ALLIES REINFORCED

ZEPPELIN PLANTS NOW WORKING NIGHT AND DAY

ALLIES OUTNUMBER GERMANS CAN ALLOW REST TO TROOPS

GERMANS AT THE SAME TIME MUST REMAIN CONSTANTLY IN THE TRENCHES—NEW GERMAN FORCE COMING TO PREVENT FLANKING MOVEMENT.

(Special to The Daily News—11 A. M.) London, Oct. 7.—The most important development of the fighting in France is reported to be a movement of a German force 20,000 strong southward through Belgium toward the French border. This is probably intended to prevent further extension of the Allies' turning movement. The fighting along the Meuse and the Aisne has developed into a gigantic sniping engagement with artillery. Both sides are so well entrenched that the casualties are few. The Allies are well content to play the waiting game. They outnumber the Germans now and can give their men rest, while the Germans are compelled to remain in the trenches constantly.

ZEPPELIN PLANS AIRSHIP RAID ON BRITAIN SHORTLY

PLANTS ARE WORKING NIGHT AND DAY WITH THAT END IN VIEW—COUNT WILL BE MADE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF OF AIR FLEET IF HE RETURNS FROM BRITAIN.

(Special to The Daily News—11 A. M.) Hague, Oct. 7.—German newspapers reaching here tell Count Zeppelin is at Wilhelmshaven, where the Zeppelin plants are working day and night, presumably preparing for a raid on England. Count Zeppelin is quoted as saying in an interview that he had not forgotten Britain and would prove it soon. The Kaiser offered to make Zeppelin commander-in-chief of the air fleet. The Count said he would accept it on return from Britain.

FRENCH GOVERNMENT WILL RETURN TO PARIS SHORTLY

AFTER SHORT STAY IN BORDEAUX GOVERNMENT AGAIN TO RETURN TO THE GAY CITY—NO FEARS FOR GERMAN INVASION.

(Special to The Daily News.) London, Oct. 7.—The French government will return to Paris Wednesday or Thursday, according to a correspondent, who makes the announcement on high authority. A report received from Peking says the British and Japanese are continuing their vigorous attack on the German possession at Kiao Chau. The German troops are stated to have withdrawn on Tsing Tau itself. It was added that the British and Japanese troops are preparing for a decisive advance.

CZAR BECOMES LIBERATOR; JEWS MAY BECOME OFFICERS

MEASURE OF REFORM WILL ALSO INCLUDE FINNS—FRENCH NAVY HAS MINED ADRIATIC ON AUSTRIAN COAST.

(Special to The Daily News.) Paris, Oct. 7.—Following the admission of Jewish officers into the army and navy the Czar is about to annul other important restrictions against the Jewish community, giving them equal rights with other Russians. A liberal measure on behalf of the Finns is also prepared. The French have mined the Adriatic in a zone which comprises all the Austrian waters. Great Britain prohibited the exportation of raw wool.

RUSSIAN SUCCESSES ARE STILL CONTINUED

(Special to The Daily News.) Petrograd, Oct. 6 (5 p. m.)—Official bulletin.—The Russian offensive campaign continues. The fortified positions of the enemy on the frontier are under a heavy artillery fire. The enemy has received reinforcements from the garrison at Koenigsburg. There is particularly desperate fighting in the vicinity of Baka. The Germans were forced to evacuate strong positions between Wierzboop and

RUSSIANS IN FORCE INVADING HUNGARY

(Special to The Daily News.) Rome, Oct. 7.—A despatch from Budapest says the Russians are invading Hungary with the intention of effecting a junction with the Servians. They are advancing in two columns, one making the assault on Rossezemhon, in Northwest Hungary, and the other rapidly descending the Valley of Nagayyan against Haszl, in the province of Karmarow. An epidemic of dysentery has broken out among the Austrian troops.

FRENCH PRESIDENT CONGRATULATES BRITISH KING GEORGE REPLIES

(Special to The Daily News.) London, Oct. 7.—King George has received a message from President Poincare of France congratulating the British army on the work in France, to which King George graciously replied. The French President has just returned from a visit to the front and no doubt saw at first hand the efficiency of the British army.

