GERMAN ADVANCE IN WEST FLANDERS IS STOPPED

GERMANS STILL PLANNING RAID ON SHORES OF BRITAIN--KAISER SAYS MUST TAKE CALAIS

READY FOR RAID ON BRITAIN WHEN GERMANS REACH CALAIS

CUXHAVEN HARBOR SCENE OF GREAT ACTIVITY WITH SUBMARINES AND ZEPPELINS--NEXT GERMAN ATTACK WILL KEEP AWAY FROM GUNS OF THE BRITISH FLEET.

(Special to The Daily News) Paris, Oct. 29.—Cuxhaven harbor, reports says, is crowded with floating batteries, Zeppelins and submarines ready for an attack on Britain, once the Germans control the northern coast of the Channel. The next attack of the Germans in Flanders is expected to be far enough inland to avoid the fire of the British warships.

GERMAN ATTACK SLACKENING ALLIES HAVE MADE ADVANCES

ALLIES HOLD LINE FROM NIEUPOORT TO DIXMUIDE IN STRENGTH--BRITISH FLEET GIVING GOOD ASSISTANCE FROM BELGIAN COAST.

(Special to The Daily News—10:30 A. M.) Paris, Oct. 29.—The vigor of the German attacks in the north have diminished greatly. Real success has been attained by the Allies, who not only prevented a breach being made in their lines, but have made considerable progress. They now firmly hold the line from Nieuport to Dixmuide. In the neighborhood the little British fleet is still operating against the Germans off the Belgian coast. A battleship has joined in the bombardment with 12-inch guns.

GENERAL BOTHA ROUTS THE REBELS

(Special to The Daily News.) London, Oct. 29.—The following statement has been issued here: "General Botha reports that he left Rustenburg on Tuesday morning and proceeded in the direction which Beyers and his command were supposed to have taken. The Loyalist force came in touch with Beyers' men in the forenoon and drove them in headlong rout the whole day. "They captured eighty of the rebels fully armed. In the fighting which took place towards the end of the pursuit one of General Botha's men and several of Beyers' were wounded. The pursuit is still in progress."

FRESH RUSSIAN TROOPS FORCE GERMANS TO RETIRE FROM POLAND

(Special to The Daily News—2:30 P. M.) London, Oct. 29.—The German and Austrian troops in Poland, according to an official announcement issued in Berlin today, have been forced to withdraw before the fresh Russian forces advancing from Ivangorod, Warsaw and Novogeorgievski.

HEAD OF METHODIST CHURCH WILL LEAVE VANCOUVER SOON

Rev. S. D. Chown, general superintendent of the Methodist Church in Canada, has returned to Vancouver from the general conference of the church held in Ottawa, and his sojourn in Vancouver will be of short duration, as next week he will go to Toronto, the headquarters of the church's work. Dr. Chown expressed regret at having to leave Vancouver, but his new office necessitates the change. Reviewing the work done at the recent conference, Dr. Chown said that the question of church union was seriously discussed and the Methodist Church had appointed a new committee on the subject to meet with committees of the Presbyterian and Congregational churches with the hope of settling the matter of union within a period of two years.

On the way home Dr. Chown stopped in Toronto and there held a meeting of the General Mission Board, when plans were approved for the work of the Church throughout Canada, Newfoundland, the Bermudas and large portions of Japan and China. The board decided to raise during the year the sum of $675,000 to advance the work.

TOOK EXAMINATION.

The examination of the first class in connection with the St. John Ambulance Association was held here under Dr. L. W. Kergin. Of the seven who took the examination, all passed successfully. They were instructed in large part by Dr. J. P. Cade, who gave a great deal of attention to the instructing of the class. Those who passed the examination were Rev. V. S. Larter, J. E. Stephens, C. C. Purdy, Percy Godenrath, Henry Smith, M. H. Hewitt and E. V. Ling.

At 3 o'clock on Saturday afternoon there will be a meeting held in the Board of Trade rooms under the association to arrange for the organization of another class in this work.

The big $30,000 hole on Third Avenue, which is full of water to overflowing, will be pumped out, arrangements for which are being completed. The intention is to prevent any further accidents happening there. The boys were looking forward to use this as a rink.

ENGLISH COLLEGE YOUTHS JOIN THE ARMY.
 Three thousand youths, sons of wealthy parents, and Oxford or Cambridge students, marching to Epsom Downs, England for training. They enlisted as privates in the army.

