GERMAN CRUISER EMDEN HAS AT LAST BEEN CAUGHT

GERMAN ARMY SAID TO BE BROKEN IN EAST AND WEST--ASQUITH MAKES FIGHTING SPEECH

AUSTRALIAN CRUISER SYDNEY PUTS EMDEN OUT OF BUSINESS

OFFICIALLY ANNOUNCED THAT PIRATE SHIP IS DESTROYED--RESULT OF A RUNNING FIGHT--SYDNEY HAD SUPERIOR SPEED AND GUNS.

(Special to The Daily News--1 P. M.) London, Nov. 10.—The Admiralty announces that the Australian cruiser Sydney has met and destroyed the German pirate ship Emden off the coast of South Africa. The Sydney lost three men killed and fifteen wounded.

though the latter tried to get away. There was a running fight. The Emden was set afire and forced to run aground on Coco Island. Her casualties are heavy. The Sydney lost three men killed and fifteen wounded. The German cruiser Koenigsberg is bottled up at Mafia Island, German East Africa, by the blockading of the harbor channel.

PREMIER ASQUITH MAKES REMARKABLE SPEECH ON WAR

LORD MAYOR'S BANQUET LAST NIGHT DECLARES UNERRING PURPOSE OF BRITAIN--KITCHENER SAYS ONE AND QUARTER MILLION MEN TRAINING ON BRITISH ISLES.

(Special to The Daily News--10 A. M.) London, Nov. 10.—Premier Asquith said at the Guildhall banquet last night that the British purpose in the war is to bring about a permanent peace. He said that the British will not sheath their swords until Belgium recovers its full measure more than all she has sacrificed; until France is securely secured against the danger of aggression; until the rights of smaller nationalities in Europe are placed in an unassailable position, and until the military domination of Prussia is fully and finally destroyed.

Lord Kitchener expressed his confidence in the ultimate success of the allied arms. He announced that outside of the Canadian and other overseas contingents, 1,250,000 men were in training in Britain.

PETITION TO COUNCIL RE DISLOYALTY CHARGE

The Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Prince Rupert: Gentlemen,—We the undersigned citizens of Prince Rupert and loyal citizens of the British Empire beg to protest against the disloyal and unpatriotic actions of certain workmen employed by the city Prince Rupert, permitting work within the city and during the half holiday to observe the half holiday declared by His Worship the Mayor for Friday forenoon. The half holiday was called to enable all citizens to join in doing their duty and bidding farewell to the noble band of men composing Prince Rupert's first contingent who were leaving for the front to defend our country and uphold the British Empire in the effort which is being made to overthrow oppression and more securely establish the principle of liberty for which we stand. We deplore the fact that men employed by the city who would fail to observe the half holiday and refrain from work. We respectfully submit that the council investigate the matter most fully and mete out such punishment as would fully meet the circumstances, which in our opinion can only be done by the discharge of every man employed by the city who is not known to be entirely loyal to the British Empire in this crisis, and for the future employment of loyal British subjects. About 225 names were appended to the petition.

BRITISH CRUISER SAFE

(Special to The Daily News--10 A. M.) Santiago, Nov. 10.—The British cruiser Glasgow, which was engaged by a German squadron off the Chilean coast, and the British transport Otranto have passed Delgada Point, on the Straits of Magellan, bound for the Falkland Islands.

HYDRO-ELECTRIC READY DECEMBER 15

The machinery for the hydro-electric plant is practically installed and will be ready for use in about two weeks, when the cement has well set. A very important attachment, however, is missing. A governor to control the water force is necessary to prevent accidents when the water is shut off and this part of the equipment has not arrived and fears are felt that it is held up at Antwerp and Kaiser William will not even listen to the mayor of Prince Rupert. It appears, however, that the Canadian General Electric Company is under bond to have this on hand. Alderman Morrissey vigorously criticized the committee last night for allowing themselves to be caught in this way but it was shown that all the necessary precautions were taken. It had been suggested that a make-shift governor be put in but Alderman Morrissey pointed out that this would put the responsibility for injuring the plant on the city unless the electric company took the risks. It was decided that unless they did this the city would not allow the experiment. It is now felt that the plant will likely be thrown into use on or about December 15.