CHOLERA IN GALATIA MAY AFFECT RUSSIANS

(Special to The Daily News—11 A. M.) London, Oct. 7.—A Vienna despatch announces the outbreak of Asiatic cholera in a most violent form at Tarnov, in Galicia. A Rome despatch says the German authorities admit the total loss to date are 300,000 men.

Killed by Uhlans.

(Special to The Daily News—11 A. M.) London, Oct. 7.—Hon. Geoffrey Pearson, the third son of Lord Cowdray, was killed by Uhlans while acting as a motorcycle despatch rider in France.

FIRST FISH TRAIN MAKES FAST SPEED

The G. T. P. is already accomplishing all that its advocates claimed for it in the early days in the way of a quick route to the east. The cars of fish that left here Wednesday last at 10 a. m. were landed in Chicago at 5 p. m. the following Sunday, a little more than four days. This, too, with a new track that still needs a little ballasting. When everything is in first class running order this time will be cut down more still.

GERMAN ATTACK ON ANTWERP SLACKENS

(Special to The Daily News.) London, Oct. 6 (5 p. m.)—News received here today indicates that the German attack on Antwerp is slackening.

GERMANS HAVE SHOT THEIR BOLT; IT HAS BEEN IN VAIN

ALL THEIR AVAILABLE MEN IN THE FIGHT, AND THE ALLIES HAVE BEEN SUCCESSFUL—AGED SOLDIERS USED IN THE FINAL EFFORT—BELGIANS HOLDING THEM OFF.

London, Oct. 5.—Everything promises well for the Allies in Northern France. The Germans have flung their last strategic reserves into the fighting line. Their total available force along a 150 mile front probably does not exceed eighteen army corps, six hundred thousand combatants, with four hundred thousand holding the lines of communication. Many of these troops are comparatively elderly men, a second band of the Landsturm, having been called to the front to replace the enormous losses. These seniors, as former experience has proved, lack the dash and impetuosity of other soldiers, although they are stubborn defensive fighters. The Germans are suffering severely from lack of food, some sections going for days together with almost nothing to eat. The German staff made titanic efforts to reinforce the lines, but the serious situation on the Russian side absorbs their major forces. They are doing everything that desperation of courage can devise to retrieve the situation. They have apparently only the older troops in Central Belgium. After ten days of almost continuous fighting around Termonde they have not succeeded in making any substantial advance, the Belgian army successfully holding them and inflicting substantial punishment. Battles are never certain until finished, but this battle today gives good grounds for high hopes. The Germans have prepared exceedingly strong lines of retreat. They hold entrenched positions with tremendous obstinacy.

GERMANS DESTROYING BRIDGES AND STATIONS NEAR TSING TAU

(Special to The Daily News.) Peking, Oct. 6 (5 p. m.)—Information from a reliable source says that last night the Germans ordered the destruction of all railroad bridges and stations still under control on the line through Shantung province. The British battleship Triumph has participated in the bombardment of Tsing Tau.

RUSSIANS ENJOYING KAISER'S ESTATE

London, Oct. 5.—A letter received here from a Russian officer who is camping on the estate of Emperor William, at Rominten, East Prussia, says: "William's estate is magnificently equipped and we have everything at our disposal we could wish. We are enjoying particularly delicious dinners prepared by his fine cooks. His parks swarm with wild animals and birds. We are teaching his parrots the Russian language, and they are learning to address their imperial master with compliments I should blush to repeat in company."

As a result she is to the good two new coats of paint, for she has just received another coat to cover up the colors of the Red Cross Society. LOCAL RESIDENCE BURNED TO GROUND

A fire occurred last evening at about 8 o'clock on Ninth avenue which resulted in practically the complete loss of the home and contents of Sam Calkins. At the time of the outbreak both Mr. and Mrs. Calkins were absent. They had gone down town and it is supposed the fire started from the stove. W. Adams, police officer, who lives a little distance away, saw the flames, but not until the building was practically doomed. He rang in to the fire department but it was too late to save the building. The department got on the ground as quickly as possible, but it is necessary at that point to carry the hose about three blocks, which somewhat retarded the work of fighting the flames. When the department got the water playing on it the fire was soon extinguished, but while the frame of the building stands it is practically useless. Mr. Calkins carried some insurance, but not sufficient to cover the loss.