GERMANS ARE CHECKED BOTH EAST AND WEST

(Special to The Daily News—2:30 P. M.) London, Oct. 29.—From east and west, German reverses are reported, Germany acknowledges a check in Russian Poland, but concerning the great battle in Flanders she preserves silence.

GERMAN ATTACKS ARE ALL FAILURES

(Special to The Daily News) Paris, Oct. 29.—The official bulletin today says the French troops made progress yesterday at several points, particularly around Ypres and south of Arras. Not one of the attacks undertaken by the Germans has resulted successfully.

BERLIN PAPER IS BACKING DOWN

Tageblatt Getting Sick of War--Hollweg Is Blamed.
 Copenhagen, Oct. 29.—The military correspondent of the Berliner Tageblatt hints that there is a certain amount of anxiety about the situation manifesting itself in Germany. He explains, though, that a decision is likely to come "like a thief in the night," and that it will more probably be on the east front rather than in the west.

"While fresh masses of troops can be brought without hindrance overseas," he says, "they constitute an awkward adversary. Although the unity of their handling—if they invaded Germany—is to be doubted, Germany has still a somewhat hard task, which must not be forgotten in waiting for the decision."

Chancellor Bethmann-Hollweg, the "scrap of paper" man, is, according to the Tageblatt, being attacked in certain influential circles as responsible for the war.

WHEN THE GONG RINGS.

Every time the gong rings a dollar will be dropped from the price of some desirable article of merchandise at the Patriotic Sale to be held on Friday and Saturday at Wallace's.

Since this war began simplified spelling hasn't been held in as much disrespect as was recently the case. Bertie inquires: "If you were in Austria-Hungary, would Britain Russia Turkey through Greece to Serbia?"

GERMAN CRUISER PUTS ON DISGUISE AND DOES DAMAGE

(Special to The Daily News—10:30 A. M.) Tokio, Oct. 29.—The German cruiser Emden, flying the Japanese flag and disguised by the addition of a fourth smokestack, entered Penang harbor today and with torpedoes sank the Russian cruiser Jemtechug and a French destroyer.

THE BRITISH AND GERMAN EMPIRES

The population of Great Britain (the United Kingdom) is 46,000,000. The population of the German Empire is 65,000,000. The population of the British colonies is 374,000,000. The population of the German colonies is 12,000,000. Total population under the German flag, 77,000,000. Total population under the British flag, 420,000,000. With the freedom of the seas, the British Empire could in time put into the field an army of 20,000,000 men. Five or six millions is supposed to be the limit of Germany.

OVERWHELMING FORCES OF BRITAIN AND RUSSIA BEGINNING TO TELL TALE

(Special to The Daily News—2:30 P. M.) London, Oct. 29.—One great factor upon which the Allies build hopes of their eventual triumph apparently is beginning to tell. It is the almost inexhaustible supply of men that may be drawn from the vast reaches of the British and Russian empires, which are relied upon in time to crush the Germans by overwhelming numbers.

In the east this influence seemingly is already being felt, and to it is ascribed the German reverse in Russian Poland.

KAISER ORDERS MUST TAKE CALAIS SENDS MORE TROOPS

(Special to The Daily News—11 A. M.) London, Oct. 29.—Reinforcements, said to number 200,000, are said to be on the way to the German right wing. These were drafted from the other battlefronts in the east and west following the Kaiser's orders that Calais must be taken. It is expected that the fighting will be resumed with all its fierceness when the new men arrive.

GERMANY SOUGHT TO EMBROIL THE UNITED KINGDOM WITH STATES

London, Oct. 28.—In an article in the Quarterly Review on "The Origin of the Present War," Sir Valentine Chirol charges German officials with attempting to deceive him and his paper—was at the time of which he writes foreign editor of the London Times—as to the sentiments of the imperial government toward Great Britain, with typically repudiating their promises of friendship when the situation changed, and when seeking to embroil the United States and Great Britain in order to advance Germany's plans for economic and political conquests in South America.

"During the first decade of his reign," says Sir Valentine, "South America attracted a good deal of the Kaiser's attention. There is a large German population in Brazil and the Argentina, and both there and in Central America German enterprise had found fruitful fields of activity. Had it not been for the Monroe Doctrine these South and Central American republics lay at the mercy of the mailed fist, but against the Monroe Doctrine the Kaiser was powerless unless he could embroil Britain with the United States and secure the support of the British naval power.