A PLEA FOR THE BELGIAN RELIEF FUND

The citizens of Prince Rupert are strongly urged to support the grand evening concert which will be held in the Empress Theatre on Tuesday next, the 12th, in aid of the Belgian Relief Fund. The recollection of the sufferings of the Belgian people will readily stir the sympathy of the large-hearted Prince Rupert public to contribute each one their 50 cents for a ticket, whether or not it is possible for them to attend the Empress Theatre on Thursday evening next. To those who can attend—a musical treat is assured. The Ladies' Musical Club of this city has spared no pains to prepare a program of an exceptionally high order. A ladies' chorus has been specially formed for the occasion. Mrs. Dolling—a pianist of remarkable brilliance—will be heard for the first time in Prince Rupert. An opportunity is also afforded of hearing, for the first time, the artistic singing of Mrs. A. S. B. Lucas. Many local favorites, including Mrs. Jarvis McLeod, Mrs. H. Hemmel, Mrs. Gordon Allen and Miss Barnsley will appear. A splendid concert is assured, and the sorrows of the suffering Belgians will be reduced. Turn out.

CITY AUDITOR'S REPORT.

The city auditors reported last night by letter that they had gone carefully over the city's books and recommended that certain changes be made in the system in the way of additional checks, etc. Their recommendations for improvements in the system would add a little to the cost of auditing but then it would reduce future work and give better results. It was not decided to reduce the staff in view of this, as the labor saving might be imaginary. The auditors are a Vancouver concern.

CANADIANS ANGRY AT TROOPER'S REQUEST

Indignant At a Begging Letter in London for Gramophones.

London, Nov. 10.—From the batches of the Canadian contingent which can be seen daily in the London streets sightseeing, sometimes with English friends, it is learned that very strenuous training is being enforced at Salisbury Plains, though Saturday afternoons and Sundays are being set apart for visits from friends and relations. Members of the contingent write angry letters to The Daily Express because one Canadian trooper pleaded in press for a gift of gramophones and records. A Canadian Seaforth Highlander says: "We come to fight for the Motherland, not to beg. We are naturally indignant when a Canadian so far forgets himself as to try to take a mean advantage of our warm-hearted reception."

A sergeant of the Ninth Canadian Regiment says: "The Canadian is being paid far more liberally than his brother English Tommy. Therefore the Canadian can afford to buy such luxuries." The Daily Express says everyone appreciates the fine spirit these letters breathe out, yet we are all of the same family, and hopes that spare gramophones will be sent to the Canadian camps.

A petition was presented to the council a couple of weeks ago asking for a sidewalk on First Avenue from McBride Street to Manson Way. The city wrote the government agent asking if it was the intention of the government to do this work. The reply last night was that while this had been under advisement it would not be carried out at present.

CHARGE INCOMPETENCE ON CITY AUTHORITIES

Alderman Morrissey was in a critical mood last night. He attacked the electric light committee and the superintendent, charging neglect and extravagance.

The city streets had been in darkness for some time because a duplicate transformer had not been kept in stock. The superintendent pointed out that he placed the order for a duplicate last July, or as soon as he had got authority. It was not his fault that the shipment was delayed.

Alderman Morrissey charged that the electric line to Shawallans had cost too much. Post-holes had cost from $5 to $12 each, and poles averaged about $100. The portion done under the Public Works Department only cost $2.50 per hole. He believed the committee was incompetent. He also objected to city employees going to and coming from work on city time. They should work the regular hours, like all other people.

STRUCK OFF ARMY LIST.

London, Nov. 10.—The names of the German and Austrian Emperors have been eliminated from the list of British field marshals in an army list just published, also from the roster of officers of the Royal Dragoons and King's Dragoon Guards, in which regiments, respectively, they were colonel-in-chief. The Duke of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha also ceases to be colonel-in-chief of the Seaforth Highlanders.

SERBIANS FORCE AUSTRIANS BACK

(Special to The Daily News--10 A. M.) London, Nov. 10.—Severe fighting on November 6 on all Serbian fronts the Austrians lost 1,000 killed and were compelled to fall back on their former positions before Shabata.

GERMAN ARMY BROKEN MACHINE ALLIES HAVE GOOD SUCCESS

GERMANS HAVE SUFFERED MARKED DEFEAT IN ALSACE AND ARE IN DANGER OF BEING CUT OFF FROM MAIN ARMY--BRITISH REPULSE ENEMY.