Funeral Services.

A funeral service was held over the remains of the late L. J. Hoyt yesterday afternoon, Rev. W. W. Wright officiating. A large number of friends and acquaintances of the deceased turned out to pay the last respects. There was also a profusion of flowers, which showed the esteem in which Mr. Hoyt was held by his many friends.

Basket Ball Results.

The Men's Own basket ball team met defeat at the hands of the fast Catholic Club team last night at the Auditorium by the score of 22 goals to 4. The lineup was as follows: Men's Own—Davis, Barrie, Weston, Davis and Shiruball. The C. C.'s—Ed. Murphy, Fortin, J. Murphy, Astorid and Greenwell. The C. C.'s accepted the challenge hurled at them by the Tigers, who have held the championship of the city for the past two years. The game is to be played next Tuesday, October 13th.

DAILY EDITION  Wednesday, Oct. 7, 1914.

The New York papers are not slow to express themselves on the actions of the Germans in destroying Rheims with all its treasures of art. It is denounced as vandalism of the barbaric kind. They take this stand, too, in spite of the active campaign of the German ambassador to excuse the act. Germany is certainly building up a reputation for herself that it will be hard to get rid of.

The response to the call for recruits has been nobly answered throughout the Empire and in the old land. In years past many military authorities have urged the war office to adopt some scheme of conscription. These authorities have repeatedly voiced their fears that when the crucial moment came the British army would be inadequate. We see now how gloriously their fears have been set at rest.

From every corner of the Empire men and money have poured in. Surely the last word has been said on the question of British conscription. Britons have nobly justified their right to the freedom of choice as regards service to their country. The crisis has come and the men with it, and such men. How can we compare men who are willing to travel across Canada in box cars and across the Atlantic in "any old tub" just to serve their king and country with men who are forced to fight?

It is early yet to talk of peace, but the events of the past few days point fairly definitely to a satisfactory ending to the war from the viewpoint of the Allies. It may, and probably will, take a year to complete what has been begun in the Aisne district and it seems tolerably certain that a treaty of peace will be signed in Berlin. It will be unlike any such treaty that has ever been signed. Just as this is the war of wars, so will it be the treaty of treaties. The round table conference will be attended by representatives of the nations of the world. In the past Russia would sign a treaty with Germany, Germany with Britain and France and all individually with Belgium and Italy and so on.

It can be safely predicted that the treaty which should cover international relationships for the next century will be one comprehensive agreement as to armaments, territorial demarcations, etc., signed, not only by the belligerents, but by the nations of the world.

BUSINESS MEN'S EXCURSION FROM EAST

After negotiating with the G. T. P. for nearly a year, the Edmonton Board of Trade has been advised that the company is now in a position to handle the proposed trip to Fort George and Prince Rupert and return, which it had been expected it would have been practicable to arrange to take place about midsummer to inaugurate the opening of this through service on the G. T. P. to the coast. The long delay and altered business conditions have materially affected the plans of many of those who were formerly anxious to go, and a new canvass of those likely to be interested is being made by a committee of the board of trade. The committee has the matter in hand, and it is expected that those interested can be advised definitely during the present week.

PASSING EVENTS

Mr. Asquith, speaking at Edinburgh, at a recruiting meeting on September 18th, said one of the roots of the present war was the grave and serious miscalculation regarding the British Empire that German culture and German spirit led Emperor William and the German people into. The Germans were under the mistaken belief that the British colonies wanted to cut connection with the Mother Country, and that India was in revolt. "What a fantastic dream and what a rude awakening," exclaimed the premier. As it has been proved that Germany by her own deliberate act made war, it is in the interest not only of the British Empire, but of civilization, that the arrogant claim of a single power to dominate the destinies and development of Europe should be resisted.