"At the beginning of the Spanish-American war he showed his hand for a moment in an insidious attempt to induce this country to lead the way in a European demonstration against the United States, but Lord Pauncefoot, at Washington, and Captain Chichester, at Manila, showed the American people that Britain would not attack the United States. German diplomacy beat a hasty retreat, and tried hard to cover its tracks, but it had not yet abandoned all hope, and so late as 1904 German diplomacy made a desperate endeavor to entangle us in a combination which would have fatally compromised our relations with the United States."

RUSSIANS REPORT SUCCESS BUT DO NOT ADVANCE MUCH

SEVERE FIGHTING SEEMS TO BE TAKING PLACE ALL ALONG RUSSIAN FRONT WITH SOME ADVANTAGE TO OUR ALLY.

(Special to The Daily News—10:30 A. M.) Petrograd, Oct. 29.—(Official.)—On the center, after fighting of a desperate character, we have succeeded in establishing a firm foothold on the border of the forest region near the villages of Adamoff, Severinoff and Marianoff. On the left wing, we captured by assault a defensive position established near Policzna and enveloped a portion of the Austrian troops. At Berdicejo, on the night of October 27, the enemy's corps fell back in disorder and we captured both cannons and prisoners. On the right bank of the Pilitza front, between Iejeff and Novemiaste, fighting continues with the same desperation. In Galicia the battle is raging along the whole front. At the River San we took ten officers and 500 men. At South Przemysl our troops are advancing at certain points. In East Prussia the enemy has violently bombarded our positions but their attacks have been repulsed. The success won at South Pilitza, which resulted in the retreat of the enemy's main front is of the greatest importance.

SENDING SUBMARINES OVERLAND FOR ATTACK

(Special to The Daily News—11 A. M.) Amsterdam, Oct. 29.—Parts of several submarines have been sent overland from Germany to Zebrugge, Belgium, where they will be put together and used against the British fleet off Ostend.

SWEDISH STEAMER SUNK BY A MINE

(Special to The Daily News.) Stockholm, Oct. 29.—The Swedish steamer Ornen was sunk off Cuxhaven Monday by a mine. Five men were drowned.

EAGLES HELD SMOKER AND BOXING BOUT

The Fraternal Order of Eagles gave a smoker last night and had a rousing good time. An excellent program, in which patriotic songs were to the fore was enthusiastically rendered.

An interesting feature was the appearance of Johnny O'Leary, lightweight champion of Canada, in a bout of three rounds with Jim Clarke and two rounds with Scotty McKay, welterweight champion of Manitoba. O'Leary doesn't look like a pugilist when you see him on the street, but all the same he sure is some whirlwind. He could do anything he liked with Clark, who is himself some boxer. McKay, who is a formidable looking fellow and considerably heavier than O'Leary, at first looked as if he could hold his own, and gave O'Leary some real punishment. The youngster soon buckled up, however, and soon showed that if he wanted to he could easily best him. As it was McKay struck the mat twice. O'Leary is a clean little boxer, and he has some new dodges all his own. One of these in particular is admirable, where in a clinch he swings from underneath a telling blow on his opponent's face.

"BLACK MARIA" EXPLODES KILLING 250 GERMANS

(Special to The Daily News—10:30 A. M.) London, Oct. 29.—A Madrid dispatch says that one of the big guns on the right wing exploded from an excessive powder charge, killing 250 men.

LIBERALS WILL NOT CONTEST ELECTIONS

Ottawa, Oct. 27.—It is not believed here that the bye-elections made necessary by the recent cabinet changes will be contested, but that an agreement will be reached to allow all seats now vacant, including Jaques-Cartier, formerly held by the late Hon. F. D. Monk, and Westmoreland, formerly held by the late Hon. H. R. Emmerson, to go by acclamation, though all of the seats are considered good fighting ground. It is not believed here that the reconstruction of the cabinet contemplated by the government is completed and it is expected that more changes will follow.

Further rumored cabinet changes include the names of Hon. Louis Coderre, Hon. T. J. Crothers and Hon. Dr. Roche. Rumored appointments include the names of R. B. Bennett, of Calgary; Hon. J. W. Hanna, of Toronto; Hon. Arthur Meighen and Hon. L. T. Marchal.

Should the Germans carry out their threat of a Zeppelin raid upon London all the members of the British Flying Corps have pledged themselves to dash their machines right through the airships, even if both are brought to the ground.