(Special to The Daily News--1 P. M.) London, Nov. 10.—A dispatch from the Dutch frontier says the German army in Flanders is a broken machine. The attack through Courtrai is simply a bluff to cover a general retreat.

Germany May Be Cut Off.
Paris, Nov. 10.—The Allies are fighting from sand dune to dune. They are still advancing in Belgium. The greatest activity still exists near Ypres.

The Germans suffered a marked defeat in Alsace and are in serious danger of being cut off from the main army. The official bulletin says the action is being continued with great severity between Armentieres and the sea. The German attack in considerable force was checked south of Ypres. All the attacks on the British troops were repulsed.

GERMAN TRENCHES DESTROYED BY VICTORIOUS RUSSIANS

ALL FIGHTING NOW TAKING PLACE ON GERMAN TERRITORY--GERMAN FORCE WHICH INVADED POLAND YET IN FULL RETREAT.

(Special to The Daily News--1:30 P. M.) Petrograd, Nov. 10.—All the zones of contact between the Germans and Russians are now in German territory. The Russian cavalry has pierced the left flank of the enemy at Kronin on the River Warthe, nullifying the entire German defensive inside the Polish frontier and forcing the abandonment of the trenches, on which they had been working over a month.

The Germans have not waited for a single serious battle since they left the vicinity of Warsaw. Seventy thousand motor cars are being used in the retreat.

OSTEND RELIEVED--CITY IS IN RUINS AND QUITE DESERTED

(Special to The Daily News--10 A. M.) London, Nov. 10.—Advance patrols of the Belgians have penetrated to Ostend, which means the coast line of Dunkirk-Nieuport-Ostend is relieved and the menace past. In two weeks the town itself has been razed by artillery fire and has been entirely abandoned by the populace.

The triumphant march of prohibition in the United States is amazing. The usual argument that it is bad for business does not seem to defer the most acute business people in the world. It is well known that the amount of liquor consumed in a year is enormous and that as far as results go it is wasted—as much wasted as the wealth of the cities destroyed by the German vandals. Great Britain spends in liquors every year close to a billion dollars—almost as much as the present war will cost her. If Britain could stop her people from drinking for a year or two she could pay off her national debt as well as the cost of the war. And still people will say that prohibition hurts business. Certainly it hurts the business of the saloon keeper but not the business of the nation.

The Mail and Empire suggests that Count Bernstorff is not as foolish as he appears. He talks like a moon-struck professor about the Monroe Doctrine, and about the abstract right of Germany to attack Canada because Canada is sending contingents to Europe. But he knows very well that Germany will not divert any large body of men from Belgium and France to attack Canada; and that the German armies could not get here so long as Britain has command of the seas.

But Bernstorff's talk might excite certain German residents of the United States, and induce them to give a German repetition of the Fenian invasion of 1866. Bernstorff may not be wise, but he may be cunning enough to work upon the feelings of Germans in the United States and provoke them into a raid upon some peaceful Canadian village.

Anyhow, it would be just as well to be prepared. A few thousand Germans, appearing suddenly at some peaceful, unprotected village on the frontier, might subject it to the same kind of treatment as Belgians have suffered. It is just as well to make sure that the invaders will be met by Canadian soldiers, instead of terrifying women and children and looting their possessions.

And it might be well for the United States to inquire whether this man Bernstorff is just talking nonsense or making mischief. In either case he is not a very desirable representative of Germany in the United States. If it is only nonsense, better let it be done by the vaudeville shows and the funny papers. If it is mischief, it is serious. Americans do not want their country to be made the base for an attack on a friendly country, with which they were about to celebrate a hundred years of peace and friendship. Little Belgium was spunky enough not to allow itself to be made the tool of a German attack upon France. Americans are in a position to play the same honorable part as Belgium, with vastly greater power. A German raid on Canada, engineered on American soil, might not be very formidable to Canada, but it would be an extraordinary demonstration of the weakness of the United States.—Toronto Star.

Of the various plans that have been devised for raising money for patriotic purposes, one that should meet with unqualified endorsement, is the "Society Circus," which is intended as a united effort to raise a generous sum for the Belgian Relief Fund. Judge F. McB. Young will act as treasurer, and many prominent people are taking part. Handsome returns are confidently expected. The outlying districts as well as the city have been placarded with "circus posters" and a record breaking attendance is assured. Work in connection with the circus has been quietly going on for some time so that no detail will be incomplete for the opening on next Monday night, November 16.