The report of Sir Maurice de Bunsen, late British ambassador to Vienna, just published in the form of a white paper by the foreign office in London, shows that Austria and Russia had about reached an agreement on the Austro-Serbian dispute when their conversations were cut short by the transfer of the dispute to the more dangerous ground of a direct conflict between Germany and Russia. Austria had practically consented to submit to mediation the points in the note to Serbia which seemed incompatible with the maintenance of Serbian independence, when Germany intervened on July 31 by means of her double ultimatum to St. Petersburg and Paris. These ultimatums were of a kind which only one reply was possible and Germany declared war on Russia, August 1, and on France, August 3. A few days' delay might, in all probability, have saved Europe from one of the greatest calamities in history.

All accounts received in Paris agree that the famous Prussian Guard Corps, the elite of the empire and the especial pride of the German Emperor, were practically blotted out from the battles which have been waged along the Meuse, Marne and Aisne rivers.

Roumania, according to Rome despatches, has been greatly impressed by the Russian victories in Austria, and has practically decided to join the Allies. She has also been tempted by an offer of Transylvania, which runs south and west of Roumania, and is separated from that country by the Carpathian mountains. The Czar recently declared that Russia would not seize any territory as a result of the war, but that there would be readjustments of the map according to racial affiliations. Transylvania, which is an integral part of Hungary, has a population of 2,500,000, of whom 2,400,000 are Roumanians.

Among those wounded in the battles now going on in France was Prince Friedrich Karl of Hesse, brother-in-law of the Kaiser.

Lord Kitchener in a vigorous speech in the House of Lords on September 17 again urged the necessity of developing armed forces to carry on and bring the mighty conflict to a successful conclusion. There were already in France, he said, rather more than six divisions of British troops and cavalry, which were being maintained at their full strength. Further, regular divisions and additional cavalry were being organized from units drawn from overseas garrisons, which were now being occupied by territorials and volunteers. A division of territorials already had left for Egypt, a brigade had gone to Malta, and a garrison force to Gibraltar. Referring to the two new armies, Lord Kitchener said that new divisions were now being called at the training quarters. The third army was being formed on the new camping ground and the fourth army was being created. Meantime, Indian divisions were on their way.

Swiss military officers are alleged to be in possession of German official documents which show that the Kaiser planned to violate Swiss territory, just as he did Belgium. The intended movement through Switzerland, which would have put the Germans on the other side of the fortress at Belfort, was made impossible by the speedy Swiss mobilization, which was effected in less than two days.

Charged with being a spy, the well known Russian, General Baron Nicholas Kaubars, is reported to have been executed at Odessa. Kaubars fought in the Russo-Japanese war. At Mukden he commanded the Third army, whose defeat by General Nogai threatened the envelopment of the Russian forces, and decided the outcome of the battle.

In Daily Fear Of Death—Until "Fruit-a-lives" Brought Relief.

CHATHAM, ONT., April 3rd, 1913.

"Some two years ago, I was a great sufferer from indigestion. One day my eye caught a billboard of "Fruit-a-lives" and I said to myself "if Fruit-a-lives will build me up like that, it is good enough for me". I bought some. After taking these wonderful tablets for only three weeks I found myself wonderfully improved. In a short time longer, I was cured myself entirely. My case was no light one, either, Gas would often form in my stomach and I was in daily fear that it would get around my heart and kill me. "Fruit-a-lives" is the only remedy for indigestion".

THE MILITARY SITUATION IN NORTHEASTERN FRANCE.

On this map will be found the location of the hostile lines in France. The Germans are attempting a turning movement and have occupied Douai and Cambrai on the northwest with a view to a flanking move. The Germans are trying hard to reduce forts along the Meuse south of Verdun.

PLOT TO MINE HARBOR FAILS

1,000 German Marines and Explosives Captured at Guernsey, England.

New York, Oct. 5.—An unsuccessful attempt to mine the harbor at Guernsey, England, said to have been made by a disguised German cruiser, which had on board one thousand German marines and enough explosive to blow up a dozen warships, was reported today by Miss Margaret Daniels, a missionary of the Baptist Foreign Missionary Society, upon her arrival aboard the French liner Espagne, from Havre.