King Charles of Roumania died at Bucharest on October 10 after a long illness, aged 75 years. Though the King was a brilliant diplomat and great soldier, he was chiefly known in America as the husband of "Carmen Sylva," the beautiful poetess, and writer of fairy tales and dramas. Her "Thoughts of a Queen," "Edelean Vaughan," "Shadows on Life's Dial," "A Real Queen's Fairy Book," etc., have given her a world-wide reputation. Her interests in peasant life have endeared her to her subjects. As the late King was a member of the House of Hohenzollern, his sympathies were with Prussia, and had it not been for the stern policy of neutrality determined upon by the Roumanian cabinet and the popular prejudice against Germany he would have cast in his lot with the Germans in the war. He is succeeded by his nephew Prince Ferdinand, whose sympathies are also said to be those of his late uncle.

EDITORIALS

Like the girl who must turn to the last chapter of a novel to see how it is going to turn out, everybody seems inclined to discuss the disposal that will be made of the Kaiser when the war ends.

In view of the fact that the Germans have a million and a half of men strongly entrenched in France and Belgium, it is rather early to be disputing about the disposal that will be made of the Kaiser after his vast armies have been driven over the Rhine, back to Berlin, and up and down Germany—until they are scattered and beaten.

The discussion could very well wait, but as everybody is taking a hand in it, we think it may interest many to refer to the views expressed a few days ago in a lecture at University College, London, by Prof. A. F. Pollard. He thinks that while Alsace and Lorraine ought to be liberated from German rule, if the Allies win, yet it does not follow that they ought to be annexed to France. It may not be best for France that she recover these provinces. Since 1870 they have grown somewhat German, and might now weaken France as they have Germany. He thinks the population of Alsace and Lorraine ought to be consulted; that they might, possibly, be added to Belgium, with local self-government, and form a band of states separating France and Germany. But, if the Allies win, we may rest assured that the wishes of France as regards these her former provinces will prevail.

As regards the Kaiser, Prof. Pollard speaks some significant truths. He entirely disapproves of the suggestion that the Kaiser be driven into exile, or made a prisoner at such a place as St. Helena. "It was," he says, "the banishment of Napoleon which caused the Napoleonic legend to grow and brought about the empire of Napoleon III." He adds: "If we try to impose such a penalty upon the Kaiser we shall at once create an enormous amount of sympathy for him in Germany, which will give rise to an Imperial legend which may in future produce consequences as disastrous as the present. The penalty must be imposed upon the German State, and it should be left to the German people themselves to distribute the proportion of responsibility as between themselves and the Kaiser, and I do not think they will be inclined to let the Kaiser off lightly."

There is political wisdom in this. The Kaiser must be shorn of force; he must be beaten down; but Germany must be convinced, as well as he, that the attempt to bully the world was a crime and a folly. He will not do as a scapegoat. Germany, as well as he, must truly repent the ruin they have wrought on the face of Europe. He misled the German people in peace, and led four million of them into war of the most ferocious kind. The blame cannot be charged to him alone, and he alone cannot answer for it. The safer way is for the Allies to deal with Germany and let Germany reckon with her Kaiser and her von Bernhards, her college professors and her Prussian colonels.—Daily Star.

Fantastic Figures Are Formed Against Blue Sky.

Redding, Oct. 29.—The fifty-seventh eruption yesterday of Lassen Peak threw upward from three craters volumes of black smoke that floated southward on the wind twenty miles, until, rising to the altitude of a counter current, it drifted northward again in the shape of a giant shepherd's crook, hung in the bright blue sky.

Underneath the cloud the country was in deep shadow. Above it the snow clad summit of the mountain glistened in the sun. The eruption was of sufficient violence to be classed with the most forceful that have torn the old volcano and was preceded by loud rumblings, audible to a considerable distance. At the end of an hour it continued undiminished.

Items From Vancouver Boy's Letter to Relatives in This City.

Troopship R. M. S. Virginian, Quebec, Sept. 30, 1914.
 We are aboard ship and at anchor about a mile above the Citadel waiting for the rest of the ships to be loaded. As we were about the twenty-fifth in loading it will not be long before we are under way. There will be twenty-eight ships and fifteen battle-ships, cruisers and destroyers—so they tell us—in the fleet when we cross. From our position in the river we can see eleven ships waiting at anchor, but none of the convoy.

Life aboard ship is a welcome change to camp life. Sleeping on the ground in a tent and eating from a canteen tin in a squatting position, is a considerable contrast to second-class quarters and eating at a table with somebody to wait on you.