NOT A NEW WEAPON.

German Forty-Two Centimetre Gun Invented Over Twenty Years Ago.

The Hague, Nov. 10.—The famous German 42-centimetre gun, which has been reported as a modern invention, appears to have been described in the German magazine, Prometheus, in the year 1893. The article, at the time, gave the weight of the gun and the velocity and the effect of the shots and this information was extensively quoted in a scientific magazine issued during the same year.

FISHER'S SELECTION REBUKE TO CHURCHILL?

New First Lord of the Admiralty May Enter the British Cabinet.

London, Nov. 9.—The resignation of the First Sea Lord took the public entirely by surprise. Nobody regarded very seriously the campaign of a small section of the press against Prince Louis of Battenberg because of his Austrian birth and because he possessed intimate domestic associations with Germany. For the general public it was enough that he had served in the British navy brilliantly for nearly fifty years, and held Hon. Winston Churchill's entire confidence, while the very day of his resignation saw the announcement of the death in action of his nephew, Prince Maurice, and the presence at the fighting front of two other nephews.

The published correspondence between the Prince and Churchill speaks alone of the Prince's birth and parentage as tending in his own opinion to impair his public usefulness. Probably a more potent reason for the resignation is, however, that the feeling that the method of the participation of British naval participation in the Antwerp defence accentuated the belief that the permanent head of the Admiralty should be less capable of domination by the masterful personality of Churchill. Highest press tributes are paid to the Prince's devotion, patriotism, and capacity, but Battenberg has been in an especial sense "Churchill's man." Should Fisher, the "Jacky" Fisher of every seaman, be given the administration, the Admiralty might more nearly resemble the War Office, where Kitchener, the soldier, is supreme and independent of political considerations in a sense only possible under war conditions. Thus Fisher's succession might involve important changes in the ministry itself.

KILOMETRES AND MILES.

Frequently in the French War Office reports of fighting, distances are stated in kilometers. The simplest way to convert kilometers into miles is to divide by two, divide the result by four, and add the two results. Thus, 500 kilometers divided by two equals 250; 250 divided by four equals 62.5, and 62.5 added to 250 gives 312.5; so that there are that number of miles in 500 kilometers. To convert miles into kilometers, multiply by eight and divide the result by five.

ITALY WON'T JOIN WAR.

Secret Agreement Which Protects Nation.

New York, Nov. 9.—Ettore Patrizi, editor of The Italian Daily News, of San Francisco, who arrived last week by the Italian liner Duca degli Abruzzi, said that Italy would not be dragged into the European war.

"I had it from an intimate friend of the Italian prime minister," he said, "that the Italian government intends to show the people that without bloodshed and without wasting money it can protect the interests of the country. The diplomats have agreed that there shall be no war no matter how strenuously the populace may demand that Italy shall take part in the conflict now going on.

The diplomatic corps of Italy has signed, I have learned, a secret agreement with both the allies and Germany which guarantees that if Italy shall remain neutral she shall receive consideration when peace comes. I spent four months in Italy and I believe the government will be able to check the warlike spirit."

U. S. RED CROSS IN RUSSIA STARTS TO WORK

Petrograd, Nov. 10.—The members of the American Red Cross unit detailed to Russia have left Petrograd on a special train for Kiev, where they expect to begin work immediately. Before leaving the capital the two senior surgeons were given commissions in the Russian army with the rank of general, while the four juniors were each given a commission with the rank of colonel.

All the surgeons were clad in the regular Russian army uniforms without insignia to indicate their American nationality. The result was that during their stay in Petrograd they everywhere were taken for bona fide Russian officers. Whole battalions of soldiers on meeting them halted and came to present arms, while officers twice their age, but of inferior rank, paid them due respect.

BRITISH FINANCES.

It is estimated that if the war lasts a year it will cost Britain a billion and a quarter dollars. This is just about the sum which in an ordinary year the people of Britain save from their earnings and put into the banks for investments. If the processes of industry and trade can be kept going at something like the ordinary, therefore, John Bull will be no worse off financially at the end of a year's war than he was at the beginning.

KIDNEY TROUBLE AFFECTED HIS SPINE

Suffered For Forty Years Until He Used "Fruit-a-lives"

BROKER, Ont., Oct. 31st, 1913.