The vessel, according to Miss Daniels, was disguised as a Dutch merchantman. The Dutch flag flying at the topmast aroused the suspicion of the British authorities, who had made arrangements with the Dutch that all their vessels entering English ports should fly the Dutch flag at half mast. The ship was accordingly surrounded by torpedo boats and a search revealed 1,000 German marines hidden below decks. The marines were arrested and sent to a detention camp.

SCOTLAND LEADS IN RECRUIT PERCENTAGE

Figures Printed in England—Isle of Man Gives $50,000 to the War Fund.

London, Oct. 5.—The Manx legislative council and House of Keys met together in Tynwald and unanimously decided to ask the Imperial government to accept $50,000 as a contribution from the Isle of Man toward expenses of war. Members supporting the resolution said that the gift was only an earnest of the readiness of the fifty thousand people of the island to sacrifice all their resources in support of Great Britain at this juncture.

Figures showing the percentage of recruits enlisted in England, Scotland, Ireland and Wales as obtained from the director of recruiting and published in the Liverpool Courier make Scotland appear as the most generous contributor of men. The approximate total number of men raised from August 4 to September 15 was 501,580, the percentage of recruits to the total male population being given as follows:

Country	Recruits.	Pct.
England	396,731	2.41
Scotland	64,444	2.79
Ireland	20,419	.93
Wales	19,966	1.94

Special legislation called for on account of the war has run up to a total of forty emergency acts of parliament passed since hostilities began on August 4.

SEAL UP GERMANY FROM FOOD SUPPLY

Britain Begins to Think The Navy Should Begin to Get Busy.

London, Oct. 5.—The long drawn-out, fiercely contested fighting in Northern France is bringing home to Englishmen the terribly serious nature of the present war, as shown by the presence of Kitchener, when at an early stage of the conflict he declared that England must prepare to put a million men in the field by next spring. Events have disproved the pet German doctrine that modern war would be bound to be short under modern conditions if Germany was only to put enough men in the field, for after eight weeks of war Germany has still failed to gain any perceptible permanent advantage.