We are congratulating ourselves on being on the Virginian. She is the best of the troopships, and we have aboard Colonel Williams, the commandant of Valcartier camp. Another of our officers is Captain Bayliss, an ex-officer in the Royal Northwest Mounted Police, and he has the confidence and respect of every man in the company. The other three commissioned officers, with the exception of one, gets the respect which their office demands. With regard to the exception, I do not understand how he got his commission, if he had to do any practical work to get it. He may be well versed in drill theory, but when it comes to handling men he is a hopeless failure and is the laughing-stock of the men—when his back is turned. I think he would be more in his element at a pink-tea.

It is recognized by all with whom I talk that it is a blessing that Sam Hughes put the ban on liquor in the camp. Those of us who do not drink know that if a wet canteen were allowed, life would be very uncomfortable for us; and those who drink admit that while they would appreciate the chance of having a drink when they want it, they are glad the chance is not there.

"BREWSTER'S MILLIONS" HIT AT THE WESTHOLME

If for any reason you were unable to attend last night's show at the Westholme, you should go tonight, if you do not want to miss a very good program. These pictures are full of quaint, sparkling comedy, not horseplay, but just good clean comedy. Monte Brewster is a scream, and his frantic endeavors to spend one million dollars in one year are productive of many comical situations.

Besides this, there is a very interesting War Gazette, showing many interesting views direct from the seat of war.

NEW TROOPS NEEDED.

Second Contingent Will Comprise Force of 16,000 Men.

Ottawa, Oct. 28.—It is probable that the 4,000 men comprising the Royal Canadian Regiment, now doing garrison duty at Bermuda, after having relieved British regulars for the front, will, themselves, go forward at an early date, to be relieved in turn by new troops from Canada. It is expected that the Bermuda draft, which is fully equipped in every respect, will be included in the second Canadian contingent now being enlisted throughout the Dominion, while their place in Bermuda garrison will be taken by new recruits from Canada. It has now been definitely decided that the complement of recruits for the second draft will number 16,000, instead of 10,000, as at first contemplated. This will form the infantry branch of a new division whose other units, horse artillery, etc., will be decided upon as soon as advice is received from the War Office.

TRAMLINE IS NOW NEAR COMPLETION

The installation of the aerial tramline from Roche de Boule to the G. T. P. line is nearly completed. Mr. Oppenheimer, of Butte, who is at the head of the Montana Development Syndicate, went up to the mine at Roche de Boule yesterday morning.

He says that the power plant and the tramway are nearing completion, so that it will be possible to handle ore from the mine very soon. The question of shipping ore from the property has to be taken up with the G. T. P., however, and he is not able to say just what can be done. The plans in this respect are left open.

The intention of Mr. Oppenheimer is to proceed with the development work at the mine without interruption.

BEHIND THE COUNTERS.

The ladies who have taken over Wallace's store for the two-day sale this week will act as clerks, serving behind the counters with the regular staff.

JUST HEARD OF THE WAR

Two Irishmen from Quebec Lumber Camp Hurry to Join Regiments

Montreal, Oct. 28.—John Doyle and James Mulvaney, two husky Irishmen from a lumber camp in northern Quebec, have arrived in Montreal after a tramp of almost a hundred miles, ready to start for the battle front at the earliest possible moment. They heard of the war only a few days ago, and being reservists they at once "biked" for the nearest point. They will be given an opportunity to join their regiments.

The buyer saves money and at the same time contributes to the Patriotic Fund during the big sale at Wallace's, Friday and Saturday this week.

One of the interested spectators last night at the boxing bout was His Worship the Mayor, who seemed to enjoy it to the full.

The city band last night was a special attraction under the leadership of Mr. Hoelcher. The band has had only a very limited amount of practice but shows splendid form already. Its success is already assured.

The local corps which is preparing for active service is expected to leave for Victoria next week. Among those who are volunteering as privates are P. F. Godenrath, G. E. Gibson and E. O. Riethel.

Everybody talking about it—the big sale at Wallace's.

There will be a special meeting of the executive of the Board of Trade tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

There are only three more days in which any but property holders can register if their names are not already on the voters' list. It might be in order to get busy.

The Westholme Theatre was packed last night to see the reproduction of that popular play, "Brewster's Millions." To anyone who has seen the original its success is a revelation and even to those who have not it is a distinct success. The failure of a young man to dispose of a million dollars ought to be a real stimulus in these times of stress.