"For about forty years, I was troubled with Lame Back Trouble. I was never confined to my bed with the trouble, but it affected my spine and I had to rest for a time. I took advertised remedies which never did me any good. Then I saw "Fruit-a-lives" advertised and I decided to try them. They did me more good than any other remedy. My son suffered from the same trouble and frequently had to leave off working, but "Fruit-a-lives" remedied it for him. I would strongly advise anyone suffering from Kidney and Bladder Trouble to use "Fruit-a-lives".

THE BRITISH ARMY IN FRANCE NOW NUMBERS 300,000 MEN

LORD KITCHENER IS SENDING NO TROOPS TO THE FRONT WHO ARE NOT EFFICIENT AND WELL ABLE TO FIGHT.

Paris, Nov. 9.—No fewer than 300,000 British soldiers are under the orders of Field Marshal Sir John French on the firing lines. Beyond these there were many auxiliary troops on duty at the transport and supply base. This army acts as a complete unit in conjunction with British and French comrades under the command of General Joffre. The fresh base is near a port on the English channel and the field of action of the British troops is near the Belgian frontier and in Belgium itself. Virtually all the British soldiers in the field have seen a certain amount of service, any amount of them had from ten to twelve years' training and have participated in Great Britain's little wars in various parts of the world. The gaps in their ranks are filled by re-enlisted men who have hastened back to the army at Lord Kitchener's call.

By December 1, this year, when it is expected that large bodies of British Territorials, who have volunteered for foreign service, will have been trained sufficiently to take the field, it is estimated that the force at Sir John French's disposal will have reached 500,000 men. These will include the British and native troops from India, and portions of the garrisons at Malta and Gibraltar. By that time also many of the Australian, Canadian and New Zealand detachments will have joined the forces on the continent. The bulk of Lord Kitchener's new army of 1,000,000 men, now coming into being, will not, according to an expert military view, be ready until next spring, but owing to the superior class of the men who have responded to the call, their training is progressing rapidly. Among them, according to authoritative circles, there are nearly 200,000 old soldiers who have served in the British regular army for periods ranging from seven to twelve years and these form an admirable stiffening for the new recruits from civil life. To these must be added many men who have served short periods in the volunteer forces of the militia.

The weak men among the new recruits have been rapidly weeded out during the stiff training and most of the men are developing into fine shots while their excellent physical condition will make them a valuable addition to the Allies.

SOCIETY CIRCUS WILL BE GREAT ATTRACTION

The pounding of hammers, buzzing of saws, rumble of lumber and shuffling of feet began to ring out in the Exhibition building on Saturday and since then the various committees with the work in hand have accomplished a great deal toward shaping up the different exhibits, booths, stalls and concessions of the Society Circus in aid of the Belgian Relief Fund to be held on next Monday and Tuesday nights.

The upstairs will be devoted entirely to the Fair of All Nations, in which no less than fifty prominent ladies of the city are working with might and main. This is one of the most important features of the big show and the returns are expected to be commensurate with the time and labor devoted.

Downstairs will be found the various sideshows, the particulars of which are difficult to obtain. Enough, however, has been learned to give a general outline of the attractions. The side show proper will be undertaken by the Eagles, with Harry Evans, of old "Camosun" and "Calumet" days as speaker. The Country Store, Lodge of Cohoes and a multitude of coin machines will be handled by the Canadian Fraternity. The Kangaroo Court, with a capable staff of officers, including George Tite, O. H. Nelson, S. P. McMorris and Frank Mobley in charge, will see that every patron will get a fair deal. The obliging officers of the court will diligently look after the public welfare and if any person has reason to complain they can quickly gain redress by an appeal to the court.

Mrs. D. R. O'Neill, assisted by Mrs. Hugh Dunn in the capacity of cashier will look after the Nigger Babies. Mr. O'Neill is an experienced hand and with his excellent "bally-ho" the Nigger Babies should make a good showing.

Especially trained for this occasion and brought here at considerable expense, the real, live, Dodging Monkey promises to be one of the sensations. John F. Pooler (Count de Courval) himself will be in charge of the monkey.

Mrs. Jack Chisholm, who has personal charge of the Fish Pond, has been working energetically to make her concession successful and all the necessary equipment and supplies have been obtained through her own efforts. The Fish Pond will be one of the big hits.