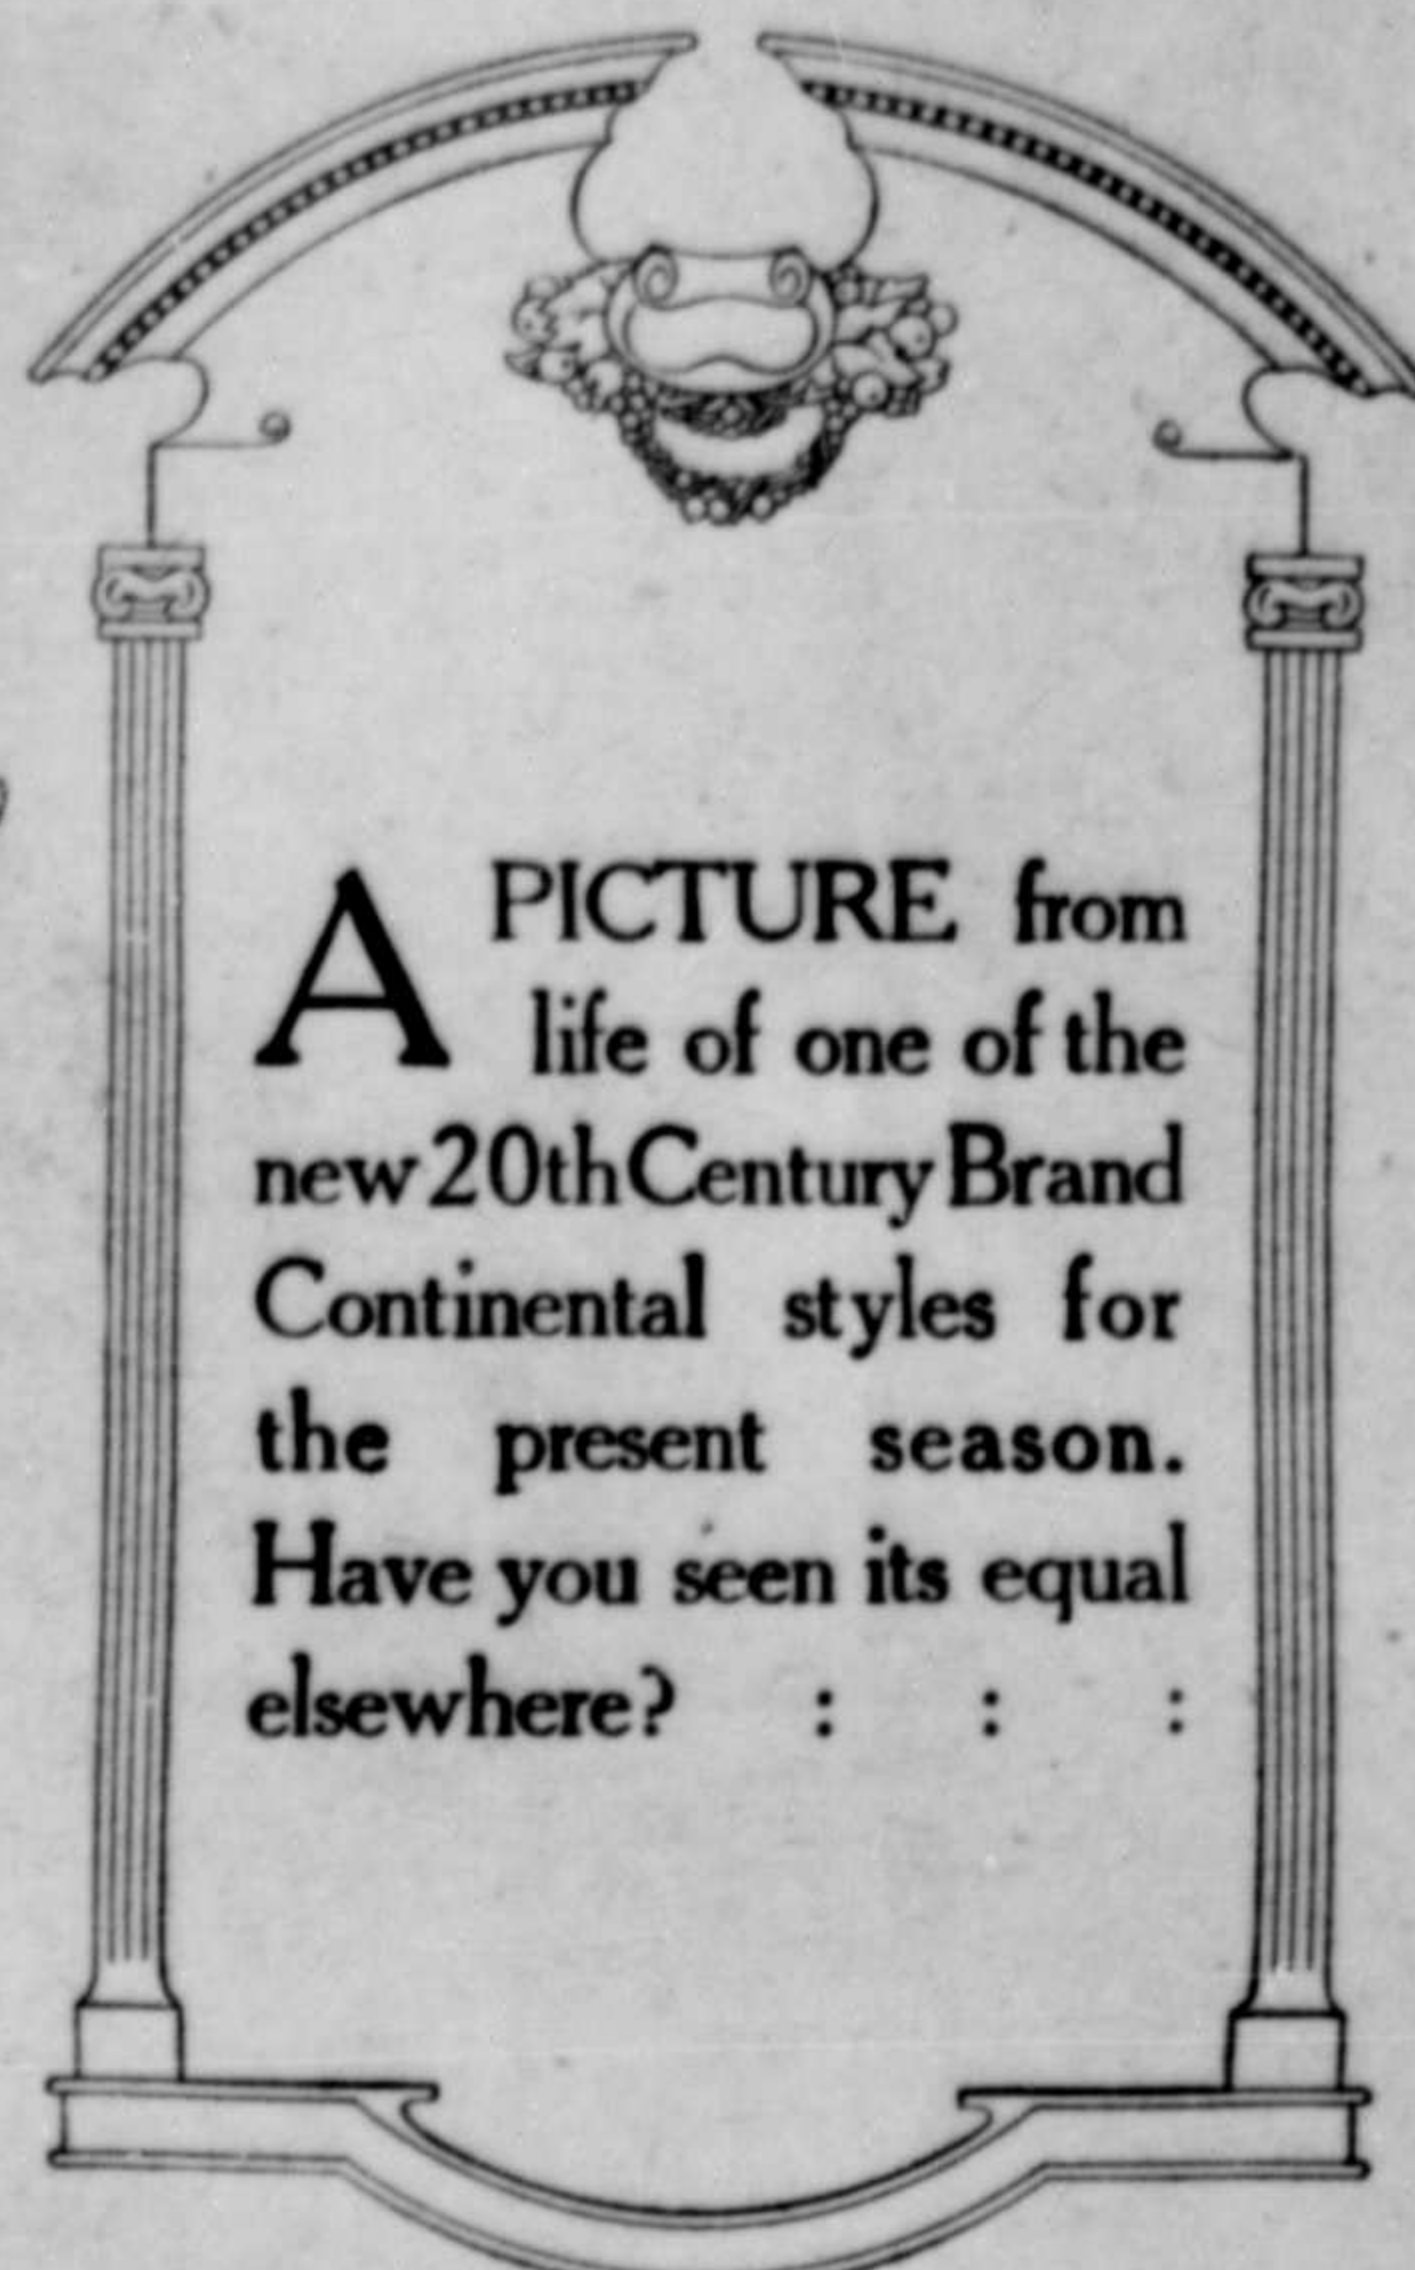

But the astonishing tenacity of the Germans, even in retreat, compels English admiration and forbids the notion that Kitchener's million and more men, and all that Canada and the other dominions will be able to send, will not be wanted before peace is declared in Berlin. Moreover, the tragic success of Germany's submarine tactics in the North Sea is giving new urgency to Churchill's declaration that if the German navy will not come out to fight it must be dug out like rats from a hole. This could be done forthwith by mining Germany into her own ports.

Neutral nations would be warned that as Germany had resorted to indiscriminate mine laying, contrary to our wishes, are bound for our own and general security to seal up the German rats in their own holes and close the southern area of the North Sea to all shipping. At a later stage of the war by a combined movement ashore and afloat the Allies would dig out the fleet and annihilate it. Discussing this suggestion, the Daily Telegraph says: "By this policy we should prevent the German fleet putting to sea at its selected moment. We should spare a great deal of wear and tear at the expense of our officers and men and we should shut off supplies which may be reaching Germany through neutral ports. In good time our selected moment would arrive, probably when the military situation had developed on the continent to our advantage."

