and it seemed as if nothing could be left of our infantry.

"All at once the thud of hoofs and the clatter of steel were heard and the Magyars were met by a whirlwind of Cossacks. For two hours the Austrian and Russian infantry watched with beating hearts the scene of terrible carnage.

"At the end of this time of the fine Budapest Guard division not one man was left and the whole field was strewn with the enemy's corpses, severed heads, hands and legs and dead horses.

"The commander of the division, General Frohreich, could not stand the disgrace of defeat and shot himself on the battlefield. As was afterward explained he had promised to bring to the Austrian Emperor, on the latter's birthday, news of the complete destruction of the Russian army. By throwing his division upon the Russians the Austrian general was fully convinced that next day he would be able to announce to the Emperor the promised victory.

"Before the battle the Magyars were ordered to don their parade uniforms."

Applicant—"I've never counted, but the day my wife found in my pockets some letters I'd forgotten to post for her, I took down every word she uttered as fast as she said them." Business Man—"You'll do."

BELGIAN IMMIGRANTS FOR NORTHERN B. C.

Large Colonization Schemes Being Worked Out to Settle European Soldiers in This District.

Many are the speculations as to the result of immigration from that part of Europe which is now the centre of the war. It is certain that a great majority of the population in those countries will have to face the task of starting all over again, as their homes and farms will be wiped out by the devastation of the war.

"That the colonization companies of Canada are alive to this opportunity is borne out by the fact that several agents are now busy in the European countries telling of the possibilities of this province.

C. E. Jenney, general agent in the passenger department of the Grand Trunk Pacific, with headquarters at Vancouver, has received word that Charles Paget, whom the railway company sent to Rotterdam to spread the gospel of Northern British Columbia, has arrived at his destination and was busy with the work of inducing Holland and Belgium immigration to this district.

These people are known to be good farmers and very thrifty people, and will be a great factor in opening up the agricultural possibilities of this section of the province.

Mr. Jenney says that Mr. Paget is working on a scheme to settle a large tract in the Stuart River district with Belgian soldiers and their families, and that he is meeting with success. He expects that after the war is over a large colony will be placed on the land here, as well as in many other valleys along the line of the Grand Trunk Pacific in Northern British Columbia.