The Crazy House, by the Scandinavian Society, will occupy one corner and judging from the flaring banners setting forth the attractions inside, patrons should indeed get value received.

No circus is complete without a Wild Man, so of course this feature has not been neglected and a savage monster said to have been brought from a remote part of Africa will be exhibited. Fred Wallace will act as keeper, and assures the general public that there will be no danger in viewing the wild man.

The indoor race course improvised and conducted by George Frizzell is a new and novel invention that will have many attractions for the gentlemen present.

Dancing in the center of the Auditorium will be continuous, so that it should prove a pleasant diversion from the sight-seeing. Mr. C. T. Heward will direct and manage the dancing, for which music will be furnished by the bands.

Mr. Max Heilbronner will handle a little attraction that is intended for the gentlemen, and although occupying a very small space it will doubtless prove a big money maker.

Then there are the slot machines, Country Store and Lodge of Cohoes, all by the Canadian Fraternity. Everything in the Country Store, comprising all sorts of merchandise, will be disposed of in a new sales manner that should make our local merchants sit up and take notice. The inside secrets of fraternal orders will be revealed in the Order of Cohoes and those curious will have an opportunity to inform themselves. These, with the balance of the Canadian Fraternity division, consisting of an endless variety of coin machines, will take up a large part of one end of the big hall.

Mr. Joe Scott and Mr. Joe Hickey will conduct the Baseball Game. Joe and Joe will go some when it comes to handling the baseball game.

Confetti, squakers, peanuts, popcorn and red lemonade will be dispensed by the Daughters of the Empire under the direction of Mrs. Dowling.

From the opening at 7 o'clock until midnight there will not be one idle moment.

Lord Nelson—Old England's Great Naval Hero

WITHOUT Horatio Nelson, England would have been invaded and perhaps conquered by Napoleon. At Trafalgar he smashed forever the French Emperor's hope of creating a naval power. Never was man more idolized and beloved—not only by all of England's people who breathlessly awaited news of his telling victories, but by every man of his fleet. A true Anglo-Saxon, he detested tyrannous powers and legislative usurpations of every kind. He was particularly opposed to prohibitive enactments governing the diet of his men, who, like him, enjoyed Barley-Malt brews, even as their fathers did for countless generations before. Good beer, according to Lord Nelson, has ever been good food. Budweiser Beer for 57 years has been the product of an institution holding the highest ideals known to the ancient art of brewing. The output, due to Quality and Purity, has increased every year until 7,500 men are daily required to keep pace with the public demand. Budweiser sales exceed any other beer by millions of bottles.

If the stories of the big Krupp guns are true there is no reason why the Krupps should not go on indefinitely and build them big enough so that they could fight the world from Berlin. The time may come when the Kaiser will bombard Prince Rupert from Berlin—in his imagination.
Residents east of McBride Street are greatly indebted to the city engineer for the efficient manner in which he arranged to put in the new sidewalk on McBride Street. No doubt the proper way is to tear up the old walk before the new is built and compel the citizens to wade through the mud. Is this engineering a la Mason?

DISLOYAL CHARGE MADE IN COUNCIL
A petition signed by 225 names was presented to the city council last night protesting against the conduct of certain city employees, who refused to recognize the patriotic half-holiday on the occasion of the departure of the Prince Rupert contingent. The names included many of the leading business men and the sponsor for it, Mr. Case, said only time prevented a much larger list of signatures.
It appears that the foreman of one of the city gangs is somewhat in sympathy with the German cause and told his men that there would be no holiday on Friday when the men sailed. Consequently, everybody worked.
The petition asked that the case be investigated and punishment dealt out.
Alderman Maitland moved that the foreman in question be fired and that in future no city employment be given to pro-Germans. He said that men who couldn't appreciate what Britain was doing in the interests of the small nations of the world did not deserve anything of Prince Rupert.
Alderman Montgomery thought it was better to do as the petition asked; investigate the case and deal out punishment according to facts, not reports. If the man was guilty he ought to be fired. It was a serious charge to say that a man was disloyal.
Alderman Maitland said there were too many pro-Germans in the employ of the city. If the city engineer had any backbone or will power he would have fired them long ago.
An amendment to investigate the matter was carried and Aldermen Montgomery, McClymont, Morrissey and Kerr were named by the mayor to do this. They will report back to the council.