ESSINGTON MAN MUST STAY IN JAIL

Chief Justice Hunter Declines to Interfere with W. W. Slagle's Sentence.

Vancouver, Oct. 6.—W. W. Slagle, a blacksmith of Port Essington, must serve out the sentence of six months' imprisonment passed upon him by Dr. R. W. Large, J. P., recently for selling liquor without a license. Slagle's proceedings to have the conviction quashed by way of certiorari fell to the ground. "I see no reason why I should interfere with the sentence of the magistrate," decided Chief Justice Hunter.

Mr. C. W. Craig, for Slagle, argued that the evidence all went to show that the liquor had been sold by Mrs. Slagle while her husband was away from the room. "One piece of evidence is evidently a stenographer's error. A witness named Johnson is made to say that he bought a bottle of whisky and drank it at Slagle's, while what he obviously meant to say and probably did say is that he 'brought' a bottle of whisky to the place, etc."

Counsel made progress with his case until Chief Justice Hunter decided to read the evidence for himself. "Why, this must have been a regular drinking resort," said the judge. "The witnesses say that liquor was found in bottles in a cupboard in the kitchen, and the evidence shows that the kitchen floor was littered with 'dead-soldiers.' I notice a lot of defence witnesses say they had brought bottles to the place. Seems to have been a resort for drinking on a wholesale scale. This woman, I see, sold the informant a glass of whisky for 50 cents in a bedroom and her husband brought the liquor upstairs. That shows agency on the part of the woman. It also shows the character of the place. The application is refused."

Mr. W. M. McKay appeared for the crown. Slagle filed a bond of $100 before the hearing to cover crown costs in order to get the case heard. This was impounded, as the rule that the crown neither gives nor takes costs does not apply to certiorari proceedings.

Frank A. Brown was in town several days last week. He has spent the summer at Goat Creek mining interests. At Goat Creek he has been sampling what he believes is a big porphyry dike of copper ore of a good grade. He went back to the creek last Saturday night, and on the trip was accompanied by Al Harris.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. G. H. Sawle entertained at bridge in honor of Mrs. D. McLeod, who left on Thursday morning for Vancouver and other cities in the south, where she will remain for several months. A large number of ladies were present and took advantage of the opportunity to say farewell to Mrs. McLeod, who has always taken a leading part in anything that was for the social betterment of the town.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. G. O. Graham and Mrs. I. Anger entertained the ladies of town to luncheon, followed by bridge, in honor of Mrs. D. McLeod. The very pleasant function was held at the home of Mrs. Graham.