SEATTLE PAPER HAS STORY OF RUPERT MAN

Seattle, Nov. 4.—With a bullet hole in his right side and a scar on his forehead, left by the burning touch of a steel bayonet, E. Rondin, of Prince Rupert, B. C., arrived in Seattle yesterday from the battlefields of France. A reservist of the class of '97, he responded to the mother country's call at the outbreak of war and now, unfit for service, he has been invalided home.
Rondin left Montreal with 450 French reservists homeward bound on August 7. Six days later he arrived at Havre and the next day was donning his uniform in Paris, where he was assigned to the Sixty-First Infantry Regiment. He marched sixty miles to the front, where the big Krupps of the Germans were thundering day and night. The Sixty-First was placed in the center of the French line, which sustained the heaviest attack of the Germans as they endeavored to pound their way into Paris. On the field of d'Etrepilly Rondin was first thrown into the conflict. For two days he alternately advanced and retreated with the French command, while the Germans from a hilltop poured hot shot into the ranks.
In Wild Charge.
On the morning of the third day the bugle blew the "charge." The French line dashed forward through a withering hail of bullets until they reached the German trenches. A bayonet seared Rondin's forehead and just as he came in contact with the foe a bullet felled him to the ground unconscious. When he awakened he was in a Paris hospital, having been brought more than sixty miles in an ambulance.
Several of his teeth are missing and his face and body are scarred as a result of being trampled by the fighting soldiers, when released from the hospital the examining physicians pronounced him unfit for further service and he was sent home by way of Marseilles, Lisbon, Portugal, New York and Seattle. Next Sunday he will board a ship for his home in Prince Rupert, where he will try to enlist in the Canadian service.
Wants to Go Back.
"I must get back to the war," said Rondin yesterday. "We are bound to win, for our light artillery is better than that of the Germans and the Allies can bring up more fresh troops all the time." Rondin says that conditions in Southern France seem undisturbed by the big conflict and that the farms and fields are more than able to supply the big army with food for the winter. —P-I.

GOOD PROSPECTS FOR CHEAP COAL

The purchasing agent reported to last night's council that he had made distribution for testing of the coal received from Yellowhead Pass and got replies from a portion of them—about half. They all commended the coal as being of high quality. The mayor reported that he had conveyed this information to the G. T. P. headquarters and asked that a rate of $3.50 freight be granted to the city so that this coal could be made to compete. If this rate was had the coal could be had at $8 per ton. Now it is $11.
Alderman Morrissey pointed out that the company would likely want a guarantee that a certain amount of coal would be handled. Water freight was cheaper than land and at present the distance coal was conveyed by water was 450 miles, while the Yellowhead Pass was 750 miles away. Big barges could be built to convey coal very cheaply from the south by water.
The consensus of opinion was, however, that if coal could now be had for $8 it was good business to go after it. The sales agent of the coal companies interested are also trying to induce the G. T. P. to lower its rate on coal. When Mr. Dalrymple was here he promised a close rate providing the city could show enough business. The result will likely be known shortly.

"SPARTACUS." Stupendous Spectacular Production at Westholme Wednesday and Thursday.

Magnificent interior settings are said to be the rule rather than the exception in "Spartacus," George Kleine's latest and greatest photo-dramatic achievement. The scenic surroundings of a banquetting orgy given by the Roman consul, Crassus, are of splendidly voluptuous character. It fully reveals the capacity of the pictures to indicate spectacle and is marvelous for its wealth of detail.
It was at this bacchanalia, which was delineated in its utmost passion and violence, that the revolt of the gladiators had its inception. Crassus, intoxicated, had instructed Spartacus to fight with his friend and fellow-gladiator. Spartacus refused, for according to Roman usage one of the adversaries must necessarily kill the other. When Crassus ordered the two rebellious arenic fighters seized, a thing unheard of for that time occurred—Spartacus dared to speak of liberty to the slaves. Under the heated eloquence of the Titanic gladiator, the slaves were so swayed from obsequiousness to fighting mood that it was with difficulty Spartacus prevented them from slaying the voluptuary Crassus and his guests. The incipient revolt quickly matured until soon thousands had aligned themselves with the standard of Spartacus. This artistic depiction of the clashes of the gladiators and the Romans and the more charming romantic side of this story will be presented at the Westholme Theatre Wednesday and Thursday. Owing to the great length of this program there will be but one performance each night, commencing at 8:15 p. m. Doors open at 7:30.
